

Avago Technologies Limited Announces Change in Dividend Policy

August 9, 2010

SAN JOSE, Calif. & SINGAPORE, Aug 09, 2010 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Avago Technologies Limited (Nasdaq: AVGO) today announced that its Board of Directors has adopted a dividend policy pursuant to which the Company intends to pay quarterly cash dividends on its ordinary shares.

The Company's Board of Directors has authorized the Company to pay a regular, quarterly cash dividend not to exceed US$0.07 per ordinary share, per quarter, with the declaration and payment of such dividend to commence no earlier than the first quarter of the fiscal year ending October 30, 2011. The actual declaration and payment of any such dividend is in the discretion of, and subject to the further approval by, the Company's Board of Directors, and will depend upon such factors as the Company's earnings levels, capital requirements, contractual restrictions, the Company's overall financial condition and any other factors deemed relevant by the Board of Directors. The payment of dividends is also subject to there being sufficient distributable profits out of which dividends can be declared, as well as the other constraints and factors discussed below.

The payment of cash dividends on the Company's ordinary shares is restricted under the terms of the agreements governing the Company's indebtedness, applicable law and its corporate structure. Pursuant to Singapore law and the Company's articles of association, no dividends may be paid except out of profits. Also, as a holding company, the Company's ability to pay cash dividends on its ordinary shares may be limited by restrictions on its ability to obtain sufficient funds through dividends from subsidiaries.
