Item 8.01. Other Events

On February 27, 2017, the United States District Court for the Central District of California issued an Order and Final Judgment (the “Judgment”) granting final approval of the Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement, dated September 23, 2016 (the “Stipulation”), providing for the settlement of the consolidated federal class action lawsuit, captioned In re Broadcom Corporation Stockholder Litigation, Case No. 8:15-cv-00979 (the “Federal Action”), and the consolidated state court lawsuits, captioned Broadcom Shareholder Cases, JCCP 4834 (together with the Federal Action, the “Litigation”). The settlement released all claims asserted against all defendants in the Litigation and is more fully described in Broadcom Limited’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 9, 2017. Pursuant to the Stipulation, Broadcom Corporation agreed to confirm the following facts concerning the acquisition of Broadcom Corporation:

(1) There currently is no agreement in place binding Broadcom Limited or any subsidiary of Broadcom Limited to pay any fees, expenses or other consideration to the holders of limited partnership units (“LP Units”) of Broadcom Cayman L.P. in connection with any Holdings Offer (as defined in the Amended and Restated Exempted Limited Partnership Agreement of Broadcom Cayman L.P., dated as of February 1, 2016 (the “LPA”)) beyond the consideration offered to the holders of ordinary shares of Broadcom Limited in connection with any such transaction, except to the extent, if any, set forth in the LPA. Broadcom Limited, Henry Nicholas and Henry Samueli each agree that in connection with any Holdings Offer, they will not enter into any agreement for the payment by Broadcom or any of its subsidiaries, of any of Dr. Nicholas’s or Dr. Samueli’s fees or expenses incurred by either of them in their capacity as holders of LP Units (it being understood that, for the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing restriction shall not apply to any obligations in the Support Agreements, dated May 28, 2015, indemnification and advancement of expense obligations due to directors or officers generally, or otherwise in their capacity as a director or officer of Broadcom Limited or any of its subsidiaries).

(2) The holders of LP Units do not have any separate voting or veto rights in connection with any Holdings Offer, except to the extent, if any, set forth in the LPA and the Voting Trust Agreement, dated as of February 1, 2016, among Broadcom Limited, Broadcom Cayman L.P. and the Computershare Trust Company, N.A. (as trustee thereunder), nor is any change to such provisions of the LPA and the Voting Trust Agreement relating to separate voting or veto rights being discussed between Broadcom Cayman L.P. and Broadcom Limited on one hand, and anyone else on the other hand, as of September 23, 2016.
