2. Common Use Facilities.

(a) The following facilities, located as identified on the Site Map, constitute the common use facilities (the “Common Use Facilities”):

- (i) Sports Complex;
- (ii) Clinic;
- (iii) Kitchen; and
- (iv) Convenience Store.

(b) The following facilities, located as identified on the Site Map, constitute the temporary common use facilities (the “Temporary Common Use Facilities”):

- (i) Main Cafeteria Dining Area;
- (ii) Site Data Center;
- (iii) Main Lobby;

- (v) Incoming Store;
- (vi) Site Logistics Area;

- (vii) Logistics Office;
- (viii) Procurement Store;
- (ix) SMI Area; and
- (x) Oracle Support Area.

(c) The Parties shall allow free and unobstructed flow of pedestrian traffic within, and to and from, the Common Use Facilities and the Temporary Use Facilities. If any of the Common Use Facilities or Temporary Common Use Facilities are not free-standing buildings on a Lot, to the extent necessary to access said facilities the Parties hereby grant access to the Common Area hallways, stairways and elevators designated as such by Agilent or Avago within the buildings in which such facilities are located for the sole purpose of accessing same. The right to access and use the Temporary Common Use Facilities shall terminate on the earlier of (i) September 30, 2006, or (ii) the date of completion of the planned separation for each such facility. All costs and expenses relating to such separation shall be allocated in accordance with the MSA. The right of access to, and use of, any Common Use Facility granted herein may be terminated by the Party on whose Lot such facility is located any time after the first anniversary of this Agreement by providing at least 270 days prior written notice of the intended cessation to the other Party ("Cessation Notice"). This Agreement shall continue with respect to such Common Use Facilities which are not specifically terminated by delivery of a Cessation Notice until such time as a Cessation Notice is delivered with respect to any remaining Common Use Facilities.

3. Services and Utilities.

(a) Services to be Provided. In connection with the operation of some of the Common Use Facilities and Temporary Common Use Facilities, the Parties agree to provide to each other, or cause to be provided to both Parties, the various day-to-day services set forth on Exhibit B hereof relating to such facility, which services may be amended to include additional services as the Parties may from time to time agree (collectively, the "Services"). The costs and expenses incurred to provide such Services, plus a reasonable and customary fee as established from time to time by the Parties (the "Services Costs"), shall be allocated between the Parties, based on a budget to be established pursuant hereto with the Services Costs allocated between the Parties in accordance with the applicable allocation method set forth on Exhibit B hereto.

(b) Budget; Payment. Within thirty (30) days following the Effective Date and thereafter at least sixty (60) days prior to January 1 of each calendar year thereafter in which a Party is responsible for providing any Service, such Party shall devise and deliver to the other Party a budget on a monthly basis for such calendar year that sets forth the estimated costs relating to the provision of the Service. Within thirty (30) days of such delivery, the Parties shall work together to resolve any issues raised by either Party and shall finalize such budget by the commencement of the relevant calendar year. The Parties agree to pay their allocated share of such costs within thirty (30) days of receipt of a statement for such item. An administrative fee equal to five percent (5%) of such fees shall be included in the monthly invoice.

(c) Standard of Services. The Parties acknowledge that it is impracticable to define the full scope of each Service to be provided pursuant hereto. As a result, each Party hereby agrees to use its good faith, commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any Service required to be provided hereunder shall be provided, to the fullest extent possible, in a manner consistent with the provision of any comparable service provided at the Penang Site to Agilent or ATI, as the case may be, immediately prior to the Effective Date.

(d) Termination of Services. The provision of any Service may be terminated without cause and the level or scope of the Service may be materially modified by the Party providing such Service upon 180 days prior written notice to the other Party and the obligation to provide a Service shall automatically terminate upon the termination of the right to use the related Common Use Facilities or Temporary Common Use Facilities pursuant to Section 2(c) above. Such cessation or modification shall result in a pro rata adjustment to the fees payable with respect thereto.

(e) Separation of Utilities. The Parties agree that the Utilities serving each Lot are intended to be separated in connection with the Business Sale as part of the separation matters contemplated under the MSA. It is the intent and agreement of the Parties to separate the Utilities as soon as possible following the Effective Date and in any event no later than July 31, 2006. The Parties agree to undertake such actions and execute such documents as are reasonably required in connection therewith. All costs and expenses incurred for such separation of Utilities shall be allocated between the Parties in accordance with the MSA. Prior to completion of the separation of the Utilities, the Parties shall allocate the cost of any such Utilities which are not separately metered for each Lot (or a building within a Lot) between themselves based upon each Party's Proportionate Share of the Gross Building Area of the Penang Site. As of the Effective Date, the Parties agree that the Gross Building Area on the Agilent Lot is 831,000 and on the Avago Lot is 401,000.

4. Easements.

(a) Ingress, Egress and Parking Easements. For the benefit of the respective Lots and the Parties, and their respective lessees, sublessees, employees, licensees, customers and business invitees, each Party establishes as an appurtenance to its respective Lot non-exclusive easements and rights of way (i) for pedestrian ingress to and egress from the Common Areas within the Lots; (ii) for vehicular ingress to and egress from the Common Areas within the Lots; and (iii) for temporary parking on the Parking Areas within the Lots. The easement for temporary parking on the Lots shall consist of the right to utilize a number of parking spaces on the other Party's Lot as follows: (a) the aggregate number of parking spaces available to such Party (on its own Lot and the other Party's Lot) shall equal a percentage of the total parking spaces available for use on the Penang Site (the "Parking Allocation"), and (b) the Parking Allocation shall be determined by dividing (x) the total square footage of all improvements on such Party's Lot, by (y) the total square footage of all Improvements on the Penang Site. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to prevent (a) the installation and maintenance of the Common Area Improvements or (b) changes in the Common Areas in accordance with this Agreement; provided, however, except with the prior written consent of the other Party, neither Party shall reduce the number of parking spaces located on its Lot as of the Effective Date. Each Party further agrees to add parking space sufficient to accommodate reasonably anticipated additional parking needs generated by any further development of its respective Lot.

(b) Sewer Line Utility Easement. For the benefit of the respective Lots and the Parties, each Party hereby grants, as an appurtenance to its respective Lot, a perpetual non-exclusive easement across, over, and under the Common Areas, including, without limitation, the right to install, maintain, use, repair and replace underground pipes, ducts, conducts and wires for the purpose of transmitting and distributing sewer and drainage line; provided, however, that no such public utilities and installations shall be located above the surface of the Common Areas of any parcel, except for such above ground appurtenances as are reasonably necessary for the proper functioning or maintenance of such utility installation. Each Party shall be responsible for the maintenance and repair of the portion of the sewer and drainage that runs under its respective Lot. If a Party has not addressed the need for repair of a portion of the sewer or drainage line running under its Lot within a reasonable time period (determined on a case-by-case basis, depending on the specific repair need) after written notice of such from the Non-Defaulting Party, the Non-Defaulting Party may take such actions as shall be reasonably required to complete such repair. All reasonable costs and expenses relating to the repair and maintenance of the sewer and drainage line by the Non-Defaulting Party's Lot shall be allocated between the Parties based on the same allocation method as set forth in Exhibit C for allocation of sewer line maintenance and repair, provided, however, that the Non-Defaulting Party shall be reimbursed a 10% administrative fee for handling the repair.

(c) License and Right to Use Easements. It is the intent of the Parties to grant to each other perpetual easements as set forth in Sections 4.A and 4.B. above. The Parties acknowledge, however, that prior to the transfer of Agilent's interest in the Avago Lot to Avago pursuant to the Property Sale Agreement, Avago does not hold a legal interest in the Avago Lot under which it can grant such easement rights to Agilent. Therefore, so long as Avago's interest in the Avago Lot is a tenancy under the Primary Tenancy Agreement (or any successor tenancy or sublease agreement), the easements hereunder intended to benefit Agilent and the Agilent Lot shall currently be deemed rights retained by Agilent as landlord under the Primary Tenancy Agreement and shall automatically be deemed easements granted by Avago to Agilent upon the consummation of the transfer of Agilent's interest in the Avago Lot to Avago pursuant to the Property Sale Agreement.

(d) Registration of Easements. Each Party agrees, for itself and its successors and assigns, that it shall execute such documents in registerable form as may be reasonably necessary to effectuate the provisions of this Section 4, including, without limitation, any documents granting easements, licenses and similar rights to utility companies and governmental bodies or agencies thereof. The Parties agree to take such actions so as to enable the registration of easements so granted hereunder pursuant to the provisions of the National Land Code, 1965, and for such registered easements to be effective for the duration of this Agreement, as provided herein. In the event the grant of the easements hereunder is subject to approval from the relevant authorities and the Parties agree that they shall take such reasonable actions and execute such documents so as to obtain such approvals from the relevant authority as soon as commercially practicable. For the avoidance of doubt, each Party hereby agrees that the registration of such easements granted in favor of the other by the other Party are for their benefit respectively and each further agree that the non-registration of such easement pursuant to the National Land

Code, 1965 arising from the inability to obtain the approvals from the relevant authority shall not entitle the affected Party to terminate the easements and rights of way granted hereby.

(e) No Other Use. The Common Areas shall not be used for any purpose or by any Person not permitted by this Agreement.

5. Maintenance of Common Areas.

(a) Common Area Maintenance. Except for work required of any Party hereunder, Operator shall maintain or cause to be maintained the Common Areas and Common Area Improvements in a good, clean and first-class condition, consistent with past practice, such maintenance to include, without limitation, the following:

- (i) Maintenance, repair and replacement of all paved surfaces, in a level, smooth, and evenly covered condition with the type of surfacing material originally installed or such substitute as shall in all respects be at least equal to such original material in quality, use, appearance, and durability;
- (ii) Maintenance, repair and replacement of all curbs, curb-cuts, gutters, walkways and retaining walls;
- (iii) Painting and striping of all Parking Areas;
- (iv) Placement, maintenance, repair and replacement of all necessary appropriate directional signs, markers and lines, and maintenance, repair and replacement of any artificial lighting facilities, including the replacement of fixtures and bulbs;
- (v) Provision of water for the landscaping in the Common Areas;
- (vi) Maintenance of all landscaped areas and replacement of shrubbery and planting, and flowers including weeding, pruning and fertilizing, and repairing automatic sprinkler systems;
- (vii) Removal of all paper, debris, filth, refuse, including thorough sweeping in the Common Areas necessary to keep the Common Areas in a clean and orderly condition;
- (viii) Compliance with all applicable requirements of governmental agencies pertaining to the Common Area and Common Area Improvements, including, without limitation, any alterations or additions required to be maintained in or about the Common Area under any laws, statutes, regulations or requirements now or hereafter adopted and made applicable to the Common Areas;
- (ix) To the extent deemed reasonably necessary by the Operator, provision of individuals to supervise traffic at entrances and exits to the Penang Site as conditions reasonably require in order to maintain orderly and proper traffic flow in the Penang Site;

(x) To the extent deemed reasonably necessary by the Operator, provision of on-site security personnel during the hours that the Penang Site is open for business to the public or periodic patrol by security personnel during the hours that the Penang Site is closed;

(xi) Collection of each Party's Proportionate Share of CAM Costs, to the extent the Operator believes, in its good faith judgment, that the collection efforts are worthwhile; and

(xii) Retention of records of the grading and drainage plan and other plans and specifications for the installation of the Common Area Improvements, and approval or disapproval of the quality of Common Area Improvements to be constructed.

(b) Each Party shall furnish, at its sole cost and expense, all electricity for the lighting of the Common Areas within such Party's Lot. Each Party shall comply with all rules and guidelines established by the Operator with respect to such lighting systems including, without limitation, the times during which such lighting systems are to be operated.

6. Payment of CAM Costs.

(a) Costs and Payment. The Operator shall pay for CAM Costs out of monies collected from the Parties and the Operator shall have no obligation to advance CAM Costs or other expenses. The annual CAM Costs payable hereunder shall be estimated by the Operator in its reasonable discretion based on the anticipated costs and expenses over the forthcoming twelve (12) month period and shall be allocated between the Parties as provided on Exhibit C hereto. The estimated CAM Costs shall be paid in advance by each Party as the Operator shall direct, but not more frequently than monthly or less frequently than annually. The amount of each payment may be adjusted from time to time by the Operator based upon the Operator's reasonable expectation of a change to the estimated CAM Costs. The Operator shall true up actual to budgeted expenses as soon as reasonably practical after the end of the year and send out a statement reflecting any adjustments required (the "Reconciliation Statement"). If the payments made by a Party during a calendar year exceed the actual amount required for the performance of the obligations hereunder for such calendar year, at the Operator's option such excess shall be (i) credited to CAM Costs next due from such Party hereunder; (ii) refunded to the Party; (iii) applied, for the benefit of the Penang Site, to a reserve account for future contingencies, if such application is reasonably deemed necessary by the Operator; or (iv) all or any combination of clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) above. If the Reconciliation Statement shows that an additional sum is due to the Operator, such Party shall pay such sum to the Operator within thirty (30) days after the date the Reconciliation Statement was mailed.

(b) Records. The Operator or its designees shall keep and maintain complete, accurate and customary records and books of account of the CAM Costs for one (1) year after the end of the calendar year to which such records and books of account pertain. The Operator may destroy any records after such one-year period, unless there is an active dispute over CAM Costs for the year that would then be subject to destruction. A Party or its representative shall have the right, at such Party's sole expense, to audit the Operator's books and records showing CAM Costs upon at least ten (10) business days prior written notice and during normal working days and hours at any time within one hundred eighty (180) days following the Operator's delivery of the Annual Statement. Such Party shall pay all fees and expenses of such audit unless the audit discloses that Operating Expenses were overstated by the Operator by five percent (5%) or more, in which case the Operator shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such audit.

(c) Operator's Failure to Maintain Common Areas. If the Operator is in material default in the performance of its obligations as the Operator, then Avago shall have the right to give the Operator written notice of such default specifying the particulars in respect to which the Operator's performance is deemed to be a material default. If at the end of a thirty (30) day period from receipt of such notice, the Operator's material default has not been corrected, then Avago shall have the right to remove the Operator, effective upon written notice, and to assume the obligations of the Operator or appoint a New Operator pursuant to Section 6(d) below. In such event, the reasonable costs so incurred by Avago with respect to the replacement of the Operator shall be included in the CAM Costs payable by all Parties and reimbursed to Avago by the Operator from monies received through CAM Costs payments by the Parties. In the event that (x) a New Operator is engaged pursuant to Section 5(d) below which is not affiliated with either Party, and (y) Agilent (or an affiliated entity) remains the owner of the Agilent Lot, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith towards mutually-acceptable rights with respect to the removal of such New Operator for failure to perform and, upon any agreement relating thereto, the Parties shall amend this subsection (c) accordingly.

(d) Replacement of Operator. Upon resignation or removal of the Operator ("Former Operator"), the Parties shall select and engage a new operator ("New Operator"), who need not be a Party. On the effective date of the resignation or removal, the Former Operator shall be released from all subsequent duties, obligations and responsibilities imposed upon the Operator by this Agreement, and the New Operator shall assume such subsequent duties, obligations and responsibilities as the Operator. Such takeover shall not relieve the Former Operator of any of its other duties, obligations or responsibilities as a Party under this Agreement. Upon any such takeover, the Former Operator shall transfer to the New Operator (i) all prepaid CAM Costs not previously spent or reserved by the Former Operator to pay CAM Costs already incurred or Maintenance Fees already earned, and (ii) copies of all applicable books and records relating to the operation and maintenance of the Common Areas and construction of Common Area Improvements. The Former Operator shall provide any and all information and documentation to effectuate the transfer of responsibility, including, without limitation, notification to insurers and transfer or termination of insurance policies and service contracts. Such transfer of the maintenance and operation of the Common Area shall not (i) obligate any Party to pay any cost or expense in respect to the maintenance and operation of the Common Area and Common Area Improvements except such Party's Proportionate Share of CAM Costs, (ii) relieve either Party of its obligations to pay its respective Proportionate Share, or (iii) relieve the Former Operator from any liability or responsibility with respect to the operation and maintenance of the Common Areas and Common Area Improvements prior to such transfer. The Former Operator shall be entitled to collect from the Parties any unpaid amounts to which the Former Operator is entitled under this Agreement. If Agilent is the Operator, then upon sale of the Agilent Lot to an unaffiliated third party, Agilent shall resign as the Operator and Avago shall have the right to become the New Operator or name a third party to so act. At such time as neither Agilent nor Avago own a Lot at the Penang Site, the New Operator shall be either the successor to the last of Agilent or Avago to own a Lot at the Penang Site or a third party designated by such successor.

(e) Entrances.

(i) Each Party shall maintain and repair at its sole cost and expense all present and future entrance buildings on its respective Lot that provide access to the Penang Site. Each Party shall be entitled to relocate, abandon or add entrance facilities to its Lot as it deems appropriate; provided, however, no such relocation, abandonment or addition shall unreasonably interfere with, restrict or impair the utilization of the Penang Site by the other Party.

(ii) Subject to applicable Law, each Party shall have rights to install, maintain and repair equal signage at all entrances to the Penang Site located on the other Party's Lot.

7. Use Restrictions. Except with the prior written consent of the owner of the other Lot or as otherwise may be provided in any Primary Parcel Agreement, the Parties agree that neither Lot may be used so as to create (a) an environmental hazard or nuisance that is in violation of any applicable Law, (b) any other burden that requires additional utilities or other improvements to the Penang Site, unless such additional burden, including any added cost to operate, remedy or maintain the same, is assumed in writing by the party adding the burden, or (c) a use or condition not specifically allowed as a "primary" use under the then-applicable zoning regulations applicable to the Lot in question. Additional buildings or expansion of existing buildings may be placed on either Lot by the owner thereof; provided, however, any additional burdens on parking, the sewer and drainage lines, entrance gates or other services or facilities on the Penang Site shall be exclusively mitigated and paid for by the Party adding such improvements. The Parties further agree to screen from view or locate material and waste storage facilities so as to minimize the visual impact of such items.

8. Right of First Offer. In the event that a Party (for the purpose of this Section 8, the "Seller") should decide that it wishes to sell all or any portion of its Lot (the "Sale Lot") to an unaffiliated third party, other than in connection with the sale of all or substantially all of the business assets or operations located on such Party's Lot to the same purchaser of the business assets or operations or an affiliate of such purchaser as is buying the Sale Lot, the non-selling Lot owner (the "Buyer") shall have the right of first offer (the "Right of First Offer") with respect to the purchase of the Sale Lot from the Seller before any offer of the Lot is made to third parties. The Right of First Offer shall be exercised in such manner and subject to such terms and conditions as are set forth in this Section 8. A Sale Lot shall not be transferred to an unaffiliated third party without the prior written consent of the Buyer hereto or otherwise in strict compliance with the provisions of this Section 8. For the purposes of this Section 8, the "Purchase Price" shall mean such amount as is designated by the Seller (the "Seller's Offer") in a written notice to the Buyer advising the Buyer of its interest in selling the Sale Lot and designating, in addition to Purchase Price, the Sale Lot, proposed closing date, and any other material conditions or restrictions intended to govern the sale of the Sale Lot. If the Buyer wishes to enter into a contract for the purchase of the Sale Lot offered for sale in the Seller's Offer, the Buyer shall so inform the Seller in writing and the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to execute a contract for the sale and purchase of the Sale Lot within thirty (30) days after the election is received by the Seller. Such contract shall provide for closing of the sale within sixty (60) days of the contract date. If the Buyer does not so notify the Seller in a timely manner of its election to enter into a contract for the purchase of the Sale Lot pursuant to Seller's Offer, the Seller shall be free to offer the Sale Lot to an unaffiliated third party purchaser, on terms no less favorable to the Seller than those set forth in the Seller's Offer. If the Seller does not thereafter complete a sale of the Sale Lot within nine (9) months following Buyer's lack of acceptance of Seller's offer on terms no less favorable to the Seller than are set forth in the Seller's Offer, any sale of the Sale Lot or any part thereof shall again be subject to all terms of this Section 8 as though the Sale Lot had not previously been offered to the Buyer. At any time, the Buyer may request in writing and shall be entitled to receive a copy of any contract, closing document or other written instrument pertaining to the sale to any third party by the Seller of a Sale Lot. If the Seller has strictly complied with the terms of this Section 8, at the Seller's written request in connection with the closing of a sale of a Sale Lot, the Buyer shall affirm in writing to any interested party that the Seller has complied with the terms of this Section 8.

9. Duration of Agreement. Except as specifically otherwise set forth herein, the agreements, easements, restrictions, rights, obligations and duties contained in this Agreement shall be perpetual.

10. Warehouse. Agilent hereby covenants and agrees that it shall construct, or cause to be constructed, a new warehouse building on the Avago Lot in the approximate location identified on the Site Map (the "New Warehouse"). The Parties intend such New Warehouse to replicate for Avago the warehouse facilities located on the Agilent Lot which were utilized by Agilent in connection with the Business prior to the closing of the Business Sale. The New Warehouse shall be constructed utilizing new materials in manner, size (both cubic and square feet) and quality of materials and workmanship consistent with Agilent's existing warehouse facilities and complying with all applicable laws and zoning and building codes. All costs and expenses relating to the construction of the New Warehouse shall be allocated between the Parties in accordance with the MSA.

11. Indemnification.

(a) Each Party that enters the Lot of the other Party pursuant to the exercise of the rights granted herein ("Indemnitor") covenants and agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other Party and Permittees (collectively, an "Indemnitee") from and against all claims, costs, expenses and liability (including reasonable attorneys' fees and cost of suit incurred in connection with all claims) including any action or proceedings brought hereon, arising from or as a result of the death of, or any accident, injury, loss, claim, liability, cost or damage whatsoever caused to any person, property or entity, which shall occur on the Lot or portion thereof owned by such Indemnitee, except for claims caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee or its Permittees wherever the same may occur. In no event shall either Party be liable to any Indemnitee under this Agreement for any consequential (including, without limitation, any injury to such Indemnitee's person or business or loss of income or profit therefrom), punitive, exemplary or special damages.

(b) Each Party (the "Releasor") hereby releases and waives for itself and on behalf of its insurer, the other Party (the "Releasees") from any liability for any loss or damage to all property of such Releasor located upon any portion of the Penang Site, which loss or damage is of the type generally covered by fire and casualty insurance with all available extended coverage endorsements, irrespective of any negligence on the part of the Releasees which may have contributed to or caused such loss, or of the amount of such insurance required or actually needed, appropriate endorsements to its policies of insurance with respect to the foregoing release; it being understood, however, that failure to obtain such endorsements shall not affect the release hereinabove given.

12. General Provisions.

(a) Coordinating Committee.

(i) Within thirty (30) days after the date hereof, the Parties shall establish a coordinating committee (the “Coordinating Committee”) which shall consist of four (4) members, two (2) of which shall be appointed by Agilent and two (2) of which shall be appointed by Avago. Each Party, upon prior written notice to the other Party, may from time to time remove or replace any member appointed by such Party. So long as Agilent and Avago are the owners of the Lots (or Avago is the tenant under the Primary Tenancy Agreement (or any successor agreement)), this Coordinating Committee shall be the same one provided for under the Primary Parcel Tenancy Agreement.

(ii) Except as the Parties may otherwise agree in writing, the Coordinating Committee shall have the power and the responsibility under this Agreement to:

(A) act as a forum for the liaison between the Parties with respect to the day-to-day implementation of this Agreement;

(B) subject to Section 12(b), seek to resolve disputes; and

(C) undertake such other functions as the Parties may agree in writing.

(b) Disputes and Governing Law.

(i) This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Malaysia, without reference to the choice of law principles thereof.

(ii) Any Party seeking the resolution of a dispute arising under this Agreement must provide written notice of such dispute to the other Party, which notice shall describe the nature of such dispute. All such disputes shall be referred initially to the Coordinating Committee for resolution. Decisions of the Coordinating Committee under this Section 12(b) shall be made by unanimous vote of all members and shall be final and legally binding on the Parties. If a dispute is resolved by the Coordinating Committee, then the terms of the resolution and settlement of such dispute shall be set forth in writing and signed by both Parties. In the event that the Coordinating Committee does not resolve a dispute within thirty (30) days of the submission thereof, such dispute shall be resolved in accordance with Section 12(b)(iii). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Agilent and Avago shall each continue to perform their obligations under this Agreement during the pendency of such dispute in accordance with this Agreement.

(iii) The Parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the Parties shall be entitled to an injunction to prevent any breach of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement by bringing a relevant action in the courts located in Penang, Malaysia, in addition to any other remedy to which any Party may be entitled at law or in equity. (c) Waiver. One Party's consent to or approval of any act by the other Party requiring the first Party's consent or approval shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary the first Party's consent to or approval of any subsequent similar act by the other Party. No delay or omission in the exercise of any right or remedy accruing to either Party upon any breach by the other Party under this Agreement shall impair such right or remedy or be construed as a waiver of any such breach theretofore or hereafter occurring. The waiver by either Party of any breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provisions herein contained.

(d) Force Majeure. Any prevention, delay, or stoppage due to strikes, lockouts, inclement weather, labor disputes, inability to obtain labor, materials, fuels or reasonable substitutes therefor, governmental restrictions, regulations, controls, action or inaction, civil commotion, fire or other acts of God, and other causes beyond the reasonable control of either Party to perform shall excuse the performance by such Party, for a reasonable period not to exceed the period of any said prevention, delay, or stoppage, of any obligation hereunder.

2. Common Use Facilities.

(a) The following facilities, located as identified on the Site Map, constitute the common use facilities (the “Common Use Facilities”):

- (i) Sports Complex;

The right to access and use the Temporary Common Use Facilities shall terminate on the earlier of (i) September 30, 2006, or (ii) the date of completion of the planned separation for each such facility. All costs and expenses relating to such separation shall be allocated in accordance with the MSA. The right of access to, and use of, any Common Use Facility granted herein may be terminated by the Party on whose Lot such facility is located any time after the first anniversary of this Agreement by providing at least 270 days prior written notice of the intended cessation to the other Party ("Cessation Notice"). This Agreement shall continue with respect to such Common Use Facilities which are not specifically terminated by delivery of a Cessation Notice until such time as a Cessation Notice is delivered with respect to any remaining Common Use Facilities.

3. Services and Utilities.

(a) Services to be Provided. In connection with the operation of some of the Common Use Facilities and Temporary Common Use Facilities, the Parties agree to provide to each other, or cause to be provided to both Parties, the various day-to-day services set forth on Exhibit B hereof relating to such facility, which services may be amended to include additional services as the Parties may from time to time agree (collectively, the "Services"). The costs and expenses incurred to provide such Services, plus a reasonable and customary fee as established from time to time by the Parties (the "Services Costs"), shall be allocated between the Parties, based on a budget to be established pursuant hereto with the Services Costs allocated between the Parties in accordance with the applicable allocation method set forth on Exhibit B hereto.

(b) Budget; Payment. Within thirty (30) days following the Effective Date and thereafter at least sixty (60) days prior to January 1 of each calendar year thereafter in which a Party is responsible for providing any Service, such Party shall devise and deliver to the other Party a budget on a monthly basis for such calendar year that sets forth the estimated costs relating to the provision of the Service. Within thirty (30) days of such delivery, the Parties shall work together to resolve any issues raised by either Party and shall finalize such budget by the commencement of the relevant calendar year. The Parties agree to pay their allocated share of such costs within thirty (30) days of receipt of a statement for such item. An administrative fee equal to five percent (5%) of such fees shall be included in the monthly invoice.

(c) Standard of Services. The Parties acknowledge that it is impracticable to define the full scope of each Service to be provided pursuant hereto. As a result, each Party hereby agrees to use its good faith, commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any Service required to be provided hereunder shall be provided, to the fullest extent possible, in a manner consistent with the provision of any comparable service provided at the Penang Site to Agilent or ATI, as the case may be, immediately prior to the Effective Date.

(d) Termination of Services. The provision of any Service may be terminated without cause and the level or scope of the Service may be materially modified by the Party providing such Service upon 180 days prior written notice to the other Party and the obligation to provide a Service shall automatically terminate upon the termination of the right to use the related Common Use Facilities or Temporary Common Use Facilities pursuant to Section 2(c) above. Such cessation or modification shall result in a pro rata adjustment to the fees payable with respect thereto.

(e) Separation of Utilities. The Parties agree that the Utilities serving each Lot are intended to be separated in connection with the Business Sale as part of the separation matters contemplated under the MSA. It is the intent and agreement of the Parties to separate the Utilities as soon as possible following the Effective Date and in any event no later than July 31, 2006. The Parties agree to undertake such actions and execute such documents as are reasonably required in connection therewith. All costs and expenses incurred for such separation of Utilities shall be allocated between the Parties in accordance with the MSA. Prior to completion of the separation of the Utilities, the Parties shall allocate the cost of any such Utilities which are not separately metered for each Lot (or a building within a Lot) between themselves based upon each Party's Proportionate Share of the Gross Building Area of the Penang Site. As of the Effective Date, the Parties agree that the Gross Building Area on the Agilent Lot is 831,000 and on the Avago Lot is 401,000.

4. Easements.

(a) Ingress, Egress and Parking Easements. For the benefit of the respective Lots and the Parties, and their respective lessees, sublessees, employees, licensees, customers and business invitees, each Party establishes as an appurtenance to its respective Lot non-exclusive easements and rights of way (i) for pedestrian ingress to and egress from the Common Areas within the Lots; (ii) for vehicular ingress to and egress from the Common Areas within the Lots; and (iii) for temporary parking on the Parking Areas within the Lots. The easement for temporary parking on the Lots shall consist of the right to utilize a number of parking spaces on the other Party's Lot as follows: (a) the aggregate number of parking spaces available to such Party (on its own Lot and the other Party's Lot) shall equal a percentage of the total parking spaces available for use on the Penang Site (the "Parking Allocation"), and (b) the Parking Allocation shall be determined by dividing (x) the total square footage of all improvements on such Party's Lot, by (y) the total square footage of all Improvements on the Penang Site. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to prevent (a) the installation and maintenance of the Common Area Improvements or (b) changes in the Common Areas in accordance with this Agreement; provided, however, except with the prior written consent of the other Party, neither Party shall reduce the number of parking spaces located on its Lot as of the Effective Date. Each Party further agrees to add parking space sufficient to accommodate reasonably anticipated additional parking needs generated by any further development of its respective Lot.

(b) Sewer Line Utility Easement. For the benefit of the respective Lots and the Parties, each Party hereby grants, as an appurtenance to its respective Lot, a perpetual non-exclusive easement across, over, and under the Common Areas, including, without limitation, the right to install, maintain, use, repair and replace underground pipes, ducts, conducts and wires for the purpose of transmitting and distributing sewer and drainage line; provided, however, that no such public utilities and installations shall be located above the surface of the Common Areas of any parcel, except for such above ground appurtenances as are reasonably necessary for the proper functioning or maintenance of such utility installation. Each Party shall be responsible for the maintenance and repair of the portion of the sewer and drainage that runs under its respective Lot. If a Party has not addressed the need for repair of a portion of the sewer or drainage line running under its Lot within a reasonable time period (determined on a case-by-case basis, depending on the specific repair need) after written notice of such from the Non-Defaulting Party, the Non-Defaulting Party may take such actions as shall be reasonably required to complete such repair. All reasonable costs and expenses relating to the repair and maintenance of the sewer and drainage line by the Non-Defaulting Party's Lot shall be allocated between the Parties based on the same allocation method as set forth in Exhibit C for allocation of sewer line maintenance and repair, provided, however, that the Non-Defaulting Party shall be reimbursed a 10% administrative fee for handling the repair.

(c) License and Right to Use Easements. It is the intent of the Parties to grant to each other perpetual easements as set forth in Sections 4.A and 4.B. above. The Parties acknowledge, however, that prior to the transfer of Agilent's interest in the Avago Lot to Avago pursuant to the Property Sale Agreement, Avago does not hold a legal interest in the Avago Lot under which it can grant such easement rights to Agilent. Therefore, so long as Avago's interest in the Avago Lot is a tenancy under the Primary Tenancy Agreement (or any successor tenancy or sublease agreement), the easements hereunder intended to benefit Agilent and the Agilent Lot shall currently be deemed rights retained by Agilent as landlord under the Primary Tenancy Agreement and shall automatically be deemed easements granted by Avago to Agilent upon the consummation of the transfer of Agilent's interest in the Avago Lot to Avago pursuant to the Property Sale Agreement.

(d) Registration of Easements. Each Party agrees, for itself and its successors and assigns, that it shall execute such documents in registerable form as may be reasonably necessary to effectuate the provisions of this Section 4, including, without limitation, any documents granting easements, licenses and similar rights to utility companies and governmental bodies or agencies thereof. The Parties agree to take such actions so as to enable the registration of easements so granted hereunder pursuant to the provisions of the National Land Code, 1965, and for such registered easements to be effective for the duration of this Agreement, as provided herein. In the event the grant of the easements hereunder is subject to approval from the relevant authorities and the Parties agree that they shall take such reasonable actions and execute such documents so as to obtain such approvals from the relevant authority as soon as commercially practicable. For the avoidance of doubt, each Party hereby agrees that the registration of such easements granted in favor of the other by the other Party are for their benefit respectively and each further agree that the non-registration of such easement pursuant to the National Land

Code, 1965 arising from the inability to obtain the approvals from the relevant authority shall not entitle the affected Party to terminate the easements and rights of way granted hereby.

(e) No Other Use. The Common Areas shall not be used for any purpose or by any Person not permitted by this Agreement.

5. Maintenance of Common Areas.

(a) Common Area Maintenance. Except for work required of any Party hereunder, Operator shall maintain or cause to be maintained the Common Areas and Common Area Improvements in a good, clean and first-class condition, consistent with past practice, such maintenance to include, without limitation, the following:

- (i) Maintenance, repair and replacement of all paved surfaces, in a level, smooth, and evenly covered condition with the type of surfacing material originally installed or such substitute as shall in all respects be at least equal to such original material in quality, use, appearance, and durability;
- (ii) Maintenance, repair and replacement of all curbs, curb-cuts, gutters, walkways and retaining walls;
- (iii) Painting and striping of all Parking Areas;
- (iv) Placement, maintenance, repair and replacement of all necessary appropriate directional signs, markers and lines, and maintenance, repair and replacement of any artificial lighting facilities, including the replacement of fixtures and bulbs;
- (v) Provision of water for the landscaping in the Common Areas;
- (vi) Maintenance of all landscaped areas and replacement of shrubbery and planting, and flowers including weeding, pruning and fertilizing, and repairing automatic sprinkler systems;
- (vii) Removal of all paper, debris, filth, refuse, including thorough sweeping in the Common Areas necessary to keep the Common Areas in a clean and orderly condition;
- (viii) Compliance with all applicable requirements of governmental agencies pertaining to the Common Area and Common Area Improvements, including, without limitation, any alterations or additions required to be maintained in or about the Common Area under any laws, statutes, regulations or requirements now or hereafter adopted and made applicable to the Common Areas;
- (ix) To the extent deemed reasonably necessary by the Operator, provision of individuals to supervise traffic at entrances and exits to the Penang Site as conditions reasonably require in order to maintain orderly and proper traffic flow in the Penang Site;

(x) To the extent deemed reasonably necessary by the Operator, provision of on-site security personnel during the hours that the Penang Site is open for business to the public or periodic patrol by security personnel during the hours that the Penang Site is closed;

(xi) Collection of each Party's Proportionate Share of CAM Costs, to the extent the Operator believes, in its good faith judgment, that the collection efforts are worthwhile; and

(xii) Retention of records of the grading and drainage plan and other plans and specifications for the installation of the Common Area Improvements, and approval or disapproval of the quality of Common Area Improvements to be constructed.

(b) Each Party shall furnish, at its sole cost and expense, all electricity for the lighting of the Common Areas within such Party's Lot. Each Party shall comply with all rules and guidelines established by the Operator with respect to such lighting systems including, without limitation, the times during which such lighting systems are to be operated.

6. Payment of CAM Costs.

(a) Costs and Payment. The Operator shall pay for CAM Costs out of monies collected from the Parties and the Operator shall have no obligation to advance CAM Costs or other expenses. The annual CAM Costs payable hereunder shall be estimated by the Operator in its reasonable discretion based on the anticipated costs and expenses over the forthcoming twelve (12) month period and shall be allocated between the Parties as provided on Exhibit C hereto. The estimated CAM Costs shall be paid in advance by each Party as the Operator shall direct, but not more frequently than monthly or less frequently than annually. The amount of each payment may be adjusted from time to time by the Operator based upon the Operator's reasonable expectation of a change to the estimated CAM Costs. The Operator shall true up actual to budgeted expenses as soon as reasonably practical after the end of the year and send out a statement reflecting any adjustments required (the "Reconciliation Statement"). If the payments made by a Party during a calendar year exceed the actual amount required for the performance of the obligations hereunder for such calendar year, at the Operator's option such excess shall be (i) credited to CAM Costs next due from such Party hereunder; (ii) refunded to the Party; (iii) applied, for the benefit of the Penang Site, to a reserve account for future contingencies, if such application is reasonably deemed necessary by the Operator; or (iv) all or any combination of clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) above. If the Reconciliation Statement shows that an additional sum is due to the Operator, such Party shall pay such sum to the Operator within thirty (30) days after the date the Reconciliation Statement was mailed.

(b) Records. The Operator or its designees shall keep and maintain complete, accurate and customary records and books of account of the CAM Costs for one (1) year after the end of the calendar year to which such records and books of account pertain. The Operator may destroy any records after such one-year period, unless there is an active dispute over CAM Costs for the year that would then be subject to destruction. A Party or its representative shall have the right, at such Party's sole expense, to audit the Operator's books and records showing CAM Costs upon at least ten (10) business days prior written notice and during normal working days and hours at any time within one hundred eighty (180) days following the Operator's delivery of the Annual Statement. Such Party shall pay all fees and expenses of such audit unless the audit discloses that Operating Expenses were overstated by the Operator by five percent (5%) or more, in which case the Operator shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such audit.

(c) Operator's Failure to Maintain Common Areas. If the Operator is in material default in the performance of its obligations as the Operator, then Avago shall have the right to give the Operator written notice of such default specifying the particulars in respect to which the Operator's performance is deemed to be a material default. If at the end of a thirty (30) day period from receipt of such notice, the Operator's material default has not been corrected, then Avago shall have the right to remove the Operator, effective upon written notice, and to assume the obligations of the Operator or appoint a New Operator pursuant to Section 6(d) below. In such event, the reasonable costs so incurred by Avago with respect to the replacement of the Operator shall be included in the CAM Costs payable by all Parties and reimbursed to Avago by the Operator from monies received through CAM Costs payments by the Parties. In the event that (x) a New Operator is engaged pursuant to Section 5(d) below which is not affiliated with either Party, and (y) Agilent (or an affiliated entity) remains the owner of the Agilent Lot, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith towards mutually-acceptable rights with respect to the removal of such New Operator for failure to perform and, upon any agreement relating thereto, the Parties shall amend this subsection (c) accordingly.

(d) Replacement of Operator. Upon resignation or removal of the Operator ("Former Operator"), the Parties shall select and engage a new operator ("New Operator"), who need not be a Party. On the effective date of the resignation or removal, the Former Operator shall be released from all subsequent duties, obligations and responsibilities imposed upon the Operator by this Agreement, and the New Operator shall assume such subsequent duties, obligations and responsibilities as the Operator. Such takeover shall not relieve the Former Operator of any of its other duties, obligations or responsibilities as a Party under this Agreement. Upon any such takeover, the Former Operator shall transfer to the New Operator (i) all prepaid CAM Costs not previously spent or reserved by the Former Operator to pay CAM Costs already incurred or Maintenance Fees already earned, and (ii) copies of all applicable books and records relating to the operation and maintenance of the Common Areas and construction of Common Area Improvements. The Former Operator shall provide any and all information and documentation to effectuate the transfer of responsibility, including, without limitation, notification to insurers and transfer or termination of insurance policies and service contracts. Such transfer of the maintenance and operation of the Common Area shall not (i) obligate any Party to pay any cost or expense in respect to the maintenance and operation of the Common Area and Common Area Improvements except such Party's Proportionate Share of CAM Costs, (ii) relieve either Party of its obligations to pay its respective Proportionate Share, or (iii) relieve the Former Operator from any liability or responsibility with respect to the operation and maintenance of the Common Areas and Common Area Improvements prior to such transfer. The Former Operator shall be entitled to collect from the Parties any unpaid amounts to which the Former Operator is entitled under this Agreement. If Agilent is the Operator, then upon sale of the Agilent Lot to an unaffiliated third party, Agilent shall resign as the Operator and Avago shall have the right to become the New Operator or name a third party to so act. At such time as neither Agilent nor Avago own a Lot at the Penang Site, the New Operator shall be either the successor to the last of Agilent or Avago to own a Lot at the Penang Site or a third party designated by such successor.

(e) Entrances.

(i) Each Party shall maintain and repair at its sole cost and expense all present and future entrance buildings on its respective Lot that provide access to the Penang Site. Each Party shall be entitled to relocate, abandon or add entrance facilities to its Lot as it deems appropriate; provided, however, no such relocation, abandonment or addition shall unreasonably interfere with, restrict or impair the utilization of the Penang Site by the other Party.

(ii) Subject to applicable Law, each Party shall have rights to install, maintain and repair equal signage at all entrances to the Penang Site located on the other Party's Lot.

7. Use Restrictions. Except with the prior written consent of the owner of the other Lot or as otherwise may be provided in any Primary Parcel Agreement, the Parties agree that neither Lot may be used so as to create (a) an environmental hazard or nuisance that is in violation of any applicable Law, (b) any other burden that requires additional utilities or other improvements to the Penang Site, unless such additional burden, including any added cost to operate, remedy or maintain the same, is assumed in writing by the party adding the burden, or (c) a use or condition not specifically allowed as a "primary" use under the then-applicable zoning regulations applicable to the Lot in question. Additional buildings or expansion of existing buildings may be placed on either Lot by the owner thereof; provided, however, any additional burdens on parking, the sewer and drainage lines, entrance gates or other services or facilities on the Penang Site shall be exclusively mitigated and paid for by the Party adding such improvements. The Parties further agree to screen from view or locate material and waste storage facilities so as to minimize the visual impact of such items.

8. Right of First Offer. In the event that a Party (for the purpose of this Section 8, the "Seller") should decide that it wishes to sell all or any portion of its Lot (the "Sale Lot") to an unaffiliated third party, other than in connection with the sale of all or substantially all of the business assets or operations located on such Party's Lot to the same purchaser of the business assets or operations or an affiliate of such purchaser as is buying the Sale Lot, the non-selling Lot owner (the "Buyer") shall have the right of first offer (the "Right of First Offer") with respect to the purchase of the Sale Lot from the Seller before any offer of the Lot is made to third parties. The Right of First Offer shall be exercised in such manner and subject to such terms and conditions as are set forth in this Section 8. A Sale Lot shall not be transferred to an unaffiliated third party without the prior written consent of the Buyer hereto or otherwise in strict compliance with the provisions of this Section 8. For the purposes of this Section 8, the "Purchase Price" shall mean such amount as is designated by the Seller (the "Seller's Offer") in a written notice to the Buyer advising the Buyer of its interest in selling the Sale Lot and designating, in addition to Purchase Price, the Sale Lot, proposed closing date, and any other material conditions or restrictions intended to govern the sale of the Sale Lot. If the Buyer wishes to enter into a contract for the purchase of the Sale Lot offered for sale in the Seller's Offer, the Buyer shall so inform the Seller in writing and the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to execute a contract for the sale and purchase of the Sale Lot within thirty (30) days after the election is received by the Seller. Such contract shall provide for closing of the sale within sixty (60) days of the contract date. If the Buyer does not so notify the Seller in a timely manner of its election to enter into a contract for the purchase of the Sale Lot pursuant to Seller's Offer, the Seller shall be free to offer the Sale Lot to an unaffiliated third party purchaser, on terms no less favorable to the Seller than those set forth in the Seller's Offer. If the Seller does not thereafter complete a sale of the Sale Lot within nine (9) months following Buyer's lack of acceptance of Seller's offer on terms no less favorable to the Seller than are set forth in the Seller's Offer, any sale of the Sale Lot or any part thereof shall again be subject to all terms of this Section 8 as though the Sale Lot had not previously been offered to the Buyer. At any time, the Buyer may request in writing and shall be entitled to receive a copy of any contract, closing document or other written instrument pertaining to the sale to any third party by the Seller of a Sale Lot. If the Seller has strictly complied with the terms of this Section 8, at the Seller's written request in connection with the closing of a sale of a Sale Lot, the Buyer shall affirm in writing to any interested party that the Seller has complied with the terms of this Section 8.

9. Duration of Agreement. Except as specifically otherwise set forth herein, the agreements, easements, restrictions, rights, obligations and duties contained in this Agreement shall be perpetual.

10. Warehouse. Agilent hereby covenants and agrees that it shall construct, or cause to be constructed, a new warehouse building on the Avago Lot in the approximate location identified on the Site Map (the "New Warehouse"). The Parties intend such New Warehouse to replicate for Avago the warehouse facilities located on the Agilent Lot which were utilized by Agilent in connection with the Business prior to the closing of the Business Sale. The New Warehouse shall be constructed utilizing new materials in manner, size (both cubic and square feet) and quality of materials and workmanship consistent with Agilent's existing warehouse facilities and complying with all applicable laws and zoning and building codes. All costs and expenses relating to the construction of the New Warehouse shall be allocated between the Parties in accordance with the MSA.

11. Indemnification.

(a) Each Party that enters the Lot of the other Party pursuant to the exercise of the rights granted herein ("Indemnitor") covenants and agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other Party and Permittees (collectively, an "Indemnitee") from and against all claims, costs, expenses and liability (including reasonable attorneys' fees and cost of suit incurred in connection with all claims) including any action or proceedings brought hereon, arising from or as a result of the death of, or any accident, injury, loss, claim, liability, cost or damage whatsoever caused to any person, property or entity, which shall occur on the Lot or portion thereof owned by such Indemnitee, except for claims caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee or its Permittees wherever the same may occur. In no event shall either Party be liable to any Indemnitee under this Agreement for any consequential (including, without limitation, any injury to such Indemnitee's person or business or loss of income or profit therefrom), punitive, exemplary or special damages.

(b) Each Party (the "Releasor") hereby releases and waives for itself and on behalf of its insurer, the other Party (the "Releasees") from any liability for any loss or damage to all property of such Releasor located upon any portion of the Penang Site, which loss or damage is of the type generally covered by fire and casualty insurance with all available extended coverage endorsements, irrespective of any negligence on the part of the Releasees which may have contributed to or caused such loss, or of the amount of such insurance required or actually needed, appropriate endorsements to its policies of insurance with respect to the foregoing release; it being understood, however, that failure to obtain such endorsements shall not affect the release hereinabove given.

12. General Provisions.

(a) Coordinating Committee.

(i) Within thirty (30) days after the date hereof, the Parties shall establish a coordinating committee (the “Coordinating Committee”) which shall consist of four (4) members, two (2) of which shall be appointed by Agilent and two (2) of which shall be appointed by Avago. Each Party, upon prior written notice to the other Party, may from time to time remove or replace any member appointed by such Party. So long as Agilent and Avago are the owners of the Lots (or Avago is the tenant under the Primary Tenancy Agreement (or any successor agreement)), this Coordinating Committee shall be the same one provided for under the Primary Parcel Tenancy Agreement.

(ii) Except as the Parties may otherwise agree in writing, the Coordinating Committee shall have the power and the responsibility under this Agreement to:

(A) act as a forum for the liaison between the Parties with respect to the day-to-day implementation of this Agreement;

(B) subject to Section 12(b), seek to resolve disputes; and

(C) undertake such other functions as the Parties may agree in writing.

(b) Disputes and Governing Law.

(i) This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Malaysia, without reference to the choice of law principles thereof.

(ii) Any Party seeking the resolution of a dispute arising under this Agreement must provide written notice of such dispute to the other Party, which notice shall describe the nature of such dispute. All such disputes shall be referred initially to the Coordinating Committee for resolution. Decisions of the Coordinating Committee under this Section 12(b) shall be made by unanimous vote of all members and shall be final and legally binding on the Parties. If a dispute is resolved by the Coordinating Committee, then the terms of the resolution and settlement of such dispute shall be set forth in writing and signed by both Parties. In the event that the Coordinating Committee does not resolve a dispute within thirty (30) days of the submission thereof, such dispute shall be resolved in accordance with Section 12(b)(iii). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Agilent and Avago shall each continue to perform their obligations under this Agreement during the pendency of such dispute in accordance with this Agreement.

(iii) The Parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the Parties shall be entitled to an injunction to prevent any breach of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement by bringing a relevant action in the courts located in Penang, Malaysia, in addition to any other remedy to which any Party may be entitled at law or in equity. In addition, the Parties agree that any disputes, claims or controversies between the Parties arising out of or relating to this Agreement, whether in contract, tort, equity or otherwise and whether relating to the meaning, interpretation, effect, validity, performance or enforcement of this Agreement which have not been resolved by the Coordinating Committee shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts located in Penang, Malaysia.

(c) Waiver. One Party's consent to or approval of any act by the other Party requiring the first Party's consent or approval shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary the first Party's consent to or approval of any subsequent similar act by the other Party. No delay or omission in the exercise of any right or remedy accruing to either Party upon any breach by the other Party under this Agreement shall impair such right or remedy or be construed as a waiver of any such breach theretofore or hereafter occurring. The waiver by either Party of any breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provisions herein contained.

(d) Force Majeure. Any prevention, delay, or stoppage due to strikes, lockouts, inclement weather, labor disputes, inability to obtain labor, materials, fuels or reasonable substitutes therefor, governmental restrictions, regulations, controls, action or inaction, civil commotion, fire or other acts of God, and other causes beyond the reasonable control of either Party to perform shall excuse the performance by such Party, for a reasonable period not to exceed the period of any said prevention, delay, or stoppage, of any obligation hereunder.

Any notice required or desired to be given regarding this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be personally served, or in lieu of personal service may be given by AR Registered Post or by internationally recognized overnight courier at the following addresses for the Parties (or such other addresses as may be specified by a Party hereto giving notice of same to the other Party in accordance with this Section):

In the event that the perpetual term contemplated herein is not enforceable, the Parties agree to take such action to extend the term hereof as shall be permitted by law or to immediately enter into a new agreement on the same terms and conditions as set forth herein, effective as of the expiration of the enforceable term of this Agreement.

If any amount due hereunder is not paid on or before the third (3rd) day following the due date, then, without prejudice to any of Landlord's other rights and remedies and in addition to such late charge, Tenant shall pay to Landlord interest on the delinquent amount at the Agreed Interest Rate from the date such amount became due until paid.

Such modified or additional rules and regulations shall be binding upon Tenant upon delivery of a copy thereof to Tenant, and Tenant agrees to abide by such Rules and Regulations. If there is a conflict between the Rules and Regulations and any of the other provisions of this Lease, the other provisions of this Lease shall prevail. All trucks and delivery vehicles shall be (i) parked at the rear of the Premises; (ii) loaded and unloaded in a manner which does not interfere with the businesses of Landlord or other occupants of the Project; and (iii) permitted to remain on the Project only so long as is reasonably necessary to complete loading and unloading. In the event Landlord elects or is required by any Law to limit or control parking in the Project, whether by validation of parking tickets or any other method of assessment, Tenant agrees to participate in such validation or assessment program under such reasonable rules and regulations as are from time to time established by Landlord, and which shall be non-discriminatory among all occupants of the Project.

6. REPAIR AND MAINTENANCE:
- 6.1 Tenant's Obligation to Maintain: Except as otherwise provided in Sections 6.2, 11.1, and 12.3, Tenant shall, at its sole cost, keep and maintain the Premises in good order, condition and repair, and shall require Contractor to perform the services for the Premises required under the SLA. Additionally, Tenant shall, at its sole cost, perform the services and other obligations set forth on Exhibit D.
- 6.1.1 All repairs and replacements required of Tenant shall be promptly made with new materials of like kind and quality. If the work affects the structural parts of the Premises or if the estimated cost of any item of repair or replacement is in excess of the Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), then Tenant shall first obtain Landlord's written approval of the scope of the work, plans therefor, materials to be used, and the contractor (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).
- 6.2 Landlord's Obligation to Maintain: Landlord shall repair and maintain (i) the roof (including the roof membrane) and the other structural components of the Project (including without limitation, the footings, the foundation, the structural floor, and the load bearing walls of the Premises and the Project), and (ii) major parking lot repair and all striping in connection with the parking lot. It is an express condition precedent to of Landlord's obligations to repair and maintain the Premises that Tenant shall have first notified Landlord in writing of the need for such repairs and maintenance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall not be responsible for repairs required by an accident, fire or other peril, or for damage caused to any part of the Project or the Premises, in each case to the extent caused by any act or omission of Tenant or Tenant's Agents, except as otherwise required by Article 11. Landlord may engage contractors of its choice to perform the obligations required of it by this Article, and the necessity of any expenditure to perform such obligations shall be at the sole discretion of Landlord.

In the event that the Premises or a material portion of the Premises are rendered inaccessible or unusable for the Permitted Use by reason of Landlord's breach of its obligations under this Section 6.2 (a "Material Impairment"), and such Material Impairment continues for five (5) consecutive business days after written notice thereof is received by Landlord and such Material Impairment is not caused by an event of force majeure (as described in Section 16.7), a casualty, a failure on the part of a public utility, or by any act or omission of Tenant, its agents, employees or contractors, Tenant shall be entitled to an abatement of Base Rent and Additional Rent in proportion to the extent to which breach causes such Material Impairment, with such abatement to begin on the sixth (6th) business day after written notice to Landlord of such Material Impairment and continuing until such Material impairment has been cured.

Control of Common Area: Landlord shall at all times have exclusive control of the Common Area. Landlord shall have the right, without the same constituting an actual or constructive eviction and without entitling Tenant to any abatement of Rent, to: (i) close any part of the Common Area to whatever extent required in the reasonable opinion of Landlord's counsel to prevent a dedication thereof or the accrual of any prescriptive rights therein; (ii) temporarily close the Common Area to perform maintenance or for any other reason reasonably deemed sufficient by Landlord; (iii) change the shape, size, location and extent of the Common Area (provided, that the Common Areas will continue to adequately serve the same purposes as immediately prior to such change); (iv) eliminate from or add to the Project any land or improvement, including multi-deck parking structures (provided, that the Common Areas and Premises will continue to adequately serve the same purposes as immediately prior to such change); (v) make changes to the Common Area including, without limitation, changes in the location of driveways, entrances, passageways, doors and doorways, elevators, stairs, restrooms, exits, parking spaces, parking areas, sidewalks or the direction of the flow of traffic and the site of the Common Area (provided, that the Common Areas will continue to adequately serve the same purposes as immediately prior to such change); (vi) remove unauthorized persons from the Project; or (vii) change the name of the Premises or Project. Tenant shall keep the Common Area clear of all obstructions created or permitted by Tenant. If in the reasonable opinion of Landlord unauthorized persons are using any of the Common Area by reason of the presence of Tenant in the Premises, Tenant, upon demand of Landlord, shall restrain such unauthorized use by appropriate proceedings. In exercising any such rights regarding the Common Area, Landlord shall make a reasonable effort to minimize any disruption to Tenant's business. Landlord shall have no obligation to provide guard services or other security measures for the benefit of the Project. Tenant assumes all responsibility for the protection of Tenant and Tenant's Agents from acts of third parties; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall prevent Landlord, at its sole option, from providing security measures for the Project. In the event Landlord elects to remodel or construct improvements upon any part of the Common Area located outside of the Premises, Tenant will cooperate with such remodeling or construction, including Tenant's tolerating temporary and reasonable inconveniences in order to facilitate such remodeling or construction.

7. UTILITIES:

7.1 Utilities: Tenant acknowledges that all utilities, other than as set forth on Exhibit D, are to be provided as set forth in the SLA.

7.2 Compliance with Governmental Regulations: Landlord and Tenant shall comply with all rules, regulations and requirements promulgated by national, state or local governmental agencies or utility suppliers concerning the use of utility services, including any rationing, limitation or other control. Landlord may voluntarily cooperate in a reasonable manner with the efforts of all governmental agencies or utility suppliers in reducing energy or other resources consumption. Tenant shall not be entitled to terminate this Lease nor to any abatement in rent by reason of such compliance or cooperation, provided that any such voluntary compliance or cooperation does not have a material adverse impact on Tenant's operations in the Premises. Tenant agrees at all times to cooperate fully with Landlord and Contractor and to abide by all reasonable rules, regulations and requirements which Landlord or Contractor may prescribe in order to maximize the efficient operation of the HVAC system and all other utility systems provided to the Premises, including those provided by Contractor under the SLA; provided, that such do not have an adverse impact on Tenant's operations in the Premises. In the event of an interruption in or failure or inability by Landlord or Contractor to provide any and all utilities to the Premises as contemplated hereunder or under the SLA, for any reason (a "Service Failure"), such Service Failure shall not, regardless of its duration, impose upon Landlord any liability whatsoever, constitute an eviction of Tenant, constructive or otherwise, entitle Tenant to an abatement of Rent, except as otherwise set forth in this Section 7.2, or to terminate this Lease or otherwise release Tenant from any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease. Tenant hereby waives any benefits of any applicable existing or future Law, including the provisions of California Civil Code Section 1932(1), permitting the termination of this Lease due to such interruption, failure or inability.

In the case of any failure by Landlord to provide any utilities to the Premises hereunder, other than those services to be provided by Contractor under the SLA, Landlord shall take commercially reasonable steps to restore the interrupted utilities or services as soon as practicable upon written notice thereof from Tenant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Service Failure continues for five (5) consecutive business days after written notice thereof is received by Landlord and such failure is not caused by an event of force majeure (as described in Section 16.7), a casualty, a failure on the part of a public utility, or by any act or omission of Tenant, its agents, employees or contractors. Tenant shall be entitled to an abatement of Base Rent and Additional Rent in proportion to the extent to which the failure prevents Tenant from using the Premises for Tenant's normal purposes, with such abatement to begin on the sixth (6th) business day after written notice to Landlord of such occurrence and continuing until such failure has been cured.

8. OPERATING EXPENSES:

- 8.1 Tenant's Obligation to Reimburse: As Additional Rent, Tenant shall pay Tenant's Share of all Operating Expenses for the Project (as defined in Section 8.2 hereof, also referred to as "Operating Expenses"). Tenant shall pay such share of the actual Operating Expenses incurred or paid by Landlord but not theretofore billed to Tenant within thirty (30) days after receipt of a written bill therefor from Landlord, on such periodic basis as Landlord shall designate, but in no event more frequently than once a month. Alternatively, Landlord may from time to time require that Tenant pay Tenant's Share of Operating Expenses in advance in estimated monthly installments, in accordance with the following procedure: (i) Landlord shall deliver to Tenant Landlord's reasonable estimate of the Operating Expenses it anticipates will be paid or incurred for the Landlord's fiscal year in question; (ii) during such Landlord's fiscal year Tenant shall pay such share of the estimated Operating Expenses in advance in monthly installments as required by Landlord due with the installments of Monthly Base Rent; and (iii) as soon after the end of Landlord's fiscal year as is reasonably practicable, Landlord shall furnish to Tenant a statement in reasonable detail of the actual Operating Expenses paid or incurred by Landlord during the just ended Landlord's fiscal year and thereupon there shall be an adjustment between Landlord and Tenant, with payment to Landlord or credit by Landlord against the next installment of Monthly Base Rent, as the case may require, within thirty (30) days after delivery by Landlord to Tenant of said statement so that Landlord shall receive the entire amount of Tenant's Share of all Operating Expenses for such Landlord's fiscal year and no more. If at any time during a calendar year the Project is not at least 95% occupied or Landlord is not supplying services to at least 95% of the total rentable square footage of the Project, Operating Expenses for the Project that vary based on occupancy shall, at Landlord's option, be determined as if the Project had been 95% occupied and Landlord had been supplying services to 95% of the rentable square footage of the Project. Tenant shall have the right at its expense, exercisable upon reasonable prior written notice to Landlord, to inspect at Landlord's office during normal business hours Landlord's books and records as they relate to Operating Expenses. Such inspection must be within thirty (30) days of Tenant's receipt of Landlord's annual statement for the same, and shall be limited to verification of the charges contained in such statement. Tenant may not withhold payment of such bill pending completion of such inspection. Such inspection shall be conducted by an independent certified public accountant ("CPA") and such CPA shall not be hired or retained on a contingency fee or other incentive basis.
- 8.2 Operating Expenses for the Project Defined: The term "Operating Expenses for the Project" shall mean the following:
- 8.2.1 All costs and expenses paid or incurred, if any, by Landlord in doing the following (including payments to independent contractors providing services related to the performance of the following): (i) maintaining, cleaning, repairing and resurfacing the roof (including repair of leaks) and the exterior surfaces (including painting) of all buildings located on the Project, and all other structural components of the Premises, including the footings, the foundation, the structural floor and the load bearing walls of the Premises; (ii) all deductibles, self-insured retentions, premiums and other costs relating to the insurance carried by Landlord on the Project or in connection with the use and/or occupancy thereof, and the costs of any self-insurance as reasonably determined by Landlord; (iii) maintaining, repairing, operating and replacing when necessary any utility facilities and other service equipment for the Common Areas ; (iv) providing utilities to the Common Area (including lighting, trash removal and water for landscaping irrigation); (v) complying with all applicable Laws and Private Restrictions; (vi) operating, maintaining, repairing, cleaning, painting, striping, restriping and resurfacing the Common Area; (vii) replacing or installing lighting fixtures, directional or other signs and signals, irrigation systems, trees, shrubs, ground cover and other plant materials, and all landscaping in the Common Area; (viii) providing security to the Common Area; (ix) charges on or surcharges imposed by any governmental agencies on or with respect to transit or automobile usage or parking facilities; (x) the cost of contesting the validity or applicability of any governmental enactments which may affect Operating Expenses; or (xi) taking any action for the purpose of securing any of the services specified in the SLA to the extent Contractor fails to deliver them as required thereunder.

- 8.2.2 The following costs: (i) the amount of any insurance “deductibles” paid by Landlord with respect to damage caused by a casualty; (ii) that portion of all compensation (including benefits and premiums for workers’ compensation and other insurance) paid to or on behalf of employees of Landlord but only to the extent they are involved in the performance of the work described by Sections 8.2.1 or 8.2.3 that is fairly allocable to the Project; and (iii) any costs associated with any protests of valuation under Proposition 8.
- 8.2.3 All additional costs and expenses incurred by Landlord with respect to the operation, protection, maintenance, repair or replacement of the Project; provided, however, that Operating Expenses shall not include any of the following: (i) payments on any loans or ground leases affecting the Project; (ii) leasing commissions; (iii) costs and expenses for work or services furnished exclusively for the benefit of any other tenant or occupant of the Project at such tenant’s or occupant’s cost; (iv) costs and expenses arising from the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or Landlord’s employees or agents; or (v) that would result in Landlord receiving more than 100% of its actual cost of operating or owing the Project.
- 8.2.4 Operating Expenses shall not include any of the aforementioned repairs, alterations, replacements and improvements that are properly capitalized under generally accepted accounting principles, except to the extent that Tenant’s share of such costs for such period is limited to the amortized cost (plus interest at the Agreed Interest Rate) of any such item over its useful life.
- 8.2.5 The term “Real Property Taxes” shall mean all taxes, assessments, levies, and other charges of any kind or nature whatsoever, general and special, foreseen and unforeseen (including all installments of principal and interest required to pay any existing or future general or special assessments for public improvements, services or benefits, and any increases resulting from reassessments resulting from new construction or any other cause other than change in ownership), now or hereafter imposed by any governmental or quasi-governmental authority or special district having the direct or indirect power to tax or levy assessments, which are levied or assessed against, or with respect to the value, occupancy or use of all or any portion of the Project (as now constructed or as may at any time hereafter be constructed, altered, or otherwise changed) or Landlord's interest therein, the fixtures, equipment and other property of Landlord, real or personal, that are an integral part of and located on the Project, the gross receipts, income, or rentals from the Project, or the use of parking areas, public utilities, or energy within the Project, or Landlord's business of leasing the Project. Notwithstanding the foregoing, 50% of any increase resulting from reassessments resulting from a change in ownership shall be included in Real Property Taxes for this purpose, and Tenant shall only be required to pay Tenant's Share of such 50%. If at any time during the Lease Term the method of taxation or assessment of the Project prevailing as of the Effective Date shall be altered so that in lieu of or in addition to any Real Property Tax described above there shall be levied, assessed or imposed (whether by reason of a change in the method of taxation or assessment, creation of a new tax or charge, or any other cause) an alternate or additional tax or charge (i) on the value, use or occupancy of the Project or Landlord's interest therein; or (ii) on or measured by the gross receipts income or rentals from the Project, on Landlord's business of leasing the Project, or computed in any manner with respect to the operation of the Project, then any such tax or charge, however designated, shall be included within the meaning of the term "Real Property Taxes" for purposes of this Lease. If any Real Property Tax is based upon property or rents unrelated to the Project, then only that part of such Real Property Tax that is fairly allocable to the Project shall be included within the meaning of the term "Real Property Taxes". Notwithstanding the foregoing, the term "Real Property Taxes" shall not include estate, inheritance, gift or franchise taxes of Landlord or the federal or state or local net income tax imposed on Landlord's income from all sources. Tenant's Share of the Real Property Taxes are included in the Rent, payable by Tenant hereunder, and shall be paid directly by Landlord.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall obligate Landlord to provide any service to the Premises or the Project other than as set forth in Sections 6.2, 11.1 or 12.2 hereof. Tenant acknowledges that all services other than those set forth in Sections 6.2, 11.1 or 12.2 hereof shall be provided by Contractor, and that Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant or its nominees due to any act or omission, negligent, tortious or otherwise, of any agent or employee of Contractor or its nominees; nor shall Landlord be liable to Tenant or its nominees due to any failure of Contractor to provide any of the services specified in the SLA or for any other breach of Contractor's obligations thereunder. Nothing contained herein shall limit the right of Landlord, in its sole discretion, to elect to provide any of the services specified in the SLA or perform any of the obligations of Contractor thereunder, to the extent Contractor fails to deliver any such services, or perform any of its obligations thereunder.

Taxes on Tenant's Property: Tenant shall pay before delinquency any and all taxes, assessments, license fees and public charges levied, assessed or imposed against Tenant or Tenant's estate in this Lease or the property of Tenant situated within the Premises or Project which become due during the Lease Term. If any tax or other charge is assessed by any governmental agency because of the execution of this Lease, such tax shall be paid by Tenant. Promptly upon demand by Landlord, Tenant shall furnish Landlord with satisfactory evidence of these payments.

9. INSURANCE:

9.1 Tenant's Insurance: Tenant shall maintain insurance complying with all of the following:

9.1.1 Tenant shall procure, pay for and keep in full force and effect the following:

9.1.1.1 Broad form commercial general liability insurance, including property damage, against liability for personal injury, bodily injury, death and damage to property occurring in or about, or resulting from an occurrence in or about, the Premises with combined single limit coverage of not less than the amount of Tenant's Minimum Liability Insurance Coverage, which insurance shall contain "fire legal" endorsement coverage and a "contractual liability" endorsement insuring Tenant's performance of Tenant's obligation to indemnify Landlord contained in Section 10.3;

9.1.1.2 Automobile Liability insurance including owned, hired and non-owned autos with a combined single of liability for each accident of not less than US$1,000,000.00;

9.1.1.3 Fire and property damage insurance against loss caused by fire, extended coverage perils including steam boiler insurance, sprinkler leakage, if applicable, vandalism, malicious mischief and such other additional perils as now are or hereafter may be included in a standard extended coverage endorsement from time to time in general use in the county in which the Premises is located, insuring Tenant's personal property and inventory, Trade Fixtures, and Leasehold Improvements within the Premises or located on the Common Areas for the full actual replacement cost thereof;

9.1.1.4 Worker's compensation coverage sufficient to comply with all Laws. Where permitted by law, such policies shall contain waivers of the insurer's subrogation rights against Landlord;

9.1.1.5 Employers liability insurance shall be provided in amounts not less than US$1,000,000.00 per accident for bodily injury by accident, US$1,000,000.00 policy limit by disease, and US$1,000,000.00 per employee for bodily injury by disease; and

9.1.1.6 Fidelity insurance or commercial blanket bond naming Landlord as beneficiary or loss payee as respects losses to Landlord's money or other property caused by any of Tenant's employees in connection with Tenant's use of the Premises with blanket limits of at least US$1,000,000.00.

9.1.2 The commercial general liability insurance that Tenant is required to carry under Section 9.1.1.1 shall name Landlord and such other parties in interest as Landlord designates as additional insureds. Additionally, all policies of insurance required to be carried by Tenant pursuant to this Section shall (i) be primary insurance that provides that the insurer shall be liable for the full amount of the loss up to and including the

- total amount of liability stated in the declaration without the right of contribution from any other insurance coverage of Landlord, (ii) be in a form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, (iii) be carried with companies having a Best rating of at least AVII, (iv) provide that such policy shall not be subject to cancellation, reduction of coverage or lapse except after at least ten (10) days prior written notice to Landlord, (v) not have a “deductible” in excess of Ten Thousand Dollars (US$10,000.00) per occurrence, (vi) contain a cross liability endorsement, and (vii) contain a “severability” clause.
- 9.1.3 A certificate of insurance reflecting that the insurance required to be carried by Tenant pursuant to this Section 9.1 is in force, accompanied by an endorsement showing the required additional insureds satisfactory to Landlord in substance and form, shall be delivered to Landlord prior to the time Tenant or any of Tenant’s Agents enters the Premises and upon renewal of such policies, but not less than thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of the term of such coverage. If the Landlord’s lender or Landlord reasonably determines at any time that the amount of coverage required for any policy of insurance Tenant is to obtain pursuant to this Section 9.1 is not adequate, then Tenant shall increase such coverage for such insurance to such amount as Landlord’s lender or Landlord reasonably deems adequate, not to exceed the level of coverage commonly required by prudent landlords of comparable buildings leased for comparable uses in the vicinity.
- 9.2 Release and Waiver of Subrogation: The parties hereto release each other, and their respective agents and employees, from any liability for any loss or damage that is caused by or results from any risk insured against under any valid and collectible insurance policy carried by either of the parties that contains a waiver of subrogation by the insurer and is in force at the time of such injury or damage; subject to the following limitations: (i) the foregoing provision shall not apply to the commercial general liability insurance described in Section 9.1; (ii) such release shall apply to liability resulting from any other risk insured or provided by Tenant to satisfy the requirements of Section 9.1 (including, without limitation, fire and property damage insurance and worker’s compensation coverage); and (iii) provided that Tenant shall not be released from any such liability to the extent any actual, out of pocket damages resulting from such injury or damage are not covered by the recovery obtained by Landlord from such insurance, but only if the insurance in question permits such partial release in connection with obtaining a waiver of subrogation from the insurer.
10. LIMITATION ON LANDLORD’S LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY:
- 10.1 Limitation on Landlord’s Liability: Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant, nor shall Tenant be entitled to terminate this Lease or to any abatement of rent except as otherwise provided in Section 6.2, Section 7.2 or 12.2, for any injury to Tenant or any of Tenant’s Agents’, or damage to Tenant’s property, resulting from any cause, including, without limitation, any (i) failure, interruption or installation of any HVAC or other utility system or service, including those utility systems and services to be provided by Contractor under the SLA (ii) repairs or improvements to the Premises by Landlord or Contractor, or any services provided by Landlord to Tenant hereunder, or provided by Contractor to Tenant under the SLA (iii) failure of Landlord or Contractor to furnish or delay in furnishing any utilities or services when such failure or delay is caused by fire or other peril, the elements, labor disturbances of any character, or any other accidents or other conditions beyond the reasonable control of Landlord or Contractor, (iv) limitation, curtailment, rationing or restriction on the use of water or electricity, gas or any form of energy or any services or utility serving the Premises or Project, (v) vandalism or forcible entry by unauthorized persons or (vi) penetration of water into or onto any portion of the Premises through roof leaks or otherwise. Notwithstanding the foregoing but subject to Section 9.2 and Section 10.2, Landlord shall be liable for any such injury, damage or loss which is proximately caused by Landlord's willful misconduct or gross negligence; provided, however, that in no event shall Landlord be liable to Tenant for any consequential (including, without limitation, any injury to Tenant's business or loss of income or profit therefrom), punitive or exemplary damages.

10.2 Limitation on Tenant's Recourse: Notwithstanding any other term or provision of this Lease, the liability of Landlord for its obligations under this Lease, is limited to Landlord's equity interest in the Project up to a maximum amount of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars (US$500,000.00), and to no other assets of Landlord for satisfaction of any liability in respect of this Lease, and no personal liability shall at any time be asserted or enforceable against any other assets of Landlord or against Landlord's stockholders, directors, principals, representatives, trustees or partners on account of any of Landlord's obligations or actions under this Lease. In addition, in the event of conveyance of Landlord's interest in the Project or Premises, then from and after the date of such conveyance, Landlord shall be relieved of all liability with respect to Landlord's obligations to be performed under this Lease after the date of such conveyance. Upon any such conveyance by Landlord, the grantee or transferee, by accepting such conveyance, shall be deemed to have assumed, and Landlord shall be and hereby is entirely relieved of, Landlord's obligations to be performed under this Lease from and after the date of such transfer, subject to the limitations on liability set forth in this Section 10.2.

10.3 Indemnification of Landlord: To the fullest extent allowed by Law, Tenant shall indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless Landlord, and its employees, agents, contractors, successors and assigns, with competent counsel reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, from all liability, penalties, losses, damages, costs, expenses, causes of action, claims and/or judgments arising by reason of any death, bodily injury, personal injury or property damage resulting from (i) any cause or causes whatsoever (except to the extent caused by the willful misconduct or gross negligence of Landlord or Landlord's employees or agents of which Landlord has had notice and a reasonable time to cure, but which Landlord has failed to cure) occurring in or about or resulting from an occurrence in or about the Premises during the Lease Term; (ii) the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or Tenant's Agents, wherever the same may occur; or (iii) any breach of this Lease or the SLA by Tenant. The provisions of this Section 10.3 shall survive the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease.

10.4 Indemnification of Tenant: To the fullest extent allowed by Law but subject to Section 9.2, Section 10.1 and Section 10.2, Landlord shall indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless Tenant, and its employees, agents, contractors, successors and assigns, with competent counsel reasonably satisfactory to Tenant, from all liability, penalties, losses, damages, costs, expenses, causes of action, claims and/or judgments arising by reason of any death, bodily injury, personal injury or property damage resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or Landlord's employees, agents and contractors.

11. DAMAGE TO PREMISES:

- 11.1 Landlord's Duty to Restore: If the Premises or Project is damaged by any peril after the Effective Date, then Landlord shall restore the Premises or Project unless the Lease is terminated by Landlord or Tenant pursuant to Section 11.2. All insurance proceeds available from the fire and property damage insurance carried by Landlord, if any, shall be paid to and become the property of Landlord. If this Lease is terminated pursuant to Section 11.2, then all insurance proceeds available from insurance carried by Tenant which covers loss to property that is Landlord's property or would become Landlord's property on termination of this Lease shall be paid to and become the property of Landlord. If this Lease is not so terminated, then upon receipt of the insurance proceeds (if the loss is covered by insurance) and the issuance of all necessary governmental permits, Landlord shall use reasonable good faith efforts to commence and complete the restoration of the Premises to substantially the same condition in which the Premises were immediately prior to such damage. Landlord's obligation to restore shall be further limited to the Premises constructed by Landlord as they existed as of the Commencement Date, excluding any Leasehold Improvements, Trade Fixtures and/or personal property constructed or installed in the Premises. If this Lease is not terminated pursuant to Section 11.2, then Landlord, at Tenant's expense, shall forthwith commence and thereafter prosecute to completion the replacement and repair of all Leasehold Improvements and Trade Fixtures, if any, existing at the time of such damage or destruction, and which were to have been surrendered to Landlord hereunder; and all insurance proceeds received by Tenant from the insurance carried by it pursuant to Section 9.1.1.3 shall be used for such purpose.
- 11.2 Landlord's Right to Terminate: Landlord shall have the option to terminate this Lease in the event any of the following occurs, which option may be exercised only by delivery to Tenant of a written notice of election to terminate within sixty (60) days after the date of such damage or such later date as is reasonably necessary under the circumstances:
- 11.2.1 Either the Premises or Project is damaged by any peril either (i) not covered by any insurance carried by Landlord and the estimated cost to restore equals or exceeds One Hundred Thousand Dollars (US$100,000.00), or (ii) covered by valid and collectible insurance actually carried by Landlord and in force at the time of such damage or destruction and the estimated cost to restore equals or exceeds Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars (US$250,000.00);
- 11.2.2 Either the Premises or Project is damaged by any peril and (i) the amount of insurance proceeds that will be received by Landlord for the repair or restoration of the Premises

- will not be sufficient to pay for the cost of such repair and restoration, (ii) the Laws then in effect prevent Landlord from repairing or restoring the Premises to substantially the same condition in which the Premises were immediately prior to such damage, or (iii) the restoration of the Premises cannot be substantially completed within one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of such damage, or within ninety (90) days after the date of such damage if such damage occurs during the last twelve (12) months of the Lease Term;
- 11.2.3 Either the Premises or Project is damaged by any peril and, because of the Laws then in force, (i) may not be restored at reasonable cost to substantially the same condition in which it was prior to such damage, or (ii) may not be used for the same use being made thereof before such damage whether or not restored as required by this Article.
- 11.3 Termination by Tenant: If the Premises or the Project is damaged by any peril and Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease or is not entitled to terminate this Lease pursuant to this Article, then as soon as reasonably practicable, Landlord shall furnish Tenant with the written opinion of Landlord's architect or construction consultant as to when the restoration work required of Landlord may be complete. Tenant shall have the option to terminate this Lease (if Tenant is not then in default beyond applicable notice and cure periods) in the event any of the following occurs, which option may be exercised only by delivery to Landlord of a written notice of election to terminate within ten (10) days after Tenant receives from Landlord the estimate of the time needed to complete such restoration:
- 11.3.1 If the time estimated to substantially complete the restoration exceeds one hundred eighty (180) days from and after the date the architect's or construction consultant's written opinion is delivered; or
- 11.3.2 If the damage occurred within twelve months of the last day of the Lease Term and the time estimated to substantially complete the restoration exceeds ninety (90) days from and after the date such restoration is commenced.
- 11.4 Abatement of Rent: In the event of damage to the Premises or Project which does not result in the termination of this Lease, the Monthly Base Rent and Tenant's Share of Operating Expenses shall be temporarily abated during the period of restoration in proportion to the degree to which Tenant's use of the Premises is impaired by such damage. Tenant shall not be entitled to any compensation or damages from Landlord for loss of Tenant's business or property or for any inconvenience or annoyance caused by such damage or restoration. The rights of Landlord and Tenant regarding any damage to or destruction of the Premises or Premises shall be determined as provided in this Article 11 and Tenant hereby waives the provision of any contrary Law.
12. CONDEMNATION:
- 12.1 Taking of Premises: Landlord shall have the option to terminate this Lease if as a result of a taking by means of the exercise of the power of eminent domain (including a voluntary sale or transfer by Landlord to a condemnor under threat of condemnation),

(i) all or any part of the Premises or any material portion of the Project is so taken, or (ii) more than ten percent (10%) of the Common Area is so taken. Tenant shall have the option to terminate this Lease if any material part of the Premises or parking area is taken by the exercise of the power of eminent domain (or conveyed by Landlord in lieu of that exercise), and the remaining portion cannot be made suitable for the continued use and operation of the Premises by Tenant for substantially the same purposes as immediately prior to such taking. Any such option to terminate by Landlord or Tenant must be exercised within a reasonable period of time after the condemnor has commenced judicial action or entered into a binding agreement to effect such taking. If Landlord or Tenant so exercises such option to terminate, such termination shall be effective as of the date possession is taken by the condemnor.

12.2 Restoration and Abatement of Rent: If any part of the Premises or Common Area is taken by condemnation and this Lease is not terminated, then, to the extent reasonably practicable, Landlord shall restore the remaining portion of the Premises and Common Area as they existed as of the Commencement Date, excluding any Leasehold Improvements, Trade Fixtures and/or personal property, in each case constructed or installed by Tenant. Thereafter, except in the case of a temporary taking, as of the date possession is taken the Monthly Base Rent and Operating Expenses shall be reduced in the same proportion that the floor area of that part of the Premises so taken (less any addition thereto by reason of any reconstruction) bears to the original floor area of the Premises.

12.3 Temporary Taking: If all or any portion of the Premises is temporarily taken for three (3) months or less, this Lease shall remain in effect. If any portion of the Premises is temporarily taken by condemnation for a period which exceeds three (3) months or which extends beyond the natural expiration of the Lease Term, and such taking materially and adversely affects Tenant's ability to use the Premises for the Permitted Use, then either Landlord or Tenant shall have the option to terminate this Lease, which option may be exercised only by delivery to the other party of a written notice of election to terminate within seven (7) days after the date possession is taken by the condemnor.

12.4 Division of Condemnation Award: Any award made as a result of any condemnation of the Premises or Common Area shall belong to and be paid to Landlord, and Tenant hereby assigns to Landlord all of its right, title and interest in any such award; provided, however, that Tenant shall be entitled to receive any condemnation award made to Tenant, (i) for the taking of personal property or Trade Fixtures belonging to Tenant, (ii) for Tenant's moving costs, or (iii) of a proportionate amount for any temporary taking where this Lease is not terminated as a result of such taking. The rights of Landlord and Tenant regarding any condemnation shall be determined as provided in this Article 12, and each party hereby waives the provisions of any contrary Law.

13. DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES:

13.1 Events of Tenant's Default: Tenant shall be in default of its obligations under this Lease if any of the following events occur:

- 13.1.1 Tenant shall have failed to pay any Rent when due and such failure is not cured within three (3) business days after delivery of written notice from Landlord specifying such failure to pay; or
- 13.1.2 Tenant shall have failed to perform any term, covenant, or condition of this Lease except those requiring the payment of Monthly Rent or Additional Rent, and Tenant shall not cure such default within thirty (30) days after delivery of written notice from Landlord specifying such failure to perform, or where such default is not capable of being cured within such 30-day period, Tenant shall have failed to commence such cure within such 30-day period and thereafter using best efforts, diligently bring such cure to completion; or
- 13.1.3 Tenant shall have sublet the Premises or assigned its interest in the Lease in violation of Section 14, whether voluntarily or by operation of law; or
- 13.1.4 Tenant shall have permitted the sequestration or attachment of, or execution on, or the appointment of a custodian or receiver with respect to, all or any substantial part of the property of Tenant or any property essential to the conduct of Tenant's business and Tenant shall have failed to obtain a return or release of such property within thirty (30) days thereafter, or prior to sale pursuant to such sequestration, attachment or levy, whichever is earlier; or
- 13.1.5 Tenant shall have abandoned the Premises; or
- 13.1.6 The occurrence of the following: (i) the making by Tenant of any general arrangements or assignments for the benefit of creditors; (ii) Tenant becomes a "debtor" as defined in 11 USC Section 101 or any successor statute thereto (unless, in the case of a petition filed against Tenant, the same is dismissed within 30 days); (iii) the appointment of a trustee or receiver to take possession of substantially all of Tenant's assets located at the Premises or of Tenant's interest in this Lease, where possession is not restored to Tenant within 30 days; or (iv) the attachment, execution or other judicial seizure of substantially all of Tenant's assets located at the Premises or of Tenant's interest in this Lease, where such seizure is not discharged within 30 days; provided, however, in the event that any provision of this Section 13.1.6 is contrary to any applicable Law, such provision shall be of no force or effect; or
- 13.1.7 Tenant shall have failed to deliver documents required of it pursuant to Section 16.4 or Section 16.6 within the time periods specified therein and shall have failed to deliver such documents to Landlord within five (5) days after Tenant's receipt of a second written notice from Landlord.
- 13.2 Landlord's Remedies: In the event of any default by Tenant, Landlord shall have the following remedies, in addition to all other rights and remedies provided by any Law or otherwise provided in this Lease, to which Landlord may resort cumulatively, or in the alternative:
- 13.2.1 Landlord may keep this Lease in effect and enforce by an action at law or in equity all of its rights and remedies under this Lease, including (i) the right to recover the Rent and other sums as they become due by appropriate legal action; (ii) the right to make payments required of Tenant or perform Tenant's obligations and be reimbursed by Tenant for the cost thereof with interest at the Agreed Interest Rate from the date the sum is paid by Landlord until Landlord is reimbursed by Tenant; and (iii) the remedies of injunctive relief and specific performance to compel Tenant to perform its obligations under this Lease. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease, in the event of a breach of an obligation by Tenant which results in a threat to health, safety or insurance coverage (as reasonably determined by Landlord), then if Tenant does not cure such breach within 3 days after delivery to it of written notice from Landlord identifying the breach, Landlord may cure the breach of Tenant and be reimbursed by Tenant for the cost thereof with interest at the Agreed Interest Rate from the date the sum is paid by Landlord until Landlord is reimbursed by Tenant.

- 13.2.2 Landlord may enter the Premises and relet them to third parties for Tenant's account for any period, whether shorter or longer than the remaining Lease Term. Tenant shall be liable immediately to Landlord for all costs Landlord incurs in reletting the Premises, including, without limitation, brokers' commissions and expenses of altering and preparing the Premises for reletting. Tenant shall pay to Landlord the Rent and other sums due under this Lease on the date the Rent is due, less the Rent and other sums Landlord received from any reletting. No act by Landlord allowed by this subparagraph shall terminate this Lease unless Landlord notifies Tenant in writing that Landlord elects to terminate this Lease. Notwithstanding any reletting of the Premises by Landlord without termination of this Lease, Landlord may later elect to terminate this Lease because of the default by Tenant.
- 13.2.3 Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving Tenant written notice of termination, in which event this Lease shall terminate on the date set forth for termination in such notice. Any termination under this Section 13.2.3 shall not relieve Tenant from its obligation to pay sums then due Landlord or from any claim against Tenant for damages or Rent previously accrued or then accruing. In no event shall any one or more of the following actions by Landlord, in the absence of a written election by Landlord to terminate this Lease, constitute a termination of this Lease: (i) appointment of a receiver or keeper in order to protect Landlord's interest hereunder; (ii) consent to any subletting of the Premises or assignment of this Lease by Tenant, whether pursuant to the provisions hereof or otherwise; or (iii) any other action by Landlord or Landlord's agents or employees intended to mitigate the adverse effects of any breach of this Lease by Tenant, including without limitation any action taken to maintain and preserve the Premises or any action taken to relet the Premises or any portions thereof to the extent such actions do not affect a termination of Tenant's right to possession of the Premises.
- 13.2.4 In the event Tenant breaches this Lease and abandons the Premises, this Lease shall not terminate unless Landlord gives Tenant written notice of its election to so terminate this Lease. No act by or on behalf of Landlord intended to mitigate the adverse effect of such breach, including those described by Section 13.2.3, shall constitute a termination of Tenant's right to possession unless Landlord gives Tenant written notice of termination.

- 13.2.5 In the event Landlord terminates this Lease, Landlord shall be entitled, at Landlord's election, to damages in an amount as set forth in California Civil Code Section 1951.2 as in effect on the Effective Date. For purposes of computing damages pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1951.2, (i) an interest rate equal to the Agreed Interest Rate shall be used where permitted; and (ii) the term "Rent" includes Monthly Base Rent and Additional Rent. Such damages shall include:
- 13.2.5.1 The worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rental loss that Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided, computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of award plus one percent (1%); and
- 13.2.5.2 Any other amount necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform Tenant's obligations under this Lease, or which in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result therefrom, including, without limitation, the following: (i) expenses for cleaning, repairing or restoring the Premises; (ii) expenses for altering, remodeling or otherwise improving the Premises for the purpose of reletting, including installation of leasehold improvements (whether such installation be funded by a reduction of Rent, direct payment or allowance to a new Tenant, or otherwise); (iii) broker's fees, advertising costs and other expenses of reletting the Premises; (iv) costs of carrying the Premises, such as taxes, insurance premiums, utilities and security precautions; (v) expenses in retaking possession of the Premises; and (vi) attorneys' fees and court costs incurred by Landlord in retaking possession of the Premises and in reletting the Premises or otherwise incurred as a result of Tenant's default.
- 13.2.5.3 Nothing in this Section 13.2 shall limit Landlord's right to indemnification from Tenant as provided elsewhere in this Lease, including, without limitation, Section 10.3 and Section 15.2.3 Any notice given by Landlord in order to satisfy the requirements of Section 13.1.1 or Section 13.1.2 above shall also satisfy the notice requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 1161 (or any successor statute thereto) regarding unlawful detainer proceedings.
- 13.3 Waiver: One party's consent to or approval of any act by the other party requiring the first party's consent or approval shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary the first party's consent to or approval of any subsequent similar act by the other party. The receipt by Landlord of any Rent or payment with or without knowledge of the breach of any other provision hereof shall not be deemed a waiver of any such breach unless such waiver is in writing and signed by Landlord. No delay or omission in the exercise of any right or remedy accruing to either party upon any breach by the other party under this Lease shall impair such right or remedy or be construed as a waiver of any such breach theretofore or hereafter occurring. The waiver by either party of any breach of any provision of this Lease shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provisions herein contained.

- 13.4 Limitation on Exercise of Rights: At any time that a default by Tenant has occurred and remains uncured, (i) it shall not be unreasonable for Landlord to deny or withhold any consent or approval requested of it by Tenant which Landlord would otherwise be obligated to give; and (ii) Tenant may not exercise any right to terminate this Lease or other right granted to it by this Lease which would otherwise be available to it.
- 13.5 Waiver by Tenant of Certain Remedies: Tenant waives the provisions of Sections 1932(1), 1941 and 1942 of the California Civil Code and any similar or successor law regarding Tenant's right to terminate this Lease or to make repairs and deduct the expenses of such repairs from the Rent due under this Lease. Tenant hereby waives any right of redemption or relief from forfeiture under the laws of the State of California, or under any other present or future law, including the provisions of Sections 1174 and 1179 of the California Code of Civil Procedure.
14. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING:
- 14.1 By Tenant: The following provisions shall apply to any direct or indirect assignment, subletting, change of control or other transfer by Tenant or any subtenant or assignee or other successor in interest of the original Tenant (collectively referred to in this Article as "Tenant"):
- 14.1.1 Tenant shall not do any of the following (collectively referred to herein as a "Transfer"), whether voluntarily, involuntarily, or by operation of laws, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld by Landlord: (i) sublet all or any part of the Premises or allow it to be sublet, occupied or used by any person or entity other than Tenant; (ii) assign its interest in this Lease; (iii) transfer any right appurtenant to this Lease or the Premises; (iv) mortgage or encumber the Lease (or otherwise use the Lease as a security device) in any manner; or (v) terminate or materially amend or modify an assignment, sublease, or other transfer that has been previously approved by Landlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant may, without the prior written consent of Landlord, (a) assign this Lease to one or more direct or indirect subsidiaries of Tenant's parent company or (b) assign this Lease to any person, entity or organization that acquires all or substantially all of the assets of Tenant, provided, that written notice of such transaction(s) is provided to Landlord no later than thirty (30) days prior to the consummation of such transaction(s) ((a) and (b) collectively referred to herein as a "Permitted Assignment"). For the avoidance of doubt, the merger of Tenant with any other entity or the transfer of any controlling or managing ownership or beneficial interest in Tenant (as a consequence of a single transaction or a number of multiple transactions), shall not constitute a Transfer hereunder; provided, that written notice of such transaction(s) is provided to Landlord no later than thirty (30) days prior to the consummation of such transaction(s). Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all reasonable costs and attorneys' fees incurred by Landlord in connection with the processing and/or documentation of any requested Transfer whether or not Landlord's consent is granted. Any Transfer so approved by Landlord shall not be effective until Tenant has paid all such costs and attorneys' fees to Landlord and delivered to Landlord an executed counterpart of the document evidencing the Transfer that (vi) is in form approved by Landlord, (vii) contains the same terms and conditions as stated in Tenant's notice given to Landlord pursuant to Section 14.1.2 below, and (viii) contains the agreement of the proposed Transferee to assume all obligations of Tenant related to the Transfer arising after the effective date of such Transfer and to remain jointly and severally liable therefor with Tenant. Any attempted Transfer without Landlord's consent shall constitute a default by Tenant and shall be voidable at Landlord's option. Landlord's consent to any one Transfer shall not constitute a waiver of the provisions of Section 14.1 as to any subsequent Transfer nor a consent to any subsequent Transfer. No Transfer, even with the consent of Landlord, shall relieve Tenant of its personal and primary obligation to pay the rent and to perform all of the other obligations to be performed by Tenant hereunder. The acceptance of rent by Landlord from any person shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Landlord of any provision of this Lease nor to be a consent to any Transfer.

- 14.1.2 Tenant shall give Landlord at least thirty (30) days prior written notice of any desired Transfer and, upon the reasonable request of Landlord, of the proposed terms of such Transfer including but not limited to (i) the name and legal composition of the proposed Transferee; (ii) reasonably adequate financial information regarding the Transferee; (iii) the nature of the proposed Transferee's business to be carried on in or on the Premises; (iv) current reasonably adequate financial information regarding Tenant; and (v) such other information as may reasonably be requested by Landlord. Tenant shall provide to Landlord such other information as may be reasonably requested by Landlord within 10 days after Landlord's receipt of such notice from Tenant. Landlord shall respond in writing to Tenant's request for Landlord's consent to a Transfer within the later of (vii) thirty (30) days of receipt of such request together with the required accompanying documentation; or (viii) twenty (20) days after Landlord's receipt of all information which Landlord reasonably requests within ten (10) days after it receives Tenant's first notice regarding the Transfer in question. If Landlord fails to respond in writing within said period, Landlord will be deemed to have withheld consent to such Transfer. Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord of any modification to the proposed terms of such Transfer.
- 14.1.3 In the event that Tenant seeks to make any Transfer other than a Permitted Assignment, Landlord shall have the right to terminate this Lease, or in the case of a sublease of less than all of the Premises, terminate this Lease as to that part of the Premises proposed to be sublet, either (i) on the condition that the proposed transferee immediately enter into a direct lease of the Premises with Landlord (or, in the case of a partial sublease, a lease for the portion proposed to be so sublet) on the same terms and conditions contained in Tenant's notice; or (ii) so that Landlord is thereafter free to Lease the Premises (or, in the case of a partial sublease, the portion proposed to be so sublet) to whomever it pleases on whatever terms are acceptable to Landlord. In the event Landlord elects to so terminate this Lease, then (iii) if such termination is conditioned upon the execution of a lease between Landlord and the proposed transferee, Tenant's obligations under this Lease shall not be terminated until such transferee executes a new lease with Landlord, enters into possession and commences the payment of rent; and (iv) if Landlord elects simply to terminate this Lease (or, in the case of a partial sublease, terminate this Lease as to the portion to be so sublet), this Lease shall so terminate in its entirety (or as to the space to be so sublet) fifteen (15) days after Landlord has notified

Tenant in writing of such election. Upon such termination, Tenant shall be released from any further obligations under this Lease if it is terminated in its entirety, or shall be released from any further obligations under this Lease with respect to the space proposed to be sublet in the case of a proposed partial sublease. In the case of a partial termination of this Lease, the Monthly Base Rent and Tenant's Share shall be reduced to an amount which bears the same relationship to the original amount thereof as the area of that part of the Premises which remains subject to the Lease bears to the original area of the Premises. Landlord and Tenant shall execute a written cancellation and release with respect to this Lease to effect such termination.

- 14.1.4 If Landlord consents to a Transfer proposed by Tenant, Tenant may enter into such Transfer, and if Tenant does so, the following shall apply:
- 14.1.4.1 Tenant shall not be released of its liability for the performance of all of its obligations under the Lease.
- 14.1.4.2 If Tenant assigns its interest in this Lease, then Tenant shall pay to Landlord ninety percent (90%) of all Subrent received or to be received by Tenant over and above (i) the assignee's agreement to assume the obligations of Tenant under this Lease; and (ii) all Permitted Transfer Costs related to such assignment. In the case of assignment, the amount of Subrent owed to Landlord shall be paid to Landlord on the same basis, whether periodic or in lump sum, that such Subrent is paid to Tenant by the assignee.
- 14.1.4.3 If Tenant sublets any part of the Premises, then with respect to the space so subleased, Tenant shall pay to Landlord seventy percent (70%) of the positive difference, if any, between (i) all Subrent paid by the subtenant to Tenant, less (ii) the sum of all Base Monthly Rent and Additional Rent allocable to the space sublet and all Permitted Transfer Costs related to such sublease. Such amount shall be paid to Landlord on the same basis, whether periodic or in lump sum, that such Subrent is paid to Tenant by its subtenant.
- 14.1.4.4 Tenant's obligations under this Section 14.1.4 shall survive any Transfer, and Tenant's failure to perform its obligations hereunder shall be a default by Tenant. At the time Tenant makes any payment to Landlord required by this Section 14.1.4, Tenant shall deliver an itemized statement of the method by which the amount to which Landlord is entitled was calculated, certified by Tenant as true and correct. Landlord shall have the right at reasonable intervals to inspect Tenant's books and records relating to the payments due hereunder. Upon request therefor, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord copies of all bills, invoices or other documents upon which its calculations are based. Landlord may condition its approval of any Transfer upon obtaining a certification from both Tenant and the proposed transferee of all Subrent and other amounts that are to be paid to Tenant in connection with such Transfer.
- 14.1.4.5 As used in this Section 14.1.4, the term "Subrent" shall mean any consideration of any kind received, or to be received, by Tenant as a result of the Transfer, if such sums are directly related to Tenant's interest in this Lease or in the Premises, including, but not limited to, rent payments from or on behalf of the transferee. As used in this Section 14.1.4, the term “Permitted Transfer Costs” shall mean (i) the cost of any tenant improvements constructed or installed in the portion of the Premises proposed to be transferred by Tenant, at its sole cost and expense without any allowance or compensation, whatsoever from Landlord, and which improvements are constructed or installed specifically for the transferee in question as an inducement for the transferee to lease the proposed space, the total amount of which shall be amortized in equal monthly installments over the term of the Transfer; (ii) all reasonable leasing commissions paid to third parties not affiliated with Tenant in order to obtain the Transfer in question; and (iii) all reasonable attorneys’ fees incurred by Tenant with respect to the Transfer in question.

- 14.2 By Landlord: Landlord and its successors in interest shall have the right to transfer their interest in the Premises or Project at any time and to any person or entity. In the event of any such transfer, the Landlord originally named herein (and in the case of any subsequent transfer, the transferor) from the date of such transfer, (i) shall be automatically relieved, without any further act by any person or entity, of all liability for the performance of the obligations of the Landlord hereunder which may accrue after the date of such transfer, and (ii) shall be relieved of all liability for the performance of the obligations of the Landlord hereunder which have accrued before the date of transfer if its transferee agrees to assume and perform all such obligations of the Landlord hereunder. After the date of any such transfer, the term “Landlord” as used herein shall mean the transferee of such interest in the Premises.
15. WASTE DISPOSAL AND HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES: The provisions of this Article 15 are in addition to, and in no way limit or restrict, Tenant’s obligations and Landlord’s rights as set forth elsewhere in this Lease.
- 15.1 Definitions: For purposes of this Lease, the following terms have the definitions set forth below:
- 15.1.1 Asbestos: “Asbestos” means fibrous forms of various hydrated minerals, including chrysotile (fibrous serpentine), crocidolite (fibrous riebeckite), amosite (fibrous cummingtonite-grunerite), fibrous tremolite, fibrous actinolite, and fibrous anthophyllite.
- 15.1.2 Asbestos-Containing Construction Materials: “Asbestos-Containing Construction Materials” means any manufactured construction material, including structural, mechanical, and building material, which contains more than one-tenth of one percent asbestos by weight.
- 15.1.3 Asbestos-Containing Materials: “Asbestos-Containing Materials” means any material which contains more than one-tenth of one percent asbestos by weight.
- 15.1.4 Environmental Condition: “Environmental Condition” means the Release on or after the Commencement Date of any Hazardous Substance caused or permitted by Tenant or Tenant’s Agents (other than Contractor under the SLA or its employees, contractors, agents, invitees or assignees) in, over, on, under, through, from, or about the Premises or Property.

- 15.1.5 Environmental Damages: “Environmental Damages” means all claims, suits, judgments, damages, losses, penalties, fines, sanctions, liabilities, encumbrances, lost profits, consequential damages, interest, remediation costs, investigation costs, court costs liens, fees, costs and expenses of whatever kind or nature, contingent or otherwise, matured or unmatured, foreseeable or unforeseeable, including, without limitation: (i) damages for personal injury, or for injury to property or natural resources occurring on or off the Premises, including, without limitation, interest and penalties, and claims brought by or on behalf of employees of Tenant, with respect to which Tenant waives any immunity to which it may be entitled under any industrial or workers’ compensation laws; (ii) fees and costs incurred for the service of attorneys, consultants, contractors, experts, and laboratories; for the preparation of any feasibility studies or reports; for the performance of any investigation, remediation, removal, abatement, containment, closure, restoration or monitoring work required by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision; or for making full economic use of the Premises or other property; (iii) liabilities to any third person or governmental agency; and (iv) diminution of the value of the Premises or the Property.
- 15.1.6 Environmental Laws: “Environmental Laws” means all Laws pertaining to the protection of the environment (including flora, fauna and wildlife) or protection of human or occupational safety or health.
- 15.1.7 Handle: “Handle” or “Handling” means to generate, produce, use, process, package, treat, store, emit, transport, dispose of, manage, or otherwise handle.
- 15.1.8 Hazardous Substances: “Hazardous Substances” means any substance or material listed, defined, or regulated by any Environmental Law, including without limitation: (i) any chemical, substance, material, medical waste or other waste, living organism, or combination thereof which is or may be hazardous to the environment or human or animal health or safety due to its radioactivity, ignitability, corrosivity, reactivity, explosivity, toxicity, carcinogenicity, mutagenicity, phytotoxicity, infectiousness or other harmful or potentially harmful properties or effects; (ii) petroleum hydrocarbons, including crude oil or any fraction thereof, Asbestos, Asbestos-Containing Construction Materials, Asbestos-Containing Materials, radon, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), methane; and (iii) anything which now or in the future may be defined, listed, or regulated as “hazardous substances,” “hazardous wastes,” “extremely hazardous wastes,” “hazardous materials,” “toxic substances,” or “pollutants” by any Environmental Law.
- 15.1.9 Permit: “Permit” means any permit, license, permission, approval, authorization, or entitlement from a governmental or quasi-governmental agency.
- 15.1.10 Preexisting Hazardous Substances: “Preexisting Hazardous Substances” means Hazardous Substances, if any, existing in, on, under or about the Property on or before the Commencement Date.

- 15.1.11 Property: When used in Article 15, “Property” means all land, buildings, roads, parking lots, and improvements that are part of the Project, as now in existence or as developed at any time during the Lease Term, as well as all surface water, subsurface water, soil, or air thereon or thereunder.
- 15.1.12 Release: “Release” means any accidental or intentional spilling, leaking, pumping, pouring, emitting, discharging, injecting, escaping, leaching, migrating, dumping or disposing in, over, on, under, through, or about the air, land, surface water, ground water, or the environment (including without limitation the abandonment or discarding of receptacles containing any Hazardous Substances), unless and to the extent permitted or authorized by a governmental agency or the SLA. For the purposes of this Section 15, a Release shall not have been “caused” or “permitted” by Tenant or Tenant’s agents solely because Tenant or Tenant’s Agents are aware that Preexisting Hazardous Substances exist or are migrating passively in, over, on, under, through, from or about the Premises or Property.
- 15.2 Prohibitions:
- 15.2.1 Prohibited Conditions and Substances: Tenant has completed and duly executed, and there is attached hereto as Exhibit C attached hereto and made a part hereof, a copy of a questionnaire pertaining to Tenant’s use of Hazardous Substances (the “Hazardous Substances Questionnaire”). Tenant represents and warrants to Landlord that, to the best of Tenant’s knowledge, all information stated in the Hazardous Substances Questionnaire is true and correct as of the Effective Date. Tenant and Tenant’s Agents shall not cause or permit the use, generation, storage, disposal, transportation or release of any Hazardous Substances on, under, in, above, to, or from the Premises except that which is (i) fully described in the Hazardous Substances Questionnaire, (ii) in compliance with Environmental Laws and all applicable Laws and (iii) required for and solely incidental to Tenant’s principal use and operation of the Premises. Tenant may not use at the Premises any Hazardous Substances other than those specified in the Hazardous Substances Questionnaire, or in quantities different from those specified in the Hazardous Substances Questionnaire, unless Tenant obtains Landlord’s prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, to such new use and submits a new Hazardous Substances Questionnaire that accurately describes the new use.
- 15.2.2 Prohibited Changes in Tenant Operations: Except with the prior written consent of Landlord, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, Tenant shall not change or expand the Premises or its occupancy, use, or activities thereon in any manner that would subject Landlord or Tenant to new or heightened standards or obligations under any Environmental Law, including, without limitation, modifying, changing, or expanding equipment; methods of operation; the type or quantity of any input, throughput, or output (including emissions or effluent); or hours of operation. In the event that any such change proposed by Tenant is reasonably anticipated to result in increased costs of operation to Landlord or require Landlord to obtain new or modified Permit[s] for Landlord’s then current operations at the Property, then Landlord and Tenant will negotiate in good faith, and under no condition will Landlord be required to consent to such change until the parties have reached such agreement concerning, an appropriate reimbursement or payment to Landlord for such increased costs and until Landlord obtains such new or modified Permit.

- 15.2.3 Prohibition against Releases: Other than in compliance with all applicable Environmental Laws or the SLA, Tenant shall not Release or permit the Release of any Hazardous Substance in, over, on, under, through, from, or about the Premises or Property.
- 15.3 Compliance With Environmental Law; Cooperations; Sharing of Costs:
- 15.3.1 Tenant, at its sole cost, shall comply with all Environmental Laws, Rules and Regulations, and Permits applicable to Tenant's occupancy, use, or activities at the Premises. Tenant shall notify Landlord of, and allow Landlord an opportunity to participate in, all meetings with governmental agencies concerning the occupancy, use, or activities of Tenant or Tenant's Agents at the Premises. Tenant, at its sole cost, shall be responsible for obtaining and maintaining all Permits necessary for Tenant's occupancy, use, or activities on or about the Premises, except as set forth in the SLA. Nothing in this paragraph shall compromise or limit Agilent Technologies, Inc.'s obligations pursuant to any other agreement with Tenant, including without limitation the Asset Purchase Agreement between Agilent Technologies, Inc. and Argos Acquisitions Pte. Ltd. dated August 14, 2005.
- 15.3.2 Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord in Landlord's efforts to comply with Environmental Laws, including, without limitation, (i) allowing Landlord full access (with reasonable notice from Landlord) to the Premises, (ii) complying with all notice requirements set forth in Section 15.5 of this Lease, and (iii) assisting Landlord in conducting investigations on the Premises. Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord in Landlord's efforts to obtain, maintain, transfer, modify, or renew any Permits.
- 15.4 Waste:
- 15.4.1 Tenant shall store any waste it generates which is not a Hazardous Substance either inside the Premises or outside the Premises in trash enclosures that are designated by Landlord for such storage.
- 15.4.2 Other than as provided for in the SLA, Tenant shall dispose of all waste that is or may be a Hazardous Substance at appropriate off-site locations. Other than as provided in the SLA, Tenant shall not dispose of anything that is or may be a Hazardous Substance in, on, over, above, under, or about the Premises or the Property. If Landlord reasonably suspects that any waste generated or permitted to be generated by Tenant at the Premises is a Hazardous Substance, or that an Environmental Condition exists on or about the Premises then, upon Landlord's request, Tenant shall conduct reasonable sampling and analysis, and provide Landlord with a copy of the results of such activities.

- 15.5 Notifications:
- 15.5.1 Tenant shall keep Landlord informed of all environmental matters affecting Tenant's occupancy, use, or activities at or about the Premises. This duty includes, without limitation, the following: (i) Tenant promptly shall give Landlord copies of any operating, emergency, contingency, closure or other plans, procedures, monitoring data, information, hazardous waste manifests, and documents which Tenant is required to prepare pursuant to any applicable Environmental Laws; (ii) Tenant shall promptly provide Landlord with a copy of any document that it submits to any government agency pertaining to environmental matters at the Premises or the Project; (iii) Tenant shall promptly provide Landlord with a copy of any letters, reports, notices, documents or information it receives concerning environmental matters at the Premises or the Project; and (iv) Tenant shall promptly provide Landlord with information reasonably requested by Landlord concerning environmental matters at the Premises or the Project.
- 15.5.2 Tenant shall give the Landlord written notice of: (i) any investigation, inspection, enforcement, remediation, or other regulatory action or order taken, issued or threatened in connection with its occupancy, use or activities on or about the Premises or the Project; (ii) any claims made or threatened by any third party against either of them, or any report, notice or complaint filed or threatened to be filed with any government agency, in connection with their occupancy, use or activities on or about the Premises or the Project; (iii) any Release of Hazardous Substances in, over, on, under, through, from, or about the Premises or the Project, or the discovery by either of them of any Environmental Condition; and (iv) all incidents or matters with respect to the Premises or the Project as to which they are required to give notice to any governmental or quasi-governmental entity pursuant to any Environmental Law.
- 15.6 Remediation:
- 15.6.1 Environmental Condition: Subject to Section 15.6.4 hereof, in the event an Environmental Condition exists or occurs on or about the Premises, Tenant (or Tenant's contractor) shall promptly undertake and diligently complete, at Tenant's sole cost, and in compliance with this Lease and Environmental Laws, all investigative, corrective, and remedial measures required under Environmental Laws. Such measures shall include, without limitation, removal and proper disposal of the Hazardous Substance and restoration of all land, improvements and other affected areas whether on or off the Premises or the Property.
- 15.6.2 Landlord's Approval: Unless an emergency situation exists that requires immediate action (including, without limit, a deadline established by a government agency which would prevent Tenant's compliance with this Section 15.6), Tenant shall obtain Landlord's prior written approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, of all investigation, corrective, or remedial measures contemplated by Tenant. Tenant shall provide Landlord with at least three business days' advance notice of any proposed sampling and, if Landlord requests, Tenant shall split samples with Landlord. Tenant also shall promptly provide Landlord with the results of any test, investigation or inquiry conducted by or on behalf of Tenant in connection with an Environmental Condition. Tenant shall provide Landlord with reasonable advance notice, and Landlord shall have the right (but not the obligation) to participate in all oral or written

- 15.6.3 Landlord's Right to Act: If Tenant fails to comply with this Section 15.6, and such failure continues for more than 24 hours after delivery of written notice from Landlord or a government agency of the actual or potential Environmental Condition (or fails to comply immediately after written or oral request from Tenant in the event such failure poses an imminent danger to safety of persons or damage to property), Landlord shall have the right (but not the obligation), in its sole discretion and without limiting any other remedy which may be available to Landlord under this Lease, at law or in equity, to respond to the Environmental Condition in any manner it may deem appropriate, pursuant to Section 15.8.
- 15.6.4 Preexisting Hazardous Substances: Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary in this Lease, Tenant shall not be liable for, and Landlord expressly releases Tenant and Tenant's parents, subsidiaries, corporate affiliates, successors and assigns, contractors, subcontractors, agents and representatives and their representative officers, directors, shareholders and employees from any and all Environmental Damages to the extent arising, directly or indirectly, out of or in connection with any Preexisting Hazardous Substances, except to the extent that any Preexisting Hazardous Substances are exacerbated by the activities of Tenant or any of Tenant's Agents. Preexisting Hazardous Substances shall not be deemed exacerbated by the activities of Tenant or any of Tenant's Agents solely because Tenant or Tenant's Agents are aware that Preexisting Hazardous Substances exist or are migrating passively in, over, on, under, through, from or about the Premises or Property. The provisions of this paragraph are in addition, and do not modify in any way, Agilent Technologies, Inc.'s obligations pursuant to any other agreement with Tenant, including without limitation the Asset Purchase Agreement between Agilent Technologies, Inc. and Argos Acquisitions Pte. Ltd. dated August 14, 2005. Landlord specifically waives the benefit and protection of law that restricts the release of any unknown claims that the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him must have materially affected his settlement with debtor.
- 15.7 Condition on Expiration or Termination: Prior to the expiration or termination of the Lease in accordance with this subsection, Tenant shall remove and properly dispose of any Hazardous Substances that have come to be located on or about the Premises as a result of Tenant's occupancy, use and activities on or about the Premises or the Project, and Tenant shall restore the Premises and other affected areas to the same or better condition, character and quality as before Tenant's occupancy, ordinary wear and tear excepted.
- 15.8 Landlord's Rights: If Tenant fails to comply with any provision of this Article 15 or elsewhere in this Lease, Landlord shall have the right (but not the obligation) to effect such compliance, in its sole discretion and without limiting any other remedy which may be available to Landlord under this Lease, at law or in equity. In such event, Landlord shall have sole discretion in connection with the manner and timing of such performance, and shall have no responsibility to minimize the cost or legal exposure of Tenant or the inconvenience or other impacts to Tenant resulting therefrom, and the cost thereof shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord, within ten (10) days after delivery of Landlord's invoice, for any amount incurred or expended by Landlord in connection with such performance (including fees and costs incurred for the services of attorneys, consultants, and experts), together with interest at the Agreed Interest Rate from the date of expenditure until such amount is paid in full to Landlord.

15.9 Tenant's Release and Indemnification of Landlord:

- 15.9.1 Subject to Section 15.6.4 hereof, Tenant expressly releases Landlord and Landlord's parents, subsidiaries, corporate affiliates, successors and assigns, contractors, subcontractors, agents, and representatives, and their representative officers, directors, shareholders, and employees from, and who shall not be liable for, any and all Environmental Damages to the extent arising directly or indirectly out of or in connection with any Environmental Conditions at the Premises or Property. Tenant specifically waives the benefit and protection of law that limits that restricts the release of any unknown claims that the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him must have materially affected his settlement with debtor.
- 15.9.2 Tenant shall not suffer any lien to be recorded against the Premises or the Project as a consequence of the Release of any Hazardous Substances in, over, on, under, through, from, or about the Premises caused or permitted by Tenant or of the existence of any Environmental Condition caused by Tenant or Tenant's Agent, including, without limitation, any state, federal, or local "superfund" lien related to the removal or remediation of any Hazardous Substances by or on behalf of Tenant on or about the Premises or the Property.
- 15.9.3 In addition to, and without limiting the scope of, any other indemnities provided by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease or any Laws, Tenant shall indemnify, protect, defend upon demand with counsel reasonably acceptable to Landlord, and hold harmless Landlord and Landlord's parents, subsidiaries, corporate affiliates, successors and assigns, contractors, subcontractors, agents, representatives, and their respective officers, directors, shareholders, and employees against and from all Environmental Damages to the extent arising directly or indirectly out of or in connection with any of the following as it relates to the Premises or the Project: any Environmental Condition, or the breach of the SLA, or any requirement of Article 15 of this Lease by Tenant or Tenant's Agents.
- 15.10 No Shift of Liability: Landlord's exercise or failure to exercise the rights granted in this Article 15 shall not in any way shift responsibility for Hazardous Substances or compliance with Environmental Laws from Tenant to Landlord, nor impose any liability on Landlord.
- 15.11 Survival: The obligations of Tenant under this Article 15 shall survive expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, and any conveyance by Landlord of its interest in the Premises, and shall continue in full force and effect.

- 15.12 Underground Storage Tanks: Except with the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent may be withheld by Landlord in its sole and absolute discretion, Tenant shall not: (1) install, use, operate or otherwise manage any underground storage tanks, whether for Hazardous Substances or for any other substance or material, on or about the Premises or on the Property , or (2) use, operate, modify or otherwise manage any existing underground storage tanks, whether for Hazardous Substances or for any other substance or material that may be located at the Premises or the Property; provided, however, that to the extent required by Environmental Law, the Tenant may, with the written consent of the Landlord, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, close any such underground storage tank. Landlord hereby consents as part of this Lease for Tenant to continue using any underground storage tanks in substantially the same manner as such tanks were being used immediately prior to the Commencement Date hereof and as consistent with the SLA.
- 15.13 Aboveground Storage Tanks: Except with the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, Tenant shall not (1) install, use, operate, close or otherwise manage any aboveground storage tanks on the Premises, whether for Hazardous Substances or for any other substance or material; or (2) use, operate, modify, close or otherwise manage any existing aboveground storage tanks, whether for Hazardous Substances or for any other substance or material, that may be located on or about the Premises or the Property. Landlord hereby consents as part of this Lease for Tenant to continue using any aboveground storage tanks in substantially the same manner as such tanks were being used immediately prior to the Commencement Date hereof and as consistent with the SLA, and to use such tanks as are currently being constructed and as consistent with the SLA.
- 15.14 Hazardous Substances Storage Permit: Other than permits to be obtained or provided by Contractor under the SLA, Tenant, at its sole cost, Tenant shall obtain and maintain any Permits required by Environmental Laws for Tenant's Handling of Hazardous Substances in connection with its occupancy, use or activities at the Premises. Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord in complying with any Permits that Landlord may obtain for the Handling of Hazardous Substances in connection with Landlord's occupancy, use, or activities at the Premises. Nothing in this paragraph shall compromise or limit Agilent Technologies, Inc.'s obligations pursuant to any other agreement with Tenant, including without limitation, the Asset Purchase Agreement between Agilent Technologies, Inc. and Argos Acquisition Pte. Ltd. dated August 15, 2005.
- 15.15 Intentionally Omitted
- 15.16 Emergency Response: At its sole cost and expense (other than to the extent such services are to be obtained or provided by Contractor under the SLA), Tenant shall comply with all applicable Environmental Laws pertaining to emergency preparedness and emergency responses in connection with its occupancy, use or activities at the Premises, including, without limitation, the preparation of contingency plans and emergency response plans applicable to the actual or potential Release of Hazardous Substances. Tenant shall comply with Environmental Laws pertaining to emergency

16. GENERAL PROVISIONS:

- 16.1 Landlord's Right to Enter: Landlord and its Agents may enter the Premises at any reasonable time and upon prior notice (except in the case of (vii) below), for the purpose of (i) inspecting the same, including, without limitation, auditing the Premises for compliance with Environmental Laws and any other applicable Laws, (ii) posting notices of non-responsibility, (iii) showing the Premises to prospective purchasers, mortgagees or tenants, (iv) making necessary alterations, additions, or repairs, (v) performing Tenant's obligation when Tenant has failed to do so after written notice from Landlord, (vi) placing upon the Premises ordinary "for lease" or "for sale" signs, and/or (vii) in case of an emergency. For each of the aforesaid purposes, Landlord may enter the Premises by means of a master key, and Landlord may use any and all means it may deem necessary and proper to open the doors of the Premises in an emergency. Any entry into the Premises or portions thereof obtained by Landlord by any of said means, or otherwise, shall not under any circumstances be construed or deemed to be a forcible or unlawful entry into, or a detainer of, the Premises, or an eviction, actual or constructive, of Tenant from the Premises or any portion thereof. Tenant shall have the right to accompany Landlord during any such entry and Landlord shall use all reasonable efforts to schedule such entry to minimize disruption to Tenant, and to avoid interfering with Tenant's use of the Premises during such entry.
- 16.2 Surrender of the Premises: Upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, Tenant shall vacate and surrender the Premises to Landlord in the same condition as existed at the Commencement Date, except Tenant shall remove any or all of (i) its personal property, (ii) Trade Fixtures, and (iii) Leasehold Improvements, and repair all damage to the Premises caused by such removal. If such removal and other surrender obligations are not completed before the expiration or termination of the Lease Term, Landlord shall have the right (but no obligation) to perform such obligations, and Tenant shall pay Landlord on demand for all costs (including removal and storage) incurred by Landlord in connection therewith, plus interest on all such costs incurred at the Agreed Interest Rate. Landlord shall also have the right to retain or dispose of all or any portion of Tenant's personal property or Trade Fixtures if Tenant does not pay all such costs and retrieve the property within ten (10) days after notice from Landlord (in which event title to all such property described in Landlord's notice shall be transferred to and vest in Landlord). Tenant waives all claims, demands and causes of action against Landlord for any damage or loss to Tenant resulting from Landlord's removal, storage, retention, or disposition of any such property. Upon expiration or termination of this Lease or of Tenant's possession, whichever is earliest, Tenant shall surrender all keys to the Premises or any other part of the Premises and shall deliver to Landlord all keys for or make known to Landlord the combination of locks on all safes, cabinets and vaults that may be located in the Premises. Tenant's obligations under this Section shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

- 16.3 Holding Over: If Tenant holds over the Premises or any part thereof after expiration of the Lease Term, such holding over shall be considered to be at sufferance only, at a Monthly Base Rent equal to one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the Monthly Base Rent in effect immediately prior to such holding over and shall otherwise be on all the other terms and conditions of this Lease. This paragraph shall not be construed as Landlord's permission for Tenant to hold over. Acceptance of Rent by Landlord following expiration or termination shall not constitute a renewal of this Lease or extension of the Lease Term except as specifically set forth above.
- 16.4 Subordination: The following provisions shall govern the relationship of this Lease to any underlying lease, mortgage or deed of trust which now or hereafter affects the Premises, and any renewal, modification, consolidation, replacement or extension thereof (collectively "Security Instruments"), which have bear or may hereafter be executed affecting the Premises or Project, provided, that with respect to any Security Instrument entered into after the date hereof, the party secured by such Security Instrument shall have executed and delivered to Tenant a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement on such party's standard form with such modifications thereto as are reasonably requested by Tenant.
- 16.4.1 This Lease is subject and subordinate to all Security Instruments existing as of the Effective Date. However, if any Lender so requires, this Lease shall become prior and superior to any such Security Instruments.
- 16.4.2 At Landlord's election, this Lease shall become subject and subordinate to any Security Instruments created after the Effective Date.
- 16.4.3 Tenant shall execute any document or instrument required by Landlord or any Lender to make this Lease either prior or subordinate to any of the Security Instruments, which may include such other matters as the Lender customarily requires in connection with such agreements, including provisions that the Lender not be liable for any defaults on the part of Landlord occurring prior to the time the Lender takes possession of the Premises in connection with the enforcement of its Security Instrument. Tenant's failure to execute any such document or instrument within ten (10) days after written demand therefor shall constitute a default by Tenant.
- 16.5 Lender Protection and Attornment: In the event of any default on the part of the Landlord, Tenant will give notice by registered mail to any Lender whose name, if any, has been provided to Tenant and shall offer Lender a reasonable opportunity to cure the default, including time to obtain possession of the Premises by power of sale or judicial foreclosure or other appropriate legal proceedings, if such should prove necessary to effect a cure. Tenant shall attorn to any purchaser of the Premises or Project at any foreclosure sale or private sale conducted pursuant to any Security Instrument encumbering the Premises or Project, or to any grantee or transferee designated in any deed given in lieu of foreclosure.
- 16.6 Estoppel Certificates and Financial Statements: At all times during the Lease Term, Tenant agrees, within ten (10) business days after any request by Landlord, promptly to execute and deliver to Landlord an estoppel certificate, (i) certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, or if modified, stating the nature of such modification and certifying that this Lease, as so modified, is in full force and effect, (ii) stating the date to which the rent and other charges are paid in advance, if any, (iii) acknowledging that there are not, to Tenant's knowledge, any uncured defaults on the part of Landlord hereunder, or if there are uncured defaults, stating the nature of such uncured defaults, and (iv) certifying such other information about the Lease as may be reasonably required by Landlord. Tenant's failure to deliver an estoppel certificate within ten (10) days after delivery of Landlord's request therefore shall be a conclusive admission by Tenant that, as of the date of the request for such statement, (v) this Lease is unmodified except as may be represented by Landlord in said request and is in full force and effect, (vi) to Tenant's knowledge, there are no uncured defaults in Landlord's performance, and (vii) no rent has been paid more than thirty (30) days in advance. At any time during the Lease Term but solely in connection with any sale or financing of the Project, Tenant shall, upon ten (10) business days' prior written notice from Landlord, provide Tenant's or Tenant's parent company's most recent financial information that is publicly available or otherwise generally provided by Tenant to its creditors to any Lender or to any buyer of Landlord's interest in the Premises.

- 16.7 Force Majeure: Any prevention, delay, or stoppage due to strikes, lockouts, inclement weather, labor disputes, inability to obtain labor, materials, fuels or reasonable substitutes therefor, governmental restrictions, regulations, controls, action or inaction, civil commotion, fire or other acts of God, and other causes beyond the reasonable control of either party to perform shall excuse the performance by either party, for a period equal to the period of any said prevention, delay, or stoppage, of any obligation hereunder, provided that Tenant shall not be so excused from any of its monetary obligations hereunder except as otherwise set forth herein.
- 16.8 Notices: Any notice required or desired to be given regarding this Lease shall be in writing and shall be personally served, or in lieu of personal service may be given by mail or by nationally recognized overnight courier at the addresses for the parties set forth in the "Lease Summary" to this Lease (or such other addresses as may be specified by a party hereto giving notice of same to the other party in accordance with this Section). Personally served notices shall be deemed to have been given when received by the party, if served by mail, such notice shall be deemed to have been given (i) on the third business day after mailing to the party if such notice was deposited in the United States mail, certified and postage prepaid, addressed to the party to be served at the address set forth in the preceding sentence, and (ii) in all other cases when actually received.
- 16.9 Corporate Authority: (a) Each individual executing this Lease on behalf of Tenant is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Lease on behalf of said corporation in accordance with the bylaws of said corporation. This Lease is binding upon Tenant in accordance with its terms. Tenant is a duly authorized and existing corporation qualified to do business in the State in which the Property is located and that the corporation has full right and authority to enter into this Lease. (b) Each individual executing this Lease on behalf of Landlord is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Lease on behalf of said corporation in accordance with the bylaws of said corporation. This Lease is binding upon Landlord in accordance with its terms. Landlord is a duly authorized and existing corporation qualified to do business in the State in which the Property is located and that the corporation has full right and authority to enter into this Lease.

- 16.10 Miscellaneous: Should any provisions of this Lease prove to be invalid or illegal, such invalidity or illegality shall in no way affect, impair or invalidate any other provision hereof, and such remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect, to the extent permitted by law. Time is of the essence with respect to the performance of every provision of this Lease in which time of performance is a factor. The captions used in this Lease are for convenience only and shall not be considered in the construction or interpretation of any provision hereof. Any executed copy of this Lease shall be deemed an original for all purposes. This Lease shall, subject to the provisions regarding assignment, apply to and bind the respective heirs, successors, executors, administrators and assigns of Landlord and Tenant. "Party" shall mean Landlord or Tenant, as the context implies. If Tenant consists of more than one person or entity, then all members of Tenant shall be jointly and severally liable hereunder. Nothing in this Section or this Lease is intended to confer personal liability upon the officers or shareholders of Tenant. This Lease shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of California. The language in all parts of this Lease shall in all cases be construed as a whole according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against either Landlord or Tenant. When the context of this Lease requires, the neuter gender includes the masculine, the feminine, a partnership or corporation or joint venture, and the singular includes the plural. When a party is required to do something by this Lease, it shall do so at its sole cost and expense without right of reimbursement from the other party unless specific provision is made therefor. All measurements of gross leasable area shall be made from the outside faces of exterior walls and the centerline of joint partitions. Landlord makes no covenant or warranty as to the exact square footage of any area. Where Tenant is obligated not to perform any act, Tenant is also obligated to restrain any others within its control from performing said act, including agents, invitees, contractors, subcontractors and employees. Landlord shall not become or be deemed a partner nor a joint venturer with Tenant by reason of the provisions of this Lease.
- 16.11 Brokerage Commissions: Tenant warrants that is has not had any dealings with any real estate brokers, leasing agents, salesmen, or incurred any obligations for the payment of real estate brokerage commissions or finder's fees which would be earned or due and payable by reason of the execution of this Lease.
- 16.12 Consents and Approvals: Wherever the consent, approval, judgment or determination of Landlord is required or permitted under this Lease, Landlord may exercise its good faith business judgment in granting or withholding such consent or approval or in making such judgment or determination without reference to any extrinsic standard of reasonableness, unless the provision providing for such consent, approval, judgment or determination specifies that Landlord's consent or approval is not to be unreasonably withheld, or that such judgment or determination is to be reasonable, or otherwise specifies the standards under which Landlord may withhold its consent. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, if it is determined that Landlord failed to give its consent where it was required to do so under this Lease, Tenant shall be entitled to specific performance but not to monetary damages for such failure. The review and/or approval by Landlord of any item to be reviewed or approved by Landlord under the terms of this Lease or any Exhibits hereto shall not impose upon Landlord any liability for accuracy or sufficiency of any such item or the quality or suitability of such item for its intended use. Any such review or approval is for the sole purpose of protecting Landlord's interest in the Premises under this Lease, and no third parties, including Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors, invitees or any person or entity claiming by, through or under Tenant, shall have any rights hereunder.

- 16.13 Termination by Exercise of Right: If this Lease is terminated pursuant to its terms by the proper exercise of a right to terminate specifically granted to Landlord or Tenant by this Lease, then this Lease shall terminate thirty (30) days after the date the right to terminate is properly exercised (unless another date is specified in that part of the Lease creating the right, in which event the date so specified for termination shall prevail), the rent and all other charges due hereunder shall be prorated as of the date of termination, and neither Landlord nor Tenant shall have any further rights or obligations under this Lease except for those that have accrued prior to the date of termination or those obligations which this Lease specifically provides are to survive termination. This Section does not apply to a termination of this Lease by Landlord as a result of a default by Tenant.
- 16.14 Entire Agreement: This Lease, the Building 91 Lease and the SLA constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Lease, and there are no binding agreements or representations between the parties except as expressed herein, in the Building 91 Lease or in the SLA. Tenant acknowledges that neither Landlord nor Landlord's agent(s) has made any representation or warranty as to (i) whether the Premises may be used for Tenant's intended use under existing Law or (ii) the suitability of the Premises for the conduct of Tenant's business or the condition of any improvements located thereon. Tenant expressly waives all claims for damage by reason of any statement, representation, warranty, promise or other agreement of Landlord or Landlord's agent(s), if any, with respect to this Lease that are not contained in this Lease or in any addendum or amendment hereto or the SLA. No subsequent change or addition to this Lease shall be binding unless in writing and signed by the parties hereto. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms and provisions of this Lease and the terms and provisions of that certain Asset Purchase Agreement dated as of August 14, 2005 by and between Agilent Technologies, Inc. and Argos Acquisition Pte. Ltd, the terms and provisions of this Lease shall control, but only with respect to the use and operation of the Premises. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms and provisions of this Lease and the terms and provisions of the SLA, as between Landlord and Tenant, the terms and provisions of this Lease shall control.

16.15 Service Level Agreement: In the event that the SLA is terminated in accordance with its terms prior to the end of the Term hereof for any reason (including without limitation pursuant to Section 4 of the SLA or the repudiation or rejection of the SLA whether in bankruptcy or similar proceeding or otherwise), Landlord shall have the option to either (i) immediately and continuously provide (or arrange for the provision of) through the Term of this Lease all services provided to Tenant pursuant to the SLA, on the terms of the SLA as though Landlord were “Contractor” thereunder, and as though the SLA had not been terminated during the Term hereof, or (ii) terminate this Lease by giving at least ten (10) days prior written notice to Tenant.

Tenant shall take the actions necessary to resolve the Labor Disruption, and shall have pickets removed and, at the request of Landlord, immediately terminate any work in the Premises that gave rise to the Labor Disruption, until Landlord gives its written consent for the work to resume. 2. Extension of Term.
 - a. Section 2.1 of the Original Lease is hereby deleted in its entirety and is replaced with the following: "Landlord and Tenant hereby agree to extend the Lease Term for a period of an additional seven (7) years from December 1, 2008 through November 30, 2015. For purposes of the Lease, the period from December 1, 2008 through November 30, 2015 is referred to herein as the "Extended Term"."
 - b. The definition of "Expiration Date" in Section 1.15 of the Original Lease is hereby deleted, and replaced by the following: "'Expiration Date" means the earlier of November 30, 2015 or the date that this Lease is sooner terminated pursuant to its terms."
 - c. The definition of "Tenant's Share" in the Lease Summary (at the beginning of the Original Lease) and Section 1.4.4 of the Original Lease is hereby amended by adding the following as a new sentence at the end of the current definition in the Lease Summary: "During the Extended Term, Tenant's Share shall mean 29.62% for the Project should Tenant exercise its right to take the Exhibit 3b Space defined below, and 28.42% if Tenant does not exercise such right." and the following sentence at the end of Section 1.4.4: "'Tenant's Share" in connection with the Operating Expenses for the Project means the percentage obtained by dividing the gross rentable square footage of the Premises (134,202 sq. ft. if Tenant exercises its right to take the Exhibit 3b Space, or 128,790 if Tenant does not exercise such right) by the gross rentable square footage of the Project (453,107 sq. ft.), which is deemed to be 29.62% if Tenant exercises its right to take the Exhibit 3b Space, or 28.42% if Tenant does not exercise such right .”

3. Square Footage. The definition of “Premises” in the Lease Summary (at the beginning of the Original Lease) and Section 1.29 of the Original Lease are hereby amended by adding the following as a new sentence at the end of the current definition: “During the Extended Term, should Tenant exercise its right to take the Exhibit 3b Space, the Premises shall be deemed to contain one hundred thirty-four thousand two hundred two (134,202) square feet of space, including 4684 square feet of basement currently used for data center purposes, as more particularly described on Exhibit 3a attached hereto and made a part hereof. If Tenant does not exercise such right, the Premises shall be deemed to contain one hundred twenty-eight thousand seven hundred ninety (128,790) square feet of space, including 4684 square feet of basement currently used for data center purposes, also as more particularly described on Exhibit 3a attached hereto and made a part hereof.”
4. Relocation and Restoration of Tenant. The Original Lease is hereby amended by inserting the following as a new Section 2.2: “Relocation and Restoration of Tenant. Prior to the commencement of the Extended Term, Tenant shall vacate approximately 10,795 square feet of office space and 5,412 square feet of laboratory space on the ground floor as more specifically designated and set forth on Exhibit 3b hereto (the “Exhibit 3b Space”). Tenant shall surrender and vacate such space in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Lease, but shall have no restoration or “put back” obligations with respect to such space. Tenant shall have the right to require Landlord to perform, at Landlord’s cost, the restoration and relocation described below if, on or prior to November 30, 2007, Tenant notifies Landlord that it is exercising its right to require Landlord to perform such restoration and relocation. If Tenant timely exercises such right, Landlord shall, at Landlord’s cost, relocate Tenant’s existing offices from the approximately 10,795 square feet of office space surrendered to other space within the remaining Premises Tenant designates, and relocate Tenant’s existing lab equipment and utilities from the 5,412 square feet of laboratory space in a portion of the Exhibit 3b Space and restore it in the replacement laboratory space set forth on Exhibit 3b (the “Exhibit 3b Space”). The relocation of the office space shall consist of Landlord moving, reconfiguring, recabling and making other improvements sufficient to reasonably reproduce in all materials respects the surrendered offices at the location Tenant identifies. The relocation and restoration into the Exhibit 3b Space shall consist of Landlord demising and building out the Exhibit 3b Space with equivalent layout and utility capacity and, in all other material respects, comparable to what is currently set forth in the to be vacated laboratory space which comprises a portion of the Exhibit 3b Space. Landlord may not pass through or amortize any costs incurred under this Section 2.2 as an Operating Expense or otherwise.”
5. Rent. The following is hereby inserted as a new Section 3.1(A) of the Original Lease: “Commencing on December 1, 2008 and continuing on the first day of each month throughout the Extended Term as set forth and described below, Tenant shall pay Landlord without offset, deduction or prior notice, as Monthly Base Rent for the Premises, the amount obtained by multiplying the dollar amount set forth for the applicable month during the Extended Term by the square footage in the Premises:

Month of Extended Term	Amount per Square Foot Per Month
13-24	$0.761
25-36	$0.799
37-48	$0.833
49-60	$0.881
73-84	$0.972

During the Extended Term, the Monthly Base Rent shall include all Real Property Taxes allocable to the Premises. All Real Property Taxes associated with the Project and the Premises shall be for Landlord’s sole account and not passed through to Tenant as an Operating Expense, Additional Rent or otherwise.

6. Tenant Improvements.

- a. The Original Lease is hereby amended by inserting the following as a new Section 5.2(A): “Contemplated Extended Term Improvements. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in satisfaction of the requirements of Section 5.2 hereof, Landlord acknowledges and approves, in concept (and subject to the receipt and reasonable approval of plans and the other requirements set forth and described in the Original Lease) Tenant’s contemplated improvements to the Premises during the Extended Term. These contemplated improvements are: upgrade and expansion of the main lobby; installation of up to seven (7) hard-walled offices and six (6) additional conference rooms; and upgrades to existing bathrooms. Landlord reserves the right to review and approve the plans and specifications for such improvements as more particularly set forth in the Lease, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Except as otherwise set forth explicitly herein, in connection with the performance of any Leasehold Improvement, Tenant shall comply with the applicable provisions of the Lease. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Tenant shall not be required to remove from the Premises at the end of the Extended Term or otherwise the specifically referenced Leasehold Improvements described in this Section 5.2(A) and such Leasehold Improvements shall become the property of Landlord on the Expiration Date. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Landlord agrees not to charge Tenant supervisory fees with respect to the specifically referenced Leasehold Improvements described in this Section 5.2(A) or the items set forth in Section 5.5. This Section 5.2(A) shall not be deemed to affect the rights of either Landlord or Tenant, including Landlord’s right to request restoration of or to charge supervisory fees, with respect to any Leasehold Improvements other than those specifically contemplated by this Section 5.2(A) or Section 5.5.”
- b. The Original Lease is hereby further amended by inserting the following as a new Section 5.5: “Cafeteria and Fitness Center. Landlord and Tenant shall upgrade the common cafeteria and to construct a joint fitness center, with the completion of such improvements to be pursuant to mutually agreed plans (with neither party unreasonably withholding its approval) no later than the date that is one year from the date hereof. Landlord shall perform and pay for the cost of such improvements, and shall amortize fifty percent (50%) of such costs over the remaining Lease Term and Extended Term, which amortized amounts shall be charged monthly to the Tenant as Additional Rent. The remaining fifty percent (50%) shall be Landlord’s expense, and shall not be charged to Tenant as Operating Expense or otherwise. So long as Landlord continues to maintain the Cafeteria and fitness center, and subject to the other terms and conditions of this Lease and the rules applicable to those facilities, and provided that no default has occurred and remain uncured beyond the expiration of any applicable notice or cure periods, Tenant’s employees shall be permitted nonexclusive access to the Cafeteria and fitness center, in conjunction with other tenants and occupants of the Project and on a nondiscriminatory-pricing basis with such other tenants and occupants. If after such improvements are completed Landlord thereafter closes either the Cafeteria or the fitness center for a period longer than 60 days, Tenant shall be relieved of the obligation to pay the associated amortized improvement costs for such period(s).

- c. The Original Lease is hereby further amended by inserting the following as a new Section 5.6: "Earthquake Retrofitting. In the event Landlord performs any work at the Premises or the Project for the purpose of earthquake retrofitting (it being understood and agreed that Landlord shall have no obligation to perform any such work), such work shall be at Landlord's sole cost and expense, and Landlord shall have no right to amortize, include as Operating Expenses, or otherwise pass those costs through to Tenant."

7. Signage.

- a. Section 4.5 of the Original Lease is hereby amended by replacing the last sentence with the following: "Notwithstanding the foregoing, except in connection with the existing monument at the corner of Trimble and Orchard Roads, Tenant shall be entitled to 50% of the signage currently located throughout the Project (including without limitation signage at the exterior perimeter, driveways and roads, on buildings and directional signage).
- b. The Original Lease is hereby amended by inserting the following as a new Section 4.5(A): "The parties acknowledge that Landlord installed the Lumileds/Avago monument at the corner of Trimble and Orchard Roads. The cost of such installation shall be borne solely by Landlord and will not be charged to Tenant (whether as an Operating Expense or otherwise)."
- c. Exhibit D to the Original Lease is hereby amended by removing the requirement for Tenant to install the Exterior Monument signage.

8. Furniture. The Original Lease is hereby amended by inserting the following as a new Section 16.18: "Landlord's Furniture. Landlord hereby leases to Tenant without separate charge, and Tenant hereby hires from Landlord, the personal property currently located within the Premises (the "Included Personal Property"). Landlord makes no representation as to the condition or usability of the Included Personal Property. Tenant shall indemnify and hold harmless Landlord, and its officers, directors, agents, employees and invitees, from and against any and all claims, actions, liability and damages (including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) sustained by any agent, employee, contractor, invitee, assignee or tenant of Tenant as a result of any injury, damage or other liability suffered in connection with the Included Personal Property. Tenant shall (i) accept the Included Personal Property in its "as is" condition as of the date hereof, as the same may be affected by reasonable wear and tear after the date hereof, (ii) insure the Included Personal Property against loss or damage by fire or other casualty (and all of the provisions of this Lease applicable to insurance required to be carried by Tenant shall be applicable thereto), and (iii) surrender the Included Personal Property to Landlord in the Premises upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease in the same condition as of the date hereof, as the same may be affected by reasonable wear and tear.

If Tenant desires to remove any or all of the Included Personal Property from the Premises, it shall notify Landlord of its intention with a specific list of the specified property. Landlord shall either inform Tenant that (i) Tenant shall dispose the applicable Included Personal Property, in which event the removal and disposal of the applicable Included Personal Property shall be at Tenant's sole cost and expense, or (ii) Tenant shall move, at its sole cost and expense, the applicable Included Personal Property to a location at the Project designated by Landlord. In the latter event, the cost and expense of storage will be borne by Landlord. Tenant shall have no obligation to replace or restore any such Included Personal Property so removed upon the Expiration Date."

9. Amendments to SLA.
- a. Section 12.6.4 of the SLA is hereby amended by inserting the following at the end of the second sentence: “, as such Building 90 Lease may have been extended.”
 - b. All expenses to be paid by the Company to Contractor, as described in Exhibit B to the SLA, will equal the applicable percentages, applied to the actual costs to Contractor for such services. Contractor shall continue to charge the Company an administrative fee of 3% as described in Section 2 of the SLA. A designated representative of the Contractor and a designated representative of the Company shall meet prior to the start of each calendar year to fix the levels of Services and estimates of the initial cost of the Services for the next year. Contractor and Company acknowledge that they have agreed to estimates of the expenses for 2007. The Services to the Company will remain the equivalent of two technical maintenance headcount.
10. Brokers. Tenant represents and warrants that it has had no dealings with any real estate broker or agent in connection with this Amendment other than Cornish & Carey Commercial, whose fee and/or commission shall be payable by Tenant and that it knows of no other real estate broker or agent who is or might be entitled to a commission in connection with this Amendment. Tenant agrees to defend, indemnify and hold Landlord free and harmless from and against any and all liabilities or expenses, including reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, arising out of or in connection with claims made by any broker or individual that Tenant has dealt with for commissions or fees resulting from Tenant’s execution of this Agreement.
- a. Full Force and Effect; Inconsistency. Except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Amendment, all provisions of the Original Lease shall remain in full force and effect as modified hereby and are hereby ratified, confirmed and affirmed, and references therein to the “Lease” shall be references to the Original Lease as modified by this Amendment. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of the Original Lease and the terms of this Amendment, the terms of this Amendment shall control.
 - b. Counterparts. This Amendment may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument. To facilitate the execution of this Amendment, each of the parties hereto may execute and exchange by telephone facsimile counterparts of the signature pages, with each facsimile being deemed an “original” for all purposes.

If such corresponding amount is not in fact made available to such Administrative Agent by such Lender and such Administrative Agent has made available same to the applicable Borrower, such Administrative Agent shall be entitled to recover such corresponding amount from such Lender. If such Lender does not pay such corresponding amount forthwith upon such Administrative Agent's demand therefor such Administrative Agent shall promptly notify the applicable Borrower and such Borrower shall immediately pay such corresponding amount to such Administrative Agent. then, and in any such event, such Lender (or the applicable Administrative Agent, in the case of clause (i) above) shall within a reasonable time thereafter give notice (if by telephone, confirmed in writing) to the applicable Borrowers and to the applicable Administrative Agent of such determination (which notice such Administrative Agent shall promptly transmit to each of the other Lenders). (b) At any time that any LIBOR Loan, SOR Loan, Singapore COF Loan or RM Loan is affected by the circumstances described in Section 2.10(a)(ii) or (iii), the applicable Borrower may (and in the case of a LIBOR Loan, SOR Loan, Singapore COF Loan or RM Loan affected pursuant to Section 2.10(a)(iii) shall) either (x) if the affected LIBOR Loan, SOR Loan, Singapore COF Loan or RM Loan is then being made pursuant to a Borrowing, cancel said Borrowing by giving the applicable Administrative Agent telephonic notice (confirmed promptly in writing) thereof on the same date that such Borrower was notified by a Lender pursuant to Section 2.10(a)(ii) or (iii) or (y) if the affected Loan is a LIBOR Loan, SOR Loan or RM Loan then outstanding, upon at least three Business Days' notice to the applicable Administrative Agent, require the affected Lender to convert each such Loan into an ABR Loan, provided that if more than one Lender is affected at any time, then all affected Lenders must be treated in the same manner pursuant to this Section 2.10(b).

(c) If, after the date hereof, the adoption of any applicable law, rule or regulation regarding capital adequacy, or any change therein, or any change in the interpretation or administration thereof by any governmental authority, the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, central bank or comparable agency charged with the interpretation or administration thereof, or compliance by a Lender or its parent with any request or directive made or adopted after the date hereof regarding capital adequacy (whether or not having the force of law) of any such authority, association, central bank or comparable agency, has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's or its parent's or its Affiliate's capital or assets as a consequence of such Lender's commitments or obligations hereunder to a level below that which such Lender or its parent or its Affiliate could have achieved but for such adoption, effectiveness, change or compliance (taking into consideration such Lender's or its parent's policies with respect to capital adequacy), then from time to time, promptly after demand by such Lender (with a copy to the applicable Administrative Agent), each applicable Borrower shall pay to such Lender such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or its parent for such reduction, it being understood and agreed, however, that a Lender shall not be entitled to such compensation as a result of such

Lender's compliance with, or pursuant to any request or directive to comply with, any such law, rule or regulation as in effect on the date hereof. Each Lender, upon determining in good faith that any additional amounts will be payable pursuant to this Section 2.10(c), will give prompt written notice thereof to the applicable Borrower which notice shall set forth in reasonable detail the basis of the calculation of such additional amounts, although the failure to give any such notice shall not, subject to Section 2.13, release or diminish such Borrower's obligations to pay additional amounts pursuant to this Section 2.10(c) upon receipt of such notice.

(d) It is understood that to the extent duplicative of Section 5.4, this Section 2.10 shall not apply to Taxes.

2.11 Compensation. (c) Upon at least one Business Day's prior written notice (or telephonic notice promptly confirmed in writing) to the Asian Administrative Agent and the Letter of Credit Issuer (which notice such Administrative Agent shall promptly transmit to each of the applicable Lenders), the Company shall have the right, on any day, permanently to terminate or reduce the U.S. Dollar Letter of Credit Commitment in whole or in part, provided that, after giving effect to such termination or reduction, the Letters of Credit Outstanding shall not exceed the U.S. Dollar Letter of Credit Commitment.

(a) Whenever any U.S. Dollar Borrower desires that a Letter of Credit be issued for its account, it shall give the Asian Administrative Agent and the Letter of Credit Issuer at least five (or such lesser number as may be agreed upon by such Administrative Agent and the Letter of Credit Issuer) Business Days' written notice thereof. Each notice shall be executed by such Borrower and shall be in the form of Exhibit H (each a "Letter of Credit Request"). The Asian Administrative Agent shall promptly transmit copies of each Letter of Credit Request to each U.S. Dollar Lender.

(b) The making of each Letter of Credit Request shall be deemed to be a representation and warranty by the applicable Borrowers that the Letter of Credit may be issued in accordance with, and will not violate the requirements of, Section 3.1(b).

3.3 Letter of Credit Participations.

(a) Immediately upon the issuance by the Letter of Credit Issuer of any Letter of Credit, the Letter of Credit Issuer shall be deemed to have sold and transferred to each U.S. Dollar Lender (each such other U.S. Dollar Lender, in its capacity under this Section 3.3, an "L/C Participant"), and each such L/C Participant shall be deemed irrevocably and unconditionally to have purchased and received from the Letter of Credit Issuer, without recourse or warranty, an undivided interest and participation (each an "L/C Participation"), to the extent of such L/C Participant's U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitment Percentage in such Letter of Credit, each substitute letter of credit, each drawing made thereunder and the obligations of the Borrowers under this Agreement with respect thereto, and any security therefor or guaranty pertaining thereto; provided that the Letter of Credit Fees will be paid directly to the Asian Administrative Agent for the ratable account of the L/C Participants as provided in Section 4.1(b) and the L/C Participants shall have no right to receive any portion of any Fronting Fees).

(b) In determining whether to pay under any Letter of Credit, the Letter of Credit Issuer shall have no obligation relative to any L/C Participants other than to confirm that any documents required to be delivered under such Letter of Credit have been delivered and that they appear to comply on their face with the requirements of such Letter of Credit. Any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Letter of Credit Issuer under or in connection with any Letter of Credit issued by it, if taken or omitted in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct, shall not create for the Letter of Credit Issuer any resulting liability.

(c) In the event that the Letter of Credit Issuer makes any payment under any Letter of Credit issued by it and the applicable Borrower shall not have repaid such amount in full to the Letter of Credit Issuer pursuant to Section 3.4(a), the Letter of Credit Issuer shall promptly notify the Asian Administrative Agent and each L/C Participant of such failure, and each such L/C Participant shall promptly and unconditionally pay to the Asian Administrative Agent for the account of the Letter of Credit Issuer, the amount of such L/C Participant's U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitment Percentage of such unreimbursed payment in U.S. Dollars and in immediately available funds; provided that no L/C Participant shall be obligated to pay to the Asian Administrative Agent for the account of the Letter of Credit Issuer its U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitment Percentage of such unreimbursed amount arising from any wrongful payment made by the Letter of Credit Issuer under a Letter of Credit as a result of acts or omissions constituting willful misconduct or gross negligence on the part of the Letter of Credit Issuer. The failure of any L/C Participant to make available to the Asian Administrative Agent for the account of the Letter of Credit Issuer its U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitment Percentage of any payment under any Letter of Credit shall not relieve any other L/C Participant of its obligation hereunder to make available to the Asian Administrative Agent for the account of the Letter of Credit Issuer its U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitment Percentage, of any payment under such Letter of Credit on the date required, as specified above, but no L/C Participant shall be responsible for the failure of any other L/C Participant to make available to the Asian Administrative Agent such other L/C Participant's U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitment Percentage of any such payment.

(d) Whenever the Letter of Credit Issuer receives a payment in respect of an unpaid reimbursement obligation as to which the Asian Administrative Agent has received for the account of the Letter of Credit Issuer any payments from the L/C Participants pursuant to clause (c) above, the Letter of Credit Issuer shall pay to the Asian Administrative Agent and such Administrative Agent shall promptly pay to each L/C Participant that has paid its U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitment Percentage of such reimbursement obligation, in U.S. Dollars and in immediately available funds, an amount equal to such L/C Participant's share (based upon the proportionate aggregate amount originally funded by such L/C Participant to the aggregate amount funded by all L/C Participants) of the principal amount of such reimbursement obligation and interest thereon accruing after the purchase of the respective L/C Participations.

(e) The obligations of the L/C Participants to make payments to the Asian Administrative Agent for the account of the Letter of Credit Issuer with respect to Letters of Credit shall be irrevocable and not subject to counterclaim, set-off or other defense or any other qualification or exception whatsoever and shall be made in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement under all circumstances, including under any of the following circumstances:

(iii) any draft, certificate or any other document presented under any Letter of Credit proving to be forged, fraudulent, invalid or insufficient in any respect or any statement therein being untrue or inaccurate in any respect;

(iv) the surrender or impairment of any security for the performance or observance of any of the terms of any of the Credit Documents; or

(v) the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default; provided that no L/C Participant shall be obligated to pay to the Asian Administrative Agent for the account of the Letter of Credit Issuer its U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitment Percentage of any unreimbursed amount arising from any wrongful payment made by the Letter of Credit Issuer under a Letter of Credit as a result of acts or omissions constituting willful misconduct or gross negligence on the part of the Letter of Credit Issuer.

3.5 Each U.S. Dollar Borrower hereby agrees to reimburse the Letter of Credit Issuer by making payment in U.S. Dollars to the Asian Administrative Agent (in the case of reimbursement made by such Borrower) in immediately available funds for any payment or disbursement made by the Letter of Credit Issuer under any Letter of Credit (each such amount so paid until reimbursed, an “Unpaid Drawing”) immediately after, and in any event on the date of, such payment, with interest on the amount so paid or disbursed by the Letter of Credit Issuer, to the extent not reimbursed prior to 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on the date of such payment or disbursement, from and including the date paid or disbursed to but excluding the date the Letter of Credit Issuer is reimbursed therefor at a rate per annum that shall at all times be the Applicable LIBOR Margin plus the LIBOR Rate as in effect from time to time, provided that, notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, (i) unless the applicable Borrower shall have notified the Asian Administrative Agent and the Letter of Credit Issuer prior to 10:00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on the date of such drawing that such Borrower intends to reimburse the Letter of Credit Issuer for the amount of such drawing with funds other than the proceeds of Loans, such Borrower shall be deemed to have given a Notice of Borrowing requesting that, with respect to Letters of Credit, that the Lenders with U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitments or make U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Loans (which shall be LIBOR Loans), and (ii) the Asian Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each L/C Participant of such drawing and the amount of its Revolving Credit Loan to be made in respect thereof, and each such L/C Participant shall be irrevocably obligated to make a U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Loan to the applicable Borrower in the manner deemed to have been requested in the amount of its U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitment Percentage of the applicable Unpaid Drawing by 12:00 noon (Hong Kong) on such Business Day by making the amount of such U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Loan available to the Asian Administrative Agent. Such U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Loans shall be made without regard to the Minimum Borrowing Amount. The Asian Administrative Agent shall use the proceeds of such Revolving Credit Loans solely for purpose of reimbursing the Letter of Credit Issuer for the related Unpaid Drawing.

(a) The obligations of the Borrowers under this Section 3.4 to reimburse the Letter of Credit Issuer with respect to Unpaid Drawings (including, in each case, interest thereon) shall be absolute and unconditional under any and all circumstances and irrespective of any set-off, counterclaim or defense to payment that any Borrower or any other Person may have or have had against the Letter of Credit Issuer, any Administrative Agent or any Lender (including in its capacity as an L/C Participant), including any defense based upon the failure of any drawing under a Letter of Credit (each a “Drawing”) to conform to the terms of the Letter of Credit or any non-application or misapplication by the beneficiary of the proceeds of such Drawing, provided that no Borrower shall be obligated to reimburse the Letter of Credit Issuer for any wrongful payment made by the Letter of Credit Issuer under the Letter of Credit issued by it as a result of acts or omissions constituting willful misconduct or gross negligence on the part of such Letter of Credit Issuer.

Such commitment fee shall be payable in arrears (x) on the last day of each March, June, September and December (for the three-month period (or portion thereof) ended on such day for which no payment has been received) and (y) on the Final Date (for the period ended on such date for which no payment has been received pursuant to clause (x) above), and shall be computed for each day during such period at a rate per annum equal to the Commitment Fee Rate in effect on such day on the Malaysian Available Commitments in effect on such day; provided that, at any time, when the Malaysian Borrower is prohibited by applicable law or regulations from making such payments in U.S. Dollars, the other Borrowers jointly and severally agree to pay amounts owing under this clause (iii).

(iv) The Company agrees to pay to the Asian Administrative Agent in U.S. Dollars, for the account of each Lender having a Tranche B-2 Term Loan Commitment (in each case pro rata according to the respective Tranche B-2 Term Loan Commitments of all such Lenders), a commitment fee for each day from and including the Closing Date to but excluding the Tranche B-2 Term Loan Commitment Termination Date) at a rate of 1% per annum on the aggregate amount of the Tranche B-2 Term Loan Commitment. Such commitment fee shall be payable in arrears (x) on the last day of each March, June, September and December (for the three-month period (or portion thereof) ended on such day for which no payment has been received) and (y) on the Tranche B-2 Term Loan Commitment Termination Date (for the period ended on such date for which no payment has been received pursuant to clause (x) above).

(v) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrowers shall not be obligated to pay any amounts to any Defaulting Lender pursuant to this Section 4.1.

(b) The Company agrees to pay to the Asian Administrative Agent in U.S. Dollars for the account of the U.S. Dollar Lenders pro rata on the basis of their respective Letter of Credit Exposure, a fee in respect of each Letter of Credit (the "Letter of Credit Fee"), for the period from and including the date of issuance of such Letter of Credit to but excluding the termination date of such Letter of Credit computed at the per annum rate for each day equal to the Applicable LIBOR Margin for Revolving Credit Loans on the average daily Stated Amount of such Letter of Credit. Such Letter of Credit Fees shall be due and payable quarterly in arrears on the last day of each March, June, September and December and on the date upon which the Total Revolving Credit Commitment terminates and the Letters of Credit Outstanding shall have been reduced to zero.

(c) The Borrowers agree to pay to the Asian Administrative Agent in U.S. Dollars for the account of the Letter of Credit Issuer a fee in respect of each Letter of Credit issued by it (the “Fronting Fee”), for the period from and including the date of issuance of such Letter of Credit to but excluding the termination date of such Letter of Credit, computed at the rate for each day equal to 0.250% per annum on the average daily Stated Amount of such Letter of Credit. Such Fronting Fees shall be due and payable quarterly in arrears on the last day of each March, June, September and December and on the date upon which the Total Revolving Credit Commitment terminates and the Letters of Credit Outstanding shall have been reduced to zero.

(d) The Borrowers agree to pay directly to the Letter of Credit Issuer in U.S. Dollars upon each issuance of, drawing under, and/or amendment of, a Letter of Credit issued by it such amount as the Letter of Credit Issuer and the Borrowers shall have agreed upon for issuances of, drawings under or amendments of, letters of credit issued by it.

4.2 Voluntary Reduction of Revolving Credit Commitments. Upon at least one Business Day’s prior written notice (or telephonic notice promptly confirmed in writing) to the Asian Administrative Agent at its Administrative Agent’s Office (which notice the Asian Administrative Agent shall promptly transmit to each of the applicable Lenders), the Company shall have the right, without premium or penalty, on any day, permanently to terminate or reduce any of the U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitments, the Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Commitments or the Malaysian Revolving Credit Commitments in whole or in part, provided that (i) any such reduction shall apply proportionately and permanently to reduce such Revolving Credit Commitment of each of the Lenders under such Commitment, (ii) any partial reduction pursuant to this Section 4.2 shall be in the amount of at least $5,000,000 and (iii) after giving effect to such termination or reduction and to any prepayments of the Loans made on the date thereof in accordance with this Agreement, the aggregate amount of the U.S. Dollar Lenders’ U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Exposures at such time shall not exceed the Total U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitment then in effect, the Multi-Currency Lenders’ Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Exposures at such time shall not exceed the Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Commitment then in effect and the Malaysian Lenders’ Malaysian Revolving Credit Exposures at such time shall not exceed the Total Malaysian Revolving Credit Commitment then in effect.

4.3 Mandatory Termination of Commitments. (a) (x) The Tranche B-1 Term Loan Commitments shall terminate at 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the Closing Date and (y) the Tranche B-2 Term Loan Commitments shall terminate at 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Tranche B-2 Term Loan Commitment Termination Date.

(b) The Total Revolving Credit Commitment shall terminate at 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Revolving Credit Maturity Date.

(c) The Swingline Commitments shall terminate at 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Swingline Maturity Date.

(d) The New Tranche B Term Loan Commitment for any Series shall terminate at 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Increased Amount Date for such Series.

(e) If any prepayment of Term Loans would otherwise be required pursuant to Section 5.2(a) but cannot be made because there are no Term Loans outstanding, or because the amount of the required prepayment exceeds the outstanding amount of Term Loans, then, on the date that such prepayment is required, the Revolving Credit Commitments shall be permanently reduced pro rata by an aggregate amount equal to the amount of the required prepayment, or the excess of such amount over the outstanding amount of Tranche B Term Loans, as the case may be, and the Borrowers shall comply with Section 5.2(b) after giving effect to such reduction.

SECTION 5. Payments.

5.1 Voluntary Prepayments. The Borrowers shall have the right to prepay Term Loans, Revolving Credit Loans and Swingline Loans, in each case, without premium or penalty, in whole or in part from time to time on the following terms and conditions: (a) the applicable Borrower shall give the applicable Administrative Agent and at such Administrative Agent's Office written notice (or telephonic notice promptly confirmed in writing) of its intent to make such prepayment, the amount of such prepayment and the specific Borrowing(s) pursuant to which made, which notice shall be given by such Borrower no later than (i) in the case of Term Loans or Revolving Credit Loans, 10:00 a.m. (Local Time) one Business Day prior to, or (ii) in the case of Swingline Loans, 10:00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on, the date of such prepayment and shall promptly be transmitted by such applicable Administrative Agent to each of the applicable Lenders or the applicable Swingline Lender, as the case may be; (b) each partial prepayment of any Borrowing of Term Loans or Revolving Credit Loans shall be in a multiple of the U.S. Dollar Equivalent of $100,000 and in an aggregate principal amount of at least the U.S. Dollar Equivalent of $1,000,000 and each partial prepayment of Swingline Loans shall be in a multiple of the U.S. Dollar Equivalent of $10,000 and in an aggregate principal amount of at least the U.S. Dollar Equivalent of $100,000, provided that no partial prepayment of LIBOR Term Loans, LIBOR Revolving Credit Loans, SOR Loans or RM Loans made pursuant to a single Borrowing shall reduce the outstanding LIBOR Term Loans, LIBOR Revolving Credit Loans, SOR Loans or RM Loans made pursuant to such Borrowing to an amount less than the Minimum Borrowing Amount for LIBOR Term Loans or LIBOR Revolving Credit Loans and (c) any prepayment of LIBOR Term Loans or LIBOR Revolving Credit Loans pursuant to this Section 5.1 on any day other than the last day of an Interest Period applicable thereto shall be subject to compliance by the applicable Borrower with the applicable provisions of Section 2.11. Each prepayment in respect of any tranche of Term Loans pursuant to this Section 5.1 shall be (a) applied to Term Loans in such manner as the Company may determine and (b) applied to reduce Tranche B-1 Repayment Amount, the Tranche B-2 Repayment Amount and/or any New Tranche B Repayment Amount, as the case may be, in such order as the Company may determine. At the applicable Borrower's election in connection with any prepayment pursuant to this Section 5.1, such prepayment shall not be applied to any Term Loan or Revolving Credit Loan of a Defaulting Lender.

5.2 Mandatory Prepayments.

(a) Term Loan Prepayments.

(i) On each occasion that a Prepayment Event occurs, the Company shall, within one Business Day after the occurrence of a Debt Incurrence Prepayment Event and within five Business Days after the occurrence of any other Prepayment Event, prepay, in accordance with paragraph (c) below, the principal amount of Term Loans in an amount equal to 100% of the Net Cash Proceeds from such Prepayment Event, provided that, at the option of the Company, the Net Cash Proceeds from any transaction permitted by Section 10.4(e) may be applied to repay Revolving Credit Loans, which repayment shall automatically result in the reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitment of each Lender by an amount equal to the amount of the Revolving Credit Loans prepaid to such Lender.

(ii) Not later than the date that is ninety days after the last day of any fiscal year (commencing with and including the fiscal year ending October 31, 2006), the Company shall prepay, in accordance with clause (c) below, the principal of Term Loans in an amount equal to (x) 50% of Excess Cash Flow for such fiscal year (provided such percentage shall be reduced to 25% if the Consolidated Total Senior Secured Debt to Adjusted EBITDA Ratio as of the end of such fiscal year is less than 1.50 to 1.00, and, provided further, that such percentage shall be reduced to 0% if the Consolidated Total Senior Secured Debt to Adjusted EBITDA Ratio as of the end of such fiscal year is less than 1.00 to 1.00), minus (y) the principal amount of Term Loans voluntarily prepaid pursuant to Section 5.1 during such fiscal year.

(iii) Within five Business Day after the consummation of the Storage Sale, prepay pro rata the principal amount of the Tranche B-1 Term Loans in an amount equal to 100% of the Storage Sale Net Cash Proceeds.

(b) Repayment of Revolving Credit Loans.

(i) If on any date the aggregate amount of the U.S. Dollar Lenders' U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Exposures (all the foregoing, collectively, the "Aggregate U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Outstanding") exceeds 100% of the Total U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitment as then in effect, the U.S. Dollar Borrowers shall forthwith repay on such date the principal amount of U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Loans in an amount equal to such excess. If, after giving effect to the prepayment of all outstanding U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Loans, the Aggregate U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Outstanding exceeds the Total U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitment then in effect, the U.S. Dollar Borrowers shall pay to the Asian Administrative Agent an amount in cash equal to such excess and such Administrative Agent shall instruct the Collateral Agent to hold such payment for the benefit of the U.S. Dollar Lenders as security for the obligations of the U.S. Dollar Borrowers hereunder (including obligations in respect of Letters of Credit Outstanding) pursuant to a cash collateral agreement to be entered into in form and substance satisfactory to the Administrative Agents (which shall permit certain Investments in Permitted Investments satisfactory to the Administrative Agents, until the proceeds are applied to the secured obligations);

(ii) If on any date the aggregate amount of the Multi-Currency Lenders' Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Exposures (all the foregoing, collectively, the "Aggregate Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Outstanding") exceeds 100% of the Total Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Commitment as then in effect, the Multi-Currency Borrowers shall forthwith repay on such date the principal amount of Multi-Currency Swingline Loans and, after all Multi-Currency Swingline Loans have been paid in full, Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Loans in an amount equal to such excess. If, after giving effect to the prepayment of all outstanding Multi-Currency Swingline Loans and Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Loans, the Aggregate Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Outstanding exceeds the Total Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Commitment then in effect, the Multi-Currency Borrowers shall pay to the Asian Administrative Agent an amount in cash equal to such excess and such Administrative Agent shall instruct the Collateral Agent to hold such payment for the benefit of the Multi-Currency Lenders as security for the obligations of the Multi-Currency Borrowers hereunder pursuant to a cash collateral agreement to be entered into in form and substance satisfactory to the Administrative Agents (which shall permit certain Investments in Permitted Investments satisfactory to the Administrative Agents, until the proceeds are applied to the secured obligations); and

(iii) If on any date the aggregate amount of the Malaysian Lenders' Malaysian Revolving Credit Exposures (all the foregoing, collectively, the "Aggregate Malaysian Revolving Credit Outstanding") exceeds 100% of the Total Malaysian Revolving Credit Commitment as then in effect, the Malaysian Borrower shall forthwith repay on such date the principal amount of Malaysian Swingline Loans and, after all Malaysian Swingline Loans have been paid in full, Malaysian Revolving Credit Loans or New Malaysian U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Loans, as applicable, in an amount equal to such excess. If, after giving effect to the prepayment of all outstanding Malaysian Swingline Loans and Malaysian Revolving Credit Loans or New Malaysian U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Loans, as applicable, the Aggregate Malaysian Revolving Credit Outstanding exceeds the Total Malaysian Revolving Credit Commitment then in effect, the Malaysian Borrower shall pay to the Asian Administrative Agent an amount in cash equal to such excess and the such Administrative Agent shall instruct the Collateral Agent to hold such payment for the benefit of the Malaysian Lenders as security for the obligations of the Malaysian Borrower hereunder pursuant to a cash collateral agreement to be entered into in form and substance satisfactory to the Administrative Agents (which shall permit certain Investments in Permitted Investments satisfactory to the Administrative Agents, until the proceeds are applied to the secured obligations); provided that, (A) in each of clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) above to the extent such excess results solely by reason of a change in exchange rates, the applicable Borrowers shall only be required to make such prepayment on the last day of the then current fiscal quarter, unless the amount of such excess causes the Aggregate U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Outstanding, Aggregate Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Outstanding or Aggregate Malaysian Revolving Credit Outstanding to exceed the U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Exposures, Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Exposures or Malaysian Revolving Credit Exposures, as applicable, by more than 110% and (B) no prepayment of Revolving Credit Loans pursuant to this Section 5.2(b) shall be applied to the Revolving Credit Loans of any Defaulting Lender.

(c) Application to Repayment Amounts. Each prepayment of Term Loans required by Section 5.2(a)(i) or (ii) shall be initially allocated pro rata among the Tranche B Term Loans and shall be applied to reduce the applicable Repayment Amounts in such order as the Company may determine up to an amount equal to the aggregate amount of the applicable Repayment Amounts required to be made by the Company pursuant to Section 2.5(b) during the two year period immediately following the date of the prepayment (such amount being, the "Amortization Amount"), provided that to the extent that the amount of the prepayment exceeds the Amortization Amount, such excess shall be applied ratably to reduce the then remaining Repayment Amounts under such Credit Facility. With respect to each such prepayment, the Company will, not later than the date specified in Section 5.2(a) for making such prepayment, give the applicable

Administrative Agent telephonic notice (promptly confirmed in writing) requesting such Administrative Agent to provide notice of such prepayment to each Tranche B-1 Term Loan Lender or Tranche B-2 Term Loan Lender, as applicable.

(d) Application to Term Loans. With respect to each prepayment of Tranche B-1 Term Loans required by Section 5.2(a), the Company may designate the Types of Loans that are to be prepaid and the specific Borrowing(s) pursuant to which made, provided that if LIBOR Term Loans made pursuant to a single Borrowing shall be reduced to an amount less than the Minimum Borrowing Amount for LIBOR Loans, the outstanding Tranche B-1 Term Loans made pursuant to such Borrowing shall immediately be converted into ABR Loans. In the absence of a designation by the Company as described in the preceding sentence, the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Administrative Agent shall, subject to the above, make such designation in its reasonable discretion with a view, but no obligation, to minimize breakage costs owing under Section 2.11.

(e) Application to Revolving Credit Loans. Each prepayment of Revolving Credit Loans elected by the Company pursuant to Section 5.2(a) or if required pursuant to Section 5.2(b) shall be applied as follows: first, at the option of the Asian Administrative Agent in its reasonable discretion, to repay the outstanding principal balance of the Swingline Loans, on a pro rata basis between the Multi-Currency Swingline Loans and the Malaysian Swingline Loans, until all Swingline Loan shall have been repaid in full; second, to repay the outstanding principal balance of the Revolving Credit Loans, on a pro rata basis between the U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Loans, the Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Loans and the Malaysian Revolving Credit Loans or New Malaysian U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Loans, as applicable, until all Revolving Credit Loans shall have been paid in full; and third, to provide cash collateral for the Letter of Credit Exposure, in an amount equal to 105% of the Letter of Credit Exposure at such time, pursuant to a cash collateral agreement to be entered into in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agents (which shall permit certain Investments in Permitted Investments satisfactory to the Administrative Agents, until the proceeds are applied to the Obligations), until all such Letter of Credit Obligations have been fully cash collateralized in the manner set forth therein; provided that no prepayment of Revolving Credit Loans pursuant to Section 5.2(a) shall be applied to the Revolving Credit Loans of any Defaulting Lender.

(f) Interest Periods. In lieu of making any payment pursuant to this Section 5.2 in respect of any LIBOR Loan, any SOR Loan or any RM Loan other than on the last day of the Interest Period therefor so long as no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, any Borrower at its option may deposit with the Asian Administrative Agent an amount equal to the amount of the LIBOR Loan SOR Loan or RM Loan to be prepaid and such LIBOR Loan, SOR Loan or RM Loan shall be repaid on the last day of the Interest Period therefor in the required amount. Such deposit shall be held by the Asian Administrative Agent in a corporate time deposit account established on terms reasonably satisfactory to such Administrative Agent, earning interest at the then-customary rate for accounts of such type. Such deposit shall constitute cash collateral for the Obligations, provided that such Borrower may at any time direct that such deposit be applied to make the applicable payment required pursuant to this Section 5.2.

(g) Minimum Amount. No prepayment shall be required pursuant to Section 5.2(a)(i) unless and until the amount at any time of Net Cash Proceeds from Prepayment Events required to be applied at or prior to such time pursuant to such Section and not yet applied at or prior to such time to prepay Term Loans pursuant to such Section exceeds (i) $10,000,000 for a single Prepayment Event or (ii) $25,000,000 in the aggregate for all such Prepayment Events.

(h) Foreign Asset Sales. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Section 5.2, (i) to the extent that any of or all the Net Cash Proceeds of any asset sale by Holdings, the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary giving rise to an Asset Sale Prepayment Event (a "Foreign Asset Sale") or Excess Cash Flow are prohibited or delayed by applicable local law from being repatriated to the United States, Singapore, Malaysia or Luxembourg, the portion of such Net Cash Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow so affected will not be required to be applied to repay Term Loans at the times provided in this Section 5.2 but may be retained by Holdings, the Company or the applicable Restricted Subsidiary so long, but only so long, as the applicable local law will not permit repatriation to the United States or Singapore (the Company hereby agreeing to cause the applicable Restricted Subsidiary to promptly take all actions required by the applicable local law to permit such repatriation), and once such repatriation of any of such affected Net Cash Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow is permitted under the applicable local law, such repatriation will be immediately effected and such repatriated Net Cash Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow will be promptly (and in any event not later than two Business Days after such repatriation) applied (net of additional taxes payable or reserved against as a result thereof) to the repayment of the Term Loans pursuant to this Section 5.2 and (ii) to the extent that the Company has determined in good faith that repatriation of any of or all the Net Cash Proceeds of any Foreign Asset Sale or Excess Cash Flow would have a material adverse tax cost consequence with respect to such Net Cash Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow, the Net Cash Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow so affected may be retained by Holdings, the Company or the applicable Restricted Subsidiary, provided that, in the case of this clause (ii), on or before the date on which any Net Cash Proceeds so retained would otherwise have been required to be applied to reinvestments or prepayments pursuant to Section 5.2(a) (or such Excess Cash Flow would have been so required if it were Net Cash Proceeds), (x) the Borrowers apply an amount equal to such Net Cash Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow to such reinvestments or prepayments as if such Net Cash Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow had been received by the Borrowers rather than Holdings, the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary, less the amount of additional taxes that would have been payable or reserved against if such Net Cash Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow had been repatriated (or, if less, the Net Cash Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow that would be calculated if received by such Restricted Subsidiary) or (y) such Net Cash Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow are applied to the repayment of Indebtedness of a Restricted Subsidiary.

5.3 Method and Place of Payment. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all payments under this Agreement shall be made by the Borrowers, without set-off, counterclaim or deduction of any kind, to the applicable Administrative Agent for the ratable account of the Lenders entitled thereto, the Letter of Credit Issuer or the Swingline Lender entitled thereto, as the case may be, not later than 12:00 Noon (Local Time) on the date when due and shall be made in immediately available funds at the applicable Administrative Agent's Office or at such other office as the applicable Administrative Agent shall specify for such purpose by notice to the Company, it being understood that written or facsimile notice by the Borrowers to the such Administrative Agent to make a payment from the funds in any Borrower's account at such Administrative Agent's Office shall constitute the making of such payment to the extent of such funds held in such account. All repayments or prepayments of Loans (whether of principal, interest or otherwise) hereunder shall be made in the currency such Loans are denominated and all other payments under each Credit Document shall be made in U.S. Dollars. The applicable Administrative Agent will thereafter cause to be distributed on the same day (if payment was actually received by such Administrative Agent prior to 2:00 p.m. (Local Time) on such day) like funds relating to the payment of principal or interest or Fees ratably to the Lenders entitled thereto.

(b) Any payments under this Agreement that are made later than 2:00 p.m. (Local Time) shall be deemed to have been made on the next succeeding Business Day. Whenever any payment to be made hereunder shall be stated to be due on a day that is not a Business Day, the due date thereof shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day and, with respect to payments of principal, interest shall be payable during such extension at the applicable rate in effect immediately prior to such extension.

5.4 Net Payments. (a) Any and all payments made by or on behalf of any Borrower or any Guarantor under this Agreement or any other Credit Document shall be made free and clear of, and without deduction or withholding for or on account of, any Indemnified Taxes; provided that if any Borrower or any Guarantor shall be required by law to deduct or withhold any Indemnified Taxes from such payments, then (i) the sum payable shall be increased as necessary so that after making all required deductions and withholdings (including deductions or withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 5.4) any Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender, as the case may be, receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions or withholdings been made, (ii) the Borrowers or any Guarantor shall make such deductions or withholdings and (iii) any Borrower or any Guarantor shall pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law. Whenever any Indemnified Taxes are payable by any Borrower, as promptly as possible thereafter, such Borrower shall send to the applicable Administrative Agent for its own account or for the account of such Lender, as the case may be, a certified copy of an original official receipt (or other evidence acceptable to such Lender, acting reasonably) received by such Borrower showing payment thereof.

(b) The Borrowers shall pay and shall indemnify and hold harmless each Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and each Lender (whether or not such Other Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority) with regard to any Other Taxes.

(c) The Borrowers shall indemnify and hold harmless each Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and each Lender within 15 Business Days after written demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes imposed on such Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or such Lender as the case may be, on or with respect to any payment by or on account of any obligation of any Borrower or any Guarantor hereunder or under any other Credit Document (including Indemnified Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section 5.4) and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to the Company by a Lender or by an Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of a Lender shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) Each Non-U.S. Lender shall to the extent it is legally entitled to do so:

(i) deliver to the Company and the applicable Administrative Agent two copies of either (x) in the case of a Non-U.S. Lender claiming exemption from U.S. federal withholding tax under Section 871(h) or 881(c) of the Code with respect to payments of “portfolio interest”, United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN (together with a certificate representing that such Non-U.S. Lender is not a bank for purposes of Section 881(c) of the Code, is not a 10-percent shareholder (within the meaning of Section 871(h)(3)(B) of the Code) of any Borrower and is not a controlled foreign corporation related to any Borrower (within the meaning of Section 864(d)(4) of the Code)), or (y) Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or Form W-8ECI, in each case properly completed and duly executed by such Non-U.S. Lender claiming complete exemption from, or reduced rate of, U.S. Federal withholding tax on payments by any Borrower under this Agreement; and

(ii) deliver to the Company and the applicable Administrative Agent two further copies of any such form or certification (or any applicable successor form) on or before the date that any such form or certification expires or becomes obsolete and after the occurrence of any event requiring a change in the most recent form previously delivered by it to the Company; unless in any such case any Change in Law has occurred prior to the date on which any such delivery would otherwise be required that renders any such form inapplicable or would prevent such Lender from duly completing and delivering any such form with respect to it and such Lender so advises the Company and the applicable Administrative

Agent. Each Person that shall become a Participant pursuant to Section 13.6 or a Lender pursuant to Section 13.6 shall, upon the effectiveness of the related transfer, be required to provide all the forms and statements required pursuant to this Section 5.4(d), provided that in the case of a Participant such Participant shall furnish all such required forms and statements to the Lender from which the related participation shall have been purchased.

(e) If any Borrower determines in good faith that a reasonable basis exists for contesting any taxes for which indemnification has been demanded hereunder, the relevant Lender, the applicable Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, shall cooperate with such Borrower in challenging such taxes at such Borrower's expense if so requested by such Borrower. If any Lender, any Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, receives a refund of a tax for which a payment has been made by any Borrower pursuant to this Agreement, which refund in the good faith judgment of such Lender, such Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as the case may be, is attributable to such payment made by such Borrower, then the Lender, the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as the case may be, shall reimburse such Borrower for such amount (together with any interest received thereon) as the Lender or the Administrative Agent, as the case may be, determines to be the proportion of the refund as will leave it, after such reimbursement, in no better or worse position (taking into account expenses or any taxes imposed on the refund) than it would have been in if the payment had not been required. A Lender, an Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent shall claim any refund that it determines is available to it, unless it concludes in its reasonable discretion that it would be adversely affected by making such a claim. Neither such Lender nor such Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall be obliged to disclose any information regarding its tax affairs or computations to any Credit Party in connection with this clause (e) or any other provision of this Section 5.4.

(f) The agreements in this Section 5.4 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the payment of the Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder.

5.5 Computations of Interest and Fees. (a) Interest on LIBOR Loans, SOR Loans, RM Loans and, except as provided in the next succeeding sentence, ABR Loans shall be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year for the actual days elapsed. Interest on ABR Loans in respect of which the rate of interest is calculated on the basis of the Prime Rate and interest on overdue interest shall be calculated on the basis of a 365- (or 366-, as the case may be) day year for the actual days elapsed.

(b) Fees and Letters of Credit Outstanding shall be calculated on the basis of a 365- (or 366-, as the case may be) day year for the actual days elapsed.

5.6 Limit on Rate of Interest.

(a) No Payment shall exceed Lawful Rate. Notwithstanding any other term of this Agreement, no Borrower shall be obliged to pay any interest or other amounts under or in connection with this Agreement in excess of the amount or rate permitted under or consistent with any applicable law, rule or regulation.

(b) Payment at Highest Lawful Rate. If any Borrower is not obliged to make a payment which it would otherwise be required to make, as a result of Section 5.6(a), such Borrower shall make such payment to the maximum extent permitted by or consistent with applicable laws, rules and regulations.

(c) Adjustment if any Payment exceeds Lawful Rate. If any provision of this Agreement or any of the other Credit Documents would obligate any Borrower to make any payment of interest or other amount payable to any Lender in an amount or calculated at a rate which would be prohibited by any applicable law, rule or regulation, then notwithstanding such provision, such amount or rate shall be deemed to have been adjusted with retroactive effect to the maximum amount or rate of interest, as the case may be, as would not be so prohibited by law, such adjustment to be effected, to the extent necessary, by reducing the amount or rate of interest required to be paid by such Borrower to the affected Lender under Section 2.8.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, and after giving effect to all adjustments contemplated thereby, if any Lender shall have received from any Borrower an amount in excess of the maximum permitted by any applicable law, rule or regulation, then such Borrower shall be entitled, by notice in writing to the applicable Administrative Agent to obtain reimbursement from that Lender in an amount equal to such excess, and pending such reimbursement, such amount shall be deemed to be an amount payable by that Lender to such Borrower.

SECTION 6. Conditions Precedent to Initial Borrowing.

The initial Borrowing under this Agreement is subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions precedent, except as otherwise agreed between the Company and the Agents.

6.1 Credit Documents. The Administrative Agents shall have received:

6.2 Collateral. (a) All outstanding equity interests in whatever form of the Company and each Restricted Subsidiary (except those to be pledged pursuant to Section 9.14(c)) directly owned by or on behalf of any Credit Party shall have been pledged pursuant to a Pledge Agreement and the Collateral Agent shall have received all certificates representing securities pledged under a Pledge Agreement to the extent certificated, accompanied by instruments of transfer and undated stock powers endorsed in blank (except those to be delivered pursuant to Section 9.14(c)).

(b) All Indebtedness for borrowed money in excess of $5,000,000 of Holdings, the Company and each Subsidiary that is owing to any Credit Party shall be evidenced by one or more global promissory notes and shall have been pledged pursuant to a Pledge Agreement, and the Collateral Agent shall have received all such promissory notes, together with instruments of transfer with respect thereto endorsed in blank.

(c) All documents and instruments, including Uniform Commercial Code or other applicable personal property and fixture security financing statements, required by law or reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent to be filed, registered or recorded to create the Liens intended to be created by the Security Agreement and perfect such Liens to the extent required by, and with the priority required by, the Security Agreement and each Mortgage, as applicable, shall have been filed, registered or recorded or delivered to the Collateral Agent for filing, registration or recording.

Any Guarantee provided by Holdings, the Company or any Material Subsidiary or any material provision thereof shall cease to be in full force or effect or any such Guarantor thereunder or any Credit Party shall deny or disaffirm in writing any such Guarantor's obligations under any such Guarantee (or any of the foregoing shall occur with respect to a Guarantee provided by a Subsidiary that is not a Material Subsidiary and shall continue unremedied for a period of at least 30 days after receipt of written notice by the Company from any Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or the Required Lenders); or

11.8 Pledge Agreements. Any Pledge Agreement pursuant to which the Stock or Stock Equivalents of the Company or any Material Subsidiary is pledged or any material provision thereof shall cease to be in full force or effect (other than pursuant to the terms hereof or thereof or as a result of acts or omissions of the Collateral Agent or any Lender) or any pledgor thereunder or any Credit Party shall deny or disaffirm in writing any pledgor's obligations under any such Pledge Agreement (or any of the foregoing shall occur with respect to a pledge of the Stock or Stock Equivalents of a Subsidiary that is not a Material Subsidiary and shall continue unremedied for a period of at least 30 days after receipt of written notice by the Company from any Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or the Required Lenders); or

11.9 Security Agreement. Any Security Agreement pursuant to which the assets of Holdings, the Company or any Material Subsidiary are pledged as Collateral or any material provision thereof shall cease to be in full force or effect (other than pursuant to the terms hereof or thereof or as a result of acts or omissions of the Collateral Agent or any Lender) or any grantor thereunder or any Credit Party shall deny or disaffirm in writing any grantor's obligations under any such Security Agreement (or any of the foregoing shall occur with respect to Collateral provided by a Subsidiary that is not a Material Subsidiary and shall continue unremedied for a period of at least 30 days after receipt of written notice by the Company from any Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or the Required Lenders); or

11.10 Mortgages. Any Mortgage or any material provision of any Mortgage relating to any material portion of the Collateral shall cease to be in full force or effect (other than pursuant to the terms hereof or thereof or as a result of acts or omissions of the Collateral Agent or any Lender) or any mortgagor thereunder or any Credit Party shall deny or disaffirm in writing any mortgagor's obligations under any Mortgage; or

11.11 Judgments. One or more judgments or decrees shall be entered against Holdings, the Company or any of the Restricted Subsidiaries involving a liability of $35,000,000 or more in the aggregate for all such judgments and decrees for Holdings, the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries (to the extent not paid or fully covered by insurance provided by a carrier not disputing coverage) and any such judgments or decrees shall not have been satisfied, vacated, discharged or stayed or bonded pending appeal within 60 days from the entry thereof; or

11.12 Change of Control. A Change of Control shall occur; then, and in any such event, and at any time thereafter, if any Event of Default shall then be continuing, the Administrative Agents shall, upon the written request of the Required Lenders, by written notice to the Company, take any or all of the following actions, without prejudice to the rights of any Administrative Agent or any Lender to enforce its claims against any Borrower, except as otherwise specifically provided for in this Agreement (provided that, if an Event of Default specified in Section 11.5 shall occur with respect to any of Holdings, any Borrower or any Specified Subsidiary, the result that would occur upon the giving of written notice by any Administrative Agent as specified in clauses (i), (ii) and (iv) below shall occur automatically without the giving of any such notice): (i) declare the Total Revolving Credit Commitment terminated, whereupon the Commitments and Swingline Commitment, if any, of each Lender or the Swingline Lender, as the case may be, shall forthwith terminate immediately and any Fees theretofore accrued shall forthwith become due and payable without any other notice of any kind; (ii) declare the principal of and any accrued interest and fees in respect of all Loans and all Obligations owing hereunder and thereunder to be, whereupon the same shall become, forthwith due and payable without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby waived by Holdings and each Borrower; (iii) terminate any Letter of Credit that may be terminated in accordance with its terms; and/or (iv) direct any Borrower to pay (and each Borrower agrees that upon receipt of such notice, or upon the occurrence of an Event of Default specified in Section 11.5 with respect to any of Holdings, any Borrower or any Specified Subsidiary, it will pay) to the Asian Administrative Agent at its Administrative Agent's Office such additional amounts of cash, to be held as security for the Borrowers' respective reimbursement obligations for Drawings that may subsequently occur thereunder, equal to the aggregate Stated Amount of all Letters of Credit issued and then outstanding.

11.13 Investors' Right to Cure. (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 11.3(a), in the event that the Company fails to comply with the requirement of the covenant set forth in Section 10.9, until the expiration of the tenth day after the date on which Section 9.1 Financials with respect to the Test Period in which the covenant set forth in Section 10.9 is being measured are required to be delivered pursuant to Section 9.1, any of the Investors shall have the right to make a direct or indirect equity investment in the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary in cash

(the “Cure Right”), and upon the receipt by such Person of Net Cash Proceeds pursuant to the exercise of the Cure Right (including through the capital contribution of any such Net Cash Proceeds to such person, the “Cure Amount”), the covenant set forth in Section 10.9 shall be recalculated, giving effect to a pro forma increase to Consolidated EBITDA for such Test Period in an amount equal to such Net Cash Proceeds; provided that such pro forma adjustment to Consolidated EBITDA shall be given solely for the purpose of determining the existence of a Default or an Event of Default under the covenant set forth in Section 10.9 with respect to any Test Period that includes the fiscal quarter for which such Cure Right was exercised and not for any other purpose under any Credit Document.

(b) If, after the exercise of the Cure Right and the recalculations pursuant to clause (a) above, the Company shall then be in compliance with the requirements of the covenant set forth in Section 10.9 during such Test Period (including for purposes of Section 7.1), the Company shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements the covenant set forth in Section 10.9 as of the relevant date of determination with the same effect as though there had been no failure to comply therewith at such date, and the applicable Default or Event of Default under Section 11.3 that had occurred shall be deemed cured; provided that (i) in each Test Period there shall be at least one fiscal quarter in which no Cure Right is exercised and (ii) with respect to any exercise of the Cure Right, the Cure Amount shall be no greater than the amount required to cause the Company to be in compliance with the covenant set forth in Section 10.9.

SECTION 12. The Agents.

12.1 Appointment. (a) Each Tranche B-1 Term Loan Lender hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Administrative Agent as the agent of such Tranche B-1 Term Loan Lender under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, and each such Tranche B-1 Term Loan Lender irrevocably authorizes the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Administrative Agent, in such capacity, to take such action on its behalf under the provisions of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents and to exercise such powers and perform such duties as are expressly delegated to the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Administrative Agent by the terms of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary elsewhere in this Agreement, the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Administrative Agent shall not have any duties or responsibilities, except those expressly set forth herein, or any fiduciary relationship with any Lender, and no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities shall be read into this Agreement or any other Credit Document or otherwise exist against the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Administrative Agent.

(b) Each Revolving Credit Lender and each Tranche B-2 Term Loan Lender hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Asian Administrative Agent as the agent of such Lender under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, and each such Revolving Credit Lender and each Tranche B-2 Term Loan Lender irrevocably authorizes the Asian Administrative Agent, in such capacity, to take such action on its behalf under the provisions of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents and to exercise such powers and perform such duties as are expressly delegated to the Asian Administrative Agent by the terms of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary elsewhere in this Agreement, the Asian Administrative Agent shall not have any duties or responsibilities, except those expressly set forth herein, or any fiduciary relationship with any Lender, and no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities shall be read into this Agreement or any other Credit Document or otherwise exist against the Asian Administrative Agent.

(c) Each Administrative Agent, each Lender, each Swingline Lender and the Letter of Credit Issuer hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Collateral Agent as the agent of such Administrative Agent, Lender, Swingline Lender and Letter of Credit Issuer under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, and each such Administrative Agent, Lender, Swingline Lender and Letter of Credit Issuer irrevocably authorizes the Collateral Agent, in such capacity, to take such action on its behalf under the provisions of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents and to exercise such powers and perform such duties as are expressly delegated to the Collateral Agent by the terms of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary elsewhere in this Agreement, the Collateral Agent shall not have any duties or responsibilities, except those expressly set forth herein, or any fiduciary relationship with any Administrative Agent, Lender, Swingline Lender or Letter of Credit Issuer, and no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities shall be read into this Agreement or any other Credit Document or otherwise exist against the Collateral Agent. Each of the Syndication Agent and the Documentation Agent, each in its capacity as such, shall not have any obligations, duties or responsibilities under this Agreement but shall be entitled to all benefits of this Section 12.

(d) Each of the Syndication Agent and the Documentation Agent, each in its capacity as such, shall not have any obligations, duties or responsibilities under this Agreement but shall be entitled to all benefits of this Section 12.

12.2 Delegation of Duties. Each Agent may execute any of its duties under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents by or through agents or attorneys-in-fact and shall be entitled to advice of counsel concerning all matters pertaining to such duties. No Agent shall be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any agents or attorneys-in-fact selected by it with reasonable care.

12.3 Exculpatory Provisions. Neither any Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys-in-fact or Affiliates shall be (a) liable for any action lawfully taken or omitted to be taken by it or such Person under or in connection with this Agreement or any other Credit Document (except for its or such Person's own gross negligence or willful misconduct) or (b) responsible in any manner to any of the Lenders for any recitals, statements, representations or warranties made by any of Holdings, any Borrower, any Guarantor, any other Credit Party or any officer thereof contained in this Agreement or any other Credit Document or in any certificate, report, statement or other document referred to or provided for in, or received by such Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent under or in connection with, this Agreement or any other Credit Document or for the value, validity, effectiveness, genuineness, enforceability or sufficiency of this Agreement or any other Credit Document or for any failure of any of Holdings, any Borrower, any Guarantor or any other Credit Party to perform its obligations hereunder or thereunder. No Administrative Agent shall be under any obligation to any Lender to ascertain or to inquire as to the observance or performance of any of the agreements contained in, or conditions of, this Agreement or any other Credit Document, or to inspect the properties, books or records of any Credit Party. The Collateral Agent shall not be under any obligation to any Administrative Agent, any Lender, any Swingline Lender or the Letter of Credit Issuer to ascertain or to inquire as to the observance or performance of any of the agreements contained in, or conditions of, this Agreement or any other Credit Document, or to inspect the properties, books or records of any Credit Party.

12.4 Reliance by Agents. Each Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely, and shall be fully protected in relying, upon any writing, resolution, notice, consent, certificate, affidavit, letter, telecopy, telex or teletype message, statement, order or other document or conversation believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed, sent or made by the proper Person or Persons and upon advice and statements of legal counsel (including counsel to the Borrowers), independent accountants and other experts selected by such Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent. Each Administrative Agent may deem and treat the Lender specified in the Register with respect to any amount owing hereunder as the owner thereof for all purposes unless a written notice of assignment, negotiation or transfer thereof shall have been filed with such Administrative Agent. Each Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall be fully justified in failing or refusing to take any action under this Agreement or any other Credit Document unless it shall first receive such advice or concurrence of the Required Lenders as it deems appropriate or it shall first be indemnified to its satisfaction by the Lenders against any and all liability and expense that may be incurred by it by reason of taking or continuing to take any such action. Each Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall in all cases be fully protected in acting, or in refraining from acting, under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents in accordance with a request of the Required Lenders, and such request and any action taken or failure to act pursuant thereto shall be binding upon all the Lenders and all future holders of the Loans.

12.5 Notice of Default. No Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have knowledge or notice of the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default hereunder unless such Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent has received notice from a Lender or a Borrower referring to this Agreement, describing such Default or Event of Default and stating that such notice is a “notice of default”. In the event that the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Administrative Agent receives such a notice, it shall give notice thereof to the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Lenders, the Asian Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent. In the event that the Asian Administrative Agent receives such a notice, it shall give notice thereof to the Revolving Lenders, the Tranche B-2 Term Loan Lenders, the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent. Each Administrative Agent shall take such action with respect to such Default or Event of Default as shall be reasonably directed by the Required Lenders, provided that unless and until such Administrative Agent shall have received such directions, the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) take such action, or refrain from taking such action, with respect to such Default or Event of Default as it shall deem advisable in the best interests of the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Lenders and the Asian Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) take such action, or refrain from taking such action, with respect to such Default or Event of Default as it shall deem advisable in the best interests of the Revolving Lenders and the Tranche B-2 Term Loan Lenders (in each case, except to the extent that this Agreement requires that such action be taken only with the approval of the Required Lenders or each of the Lenders, as applicable).

12.6 Non-Reliance on Administrative Agents, Collateral Agent and Other Lenders. Each Lender expressly acknowledges that neither any Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys-in-fact or Affiliates has made any representations or warranties to it and that no act by any Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent hereinafter taken, including any review of the affairs of Holdings, any Borrower, any Guarantor or any other Credit Party, shall be deemed to constitute any representation or warranty by such Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent to any Lender Swingline Lender or the Letter of Credit Issuer. Each Lender Swingline Lender and Letter of Credit Issuer represents to each Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent that it has, independently and without reliance upon any Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any other Lender, and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own appraisal of and investigation into the business, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of Holdings, any Borrower, any Guarantor and any other Credit Party and made its own decision to make its Loans hereunder and enter into this Agreement. Each Lender also represents that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any other Lender, and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit analysis, appraisals and decisions in taking or not taking action under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, and to make such investigation as it deems necessary to inform itself as to the business, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of Holdings, any Borrower, any Guarantor and any other Credit Party. Except for notices, reports and other documents expressly required to be furnished to the Lenders by the Administrative Agents hereunder, neither any Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall have any duty or responsibility to provide any Lender with any credit or other information concerning the business, assets, operations, properties, financial condition, prospects or creditworthiness of Holdings, any Borrower, any Guarantor or any other Credit Party that may come into the possession of such Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys-in-fact or Affiliates.

12.7 Indemnification. The Lenders agree to indemnify each Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, each in its capacity as such (to the extent not reimbursed by the Borrowers and without limiting the obligation of the Borrowers to do so), ratably according to their respective portions of the Total Credit Exposure in effect on the date on which indemnification is sought (or, if indemnification is sought after the date upon which the Commitments shall have terminated and the Loans shall have been paid in full, ratably in accordance with their respective portions of the Total Credit Exposure in effect immediately prior to such date), from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind whatsoever that may at any time (including at any time following the payment of the Loans) be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against any Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent in any way relating to or arising out of, the Commitments, this Agreement, any of the other Credit Documents or any documents contemplated by or referred to herein or therein or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or any action taken or omitted by such Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent under or in connection with any of the foregoing, provided that no Lender shall be liable for the payment of any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from such Administrative Agent's or the Collateral Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct. The agreements in this Section 12.7 shall survive the payment of the Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder.

12.8 Administrative Agent in its Individual Capacity. Each Administrative Agent and its Affiliates may make loans to, accept deposits from and generally engage in any kind of business with Holdings, any Borrower, any Guarantor, and any other Credit Party as though such Administrative Agent were not the Administrative Agent hereunder and under the other Credit Documents. With respect to the Loans made by it, each Administrative Agent shall have the same rights and powers under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents as any Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent, and the terms "Lender" and "Lenders" shall include each Administrative Agent in its individual capacity.

12.9 Successor Agents. Each Administrative Agent may resign as Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent may resign as Collateral Agent upon 20 days' prior written notice to the Lenders and the Company. If any Administrative Agent shall resign as Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent shall resign as Collateral Agent under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, then the Required Lenders shall (a) if such resigning Administrative Agent is the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Administrative Agent, appoint from among the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Lenders a successor agent for the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Lenders, (b) if such resigning Administrative Agent is the Asian Administrative Agent, appoint from among the Revolving Lenders and the Tranche A-2 Term Loan Lenders a successor agent for the Revolving Lenders and Tranche B-2 Term Loan Lenders or (c) if the Collateral Agent shall resign, appoint from among the Lenders a successor Collateral Agent, which successor agent in each case, shall be approved by the Company (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld) so long as no Default or Event of Default is continuing, whereupon such successor agent shall succeed to the rights, powers and duties of the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Administrative Agent, Asian Agent or the Collateral Agent, as the case may be, and the term “Tranche B-1 Term Loan Administrative Agent”, “Asian Administrative Agent” or “Collateral Agent”, as the case may be, shall mean such successor agent effective upon such appointment and approval, and the former Administrative Agent’s or Collateral Agent’s rights, powers and duties as Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as the case may be, shall be terminated, without any other or further act or deed on the part of such former Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as the case may be, or any of the parties to this Agreement or any holders of the Loans. After any retiring Administrative Agent’s or Collateral Agent’s resignation as Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as the case may be, the provisions of this Section 12 shall inure to its benefit as to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it while it was Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents.

12.10 Withholding Tax. To the extent required by any applicable law, any Administrative Agent may withhold from any interest payment to any Lender an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding tax. If the Internal Revenue Service or any authority of the United States or other jurisdiction asserts a claim that such Administrative Agent did not properly withhold tax from amounts paid to or for the account of any Lender (because the appropriate form was not delivered, was not properly executed, or because such Lender failed to notify such Administrative Agent of a change in circumstances which rendered the exemption from, or reduction of, withholding tax ineffective, or for any other reason), such Lender shall indemnify such Administrative Agent (to the extent that such Administrative Agent has not already been reimbursed by the Borrowers and without limiting the obligation of the Borrowers to do so) fully for all amounts paid, directly or indirectly, by such Administrative Agent as tax or otherwise, including penalties and interest, together with all expenses incurred, including legal expenses, allocated staff costs and any out of pocket expenses.

12.11 Security Documents.

(a) Japanese Security Documents. (i) each Administrative Agent, each Lender, each Swingline Lender and the Letter of Credit Issuer irrevocably appoints the Collateral Agent to be its attorney and in its name, on its behalf to execute, deliver and perfect all documents and do all things which the Collateral Agent may, in its absolute discretion, consider necessary or desirable in connection with any Japanese Security Documents; (ii) at the Collateral Agent’s request, each Administrative Agent, each Lender, each Swingline Lender and the Letter of Credit Issuer shall ratify and confirm all things done and all Japanese Security Documents executed by the Collateral Agent and further confirm that it accepts the terms of such Japanese Security Document; (iii) the Secured Parties will procure the enforcement of the Japanese Security Documents only at the request of the Collateral Agent; (iv) in relation to the manner of enforcement (apart from the decision or right to commence an enforcement, which shall be in accordance with the other provisions hereof) of the Japanese Security Documents, the Secured Parties will always act on the directions of the Collateral Agent; and (v) all amounts received by a Secured Party pursuant to any enforcement of the Japanese Security Documents shall be immediately paid to the Collateral Agent for application in accordance with the terms of the relevant Japanese Security Document save that any Secured Party instructed by the Collateral Agent to enforce any Japanese Security Document in accordance with this clause (v) shall be entitled to deduct from the proceeds of each enforcement its costs, charges and expenses incurred in connection with such enforcement prior to paying the proceeds of such enforcement to the Collateral Agent in accordance with the terms of the relevant Japanese Security Document.

(b) Malaysian Security Agency Agreement. Each Lender hereby agrees with each other Person who is or who becomes a party to the Malaysian Security Agency Agreement that it will be bound by the Malaysian Security Agreement as a Secured Party.

SECTION 13. Miscellaneous.

13.1 Amendments and Waivers. Neither this Agreement nor any other Credit Document, nor any terms hereof or thereof may be amended, supplemented or modified except in accordance with the provisions of this Section 13.1. The Required Lenders may, or, with the written consent of the Required Lenders, the Administrative Agents may, from time to time, (a) enter into with the relevant Credit Party or Credit Parties written amendments, supplements or modifications hereto and to the other Credit Documents for the purpose of adding any provisions to this Agreement or the other Credit Documents or changing in any manner the rights of the Lenders or of the Credit Parties hereunder or thereunder or (b) waive, on such terms and conditions as the Required Lenders or the Administrative Agents, as the case may be, may specify in such instrument, any of the requirements of this Agreement or the other Credit Documents or any Default or Event of Default and its consequences; provided that no such waiver and no such amendment, supplement or modification shall directly (i) forgive or reduce any portion of any Loan or extend the final scheduled maturity date of any Loan or reduce the stated rate, or forgive any portion, or extend the date for the payment, of any interest or fee payable hereunder (other than as a result of waiving the applicability of any post-default increase in interest rates), or extend the final expiration date of any Lender's Commitment or extend the final expiration date of any Letter of Credit beyond the L/C Maturity Date, or increase the aggregate amount of the Commitments of any Lender, or amend or modify any provisions of Section 5.3(a) (with respect to the ratable allocation of any payments only) and 13.8(a), in each case without the written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby, or (ii) amend, modify or waive any provision of this Section 13.1 or reduce the percentages specified in the definitions of the terms "Required Lenders", "Required Tranche B Term Loan Lenders" or consent to the assignment or transfer by any Borrower of its rights and obligations under any Credit Document to which it is a party (except as permitted pursuant to Section 10.3), in each case without the written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby, or (iii) amend, modify or waive any provision of Section 12 without the written consent of the then-current Administrative Agent, or (iv) amend, modify or waive any provision of Section 3 with respect to any Letter of Credit without the written consent of the Letter of Credit Issuer, or (v) amend, modify or waive any provisions hereof relating to Multi-Currency Swingline Loans without the written consent of the Multi-Currency Swingline Lender, or (vi) amend, modify or waive any provisions hereof relating to Malaysian Swingline Loans without the written consent of the Malaysian Swingline Lender, or (vii) change any Revolving Credit Commitment to a Term Loan Commitment, or change any Term Loan Commitment to a Revolving Credit Commitment, in each case without the prior written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby, or (viii) release all or substantially all of the Guarantors under the Guarantee (except as expressly permitted by the Guarantee) or release all or substantially all of the Collateral under the Pledge Agreements, the Security Agreements and the Mortgages, in each case without the prior written consent of each Lender, or (ix) amend Section 2.9 so as to permit Interest Period intervals greater than six months without regard to availability to Lenders, without the written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby, or (x) decrease any Tranche B Repayment Amount, extend any scheduled Repayment Date or decrease the amount or allocation of any mandatory prepayment to be received by any Lender holding any Tranche B Term Loans, in each case without the written consent of the Required Tranche B Term Loan Lenders. Any such waiver and any such amendment, supplement or modification shall apply equally to each of the affected Lenders and shall be binding upon the Borrowers, such Lenders, the Administrative Agents and all future holders of the affected Loans. In the case of any waiver, the Borrowers, the Lenders and the Administrative Agents shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder and under the other Credit Documents, and any Default or Event of Default waived shall be deemed to be cured and not continuing, it being understood that no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

13.3 No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies. No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of any Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender, any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder or under the other Credit Documents shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

13.4 Survival of Representations and Warranties. All representations and warranties made hereunder, in the other Credit Documents and in any document, certificate or statement delivered pursuant hereto or in connection herewith shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the making of the Loans hereunder.

13.5 Payment of Expenses and Taxes. The Company agrees (a) to pay or reimburse the Agents for all their reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the development, preparation and execution of, and any amendment, supplement or modification to, this Agreement and the other Credit Documents and any other documents prepared in connection herewith or therewith, and the consummation and administration of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, including the reasonable fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel to the Agents, (b) to pay or reimburse each Lender and Agent for all its reasonable and documented costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement or preservation of any rights under this Agreement, the other Credit Documents and any such other documents, including the reasonable fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel to each Lender and of counsel to the Agents, (c) to pay, indemnify, and hold harmless each Lender and Agent from, any and all recording and filing fees and (d) to pay, indemnify, and hold harmless each Lender and Agent and their respective directors, officers, employees, trustees, investment advisors and agents from and against any and all other liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever, including reasonable and documented fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel, with respect to the execution, delivery, enforcement, performance and administration of this Agreement, the other Credit Documents and any such other documents, including, without limitation, any of the foregoing relating to the violation of, noncompliance with or liability under, any Environmental Law or to any actual or alleged presence, release or threatened release of Hazardous Materials involving or attributable to the operations of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or any of the Real Estate (all the foregoing in this clause (d), collectively, the “indemnified liabilities”), provided that the Company shall have no obligation hereunder to the Administrative Agents or any Lender nor any of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents with respect to indemnified liabilities to the extent attributable to (i) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the party to be indemnified as determined in a final and non-appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction or (ii) disputes among the Administrative Agents, the Lenders and/or their transferees. The agreements in this Section 13.5 shall survive repayment of the Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder.

13.6 Successors and Assign; Participations and Assignments. (a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby (including any Affiliate of the Letter of Credit Issuer that issues any Letter of Credit), except that (i) no Borrower may assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of each Lender (and any attempted assignment or transfer by any Borrower without such consent shall be null and void) and (ii) no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer its rights or obligations hereunder except in accordance with this Section 13.6. Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby (including any Affiliate of the Letter of Credit Issuer that issues any Letter of Credit), Participants (to the extent provided in clause (c) of this Section 13.6) and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Related Parties of each of the Administrative Agents, the Letter of Credit Issuer and the Lenders) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

(b) (i) Subject to the conditions set forth in clause (b)(ii) below, any Lender may assign to one or more assignees all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitments and the Loans at the time owing to it) with the prior written consent (such consent not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; it being understood that, without limitation, the Company shall have the right to withhold its consent to any assignment if, in order for such assignment to comply with applicable law, any Borrower would be required to obtain the consent of, or make any filing or registration with, any Governmental Authority) of:

(A) the Company (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), provided that no consent of the Company shall be required for an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender (unless increased costs would result therefrom except if an Event of Default under Section 11.1 or Section 11.5 has occurred and is continuing), an Approved Fund or, if an Event of Default under Section 11.1 or Section 11.5 has occurred and is continuing, any other assignee; and

(B) in the case of Tranche B-1 Term Loan, the Tranche B-1 Term Loan Agent, in the case of any other Loan, the Asian Administrative Agent (in each case which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), in the case of U.S. Dollar Revolving Credit Commitments or U.S. Revolving Credit Loans only, the Letter of Credit Issuer, in the case of Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Commitments or Multi-Currency Revolving Credit Loans only, the Multi-Currency Swingline Lender, and in the case of Malaysian Revolving Credit Commitments or Malaysian Revolving Credit Loans only, the Malaysian Swingline Lender, provided that no consent of any Administrative Agent, any Swingline Lender or the Letter of Credit Issuer, as applicable, shall be required for an assignment of (1) any Commitment to an assignee that is a Lender with a Commitment of the same Class immediately prior to giving effect to such assignment or (2) any Term Loan to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund.

(ii) Assignments shall be subject to the following additional conditions:

(A) except in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund or an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Commitment or

Loans of any Class, the amount of the Commitment or Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Acceptance with respect to such assignment is delivered to the applicable Administrative Agent) shall not be less than $5,000,000 (or, in the case of a Tranche B Term Loan Commitment or Tranche B Term Loan, $1,000,000), and increments of $1,000,000 in excess thereof, unless each of the Company and the applicable Administrative Agent otherwise consents (which consents shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), provided that no such consent of the Company shall be required if an Event of Default under Section 11.1 or Section 11.5 has occurred and is continuing; provided that contemporaneous assignments to a single assignee made by Affiliates of Lenders and related Approved Funds shall be aggregated for purposes of meeting the minimum assignment amount requirements stated above;

(B) each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, provided that this clause shall not be construed to prohibit the assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations in respect of one Class of Commitments or Loans;

(C) the parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to, in the case of Tranche B-1 Term Loan, the Tranche B-1 Administrative Agent, and in the case of any other Loan, the Asian Administrative Agent an Assignment and Acceptance, together with a processing and recordation fee of $3,500, provided that only one such fee shall be payable in the event of simultaneous assignments to or from two or more Approved Funds; and

(D) the assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the applicable Administrative Agent an administrative questionnaire in a form approved by such Administrative Agent (the "Administrative Questionnaire").

For the purpose of this Section 13.6(b), the term "Approved Fund" shall mean any Person (other than a natural person) that is engaged in making, purchasing, holding or investing in bank loans and similar extensions of credit in the ordinary course and that is administered, advised or managed by (a) a Lender, (b) an Affiliate of a Lender or (c) an entity or an Affiliate of an entity that administers, advises or manages a Lender.

(iii) Subject to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to clause (b)(v) of this Section 13.6, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Acceptance, the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Acceptance covering all of the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.10, 2.11, 3.5, 5.4 and 13.5). Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section 13.6 shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with clause (c) of this Section 13.6.

(iv) Each Administrative Agent, acting for this purpose as an agent of the Borrowers shall maintain at such Administrative Agent's Office a copy of each Assignment and Acceptance delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitments of, and principal amount of the Loans and any payment made by the Letter of Credit Issuer under any Letter of Credit owing to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). Further, each Register shall contain the name and address of such Administrative Agent and the lending office through which each such Person acts under this Agreement. The entries in the Register shall be conclusive, and the Borrowers, the Administrative Agents, the Letter of Credit Issuer and the Lenders may treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrowers, the Letter of Credit Issuer and any Lender, at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(v) Upon its receipt of a duly completed Assignment and Acceptance executed by an assigning Lender and an assignee and, if applicable, the Tranche B-2 Term Loan Lender, together with any Note (if the assigning Lender's Loans are evidenced by a Note), the assignee's completed Administrative Questionnaire (unless the assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), the processing and recordation fee referred to in clause (b) of this Section 13.6 and any written consent to such assignment required by clause (b) of this Section 13.6, the applicable Administrative Agent shall accept such Assignment and Acceptance and record the information contained therein in the Register.

(vi) Tranche B-2 Funding Obligations.

(A) Unless such assignee is at such time party to this agreement as a Tranche B-2 Lender, on the same Business Day on which an assignee of a Tranche B Term Loan receives written notice from the Asian Administrative Agent that Tranche B-2 Term Loans have been made under this Agreement (the “Tranche B-2 Funding Notice Date”), such assignee shall pay to the Asian Administrative Agent for the account of the assigning Term Loan Lender an amount equal to the Tranche B-2 Term Loan made by the Tranche B-2 Term Loan Lenders multiplied by the Tranche B- 2 Term Loan Percentage assigned to assignee pursuant to the Assignment and Acceptance in immediately available funds (the “Tranche B-2 Funding Obligations”); provided that if the Asian Administrative Agent so notifies such assignee after 11:00 a.m. (Hong Kong time), such assignee shall pay its Tranche B-2 Funding Obligations to the Asian Administrative Agent for the account of the assigning Term Loan Lender on the next succeeding Business Day in immediately available funds. Upon such payment by such assignee to the Asian Administrative Agent for the account of the assigning Term Loan Lender, such assignee will be deemed to have made a Tranche B-2 Term Loan to the Singaporean Borrower in the principal amount of such payment and shall have all rights and obligations of a Lender with respect to Tranche B-2 Term Loans under this Agreement.

(B) If and to the extent that an assignee of a Tranche B Term Loan shall not have so paid its Tranche B-2 Funding Obligations as required by clause (A) above to the Asian Administrative Agent for the account of the assigning Term Loan Lender, such assignee agrees to pay to the Asian Administrative Agent for the account of the assigning Term Loan Lender forthwith on demand any such unpaid amount together with interest thereon, for the first Business Day after the Tranche B-2 Funding Notice Date at the Federal Funds Rate and, thereafter, until such amount is made available to the Asian Administrative Agent for the account of the assigning Term Loan Lender, at a rate per annum equal to the rate applicable to ABR Loans under this Agreement.

(C) The assignee’s obligation to pay its Tranche B-2 Funding Obligations to the Asian Administrative Agent for the account of an assigning Term Loan Lender shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable and shall be performed strictly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the applicable Assignment and Acceptance, under any and all circumstances whatsoever, including the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default, and irrespective of any of the following: (1) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Credit Document or any term or provision therein; (2) any amendment or waiver of or any consent to departure from all or any of the provisions of any Credit Document; (3) the existence of any claim, set-off, defense or other right that such assignee or any Subsidiary or Affiliate thereof or any other Person may at any time have against the assigning Term Loan Lender, any Administrative Agent, any other Lender, any Credit Party or any other Person, whether in connection with this Agreement, any other Credit Document, the applicable Assignment and Acceptance or any other related or unrelated agreement or transaction; and (4) any other act or omission to act or delay of any kind of any Administrative Agent, the Lenders or any other Person or any other event or circumstance whatsoever, whether or not similar to any of the foregoing, that might, but for the provisions of this Section 13.6(b)(vi), constitute a legal or equitable discharge of an assignee's obligations hereunder.

(c) (i) Any Lender may, without the consent of the Company, any Administrative Agent, the Letter of Credit Issuer or any Swingline Lender, sell participations to one or more banks or other entities (each, a "Participant") in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitments and the Loans owing to it), provided that (A) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (B) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations and (C) the Borrowers, the Administrative Agents, the Letter of Credit Issuer and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Credit Document, provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, modification or waiver described in the first proviso to Section 13.1 that affects such Participant. Subject to clause (c)(ii) of this Section 13.6, the Borrowers agree that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.10, 2.11 and 5.4 to the same extent as if it were a Lender (subject to the requirements of those Sections) and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to clause (b) of this Section 13.6. To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 13.8(b) as though it were a Lender, provided such Participant agrees to be subject to Section 13.8(a) as though it were a Lender.

(ii) A Participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.10 or 5.4 than the applicable Lender would have been entitled to receive with respect to the participation sold to such Participant, unless the sale of the participation to such Participant is made with the Borrowers' prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld).

(d) Any Lender may, without the consent of the Borrowers or any Administrative Agent, at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank, and this Section 13.6 shall not apply to any such pledge or assignment of a security interest, provided that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto. In order to facilitate such pledge or assignment, the Borrowers hereby agree that, upon request of any Lender at any time and from time to time after any Borrower has made its initial borrowing hereunder, each Borrower shall provide to such Lender, at such Borrowers' own expense, a promissory note, substantially in the form of Exhibit L-1 or L-2, as the case may be, evidencing the Tranche B Term Loans and New Tranche B Term Loans, and Revolving Credit Loans and Swingline Loans, respectively, owing by such Borrower to such Lender (each a "Note").

(e) Subject to Section 13.19, the Borrowers authorize each Lender to disclose to any Participant, secured creditor of such Lender or assignee (each a "Transferee") and any prospective Transferee any and all financial information in such Lender's possession concerning a Borrower and its Affiliates that has been delivered to such Lender by or on behalf of such Borrower and its Affiliates pursuant to this Agreement or which has been delivered to such Lender by or on behalf of such Borrower and its Affiliates in connection with such Lender's credit evaluation of such Borrower and its Affiliates prior to becoming a party to this Agreement.

13.7 Replacements of Lenders under Certain Circumstances. (a) The Company shall be permitted to replace any Lender that (a) requests reimbursement for amounts owing pursuant to Section 2.10, 2.12, 3.5 or 5.4, (b) is affected in the manner described in Section 2.10(a)(iii) and as a result thereof any of the actions described in such Section is required to be taken or (c) becomes a Defaulting Lender, with a replacement bank or other financial institution, provided that (i) such replacement does not conflict with any Requirement of Law, (ii) no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of such replacement, (iii) the Borrowers shall repay (or the replacement bank or institution shall purchase, at par) all Loans and other amounts (other than any disputed amounts), pursuant to Section 2.10, 2.11, 2.12, 3.5 or 5.4, as the case may be) owing to such replaced Lender prior to the date of replacement, (iv) the replacement bank or institution, if not already a Lender, and the terms and conditions of such replacement, shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, (v) the replaced Lender shall be obligated to make such replacement in accordance with the provisions of Section 13.6 (provided that the Borrowers shall be obligated to pay the registration and processing fee referred to therein) and (vi) any such replacement shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any rights that the Borrowers, the Administrative Agents or any other Lender shall have against the replaced Lender.

(b) If any Lender (such Lender, a “Non-Consenting Lender”) has failed to consent to a proposed amendment, waiver, discharge or termination which pursuant to the terms of Section 13.1 requires the consent of all of the Lenders affected and with respect to which the Required Lenders shall have granted their consent, then provided that no Event of Default then exists, the Company shall have the right (unless such Non-Consenting Lender grants such consent) to replace such Non-Consenting Lender by requiring such Non-Consenting Lender to assign its Loans, and its Commitments hereunder to one or more assignees reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agents, provided that: (a) all Obligations of the Borrowers owing to such Non-Consenting Lender being replaced shall be paid in full to such Non-Consenting Lender concurrently with such assignment, and (b) the replacement Lender shall purchase the foregoing by paying to such Non-Consenting Lender a price equal to the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon. In connection with any such assignment, the Borrowers, the Administrative Agents, such Non-Consenting Lender and the replacement Lender shall otherwise comply with Section 13.6.

13.8 Adjustments; Set-off. (a) If any Lender (a “benefited Lender”) shall at any time receive any payment of all or part of its Loans, or interest thereon, or receive any collateral in respect thereof (whether voluntarily or involuntarily, by set-off, pursuant to events or proceedings of the nature referred to in Section 11.5, or otherwise), in a greater proportion than any such payment to or collateral received by any other Lender, if any, in respect of such other Lender’s Loans, or interest thereon, such benefited Lender shall purchase for cash from the other Lenders a participating interest in such portion of each such other Lender’s Loan, or shall provide such other Lenders with the benefits of any such collateral, or the proceeds thereof, as shall be necessary to cause such benefited Lender to share the excess payment or benefits of such collateral or proceeds ratably with each of the Lenders; provided that if all or any portion of such excess payment or benefits is thereafter recovered from such benefited Lender, such purchase shall be rescinded, and the purchase price and benefits returned, to the extent of such recovery, but without interest.

(b) After the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, in addition to any rights and remedies of the Lenders provided by law, each Lender shall have the right, without prior notice to Holdings or any Borrower, any such notice being expressly waived by Holdings and the Borrowers to the extent permitted by applicable law, upon any amount becoming due and payable by the Borrowers hereunder (whether at the stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) to set-off and appropriate and apply against such amount any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final), in any currency, and any other credits, indebtedness or claims, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by such Lender or any branch or agency thereof to or for the credit or the account of the Borrowers. Each Lender agrees promptly to notify the Company and the Administrative Agents after any such set-off and application made by such Lender, provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set-off and application.

13.9 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed by one or more of the parties to this Agreement on any number of separate counterparts (including by facsimile or other electronic transmission), and all of said counterparts taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument. A set of the copies of this Agreement signed by all the parties shall be lodged with the Borrowers and the Administrative Agents.

13.10 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

13.11 Integration. This Agreement and the other Credit Documents represent the agreement of the Borrowers, the Collateral Agent, the Administrative Agents and the Lenders with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no promises, undertakings, representations or warranties by any Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent or any Lender relative to subject matter hereof not expressly set forth or referred to herein or in the other Credit Documents.

13.12 Waiver of Judicial Bond. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each Credit Party waives the requirement to post any bond or furnish any security for costs that otherwise may be required of any Secured Party in connection with any judicial proceeding to enforce such Secured Party's rights to payment hereunder, security interest in or other rights to the Collateral or in connection with any other legal or equitable action or proceeding arising out of, in connection with, or related to this Agreement and the other Credit Documents to which it is a party.

13.13 Waiver of Immunity. To the extent that any Borrower has, or hereafter may be entitled to claim or may acquire, for itself, any Collateral or other assets of the Credit Parties, any immunity (whether sovereign or otherwise) from suit, jurisdiction of any court or from any legal process (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution or otherwise) with respect to itself, any Collateral or any other assets of the Credit Parties, such Borrower hereby waives such immunity in respect of its obligations hereunder and any other Credit Document to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Requirements of Law and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, agrees that the waivers set forth in this Section 13.13 shall be effective to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976 (as amended, and together with any successor legislation) and are, and are intended to be, irrevocable for purposes thereof.

13.14 Currency of Payment. (a) Each payment owing by any Borrower hereunder shall be made in the relevant currency specified herein or, if not specified herein, specified in any other Credit Document executed by the applicable Administrative Agent (the "Currency of Payment") at the place specified herein (such requirement are of the essence of this Agreement). If, for the purpose of obtaining judgment in any court, it is necessary to convert a sum due hereunder in a Currency of Payment into another currency, the parties hereto agree that the rate of exchange used shall be the Exchange Rate on the Business Day preceding that on which final judgment is given, for delivery two Business Days thereafter. The obligations in respect of any sum due hereunder to any Secured Party shall, notwithstanding any adjudication expressed in a currency other than the Currency of Payment, be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt by such Secured Party of any sum adjudged to be so due in such other currency, such Secured Party may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase the Currency of Payment with such other currency. Each Borrower agrees that (a) if the amount of the Currency of Payment so purchased is less than the sum originally due to such Secured Party in the Currency of Payment, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding the result of any such adjudication, such Borrower shall immediately pay the shortfall (in the Currency of Payment) to such Secured Party and (b) if the amount of the Currency of Payment so purchased exceeds the sum originally due to such Secured Party, such Secured Party shall promptly pay the excess over to such Borrower in the currency and to the extent actually received.

(b) The Obligations owing to any Secured Party hereunder shall, notwithstanding any payment in a currency other than the Currency of Payment and notwithstanding any deemed conversion or replacement hereunder, be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt by such Secured Party of any amount in such other currency, such Secured Party may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase the Currency of Payment with such other currency. Each Borrower agrees that (i) if the amount of the Currency of Payment so purchased is less than the sum originally due to such Secured Party in the Currency of Payment, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding the result of any such adjudication, such Borrower shall immediately pay the shortfall (in the Currency of Payment) to such Secured Party and (ii) if the amount of the Currency of Payment so purchased exceeds the sum originally due to such Secured Party, such Secured Party shall promptly pay the excess over to such Borrower in the currency and to the extent actually received.

13.15 GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

13.16 Submission to Jurisdiction; Waivers; Service of Process. Each of Holdings, the Company and each Borrower hereby irrevocably and unconditionally:

1. Defined Terms.

(a) Unless otherwise defined herein, terms defined in the Credit Agreement and used herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Credit Agreement.

(b) As used herein, the term “Corresponding Obligations” shall have the meaning as provided in Section 6(a).

(c) As used herein, the term “Obligations” shall mean the collective reference to (i) the due and punctual payment of (x) the principal of and premium, if any, and interest at the applicable rate provided in the Credit Agreement (including interest at the contract rate applicable upon default accrued or accruing after the commencement of any proceeding, under the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable provision of comparable state or foreign law, whether or not such interest is an allowed claim in such proceeding) on the Loans, when and as due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, upon one or more dates set for prepayment or otherwise, (y) each payment required to be made by any Borrower under the Credit Agreement or any other Credit Documents in respect of any Letter of Credit, when and as due, including payments in respect of reimbursement of disbursements, interest thereon and obligations to provide cash collateral, and (z) all other monetary obligations, including fees, costs, expenses and indemnities, whether primary, secondary, direct, contingent, fixed or otherwise (including monetary obligations incurred during the pendency of any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable provision of comparable state or foreign law, whether or not such interest is an allowed claim in such proceeding), of any Borrower or any other Credit Party to any of the Secured Parties under the Credit Agreement and any other Credit Documents, (ii) the due and punctual performance of all covenants, agreements, obligations and liabilities of the Borrowers under or pursuant to the Credit Agreement and the other Credit Documents, (iii) the due and punctual payment and performance of all the covenants, agreements, obligations and liabilities of each other Credit Party under or pursuant to this Guarantee or the other Credit Documents, (iv) the due and punctual payment and performance of all obligations of each Credit Party under each Hedge Agreement that (x) is in effect on the Closing Date with a counterparty that is a Lender or an affiliate of a Lender as of the Closing Date or (y) is entered into after the Closing Date with any counterparty that is a Lender or an affiliate of a Lender at the time such Hedge Agreement is entered into and (v) the due and punctual payment and performance of all obligations in respect of overdrafts and related liabilities owed to the applicable Administrative Agent or its affiliates arising from or in connection with (a) treasury, depositary, cash management services, (b) automated clearinghouse transfer of funds or (c) employee credit card programs of up to the U.S. Dollar Equivalent of $5,000,000.

(d) As used herein, the term “Parallel Debt” shall have the meaning as provided in Section 6(a).

(e) As used herein, the term “Secured Parties” shall mean, collectively, (i) the Lenders, (ii) each Administrative Agent, (iii) the Collateral Agent, (iv) the Letter of Credit Issuer, (v) the Swingline Lender, (vi) the Syndication Agent, (vii) the Documentation Agent, (viii) each counterparty to a Hedge Agreement the obligations under which constitute Obligations, (ix) the beneficiaries of each indemnification obligation undertaken by any Credit Party under the Credit Agreement or any document executed pursuant thereto and (x) any successors, indorsees, transferees and assigns of each of the foregoing.

(f) References to “Lenders” in this Guarantee shall be deemed to include affiliates of Lenders that may from time to time enter into Hedge Agreements with one or more of the Borrowers.

(g) The words “hereof,” “herein” and “hereunder” and words of similar import when used in this Guarantee shall refer to this Guarantee as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Guarantee, and Section references are to Sections of this Guarantee unless otherwise specified. The words “include,” “includes” and “including” shall be deemed to be followed by the phrase “without limitation”.

(h) The meanings given to terms defined herein shall be equally applicable to both the singular and plural forms of such terms.

2. Guarantee.

(a) Subject to the provisions of Section 2(b), each of the Guarantors hereby, jointly and severally, unconditionally and irrevocably, guarantees, as primary obligor and not merely as surety, to the Collateral Agent, for the ratable benefit of the Secured Parties, the prompt and complete payment and performance when due (whether at the stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) of the Obligations (other than, if such Guarantor is also a Borrower, such Guarantor’s own Obligations).

(b) Anything herein or in any other Credit Document to the contrary notwithstanding, the maximum liability of each U.S. Guarantor hereunder and under the other

Credit Documents shall in no event exceed the amount that can be guaranteed by such U.S. Guarantor under the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable laws relating to the insolvency of debtors.

(c) Each Guarantor further agrees to pay any and all expenses (including all reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel) that may be paid or incurred by any Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party in enforcing, or obtaining advice of counsel in respect of, any rights with respect to, or collecting, any or all of the Obligations and/or enforcing any rights with respect to, or collecting against, such Guarantor under this Guarantee.

(d) Each Guarantor agrees that the Obligations may at any time and from time to time exceed the amount of the liability of such Guarantor hereunder without impairing this Guarantee or affecting the rights and remedies of any Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party hereunder.

(e) No payment or payments made by any of the Borrowers, any of the Guarantors, any other guarantor or any other Person or received or collected by any Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party from any of the Borrowers, any of the Guarantors, any other guarantor or any other Person by virtue of any action or proceeding or any set-off or appropriation or application at any time or from time to time in reduction of or in payment of the Obligations shall be deemed to modify, reduce, release or otherwise affect the liability of any Guarantor hereunder, which shall, notwithstanding any such payment or payments other than payments made by such Guarantor in respect of the Obligations or payments received or collected from such Guarantor in respect of the Obligations, remain liable for the Obligations up to the maximum liability of such Guarantor hereunder until the Obligations under the Credit Documents are paid in full, the Commitments are terminated and no Letters of Credit shall be outstanding.

(f) Each Guarantor agrees that whenever, at any time, or from time to time, it shall make any payment to any Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party on account of its liability hereunder, it will notify the applicable Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent in writing that such payment is made under this Guarantee for such purpose.

3. Limitation of U.K. Guarantors. The U.K. Guarantor shall not have any obligation or liability under this Guarantee (or any part hereof) the inclusion of which in this Guarantee would constitute unlawful financial assistance for the purposes of Section 151 and 152 of the Companies Act 1985 and such obligation or liability shall be specifically excluded.

4. Limitation of Guarantees – German Guarantor.

(a) Except as otherwise provided for in subsections (c), (d), (e) and (g) below, the applicable Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent agrees not to enforce this Guarantee or any obligation of the German Guarantor under the Credit Documents (for the purposes of this Section 4, collectively, the “Claims”) against the German Guarantor if and to the extent that such enforcement would otherwise result in the German Guarantor’s net assets (Eigenkapital within the meaning of Section 266 para 3 A of the German Commercial Code (Handelsgesetzbuch)) falling below the amount of its stated share capital (Stammkapital) or increase any existing capital impairment (Begründung oder Vertiefung einer Unterbilanz) within the meaning of Sections 30 and 31 of the Act on Limited Liability Companies (GmbHG) of Germany. In calculation of the net assets and the stated share capital any Loans and other contractual liabilities incurred by the German Guarantor in violation of the Credit Documents or any increases of the stated share capital of the German Guarantor in violation of the Credit Documents shall be disregarded. Any recourse claim of the German Guarantor against its affiliated companies shall not be regarded as an asset in determining the German Guarantor's net assets, if and to the extent that the German Guarantor provides evidence, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Administrative Agents, that such recourse claim is of no value (nicht werthaltig).

(b) If and to the extent legally permissible and commercially justifiable in respect of the German Guarantor's business, the German Guarantor shall, following the receipt of an Enforcement Notice (as defined below), if and to the extent:

- (i) it does not have sufficient assets to allow an enforcement of any collateral in accordance with Section 4(a); and
- (ii) any Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent would (but for this paragraph) be entitled to enforce the Claims granted hereunder, realise any and all of its assets that are shown in the balance sheet with a book value (Buchwert) which is substantially lower than the market value of such assets, and which are not essentially necessary for the German Guarantor's business (betriebsnotwendig).

(c) The limitations set out in Section 4(a) shall only apply if and to the extent that the German Guarantor evidences by providing the Collateral Agent:

(i) within ten (10) Business Days following a notice by the Collateral Agent to the Company of its intention to enforce the Claims (for purposes of this Section 4, the "Enforcement Notice"), with a written confirmation by the managing director(s) on behalf of the German Guarantor specifying if and to what extent Claims granted hereunder cannot be enforced as it would cause the net assets of the German Guarantor to fall below the amount of its stated share capital (supported by evidence further specified in the last paragraph of this paragraph (c)) (for purposes of this Section 4, the "Management Determination") and the Administrative Agents have not contested this Management Determination and argued that no or a lesser amount would be necessary to maintain the German Guarantor's stated share capital; or

(ii) within thirty (30) Business Days after the date on which the Collateral Agent have contested the Management Determination, with a written confirmation (Bescheinigung aufgrund prüferischer Durchsicht) by the German Guarantor's statutory auditor (Abschlussprüfer) (for purposes of this Section 4, the "Auditor's Determination") with respect to the financial statements provided to the Collateral Agent pursuant to the next paragraph.

The Management Determination shall be supported by (i) a list of Loans drawn by, or on-lent or passed on to, the German Guarantor pursuant to Section 4(g) below, and (ii) evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent showing the amount of the net assets and the stated share capital of the German Guarantor.

(d) If the Collateral Agent disagree with the Auditor's Determination, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to enforce the Claims up to the amount which is undisputed between itself and the German Guarantor in accordance with the provisions of Section 4(a) above. In relation to the amount which is disputed, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to further pursue its claims (if any) and the German Guarantor shall be entitled to defend itself in court and to prove that this amount is necessary for maintaining its stated share capital (calculated as of the date that the Enforcement Notice was given). If, after it has been provided with an Auditor's Determination which prevented it from the enforcement of the security interest, the Collateral Agent ascertain in good faith that the financial condition of the German Guarantor has substantially improved (in particular if the German Guarantor has taken any action in accordance with Section 4(b) above), the Collateral Agent may, at the German Guarantor's cost and expense, arrange for the preparation of an updated balance sheet of the German Guarantor by the auditors having prepared the Auditor's Determination in order for such auditors to determine whether (and if so, to what extent) an enforcement would not lead to the German Guarantor's net assets falling below the amount of its stated share capital.

(e) If any enforcement action was taken without limitation because the Management Determination and/or the Auditor's Determination (as the case may be) was not delivered within the relevant time frame, the Collateral Agent shall repay to the German Guarantor any amount which is necessary to maintain its stated share capital, calculated as of the date that the Enforcement Notice was given.

(f) In addition, the Claims shall not be enforced if and to the extent that such enforcement would lead to a breach of the prohibition of insolvency causing intervention (Verbot des existenzvernichtenden Eingriffs) by depriving the German Guarantor of the liquidity necessary to fulfill its financial liabilities to its creditors.

(g) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) through (f) above, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to enforce the Claims without any limitation if and to the extent the Claims secure or correspond to loans or portions of loans drawn under the Credit Agreement (x) by the German Guarantor itself or (y) any Borrower or any of its affiliates to the extent the funds will be on-lent, passed on or otherwise made available to the German Guarantor, to the extent outstanding at the level of the German Guarantor and including interest and fees accrued thereon and unpaid by the German Guarantor as of the date that the Enforcement Notice was given.

5. Limitation of Guarantee – Italian Guarantor.

(a) The Italian Guarantor acknowledges that this is not a surety (fideiussione).

(b) Any term or provision of this Guarantee or any other Credit Document to the contrary notwithstanding, the liability of the Italian Guarantor shall in no case exceed the lower of (i) Euro [] being 100 per cent. of the principal aggregate amount made available through one or more inter-company loans to the Italian Guarantor by the Avago Technologies Holdings B.V. using the proceeds advanced to the latter under the Extension of Credit and (ii) the amount of such inter-company loans still outstanding at the time of the enforcement of the Guarantee.

6. Parallel Debt.

(a) Each of the Dutch Guarantors hereby irrevocably and unconditionally undertakes to pay to the Collateral Agent an amount equal to the aggregate amount payable by such Dutch Guarantor in respect of its Obligations, to the extent they consist of monetary payment obligations (the “Corresponding Obligations”), as they may exist from time to time. The payment undertaking of each of the Dutch Guarantors to the Collateral Agent under this Section 6 is hereinafter to be referred to as the “Parallel Debt”.

(b) The Parallel Debt of each of the Dutch Guarantors will become due and payable (opeisbaar) as and when one or more of the Corresponding Obligations of the relevant Dutch Guarantor become due and payable.

(c) Each of the parties hereto hereby acknowledges that:

(i) the Parallel Debt constitutes an undertaking, obligation and liability of each of the Dutch Guarantors to the Collateral Agent which is separate and independent from, and without prejudice to, the Corresponding Obligations; and

(ii) the Parallel Debt represents the Collateral Agent own separate and independent claim (eigen en zelfstandige vordering) to receive payment of the Parallel Debt from each of the Dutch Guarantors, it being understood, in each case, that pursuant to subsection (a) of this Section 6 the amount which may become payable by the relevant Dutch Guarantor as its Parallel Debt shall never exceed the total of the amounts which are payable under the Corresponding Obligations of the Collateral Agent.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, the parties hereto confirm that in accordance with subsections (a) and (c) of this Section 6 the claim of the Collateral Agent against each of the Dutch Guarantors in respect of the Parallel Debt and the claims of anyone or more of the Secured Parties against each of the Dutch Guarantors in respect of the Corresponding Obligations payable by the relevant Dutch Guarantor to such Secured Parties do not constitute common property (gemeenschap) within the meaning of article 3:166 of the Dutch Civil Code and that the provisions relating to common property shall not apply. If, however, it shall be held that such claim of the Collateral Agent and such claims of anyone or more of the Secured Parties do constitute common property and the provisions relating to common property do apply, the parties hereto agree that the Credit Documents shall constitute the administration agreement (beheersregeling) within the meaning of article 3:168 of the Dutch Civil Code.

7. Financial Assistance. Any term or provision of this Guarantee or any other Credit Document to the contrary notwithstanding, to the extent that applicable Requirements of Law prohibit any Guarantor from providing any Guarantee or collateral security in respect of loans or other financial accommodations made to finance in whole or in part the acquisition of the capital stock, then the Obligations of such Guarantor shall be deemed not to include that portion of the Obligations of the Borrowers (other than the U.S. Borrowers) that are applied for the purpose of acquiring the capital stock of such Guarantor. No Guarantor shall have any obligations under this Guarantee to the extent such obligations would be in conflict with the Dutch financial assistance prohibitions contained in clause 2:207c of the Dutch Civil Code. The UK Guarantor shall not have any obligation or liability under this Guarantee the inclusion of which in this Guarantee (or any part thereof) would constitute unlawful financial assistance within the meaning of Section 151 and 152 of the Companies Act 1985.

8. Right of Contribution. Each Guarantor hereby agrees that to the extent that a Guarantor shall have paid more than its proportionate share of any payment made hereunder (including by way of set-off rights being exercised against it), such Guarantor shall be entitled to seek and receive contribution from and against any other Guarantor hereunder who has not paid its proportionate share of such payment. Subject to the terms of this Guarantee, each Guarantor's right of contribution shall be subject to the terms and conditions of Section 8 hereof. The provisions of this Section 6 shall in no respect limit the obligations and liabilities of any Guarantor to the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties, and each Guarantor shall remain liable to the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties for the full amount guaranteed by such Guarantor hereunder.

9. Right of Set-off. In addition to any rights and remedies of the Secured Parties provided by law, each Guarantor hereby irrevocably authorizes each Secured Party at any time and from time to time following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default without notice to such Guarantor or any other Guarantor, any such notice being expressly waived by each Guarantor, upon any amount becoming due and payable by such Guarantor hereunder (whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) to set-off and appropriate and apply against such amount any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final), in any currency, and any other credits, indebtedness or claims, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by such Secured Party to or for the credit or the account of such Guarantor. Each Secured Party shall notify such Guarantor promptly of any such set-off and the appropriation and application made by such Secured Party, provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set-off and application.

10. No Subrogation. Notwithstanding any payment or payments made by any of the Guarantors hereunder or any set-off or appropriation and application of funds of any of the Guarantors by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party, no Guarantor shall be entitled to be subrogated to any of the rights (or if subrogated by operation of law, such Guarantor hereby waives such rights to the extent permitted by applicable law) of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party against any of the Borrowers or any other Guarantor or any collateral security or guarantee or right of offset held by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party for the payment of the Obligations, nor shall any Guarantor seek or be entitled to seek any contribution or reimbursement from any of the Borrowers or any other Guarantor in respect of payments made by such Guarantor hereunder, until all amounts owing to the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties by the Credit Parties on account of the Obligations under the Credit Documents are paid in full, the Commitments are terminated and no Letters of Credit shall be outstanding. If any amount shall be paid to any Guarantor on account of such subrogation rights at any time when all the Obligations shall not have been paid in full, such amount shall be held by such Guarantor in trust for the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties, segregated from other funds of such Guarantor, and shall, forthwith upon receipt by such Guarantor, be turned over to the Collateral Agent in the exact form received by such Guarantor (duly indorsed by such Guarantor to the Collateral Agent, if required), to be applied against the Obligations, whether due or to become due, in such order as the Collateral Agents may determine; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be effective to create a charge or other security interest over any such amount held by such Guarantor whether or not requiring registration under the Companies Act, Chapter 50 of Singapore or any equivalent legislation in any other jurisdiction or any other statutory provision whatsoever anywhere.

11. Amendments, etc. with Respect to the Obligations; Waiver of Rights. Each Guarantor shall remain obligated hereunder notwithstanding that, without any reservation of rights against any Guarantor and without notice to or further assent by any Guarantor, (a) any demand for payment of any of the Obligations made by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party may be rescinded by such party and any of the Obligations continued, (b) the Obligations, or the liability of any other party upon or for any part thereof, or any collateral security or guarantee therefor or right of offset with respect thereto, may, from time to time, in whole or in part, be renewed, extended, amended, modified, accelerated, compromised, waived, surrendered or released by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party, (c) the Credit Agreement, the other Credit Documents, the Letters of Credit and any other documents executed and delivered in connection therewith and the Hedge Agreements and any other documents executed and delivered in connection therewith and any documents entered into with the applicable Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent or any of its respective affiliates in connection with treasury, depositary or cash management services or in connection with any automated clearinghouse transfer of funds may be amended, modified, supplemented or terminated, in whole or in part, as the applicable Administrative Agent (or the Required Lenders, as the case may be, or, in the case of any Hedge Agreement or documents entered into with the applicable Administrative Agent or any of its respective affiliates in connection with treasury, depositary or cash management services or in connection with any automated clearinghouse transfer of funds, the party thereto) may deem advisable from time to time, and (d) any collateral security, guarantee or right of offset at any time held by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party for the payment of the Obligations may be sold, exchanged, waived, surrendered or released. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Party shall have any obligation to protect, secure, perfect or insure any Lien at any time held by it as security for the Obligations or for this Guarantee or any property subject thereto. When making any demand hereunder against any Guarantor, the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party may, but shall be under no obligation to, make a similar demand on any Borrower or any Guarantor or any other person, and any failure by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to make any such demand or to collect any payments from any Borrower or any Guarantor or any other person or any release of any Borrower or any Guarantor or any other person shall not relieve any Guarantor in respect of which a demand or collection is not made or any Guarantor not so released of its several obligations or liabilities hereunder, and shall not impair or affect the rights and remedies, express or implied, or as a matter of law, of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party against any Guarantor. For the purposes hereof "demand" shall include the commencement and continuance of any legal proceedings.

12. Guarantee Absolute and Unconditional.

(a) Each Guarantor waives any and all notice of the creation, contraction, incurrence, renewal, extension, amendment, waiver or accrual of any of the Obligations, and notice of or proof of reliance by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party upon this Guarantee or acceptance of this Guarantee, the Obligations or any of them, shall conclusively be deemed to have been created, contracted or incurred, or renewed, extended, amended, waived or accrued, in reliance upon this Guarantee; and all dealings between any Borrower and any of the Guarantors, on the one hand, and the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties, on the other hand, likewise shall be conclusively presumed to have been had or consummated in reliance upon this Guarantee. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each Guarantor waives diligence, promptness, presentment, protest and notice of protest, demand for payment or performance, notice of default or nonpayment, notice of acceptance (including in the case of any Mexican Guarantor, any right to which it may be entitled to the extent applicable under Articles 2813, 2814, 2815, 2816, 2817, 2818, 2819, 2820, 2821, 2822, 2823, 2826, 2827, 2830 (subject to the exceptions provided therein), 2836, 2837 (subject to the exceptions provided therein, to the extent the Obligations (for which such Guarantor is liable pursuant to limitations outlined in Section 3 above) are not paid in full), 2845, 2846 and 2848 of the Mexican Federal Civil Code and the corresponding and related provisions in the Civil Codes of the different states of Mexico), and any other notice in respect of the Obligations or any part of them, and any defense arising by reason of any disability or other defense of the Borrowers or any of the Guarantors with respect to the Obligations. Each Guarantor understands and agrees that this Guarantee shall be construed as a continuing, absolute and unconditional guarantee of payment without regard to (a) the validity, regularity or enforceability of the Credit Agreement, any other Credit Document, any Letter of Credit, any Hedge Agreement, any of the Obligations or any other collateral security therefor or guarantee or right of offset with respect thereto at any time or from time to time held by any Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party, (b) any defense, set-off or counterclaim (other than a defense of payment or performance) that may at any time be available to or be asserted by any Borrower against any Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party or (c) any other circumstance whatsoever (with or without notice to or knowledge of any Borrower or such Guarantor) that constitutes, or might be construed to constitute, an equitable or legal discharge of any Borrower for the Obligations, or of such Guarantor under this Guarantee, in bankruptcy or in any other instance. When pursuing its rights and remedies hereunder against any Guarantor, the Collateral Agent and any other Secured Party may, but shall be under no obligation to, pursue such rights and remedies as it may have against any Borrower or any other Person or against any collateral security or guarantee for the Obligations or any right of offset with respect thereto, and any failure by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to pursue such other rights or remedies or to collect any payments from any Borrower or any such other Person or to realize upon any such collateral security or guarantee or to exercise any such right of offset, or any release of any Borrower or any such other Person or any such collateral security, guarantee or right of offset, shall not relieve such Guarantor of any liability hereunder, and shall not impair or affect the rights and remedies, whether express, implied or available as a matter of law, of any Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties against such Guarantor.

(b) This Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and be binding in accordance with and to the extent of its terms upon each Guarantor and the successors and assigns thereof and shall inure to the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties and their respective successors, indorsees, transferees and assigns until all Obligations (other than any contingent indemnity obligations not then due) shall have been satisfied by payment in full, the Commitments thereunder shall be terminated and no Letters of Credit thereunder shall be outstanding, notwithstanding that from time to time during the term of the Credit Agreement and any Hedge Agreement the Credit Parties may be free from any Obligations.

(c) A Guarantor shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder and the Guarantee of such Guarantor shall be automatically released upon the consummation of any transaction permitted by the Credit Agreement, as a result of which such Guarantor ceases to be a Subsidiary Guarantor.

(d) Each Canadian Guarantor hereby waives the benefits of division and discussion.

13. Reinstatement. This Guarantee shall continue to be effective, or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment, or any part thereof, of any of the Obligations is rescinded or must otherwise be restored or returned by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of the Borrower or any Guarantor, or upon or as a result of the appointment of a receiver, intervenor or conservator of, or trustee or similar officer for, the Borrower or any Guarantor or any substantial part of its property, or otherwise, all as though such payments had not been made.

14. Payments. Each Guarantor hereby guarantees that payments hereunder will be paid to the Collateral Agent without set-off or counterclaim in U.S. Dollars at the Collateral Agent's Office.

15. Representations and Warranties; Covenants.

(a) Each Guarantor hereby represents and warrants that the representations and warranties set forth in Section 8 of the Credit Agreement as of the Closing Date, as they relate to such Guarantor (and to the extent such representations and warranties are relevant in the jurisdiction of organization of such Guarantor) or in the other Credit Documents to which such Guarantor is a party, each of which is hereby incorporated herein by reference, are true and correct, and the Collateral Agent and each other Secured Party shall be entitled to rely on each of them as if they were fully set forth herein.

(b) Each Guarantor hereby covenants and agrees with the Collateral Agent and each other Secured Party that, from and after the date of this Guarantee until the Obligations under the Credit Documents are paid in full, the Commitments are terminated and no Letter of Credit remains outstanding, such Guarantor shall take, or shall refrain from taking, as the case may be, all actions that are necessary to be taken or not taken so that no violation of any provision, covenant or agreement contained in Section 9 or Section 10 of the Credit Agreement and so that no Default or Event of Default, is caused by any act or failure to act of such Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries.

(c) Each Guarantor hereby represents and warrants that (i) this Guarantee and the other Credit Documents and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby constitute private civil and commercial acts (and not public or governmental acts) of such Guarantor, and such Guarantor is subject to private civil and commercial law with respect to its obligations under the Credit Documents and (ii) such Guarantor is not entitled to any immunity (whether sovereign or otherwise) from suit, jurisdiction of any court or from any legal process (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution or otherwise) with respect to itself, any Collateral or any other assets of the Credit Parties (including any legal process to enforce any Security Document or any other Credit Document or to collect the Obligations). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the waivers set forth in this Section 13(c) shall be effective to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976 (as amended, and together with any successor legislation) and are, and are intended to be, irrevocable for purposes thereof.

16. Authority of the Collateral Agent.

(a) The Collateral Agent enters into this Guarantee in its capacity as agent for the Secured Parties from time to time. The rights and obligations of the Collateral Agent under this agreement at any time are the rights and obligations of the Secured Parties at that time. Each of the Secured Parties has (subject to the terms of the Credit Documents) a several entitlement to each such right, and a several liability in respect of each such obligation, in the proportions described in the Credit Documents. The rights, remedies and discretions of the Secured Parties, or any of them, under this Guarantee may be exercised by the Collateral Agent. No party to this Guarantee is obliged to inquire whether an exercise by the Collateral Agent of any such right, remedy or discretion is within the Collateral Agent's authority as agent for the Secured Parties.

(b) Each party to this Guarantee acknowledges and agrees that any changes (in accordance with the provisions of the Credit Documents) in the identity of the persons from time to time comprising the Secured Parties gives rise to an equivalent change in the Secured Parties, without any further act. Upon such an occurrence, the persons then comprising the Secured Parties are vested with the rights, remedies and discretions and assume the obligations of the Lender under this Guarantee (as described in Section 3 and Section 4 above). Each party to this agreement irrevocably authorizes the Collateral Agent to give effect to the change in Lender contemplated in this Section 14(b) by countersigning an Assignment and Acceptance.

17. Notices. All notices, requests and demands pursuant hereto shall be made in accordance with Section 13.2 of the Credit Agreement. All communications and notices hereunder to any Guarantor shall be given to it in care of the Singaporean Borrower at the Singaporean Borrower's address set forth in Section 13.2 of the Credit Agreement.

18. Counterparts. This Guarantee may be executed by one or more of the parties to this Guarantee on any number of separate counterparts (including by facsimile or other electronic transmission), and all of said counterparts taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument. A set of the copies of this Guarantee signed by all the parties shall be lodged with the Collateral Agent and the Company.

19. Severability. Any provision of this Guarantee that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction. The parties hereto shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

20. Integration. This Guarantee together with the other Credit Documents represents the agreement of each Guarantor and the Collateral Agent with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no promises, undertakings, representations or warranties by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party relative to the subject matter hereof not expressly set forth or referred to herein or in the other Credit Documents.

21. Amendments in Writing; No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

(a) None of the terms or provisions of this Guarantee may be waived, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified except in accordance with Section 13.1 of the Credit Agreement.

(b) Neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Party shall by any act (except by a written instrument pursuant to Section 19(a) hereof), delay, indulgence, omission or otherwise be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any Default or Event of Default or in any breach of any of the terms and conditions hereof. No failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party, any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof. No single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. A waiver by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party of any right or remedy hereunder on any one occasion shall not be construed as a bar to any right or remedy that the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party would otherwise have on any future occasion.

(c) The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative, may be exercised singly or concurrently and are not exclusive of any other rights or remedies provided by law.

22. Section Headings. The Section headings used in this Guarantee are for convenience of reference only and are not to affect the construction hereof or be taken into consideration in the interpretation hereof.

23. Successors and Assigns. This Guarantee shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of each Guarantor and shall inure to the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties and their respective successors and assigns except that no Guarantor may assign, transfer or delegate any of its rights or obligations under this Guarantee without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent.

24. Additional Guarantors. Each Subsidiary of Holdings or the Company that is required to become a party to this Guarantee pursuant to Section 9.11 of the Credit Agreement shall become a Guarantor, with the same force and effect as if originally named as a Guarantor herein, for all purposes of this Guarantee upon execution and delivery by such Subsidiary of a written supplement substantially in the form of Annex A hereto. The execution and delivery of any instrument adding an additional Guarantor as a party to this Guarantee shall not require the consent of any other Guarantor hereunder. The rights and obligations of each Guarantor hereunder shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the addition of any new Guarantor as a party to this Guarantee.

25. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH GUARANTOR HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS GUARANTEE, ANY OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT AND FOR ANY COUNTERCLAIM THEREIN.

26. Submission to Jurisdiction; Waivers; Service of Process. Each Guarantor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally:

(a) submits for itself and its property in any legal action or proceeding relating to this Guarantee and the other Credit Documents to which it is a party, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect thereof, to the non-exclusive general jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York, the courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York and appellate courts from any thereof;

(b) consents that any such action or proceeding may be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue of any such action or proceeding in any such court or that such action or proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same;

(c) each Guarantor, other than the U.S. Guarantors, hereby irrevocably designates, appoints and empowers CT Corporation System (telephone number: 212-894-8600) (telecopy number: 212-894-8690) (address: 111 Eighth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10011) (for purposes of this Section 24, the "Process Agent"), in the case of any suit, action or proceeding brought in the United States as its designee, appointee and agent to receive, accept and acknowledge for and on its behalf, and in respect of its property, service of any and all legal process, summons, notices and documents that may be served in any action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with this Guarantee or any other Credit Document;

(d) agrees that service of process in any such action or proceeding may be effected by mailing a copy thereof by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to such Guarantor in care of the Process Agent at the Process Agent's above address, and such Person hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs the Process Agent to accept such service on its behalf;

(e) as an alternative method of service, irrevocably consents to the service of any and all process in any such action or proceeding by the mailing (by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid) of copies of such process to the Process Agent or such Person at its address referred to in Section 15 or at such other address of which the Collateral Agent shall have been notified pursuant thereto;

(f) agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and consents to the enforcement in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law;

(g) agrees that nothing herein shall affect the right of any Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by law or shall limit the right of any Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to sue in any other jurisdiction; and

(h) waives, to the maximum extent not prohibited by law, any right it may have to claim or recover in any legal action or proceeding referred to in this Section 24 any special, exemplary, punitive or consequential damages.

27. Currency of Payment. If, for the purpose of obtaining judgment in any court, it is necessary to convert a sum due hereunder in a Currency of Payment into another currency, the parties hereto agree that the rate of exchange used shall be the Exchange Rate on the Business Day preceding that on which final judgment is given, for delivery two Business Days thereafter. The obligations in respect of any sum due hereunder to any Secured Party shall, notwithstanding any adjudication expressed in a currency other than the Currency of Payment, be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt by such Secured Party of any sum adjudged to be so due in such other currency, such Secured Party may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase the Currency of Payment with such other currency. Each Borrower agrees that (a) if the amount of the Currency of Payment so purchased is less than the sum originally due to such Secured Party in the Currency of Payment, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding the result of any such adjudication, such Borrower shall immediately pay the shortfall (in the Currency of Payment) to such Secured Party and (b) if the amount of the Currency of Payment so purchased exceeds the sum originally due to such Secured Party, such Secured Party shall promptly pay the excess over to such Borrower in the currency and to the extent actually received.

28. Use of English Language. This Guarantee has been negotiated and executed in the English language. All certificates, reports, notices and other documents and communications given or delivered pursuant to this Guarantee (including, without limitation, any modifications or supplements hereto) shall be in the English language, or accompanied by a certified English language translation thereof, and the English language version of any such document and communication shall control for all purposes under this Guarantee.

29. Stamp Duty Declaration. For the purposes of Section 4(3) and Item 27 of the First Schedule to the Stamp Act, 1949 of Malaysia, the Credit Agreement shall be deemed to be the principal instrument and security to secure the payment of a foreign currency loan of the aggregate principal amount of up to United States Dollars Nine Hundred and Seventy-Five Million (US$975,000,000/-), of which a Ringgit tranche of the aggregate principal amount of up to Ringgit Seventy-Six Million Three Hundred and Sixty Thousand (RM76,360,000/-) forms part, and this Guarantee is deemed to be a secondary instrument.

30. GOVERNING LAW. THIS GUARANTEE AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

B. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to such terms in the Guarantee.

C. Section 9.11 of the Credit Agreement and Section 22 of the Guarantee provide that additional Subsidiaries may become Guarantors under the Guarantee by execution and delivery of an instrument in the form of this Supplement. Each undersigned Subsidiary (each a "New Guarantor") is executing this Supplement in accordance with the requirements of the Credit Agreement to become a Guarantor under the Guarantee in order to induce the Lenders and the Letter of Credit Issuer to make additional Extensions of Credit and as consideration for Extensions of Credit previously made.

Accordingly, the Collateral Agent and each New Guarantor agrees as follows:

SECTION 1. In accordance with Section 22 of the Guarantee, each New Guarantor by its signature below becomes a Guarantor under the Guarantee with the same force and effect as if originally named therein as a Guarantor and each New Guarantor hereby (a) agrees to all the terms and provisions of the Guarantee applicable to it as a Guarantor thereunder and (b) represents and warrants that the representations and warranties made by it as a Guarantor thereunder are true and correct on and as of the date hereof. SECTION 3. This Supplement may be executed by one or more of the parties to this Supplement on any number of separate counterparts (including by facsimile or other electronic transmission), and all of said counterparts taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument. A set of the copies of this Supplement signed by all the parties shall be lodged with the Borrower and the Collateral Agent. This Supplement shall become effective as to each New Guarantor when the Collateral Agent shall have received counterparts of this Supplement that, when taken together, bear the signatures of such New Guarantor and the Collateral Agent.

SECTION 4. Except as expressly supplemented hereby, the Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 5. THIS SUPPLEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

SECTION 6. Any provision of this Supplement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof and in the Guarantee, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction. The parties hereto shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 7. All notices, requests and demands pursuant hereto shall be made in accordance with Section 13.2 of the Credit Agreement. All communications and notices hereunder to each New Guarantor shall be given to it in care of the Singaporean Borrower at the Singaporean Borrower's address set forth in Section 13.2 of the Credit Agreement.

ARTICLE 3

WARRANTIES, REPRESENTATIONS AND COVENANTS

Grantor warrants, represents and covenants to Beneficiary as follows:

Section 3.1 Title to Property and Lien of this Instrument. Grantor owns good and marketable title to the Property free and clear of any liens, claims or interests, except Liens permitted by the Credit Agreement. This Deed of Trust creates valid, enforceable and, subject only to Liens permitted by the Credit Agreement, first priority liens and security interests against the Property.

Section 3.2 First Lien Status. Grantor shall preserve and protect the first lien and security interest status of this Deed of Trust and the other Security Documents. If any lien or security interest other than a Lien permitted by the Credit Agreement is asserted against the Property, Grantor shall promptly, and at its expense, (a) give Beneficiary a detailed written notice of such lien or security interest (including origin, amount and other terms), and (b) pay the underlying claim in full or take such other action so as to cause it to be released or contest the same in compliance with the requirements of the Credit Agreement.

Section 3.3 Payment and Performance. Grantor shall pay and perform the Indebtedness in full when the Indebtedness is required to be paid or performed pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement and the Guarantee.

Section 3.4 Intentionally Omitted.

Section 3.5 Inspection. Grantor shall from time to time permit the Collateral Agent and the Lenders, or any agents or representatives thereof, to (a) examine and make copies of and abstracts from the records and books of account of Grantor and (b) visit and inspect the Property, in each case of clauses (a) and (b), in accordance with, and only to the extent permitted by, the terms and provisions of Section 9.2 of the Credit Agreement.

Section 3.6 Flood Insurance; Condemnation Awards and Insurance Proceeds.

(a) Flood Insurance. If any portion of the Property is located in an area identified by the Federal Emergency Management Agency as an area having special flood hazards and in which flood insurance has been made available under the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (and any amendment or successor act thereto), then Grantor shall maintain, or cause to be maintained, with a sound and reputable insurer, flood insurance in an amount sufficient to comply with all applicable rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to such Act.

(b) Condemnation Awards. Grantor assigns all Condemnation Awards to Beneficiary and authorizes Beneficiary to collect and receive such Condemnation Awards, at any time after and during the continuance of an Event of Default and following notice to Grantor, and to give proper receipts and acquittances therefor, subject to the terms of the Credit Agreement.

(c) Insurance Proceeds. Grantor assigns to Beneficiary all proceeds of any insurance policies insuring against loss or damage to the Property. Grantor authorizes Beneficiary, at any time after and during the continuance of an Event of Default and following notice to Grantor, to collect and receive such proceeds and authorizes and directs the issuer of each of such insurance policies to make payment for all such losses directly to Beneficiary, instead of to Grantor and Beneficiary jointly.

Section 3.7 Other Covenants. All of the covenants in the Credit Agreement relating to Grantor are incorporated herein by reference and, together with covenants in this Article 3, shall be covenants running with the Land.

DEFAULT AND FORECLOSURE

Section 4.1 Remedies. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, Trustee or Beneficiary, by written notice to Grantor, may, at Beneficiary's election, exercise any or all of the following rights, remedies and recourses:

(a) Intentionally Omitted.

(b) Entry on Property. Enter the Property and take exclusive possession thereof and of all books, records and accounts relating thereto or located thereon. If Grantor remains in possession of the Property following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and without Beneficiary's prior written consent, Beneficiary may invoke any legal remedies to dispossess Grantor.

(c) Operation of Property. Hold, lease, develop, manage, operate or otherwise use the Property upon such terms and conditions as Beneficiary may deem reasonable under the circumstances (making such repairs, alterations, additions and improvements and taking other actions, from time to time, as Beneficiary deems necessary or desirable), and apply all Rents and other amounts collected in connection therewith in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.7.

(d) Foreclosure and Sale. Institute proceedings for the complete foreclosure of this Deed of Trust, either by judicial action or through Trustee, in which case the Property may be sold for cash or credit in one or more parcels as Beneficiary, or Trustee at the behest of Beneficiary, may determine. Any sale hereunder may be made at public auction, at such time or times, at such place or places and upon such terms and conditions, after previous public notice, with postponement, as Trustee shall deem appropriate and advantageous and as required by local law. Any postponed sale shall be advertised in the same manner as the originally scheduled sale. With respect to any notices required or permitted under the UCC, Grantor agrees that ten (10) days' prior written notice shall be deemed commercially reasonable. At any such sale by virtue of any judicial proceedings, public auction, or any other legal right, remedy or recourse, the title to and right of possession of any such property shall pass to the purchaser thereof, and to the fullest extent permitted by law, Grantor shall be completely and irrevocably divested of all of its right, title, interest, claim, equity, equity of redemption, and demand whatsoever, either at law or in equity, in and to the property sold and such sale shall be a perpetual bar both at law and in equity against Grantor, and against all other Persons claiming or to claim the property sold or any part thereof, by, through or under Grantor. Beneficiary or any of the Secured Parties may be a purchaser at such sale. If Beneficiary is the highest bidder, Beneficiary may credit the portion of the purchase price that would be distributed to Beneficiary against the Indebtedness in lieu of paying cash. In the event this Deed of Trust is foreclosed by judicial action, appraisal of the Property is waived.

(e) Receiver. Make application to a court of competent jurisdiction for, and obtain from such court as a matter of strict right and without notice to Grantor or regard to the adequacy of the Property for the repayment of the Indebtedness, the appointment of a receiver of the Property, and Grantor irrevocably consents to such appointment. Any such receiver shall have all the usual powers and duties of receivers in similar cases, including the full power to rent, maintain and otherwise operate the Property upon such terms as may be approved by the court, and shall apply such Rents in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.7.

(f) Other. Exercise all other rights, remedies and recourses granted under the Credit Documents or otherwise available at law or in equity.

Section 4.2 Separate Sales. The Property may be sold in one or more parcels and in such manner and order as Beneficiary in its sole discretion may elect; the right of sale arising out of any Event of Default and as contemplated by Section 4.1 shall not be exhausted by any one or more sales.

Section 4.3 Remedies Cumulative, Concurrent and Nonexclusive. Trustee, Beneficiary and the Secured Parties shall have all rights, remedies and recourses granted in the Credit Documents and available at law or equity (including the UCC and the remedy of specific performance), which rights (a) shall be cumulative and concurrent, (b) may be pursued separately, successively or concurrently against Grantor or others obligated under the Credit Documents, or against the Property, or against any one or more of them, at the sole discretion of Trustee, Beneficiary or the Secured Parties, as the case may be, (c) may be exercised as often as occasion therefor shall arise, and the exercise or failure to exercise any of them shall not be construed as a waiver or release thereof or of any other right, remedy or recourse, and (d) are intended to be, and shall be, nonexclusive. No action by Trustee, Beneficiary or the Secured Parties in the enforcement of any rights, remedies or recourses under the Credit Documents or otherwise at law or equity shall be deemed to cure any Event of Default.

Section 4.4 Release of and Resort to Collateral. Beneficiary may release, regardless of consideration and without the necessity for any notice to or consent by the holder of any subordinate lien on the Property, any part of the Property without, as to the remainder, in any way impairing, affecting, subordinating or releasing the lien or security interest created in or evidenced by the Credit Documents or their status as a first and prior lien and security interest in and to the Property. For payment of the Indebtedness, Beneficiary may resort to any other security in such order and manner as Beneficiary may elect.

Section 4.5 Waiver of Redemption, Notice and Marshalling of Assets. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Grantor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives and releases (a) all benefit that might accrue to Grantor by virtue of any present or future statute of limitations or law or judicial decision exempting the Property from attachment, levy or sale on execution or providing for any stay of execution, exemption from civil process, redemption or extension of time for payment, (b) all notices of any Event of Default or of any election by Beneficiary to exercise or the actual exercise of any right, remedy or recourse provided for under the Credit Documents, and (c) any right to a marshalling of assets or a sale in inverse order of alienation.

Section 4.6 Discontinuance of Proceedings. If Trustee, Beneficiary or the Secured Parties shall have proceeded to invoke any right, remedy or recourse permitted under the Credit Documents and shall thereafter elect to discontinue or abandon it for any reason, Trustee, Beneficiary or the Secured Parties, as the case may be, shall have the unqualified right to do so and, in such an event, Grantor, Trustee, Beneficiary and the Secured Parties shall be restored to their former positions with respect to the Indebtedness, the Credit Documents, the Property and otherwise, and the rights, remedies, recourses and powers of Trustee, Beneficiary and the Secured Parties shall continue as if the right, remedy or recourse had never been invoked, but no such discontinuance or abandonment shall waive any Event of Default which may then exist or the right of Trustee, Beneficiary or the Secured Parties thereafter to exercise any right, remedy or recourse under the Credit Documents for such Event of Default.

(a) Application of Proceeds. The proceeds of any sale of, and the Rents and other amounts generated by the holding, leasing, management, operation or other use of the Property, shall be applied by Trustee or Beneficiary (or the receiver, if one is appointed) as set forth in Section 5.4 of the Security Agreement.

Section 4.7 Occupancy After Foreclosure. Any sale of the Property or any part thereof in accordance with Section 4.1(d) will divest all right, title and interest of Grantor in and to the property sold. Subject to applicable law, any purchaser at a foreclosure sale will receive immediate possession of the property purchased. If Grantor retains possession of such property or any part thereof subsequent to such sale, Grantor will be considered a tenant at sufferance of the purchaser, and will, if Grantor remains in possession after demand to remove, be subject to eviction and removal, forcible or otherwise, with or without process of law.

Section 4.8 Additional Advances and Disbursements; Costs of Enforcement.

(a) If (i) Grantor fails to pay any Indebtedness when due, or (ii) any action or proceeding is commenced which adversely affects or would reasonably be expected to adversely affect the Property or Beneficiary's or any Secured Party's interest therein in any material respect, then, during the continuance of an Event of Default, Beneficiary, at its option, with written notice to Grantor, may make such appearances, disburse such sums and take such action as it reasonably deems appropriate, to preserve, protect or restore the Property or Beneficiary's or any Secured Party's interest therein. Any amounts disbursed pursuant to this Section 4.8(a) shall become additional indebtedness of Grantor secured by the lien of this Deed of Trust. Nothing contained in this Section shall require Beneficiary to incur any expense or take any action hereunder.

(b) Grantor shall pay all expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) of or incidental to the perfection and enforcement of this Deed of Trust and the other Credit Documents, or the enforcement, compromise or settlement of the Indebtedness or any claim under this Deed of Trust and the other Credit Documents, and for the curing thereof, or for defending or asserting the rights and claims of Beneficiary in respect thereof, by litigation or otherwise to the extent required pursuant to Section 13.5 of the Credit Agreement.

Section 4.9 No Beneficiary in Possession. Neither the enforcement of any of the remedies under this Article 4, the assignment of the Rents and Leases under Article 5, the security interests under Article 6, nor any other remedies afforded to Beneficiary under the Credit Documents, at law or in equity shall cause Trustee, Beneficiary or any Secured Party to be deemed or construed to be a mortgagee in possession of the Property, to obligate Trustee, Beneficiary or any Secured Party to lease the Property or attempt to do so, or to take any action, incur any expense, or perform or discharge any obligation, duty or liability whatsoever under any of the Leases or otherwise.

ASSIGNMENT OF RENTS AND LEASES

Section 5.1 Assignment. In furtherance of and in addition to the assignment made by Grantor in Section 2.1 of this Deed of Trust, Grantor hereby absolutely and unconditionally assigns, sells, transfers and conveys to Beneficiary all of its right, title and interest in and to all Leases, whether now existing or hereafter entered into, and all of its right, title and interest in and to all Rents. This assignment is an absolute assignment and not an assignment for additional security only. So long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Grantor shall have a revocable license from Beneficiary to exercise all rights extended to the landlord under the Leases, including the right to receive and collect all Rents and to hold the Rents in trust for use in the payment and performance of the Indebtedness and to otherwise use the same. The foregoing license is granted subject to the conditional limitation that no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, whether or not legal proceedings have commenced, and without regard to waste, adequacy of security for the Indebtedness or solvency of Grantor, Beneficiary may, at its option, with notice to Grantor, receive and collect all Rents and enter upon the Premises through its officers, agents, employees or attorneys for such purposes and for the operation and maintenance thereof. Grantor hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs each tenant, if any, and each successor, if any, to the interest of the tenant under any Lease, respectively, to rely upon any notice of a claimed Event of Default sent by Beneficiary to any such tenant or any of such tenant's successors in interest, and thereafter to pay Rents to Beneficiary without any obligation or right to inquire as to whether an Event of Default actually exists and even if some notice to the contrary is received from Grantor, who shall have no right or claim against any such tenant or successor in interest for any such Rents so paid to Beneficiary. Each tenant or any of such tenant's successors in interest from whom Beneficiary or any officer, agent, attorney or employee of Beneficiary shall have collected Rents, shall be authorized to pay Rents to Grantor only after such tenant or any of their successors in interest shall have received written notice from Beneficiary that the Event of Default is no longer continuing, unless and until a further notice of an Event of Default is given by Beneficiary to such tenant or any of its successors in interest.

Section 5.2 Perfection Upon Recordation. Grantor acknowledges that Trustee and Beneficiary have taken all actions necessary to obtain, and that upon recordation of this Deed of Trust, Trustee and Beneficiary shall have, to the extent permitted under applicable law, a valid and fully perfected, first priority, present assignment of the Rents arising out of the Leases and all security for such Leases. Grantor acknowledges and agrees that upon recordation of this Deed of Trust, Trustee's and Beneficiary's interest in the Rents shall be deemed to be fully perfected, "choate" and enforced as to Grantor and to the extent permitted under applicable law, all third parties, including, without limitation, any subsequently appointed trustee in any case under Title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), without the necessity of commencing a foreclosure action with respect to this Deed of Trust, making formal demand for the Rents, obtaining the appointment of a receiver or taking any other affirmative action.

Section 5.3 Bankruptcy Provisions. Without limitation of the absolute nature of the assignment of the Rents hereunder, Grantor, Trustee and Beneficiary agree that (a) this Deed of Trust shall constitute a "security agreement" for purposes of Section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) the security interest created by this Deed of Trust extends to property of Grantor acquired before the commencement of a case in bankruptcy and to all amounts paid as Rents and (c) such security interest shall extend to all Rents acquired by the estate after the commencement of any case in bankruptcy.

Section 5.4 No Merger of Estates. So long as part of the Indebtedness remain unpaid and undischarged, the fee and leasehold estates to the Property shall not merge, but shall remain separate and distinct, notwithstanding the union of such estates either in Grantor, Beneficiary, any tenant or any third party by purchase or otherwise.

SECURITY AGREEMENT

Section 6.1 Security Interest. This Deed of Trust constitutes a “security agreement” on personal property within the meaning of the UCC and other applicable law and with respect to the Property. To this end, Grantor grants to Beneficiary a first and prior security interest in the Property which is personal property to secure the payment and performance of the Indebtedness, and agrees that Beneficiary shall have all the rights and remedies of a secured party under the UCC with respect to such Property. Any notice of sale, disposition or other intended action by Beneficiary with respect to the Property sent to Grantor at least ten (10) days prior to any action under the UCC shall constitute reasonable notice to Grantor.

Section 6.2 Financing Statements. Grantor shall prepare and deliver to Beneficiary such financing statements, and shall execute and deliver to Beneficiary such documents, instruments and further assurances, in each case in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary, as Beneficiary may, from time to time, reasonably consider necessary to create, perfect and preserve Beneficiary’s security interest hereunder. Grantor hereby irrevocably authorizes Beneficiary to cause financing statements and any such documents, instruments and assurances to be recorded and filed, at such times and places as may be required by law or, in the reasonable judgment of Beneficiary, advisable to so create, perfect and preserve such security interest. Grantor’s jurisdiction of organization is set forth in the introductory paragraph of this Deed of Trust. After the date of this Deed of Trust, Grantor shall not change its name, type of organization, organizational identification number (if any), jurisdiction of organization or location (within the meaning of the UCC) without giving at least thirty (30) days’ prior written notice to Beneficiary.

Section 6.3 Fixture Filing. This Deed of Trust shall also constitute a “fixture filing” for the purposes of the UCC against all of the Property which is or is to become fixtures. The information provided in this Section 6.3 is provided so that this Deed of Trust shall comply with the requirements of the UCC for a mortgage instrument to be filed as a financing statement. Grantor is the “Debtor” and its name and mailing address are set forth in the preamble of this Deed of Trust immediately preceding Article 1. Beneficiary is the “Secured Party” and its name and mailing address from which information concerning the security interest granted herein may be obtained are also set forth in the preamble of this Deed of Trust immediately preceding Article 1. A statement describing the portion of the Property comprising the fixtures hereby secured is set forth in Section 1.1(c) of this Deed of Trust. The record owner of the Property is Grantor. The employer identification number of Debtor (Grantor) and the organizational identification number of Debtor (Grantor) are set forth on the cover page hereof.

Section 7.6 No Waiver. Any failure by Trustee, Beneficiary or the Secured Parties to insist upon strict performance of any of the terms, provisions or conditions of the Credit Documents shall not be deemed to be a waiver of same, and Trustee, Beneficiary and the Secured Parties shall each have the right at any time to insist upon strict performance of all of such terms, provisions and conditions.

Section 7.7 Credit Agreement. If any conflict or inconsistency exists between this Deed of Trust and the Credit Agreement, the Credit Agreement shall govern.

Section 7.8 Release or Reconveyance.

(a) This Deed of Trust shall remain in full force and effect and be binding in accordance with and to the extent of its terms upon Grantor and the successors and assigns thereof and shall inure to the benefit of Beneficiary and the other Secured Parties and their respective successors, indorsees, transferees and assigns until all Indebtedness (other than any contingent indemnity obligations not then due) shall have been satisfied by payment in full, the Commitments shall be terminated and no Letters of Credit shall be outstanding.

(b) Grantor shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder and the security interest in the Property shall be automatically released upon the consummation of any transaction permitted under the Credit Agreement as a result of which Grantor ceases to be a Subsidiary Guarantor.

(c) Upon any sale or other transfer by Grantor of any Property that is permitted under the Credit Agreement or upon the effectiveness of any written consent to the release of the security interest granted hereby in any Property pursuant to Section 13.1 of the Credit Agreement, the security interest in such Property shall be automatically released and such Property sold free and clear of the Lien and Security Interests created hereby.

(d) In connection with any termination or release pursuant to paragraph (a), (b) or (c), Beneficiary shall execute and deliver to Grantor, at Grantor's expense, all documents that Grantor shall reasonably request to evidence such termination or release. Any execution and delivery of documents pursuant to this Section shall be without recourse to or warranty by Beneficiary.

Section 7.9 Waiver of Stay, Moratorium and Similar Rights. Grantor agrees, to the full extent that it may lawfully do so, that it will not at any time insist upon or plead or in any way take advantage of any stay, marshalling of assets, extension, redemption or moratorium law now or hereafter in force and effect so as to prevent or hinder the enforcement of the provisions of this Deed of Trust or the Indebtedness secured hereby, or any agreement between Grantor and Beneficiary or any rights or remedies of Trustee, Beneficiary, or the Secured Parties.

Section 7.10 Applicable Law. The provisions of this Deed of Trust regarding the creation, perfection and enforcement of the liens and security interests herein granted shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Colorado. All other provisions of this Deed of Trust shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York (including, without limitation, Section 5-1401 of the General Obligations Law of the State of New York).

4. Delivery of the Collateral. The Collateral Agent shall have the right, at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and with notice to the relevant Pledgor, to transfer to or to register in the name of the Collateral Agent or any of its nominees any or all of the Pledged Shares. Each delivery of Collateral (including any After-acquired Shares) shall be accompanied by a schedule describing the securities theretofore and then being pledged hereunder, which shall be attached hereto as Schedule 1 and made a part hereof, provided that the failure to attach any such schedule hereto shall not affect the validity of such pledge of such securities. Each schedule so delivered shall supersede any prior schedules so delivered.

5. Representations and Warranties. Each Pledgor represents and warrants as follows:

(a) Schedule 1 hereto (i) correctly represents as of the Closing Date (A) the issuer, the certificate number, the Pledgor and the record and beneficial owner, the number and class and the percentage of the issued and outstanding Equity Interests of such class of all Pledged Shares and (B) the issuer, the initial principal amount, the Pledgor and holder, date of and maturity date of all Pledged Debt and (ii) together with the comparable schedule to each supplement hereto, includes all Equity Interests, debt securities and promissory notes required to be pledged hereunder. (b) Such Pledgor is the legal and beneficial owner of the Collateral pledged or assigned by such Pledgor hereunder free and clear of any Lien, except for the Lien created by this Pledge Agreement.

(c) As of the Closing Date, the Pledged Shares pledged by such Pledgor hereunder have been duly authorized and validly issued and, in the case of Pledged Shares issued by a corporation, are fully paid and non-assessable.

(d) The execution and delivery by such Pledgor of this Pledge Agreement and the pledge of the Collateral pledged by such Pledgor hereunder pursuant hereto create a legal, valid and enforceable security interest in such Collateral and, upon delivery of such Collateral to the Collateral Agent, shall constitute a fully perfected Lien on and security interest in the Collateral, securing the payment of the Obligations, in favor of the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties, except as enforceability thereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject to general principles of equity.

(e) Such Pledgor has full power, authority and legal right to pledge all the Collateral pledged by such Pledgor pursuant to this Pledge Agreement and this Pledge Agreement constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of each Pledgor, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability thereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject to general principles of equity.

6. Certification of Limited Liability Company, Limited Partnership Interests and Pledged Debt. (a) The Equity Interests in any U.S. Subsidiary that is organized as a limited liability company or limited partnership and pledged hereunder shall be represented by a certificate and in the organizational documents of such U.S. Subsidiary, the applicable Pledgor shall cause the issuer of such interests to elect to treat such interests as a "security" within the meaning of Article 8 of the UCC of its jurisdiction of organization or formation, as applicable, by including in its organizational documents language substantially similar to the following and, accordingly, such interests shall be governed by Article 8 of the UCC:

"The Partnership/Company hereby irrevocably elects that all membership interests in the Partnership/Company shall be securities governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code of [jurisdiction of organization or formation, as applicable]. Each certificate evidencing partnership/membership interests in the Partnership/Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in [name of Partnership/LLC] and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend."

(b) Each Pledgor will cause any Indebtedness for borrowed money in an aggregate principal amount exceeding $5,000,000 owed to such Pledgor and required to be pledged hereunder to be evidenced by a duly executed promissory note that is pledged and delivered to the Collateral Agent pursuant to the terms hereof.

7. Further Assurances. Each Pledgor agrees that at any time and from time to time, at the expense of such Pledgor, it will execute any and all further documents, financing statements, agreements and instruments, and take all such further actions (including the filing and recording of financing statements, fixture filings, mortgages, deeds of trust and other documents), which may be required under any applicable law, or which the Collateral Agent or the Required Lenders may reasonably request, in order (x) to perfect and protect any pledge, assignment or security interest granted or purported to be granted hereby (including the priority thereof) or (y) to enable the Collateral Agent to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder with respect to any Collateral.

8. Voting Rights; Dividends and Distributions; Etc. (a) So long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing:

(i) Each Pledgor shall be entitled to exercise any and all voting and other consensual rights pertaining to the Collateral or any part thereof for any purpose not prohibited by the terms of this Pledge Agreement or the other Credit Documents.

(ii) The Collateral Agent shall execute and deliver (or cause to be executed and delivered) to each Pledgor all such proxies and other instruments as such Pledgor may reasonably request for the purpose of enabling such Pledgor to exercise the voting and other rights that it is entitled to exercise pursuant to paragraph (i) above.

(b) Subject to paragraph (c) below, each Pledgor shall be entitled to receive and retain and use, free and clear of the Lien of this Pledge Agreement, any and all dividends, distributions, principal and interest made or paid in respect of the Collateral to the extent permitted by the Credit Agreement, as applicable; provided, however, that any and all noncash dividends, interest, principal or other distributions that would constitute Pledged Shares or Pledged Debt, whether resulting from a subdivision, combination or reclassification of the outstanding Equity Interests of the issuer of any Pledged Shares or received in exchange for Pledged Shares or Pledged Debt or any part thereof, or in redemption thereof, or as a result of any merger, consolidation, acquisition or other exchange of assets to which such issuer may be a party or otherwise, shall be, and shall be forthwith delivered to the Collateral Agent to hold as, Collateral and shall, if received by such Pledgor, be received in trust for the benefit of the Collateral Agent, be segregated from the other property or funds of such Pledgor and be forthwith delivered to the Collateral Agent as Collateral in the same form as so received (with any necessary indorsement).

(c) Upon written notice to a Pledgor by the Collateral Agent following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default,

(i) all rights of such Pledgor to exercise or refrain from exercising the voting and other consensual rights that it would otherwise be entitled to exercise pursuant to Section 8(a)(i) shall cease, and all such rights shall thereupon become vested in the Collateral Agent, which shall thereupon have the sole right to exercise or refrain from exercising such voting and other consensual rights during the continuance of such Event of Default, provided that, unless otherwise directed by the Required Lenders, the Collateral Agent shall have the right from time to time following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default to permit the Pledgors to exercise such rights. After all Events of Default have been cured or waived and the Company has delivered to the Collateral Agent a certificate to that effect, each Pledgor will have the right to exercise the voting and consensual rights that such Pledgor would otherwise be entitled to exercise pursuant to the terms of Section 8(a)(i) (and the obligations of the Collateral Agent under Section 8(a)(ii) shall be reinstated);

(ii) all rights of such Pledgor to receive the dividends, distributions and principal and interest payments that such Pledgor would otherwise be authorized to receive and retain pursuant to Section 8(b) shall cease, and all such rights shall thereupon become vested in the Collateral Agent, which shall thereupon have the sole right to receive and hold as Collateral such dividends, distributions and principal and interest payments during the continuance of such Event of Default. After all Events of Default have been cured or waived and the Company has delivered to the Collateral Agent a certificate to that effect, the Collateral Agent shall repay to each Pledgor (without interest) all dividends, distributions and principal and interest payments that such Pledgor would otherwise be permitted to receive, retain and use pursuant to the terms of Section 8(b);

(iii) all dividends, distributions and principal and interest payments that are received by such Pledgor contrary to the provisions of Section 8(b) shall be received in trust for the benefit of the Collateral Agent shall be segregated from other property or funds of such Pledgor and shall forthwith be delivered to the Collateral Agent as Collateral in the same form as so received (with any necessary indorsements); and

(iv) in order to permit the Collateral Agent to receive all dividends, distributions and principal and interest payments to which it may be entitled under Section 8(b) above, to exercise the voting and other consensual rights that it may be entitled to exercise pursuant to Section 8(c)(i) above, and to receive all dividends, distributions and principal and interest payments that it may be entitled to under Sections 8(c)(ii) and (c)(iii) above, such Pledgor shall, if necessary, upon written notice from the Collateral Agent, from time to time execute and deliver to the Collateral Agent, appropriate proxies, dividend payment orders and other instruments as the Collateral Agent may reasonably request.

9. Transfers and Other Liens; Additional Collateral; Etc. Each Pledgor shall:

(a) not (i) except as permitted by the Credit Agreement sell or otherwise dispose of, or grant any option or warrant with respect to, any of the Collateral or (ii) create or suffer to exist any consensual Lien upon or with respect to any of the Collateral, except for the Lien under this Pledge Agreement, provided that in the event such Pledgor sells or otherwise disposes of assets permitted by the Credit Agreement, and such assets are or include any of the Collateral, the Collateral Agent shall release such Collateral to such Pledgor free and clear of the Lien under this Pledge Agreement concurrently with the consummation of such sale;

(b) pledge and, if applicable, cause each U.S. Subsidiary to pledge, to the Collateral Agent for the ratable benefit of the Secured Parties, immediately upon acquisition thereof, all the capital stock and all evidence of Indebtedness held or received by such Pledgor or U.S. Subsidiary required to be pledged hereunder pursuant to Section 9.12 of the Credit Agreement, in each case pursuant to a supplement to this Pledge Agreement substantially in the form of Annex A hereto (it being understood that the execution and delivery of such a supplement shall not require the consent of any Pledgor hereunder and that the rights and obligations of each Pledgor hereunder shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the addition of any new Subsidiary Pledgor as a party to this Pledge Agreement); and

(c) defend its and the Collateral Agent's title or interest in and to all the Collateral (and in the Proceeds thereof) against any and all Liens (other than the Lien of this Pledge Agreement), however arising, and any and all Persons whomsoever.

10. Collateral Agent Appointed Attorney-in-Fact. Each Pledgor hereby appoints, which appointment is irrevocable and coupled with an interest, the Collateral Agent as such Pledgor's attorney-in-fact, with full authority in the place and stead of such Pledgor and in the name of such Pledgor or otherwise, to take any action and to execute any instrument, in each case after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, that the Collateral Agent may deem reasonably necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Pledge Agreement, including to receive, indorse and collect all instruments made payable to such Pledgor representing any dividend, distribution or principal or interest payment in respect of the Collateral or any part thereof and to give full discharge for the same.

11. The Collateral Agent's Duties. The powers conferred on the Collateral Agent hereunder are solely to protect its interest in the Collateral and shall not impose any duty upon it to exercise any such powers. Except for the safe custody of any Collateral in its possession and the accounting for moneys actually received by it hereunder, the Collateral Agent shall have no duty as to any Collateral, as to ascertaining or taking action with respect to calls, conversions, exchanges, maturities, tenders or other matters relative to any Pledged Shares, whether or not the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party has or is deemed to have knowledge of such matters, or as to the taking of any necessary steps to preserve rights against any parties or any other rights pertaining to any Collateral. The Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of any Collateral in its possession if such Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which the Collateral Agent accords its own property.

12. Remedies. If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing:

(a) The Collateral Agent may exercise in respect of the Collateral, in addition to other rights and remedies provided for herein or otherwise available to it, all the rights and remedies of a secured party upon default under the UCC (whether or not the UCC applies to the affected Collateral) and also may without notice except as specified below, sell the Collateral or any part thereof in one or more parcels at public or private sale, at any exchange broker's board or at any of the Collateral Agent's offices or elsewhere, for cash, on credit or for future delivery, at such price or prices and upon such other terms as are commercially reasonable irrespective of the impact of any such sales on the market price of the Collateral. The Collateral Agent shall be authorized at any such sale (if it deems it advisable to do so) to restrict the prospective bidders or purchasers of Collateral to Persons who will represent and agree that they are purchasing the Collateral for their own account for investment and not with a view to the distribution or sale thereof, and, upon consummation of any such sale, the Collateral Agent shall have the right to assign, transfer and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof the Collateral so sold. Each purchaser at any such sale shall hold the property sold absolutely free from any claim or right on the part of any Pledgor, and each Pledgor hereby waives (to the extent permitted by law) all rights of redemption, stay and/or appraisal that it now has or may at any time in the future have under any rule of law or statute now existing or hereafter enacted. The Collateral Agent or any Secured Party shall have the right upon any such public sale, and, to the extent permitted by law, upon any such private sale, to purchase the whole or any part of the Collateral so sold, and the Collateral Agent or such Secured Party may pay the purchase price by crediting the amount thereof against the Obligations. Each Pledgor agrees that, to the extent notice of sale shall be required by law, at least ten days' notice to such Pledgor of the time and place of any public sale or the time after which any private sale is to be made shall constitute reasonable notification. The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to make any sale of Collateral regardless of notice of sale having been given. The Collateral Agent may adjourn any public or private sale from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed therefor, and such sale may, without further notice, be made at the time and place to which it was so adjourned. To the extent permitted by law, each Pledgor hereby waives any claim against the Collateral Agent arising by reason of the fact that the price at which any Collateral may have been sold at such a private sale was less than the price that might have been obtained at a public sale, even if the Collateral Agent accepts the first offer received and does not offer such Collateral to more than one offeree.

(b) The Collateral Agent shall apply the proceeds of any collection or sale of the Collateral at any time after receipt as follows:

(i) first, to the payment of all reasonable and documented costs and expenses incurred by the Collateral Agent in connection with such collection or sale or otherwise in connection with this Pledge Agreement, the other Credit Documents or any of the Obligations, including all court costs and the reasonable fees and expenses of its agents and legal counsel, the repayment of all advances made by the Collateral Agent hereunder or under any other Credit Document on behalf of any Pledgor and any other reasonable and documented costs or expenses incurred in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy hereunder or under any other Credit Document;

(ii) second, to the Secured Parties, an amount equal to all Obligations owing to them on the date of any such distribution, and, if such moneys shall be insufficient to pay such amounts in full, then ratably (without priority of any one over any other) to such Secured Parties in proportion to the unpaid amounts thereof; and

(iii) third, any surplus then remaining shall be paid to the Pledgors or their successors or assigns or to whomsoever may be lawfully entitled to receive the same or as a court of competent jurisdiction may direct.

Upon any sale of the Collateral by the Collateral Agent (including pursuant to a power of sale granted by statute or under a judicial proceeding), the receipt of the Collateral Agent or of the officer making the sale shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser or purchasers of the Collateral so sold and such purchaser or purchasers shall not be obligated to see to the application of any part of the purchase money paid over to the Collateral Agent or such officer or be answerable in any way for the misapplication thereof.

(c) The Collateral Agent may exercise any and all rights and remedies of each Pledgor in respect of the Collateral.

(d) All payments received by any Pledgor after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default in respect of the Collateral shall be received in trust for the benefit of the Collateral Agent shall be segregated from other property or funds of such Pledgor and shall be forthwith delivered to the Collateral Agent as Collateral in the same form as so received (with any necessary indorsement).

13. Amendments, etc. with Respect to the Obligations; Waiver of Rights. Each Pledgor shall remain obligated hereunder notwithstanding that, without any reservation of rights against any Pledgor and without notice to or further assent by any Pledgor, (a) any demand for payment of any of the Obligations made by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party may be rescinded by such party and any of the Obligations continued, (b) the Obligations, or the liability of any other party upon or for any part thereof, or any collateral security or guarantee therefor or right of offset with respect thereto, may, from time to time, in whole or in part, be renewed, extended, amended, modified, accelerated, compromised, waived, surrendered or released by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party, (c) the Credit Agreement, the other Credit Documents, the Letters of Credit and any other documents executed and delivered in connection therewith and the Hedge Agreements and any other documents executed and delivered in connection therewith and any documents entered into with the applicable Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent or any of its respective affiliates in connection with treasury, depositary or cash management services or in connection with any automated clearinghouse transfer of funds may be amended, modified, supplemented or terminated, in whole or in part, as the applicable Administrative Agent (or the Required Lenders, as the case may be, or, in the case of any Hedge Agreement or documents entered into with the applicable Administrative Agent or any of its respective affiliates in connection with treasury, depositary or cash management services or in connection with any automated clearinghouse transfer of funds, the party thereto) may deem advisable from time to time, and (d) any collateral security, guarantee or right of offset at any time held by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party for the payment of the Obligations may be sold, exchanged, waived, surrendered or released. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Party shall have any obligation to protect, secure, perfect or insure any Lien at any time held by it as security for the Obligations or for this Pledge Agreement or any property subject thereto. When making any demand hereunder against any Pledgor, the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party may, but shall be under no obligation to, make a similar demand on any Borrower or any Pledgor or any other person, and any failure by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to make any such demand or to collect any payments from any Borrower or any Pledgor or any other person or any release of any Borrower or any Pledgor or any other person shall not relieve any Pledgor in respect of which a demand or collection is not made or any Pledgor not so released of its several obligations or liabilities hereunder, and shall not impair or affect the rights and remedies, express or implied, or as a matter of law, of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party against any Pledgor. For the purposes hereof "demand" shall include the commencement and continuance of any legal proceedings.

14. Continuing Security Interest; Assignments Under the Credit Agreement; Release. (a) This Pledge Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and be binding in accordance with and to the extent of its terms upon each Pledgor and the successors and assigns thereof, and shall inure to the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties and their respective successors, indorsees, transferees and assigns until all the Obligations (other than any contingent indemnity obligations not then due) under the Credit Documents shall have been satisfied by payment in full, the Commitments shall be terminated and no Letters of Credit shall be outstanding, notwithstanding that from time to time during the term of the Credit Agreement and any Hedge Agreement the Credit Parties may be free from any Obligations.

(b) A Subsidiary Pledgor shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder and the Pledge of such Subsidiary Pledgor shall be automatically released upon the consummation of any transaction permitted under the Credit Agreement, as a result of which such Subsidiary Pledgor ceases to be a Subsidiary Guarantor.

(c) Upon any sale or other transfer by any Pledgor of any Collateral that is permitted under the Credit Agreement or upon the effectiveness of any written consent to the release of the security interest granted hereby in any Collateral pursuant to Section 13.1 of the Credit Agreement, the obligations of such Pledgor with respect to such Collateral shall be automatically released and such Collateral sold free and clear of the Lien and Security Interests created hereby.

(d) In connection with any termination or release pursuant to the foregoing paragraph (a), (b) or (c), the Collateral Agent shall execute and deliver to any Pledgor, at such Pledgor's expense, all documents that such Pledgor shall reasonably request to evidence such termination or release. Any execution and delivery of documents pursuant to this Section 14 shall be without recourse to or warranty by the Collateral Agent.

15. Reinstatement. Each Pledgor further agrees that, if any payment made by any Credit Party or other Person and applied to the Obligations is at any time annulled, avoided, set aside, rescinded, invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential or otherwise required to be refunded or repaid, or the proceeds of Collateral are required to be returned by any Secured Party to such Credit Party, its estate, trustee, receiver or any other party, including any Pledgor, under any bankruptcy law, state, federal or foreign law, common law or equitable cause, then, to the extent of such payment or repayment, any Lien or other Collateral securing such liability shall be and remain in full force and effect, as fully as if such payment had never been made or, if prior thereto the Lien granted hereby or other Collateral securing such liability hereunder shall have been released or terminated by virtue of such cancellation or surrender, such Lien or other Collateral shall be reinstated in full force and effect, and such prior cancellation or surrender shall not diminish, release, discharge, impair or otherwise affect any Lien or other Collateral securing the obligations of any Pledgor in respect of the amount of such payment.

16. Notices. All notices, requests and demands pursuant hereto shall be made in accordance with Section 13.2 of the Credit Agreement. All communications and notices hereunder to any Pledgor shall be given to it in care of the Company at the Company's address set forth in Section 13.2 of the Credit Agreement.

17. Counterparts. This Pledge Agreement may be executed by one or more of the parties to this Pledge Agreement on any number of separate counterparts (including by facsimile or other electronic transmission), and all of said counterparts taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument. A set of the copies of this Pledge Agreement signed by all the parties shall be lodged with the Collateral Agent and the Company.

18. Severability. Any provision of this Pledge Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction. The parties hereto shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

19. Integration. This Pledge Agreement together with the other Credit Documents represents the agreement of each of the Pledgors with respect to the subject matter hereof and there are no promises, undertakings, representations or warranties by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party relative to the subject matter hereof not expressly set forth or referred to herein or in the other Credit Documents.

20. Amendments in Writing; No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies. (a) None of the terms or provisions of this Pledge Agreement may be waived, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified except by a written instrument executed by the affected Pledgor and the applicable Administrative Agent in accordance with Section 13.1 of the Credit Agreement.

(b) Neither the Collateral Agent nor any Secured Party shall by any act (except by a written instrument pursuant to Section 20(a) hereof), delay, indulgence, omission or otherwise be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any Default or Event of Default or in any breach of any of the terms and conditions hereof. No failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party, any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof. No single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. A waiver by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party of any right or remedy hereunder on any one occasion shall not be construed as a bar to any right or remedy that the Collateral Agent or such other Secured Party would otherwise have on any future occasion.

(c) The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative, may be exercised singly or concurrently and are not exclusive of any other rights or remedies provided by law.

21. Section Headings. The Section headings used in this Pledge Agreement are for convenience of reference only and are not to affect the construction hereof or be taken into consideration in the interpretation hereof.

22. Successors and Assigns. This Pledge Agreement shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of each Pledgor and shall inure to the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties and their respective successors and assigns, except that no Pledgor may assign, transfer or delegate any of its rights or obligations under this Pledge Agreement without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent.

23. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PLEDGOR HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS PLEDGE AGREEMENT, ANY OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT AND FOR ANY COUNTERCLAIM THEREIN.

24. Submission to Jurisdiction; Waivers. Each of the Pledgors hereby irrevocably and unconditionally:

(a) submits for itself and its property in any legal action or proceeding relating to this Pledge Agreement and the other Credit Documents to which it is a party, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect thereof, to the non-exclusive general jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York, the courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York and appellate courts from any thereof;

(b) consents that any such action or proceeding may be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue of any such action or proceeding in any such court or that such action or proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same;

(c) agrees that service of process in any such action or proceeding may be effected by mailing a copy thereof by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to such Pledgor at its address referred to in Section 16 or at such other address of which the Collateral Agent shall have been notified pursuant thereto;

(d) agrees that nothing herein shall affect the right of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by law or shall limit the right of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to sue in any other jurisdiction; and

(e) waives, to the maximum extent not prohibited by law, any right it may have to claim or recover in any legal action or proceeding referred to in this Section 24 any special, exemplary, punitive or consequential damages.

25. GOVERNING LAW. THIS PLEDGE AGREEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

B. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to such terms in the Pledge Agreement.

C. The Pledgors have entered into the Pledge Agreement in order to induce each Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Syndication Agent, the Lenders and the Letter of Credit Issuer to enter into the Credit Agreement and to induce the respective Lenders and the Letter of Credit Issuer to make their respective Extensions of Credit to the Borrower under the Credit Agreement and to induce one or more Lenders or affiliates of Lenders to enter into Hedge Agreements with the Borrowers.

D. The undersigned [Pledgors][Subsidiary Guarantors] (each an “Additional Pledgor”) are (a) the legal and beneficial owners of the Equity Interests described under Schedule 1 hereto and issued by the entities named therein (such pledged Equity Interests, together with any Equity Interests obtained in the future of the issuer of such Pledged Shares (the “After-acquired Additional Pledged Shares”), referred to collectively herein as the “Additional Pledged Shares”) and (b) the legal and beneficial owners of the Indebtedness (the “Additional Pledged Debt”) described under Schedule 1 hereto.

E. Section 9.12 of the Credit Agreement and Section 9(b) of the Pledge Agreement provide that additional Subsidiaries may become Subsidiary Pledgors under the Pledge Agreement by execution and delivery of an instrument in the form of this Supplement. Each undersigned Additional Pledgor is executing this Supplement in accordance with the requirements of Section 9(b) of the Pledge Agreement to pledge to the Collateral Agent for the ratable benefit of the Secured Parties the Additional Pledged Shares and the Additional Pledged Debt [and to become a Subsidiary Pledgor under the Pledge Agreement] in order to induce the Lenders and the Letter of Credit Issuer to make additional Extensions of Credit and as consideration for Extensions of Credit previously made.

Accordingly, the Collateral Agent and each undersigned Additional Pledgor agree as follows:

SECTION 1. In accordance with Section 9(b) of the Pledge Agreement, each Additional Pledgor by its signature hereby transfers, assigns and pledges to the Collateral Agent, for the ratable benefit of the Secured Parties, and hereby grants to the Collateral Agent, for the ratable benefit of the Secured Parties, a security interest in all of such Additional Pledgor’s right, title and interest in the following, whether now owned or existing or hereafter acquired or existing (collectively, the “Additional Collateral”):

(a) the Additional Pledged Shares held by such Additional Pledgor and the certificates representing such Additional Pledged Shares and any interest of such Additional Pledgor in the entries on the books of the issuer of the Additional Pledged Shares or any financial intermediary pertaining to the Additional Pledged Shares and all dividends, cash, warrants, rights, instruments and other property or proceeds from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for any or all of the Additional Pledged Shares;

(b) the Additional Pledged Debt and the instruments evidencing the Additional Pledged Debt owed to such Additional Pledgor, and all interest, cash, instruments and other property or proceeds from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for any or all of such Additional Pledged Debt; and

(c) to the extent not covered by clauses (a) and (b) above, respectively, all proceeds of any or all of the foregoing Additional Collateral. For purposes of this Supplement, the term “proceeds” includes whatever is receivable or received when Additional Collateral or proceeds are sold, exchanged, collected or otherwise disposed of, whether such disposition is voluntary or involuntary, and includes proceeds of any indemnity or guarantee payable to any Additional Pledgor or the Collateral Agent from time to time with respect to any of the Additional Collateral.

For purposes of the Pledge Agreement, (x) the Collateral shall be deemed to include the Additional Collateral and (y) the After-acquired Pledged Shares shall be deemed to include the Additional After-acquired Pledge Shares.

[SECTION 2. Each Additional Pledgor by its signature below becomes a Pledgor under the Pledge Agreement with the same force and effect as if originally named therein as a Pledgor and each Additional Pledgor hereby agrees to all the terms and provisions of the Pledge Agreement applicable to it as a Pledgor thereunder. Each reference to a “Subsidiary Pledgor” or a “Pledgor” in the Pledge Agreement shall be deemed to include each Additional Pledgor. The Pledge Agreement is hereby incorporated herein by reference.]¹

SECTION [2][3]. Each Additional Pledgor represents and warrants as follows:

(a) Schedule 1 hereto (i) correctly represents as of the date hereof (A) the issuer, the certificate number, the Pledgor and registered owner, the number and class and the percentage of the issued and outstanding Equity Interests of such class of all Additional Pledged Shares and (B) the issuer, the initial principal amount, the Pledgor and holder, date of and maturity date of all Additional Pledged Debt and (ii) together with Schedule 2 to the Pledge Agreement, the comparable schedules to each other Supplement to the Pledge Agreement, includes all Equity Interests, debt securities and promissory notes required to be pledged hereunder. Except as set forth on Schedule 1, the Pledged Shares represent all of the issued and outstanding Equity Interests of each class of Equity Interests of the issuer on the date hereof.

¹ Include only for Additional Pledgors that are not already signatories to the Pledge Agreement.

(b) Such Additional Pledgor is the legal and beneficial owner of the Additional Collateral pledged or assigned by such Additional Pledgor hereunder free and clear of any Lien, except for the Lien created by this Supplement to the Pledge Agreement.

(c) As of the date of this Supplement, the Additional Pledged Shares pledged by such Additional Pledgor hereunder have been duly authorized and validly issued and, in the case of Additional Pledged Shares issued by a corporation, are fully paid and non-assessable.

(d) The execution and delivery by such Additional Pledgor of this Supplement and the pledge of the Additional Collateral pledged by such Additional Pledgor hereunder pursuant hereto create a valid and perfected first-priority security interest in the Additional Collateral, securing the payment of the Obligations, in favor of the Collateral Agent for the ratable benefit of the Secured Parties.

(e) Such Additional Pledgor has full power, authority and legal right to pledge all the Additional Collateral pledged by such Additional Pledgor pursuant to this Supplement and this Supplement constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of each Additional Pledgor, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability thereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject to general principles of equity.

SECTION [3][4]. This Supplement may be executed by one or more of the parties to this Supplement on any number of separate counterparts (including by facsimile or other electronic transmission), and all of said counterparts taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument. A set of the copies of this Supplement signed by all the parties shall be lodged with the Collateral Agent and the Company. This Supplement shall become effective as to each Additional Pledgor when the Collateral Agent shall have received counterparts of this Supplement that, when taken together, bear the signatures of such Additional Pledgor and the Collateral Agent.

SECTION [4][5]. Except as expressly supplemented hereby, the Pledge Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

SECTION [5][6]. THIS SUPPLEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

SECTION [6][7]. Any provision of this Supplement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof and in the Pledge Agreement, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction. The parties hereto shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION [7][8]. All notices, requests and demands pursuant hereto shall be made in accordance with Section 16 of the Pledge Agreement. All communications and notices hereunder to each Additional Pledgor shall be given to it in care of the Company at the Company's address set forth in Section 13.2 of the Credit Agreement.

SECTION [8][9]. Each Additional Pledgor agrees to reimburse the Collateral Agent for its respective reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection with this Supplement, including the reasonable fees, other charges and disbursements of counsel for the Collateral Agent.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each Additional Pledgor and the Collateral Agent have duly executed this Supplement to the Pledge Agreement as of the day and year first above written.

4.4 Special Covenants with Respect to Equipment. (a) Each Grantor shall, promptly after the acquisition by such Grantor of any item of equipment that is covered by a certificate of title under a statute of any jurisdiction under the law of which indication of a Security Interest on such certificate is required as a condition of perfection

If required in writing by the Collateral Agent at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, any payments of Accounts, when collected by any Grantor, (i) shall be forthwith (and, in any event, within two Business Days) deposited by such Grantor in the exact form received, duly endorsed by such Grantor to the Collateral Agent if required, in a Collateral Account maintained under the sole dominion and control of and on terms and conditions reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, subject to withdrawal by the Collateral Agent for the account of the Secured Parties only as provided in Section 5.5, and (ii) until so turned over, shall be held by such Grantor in trust for the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties, segregated from other funds of such Grantor. Each such deposit of Proceeds of Accounts shall be accompanied by a report identifying in reasonable detail the nature and source of the payments included in the deposit.

(c) At the Collateral Agent's request at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, each Grantor shall deliver to the Collateral Agent all original and other documents evidencing, and relating to, the agreements and transactions which gave rise to the Accounts, including all original orders, invoices and shipping receipts.

(d) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, a Grantor shall not grant any extension of the time of payment of any of the Accounts, compromise, compound or settle the same for less than the full amount thereof, release, wholly or partly, any person liable for the payment thereof, or allow any credit or discount whatsoever thereon if the Collateral Agent shall have instructed the Grantors not to grant or make any such extension, credit, discount, compromise or settlement under any circumstances during the continuance of such Event of Default.

(e) At the direction of the Collateral Agent, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, each Grantor shall grant to the Collateral Agent to the extent assignable, an irrevocable, non-exclusive, fully paid-up, royalty-free, worldwide license to use, assign, license or sublicense any of the Intellectual Property now owned or hereafter acquired by such Grantor. Such license shall include access to all media in which any of the licensed items may be recorded or stored and to all computer programs used for the compilation or printout thereof.

5.2 Communications with Credit Parties; Grantors Remain Liable. (a) The Collateral Agent in its own name or in the name of others may at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, after giving reasonable notice to the relevant Grantor of its intent to do so, communicate with obligors under the Accounts to verify with them to the Collateral Agent's satisfaction the existence, amount and terms of any Accounts. The Collateral Agent shall have the absolute right to share any information it gains from such inspection or verification with any Secured Party.

(b) Upon the written request of the Collateral Agent at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, each Grantor shall notify obligors on the Accounts that the Accounts have been assigned to the Collateral Agent for the ratable benefit of the Secured Parties and that payments in respect thereof shall be made directly to the Collateral Agent.

(c) Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, each Grantor shall remain liable under each of the Accounts to observe and perform all the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by it thereunder, all in accordance with the terms of any agreement giving rise thereto. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any Secured Party shall have any obligation or liability under any Account (or any agreement giving rise thereto) by reason of or arising out of this Security Agreement or the receipt by the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party of any payment relating thereto, nor shall the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of any Grantor under or pursuant to any Account (or any agreement giving rise thereto), to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by it or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party thereunder, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to it or to which it may be entitled at any time or times.

5.3 Proceeds to be Turned Over To Collateral Agent. In addition to the rights of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties specified in Section 5.1 with respect to payments of Accounts, if an Event of Default shall occur and be continuing and the Collateral Agent so requires by notice in writing to the relevant Grantor (it being understood that the exercise of remedies by the Secured Parties in connection with an Event of Default under Section 11.5 of the Credit Agreement shall be deemed to constitute a request by the Collateral Agent for the purposes of this sentence and in such circumstances, no such written notice shall be required), all Proceeds received by any Grantor consisting of cash, checks and other near-cash items shall be held by such Grantor in trust for the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties, segregated from other funds of such Grantor, and shall, forthwith upon receipt by such Grantor, be turned over to the Collateral Agent in the exact form received by such Grantor (duly endorsed by such Grantor to the Collateral Agent, if required). All Proceeds received by the Collateral Agent hereunder shall be held by the Collateral Agent in a Collateral Account maintained under its dominion and control and on terms and conditions reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent. All Proceeds while held by the Collateral Agent in a Collateral Account (or by such Grantor in trust for the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties) shall continue to be held as collateral security for all the Obligations and shall not constitute payment thereof until applied as provided in Section 5.4.

5.4 Application of Proceeds. The Collateral Agent shall apply the proceeds of any collection or sale of the Collateral as well as any Collateral consisting of cash, at any time after receipt as follows:

(i) first, to the payment of all reasonable and documented costs and expenses incurred by the Collateral Agent in connection with such collection or sale or otherwise in connection with this Security Agreement, the other Credit Documents or any of the Obligations, including all court costs and the reasonable fees and expenses of its agents and legal counsel, the repayment of all advances made by the Collateral Agent hereunder or under any other Credit Document on behalf of any Grantor and any other reasonable and documented costs or expenses incurred in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy hereunder or under any other Credit Document;

(ii) second, to the Secured Parties, an amount equal to all Obligations owing to them on the date of any distribution, and, if such moneys shall be insufficient to pay such amounts in full, then ratably (without priority of any one over any other) to such Secured Parties in proportion to the unpaid amounts thereof; and

(iii) third, any surplus then remaining shall be paid to the Grantors or their successors or assigns or to whomsoever may be lawfully entitled to receive the same or as a court of competent jurisdiction may direct.

Upon any sale of the Collateral by the Collateral Agent (including pursuant to a power of sale granted by statute or under a judicial proceeding), the receipt of the Collateral Agent or of the officer making the sale shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser or purchasers of the Collateral so sold and such purchaser or purchasers shall not be obligated to see to the application of any part of the purchase money paid over to the Collateral Agent or such officer or be answerable in any way for the misapplication thereof.

5.5 Code and Other Remedies. If an Event of Default shall occur and be continuing, the Collateral Agent may exercise in respect of the Collateral, in addition to all other rights and remedies provided for herein or otherwise available to it, all the rights and remedies of a secured party upon default under the UCC or any other applicable law and also may without notice except as specified below, sell the Collateral or any part thereof in one or more parcels at public or private sale or sales, at any exchange, broker's board or office of the Collateral Agent or any Lender or elsewhere for cash or on credit or for future delivery at such price or prices and upon such other terms as are commercially reasonable irrespective of the impact of any such sales on the market price of the Collateral. The Collateral Agent shall be authorized at any such sale (if it deems it advisable to do so) to restrict the prospective bidders or purchasers of Collateral to Persons who will represent and agree that they are purchasing the Collateral for their own account for investment and not with a view to the distribution or sale thereof, and, upon consummation of any such sale, the Collateral Agent shall have the right to assign, transfer and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof the Collateral so sold. Each purchaser at any such sale shall hold the property sold absolutely free from any claim or right on the part of any Grantor, and each Grantor hereby waives (to the extent permitted by law) all rights of redemption, stay and/or appraisal that it now has or may at any time in the future have under any rule of law or statute now existing or hereafter enacted. The Collateral Agent and any Secured Party shall have the right upon any such public sale, and, to the extent permitted by law, upon any such private sale, to purchase the whole or any part of the Collateral so sold, and the Collateral Agent or such Secured Party may pay the purchase price by crediting the amount thereof against the Obligations. Each Grantor agrees that, to the extent notice of sale shall be required by law, at least ten days' notice to such Grantor of the time and place of any public sale or the time after which any private sale is to be made shall constitute reasonable notification. The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to make any sale of Collateral regardless of notice of sale having been given. The Collateral Agent may adjourn any public or private sale from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed therefor, and such sale may, without further notice, be made at the time and place to which it was so adjourned. To the extent permitted by law, each Grantor hereby waives any claim against the Collateral Agent arising by reason of the fact that the price at which any Collateral may have been sold at such a private sale was less than the price that might have been obtained at a public sale, even if the Collateral Agent accepts the first offer received and does not offer such Collateral to more than one offeree. Each Grantor further agrees, at the Collateral Agent's request to assemble the Collateral and make it available to the Collateral Agent, at places which the Collateral Agent shall reasonably select, whether at such Grantor's premises or elsewhere. The Collateral Agent shall apply the net proceeds of any action taken by it pursuant to this subsection 5.5 in accordance with the provisions of subsection 5.4.

5.6 Deficiency. Each Grantor shall remain liable for any deficiency if the proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Collateral are insufficient to pay its Obligations and the fees and disbursements of any attorneys employed by the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party to collect such deficiency.

5.7 Amendments, etc. with Respect to the Obligations; Waiver of Rights. Each Grantor shall remain obligated hereunder notwithstanding that, without any reservation of rights against any Grantor and without notice to or further assent by any Grantor, (a) any demand for payment of any of the Obligations made by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party may be rescinded by such party and any of the Obligations continued, (b) the Obligations, or the liability of any other party upon or for any part thereof, or any collateral security or guarantee therefor or right of offset with respect thereto, may, from time to time, in whole or in part, be renewed, extended, amended, modified, accelerated, compromised, waived, surrendered or released by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party, (c) the Credit Agreement, the other Credit Documents, the Letters of Credit and any other documents executed and delivered in connection therewith and the Hedge Agreements and any other documents executed and delivered in connection therewith and any documents entered into with the applicable Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent or any of its respective affiliates in connection with treasury, depositary or cash management services or in connection with any automated clearinghouse transfer of funds may be amended, modified, supplemented or terminated, in whole or in part, as the applicable Administrative Agent (or the Required Lenders, as the case may be, or, in the case of any Hedge Agreement or documents entered into with the applicable Administrative Agent or any of its respective affiliates in connection with treasury, depositary or cash management services or in connection with any automated clearinghouse transfer of funds, the party thereto) may deem advisable from time to time, and (d) any collateral security, guarantee or right of offset at any time held by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party for the payment of the Obligations may be sold, exchanged, waived, surrendered or released. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Party shall have any obligation to protect, secure, perfect or insure any Lien at any time held by it as security for the Obligations or for this Security Agreement or any property subject thereto. When making any demand hereunder against any Grantor, the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party may, but shall be under no obligation to, make a similar demand on any Borrower or any Grantor or any other person, and any failure by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to make any such demand or to collect any payments from any Borrower or any Grantor or any other person or any release of any Borrower or any Grantor or any other person shall not relieve any Grantor in respect of which a demand or collection is not made or any Grantor not so released of its several obligations or liabilities hereunder, and shall not impair or affect the rights and remedies, express or implied, or as a matter of law, of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party against any Grantor. For the purposes hereof “demand” shall include the commencement and continuance of any legal proceedings.

6. The Collateral Agent.

6.1 Collateral Agent's Appointment as Attorneys-in-Fact, etc. (a) Each Grantor hereby appoints, which appointment is irrevocable and coupled with an interest, effective upon and during the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Collateral Agent and any officer or agent thereof, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full irrevocable power and authority in the place and stead of such Grantor and in the name of such Grantor or otherwise, for the purpose of carrying out the terms of this Security Agreement, to take any and all appropriate action and to execute any and all documents and instruments which may be necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this Security Agreement, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Grantor hereby gives the Collateral Agent the power and right, on behalf of such Grantor, either in the Collateral Agent's name or in the name of such Grantor or otherwise, without assent by such Grantor, to do any or all of the following, in each case after and during the occurrence of an Event of Default and after written notice by the Collateral Agent of its intent to do so:

- (i) take possession of and endorse and collect any checks, drafts, notes, acceptances or other instruments for the payment of moneys due under any Account or with respect to any other Collateral and file any claim or take any other action or proceeding in any court of law or equity or otherwise deemed appropriate by the Collateral Agent for the purpose of collecting any and all such moneys due under any Account or with respect to any other Collateral whenever payable;
- (ii) in the case of any Intellectual Property, execute and deliver, and have recorded, any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers as the Collateral Agent may request to evidence the Collateral Agent's and the Secured Parties' Security Interest in such Intellectual Property and the goodwill and general intangibles of such Grantor relating thereto or represented thereby;
- (iii) pay or discharge taxes and Liens levied or placed on or threatened against the Collateral;
- (iv) execute, in connection with any sale provided for in Section 5.5, any endorsements, assignments or other instruments of conveyance or transfer with respect to the Collateral;
- (v) obtain and adjust insurance required to be maintained by such Grantor pursuant to Section 9.3 of the Credit Agreement;

- (vi) direct any party liable for any payment under any of the Collateral to make payment of any and all moneys due or to become due thereunder directly to the Collateral Agent or as the Collateral Agent shall direct;
- (vii) ask or demand for, collect and receive payment of and receipt for, any and all moneys, claims and other amounts due or to become due at any time in respect of or arising out of any Collateral;
- (viii) sign and endorse any invoices, freight or express bills, bills of lading, storage or warehouse receipts, drafts against debtors, assignments, verifications, notices and other documents in connection with any of the Collateral;
- (ix) commence and prosecute any suits, actions or proceedings at law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction to collect the Collateral or any portion thereof and to enforce any other right in respect of any Collateral;
- (x) defend any suit, action or proceeding brought against such Grantor with respect to any Collateral (with such Grantor's consent to the extent such action or its resolution could materially affect such Grantor or any of its affiliates in any manner other than with respect to its continuing rights in such Collateral);
- (xi) settle, compromise or adjust any such suit, action or proceeding and, in connection therewith, give such discharges or releases as the Collateral Agent may deem appropriate (with such Grantor's consent to the extent such action or its resolution could materially affect such Grantor or any of its affiliates in any manner other than with respect to its continuing rights in such Collateral);
- (xii) assign any Copyright, Patent or Trademark (along with the goodwill of the business to which any such Copyright, Patent or Trademark pertains), throughout the world for such term or terms, on such conditions, and in such manner, as the Collateral Agent shall in its sole discretion determine; and
- (xiii) generally, sell, transfer, pledge and make any agreement with respect to or otherwise deal with any of the Collateral as fully and completely as though the Collateral Agent were the absolute owner thereof for all purposes, and do, at the Collateral Agent's option and such Grantor's expense, at any time, or from time to time, all acts and things that the Collateral Agent deems necessary to protect, preserve or realize upon the Collateral and the Collateral Agent's and the Secured Parties' Security Interests therein and to effect the intent of this Security Agreement, all as fully and effectively as such Grantor might do.

Anything in this Section 6.1(a) to the contrary notwithstanding, the Collateral Agent agrees that it will not exercise any rights under the power of attorney provided for in this Section 6.1(a) unless an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing.

(b) If any Grantor fails to perform or comply with any of its agreements contained herein, the Collateral Agent, at its option, but without any obligation so to do, may perform or comply, or otherwise cause performance or compliance, with such agreement.

(c) The expenses of the Collateral Agent incurred in connection with actions undertaken as provided in this Section 6.1, together with interest thereon at a rate per annum equal to the highest rate per annum at which interest would then be payable on any category of past due ABR Loans under the Credit Agreement, from the date of payment by the Collateral Agent to the date reimbursed by the relevant Grantor, shall be payable by such Grantor to the Collateral Agent on demand.

(d) Each Grantor hereby ratifies all that said attorneys shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof. All powers, authorizations and agencies contained in this Security Agreement are coupled with an interest and are irrevocable until this Security Agreement is terminated and the Security Interests created hereby are released.

6.2 Duty of Collateral Agent. The Collateral Agent's sole duty with respect to the custody, safekeeping and physical preservation of the Collateral in its possession, under Section 9-207 of the UCC or otherwise, shall be to deal with it in the same manner as the Collateral Agent deals with similar property for its own account. The Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of any Collateral in its possession if such Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which the Collateral Agent accords its own property. Neither the Collateral Agent, any Secured Party nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees or agents shall be liable for failure to demand, collect or realize upon any of the Collateral or for any delay in doing so or shall be under any obligation to sell or otherwise dispose of any Collateral upon the request of any Grantor or any other Person or to take any other action whatsoever with regard to the Collateral or any part thereof. The powers conferred on the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties hereunder are solely to protect the Collateral Agent's and the Secured Parties' interests in the Collateral and shall not impose any duty upon the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party to exercise any such powers. The Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties shall be accountable only for amounts that they actually receive as a result of the exercise of such powers, and neither they nor any of their officers, directors, employees or agents shall be responsible to any Grantor for any act or failure to act hereunder, except for their own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

6.3 Authority of Collateral Agent. Each Grantor acknowledges that the rights and responsibilities of the Collateral Agent under this Security Agreement with respect to any action taken by the Collateral Agent or the exercise or non-exercise by the Collateral Agent of any option, voting right, request, judgment or other right or remedy provided for herein or resulting or arising out of this Security Agreement shall, as between the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties, be governed by the Credit Agreement, and by such other agreements with respect thereto as may exist from time to time among them, but, as between the Collateral Agent and the Grantors, the Collateral Agent shall be conclusively presumed to be acting as agent for the applicable Secured Parties with full and valid authority so to act or refrain from acting, and no Grantor shall be under any obligation, or entitlement, to make any inquiry respecting such authority.

6.4 Security Interest Absolute. All rights of the Collateral Agent hereunder, the security interest and all obligations of the Grantors hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional.

6.5 Continuing Security Interest; Assignments Under the Credit Agreement; Release. (a) This Security Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and be binding in accordance with and to the extent of its terms upon each Grantor and the successors and assigns thereof and shall inure to the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties and their respective successors, indorsees, transferees and assigns until all Obligations under the Credit Documents (other than any contingent indemnity obligations not then due) and the obligations of each Grantor under this Security Agreement shall have been satisfied by payment in full, the Commitments shall be terminated and no Letters of Credit shall be outstanding, notwithstanding that from time to time during the term of the Credit Agreement and any Hedge Agreement the Credit Parties may be free from any Obligations.

(b) A Subsidiary Grantor shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder and the Security Interest in the Collateral of such Subsidiary Grantor shall be automatically released upon the consummation of any transaction permitted under the Credit Agreement as a result of which such Subsidiary Grantor ceases to be a Subsidiary Guarantor.

(c) Upon any sale or other transfer by any Grantor of any Collateral that is permitted under the Credit Agreement or upon the effectiveness of any written consent to the release of the security interest granted hereby in any Collateral pursuant to Section 13.1 of the Credit Agreement, the Security Interest in such Collateral shall be automatically released and such Collateral sold free and clear of the Lien and Security Interests created hereby.

(d) In connection with any termination or release pursuant to paragraph (a), (b) or (c), the Collateral Agent shall execute and deliver to any Grantor, at such Grantor's expense, all documents that such Grantor shall reasonably request to evidence such termination or release. Any execution and delivery of documents pursuant to this Section 6.5 shall be without recourse to or warranty by the Collateral Agent.

6.6 Reinstatement. Each Grantor further agrees that, if any payment made by any Credit Party or other Person and applied to the Obligations is at any time annulled, avoided, set aside, rescinded, invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential or otherwise required to be refunded or repaid, or the proceeds of Collateral are required to be returned by any Secured Party to such Credit Party, its estate, trustee, receiver or any other party, including any Grantor, under any bankruptcy law, state or federal law, common law or equitable cause, then, to the extent of such payment or repayment, any Lien or other Collateral securing such liability shall be and remain in full force and effect, as fully as if such payment had never been made or, if prior thereto the Lien granted hereby or other Collateral securing such liability hereunder shall have been released or terminated by virtue of such cancellation or surrender), such Lien or other Collateral shall be reinstated in full force and effect, and such prior cancellation or surrender shall not diminish, release, discharge, impair or otherwise affect any Lien or other Collateral securing the obligations of any Grantor in respect of the amount of such payment.

7. Collateral Agent As Agent.

(a) Citicorp North America, Inc. has been appointed to act as the Collateral Agent under the Credit Agreement, by the Lenders under the Credit Agreement and, by their acceptance of the benefits hereof, the other Secured Parties. The Collateral Agent shall be obligated, and shall have the right hereunder, to make demands, to give notices, to exercise or refrain from exercising any rights, and to take or refrain from taking any action (including the release or substitution of Collateral), solely in accordance with this Security Agreement and the Credit Agreement, provided that the Collateral Agent shall exercise, or refrain from exercising, any remedies provided for in Section 5 in accordance with the instructions of Required Lenders. In furtherance of the foregoing provisions of this Section 7(a), each Secured Party, by its acceptance of the benefits hereof, agrees that it shall have no right individually to realize upon any of the Collateral hereunder, it being understood and agreed by such Secured Party that all rights and remedies hereunder may be exercised solely by the Collateral Agent for the ratable benefit of the applicable Lenders and Secured Parties in accordance with the terms of this Section 7(a).

(b) The Collateral Agent shall at all times be the same Person that is the Collateral Agent under the Credit Agreement. Written notice of resignation by the Collateral Agent pursuant to Section 12.9 of the Credit Agreement shall also constitute notice of resignation as Collateral Agent under this Security Agreement; removal of the Collateral Agent shall also constitute removal under this Security Agreement; and appointment of a Collateral Agent pursuant to Section 12.9 of the Credit Agreement shall also constitute appointment of a successor Collateral Agent under this Security Agreement. Upon the acceptance of any appointment as Collateral Agent under Section 12.9 of the Credit Agreement by a successor Collateral Agent, that successor Collateral Agent shall thereupon succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring or removed Collateral Agent under this Security Agreement, and the retiring or removed Collateral Agent under this Security Agreement shall promptly (i) transfer to such successor Collateral Agent all sums, securities and other items of Collateral held hereunder, together with all records and other documents necessary or appropriate in connection with the performance of the duties of the successor Collateral Agent under this Security Agreement, and (ii) execute and deliver to such successor Collateral Agent or otherwise authorize the filing of such amendments to financing statements and take such other actions, as may be necessary or appropriate in connection with the assignment to such successor Collateral Agent of the Security Interests created hereunder, whereupon such retiring or removed Collateral Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations under this Security Agreement. After any retiring or removed Collateral Agent's resignation or removal hereunder as Collateral Agent, the provisions of this Security Agreement shall inure to its benefit as to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it under this Security Agreement while it was Collateral Agent hereunder.

(c) The Collateral Agent shall not be deemed to have any duty whatsoever with respect to any Secured Party that is a counterparty to a Hedge Agreement the obligations under which constitute Obligations, unless it shall have received written notice in form and substance satisfactory to the Collateral Agent from a Grantor or any such Secured Party as to the existence and terms of the applicable Hedge Agreement.

8. Miscellaneous.

8.1 Amendments in Writing. None of the terms or provisions of this Security Agreement may be waived, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified except by a written instrument executed by the affected Grantor and the applicable Administrative Agent in accordance with Section 13.1 of the Credit Agreement.

8.2 Notices. All notices, requests and demands pursuant hereto shall be made in accordance with Section 13.2 of the Credit Agreement. All communications and notices hereunder to any Subsidiary Grantor shall be given to it in care of the Company at the Company's address set forth in Section 13.2 of the Credit Agreement.

8.3 No Waiver by Course of Conduct; Cumulative Remedies. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any Secured Party shall by any act (except by a written instrument pursuant to Section 9.1 hereof), delay, indulgence, omission or otherwise be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any Default or Event of Default or in any breach of any of the terms and conditions hereof. No failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party, any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof. No single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. A waiver by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party of any right or remedy hereunder on any one occasion shall not be construed as a bar to any right or remedy that the Collateral Agent or such other Secured Party would otherwise have on any future occasion. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative, may be exercised singly or concurrently and are not exclusive of any other rights or remedies provided by law.

8.4 Enforcement Expenses; Indemnification. (a) Each Grantor agrees to pay any and all expenses (including all reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel) that may be paid or incurred by any Secured Party in enforcing, or obtaining advice of counsel in respect of, any rights with respect to, or collecting, any or all of the Obligations and/or enforcing any rights with respect to, or collecting against, such Grantor under this Security Agreement.

(b) Each Grantor agrees to pay, and to save the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties harmless from, any and all liabilities with respect to, or resulting from any delay in paying, any and all stamp, excise, sales or other taxes which may be payable or determined to be payable with respect to any of the Collateral or in connection with any of the transactions contemplated by this Security Agreement.

(c) Each Grantor agrees to pay, and to save the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties harmless from, any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever with respect to the execution, delivery, enforcement, performance and administration of this Security Agreement to the extent a Borrower would be required to do so pursuant to Section 12.7 of the Credit Agreement.

(d) The agreements in this Section 9.4 shall survive repayment of the Obligations and all other amounts payable under the Credit Agreement and the other Credit Documents.

8.5 Successors and Assigns. The provisions of this Security Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that no Grantor may assign, transfer or delegate any of its rights or obligations under this Security Agreement without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent except pursuant to a transaction permitted by the Credit Agreement.

8.6 Counterparts. This Security Agreement may be executed by one or more of the parties to this Security Agreement on any number of separate counterparts (including by facsimile or other electronic transmission), and all of said counterparts taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument. A set of the copies of this Security Agreement signed by all the parties shall be lodged with the Collateral Agent and the Company.

8.7 Severability. Any provision of this Security Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction. The parties hereto shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

8.8 Section Headings. The Section headings used in this Security Agreement are for convenience of reference only and are not to affect the construction hereof or be taken into consideration in the interpretation hereof.

8.9 Integration. This Security Agreement together with the other Credit Documents represents the agreement of each of the Grantors with respect to the subject matter hereof and there are no promises, undertakings, representations or warranties by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party relative to the subject matter hereof not expressly set forth or referred to herein or in the other Credit Documents.

8.10 GOVERNING LAW. THIS SECURITY AGREEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

8.11 Submission To Jurisdiction Waivers. Each Grantor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally:

(a) submits for itself and its property in any legal action or proceeding relating to this Security Agreement and the other Credit Documents to which it is a party, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect thereof, to the non-exclusive general jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York, the courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York, and appellate courts from any thereof;

(b) consents that any such action or proceeding may be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue of any such action or proceeding in any such court or that such action or proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same;

(c) agrees that service of process in any such action or proceeding may be effected by mailing a copy thereof by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to such Grantor at its address referred to in Section 8.2 or at such other address of which the Collateral Agent shall have been notified pursuant thereto;

(d) agrees that nothing herein shall affect the right of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by law or shall limit the right of the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party to sue in any other jurisdiction; and

(e) waives, to the maximum extent not prohibited by law, any right it may have to claim or recover in any legal action or proceeding referred to in this Section 8.11 any special, exemplary, punitive or consequential damages.

8.12 Acknowledgments. Each Grantor hereby acknowledges that:

(a) it has been advised by counsel in the negotiation, execution and delivery of this Security Agreement and the other Credit Documents to which it is a party;

(b) neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Party has any fiduciary relationship with or duty to any Grantor arising out of or in connection with this Security Agreement or any of the other Credit Documents, and the relationship between the Grantors, on the one hand, and the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties, on the other hand, in connection herewith or therewith is solely that of debtor and creditor; and

(c) no joint venture is created hereby or by the other Credit Documents or otherwise exists by virtue of the transactions contemplated hereby among the Lenders and any other Secured Party or among the Grantors and the Lenders and any other Secured Party.

8.13 Additional Grantors. Each U.S. Subsidiary of the Company that is required to become a party to this Security Agreement pursuant to Section 9.11 of the Credit Agreement shall become a Grantor, with the same force and effect as if originally named as a Grantor herein, for all purposes of this Security Agreement upon execution and delivery by such U.S. Subsidiary of a written supplement substantially in the form of Annex A hereto. The execution and delivery of any instrument adding an additional Grantor as a party to this Security Agreement shall not require the consent of any other Grantor hereunder. The rights and obligations of each Grantor hereunder shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the addition of any new Grantor as a party to this Security Agreement.

8.14 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH GRANTOR HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS SECURITY AGREEMENT, ANY OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT AND FOR ANY COUNTERCLAIM THEREIN.

Avago Technologies Limited,

Bali Investments S.a.r.l., a Luxembourg company and

«Name»

Dated as of December 1, 2005

This Management Shareholders Agreement (this “Agreement”) is entered into effective as of December 1, 2005 by and between Avago Technologies Limited, (the “Company”), Bali Investments S.a.r.l., a Luxembourg company (“Luxco”) and «Name» (the “Purchaser”) (being hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Parties”).

RECITALS

Pursuant to the terms of the Equity Incentive Plan for Executive Employees of Avago Technologies Limited and Subsidiaries, as the same may be amended from time to time (the “Equity Plan”), the Company is granting options to purchase ordinary shares (the “Shares”) in the Company to certain employees of the Company or one of its Subsidiaries, including the Purchaser. This Agreement is one of several agreements (“Other Purchasers’ Agreements”) which have been, or which in the future will be, entered into between the Company and other individuals who are or will be employees of the Company or one of its Subsidiaries (collectively, the “Other Purchasers”). For purposes of this Agreement, “Subsidiary,” with respect to any entity, shall mean any Person in an unbroken chain of Persons beginning with such entity if each of the Persons, or group of commonly controlled Persons, other than the last Person in the unbroken chain, then owns stock possessing 50% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock in one of the other Persons in such chain; “Affiliate” shall mean, with respect to any Person, a Person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, such Person; “Person” means an individual, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, business trust, joint stock company, trust, unincorporated association, joint venture, governmental authority or other entity of whatever nature, and “control” shall have the meaning given such term under Rule 405 of the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”).

On the date hereof (the “Purchase Date”) the Company will grant to the Purchaser an option or options to purchase the number of Shares set forth on Exhibit A hereto as New Options (the “New Options”) at an exercise price equal to US$5.00 per Share (the “Initial Price Per Share”), pursuant to the terms of the Equity Plan and the “New Option Non-Qualified Share Option Agreement” to be dated effective as of the Purchase Date. The New Options may be granted as Base Options or Performance Options (each as defined in the New Option Non-Qualified Share Option Agreement).

Purchaser, on the Purchase Date, will purchase for cash the number of Shares, if any, as set forth on Exhibit A as Co-Investment Shares (the “Co-Investment Shares”) and/or in addition to the New Options, will be granted options under the Equity Plan for the number of Shares set forth on Exhibit A as Rollover Options, (the “Rollover Options”) pursuant to the terms of the Equity Plan and the Rollover Option Non-Qualified Share Option to be dated effective as of the Purchase Date.

The term “Options” as used in this Agreement shall include the Rollover Options, the New Options and any other options to purchase Shares granted to the Purchaser by the Company and held by the Purchaser at any time when this Agreement is in effect. The term “Shares” as used in this Agreement shall include all Co-Investment Shares and all Shares issued to the Purchaser by the Company upon exercise of the Options and of any other stock options held by the Purchaser and any other Shares otherwise acquired by the Purchaser at any time when this Agreement is in effect. “Rollover Shares” shall mean the Co-Investment Shares and Shares issued to the Purchaser by the Company upon exercise of Rollover Options.

AGREEMENT

To implement the foregoing and in consideration of the mutual agreements contained herein, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Issuance of Co-Investment Shares, New Options and Rollover Options.

Upon and as of the Purchase Date, the Company shall issue to the Purchaser the Co-Investment Shares, the New Options and the Rollover Options subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth and contained in the Equity Plan, the New Option Non-Qualified Share Option Agreement and the Rollover Option Non-Qualified Share Option Agreement, and the Parties shall execute and deliver to each other copies of the New Option Non-Qualified Share Option Agreement and the Rollover Option Non-Qualified Share Option Agreement in connection with the issuance of the New Options and Rollover Options.

2. The Purchaser’s Representations, Warranties and Agreements.

(a) The Purchaser agrees and acknowledges that Purchaser will not, directly or indirectly, offer, transfer, sell, assign, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise dispose of any Shares (any such act sometimes referred to herein as a “Transfer,” whether voluntary or involuntary) unless such Transfer complies with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restrictions on Transfer contained in Section 3 hereof, and (i) the Transfer is pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act, or the rules and regulations in effect thereunder or (ii) (A) counsel for the Purchaser (which shall be O’Melveny & Myers LLP or such other counsel acceptable to the Company) shall have furnished the Company with an opinion, satisfactory in form and substance to the Company, that no such registration is required because of the availability of an exemption from registration under the Securities Act and (B) if the Purchaser is a citizen or resident of any country other than the United States, or the Purchaser desires to effect any Transfer in any such country, counsel for the Purchaser (which counsel shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Company) shall have furnished the Company with an opinion or other advice satisfactory in form and substance to the Company to the effect that such Transfer will comply with the securities laws of such jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company acknowledges and agrees that any of the following Transfers are deemed to be in compliance with the Securities Act and this Agreement and no opinion of counsel is required in connection therewith: (x) a Transfer made pursuant to Section 5, 6, 8 or 9 hereof, (y) a Transfer upon the death of the Purchaser to his executors, administrators, testamentary trustees, legatees or beneficiaries (the “Purchaser’s Estate”) or a Transfer to the executors, administrators, testamentary trustees, legatees or beneficiaries of an individual who has become a holder of Shares in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; provided, that it is expressly understood that any such transferee shall be bound by the provisions of this Agreement and (z) a Transfer made after the Purchase Date in compliance with the federal securities laws to a trust, custodianship or other similar entity the beneficiaries or holders of which may include only the Purchaser, his spouse or his lineal descendants (which term shall include biological as well as adoptive descendants) or directly to the Purchaser's spouse or lineal descendants (a "Purchaser's Trust") or a transfer made after the fifth anniversary of the Purchase Date to such a trust by an individual who has become a holder of Shares in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; provided, that such Transfer is made expressly subject to this Agreement and that the transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the terms and conditions hereof.

(b) The certificate (or certificates) representing the Shares shall bear the following legend:

"THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE MAY NOT BE TRANSFERRED, SOLD, ASSIGNED, PLEDGED, HYPOTHECATED OR OTHERWISE DISPOSED OF UNLESS SUCH TRANSFER, SALE, ASSIGNMENT, PLEDGE, HYPOTHECATION OR OTHER DISPOSITION COMPLIES WITH THE PROVISIONS OF THE MANAGEMENT SHAREHOLDER'S AGREEMENT DATED AS OF DECEMBER 1, 2005 BY AND BETWEEN AVAGO TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED (THE "COMPANY") AND THE PURCHASER NAMED ON THE FACE HEREOF (A COPY OF WHICH IS ON FILE WITH THE SECRETARY OF THE COMPANY). EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED IN SUCH AGREEMENT, NO TRANSFER, SALE, ASSIGNMENT, PLEDGE, HYPOTHECATION OR OTHER DISPOSITION OF THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE MAY BE MADE EXCEPT (A) PURSUANT TO AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT UNDER THE U.S. SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "ACT"), OR (B) IF (I) THE COMPANY HAS BEEN FURNISHED WITH A SATISFACTORY OPINION OF COUNSEL FOR THE HOLDER THAT SUCH TRANSFER, SALE, ASSIGNMENT, PLEDGE, HYPOTHECATION OR OTHER DISPOSITION IS EXEMPT FROM THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 5 OF THE ACT OR THE RULES AND REGULATIONS IN EFFECT THEREUNDER, AND IN COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE PROVISIONS OF STATE SECURITIES LAWS, AND (II) IF THE HOLDER IS A CITIZEN OR RESIDENT OF ANY COUNTRY OTHER THAN THE UNITED STATES, OR THE HOLDER DESIRES TO EFFECT ANY SUCH TRANSACTION IN ANY SUCH COUNTRY, THE COMPANY HAS BEEN FURNISHED WITH A SATISFACTORY OPINION OR OTHER ADVICE OF COUNSEL FOR THE HOLDER THAT SUCH TRANSACTION WILL NOT VIOLATE THE LAWS OF SUCH COUNTRY."

(c) The Purchaser acknowledges that Purchaser has been advised that (i) the issuance of the Options and the Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act, (ii) the Options and the Shares must be held indefinitely and the Purchaser must continue to bear the economic risk of the investment in the Options and the Shares unless the Shares are subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration is available, (iii) it is not anticipated that there will be any public market for the Options and the Shares, (iv) an exemption from registration under Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act is not currently available with respect to the sales of any securities of the Company, and except as provided in Section 11(b) hereof, the Company has made no covenant to make such Rule available, (v) when and if Options and the Shares may be disposed of without registration in reliance on Rule 144, such disposition can be made only in limited amounts in accordance with the terms and conditions of such Rule, (vi) if the Rule 144 exemption is not available, public sale without registration will require compliance with some other exemption under the Securities Act, (vii) a restrictive legend in the form heretofore set forth shall be placed on the certificates representing the Options and the Shares and (viii) a notation shall be made in the appropriate records of the Company indicating that the Shares are subject to restriction on transfer and, if the Company should at some time in the future engage the services of a stock transfer agent, appropriate stop transfer restrictions will be issued to such transfer agent with respect to the Shares.

(d) If any Shares are to be disposed of in accordance with Rule 144 under the Securities Act or otherwise, the Purchaser shall promptly notify the Company of such intended disposition and shall deliver to the Company at or prior to the time of such disposition such documentation as the Company may reasonably request in connection with such sale, and, in the case of a disposition pursuant to Rule 144, shall deliver to the Company an executed copy of any notice on Form 144 required to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(e) The Purchaser agrees that, if any Shares (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for Shares) or other equity securities of the Company are offered to the public pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act, the Purchaser will not effect any public sale or distribution of any Shares not covered by such registration statement within 7 days prior to, or within 180 days (or such other shorter time period as may be permitted by the underwriters or such other longer time period as may be required by the underwriters in such offering, but in no event more than or less than the number of days applicable to Luxco (collectively with any shareholder required to become a party to this Agreement pursuant to Section 8(a)(iii) below the “Sponsors”)) after the effective date of such registration statement, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the Company.

(f) The Purchaser represents and warrants that (i) Purchaser has received and reviewed the Confidential Offering Memorandum relating to the debt offering by a Subsidiary of the Company and (ii) Purchaser has been given the opportunity to obtain any additional information or documents and to ask questions and receive answers about such documents, the Company and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates and the business and prospects of the Company and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates and which Purchaser deems necessary to evaluate the merits and risks related to his investment in the Options and the Shares and to verify the information contained in the information reviewed as indicated in this Section 2(f) and Purchaser has relied solely on such information.

(g) The Purchaser further represents and warrants that (i) his financial condition is such that Purchaser can afford to bear the economic risk of holding the Options and the Shares for an indefinite period of time and has adequate means for providing for his current needs and personal contingencies, (ii) Purchaser can afford to suffer a complete loss of his investment in the Options and the Shares, (iii) all information which Purchaser has provided to the Company concerning himself and his financial position is correct and complete as of that date, (iv) Purchaser understands and has taken cognizance of all risk factors related to the purchase of the Options and the Shares, and (v) his knowledge and experience in financial and business matters are such that Purchaser is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of his purchase of the Options and the Shares as contemplated by this Agreement.

3. Restriction on Transfer.

(a) Except for Transfers permitted by clauses (x), (y) and (z) of Section 2(a) or a sale of Shares pursuant to Section 12, the Purchaser agrees that Purchaser will not transfer, sell, assign, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise dispose of any Shares at any time prior to the fifth anniversary of the Purchase Date. No Transfer of any such Shares in violation hereof shall be made or recorded on the books of the Company and any such Transfer shall be void and of no effect.

(b) Any attempt to Transfer any Shares not in compliance with this Agreement shall be null and void and neither the Company nor any transfer agent shall give any effect in the Company's stock records to such attempted Transfer.

4. Right of First Refusal.

If, at any time after the fifth anniversary of the Purchase Date and prior to the earlier of a Qualified Public Offering (as defined in Section 7(i) below) or Change in Control (as defined in Section 17(b) below), the Purchaser receives a bona fide offer to purchase any or all of his Shares (the "Offer") from a third party (the "Offeror") which the Purchaser wishes to accept, the Purchaser shall cause the Offer to be reduced to writing and shall notify the Company in writing of his wish to accept the Offer. The Purchaser's notice shall contain an irrevocable offer to sell such Shares to the Company, (in the manner set forth below) at a purchase price equal to the price contained in, and on the same terms and conditions of, the Offer, and shall be accompanied by a true copy of the Offer (which shall identify the Offeror). At any time within 45 days after the date of the receipt by the Company of the Purchaser's notice, the Company shall have the right and option to purchase, or to arrange for a third party to purchase, all of the Shares covered by the Offer either (i) at the same price and on the same terms and conditions as the Offer or (ii) if the Offer includes any consideration other than cash, then at the sole option of the Company, at the equivalent all cash price, determined in good faith by the Company's Board of Directors, by delivering a certified bank check or checks in the appropriate amount to the Purchaser at the principal office of the Company against delivery of certificates or other instruments representing the Shares so purchased, appropriately endorsed by the Purchaser. If at the end of such 45 day period, the Company has not tendered the purchase price for such shares in the manner set forth above, the Purchaser may during the succeeding 30 day period sell not less than all of the Shares covered by the Offer to the Offeror at a price and on terms no less favorable to the Purchaser than those contained in the Offer. No sale may be made to any Offeror unless the Offeror agrees in writing with the Company to be bound by the provisions of this Section 4 in connection with any resale by the Offeror. Promptly after such sale, the Purchaser shall notify the Company of the consummation thereof and shall furnish such evidence of the completion and time of completion of such sale and of the terms thereof as may reasonably be requested by the Company. If, at the end of the 30 day period following the expiration of the 45 day period for the Company to purchase the Shares, the Purchaser has not completed the sale of such Shares as aforesaid, all the restrictions on sale, transfer or assignment contained in this Agreement shall again be in effect with respect to such Shares.

5. The Purchaser's Resale of Shares and Options to the Company Upon The Purchaser's Death or Disability.

(a) If on or before the fifth anniversary of the Purchase Date, (A) the Purchaser is still in the employ of the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company and (B) the Purchaser either dies or becomes permanently disabled then the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, shall have the right, for twelve months following the date of death or permanent disability, to (X) sell to the Company, and the Company shall be required to purchase, on one occasion, all or any portion of the Shares then held by the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate and/or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, at the Section 5 Repurchase Price, as determined in accordance with Section 7; provided, that such Shares have been held by Purchaser, Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust for not less than six months and one day as of the date of their sale to the Company, and (Y) require the Company to issue to the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, that number of Shares having an aggregate Fair Market Value equal to the Option Excess Price (as defined in Section 10) determined on the basis of a Section 5 Repurchase Price as provided in Section 10 with respect to the termination of all or any portion of the outstanding exercisable Options then held by the Purchaser, which Shares the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate and/or the Purchaser's Trust may then require the Company to purchase in accordance with clause (X) above (including with respect to the six month and one day timing restriction contained therein). The Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate and/or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, shall send written notice to the Company of its intention to sell Shares and/or to terminate Options in exchange for the payment and/or Share issuance referred to in the preceding sentence (the "Redemption Notice"). The completion of the purchase shall take place at the principal office of the Company on the tenth business day after the giving of the Redemption Notice. The Section 5 Repurchase Price and any issuance of Shares with respect to the Options as described above shall be paid by delivery to the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, of Shares and/or a certified bank check or checks in the appropriate amount payable to the order of the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, against delivery of certificates or other instruments representing the Shares so purchased and appropriate documents canceling the Options so terminated, appropriately endorsed or executed by the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, or his or its duly authorized representative. For purposes of this Agreement, the Purchaser shall be deemed to have a "permanent disability" if the Purchaser is unable to engage in activities required by the terms of Purchaser's employment by the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment that can be expected to result in death or that has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in Section 5(a) to the contrary and subject to Section 13, if there exists and is continuing a default or an event of default on the part of the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company under any loan, guarantee or other agreement under which the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company has borrowed money or such repurchase would result in a default or an event of default on the part of the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company under any such agreement or if a repurchase would not be permitted under any applicable law or regulation (each such occurrence being an “Event”), the Company shall not be obligated to repurchase any of the Shares or the Options from the Purchaser, the Purchaser’s Estate, or the Purchaser’s Trust, as the case may be, until the first business day which is 15 calendar days after all of the foregoing Events have ceased to exist (the “Repurchase Eligibility Date”); provided, however, that (i) the number of Shares subject to repurchase under this Section 5(b) shall be that number of Shares, and (ii) the number of Exercisable Option Shares (as defined in Section 10) for purposes of calculating the Option Excess Price payable under this Section 5(b) shall be the number of Exercisable Option Shares held by the Purchaser, the Purchaser’s Estate or the Purchaser’s Trust, as the case may be, at the time of delivery of a Redemption Notice in accordance with Section 5(a) hereof. All Options exercisable as of the date of a Redemption Notice shall continue to be exercisable until the repurchase pursuant to such Redemption Notice.

6. The Company’s Option to Repurchase Shares and Options of the Purchaser.

(a)(i) If, on or prior to the fifth anniversary of the Purchase Date, (A) the Purchaser’s active employment with the Company (and/or, if applicable, its Subsidiaries or Affiliates) is voluntarily or involuntarily terminated for any reason whatsoever, (B) the beneficiaries of the Purchaser’s Trust shall include any person or entity other than the Purchaser, his spouse or his lineal descendants, (C) the Purchaser shall effect a Transfer of any of the Shares other than as permitted in this Agreement, unless such Transfer is corrected within 10 days after the date of the Call Notice, or (D) there shall occur a Transfer of any of the Shares pursuant to any bankruptcy proceeding, levy, property settlement or disposition pursuant to law incident to marital separation or divorce (alternatively, a “Call Event”), the Company shall have the right to purchase all or any portion of the Shares then held by the Purchaser, the Purchaser’s Estate or the Purchaser’s Trust at the Section 6 Repurchase Price determined in accordance with Section 7 hereof; provided, however, that the Call Event described in clause (D) of this Section 6(a)(i) shall entitle the Company to repurchase only that number of Shares that are the subject of the transfer resulting in the Call Event; and provided, further, that if the Call Event results from the death or permanent disability (as determined in accordance with Section 5) of the Purchaser, the Company shall have the right to purchase all or any portion of the Shares held by the Purchaser, the Purchaser’s Estate or the Purchaser’s Trust only at the Section 5 Repurchase Price. The Company shall have until 60 days after the date on which the Company has actual knowledge of a Call Event (other than a Call Event resulting from death or disability in which case the Company shall have 12 months) in which to give notice in writing to the Purchaser of the exercise of such election ("Call Notice").

(ii) In the event that (A) the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate and/or the Purchaser's Trust holds Shares and Options and the Company exercises its right to repurchase Shares pursuant to this Section 6 or (B) the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate and/or the Purchaser's Trust holds only Options and the Company elects to cash out such Options upon the occurrence of an event specified in Section 6(a)(i) (in accordance with the requirements of the Call Notice), the Company shall pay the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, an amount equal to the Option Excess Price determined on the basis of the Section 6 Repurchase Price or the Section 5 Repurchase Price, as applicable, with respect to the termination of (x) if the Call Event is described in clause (A), (B) or (C) of Section 6(a)(i), all or any portion of the then exercisable outstanding Options held by the Purchaser, Purchaser's Estate or Purchaser's Trust and (y) if the Call Event is described in clause (D) of Section 6(a)(i), a pro rata portion (based on the ratio of the number of Shares that are the subject of the Transfer to the sum of such number and the number of additional shares so held) of the then exercisable outstanding Options held by the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust.

(iii) The completion of the purchases pursuant to the foregoing shall take place at the principal office of the Company on the tenth business day after the later of the giving of notice of the exercise of the option to purchase or the date of the Call Event. The Section 5 Repurchase Price or the Section 6 Repurchase Price, as the case may be, and any payment with respect to the Options as described above shall be paid by delivery to the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, of a certified bank check or checks in the appropriate amount payable to the order of the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, against delivery of certificates or other instruments representing the Shares so purchased and appropriate documents canceling the Options so terminated, appropriately endorsed or executed by the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Trust or his or its duly authorized representative.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 6 to the contrary and subject to Section 13, if there exists and is continuing any Event, the Company shall delay the repurchase of any of the Shares or the Options (pursuant to a Call Notice timely given in accordance with Section 6(a) hereof) from the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, until the Repurchase Eligibility Date; provided, however, that (i) the number of Shares subject to repurchase under this Section 6(b) shall be that number of Shares and (ii) the number of Exercisable Option Shares for purposes of calculating the Option Excess Price payable under this Section 6(b) shall be the number of Exercisable Option Shares held by the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, at the time of delivery of a Call Notice in accordance with Section 6(a) hereof. All Options exercisable as of the date of a Call Notice shall continue to be exercisable until the repurchase pursuant to such Call Notice.

7. Determination of Repurchase Price.

(a) The Section 5 Repurchase Price and the Section 6 Repurchase Price are hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Repurchase Price.” The event giving rise to the repurchase shall be deemed to be the Transfer, death, permanent disability, termination of employment, or other event, as the case may be (the “Repurchase Event”), not the giving of any notice required pursuant to Section 5 or Section 6.

(b) The “Repurchase Calculation Date” shall be the last day of the month preceding the later of (A) the month in which the Repurchase Event occurs or (B) the month in which the Repurchase Eligibility Date occurs; provided, however, that in the event of a Repurchase Event arising under Section 5 as a result of death or disability, the Repurchase Calculation Date shall be the date of the repurchase by the Company.

(c) Prior to a Public Offering (as hereinafter defined) the Section 5 Repurchase Price shall be Fair Market Value (as defined in Section 7(k)) as of the Repurchase Calculation Date. After a Public Offering, the Section 5 Repurchase Price shall be the Market Price Per Share (as defined in Section 7(j)) as of the Repurchase Calculation Date.

(d) In the event of Purchaser’s termination without Cause by the Company (and/or, if applicable, its Subsidiaries or Affiliates), or resignation with Good Reason (as defined in Section 7(g)), the Section 6 Repurchase Price for Shares, shall be either (A) Fair Market Value if the Repurchase Calculation Date is prior to a Public Offering or (B) Market Price Per Share if the Repurchase Calculation Date is after a Public Offering (Fair Market Value and Market Price Per Share, as applicable, the “Market Value”); provided, however, if the Repurchase Eligibility Date is more than 12 months following the Repurchase Event, then the Section 6 Repurchase Price shall not be less than the Section 6 Repurchase Price determined as of the last day of the month preceding the month in which the Repurchase Event occurs, plus interest compounded annually thereon at a rate equal to the interest rate applicable under Section 1274(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”) on short term obligations.

(e) In the event of the Purchaser’s resignation without Good Reason (as defined in Section 7(g)), the Section 6 Repurchase Price shall be Market Value with respect to any Co-Investment shares or Shares acquired upon exercise of Rollover Options; provided, however, if the Repurchase Eligibility Date is more than 12 months following the Repurchase Event, then the Section 6 Repurchase Price shall not be less than the Section 6 Repurchase Price determined as of the last day of the month preceding the month in which the Repurchase Event occurs, plus interest compounded annually thereon at a rate equal to the interest rate applicable under Section 1274(d) of the Code on short term obligations. With respect to any other Shares, the Section 6 Repurchase Price shall be (i) if the Book Value Per Share on the Repurchase Calculation Date is less than the Book Value Per Share on the Purchase Date (such difference being the “Book Value Decrease”), the lesser of (x) the Market Value or (y) the Initial Price Per Share or (ii) if the Book Value Per Share on the Repurchase Calculation Date is greater than the Book Value Per Share on the Purchase Date the Section 6 Repurchase Price shall be the lesser of (A) the Market Value, and (B) the Initial Price Per Share, plus (x) the Percentage (as defined below) multiplied by (y) the amount, if any, by which the Book Value Per Share as of the Repurchase Calculation Date exceeds the Book Value Per Share on the Purchase Date.

(k) As used herein the term “Fair Market Value” of a share shall mean the fair market value, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company in its sole discretion without giving effect to any discount for minority status or transfer restrictions, based upon such facts and circumstances as it deems relevant.

8. “Tag-Along” Right.

(a) In the event that at any time prior to the fifth anniversary of a Public Offering, the Sponsors or a Sponsor Affiliate to whom a Sponsor has transferred any of its Shares (a “Transfer Affiliate”) proposes to transfer for value any Shares owned by it to any person (a “Proposed Purchaser”), in any transaction other than (i) a Public Offering; (ii) from and after the initial firm commitment underwritten Public Offering, pursuant to Rule 144 or a block sale to a financial institution in the ordinary course of its trading business; provided, that Section 3 and 4 shall no longer apply with respect to a number of Shares equal to the maximum number of Shares the Purchaser, the Purchaser’s Estate or the Purchaser’s Trust, as the case may be, would have been entitled to sell in such sale pursuant to the first sentence of Section 8(b) other than due to the provisions of this clause (ii), (iii) a distribution, dividend or other transfer of Shares by Luxco to its shareholders, by way of liquidation or otherwise; provided, that such shareholders become parties to this Agreement, in the capacity of a Sponsor, or (iv) a sale to a Sponsor Affiliate, the Sponsor (or such Transfer Affiliate) will notify the Purchaser, the Purchaser’s Estate or the Purchaser’s Trust, as the case may be, in writing (a “Sale Notice”) of such proposed sale (a “Proposed Sale”) and the material terms of the Proposed Sale as of the date of the Sale Notice (the “Material Terms”) promptly and in any event not less than 25 days prior to the Proposed Sale and not more than 5 days after the execution of the definitive agreement relating to the Proposed Sale, if any (the “Sale Agreement”). If within 20 business days of the date of receipt of the Sale Notice, the Sponsor (or such Transfer Affiliate) receives a written request (a “Sale Request”) to include Shares held by the Purchaser, the Purchaser’s Estate or the Purchaser’s Trust in the Proposed Sale, the Shares so held by the Purchaser, the Purchaser’s Estate or the Purchaser’s Trust, not to exceed the amount provided in Section 8(b) below, shall be so included as provided herein; provided, that only one such Sale Request may be delivered by the Purchaser or the Purchaser’s Estate or the Purchaser’s Trust, as the case may be, with respect to any single Proposed Sale for any Shares held by the Purchaser or the Purchaser’s Estate or the Purchaser’s Trust; and provided, further, that any Sale Request shall be irrevocable unless (x) there shall be a material adverse change in the Material Terms or (y) otherwise mutually agreed to in writing by the Purchaser, the Purchaser’s Estate or the Purchaser’s Trust, as the case may be, and Sponsor (or such Transfer Affiliate). Promptly after the receipt of the Sale Request, the Sponsor (or such Transfer Affiliate) will furnish the Purchaser, the Purchaser’s Estate or the Purchaser’s Trust with a copy of the Sale Agreement, if any.

(b) The maximum number of Shares that the Purchaser or the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, will be permitted to include in a Proposed Sale pursuant to a Sale Request will be the product of (i) the sum of the number of Shares (A) then held by the Purchaser or the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, including all Exercisable Option Shares (as defined in Section 10(b)) and (B) Option Shares which will become exercisable prior to or in connection with the Proposed Sale, multiplied by (ii) the ratio of (A) the number of Shares which the Sponsor (or the Transfer Affiliate) proposes to sell in the Proposed Sale, (after giving effect to this Agreement, the Other Purchasers' Agreements, and any other agreements among the Sponsors (or any Transfer Affiliate) and other agreement with any holder of Shares that gives the right to such holder to participate in the Proposed Sale) divided by (B) the number of Shares then held by such Sponsor (or the Transfer Affiliate). Notwithstanding the above, if one of more holders of Shares who have been granted rights similar to those granted hereunder elect not to include in the Proposed Sale the maximum number of Shares which such holder would have been permitted to include in a Proposed Sale (the "Eligible Shares"), the holders of Shares, including the Sponsor (or the Transfer Affiliate), or any of them, may sell in the Proposed Sale a number of additional Shares owned by any of them equal to their pro rata portion of the number of Eligible Shares not included in the Proposed Sale, based on the relative number of Shares then held by each such holder, and such additional Shares which any such holder or holders propose to sell shall not be included in the calculation made pursuant to this Paragraph (b) for the purpose of determining the maximum number of Shares which the Purchaser or the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, will be permitted to include in a Proposed Sale. Each Sponsor (or the Transfer Affiliate) may sell in the Proposed Sale additional Shares owned by it equal to any remaining Eligible Shares that will not be included in the Proposed Sale pursuant to the foregoing sentence.

(c) Except as may otherwise be provided herein, Shares subject to a Sale Request will be included in a Proposed Sale pursuant hereto and in any agreements with the Proposed Purchaser relating thereto on the same terms and subject to the same conditions applicable to the Shares which the Sponsor (or the Transfer Affiliate) proposes to sell in the Proposed Sale. Such terms and conditions shall include, without limitation: the pro rata reduction of the number of Shares to be included in the Proposed Sale if required by the Proposed Purchaser; the sales price; the payment of fees, commissions and expenses; the provision of, and representation and warranty as to, information requested by the Sponsor (or the Transfer Affiliate), and the provision of requisite indemnifications; provided, that any indemnification provided by the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust shall be pro rata in proportion with the number of Shares to be sold; and provided, further, that fees paid to certain affiliates of the Sponsors pursuant to that certain Advisory Agreement with the Company and such affiliates in connection with the Proposed Sale shall not be deemed to be terms and conditions with respect to the Sale of the Shares.

(d) Upon delivering a Sale Request, the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, will, if requested by the Sponsor (or the Transfer Affiliate), execute and deliver a custody agreement and power of attorney in form and substance satisfactory to the Sponsor (or the Transfer Affiliate) (a "Custody Agreement and Power of Attorney") with respect to the Shares which are to be included in the Proposed Sale pursuant hereto. The Custody Agreement and Power of Attorney will provide, among other things, that the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, will deliver to and deposit in custody with the custodian and attorney-in-fact named therein a certificate or certificates representing such Shares (duly endorsed in blank by the registered owner or owners thereof or accompanied by duly executed stock powers in blank) and irrevocably appoint said custodian and attorney-in-fact as the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate's or the Purchaser's Trust's, as the case may be, agent and attorney-in-fact with full power and authority to act under the Custody Agreement and Power of Attorney on behalf of the Purchaser, the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, with respect to the matters specified therein.

(e) The Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate shall execute such other agreements as the Sponsor (or the Transfer Affiliate) may reasonably request in connection with the consummation of a Proposed Sale and Sale Request and the transactions contemplated hereby and the Purchaser's, Purchaser's Estate or Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, right pursuant hereto to participate in a Proposed Sale shall be contingent on such person's strict compliance with each provision of this Agreement.

9. Purchaser's "Bring-Along" Right.

In the event that at any time prior to the fifth anniversary of a Public Offering, a Sponsor (or a Transfer Affiliate) proposes to sell any of its holdings of Shares (the "Sponsor Shares") in a Proposed Sale (a "Bring-Along Sale"), such Sponsor may provide Purchaser or Purchaser's Estate or Purchaser's Trust, as the case may be, written notice (a "Bring-Along Notice") of such Proposed Sale and the Material Terms not less than 10 business days prior to the proposed date of the Bring-Along Sale (the "Bring-Along Sale Date") and the Purchaser hereby agrees to sell to such Proposed Purchaser, as provided in Sections 8(c), (d) and (e), the number of Shares equal to the product of (i) the sum of the number of Shares (A) then held by the Purchaser or the Purchaser's Estate or the Purchaser's Trust, including all Exercisable Option Shares and (B) any Option Shares which will become exercisable prior to or in connection with the Bring-Along Sale, multiplied by (ii) the ratio of (A) the number of Shares which Sponsor (or a Transfer Affiliate) proposes to sell in the Proposed Sale, divided by (B) the number of Shares then held by Sponsor (or a Transfer Affiliate) at the same price and upon the same terms and conditions as such transfer of Sponsor Shares. The Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate, as the case may be, shall exercise Options to the extent necessary to obtain a number of Shares sufficient to fulfill its obligation to sell Shares in a Bring-Along Sale pursuant to this Section 9. The provisions of this Section 9 shall apply regardless of the form of consideration in the Bring-Along Sale.

10. Shares Issued to the Purchaser Upon Exercise of Options; Termination of Options.

(a) The Company may from time to time grant to the Purchaser, in addition to the Options granted pursuant to this Agreement, Options under the Equity Plan or otherwise to purchase Shares. All Options and Shares issuable by the Company upon exercise of such Options shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(b) All outstanding Options granted to the Purchaser under the Equity Plan or otherwise, whether or not then exercisable, will be automatically terminated upon the payment by the Company to the Purchaser, pursuant to the provisions of Section 5 or 6 of this Agreement, of an amount equal to the Option Excess Price. If the Option Excess Price is zero or a negative number, all outstanding Options granted to the Purchaser under the Equity Plan or otherwise, whether or not then exercisable, shall be automatically terminated upon the repurchase of Shares as provided in Section 5 or 6. The “Option Excess Price” is the excess, if any, of the Section 5 Repurchase Price or the Section 6 Repurchase Price, depending on which Repurchase Price is being used to repurchase the Shares, over the exercise prices applicable to such Options multiplied by the number of Exercisable Option Shares. For purposes hereof, “Exercisable Option Shares” shall mean the Shares which, at the time of determination, could be purchased by the Purchaser upon exercise of his outstanding Options.

11. The Company’s Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Company represents and warrants to the Purchaser that (i) this Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Company and (ii) the Shares, when issued and delivered in accordance with the terms hereof, will be duly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

(b) If the Company shall have filed a registration statement pursuant to the requirements of Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or engaged in a Public Offering, (i) the Company shall use reasonable efforts to register the Options and the Shares to be acquired on exercise thereof on a Form S-8 Registration Statement or any successor to Form S-8 to the extent that such registration is then available with respect to such Options and Shares and (ii) the Company will file the reports required to be filed by it under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) thereunder, to the extent required from time to time to enable the Purchaser to sell Shares without registration under the Securities Act within the limitations of the exemptions provided any applicable rule or regulation of the SEC. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 11(b), the Company may deregister under Section 12 of the Exchange Act if it is then permitted to do so pursuant to the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder. Nothing in this Section 11(b) shall be deemed to limit in any manner the restrictions on sales of Shares contained in this Agreement.

12. “Piggyback” Registration Rights. Until the later of (i) the first occurrence of a Qualified Public Offering and (ii) the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date:

(a) The Purchaser, Purchaser’s Trust or Purchaser’s Estate hereby agrees to be bound by all of the terms, conditions and obligations of the Registration Rights Agreement (the “Registration Rights Agreement”) entered into by and among the Company and investors party thereto as amended from time to time, in each case as if the Purchaser, Purchaser’s Trust or Purchaser’s Estate were a Holder (as such term is defined in the Registration Rights Agreement); provided, however, that at no time shall the Purchaser, Purchaser’s Trust or Purchaser’s Estate have any rights to request registration under the Registration Rights Agreement; and provided, further, that Purchaser, Purchaser’s Estate and Purchaser’s Trust’s rights shall be limited as set forth in this Section 12. All Shares purchased or held by Purchaser, Purchaser’s Trust or Purchaser’s Estate pursuant to this Agreement shall be deemed to be “Registrable Securities” as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement.

(b) In the event of a sale of Shares by the Sponsor in accordance with the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, the Company will promptly notify the Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate in writing (a "Notice") of the proposed registration (a "Proposed Registration"). If within 15 days of the receipt by the Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate of such Notice, the Company receives from the Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate, as the case may be, a written request (a "Request") to register Shares held by the applicable Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate (which Request will be irrevocable unless otherwise mutually agreed to in writing by the Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate and the Company), Shares will be so registered as provided in this Section 12; provided, however, that for each such registration statement only one Request, which shall be executed by the Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate, as the case may be, may be submitted for all Registrable Securities held by the Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate.

(c) The maximum number of Shares that will be registered pursuant to a Request will be the lowest of (i) the number of Shares then held by the Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate, including all Shares which the Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate are then entitled to acquire under an unexercised Option to the extent then exercisable, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of Shares being sold by the Sponsors and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of Shares owned by the Sponsors or (ii) the maximum number of Shares which the Company can register in the Proposed Registration without adverse effect on the offering in the view of the managing underwriters (reduced pro rata with all Other Purchasers) as more fully described in subsection (d) of this Section 12 or (iii) the maximum number of Shares which the Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate (pro rata based upon the aggregate number of Shares the Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate and all other Purchasers have requested to be registered) is permitted to register under the Registration Rights Agreement, including, without limitation, any reductions required by the Registration Rights Agreement.

(d) Upon delivering a Request, the Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate will, if requested by the Company, execute and deliver a Custody Agreement and Power of Attorney. The Custody Agreement and Power of Attorney will provide, among other things, that the Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate will deliver to and deposit in custody with the custodian and attorney-in-fact named therein a certificate or certificates representing such Shares (duly endorsed in blank by the registered owner or owners thereof or accompanied by duly executed stock powers in blank) and irrevocably appoint said custodian and attorney-in-fact as the Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate's agent and attorney-in-fact with full power and authority to act under the Custody Agreement and Power of Attorney on the Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate's behalf with respect to the matters specified therein.

(e) The Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate agrees that Purchaser, Purchaser's Trust or Purchaser's Estate, as applicable, will execute such other agreements as the Company may reasonably request to further evidence the provisions of this Section.

13. Pro Rata Repurchases.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Sections 5, 6 or 7, if at any time consummation of all purchases and payments to be made by the Company pursuant to this Agreement and the Other Purchasers' Agreements would result in an Event, then the Company shall make purchases from, and payments to, the Purchaser and Other Purchasers pro rata (on the basis of the proportion of the number of Shares and the number of Options each such Purchaser and all Other Purchasers have elected or are required to sell to the Company) for the maximum number of Shares and shall pay the Option Excess Price for the maximum number of Options permitted without resulting in an Event (the "Maximum Repurchase Amount"). The provisions of Sections 5(b) and 6(b) shall apply in their entirety to payments and repurchases with respect to Options and Shares which may not be made due to the limits imposed by the Maximum Repurchase Amount under this Section 13. Until all of such Shares and Options are purchased and paid for by the Company, the Purchaser and the Other Purchasers whose Shares and Options are not purchased in accordance with this Section 13 shall have priority, on a pro rata basis, over other purchases of Shares and Options by the Company pursuant to this Agreement and Other Purchasers' Agreements.

14. Rights to Negotiate Repurchase Price.

Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to restrict or prohibit the Company from purchasing Shares or Options from the Purchaser, at any time, upon such terms and conditions, and for such price, as may be mutually agreed upon between the Parties, whether or not at the time of such purchase circumstances exist which specifically grant the Company the right to purchase, or the Purchaser the right to sell, Shares or the Company has the right to pay, or the Purchaser has the right to receive, the Option Excess Price under the terms of this Agreement.

15. Covenant Regarding 83(b) Election.

Except as the Company may otherwise agree in writing, the Purchaser hereby covenants and agrees that Purchaser will make an election provided pursuant to Treasury Regulation 1.83-2 with respect to the Shares to be acquired upon each exercise of the Purchaser's Options; and the Purchaser further covenants and agrees that Purchaser will furnish the Company with copies of the forms of election the Purchaser files within 30 days after the date hereof, and within 30 days after each exercise of the Purchaser's Options and with evidence that each such election has been filed in a timely manner.

16. Notice of Change of Beneficiary.

Immediately prior to any transfer of Shares to a Purchaser's Trust, the Purchaser shall provide the Company with a copy of the instruments creating the Purchaser's Trust and with the identity of the beneficiaries of the Purchaser's Trust. The Purchaser shall notify the Company immediately prior to any change in the identity of any beneficiary of the Purchaser's Trust.

17. Expiration of Certain Provisions.

(a) The provisions contained in Sections 2, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9 and 12 of this Agreement and the portion of any other provision of this Agreement which incorporates the provisions of Section 4, 5 or 6, shall terminate and be of no further force or effect with respect to any Shares sold by the Purchaser pursuant to an effective registration statement filed by the Company pursuant to Section 11 hereof.

(b) The provisions contained in Sections 2(e), 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 12 and 15 of this Agreement, and the portion of any other provisions of this Agreement which incorporate the provisions of any of such Sections, shall terminate and be of no further force or effect upon the consummation of a Change in Control. For purposes of this Agreement, “Change in Control” means (i) sales of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, to a Person who is not an Affiliate of the Company or the Sponsors, (ii) a sale by the Sponsors or any of their respective Affiliates resulting in more than 50% of the voting shares of the Company being held by a person or related group of persons that does not include the Sponsors or any of their respective Affiliates, or (iii) a merger or consolidation of the Company into another Person which is not an Affiliate of the Company or the Sponsors, if and only if as a result of such merger or consolidation the Sponsors lose the ability to elect a majority of the Board of Directors of the Company (or the resulting entity).

18. Recapitalizations, etc.

The provisions of this Agreement shall apply, to the full extent set forth herein with respect to the Shares or the Options, to any and all shares of capital stock of the Company or any capital stock, partnership units or any other security evidencing ownership interests in any successor or assign of the Company (whether by merger, consolidation, sale of assets or otherwise) which may be issued in respect of, in exchange for, or in substitution of the Shares or the Options, by reason of any stock dividend, split, reverse split, combination, recapitalization, liquidation, reclassification, merger, consolidation or otherwise.

19. The Purchaser’s Employment by the Company.

Nothing contained in this Agreement (i) obligates the Company or any Subsidiary or Affiliate of the Company to employ the Purchaser in any capacity whatsoever or (ii) prohibits or restricts the Company (or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates) from terminating the employment, if any, of the Purchaser at any time or for any reason whatsoever, with or without Cause, and the Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that except as may be contained in Purchaser’s employment agreement with the Company, neither the Company nor any other Person has made any representations or promises whatsoever to the Purchaser concerning the Purchaser’s employment or continued employment by the Company.

20. Securities Laws.

The Company hereby agrees to use its reasonable efforts to comply with all foreign and state securities or “blue sky” laws that might be applicable to the sale of the Shares and the issuance of the Options to the Purchaser.

21. Binding Effect.

The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and accrue to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns. Purchaser may assign his rights and obligations under this Agreement only to those transferees to whom Purchaser is required to do so pursuant to the terms hereof. In the case of a transferee permitted under Section 2(a) hereof, such transferee shall be deemed the Purchaser hereunder; provided, however, that no transferee (including without limitation, transferees referred to in Section 2(a) hereof) shall derive any rights under this Agreement unless and until such transferee has delivered to the Company a valid undertaking and becomes bound by the terms of this Agreement.

22. Amendment.

This Agreement may be amended only by a written instrument signed by the Parties hereto.

23. Closing.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the closing of each purchase and sale of Shares and the payment of the Option Excess Price, if any, pursuant to this Agreement shall take place at the principal office of the Company on the tenth business day following delivery of the notice by either Party to the other of its exercise of the right to purchase or sell such Shares hereunder or to cause the payment of the Option Excess Price, if any.

24. Applicable Law.

The laws of Singapore shall govern the interpretation, validity and performance of the terms of this Agreement, regardless of the law that might be applied under principles of conflicts of law. Each of the Company, Luxco and the Purchaser (the "Parties") hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in or for the State of California, County of San Mateo, for any actions, suits, or proceedings arising out of or relating to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (and each of the Parties agrees not to commence any action, suit or proceeding relating thereto except in such courts), and further agrees that service of any process, summons, notice or document by U.S. registered mail to its address set forth below shall be effective service of process of any action, suit or proceeding brought against any Party in any such court. Each of the Parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives any objection to the laying of venue of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, in such state or federal courts as aforesaid and hereby further irrevocably and unconditionally waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action, suit or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. The Company and Luxco have appointed Corporation Service Company, which will do business in California as CSC-Lawyers Incorporation Service, as its authorized agent (the "Authorized Agent") upon whom process may be served in any action arising out of or based on this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. Such appointment shall be irrevocable pursuant to a contract that shall be prepaid for a period through December 1, 2010. The Company and Luxco represent and warrant that the Authorized Agent has agreed to act as such agent for service of process and agrees to take any and all action, including the filing of any and all documents and instruments, that may be necessary to continue such appointment in full force and effect as aforesaid. Service of process upon the Authorized Agent shall be deemed, in every respect, effective service of process upon the Company and Luxco.

25. Assignability of Certain Rights by the Company.

The Company shall have the right to assign any or all of its rights or obligations to purchase Shares pursuant to Sections 4, 5 and 6 hereof; provided, that the Company shall remain liable for all of its obligations pursuant to such Sections.

26. Section 409A.

The parties acknowledge and agree that, to the extent applicable, this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with Section 409A of the Code and any proposed or final Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines that any amounts payable hereunder will be immediately taxable to the Purchaser under Section 409A, the Company may (a) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, that the Company determines necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement and/or (b) take such other actions as the Company determines necessary or appropriate to comply with the requirements of Section 409A.

27. Consent to Shorter Notice.

As permitted by Section 177(3) of the Singapore Companies Act, Purchaser hereby agrees to shorter notice than required by Section 177(2) of the Singapore Companies Act with respect to any meeting of the Company, other than the Company's annual general meeting, which shorter notice may be as little as immediately prior to the commencement of such meeting. To such end, Purchaser hereby irrevocably appoints and constitutes Luxco, and its assigns, as Purchaser's true and lawful attorney, in Purchaser's name, place and stead, to make, execute and acknowledge documents for the limited purpose of agreeing to such shorter notice. Purchaser agrees to provide the Company with any documentation reasonably requested by the Company to give effect to the agreements in the two immediately preceding sentences.

28. Miscellaneous.

In this Agreement (i) all references to "dollars" or "$" are to United States dollars and (ii) the word "or" is not exclusive. If any provision of this Agreement shall be declared illegal, void or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the other provisions shall not be affected, but shall remain in full force and effect.

Any such adjustment made by the Committee shall be final and binding upon the Optionee, the Company and all other interested persons.

ARTICLE III

PERIOD OF EXERCISABILITY

Section 3.1 - Commencement of Exercisability

(a) The Time Option shall become exercisable with respect to 20% of the Shares subject to such Time Option on each anniversary of the Vesting Reference Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, immediately prior to the consummation of a sale by the Company of the business unit that employs the Optionee, as determined by the Board in its sole discretion, to the extent not previously vested, the Time Option shall become exercisable with respect to 20% of the Shares subject to such Time Option.

(b) On each anniversary of Vesting Reference Date, the Performance Option shall become exercisable for an incremental percentage of the Shares subject to such Option equal to the product of 20% and the Achievement Ratio for the year ending on the immediately preceding Determination Date, provided that on each Determination Date in no event shall the total percentage of Shares subject to the Performance Option that are exercisable be greater than the product of (i) 20% and (ii) the number of Determination Dates (including such Determination Date) as have fallen from and after the Vesting Reference Date. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that the Achievement Ratio is greater than 1.0 for any year, the Performance Option shall become exercisable for an incremental percentage of the Shares subject to such Option that did not become exercisable in any preceding year (commencing with immediately preceding year) as a result of the Achievement Ratio for any such preceding year being less than 1.0.

For purposes of this Section 3.1 the "Achievement Ratio" for each fiscal year shall be defined in Exhibit A.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Option or portion thereof shall become exercisable as to any additional Shares following the termination of employment of the Optionee for any reason and any Option which is non-exercisable as of the Optionee's termination of employment shall be immediately cancelled.

Section 3.2 - Expiration of Options

Except as otherwise provided in the Shareholders Agreement, the Options may not be exercised to any extent by anyone after the first to occur of the following events:

(a) In the case of an Option granted to an Employee, the tenth anniversary of the date hereof, and in the case of an Option granted to a service provider other than an Employee, the fifth anniversary of the date hereof;

(b) The first anniversary of the date of the Optionee's termination of employment by reason of death or Permanent Disability;

(c) The first business day which is ninety calendar days after the termination of employment of the Optionee for any reason other than for Cause, death or Permanent Disability;

(d) The date the Option is terminated pursuant to the Shareholders Agreement;

(e) With respect to the Performance Option, the fifth anniversary of the Vesting Reference Date, to the extent not previously vested;

(f) The opening of business on the date of an Optionee's termination of employment by the Company for Cause;

(g) If the Committee so determines pursuant to Section 9 of the Plan, the effective date of either the merger or consolidation of the Company into another Person, or the exchange or acquisition by another Person of all or substantially all of the Company's assets or 80% or more of its then outstanding voting shares, or the recapitalization, reclassification, liquidation or dissolution of the Company. At least ten (10) days prior to the effective date of such merger, consolidation, exchange, acquisition, recapitalization, reclassification, liquidation or dissolution, the Committee shall give the Optionee notice of such event if the Option has then neither been fully exercised nor become unexercisable under this Section 3.2.

ARTICLE IV

EXERCISE OF OPTION

Section 4.1 - Person Eligible to Exercise

During the lifetime of the Optionee, only he may exercise an Option or any portion thereof. After the death of the Optionee, any exercisable portion of an Option may, prior to the time when an Option becomes unexercisable under Section 3.2, be exercised by his personal representative or by any person empowered to do so under the Optionee's will or under the then applicable laws of descent and distribution.

Section 4.2 - Partial Exercise

Any exercisable portion of an Option or the entire Option, if then wholly exercisable, may be exercised in whole or in part at any time prior to the time when the Option or portion thereof becomes unexercisable under Section 3.2; provided, however, that any partial exercise shall be for whole Shares only.

Section 4.3 - Notice of Intent to Exercise

Until such time as the Option and the Shares to be acquired pursuant to the exercise of the Option are registered on a Form S-8 Registration Statement or any successor form thereto (or are otherwise registered pursuant to the Securities Act), no less than ten (10) business days prior to the date the Optionee, or other person then entitled to exercise, intends to exercise the Options or any portion thereof, the Optionee, or such other person, shall provide the Company notice in writing stating such intent.

Section 4.4 - Manner of Exercise

An Option, or any exercisable portion thereof, may be exercised solely by delivering to the Secretary or his office all of the following prior to the time when the Option or such portion becomes unexercisable under Section 3.2:

(a) Notice in writing signed by the Optionee or the other person then entitled to exercise the Option or portion thereof, stating that the Option or portion thereof is thereby exercised, such notice complying with all applicable rules established by the Committee;

(b) Full payment (in cash, by check or by a combination thereof or by such other means as may be approved by the Committee in its sole discretion) for the Shares with respect to which such Option or portion thereof is exercised;

(c) A bona fide written representation and agreement, in a form satisfactory to the Committee, signed by the Optionee or other person then entitled to exercise such Option or portion thereof, stating (i) that the Shares are being acquired for his own account, for investment and without any present intention of distributing or reselling said shares or any of them except as may be permitted under the Securities Act, and then applicable rules and regulations thereunder, (ii) that, if applicable (as determined by the Company), the Optionee has received, read and understood the Company's Rule 701 Disclosure Statement and (iii) that the Optionee or other person then entitled to exercise such Option or portion thereof will indemnify the Company against and hold it free and harmless from any loss, damage, expense or liability resulting to the Company if any sale or distribution of the shares by such person is contrary to the representation and agreement referred to above; provided, however, that the Committee may, in its absolute discretion, take whatever additional actions it deems appropriate to ensure the observance and performance of such representation and agreement and to effect compliance with the Securities Act, any other U.S. federal or state securities laws or regulations and any other applicable laws or regulations;

(d) Full payment to the Company (in cash, by check or by a combination thereof) of all amounts which, under federal, state or local law, it is required to withhold upon exercise of the Option; and

(e) In the event the Option or portion thereof shall be exercised pursuant to Section 4.1 by any person or persons other than the Optionee, appropriate proof of the right of such person or persons to exercise the Option.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon Optionee's termination of employment by the Company without Cause, by the Optionee for Good Reason or as a Permitted Retirement, or by reason of death or Permanent Disability, in satisfaction of the payments required by Sections 4.4(b) and (d) above, Optionee may execute a cashless exercise, net of such payments, pursuant to a formal program adopted by the Company in connection with the Plan provided that such a cashless exercise would not, as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion, (i) cause the Company or its Subsidiaries to breach any debt agreement to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party, (ii) result in a violation under Section 409A of the Code or the regulations promulgated thereunder, (iii) be otherwise prohibited by the Code or the regulations promulgated thereunder or (iv) result in negative accounting treatment under Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("GAAP").

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or the Plan and in addition to any other restrictions provided in this Agreement or the Plan, as a condition to the delivery of any Shares pursuant to the exercise of the Option, the Optionee agrees not to transfer the Shares prior to a Public Offering except upon such Optionee's death or disability, pursuant to a donative transfer to a "family member" (within the meaning of Rule 701 of the Securities Act) or to the Company. As a further condition to the delivery of any Shares pursuant to the exercise of the Option, the Optionee agrees that any ordinary shares of the Company transferred upon Optionee's death or disability or donatively transferred to a family member shall be restricted from subsequent transfer prior to a Public Offering except to the Company.

Without limiting the generality of this Section 4.4, the Committee may require an opinion of counsel acceptable to it to the effect that any subsequent transfer of shares acquired on exercise of an Option does not violate the Securities Act, and may issue stop-transfer orders covering such Shares. Share certificates evidencing Shares issued on exercise of this Option shall bear an appropriate legend referring to the provisions of subsection (c) above and the agreements herein. The written representation and agreement referred to in subsection (c) above shall, however, not be required if the Shares to be issued pursuant to such exercise have been registered under the Securities Act, and such registration is then effective in respect of such Shares.

Section 4.5 - Conditions to Issuance of Certificates

The Shares deliverable upon the exercise of an Option, or any portion thereof, may be either previously authorized but unissued Shares or, subject to applicable laws, issued Shares which have then been reacquired by the Company. Such Shares shall be fully paid and nonassessable. The Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any certificate or certificates for Shares purchased upon the exercise of an Option or portion thereof prior to fulfillment of all of the following conditions:

(a) The obtaining of approval or other clearance from any governmental agency which the Committee shall, in its absolute discretion, determine to be necessary or advisable; and

(b) The lapse of such reasonable period of time following the exercise of the Option as the Committee may from time to time establish for reasons of administrative convenience; provided, however, that no delay in the issuance of any certificate to be issued hereunder shall operate to prejudice or impair the Optionee's rights to participate in a corporate transaction providing for the disposition of Shares or to exercise his rights under the Shareholders Agreement.

Section 4.6 - Rights as Shareholder

The holder of an Option shall not be, nor have any of the rights or privileges of, a shareholder of the Company in respect of any Shares purchasable upon the exercise of the Option or any portion thereof unless and until certificates representing such Shares shall have been issued by the Company to such holder.

Section 4.7 - Covenant Regarding 83(b) Election

The Optionee hereby covenants and agrees that, unless otherwise determined by the Company, Optionee will make an election pursuant to Treasury Regulation 1.83-2 with respect to the Shares to be acquired upon each exercise of the Optionee's Options by filing with the Internal Revenue Service such election substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B; and the Optionee further covenants and agrees that he will furnish the Company with copies of the forms of election the Optionee files within 30 days after each exercise of the Optionee's Options and with evidence that each such election has been filed in a timely manner.

ARTICLE V

Section 5.1 - Administration

The Committee shall have the power to interpret the Plan and this Agreement and to adopt such rules for the administration, interpretation and application of the Plan as are consistent therewith and to interpret or revoke any such rules. All actions taken and all interpretations and determinations made by the Committee shall be final and binding upon the Optionee, the Company and all other interested persons. No member of the Committee shall be personally liable for any action, determination or interpretation made in good faith with respect to the Plan or the Options. Section 5.3 - Shares to Be Reserved

The Company shall at all times during the term of the Options reserve and keep available such number of Shares as will be sufficient to satisfy the requirements of this Agreement.

Section 5.4 - Notices

Any notice to be given under the terms of this Agreement to the Company shall be addressed to the Company in care of its Secretary, and any notice to be given to the Optionee shall be addressed to him at his most recent address as reflected in the Company's records. By a notice given pursuant to this Section 5.4, either party may hereafter designate a different address for notices to be given to him or it. Any notice which is required to be given to the Optionee shall, if the Optionee is then deceased, be given to the Optionee's personal representative if such representative has previously informed the Company of his status and address by written notice under this Section 5.4. Any notice shall have been deemed duly given when enclosed in a properly sealed envelope or wrapper addressed as aforesaid, and delivered by hand (whether by courier or otherwise) or sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested (with postage prepaid).

Section 5.5 - Titles

Titles are provided herein for convenience only and are not to serve as a basis for interpretation or construction of this Agreement.

Section 5.6 - Applicability of Plan and Shareholders Agreement

The Options and the Shares issued to the Optionee upon exercise of the Options shall be subject to all of the terms and provisions of the Plan and the Shareholders Agreement, to the extent applicable to the Options and such Shares. In the event of any conflict between this Agreement and the Plan, the terms of the Plan shall control. In the event of any conflict between this Agreement or the Plan and the Shareholders Agreement, the terms of the Shareholders Agreement shall control.

Section 5.7 - Amendment

This Agreement may be amended only by a writing executed by the parties hereto, which specifically states that it is amending this Agreement.

Section 5.8 - Jurisdiction

Any suit, action or proceeding against the Optionee with respect to this Agreement, or any judgment entered by any court in respect of any thereof, may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of California, and the Optionee hereby submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts for the purpose of any such suit, action, proceeding or judgment. The Optionee hereby irrevocably waives any objections which he may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement brought in any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of California, and hereby further irrevocably waives any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in any inconvenient forum. No suit, action or proceeding against the Company with respect to this Agreement may be brought in any court, domestic or foreign, or before any similar domestic or foreign authority other than in a court of competent jurisdiction in the State of California, and the Optionee hereby irrevocably waives any right which he may otherwise have had to bring such an action in any other court, domestic or foreign, or before any similar domestic or foreign authority. The Company hereby submits to the jurisdiction of such courts for the purpose of any such suit, action or proceeding.

Section 5.9 - Employee Representation and Acknowledgement

Section 3.1 Definitions.

(i) The “Achievement Ratio” for a fiscal year shall be determined on the basis of the value of the Performance Metric for such year as compared to the Performance Targets described below. For values of the Performance Metric below the amount indicated for the Minimum Performance Standard, the Achievement Ratio shall be zero. If the value of the Performance Metric equals the amount indicated for the Management Plan, the Achievement Ratio shall equal 100%. For all other values of the Performance Metric, the Achievement Ratio shall be determined by linear interpolation using the Achievement Ratios for the Minimum Performance Standard and the Management Plan.

(ii) “Performance Metric” means the “Operating Profit” of the Company. For this purpose, “Operating Profit” means the Company’s actual earnings before interest and taxes for a year, determined based on the Company’s audited financials. Operating Profit shall not be reduced by costs of the acquisition of the Company by KKR or SLP or related items or management and transaction fees payable to KKR, SLP or their Affiliates. Operating Profit shall be calculated without giving effect to purchase accounting arising from the acquisition of SPG from Agilent Technologies, Inc. The Committee shall, fairly and appropriately, adjust the calculation of Operating Profit to reflect, to the extent not contemplated in the management plan, the following: acquisitions, divestitures, the one time transition costs related to the transitioning to stand alone systems and infrastructure (including utilizing the assumed cost structure for the first fiscal period on a proforma basis instead of the actual costs incurred by the company for such items), non-cash equity compensation expenses, any changes in GAAP promulgated by accounting standard setters that, in each case, the Committee in good faith determines require adjustment of Operating Profit. The Committee’s determination of such adjustment shall be based on the Company’s accounting as set forth in its books and records and on the management plan of the Company pursuant to which the Performance Targets were originally established.

(iii) The “Performance Targets” for each fiscal year shall be the Management Plan and Minimum Performance Standard amounts as set forth below. If the Company makes an acquisition in any year, the Performance Targets for such year and subsequent years will be adjusted, fairly and appropriately, by the amount of EBIT in the management plan for the target presented to the Committee at the time the acquisition is approved by the Committee. Performance Targets will also be fairly and appropriately adjusted by the Committee, in consultation with management, to the extent not contemplated in the management plan for the following: any divestitures, major capital investment programs, any change required by GAAP relating to share-based compensation or other changes in GAAP promulgated by accounting standard setters. In the event that any of the foregoing action is taken, such adjustment shall be only the amount deemed reasonably necessary by the Committee, in the exercise of its good faith judgment, after consultation of the Company’s accountants, to accurately reflect the direct and measurable effect such event has on such Performance Targets. The intent of such adjustments is to keep the probability of achieving the Performance Targets the same as if the event triggering such adjustment had not occurred. The Committee’s determination of such necessary adjustment shall be made within 60 days following the completion or closing of such event, and shall be based on the Company’s accounting as set forth in its books and records and on the Company’s financial plan pursuant to which the Performance Targets were originally established.

For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that the Achievement Ratio is greater than 1.0 for any year, the Performance Option shall become exercisable for an incremental percentage of the Shares subject to such Option that did not become exercisable in any preceding year (commencing with immediately preceding year) as a result of the Achievement Ratio for any such preceding year being less than 1.0.

For purposes of this Section 3.1 the "Achievement Ratio" for each fiscal year shall be defined in Exhibit A.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Option or portion thereof shall become exercisable as to any additional Shares following the termination of employment of the Optionee for any reason and any Option which is non-exercisable as of the Optionee's termination of employment shall be immediately cancelled.

Section 3.2 - Expiration of Options

Except as otherwise provided in the Shareholders Agreement, the Options may not be exercised to any extent by anyone after the first to occur of the following events:

At least ten (10) days prior to the effective date of such merger, consolidation, exchange, acquisition, recapitalization, reclassification, liquidation or dissolution, the Committee shall give the Optionee notice of such event if the Option has then neither been fully exercised nor become unexercisable under this Section 3.2.

ARTICLE IV

EXERCISE OF OPTION

Section 4.1 - Person Eligible to Exercise

During the lifetime of the Optionee, only he may exercise an Option or any portion thereof. After the death of the Optionee, any exercisable portion of an Option may, prior to the time when an Option becomes unexercisable under Section 3.2, be exercised by his personal representative or by any person empowered to do so under the Optionee's will or under the then applicable laws of descent and distribution.

Section 4.2 - Partial Exercise

Any exercisable portion of an Option or the entire Option, if then wholly exercisable, may be exercised in whole or in part at any time prior to the time when the Option or portion thereof becomes unexercisable under Section 3.2; provided, however, that any partial exercise shall be for whole Shares only.

Section 4.3 - Manner of Exercise

An Option, or any exercisable portion thereof, may be exercised solely by delivering to the Secretary or his office all of the following prior to the time when the Option or such portion becomes unexercisable under Section 3.2:

(a) Notice in writing signed by the Optionee or the other person then entitled to exercise the Option or portion thereof, stating that the Option or portion thereof is thereby exercised, such notice complying with all applicable rules established by the Committee;

(b) Full payment (in cash, by check or by a combination thereof or by such other means as may be approved by the Committee in its sole discretion) for the Shares with respect to which such Option or portion thereof is exercised;

(c) A bona fide written representation and agreement, in a form satisfactory to the Committee, signed by the Optionee or other person then entitled to exercise such Option or portion thereof, stating (i) that the Shares are being acquired for his own account, for investment and without any present intention of distributing or reselling said shares or any of them except as may be permitted under the Securities Act, and then applicable rules and regulations thereunder, (ii) that the Optionee or other person then entitled to exercise such Option or portion thereof has not been a U.S. Person from the date such person was granted or otherwise transferred the Option through the date of exercise of the Option or portion thereof and (iii) that the Optionee or other person then entitled to exercise such Option or portion thereof will indemnify the Company against and hold it free and harmless from any loss, damage, expense or liability resulting to the Company if any sale or distribution of the shares by such person is contrary to the representation and agreement referred to above; provided, however, that the Committee may, in its absolute discretion, take whatever additional actions it deems appropriate to ensure the observance and performance of such representation and agreement and to effect compliance with the Securities Act, any other U.S. federal or state securities laws or regulations and any other applicable laws or regulations;

(d) Full payment to the Company (in cash, by check or by a combination thereof) of all amounts which, under federal, state or local law, it is required to withhold upon exercise of the Option; and

(e) In the event the Option or portion thereof shall be exercised pursuant to Section 4.1 by any person or persons other than the Optionee, appropriate proof of the right of such person or persons to exercise the Option.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon Optionee's termination of employment by the Company without Cause, by the Optionee for Good Reason or as a Permitted Retirement, or by reason of death or Permanent Disability, in satisfaction of the payments required by Sections 4.3(b) and (d) above, Optionee may execute a cashless exercise, net of such payments, pursuant to a formal program adopted by the Company in connection with the Plan provided that such a cashless exercise would not, as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion, (i) cause the Company or its Subsidiaries to breach any debt agreement to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party, (ii) result in a violation under Section 409A of the Code or the regulations promulgated thereunder, (iii) be otherwise prohibited by the Code or the regulations promulgated thereunder or (iv) result in negative accounting treatment under Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("GAAP").

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or the Plan and in addition to any other restrictions provided in this Agreement or the Plan, as a condition to the delivery of any Shares pursuant to the exercise of the Option, the Optionee agrees not to transfer the Shares prior to a Public Offering except upon such Optionee's death or disability, pursuant to a donative transfer to a "family member" (within the meaning of Rule 701 of the Securities Act) or to the Company. As a further condition to the delivery of any Shares pursuant to the exercise of the Option, the Optionee agrees that any ordinary shares of the Company transferred upon Optionee's death or disability or donatively transferred to a family member shall be restricted from subsequent transfer prior to a Public Offering except to the Company.

Without limiting the generality of this Section 4.3, the Committee may require an opinion of counsel acceptable to it to the effect that any subsequent transfer of shares acquired on exercise of an Option does not violate the Securities Act, and may issue stop-transfer orders covering such Shares. Share certificates evidencing Shares issued on exercise of this Option shall bear an appropriate legend referring to the provisions of subsection (c) above and the agreements herein. The written representation and agreement referred to in subsection (c) above shall, however, not be required if the Shares to be issued pursuant to such exercise have been registered under the Securities Act, and such registration is then effective in respect of such Shares.

Section 4.4 - Conditions to Issuance of Certificates

The Shares deliverable upon the exercise of an Option, or any portion thereof, may be either previously authorized but unissued Shares or, subject to applicable laws, issued Shares which have then been reacquired by the Company. Such Shares shall be fully paid and nonassessable. The Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any certificate or certificates for Shares purchased upon the exercise of an Option or portion thereof prior to fulfillment of all of the following conditions:

(a) The obtaining of approval or other clearance from any governmental agency which the Committee shall, in its absolute discretion, determine to be necessary or advisable; and

(b) The lapse of such reasonable period of time following the exercise of the Option as the Committee may from time to time establish for reasons of administrative convenience; provided, however, that no delay in the issuance of any certificate to be issued hereunder shall operate to prejudice or impair the Optionee's rights to participate in a corporate transaction providing for the disposition of Shares or to exercise his rights under the Shareholders Agreement.

Section 4.5 - Rights as Shareholder

The holder of an Option shall not be, nor have any of the rights or privileges of, a shareholder of the Company in respect of any Shares purchasable upon the exercise of the Option or any portion thereof unless and until certificates representing such Shares shall have been issued by the Company to such holder.

By a notice given pursuant to this Section 5.4, either party may hereafter designate a different address for notices to be given to him or it. Any notice which is required to be given to the Optionee shall, if the Optionee is then deceased, be given to the Optionee's personal representative if such representative has previously informed the Company of his status and address by written notice under this Section 5.4. Any notice shall have been deemed duly given when enclosed in a properly sealed envelope or wrapper addressed as aforesaid, and delivered by hand (whether by courier or otherwise) or sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested (with postage prepaid).

The Optionee hereby irrevocably waives any objections which he may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement brought in any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of California, and hereby further irrevocably waives any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in any inconvenient forum. Section 3.1 Definitions.

(i) The “Achievement Ratio” for a fiscal year shall be determined on the basis of the value of the Performance Metric for such year as compared to the Performance Targets described below. For values of the Performance Metric below the amount indicated for the Minimum Performance Standard, the Achievement Ratio shall be zero. If the value of the Performance Metric equals the amount indicated for the Management Plan, the Achievement Ratio shall equal 100%. For all other values of the Performance Metric, the Achievement Ratio shall be determined by linear interpolation using the Achievement Ratios for the Minimum Performance Standard and the Management Plan.

(ii) “Performance Metric” means the “Operating Profit” of the Company. For this purpose, “Operating Profit” means the Company’s actual earnings before interest and taxes for a year, determined based on the Company’s audited financials. Operating Profit shall not be reduced by costs of the acquisition of the Company by KKR or SLP or related items or management and transaction fees payable to KKR, SLP or their Affiliates. Operating Profit shall be calculated without giving effect to purchase accounting arising from the acquisition of SPG from Agilent Technologies, Inc. The Committee shall, fairly and appropriately, adjust the calculation of Operating Profit to reflect, to the extent not contemplated in the management plan, the following: acquisitions, divestitures, the one time transition costs related to the transitioning to stand alone systems and infrastructure (including utilizing the assumed cost structure for the first fiscal period on a proforma basis instead of the actual costs incurred by the company for such items), non-cash equity compensation expenses, any changes in GAAP promulgated by accounting standard setters that, in each case, the Committee in good faith determines require adjustment of Operating Profit. The Committee’s determination of such adjustment shall be based on the Company’s accounting as set forth in its books and records and on the management plan of the Company pursuant to which the Performance Targets were originally established.

(iii) The “Performance Targets” for each fiscal year shall be the Management Plan and Minimum Performance Standard amounts as set forth below. If the Company makes an acquisition in any year, the Performance Targets for such year and subsequent years will be adjusted, fairly and appropriately, by the amount of EBIT in the management plan for the target presented to the Committee at the time the acquisition is approved by the Committee. Performance Targets will also be fairly and appropriately adjusted by the Committee, in consultation with management, to the extent not contemplated in the management plan for the following: any divestitures, major capital investment programs, any change required by GAAP relating to share-based compensation or other changes in GAAP promulgated by accounting standard setters. In the event that any of the foregoing action is taken, such adjustment shall be only the amount deemed reasonably necessary by the Committee, in the exercise of its good faith judgment, after consultation of the Company’s accountants, to accurately reflect the direct and measurable effect such event has on such Performance Targets. The intent of such adjustments is to keep the probability of achieving the Performance Targets the same as if the event triggering such adjustment had not occurred. The Committee’s determination of such necessary adjustment shall be made within 60 days following the completion or closing of such event, and shall be based on the Company’s accounting as set forth in its books and records and on the Company’s financial plan pursuant to which the Performance Targets were originally established.

Section 3.1 - Commencement of Exercisability

Subject to Section 3.2 of this Agreement, the Options shall be fully exercisable as of the date hereof.

Section 3.2 - Expiration of Options

Except as otherwise provided in the Shareholder's Agreement, the Options may not be exercised to any extent by anyone after the first to occur of the following events:

At least ten (10) days prior to the effective date of such merger, consolidation, exchange, acquisition, recapitalization, reclassification, liquidation or dissolution, the Committee shall give the Optionee notice of such event if the Option has then neither been fully exercised nor become unexercisable under this Section 3.2.

ARTICLE IV

EXERCISE OF OPTION

Section 4.1 - Person Eligible to Exercise

During the lifetime of the Optionee, only he may exercise an Option or any portion thereof. After the death of the Optionee, any exercisable portion of an Option may, prior to the time when an Option becomes unexercisable under Section 3.2, be exercised by his personal representative or by any person empowered to do so under the Optionee's will or under the then applicable laws of descent and distribution.

Section 4.2 - Partial Exercise

The entire Option may be exercised in whole or in part at any time prior to the time when the Option or portion thereof becomes unexercisable under Section 3.2; provided, however, that any partial exercise shall be for whole Shares only.

Section 4.3 - Manner of Exercise

An Option may be exercised solely by delivering to the Secretary or his office all of the following prior to the time when the Option becomes unexercisable under Section 3.2:

(a) Notice in writing signed by the Optionee or the other person then entitled to exercise the Option or portion thereof, stating that the Option or portion thereof is thereby exercised, such notice complying with all applicable rules established by the Committee;

(b) Full payment (in cash, by check or by a combination thereof or by such other means as may be approved by the Committee in its sole discretion) for the Shares with respect to which such Option or portion thereof is exercised;

(c) A bona fide written representation and agreement, in a form satisfactory to the Committee, signed by the Optionee or other person then entitled to exercise such Option or portion thereof, stating (i) that the Shares are being acquired for his own account, for investment and without any present intention of distributing or reselling said shares or any of them except as may be permitted under the Securities Act, and then applicable rules and regulations thereunder, (ii) that the Optionee or other person then entitled to exercise such Option or portion thereof has not been a U.S. Person from the date such person was granted or otherwise transferred the Option through the date of exercise of the Option or portion thereof and (iii) and that the Optionee or other person then entitled to exercise such Option or portion thereof will indemnify the Company against and hold it free and harmless from any loss, damage, expense or liability resulting to the Company if any sale or distribution of the shares by such person is contrary to the representation and agreement referred to above; provided, however, that the Committee may, in its absolute discretion, take whatever additional actions it deems appropriate to ensure the observance and performance of such representation and agreement and to effect compliance with the Securities Act, any other U.S. federal or state securities laws or regulations and any other applicable laws or regulations;

(d) Full payment to the Company (in cash, by check or by a combination thereof) of all amounts which, under federal, state or local law, it is required to withhold upon exercise of the Option; and

(e) In the event the Option or portion thereof shall be exercised pursuant to Section 4.1 by any person or persons other than the Optionee, appropriate proof of the right of such person or persons to exercise the Option.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in satisfaction of the payments required by Sections 4.3(b) and (d) above, Optionee may execute a cashless exercise, net of such payments, pursuant to a formal program adopted by the Company in connection with the Plan provided that such a cashless exercise would not, as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion, (i) cause the Company or its Subsidiaries to breach any debt agreement to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party, (ii) result in a violation under Section 409A of the Code or the regulations promulgated thereunder, (iii) be otherwise prohibited by the Code or the regulations promulgated thereunder or (iv) result in negative accounting treatment under Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("GAAP").

Without limiting the generality of this Section 4.3, the Committee may require an opinion of counsel acceptable to it to the effect that any subsequent transfer of shares acquired on exercise of an Option does not violate the Securities Act, and may issue stop-transfer orders covering such Shares. Share certificates evidencing Shares issued on exercise of this Option shall bear an appropriate legend referring to the provisions of subsection (c) above and the agreements herein. The written representation and agreement referred to in subsection (c) above shall, however, not be required if the Shares to be issued pursuant to such exercise have been registered under the Securities Act, and such registration is then effective in respect of such Shares.

Section 4.4 - Conditions to Issuance of Certificates

The Shares deliverable upon the exercise of an Option, or any portion thereof, may be either previously authorized but unissued Shares or, subject to applicable laws, issued Shares which have then been reacquired by the Company. Such Shares shall be fully paid and nonassessable. The Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any certificate or certificates for Shares purchased upon the exercise of an Option or portion thereof prior to fulfillment of all of the following conditions:

(a) The obtaining of approval or other clearance from any governmental agency which the Committee shall, in its absolute discretion, determine to be necessary or advisable; and

(b) The lapse of such reasonable period of time following the exercise of the Option as the Committee may from time to time establish for reasons of administrative convenience; provided, however, that no delay in the issuance of any certificate to be issued hereunder shall operate to prejudice or impair the Optionee's rights to participate in a corporate transaction providing for the disposition of Shares or to exercise his rights under the Shareholder's Agreement.

Section 4.5 - Rights as Shareholder

The holder of an Option shall not be, nor have any of the rights or privileges of, a shareholder of the Company in respect of any Shares purchasable upon the exercise of the Option or any portion thereof unless and until certificates representing such Shares shall have been issued by the Company to such holder.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 5.1 - Administration

The Committee shall have the power to interpret the Plan and this Agreement and to adopt such rules for the administration, interpretation and application of the Plan as are consistent therewith and to interpret or revoke any such rules. All actions taken and all interpretations and determinations made by the Committee shall be final and binding upon the Optionee, the Company and all other interested persons. No member of the Committee shall be personally liable for any action, determination or interpretation made in good faith with respect to the Plan or the Options. In its absolute discretion, the Board of Directors may at any time and from time to time exercise any and all rights and duties of the Committee under the Plan and this Agreement.

Section 5.2 - Options Not Transferable

Neither the Options nor any interest or right therein or part thereof shall be liable for the debts, contracts or engagements of the Optionee or his successors in interest or shall be subject to disposition by transfer, alienation, anticipation, pledge, encumbrance, assignment or any other means whether such disposition be voluntary or involuntary or by operation of law by judgment, levy, attachment, garnishment or any other legal or equitable proceedings (including bankruptcy), and any attempted disposition thereof shall be null and void and of no effect; provided, however, that this Section 5.2 shall not prevent transfers by will or by the applicable laws of descent and distribution.

The Company shall at all times during the term of the Options reserve and keep available such number of Shares as will be sufficient to satisfy the requirements of this Agreement.

Section 5.4 - Notices

Any notice to be given under the terms of this Agreement to the Company shall be addressed to the Company in care of its Secretary, and any notice to be given to the Optionee shall be addressed to him at his most recent address as reflected in the Company's records. By a notice given pursuant to this Section 5.4, either party may hereafter designate a different address for notices to be given to him or it. Any notice which is required to be given to the Optionee shall, if the Optionee is then deceased, be given to the Optionee's personal representative if such representative has previously informed the Company of his status and address by written notice under this Section 5.4. Any notice shall have been deemed duly given when enclosed in a properly sealed envelope or wrapper addressed as aforesaid, and delivered by hand (whether by courier or otherwise) or sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested (with postage prepaid).

Section 5.5 - Titles

Titles are provided herein for convenience only and are not to serve as a basis for interpretation or construction of this Agreement.

Section 5.6 - Applicability of Plan and Shareholder's Agreement

The Options and the Shares issued to the Optionee upon exercise of the Options shall be subject to all of the terms and provisions of the Plan and the Shareholder's Agreement, to the extent applicable to the Options and such Shares. In the event of any conflict between this Agreement and the Plan, the terms of the Plan shall control. In the event of any conflict between this Agreement or the Plan and the Shareholder's Agreement, the terms of the Shareholder's Agreement shall control.

Section 5.7 - Amendment

This Agreement may be amended only by a writing executed by the parties hereto, which specifically states that it is amending this Agreement.

Section 5.8 - Jurisdiction

Any suit, action or proceeding against the Optionee with respect to this Agreement, or any judgment entered by any court in respect of any thereof, may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of California, and the Optionee hereby submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts for the purpose of any such suit, action, proceeding or judgment. The Optionee hereby irrevocably waives any objections which he may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement brought in any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of California, and hereby further irrevocably waives any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in any inconvenient forum. No suit, action or proceeding against the Company with respect to this Agreement may be brought in any court, domestic or foreign, or before any similar domestic or foreign authority other than in a court of competent jurisdiction in the State of California, and the Optionee hereby irrevocably waives any right which he may otherwise have had to bring such an action in any other court, domestic or foreign, or before any similar domestic or foreign authority. The Company hereby submits to the jurisdiction of such courts for the purpose of any such suit, action or proceeding.

Section 5.9 - Employee Representation and Acknowledgement

By signing this Agreement, the Optionee hereby represents, acknowledges and confirms that the Optionee has read this Agreement carefully and completely and understands each of the terms hereof.

At least ten (10) days prior to the effective date of such merger, consolidation, exchange, acquisition, recapitalization, reclassification, liquidation or dissolution, the Committee shall give the Optionee notice of such event if the Option has then neither been fully exercised nor become unexercisable under this Section 3.2.

ARTICLE IV

EXERCISE OF OPTION

Section 4.1 - Person Eligible to Exercise

During the lifetime of the Optionee, only he may exercise an Option or any portion thereof. After the death of the Optionee, any exercisable portion of an Option may, prior to the time when an Option becomes unexercisable under Section 3.2, be exercised by his personal representative or by any person empowered to do so under the Optionee's will or under the then applicable laws of descent and distribution.

Section 4.2 - Partial Exercise

Any exercisable portion of an Option or the entire Option, if then wholly exercisable, may be exercised in whole or in part at any time prior to the time when the Option or portion thereof becomes unexercisable under Section 3.2; provided, however, that any partial exercise shall be for whole Shares only.

Section 4.3 - Notice of Intent to Exercise

Until such time as the Option and the Shares to be acquired pursuant to the exercise of the Option are registered on a Form S-8 Registration Statement or any successor form thereto (or are otherwise registered pursuant to the Securities Act), no less than ten (10) business days prior to the date the Optionee, or other person then entitled to exercise, intends to exercise the Options or any portion thereof, the Optionee, or such other person, shall provide the Company notice in writing stating such intent.

(b) Full payment (in cash, by check or by a combination thereof or by such other means as may be approved by the Committee in its sole discretion) for the Shares with respect to which such Option or portion thereof is exercised;

(c) A bona fide written representation and agreement, in a form satisfactory to the Committee, signed by the Optionee or other person then entitled to exercise such Option or portion thereof, stating (i) that the Shares are being acquired for his own account, for investment and without any present intention of distributing or reselling said shares or any of them except as may be permitted under the Securities Act, and then applicable rules and regulations thereunder, (ii) that, if applicable (as determined by the Company), the Optionee has received, read and understood the Company's Rule 701 Disclosure Statement and (iii) that the Optionee or other person then entitled to exercise such Option or portion thereof will indemnify the Company against and hold it free and harmless from any loss, damage, expense or liability resulting to the Company if any sale or distribution of the shares by such person is contrary to the representation and agreement referred to above; provided, however, that the Committee may, in its absolute discretion, take whatever additional actions it deems appropriate to ensure the observance and performance of such representation and agreement and to effect compliance with the Securities Act, any other U.S. federal or state securities laws or regulations and any other applicable laws or regulations;

(d) Full payment to the Company (in cash, by check or by a combination thereof) of all amounts which, under federal, state or local law, it is required to withhold upon exercise of the Option; and

(e) In the event the Option or portion thereof shall be exercised pursuant to Section 4.1 by any person or persons other than the Optionee, appropriate proof of the right of such person or persons to exercise the Option.

Share certificates evidencing Shares issued on exercise of this Option shall bear an appropriate legend referring to the provisions of subsection (c) above and the agreements herein. The written representation and agreement referred to in subsection (c) above shall, however, not be required if the Shares to be issued pursuant to such exercise have been registered under the Securities Act, and such registration is then effective in respect of such Shares.

Section 4.5 - Conditions to Issuance of Certificates

The Shares deliverable upon the exercise of an Option, or any portion thereof, may be either previously authorized but unissued Shares or, subject to applicable laws, issued Shares which have then been reacquired by the Company. Such Shares shall be fully paid and nonassessable. The Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any certificate or certificates for Shares purchased upon the exercise of an Option or portion thereof prior to fulfillment of all of the following conditions:

(a) The obtaining of approval or other clearance from any governmental agency which the Committee shall, in its absolute discretion, determine to be necessary or advisable; and

(b) The lapse of such reasonable period of time following the exercise of the Option as the Committee may from time to time establish for reasons of administrative convenience; provided, however, that no delay in the issuance of any certificate to be issued hereunder shall operate to prejudice or impair the Optionee's rights to participate in a corporate transaction providing for the disposition of Shares or to exercise his rights hereunder.

Section 4.6 - Rights as Shareholder

The holder of an Option shall not be, nor have any of the rights or privileges of, a shareholder of the Company in respect of any Shares purchasable upon the exercise of the Option or any portion thereof unless and until certificates representing such Shares shall have been issued by the Company to such holder.

Section 4.7 - Covenant Regarding 83(b) Election

The Optionee hereby covenants and agrees that, unless otherwise determined by the Company, Optionee will make an election pursuant to Treasury Regulation 1.83-2 with respect to the Shares to be acquired upon each exercise of the Optionee's Options by filing with the Internal Revenue Service such election substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A; and the Optionee further covenants and agrees that he will furnish the Company with copies of the forms of election the Optionee files within 30 days after each exercise of the Optionee's Options and with evidence that each such election has been filed in a timely manner.

(xiv) except as provided in Sections 2.4, 2.5, 2.6, 6.6 or 6.7 any Liabilities with respect to Contracts other than Transferred Contracts.

2.3 Transfer of Purchased Assets; Assumed Liabilities and Purchased Subsidiary Interests.

(a) The Purchased Assets and the Purchased Subsidiary Interests shall be sold, conveyed, transferred, assigned and delivered, and the Assumed Liabilities shall be assumed, pursuant to transfer and assumption agreements and such other instruments in such form as may be necessary or appropriate to effect a conveyance of the Purchased Assets and the Purchased Subsidiary Interests and an assumption of the Assumed Liabilities in the jurisdictions in which such transfers are to be made. In addition, Intellectual Property Rights under certain computer assisted design (CAD) tool software licenses ("CAD Licenses") will be assigned or sublicensed to Purchaser to the extent provided in Section 6.18 hereof. Such transfer and assumption agreements shall be jointly prepared by the Parties and shall include: (i) a bill of sale in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Bill of Sale"), (ii) an assignment and assumption agreement in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Assignment and Assumption Agreement"), (iii) local asset transfer agreements for each jurisdiction other than the United States in which Purchased Assets, Transferred Business Intellectual Property, Transferred Intellectual Property Rights or Assumed Liabilities are located in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit C with only such deviations therefrom as are required by local Law (the "Local Asset Transfer Agreements"), and/or (v) assignments in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit H (the "Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights Assignments"), (vi) the stock certificates evidencing the Purchased Subsidiary Interests and (vii) such other agreements as may reasonably be required to effect the purchase and assignment of the Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights, Assumed Liabilities and the Purchased Subsidiary Interests (collectively, clauses (i)–(vii), the "Ancillary Agreements") and shall be executed no later than at or as of the Closing by the Seller Parties, as appropriate and Purchaser. The sublease of the Subleased Real Property shall be assigned and delivered, and the related Assumed Liabilities shall be assumed, pursuant to the Sublease.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing and unless otherwise stated in the Master Separation Agreement, promptly following the Closing Date, Purchaser will: (i) at Purchaser's cost and expense, prepare such Purchased Assets located at any facilities currently occupied by the Other Sellers which are not to be purchased, assigned, subleased, transferred to or otherwise occupied by Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement or the Master Separation Agreement (each such facility, a “Seller Facility”) for relocation and relocate such Purchased Assets from the relevant Seller Facility; (ii) be responsible for all data transfer, delivery, transmission and reformatting costs and expenses related to the acquisition of assets to the extent provided in the Master Separation Agreement, and (iii) indemnify, defend and reimburse the respective Other Seller all Seller Losses arising out of any damage to any Seller Facility or any injury suffered by any Person arising out of or related to Purchaser’s removal, detachment, disconnection, or transportation of the Purchased Assets. Subject to the terms of this Section 2.3(b), each of Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Seller agrees to, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts (as defined for purposes of this Agreement in Schedule 2.3(b)) to cause Angel to, cooperate with Purchaser and provide Purchaser all assistance reasonably requested by Purchaser in connection with the planning and implementation of the transfer of Purchased Assets or any portion of any of them to such location as Purchaser shall designate. Purchased Assets shall be transported by or on behalf of Purchaser, and until all of the Purchased Assets are removed from a Seller Facility, Seller Parent, Seller or the Other Sellers, respectively, will and will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause Angel to, permit Purchaser and its authorized agents or representatives, upon prior notice, to have reasonable access to the Seller Facility to the extent necessary to disconnect, detach, remove, package and crate the Purchased Assets for transport. Purchaser shall be responsible for disconnecting and detaching all fixtures and equipment that are Purchased Assets from the floor, ceiling and walls of a Seller Facility so as to be freely removed from a Seller Facility by Purchaser. Purchaser shall be responsible for packaging and loading the Purchased Assets for transporting to and reinstalling the Purchased Assets at such location(s) as Purchaser shall determine. All risk of loss as to the Purchased Assets shall be borne by, and shall pass to, the Purchaser as of the Effective Time.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, but subject to the Intellectual Property License Agreement, the Other Sellers and Seller and its Subsidiaries shall have no obligation to prosecute any Patents or Trademarks included in the Transferred Business Intellectual Property after the Closing Date, even if such Patents or Trademarks are the subject of any pending litigation relating to such Patents or Trademarks, and their obligations with respect to transfer of all such Patents or Trademarks shall be limited to the delivery of complete files relating thereto upon the reasonable request of Purchaser from time to time and the delivery of Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights Assignments pursuant to Section 2.3(a).

2.4 Approvals and Consents.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, and subject to the provisions of Sections 2.5 and 2.6, to the extent that the sale, conveyance, transfer, assignment or delivery or attempted sale, conveyance, transfer, assignment or delivery to Purchaser of any Purchased Asset would result in a violation of any applicable Law, would require any Consent or waiver of any Governmental Authority or third party and such Consent or waiver shall not have been obtained prior to the Closing, this Agreement shall not constitute a sale, conveyance, transfer, assignment or delivery, or an attempted sale, conveyance, transfer, assignment or delivery thereof if any of the foregoing would constitute a breach of applicable Law, any Contract or the rights of any third party; provided, however, that, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions contained in Article VII, the Closing shall occur notwithstanding the foregoing without any adjustment to the Purchase Price on account of such required authorization. Following the Closing, the Parties shall use commercially reasonable efforts, and shall cooperate with each other, to obtain promptly such Consent or waiver; provided, further, however, that neither Party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall be required to pay any consideration therefor.

(b) Once such Consent or waiver is obtained, Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers shall, and shall cause their Subsidiaries to, or if applicable, use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause Angel to, sell, assign, transfer, convey and license such Purchased Asset and the Purchased Subsidiary Interests, as applicable, to Purchaser for no additional consideration. Applicable Transfer Taxes in connection with such sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance or license shall be paid in accordance with Section 6.14.

(c) To the extent that any Purchased Asset cannot be provided to Purchaser following the Closing pursuant to this Section 2.4, Purchaser and Seller Parent, Seller or any Other Seller, as applicable, shall or shall cause its Subsidiaries to, or shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause Angel to, use commercially reasonable efforts to, enter into such arrangements (including subleasing, sublicensing or subcontracting) to provide to the parties the economic (taking into account Tax costs and benefits) and, to the extent permitted under applicable Law, operational equivalent of obtaining such Consent or waiver and the performance by Purchaser of its obligations thereunder. To the extent permitted under applicable Law, Seller Parent, Seller or any Other Seller, as applicable, shall, or shall cause its Subsidiaries to, or shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause Angel to, hold in trust for and pay to Purchaser promptly upon receipt thereof, such Purchased Assets and all income, proceeds and other monies received by such party to the extent related to any such Purchased Asset in connection with the arrangements under this Section 2.4. Such party shall be permitted to set off against such amounts all direct costs associated with the retention and maintenance of such Purchased Assets. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such party shall have no obligation whatsoever to retain any portion of the Business, other than any individual asset or Contract (but only until such time as the transfer thereof may be effected in accordance with this Agreement), in order to obtain any such Consent or waiver referred to in this Section 2.4 or elsewhere in this Agreement. Nothing in this Section 2.4 applies (i) to any Consent or waiver required under any Antitrust Regulations, which Consents and waivers shall be governed by Section 6.3 or (ii) to Consents or releases with respect to the Subleased Real Property, such Consent and release to be obtained pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.6.

2.5 Novation and Assignment.

(a) Each Party shall, and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to, and Seller Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause Angel to, use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain or to cause to be obtained any Consent, substitution, or amendment required to novate (including with respect to any federal governmental contract) or assign all rights and obligations under Transferred Contracts and other obligations or liabilities of any nature whatsoever that constitute the Assumed Liabilities or to obtain in writing the unconditional release of all parties to such arrangements, so that, in any case, Purchaser will be solely responsible for such rights and Assumed Liabilities from and after the Closing Date, provided, however, that neither Party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall be obligated to pay any consideration therefor to any third party from whom such Consents, substitutions and amendments are requested.

(b) If either Party or any of its Subsidiaries is unable to obtain, or to cause to be obtained, any such required Consent, release, substitution or amendment, (i) Seller Parent, Seller or any Other Seller, as applicable, shall, or shall cause its Subsidiary to, or shall use reasonable commercial efforts to cause Angel to, continue to be bound by such Transferred Contracts and other obligations and, (ii) unless not permitted by the terms thereof or applicable Law, Purchaser shall, as agent or subcontractor for the Other Seller or Seller or Seller Parent or their Subsidiaries, as applicable, pay, perform and discharge fully, or cause to be paid, transferred or discharged all the obligations or other Liabilities such Party thereunder from and after the Closing Date (except to the extent expressly otherwise provided herein or in the other Transaction Documents). Such Party shall, without further consideration, pay and remit, or cause to be paid or remitted, to Purchaser promptly all money, rights and other consideration received by it in respect of such performance. If and when any such consent, approval, release, substitution or amendment shall be obtained or such agreement, lease, license or other rights or obligations shall otherwise become assignable or able to be novated, Seller Parent, Seller or any Other Seller, as applicable, shall, or shall cause its Subsidiaries to thereafter assign, or cause to be assigned, all its rights, obligations and other liabilities thereunder to Purchaser without receipt of further consideration and Purchaser shall, without the payment of any further consideration, assume such rights and obligations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Section 2.5 shall not apply to Consents or releases with respect to the Subleased Real Property, such Consents and releases to be obtained pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.6.

(c) To the extent reasonably required in order to perfect Purchaser's or its Affiliates' chain of title to the Transferred Business Intellectual Property as recorded at the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), or a corresponding office in a foreign country, upon Purchaser's reasonable request Seller Parent or Seller shall, and shall cause its applicable Affiliates to, use commercially reasonable efforts (but not including payment or the transfer of other consideration to any third party) to provide, obtain, or cause to be obtained, documents sufficient to evidence the chain of title conferring ownership of such Transferred Business Intellectual Property in Purchaser in a form suitable for recordation with the USPTO, or a corresponding office in a foreign country, and to provide said documents to the Purchaser for filing and recordation by it, or, in the sole discretion of the Seller, to record, or to cause to be recorded, said documents.

2.6 Consent for Sublease.

(a) As soon as reasonably practical prior to Closing, with respect to the Subleased Real Property: (a) Seller shall request Angel to use its reasonable efforts to obtain the consent of the Landlord to the Sublease agreed between Angel and Seller on terms acceptable to Purchaser, Angel and Seller (the "Landlord Consent"); (b) provided that such consent is obtained and provided the acquisition of the Business by Seller and the Other Sellers has been consummated, Seller and Angel shall execute and deliver the Sublease, (c) Seller shall request that Angel (x) consent, if necessary, and (y) request the Landlord's consent, to the change of control of the Subtenant under the Sublease or the assignment of the Sublease by Seller to Purchaser (the "Further Consent" and, together with the Landlord Consent, the "Sublease Consents").

(b) Seller shall, to the extent possible, use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the Sublease Consents, but shall not be required to commence judicial proceedings for a declaration that a required Sublease Consent has been unreasonably withheld or delayed, pay any consent fees or agree to any other change in the Lease or the Sublease, including without limitation providing any additional security or guaranty to the Landlord or Angel. The Sublease and the Sublease Consents shall be in a form reasonably acceptable to Purchaser.

(c) Purchaser shall cooperate with Seller in attempting to obtain the Sublease Consents, including without limitation: (a) providing financial statements and references as may be reasonably requested by the Landlord or Sublessor, (b) agreeing to any amendments to the Lease or the Sublease or both as may be reasonably requested by the Landlord or Angel; provided such amendments could not reasonably be expected to increase the liability of Purchaser as subtenant or decrease the Purchaser's rights as subtenant thereunder, (c) entering into a direct lease the Subleased Real Property with the Landlord, if reasonably requested by the Landlord and Angel, on terms that are not materially more adverse to Purchaser in comparison to those of the applicable existing Sublease and Lease or otherwise acceptable to Purchaser in its reasonable discretion, and (d) executing and delivering (and agreeing to execute and deliver) a guarantee by the ultimate parent of Purchaser (or other subsidiary of the ultimate parent) of the obligations under the Sublease.

(d) Purchaser shall not communicate directly with the Landlord without the prior written consent of Seller, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, that the parties acknowledge that such communication would require the consent of Angel, and Purchaser's decision not to request such consent of Angel, or Angel's failure to grant such consent, shall not be considered unreasonable withholding of consent.

2.7 Missing Consents.

Not less than three (3) Business Days prior to the Closing, Seller shall deliver a supplement to the Disclosure Letter, which supplement shall identify the Consents with respect to the Transferred Material Contracts or the Subleased Real Property that to Seller's knowledge have not been obtained and are subject to the provisions of Sections 2.4, 2.5 and 2.6 hereof; provided, that such supplement will have no effect on any representation or warranty or the exceptions thereto.

ARTICLE III

PURCHASE PRICE AND ADJUSTMENTS

3.1 Purchase Price.

The purchase price in respect of the purchase and sale transactions hereunder shall be (a) an amount in cash equal to Four Hundred Twenty Five Million Dollars and no cents ($425,000,000), and (b) the assumption of the Assumed Liabilities, which comprises the aggregate of the respective purchase prices to be paid for the Purchased Subsidiary Interests, the Purchased Assets and the covenant not to compete contained in Section 6.9 in each respective jurisdiction as provided in the Allocation Schedule.

3.2 Payment of Purchase Price.

(a) On the Closing Date, Purchaser shall pay to Seller (for its own account and as agent for any Other Seller unless otherwise provided in any Local Asset Transfer Agreement) an amount equal to (i) Four Hundred Twenty-Five Million Dollars and no cents ($425,000,000), (ii) plus or minus, as applicable, the difference between the Estimated Inventory (as defined in Section 3.2(b)) at the opening of business on the Closing Date (without giving effect to the Closing) and the Base Inventory, and (iii) minus, if applicable, the amount of any reduction in the Purchase Price pursuant to Schedule 3.2(a). Such amount provided for in the immediately preceding sentence shall be payable in United States dollars in immediately available federal funds to such bank account or accounts as shall be designated in writing by Seller no later than the second Business Day prior to the Closing.

(b) For purposes of this Agreement:

“Estimated Inventory.” shall be an amount based on Seller’s estimate of projected Final Inventory (as defined in Section 3.2(c)) as of the opening of business on the Closing Date (without giving any effect to the Closing or any step up or step down in value for financial reporting purposes as a result of the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Semiconductor Business Purchase Agreement) prepared on a basis consistent with past accounting practice of the Business as estimated in good faith by Seller and set forth in a certificate delivered by Seller to Purchaser, together with reasonable supporting documentation for the calculation thereof, not less than three (3) business days prior to the Closing Date, it being agreed that at the time of the delivery of such certificate and continuing thereafter Seller shall provide a reasonable opportunity for Purchaser to review such supporting documentation and discuss it in good faith with responsible representatives of Seller.

(c) Purchaser and Seller agree that to the extent that the Final Inventory exceeds the Estimated Inventory, Purchaser shall pay to Seller (on behalf of itself and as agent for any Other Seller) such excess (the “Inventory Excess Amount”), and to the extent that the Final Inventory is less than the Estimated Inventory, Seller (on behalf of itself and as agent for any Other Seller) shall pay to Purchaser such shortfall (the “Inventory Deficiency Amount”), in each case pursuant to the terms of this Section 3.2. For purposes of this Agreement, “Final Inventory.” shall mean Inventory as of the opening of business on the Closing Date (without giving any effect to the Closing or any step up or step down in value for financial reporting purposes as a result of the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Semiconductor Business Purchase Agreement) prepared on a basis consistent with past accounting practice of the Business as determined pursuant to this Section 3.2. As used herein, “Inventory.” means the all inventory of the Business as calculated and prepared in accordance with the past accounting practices of the Business.

(d) As promptly as practicable following the Closing, but in no event later than 45 days following the Closing Date, Seller shall: (i) prepare and deliver to Purchaser (A) a calculation of Final Inventory (the “Final Closing Statement of Inventory.”) and (B) a calculation of the Inventory Excess Amount or the Inventory Deficiency Amount, if any, and (ii) make available to Purchaser all relevant books and records relating to the Final Closing Statement of Inventory. Purchaser shall cooperate with Seller in the preparation of the Final Closing Statement of Inventory and the calculation of the Inventory Excess Amount or the Inventory

Deficiency Amount, if any, as the case may be. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Purchaser shall provide Seller and its representatives with reasonable access, during normal business hours, to the facilities, personnel and accounting records of the Business acquired by Purchaser, to the extent reasonably necessary to permit Seller to prepare the Final Closing Statement of Inventory.

(e) During the 15 day period following Purchaser's receipt of the Final Closing Statement of Inventory (the "Inventory Review Period"), Purchaser and its representatives, including its independent auditors, shall be afforded the opportunity to review the Final Closing Statement of Inventory and related supporting documentation.

(f) If Purchaser does not agree with the Final Closing Statement of Inventory, Purchaser shall deliver to Seller, prior to the expiration of the Inventory Review Period, a proposed adjustment notice ("Inventory Proposed Adjustment Notice") which shall contain, in reasonable detail, the alleged error and support for such belief and the adjustment thereof. If the Inventory Proposed Adjustment Notice is not delivered to Seller prior to the expiration of the Inventory Review Period, the Final Closing Statement of Inventory shall become final, binding and conclusive on all Parties.

(g) If an Inventory Proposed Adjustment Notice is delivered within the period set forth in Section 3.2(e), Purchaser and Seller shall negotiate in good faith to resolve such dispute for a 15-day period (the "Inventory Discussion Period"), commencing on the date Seller receives the Inventory Proposed Adjustment Notice, to resolve such dispute. If Purchaser and Seller cannot resolve such dispute within such 15-day period, Purchaser and Seller shall retain a mutually acceptable accounting firm to act as the arbitrator (the "Inventory Arbitrator") of such dispute. The Parties shall retain the Inventory Arbitrator no later than five (5) Business Days following the expiration of the Inventory Discussion Period. In the event of a failure to retain the Inventory Arbitrator during such time period, either Party, acting individually, shall have the right to retain the Inventory Arbitrator on behalf of both Parties. Any arbitration shall be conducted in San Mateo County, California, and such proceedings shall be in English. The Inventory Arbitrator shall act promptly to resolve any dispute in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, it being understood that the sole issues for the Inventory Arbitrator shall be whether the Final Closing Inventory Statement is correct. The Inventory Arbitrator shall issue its written decision as promptly as practicable and in any event within 30 days after the appointment of such Inventory Arbitrator, which decision shall be final, binding and conclusive on both Purchaser and Seller; provided that in no event shall any disputed item or amount be less in terms of Inventory than that provided in the Inventory Proposed Adjustment Notice. Purchaser and Seller shall cooperate with the Inventory Arbitrator in connection with this Section 3.2(g). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Purchaser and Seller shall each promptly provide, or cause to be provided, to the Inventory Arbitrator all information, and to make available at the arbitration proceeding all personnel, as are reasonably necessary to permit the Inventory Arbitrator to resolve any disputes pursuant to this 3.2(g). The expenses of the Inventory Arbitrator in resolving any disputes under this Section 3.2(g) shall be borne equally by Purchaser and Seller.

(h) If the Final Closing Statement of Inventory, as may be adjusted pursuant to this Section 3.2(h), results in a Inventory Deficiency Amount, then Seller shall pay to an account designated by Purchaser in immediately available funds an amount equal to the Inventory Deficiency Amount. If the Final Closing Statement of Inventory, as may be adjusted pursuant to Section 3.2(h), results in an Inventory Excess Amount, then Purchaser shall pay to an account designated by Seller in immediately available funds an amount equal to the Inventory Excess Amount. All payments under this Section 3.2(h) shall be made within five (5) Business Days of the Final Closing Statement of Inventory becoming final and binding in accordance with this Section 3.2(h). The payment of any amounts pursuant to this Section 3.2(h) shall not be subject to any set-offs, hold-backs, escrows or other reductions or restrictions.

3.3 Allocation of Purchase Price.

(a) Seller, the Other Sellers and Purchaser agree to allocate the Purchase Price (and all other capitalizable costs) among the Purchased Assets, the Purchased Subsidiary Interests, Transferred Business Intellectual Property (not held by the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries), the Transferred Intellectual Property Rights (not held by the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries) the covenant not to compete contained in Section 6.9, and the rights granted under the Intellectual Property License Agreement and the Trademark License Agreement for all purposes (including financial accounting and Tax purposes (except as otherwise required by generally accepted accounting principles)) in accordance with an allocation schedule (the “Allocation Schedule”) prepared jointly by Seller on behalf of itself and as agent to the Other Sellers and Purchaser. Seller and Purchaser agree to revise the Allocation Schedule to reflect any adjustment to the Purchase Price pursuant to Section 3.2(h). Seller and Purchaser agree to cooperate with each other in the preparation of, and to negotiate in good faith to resolve any dispute with respect to, the Allocation Schedule and revisions thereto; provided, however, that in the event that Seller and Purchaser cannot reach agreement with respect to the Allocation Schedule within thirty (30) days prior to the Closing Date or any revisions to the Allocation Schedule as a result of an adjustment to the Purchase Price pursuant to Section 3.2(h) with 10 days after payment is made pursuant to such section, an internationally recognized accounting firm mutually agreed upon by Purchaser and Seller shall prepare the Allocation Schedule. If an accounting firm prepares the initial Allocation Schedule or the revised Allocation Schedule in accordance with the previous sentence, such schedule shall be prepared prior to the Closing Date, in the case of the initial Allocation Schedule, or within 30 days after payment is made pursuant to Section 3.2(h), in the case of the revised Allocation Schedule. The costs related to having the accounting firm prepare the Allocation Schedule shall be borne equally by Purchaser and Seller.

(b) Purchaser, Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers shall be bound by such Allocation Schedule and shall file all Tax Returns and reports with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including, without limitation, all federal, state and local Tax Returns) on the basis of such allocation. In addition, Purchaser, Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers shall act in accordance with the Allocation Schedule in the course of any Tax audit, Tax review or Tax litigation relating thereto, and take no position and cause their affiliates to take no position inconsistent with the Allocation Schedule for income Tax purposes, including United States federal and state income Tax and foreign income Tax, unless otherwise required pursuant to a “determination” within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Code.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller Parent, the

Other Sellers and Seller shall have no obligation to disclose any information the disclosure of which is subject to a confidentiality obligation in favor of any third party; provided that Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller shall use their reasonable commercial efforts to obtain waivers under such agreements or implement requisite procedures to enable the provision of reasonable access to such information without violating such obligations. All requests for access to the offices, properties, books and records of the Business shall be made to such representatives of Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller as such party shall designate, who shall be solely responsible for coordinating all such requests and all access permitted hereunder. It is further agreed that neither Purchaser nor any of its Affiliates, agents or representatives shall contact any of the employees, customers (including dealers and distributors), suppliers, joint venture partners or other Subsidiaries or Affiliates of Angel, Seller Parent, the Other Sellers or Seller in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, whether in person or by telephone, electronic or other mail or other means of communication, without the specific prior authorization of such representatives of Seller Parent, the Other Sellers or Seller, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of Seller Parent, the Other Sellers or Seller shall be required to provide access to or disclose information where such access or disclosure would waive the attorney-client privilege of Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller or contravene any Law or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement. The relevant parties shall make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under the circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply.

(b) The Parties expressly acknowledge and agree that this Agreement and its terms and all information, whether written or oral, furnished by either Party to the other Party or any Affiliate of such other Party in connection with the negotiation of this Agreement or pursuant to Section 6.5 ("Confidential Information") shall be treated as "confidential information" under that certain Confidential Disclosure Agreement, as amended, between the Parties.

6.3 Necessary Efforts; No Inconsistent Action.

(a) Subject to Section 6.3(b) and the other terms and conditions of this Agreement, Seller Parent, the Other Sellers, Seller and Purchaser agree, and each of Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller agree to cause their Subsidiaries and to use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause Angel, to use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable Law to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents and to use its reasonable commercial efforts to cause the conditions to each Party's obligation to close the transactions contemplated hereby as set forth in Article VII to be satisfied, including all actions necessary to obtain (i) all licenses, certificates, permits, approvals, clearances, expirations, waivers or terminations of applicable waiting periods, authorizations, qualifications and orders (each a "Consent") of any Governmental Authority required for the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 7.1(b), and (ii) all other Consents (it being understood that the failure to obtain any such Consents contemplated by this clause (ii) shall not, by itself, cause the condition set forth in Section 7.3(a) to be deemed not to be satisfied and it being further understood that neither Party nor any of their respective Subsidiaries shall be required to expend any money other than for filing fees or expenses or de minimus costs or expenses or agree to any restrictions in order to obtain any Consents) necessary in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Transaction

Documents; provided, however, that in no event shall Seller or any of its Subsidiaries be required or expected to retain any of the Purchased Assets or any assets of the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries (including assets that would be Purchased Assets but for the inability to obtain a Consent). Each of Seller and Purchaser agree that each Party will be given prior notice of and a reasonable opportunity to consult with the other Party regarding contacts with Governmental Authorities regarding Antitrust Regulations or related matters. The Parties shall cooperate fully with each other to the extent necessary in connection with the foregoing.

(b) In connection with the efforts referenced in Section 6.3(a), Purchaser and the Seller Parties shall timely and promptly make all filings which may be required for the satisfaction of the condition set forth in Section 7.1(b) by each of them in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each of Seller and Purchaser shall file Notification and Report Forms under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the “HSR Act”), or any other similar filings under Antitrust Regulations in the United States, any state thereof, any foreign country or the European Union as promptly as practicable following the date of this Agreement and in any event no later than (i) fifteen (15) Business Days following the date of this Agreement, in the case of Notification and Report Forms under the HSR Act, and (ii) the time prescribed by applicable law in the case of requirements under other applicable Antitrust Regulations to the extent a time is prescribed and, if no time is prescribed, as promptly as reasonably practicable. In addition, Purchaser, Seller Parent and Seller agree, and each of Seller Parent and Seller shall cause its Subsidiaries, to cooperate and to use their reasonable best commercial efforts and take all actions necessary to: obtain any Consents from Governmental Authorities required for the Closing contemplated by Section 6.3(a)(i) above (including through compliance with the HSR Act and any applicable foreign governmental reports, applications or notifications required by the Antitrust Regulations), to respond as promptly as practicable to any requests for information from any Governmental Authority, and to avoid and/or overcome any action, including any legislative, administrative or judicial action, and to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any judgment, injunction or other order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) that restricts, prevents or prohibits, or could restrict, prevent or prohibit, the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall Seller or any of its Subsidiaries be required or expected to retain any of the Purchased Assets or any assets of the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries (including assets that would be Purchased Assets but for the inability to obtain a Consent) in order to comply with its obligations in respect of the foregoing; and provided, further, that in no event shall Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries be required to take any actions which would, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the Business following the Closing in order to comply with its obligations in respect of the foregoing. Each Party shall furnish to the other such necessary information and assistance as the other Party may reasonably request in connection with the preparation of any necessary filings or submissions by it to any Governmental Authority. Except as prohibited or restricted by Law or any Antitrust Regulations, each Party or its attorneys shall provide the other Party or its attorneys the opportunity to make copies of all correspondence, filings or communications (or memoranda setting forth the substance thereof) between such Party or its representatives, on the one hand, and any Governmental Authority, on the other hand, with respect to this Agreement, the Transaction Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby. Without in any way limiting the foregoing, the Parties will consult and cooperate with one another, and consider in good faith the views of one another, in connection with any analyses, appearances, presentations, memoranda, briefs, arguments, opinions and proposals made or submitted by or on behalf of any Party in connection with proceedings under or relating to the HSR Act or any other Antitrust Regulation.

(c) Each of Purchaser, Seller Parent and Seller shall notify and keep the other advised as to (i) any material communication from the Federal Trade Commission (the “FTC”), the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice (the “DOJ”) or any other Governmental Authority regarding any of the transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) any litigation or administrative proceeding pending and known to such Party, or to its knowledge threatened, which challenges, or would challenge, the transactions contemplated hereby and (iii) any event or circumstance which, to its knowledge, would constitute a breach of its respective representations and warranties in this Agreement or, with respect to Seller Parent, in the Semiconductor Business Purchase Agreement; provided, however, that the failure of Seller, Seller Parent or Purchaser to comply with this Section 6.3(c) shall not subject Seller, Seller Parent or Purchaser to any liability hereunder in respect of any claim asserted after the relevant expiration date for the relevant representation or warranty; and provided further, that Purchaser may not separately recover pursuant to Article IX or otherwise for both a breach of this Section 6.3(c) and any related breach of the relevant representation or warranty. Subject to the provisions of Article X hereof, Seller, Seller Parent, the Other Seller Parties and Purchaser shall not take any action inconsistent with their obligations under this Agreement or, without prejudice to Purchaser’s rights under this Agreement, which would materially hinder or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.4 Public Disclosures.

Unless otherwise required by Law or the rules and regulations of any stock exchange or quotation services on which such Party’s stock is traded or quoted, prior to the Closing Date, no news release or other public announcement pertaining to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will be made by or on behalf of any Party or its Affiliates without the prior written approval of the other Party (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). If in the judgment of either Party such a news release or public announcement is required by Law or the rules or regulations of any stock exchange on which such Party’s stock is traded, the Party intending to make such release or announcement shall to the extent practicable use reasonable commercial efforts to provide prior written notice to the other Party of the contents of such release or announcement and to allow the other Party reasonable time to comment on such release or announcement in advance of such issuance.

6.5 Access to Records and Personnel.

(a) Exchange of Information. After the execution of this Agreement, to the extent permissible under applicable Law, Seller and Seller Parent agree to provide, or cause to be provided, to Purchaser, as soon as reasonably practicable after written request therefor and at Purchaser’s sole expense, (x) reasonable access (including using reasonable commercial efforts to give access to third parties possessing information), during normal business hours, to Seller’s and Seller Parent’s employees and (y) such information that Purchaser reasonably needs to comply with its obligations under Section 6.6(a)(ii) of this Agreement. After the Closing, each Party agrees to provide, or cause to be provided, to each other, as soon as reasonably practicable after written request therefor and at the requesting Party's sole expense, reasonable access (including using reasonable commercial efforts to give access to third parties possessing information), during normal business hours, to the other Party's employees and to any books, records, documents, files and correspondence in the possession or under the control of the other Party that the requesting Party reasonably needs (i) to comply with reporting, disclosure, filing or other requirements imposed on the requesting Party (including under applicable securities Laws) by a Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over the requesting Party, (ii) for use in any other judicial, regulatory, administrative or other proceeding or in order to satisfy Tax, audit, accounting, claims, regulatory, litigation or other similar requirements or (iii) to comply with its obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that no Party shall be required to provide access to or disclose information where such access or disclosure would violate any Law or agreement, or waive any attorney-client or other similar privilege, and each Party may redact information regarding itself or its Subsidiaries or otherwise not relating to the other Party and its Subsidiaries, and, in the event such provision of information could reasonably be expected to violate any Law or agreement or waive any attorney-client or other similar privilege, the Parties shall take all reasonable measures to permit the compliance with such obligations in a manner that avoids any such harm or consequence.

(b) Financial and Other Information. After the Closing, each Party shall provide, or cause to be provided, as soon as reasonably practicable after written request therefor, to the other Party such financial and other data and information reasonably available and in its possession (in such form as is reasonably available to it) as is reasonably requested by the other Party and reasonably necessary in order for such other Party to prepare required financial statements and reports or filings, including Tax Returns, to be provided to any third party or filed with any Governmental Authority; provided that the out-of-pocket cost to prepare any financial statements after the Closing except those specifically provided for in Section 6.16 shall be borne solely by Purchaser.

(c) Ownership of Information. Any information owned by a party that is provided to a requesting party pursuant to this Section 6.5 shall be deemed to remain the property of the providing party. Unless specifically set forth herein, nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as granting or conferring rights of license or otherwise in any such information.

(d) Record Retention. Except as otherwise provided herein, each Party agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts to retain the books, records, documents, instruments, accounts, correspondence, writings, evidences of title and other papers relating to the Business, the Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property and the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights and the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries (the "Books and Records") in their respective possession or control for a commercially reasonable period of time, as set forth in their regular document retention policies, following the Closing Date or for such longer period as may be required by Law or as may be reasonably requested in writing by any Party, or until the expiration of the relevant representation or warranty under any of the Transaction Documents and any related claim of indemnification related thereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Party may destroy or otherwise dispose of any Books and Records not in accordance with its retention policy, provided that, prior to such destruction or disposal (i) such Party shall provide no less than 90 nor more than 120 days' prior written notice to the other Party of any such proposed destruction or disposal (which notice shall specify in detail which of the Books and Records is proposed to be so destroyed or disposed of), and (ii) if a recipient of such notice shall request in writing prior to the scheduled date for such destruction or disposal that any of the information proposed to be destroyed or disposed of be delivered to such recipient, such Party proposing the destruction or disposal shall, as promptly as practicable, arrange for the delivery of such of the Books and Records as was requested by the recipient (it being understood that all reasonable out of pocket costs associated with the delivery of the requested Books and Records shall be paid by such recipient).

(e) Limitation of Liability. No Party shall have any liability to any other Party in the event that any information exchanged or provided pursuant to this Section 6.5 is found to be inaccurate. No Party shall have any liability to any other Party if any information is destroyed or lost after reasonable commercial efforts by such Party to comply with the provisions of Section 6.5(d).

(f) Other Agreements Providing For Exchange of Information. The rights and obligations granted under this Section 6.5 are subject to any specific limitations, qualifications or additional provisions on the sharing, exchange or confidential treatment of information set forth in this Agreement.

(g) Production of Witnesses; Records; Cooperation. In the case of a legal or other proceeding between one Party and a third party relating to the Business, Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights, the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries, Licensed Business Intellectual Property Rights, Licensed Business Technology, Assumed Liabilities, Excluded Liabilities, this Agreement (including any matters subject to indemnification hereunder) or the transactions contemplated hereby, or any other Transaction Documents, each Party shall use its reasonable commercial efforts to make available to the other Party (and Seller Parties shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause Angel to make available to Purchaser), upon written request, the former (to the extent practicable), current (to the extent practicable) and future officers, employees, other personnel and agents of such Party (or Angel) as witnesses and any books, records or other documents within its control or which it otherwise has the ability to make available (other than materials covered by the attorney-client privilege), to the extent that any such Person (giving consideration to business demands of such directors, officers, employees, other personnel and agents) or books, records or other documents may reasonably be required in connection with any legal, administrative or other proceeding in which the requesting Party may from time to time be involved, regardless of whether such legal, administrative or other proceeding is a matter with respect to which indemnification may be sought hereunder. The requesting Party shall bear all out-of-pocket costs and expenses in connection with the foregoing. The foregoing shall not limit any of rights of the Parties in respect of the foregoing under Section 9.4.

(h) Confidential Information. Nothing in this Section 6.5 shall require either Party to violate any agreement with any third parties regarding the confidentiality of confidential and proprietary information; provided, however, that in the event that either Party is required under this Section 6.5 to disclose any such information, that Party shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to seek to obtain such third party's consent to the disclosure of such information and implement requisite procedures to enable the disclosure of such information.

6.6 Employee Relations and Benefits.

(a) The Parties intend that there shall be continuity of employment with respect to all Business Employees as follows:

(i) Automatic Transferred Employees shall not be terminated upon Closing and the rights, powers, duties, liabilities and obligations of Seller (or the relevant Subsidiary of Seller) to the employees in respect of the material terms of employment with the employees in force immediately before Closing shall be transferred to Purchaser in accordance with local employment Laws.

(ii) For non-Automatic Transferred Employees, Purchaser shall offer employment to each Business Employee effective on the Closing Date, each such offer to be at the same general location and substantially the same terms and conditions of employment, including (A) the same or superior base salary or base wage rate, (B) substantially the same position, and (C) cash bonus and other non-equity based incentive compensation opportunities substantially similar in the aggregate as those provided to such employees by Seller or its Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Closing Date (unless otherwise required by local Law, in which case such offer shall comply with local law) (the "Current Employment Terms"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, all offers pursuant to this Section 6.6(a)(ii) to employees in jurisdictions outside the United States will be on such terms as are necessary to avoid giving rise to any severance or similar Liabilities of Seller and its Subsidiaries as a result of any requirements of applicable local Law.

(iii) Seller Parent shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to (and shall not encourage or assist its Affiliates to), engage in any activity intended to discourage any Business Employee from accepting an offer of employment from Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries, and Seller Parent shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to (and shall not encourage or assist its Affiliates to), offer employment with any business of Seller Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates (other than the Business) after the date hereof and prior to the Closing Date (other than Business Employees who have applied for a position with Seller Parent or one of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates outside the Business prior to the date hereof; provided, however, that Seller Parent and its Subsidiaries shall be permitted to take any action they are legally required to take in order to comply with local employment Laws.

(iv) Those employees who are transferred to Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries in accordance with clause (i) above and those who accept the offer of employment from Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries in accordance with clause (ii) above and, in each case, who commence employment with Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries shall be referred to herein as "Transferred Employees." For purposes hereof, "commence employment" shall mean the Closing Date.

(v) Except as set forth in Section 6.6(a)(v) of the Disclosure Letter, starting on the Closing Date and ending on the date one (1) year after the Closing Date or any longer period as required under local employment Laws, each Transferred Employee who remains employed by Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries shall be employed by Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries on terms no less favorable than the Current Employment Terms and participate in employee benefit plans, agreements, programs, policies and arrangements of Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries (the “Purchaser Plans”) that are substantially similar in the aggregate to the employee benefit plans, programs, policies and arrangements in effect immediately prior to the Closing Date with respect to such Transferred Employee and not inconsistent with the Current Employment Terms, and shall be offered any other additional terms and conditions of employment by Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries required by local employment Laws; provided, however, that nothing herein shall obligate Purchaser or one of its Subsidiaries to provide the Transferred Employees with any defined benefit pension plans; and provided, further, that Purchaser shall provide U.S. Transferred Employees with the retiree medical benefits accounts described in Section 6.6(a)(v) of the Disclosure Letter.

(vi) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, starting on the Closing Date, Purchaser shall, for a period ending on the date one (1) year after the Closing Date, maintain a severance pay practice for the benefit of each Transferred Employee that is no less favorable than the severance pay practice provided in Section 6.6(a)(vi) of the Disclosure Letter. Purchaser shall assume and shall indemnify Seller and its Subsidiaries against all liabilities and obligations to provide any severance or similar payments to (A) any Automatic Transferred Employees, (B) any Non-U.S. Employees who are entitled to severance or similar payments under applicable local Laws due to Purchaser’s noncompliance with Sections 6.6 or 6.7, and (C) except as otherwise provided in Section 6.6(k) or with respect to any payments under a Seller Plan, any Transferred Employee whose employment is terminated by Purchaser or its Subsidiaries following the Closing Date.

(b) Seller shall retain responsibility for and continue to pay all medical, life insurance, disability and other welfare plan expenses and benefits for each Transferred Employee with respect to claims incurred by such Transferred Employees or their covered dependents prior to the Closing Date. Expenses and benefits with respect to claims incurred by Transferred Employees or their covered dependents on or after the Closing Date shall be the responsibility of Purchaser. For purposes of this paragraph, a claim is deemed incurred: in the case of medical or dental benefits, when the services that are the subject of the claim are performed; in the case of life insurance, when the death occurs; in the case of long-term disability benefits, when the disability occurs; in the case of workers compensation benefits, when the event giving rise to the benefits occurs; and otherwise, at the time the Transferred Employee or covered dependent becomes entitled to payment of a benefit (assuming that all procedural requirements are satisfied and claims applications properly and timely completed and submitted).

(c) With respect to any plan that is a “welfare benefit plan” (as defined in Section 3(1) of ERISA), or any plan that would be a “welfare benefit plan” (as defined in Section 3(1) of ERISA) if it were subject to ERISA, maintained by Purchaser, Purchaser shall (i) cause there to be waived any pre-existing condition and waiting periods and (ii) give effect, in determining any deductible and maximum out-of-pocket limitations, to claims incurred and amounts paid by, and amounts reimbursed to, such employees during the plan year of the applicable plan sponsored by Seller or one of its Subsidiaries during which the Closing occurs with respect to similar plans maintained by Seller and its Affiliates immediately prior to the Closing Date.

(d) Transferred Employees shall be given credit for all service with Seller, any of its Subsidiaries, and any predecessor employer for which Seller credited service, including without limitation, Angel, Hewlett Packard or their Subsidiaries, to the same extent as such service was credited for such purpose by Seller, under each Purchaser Plan in which such Transferred Employees are eligible to participate for purposes of eligibility, vesting and benefits accrual (other than under any equity or quasi-equity compensation plan or under a defined benefit pension plan either (A) in which no assets are transferred or for which no other compensation, including an adjustment to the Purchase Price, is received by Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement or (B) which would result in the duplication of benefits accrual for the same period of service).

(e) Except as required by applicable Law or as may be agreed to by Seller and Purchaser, as of the Closing Date the Transferred Employees shall cease to accrue further benefits under the employee benefit plans and arrangements maintained by Seller and its Subsidiaries and shall commence participation in the Purchaser Plans. Seller and Seller Parent shall take all necessary actions to fully vest the Transferred Employees in their account balances under the Seller 401(k) plan or Seller Retirement Plan and allow such Transferred Employees to rollover any associated loan notes to the extent permitted under the Seller 401(k) plan. Purchaser shall take all steps necessary to permit each such Transferred Employee who has received an eligible rollover distribution (as defined in Section 402(c)(4) of the Code) from the Seller 401(k) Plan and the Seller Retirement Plan, if any, to roll such eligible rollover distribution, including any associated loans, as part of any lump sum distribution to the extent permitted by the Seller 401(k) Plan and the Seller Retirement Plan into an account under a 401(k) plan maintained by Purchaser (the "Purchaser's 401(k) Plan"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller and Purchaser may mutually agree following the date hereof, but prior to the Closing Date, to provide for a trust to trust transfer of the account balances of Transferred Employees under the Seller 401(k) Plan to the Purchaser's 401(k) Plan.

(f) Promptly after the Closing, Seller shall transfer and Purchaser shall accept the flexible spending account elections and accounts (maintained pursuant to Code Sections 105 and 129) of the Transferred Employees under Seller's Section 125 plan flexible spending arrangement. Promptly after the Closing, Seller and Seller Parent shall cause to be transferred to Purchaser the aggregate net cash amount (determined immediately prior to the Closing) for contributions paid (but not yet reimbursed or subject to a pending claim for reimbursement) by or on behalf of the Transferred Employees under Seller's Section 125 plan flexible spending arrangement.

(g) With respect to any accrued but unused vacation time (including flexible time off and sick pay) as of the Closing Date to which any Transferred Employee is entitled pursuant to the vacation policy immediately prior to the Closing Date (the "Vacation Policy"), to the extent permitted by law, Purchaser shall assume the liability for such accrued but unused vacation time and allow such Transferred Employee to use such accrued vacation; provided, however, that Purchaser shall be liable for and pay in cash an amount equal to such accrued but unused vacation time to any Transferred Employee whose employment terminates for any reason subsequent to the Closing Date and Purchaser shall indemnify Seller for an amount equal to such accrued but unused vacation time paid by Seller to any Transferred Employee who is entitled to an accrued but unused vacation time payout on termination under local Law and who elects not to transfer such accrued but unused vacation time from Seller Parent or in connection with such Transferred Employee's termination of employment with Angel; provided that such vacation time is included in the accrual for FTO which should be recorded on a balance sheet of the Business as of the Closing Date calculated in accordance with past accounting practices.

(h) Purchaser or its Affiliates pay or otherwise make arrangements for the payment of each of the obligations described in Section 6.6(h) of the Disclosure Letter.

(i) Seller shall retain full responsibility for compliance with those provisions of the Worker's Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act of 1988, as amended ("WARN Act") or any comparable provision of state or local law that are binding upon Seller under any such law and shall indemnify Purchaser for any Liabilities and Losses related thereto.

(j) Purchaser shall indemnify and hold harmless Seller and its Subsidiaries with respect to any liability under COBRA or similar applicable Laws in the United States arising from the actions (or inactions) of Purchaser or its Subsidiaries after the Closing Date. Seller shall retain all liabilities, including with respect to any "qualifying event," (as defined under COBRA) and liabilities under similar applicable Laws incurred on or prior to the Closing Date or arising as a result of the transactions described herein.

(k) Purchaser shall have no liabilities associated with any retention or severance plans entered into by Seller or its Subsidiaries with regard to any Designated Employee. "Designated Employees" are Business Employees who have been chosen by Seller Parent, Seller and/or its Subsidiaries for retention or dismissal under any current retention or severance plan of Seller prior to the Closing Date, but either whose period of retention has not been completed prior to the Closing Date or whose dismissal has not been carried out prior to the Closing Date; provided, however, that Designated Employees shall not include any employee chosen by Seller, after consultation with Purchaser, as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Seller Parent's and Seller's liability with regard to Designated Employees is subject to the rules of the retention and severance plans of Seller as in force prior to or on the Closing Date.

(l) The Parties acknowledge and agree that all provisions contained in this Section 6.6 with respect to employees are included for the sole benefit of the respective Parties and shall not create any right (i) in any other Person, including, without limitation, any employees, former employees, any participant in any Seller Plan or Angel Plan or any beneficiary thereof or (ii) to continued employment with Seller or Purchaser.

6.7 Non-U.S. Employees.

In addition to Section 6.6 as applicable to Non-U.S. Employees, this Section 6.7 applies only to Non-U.S. Employees and certain former non-U.S. Employees ("Non-U.S. Former Employees").

(a) This Section 6.7 and Section 6.7(a) of the Disclosure Letter shall contain covenants and agreements of the Parties on and as of the Closing Date with respect to:

(i) the Non-U.S. Employees; and

(ii) Non-U.S. Benefit Plans listed in Section 6.7(a)(ii) of the Disclosure Letter, which shall be provided to Purchaser within thirty (30) days following the date of this Agreement, provided or covering such Non-U.S. Employees and Non-U.S. Former Employees.

(b) Seller Parent, Seller and Purchaser and their respective Subsidiaries shall comply with all obligations either under the Transfer Regulations or other applicable Laws to notify and/or consult with Non-U.S. Employees or employee representatives, unions, works councils or other employee representative bodies, if any, and shall provide such information to the other Party as is required by that Party to comply with its notification and/or consultation obligations. Seller Parent, Seller and Purchaser shall indemnify each other against all Losses resulting from any failure of the other to notify and/or consult or to provide such information in a timely manner.

(c) Seller and its Subsidiaries will not, without Purchaser's consent, make any material changes to the working conditions of the Non-U.S. Employees that have not either been announced or agreed to under a collectively bargained agreement between the signing of this Agreement and the Closing Date.

(d) Seller shall provide Purchaser with a supplemental schedule of collective bargaining agreements in those countries that are not covered by Section 4.14 of the Disclosure Letter no later than 30 days prior to the Closing Date.

(e) The Parties acknowledge and agree that all provisions contained in this Section 6.7 with respect to employees are included for the sole benefit of the respective Parties and shall not create any right (i) in any other Person, including, without limitation, any employees, former employees, any participant in any Seller Plan or any beneficiary thereof or (ii) to continued employment with Seller or Purchaser.

(f) Seller Parent, Seller and Purchaser agree that to the extent the transactions contemplated by this Agreement would result in an acceleration of maturity of amounts payable under obligations described in Section 6.7(f) of the Disclosure Letter (the "Section 6.7(f) Obligations"), unless otherwise required by Law, Seller Parent, Seller and their Subsidiaries and Purchaser will waive any such acceleration and to the extent necessary will amend or modify such Section 6.7(f) Obligations to provide for such Section 6.7(f) Obligations when held by Purchaser after the Closing to mature on the same terms as would have applied to such Section 6.7(f) Obligations if the transactions contemplated hereby did not occur.

6.8 Other Arrangements.

(a) At the Closing, Seller or an Affiliate of Seller and Purchaser shall execute and deliver a transition services agreement (the "Master Separation Agreement") in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit D.

(b) At the Closing, Purchaser and Seller or an Affiliate of Seller shall execute and deliver a supply agreement in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit E for the production and supply of certain Storage Products at an Affiliate of Seller's Fort Collins manufacturing facility (the "Fort Collins Supply Agreement").

(c) [Intentionally blank].

(d) At the Closing, Purchaser and Seller shall execute and deliver a trademark license agreement with Angel in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit G (the “Trademark License Agreement”) with respect to the licensing of certain Angel trademarks on inventory.

(e) The Seller Parties shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause Angel to execute and deliver the Angel Intellectual Property License Agreement within sixty (60) days following the Closing Date.

(f) Prior to the Closing, the Seller Parties will identify which Purchased Assets will not be owned by the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries and which Subsidiary of Seller Parties owns such Purchased Assets. The Seller Parties will cause each of its Subsidiaries to execute a Joinder to this Agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit L (the “Joinder”).

6.9 Non-Competition.

(a) In order that Purchaser may have and enjoy the full benefit of the Business, the Other Sellers and Seller agree that for a period of three (3) years commencing on the Closing Date, Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller will not, and will cause their Subsidiaries not to, without the express written approval of Purchaser, engage, directly or indirectly, in a Competing Business or acquire more than fifteen percent (15%) of the outstanding equity interest in any Business Competitor, in each case other than the Retained Business. Seller agrees, upon the reasonable request of Purchaser, to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause its Affiliates to enforce their rights for the benefit of Purchaser under the non-competition provisions of the Asset Purchase Agreement between Angel and an Affiliate of Seller, dated as of August 14, 2005, as amended (the “Semiconductor Business Purchase Agreement”); provided that all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement of such rights shall be borne exclusively by Purchaser. For purposes of this Section 6.9: (i) “Competing Business” shall mean developing, manufacturing, selling or servicing any of the Storage Products for or to third parties and (ii) “Business Competitor” shall mean any Person that derived more than 40% of its consolidated gross revenues from Competing Businesses during the four fiscal quarters prior to the Seller Parent, Other Sellers, Seller or any of their Subsidiaries’ entering into an agreement providing for the investment in or acquisition of such Person, for which financial statements are available. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of the Seller Parent, Other Sellers, Seller or any of their Subsidiaries shall be precluded from: (a) engaging in those businesses that are engaged in as of the date of the Closing through the Retained Business, and reasonably expected or foreseeable extensions of those businesses and the products manufactured or sold, and the services developed or provided in connection therewith; (b) acquiring, merging with or consolidating with an entity which, at the time of the parties’ agreement to enter into such transaction is not a Business Competitor and extensions of any business of such entity or its Subsidiaries; (c) being acquired by means of any business combination (including an asset purchase, merger or consolidation) by any Person; (d) engaging in any merger, consolidation or any other business combination with any Person not subject to clause (c) if the stockholders of the Seller Parent, Other Sellers or Seller immediately prior to consummation of such transaction will own 50% or less of the outstanding common stock of the resulting or surviving entity (or the parent thereof); (e) the development, manufacture, supply, distribution, sale, support and maintenance of Storage Products as a component of a product sold by, or incidental to, a Retained Business, a reasonably expected or foreseeable extension of a Retained Business, or any other business of the Other Sellers, Seller or their Subsidiaries that is not itself a violation of Section 6.9; or (f) engaging in any Competing Business engaged in by the Other Sellers, Seller or their Subsidiaries as a result of any transaction contemplated by clause (b) or (d) and any extensions of such Competing Business. Following any acquisition as described in the foregoing clause (c), the provisions of this Section 6.9 shall continue to apply solely to Seller Parent, Seller and their Subsidiaries, and not to any other Affiliates of Seller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Section 6.9 shall not restrict the Seller Parent, Other Sellers and Seller or any of their Subsidiaries from acquiring and operating any Business Competitor so long as (i) the Seller Parent, Other Sellers, Seller or such Subsidiary divests all or a portion of the Competing Business conducted by such Business Competitor within one year of such transaction such that an acquisition by the Seller Parent, Other Sellers, Seller or such Subsidiary of the retained portion of the Competing Business would be permissible under the terms of the foregoing clause (b); and (ii) while owned, the Seller Parent, Other Sellers and Seller and their Subsidiaries do not provide such Business Competitor with any Licensed Business Technology or Licensed Business Intellectual Property Rights held by the Other Sellers, Seller or their Subsidiaries prior to the date of such acquisition.

(b) If Seller Parent, Seller, or Other Seller or any of their Subsidiaries is acquired by a Competing Business, or transfers or sells any or all of the Retained Businesses to a third party, including an Affiliate (such as acquiring or third party buyer, the “Successor”) during the three-year term commencing on the Closing Date, then Seller Parent, Seller or Other Seller or any of their Subsidiaries will not grant the Successor a Patent license to make, have made, import, offer to sell or sell Storage Products for the remainder of the three-year non-competition period and will only transfer Licensed Business Patents to a Successor subject to the license granted under the Intellectual Property License Agreement and subject to a contractual restriction preventing the Successor from exercising its rights under the transferred Licensed Business Patents for the remainder of the three-year non-competition period.

(c) During the three-year non-competition term, Seller Parent, Seller, the Other Sellers and their Subsidiaries will not grant any license to make, have made, import, offer to sell or sell Storage Products nor will Seller Parent, Seller, the Other Sellers or their Subsidiaries provide the Licensed Business Technology to any third party during such three-year non-competition period; provided that the foregoing shall not apply to licenses or disclosures that are incidental to the development or the sale of products and services of the Retained Business or are specifically included in the definition of Retained Business.

6.10 Non-Solicitation.

Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller agree that for a period of two (2) years from and after the Closing Date it shall not, and it shall cause each of their Subsidiaries not to (and shall not encourage or assist any of its Affiliates to), without the prior written consent of Purchaser, directly or indirectly, solicit to hire (or cause or seek to cause to leave the employ of Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries) (i) any Transferred Employee or (ii) any other Person employed by Purchaser who became known to or was identified to the Seller Parent, Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates prior to the Closing in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, unless in each case such Person ceased to be an employee of Purchaser or its Subsidiaries prior to such action by the Seller Parent, Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates, or, in the case of such Person's voluntary termination of employment with Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries, at least three (3) months prior to such action by the Seller Parent, Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates. Seller Parent agrees, upon the reasonable request of Purchaser, to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause its Affiliates to enforce their rights for the benefit of Purchaser under the non-solicitation provisions of the Semiconductor Business Purchase Agreement; provided that all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement of such rights shall be borne exclusively by Seller Parent.

(a) Purchaser agrees that for a period of two (2) years from and after the Closing Date it shall not, and it shall cause its Subsidiaries not to (and shall not encourage or assist any of its Affiliates to), without the prior written consent of Seller, directly or indirectly, solicit to hire (or cause or seek to cause to leave the employ of the Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates) any Person that it or they know to be employed by the Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates as of the Closing Date unless such Person ceased to be an employee of the Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates prior to such action by Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries, or, in the case of such Person's voluntary termination of employment with the Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates, at least three (3) months prior to such action by Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the restrictions set forth in Sections 6.10 and 6.10(a) shall not apply to (i) bona fide public advertisements for employment placed by any Party and not specifically targeted at the employees of any other Party, or (ii) any employee who is not a manager or an individual contributor who is engaged in the design of Storage Products or processes. Section 6.10 shall not apply to any Person who is hired by the Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates (A) pursuant to any existing agreement with employee representatives (such as a works council agreement) by which the Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates is bound or (B) as a result of actions required to be taken by the Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates in order to comply with local employment Laws.

6.11 Intellectual Property License Agreement.

At the Closing, General IP and Purchaser shall execute and deliver a license agreement (the "Intellectual Property License Agreement") in the form of the agreement attached hereto as Exhibit G.

6.12 Assignment of Exclusive Intellectual Property.

Following the closing of the acquisition of the Business by Seller Parent, Seller Parent shall cause Seller Parent or its Subsidiaries to assign and transfer to either IPC or one or more Seller Parties all of the Transferred Business Intellectual Property and Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights used exclusively in the Business that is consistent in form with the documentation Seller Parent obtains from Angel upon acquisition of the Business. Seller Parent shall execute and deliver to Purchaser an assignment agreement with IPC and/or one or more Seller Parties.

6.13 Insurance Matters.

Purchaser acknowledges that the policies and insurance coverage that will be maintained on behalf of the Business are part of the corporate insurance program maintained by Seller (the “Seller Corporate Policies”), and such coverage will not be available or transferred to Purchaser (except with respect to Assumed Liabilities for which claims have been made by Seller Parent, Seller, the Other Sellers or any of their respective Subsidiaries against third party insurers under such policies on or prior to the Closing Date, subject to Purchaser’s paying any applicable deductible with respect to such claim). In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, Purchaser agrees not to bring any claim for recovery under any of the Seller Corporate Policies, whether or not Purchaser may be so entitled in accordance with the terms of such Seller Corporate Policies.

6.14 Tax Matters.

(a) Transfer Taxes.

(i) For purposes of this Agreement, the term “Transfer Taxes” shall mean all transfer, filing, recordation, ad valorem, value added, bulk sales, stamp duties, excise, GST, license or similar fees or taxes. The liability for Transfer Taxes attributable to the transactions occurring pursuant to this Agreement shall be borne one-half by Purchaser and one-half by Seller; provided, however, that Purchaser shall diligently pursue the recovery of any recoverable Transfer Taxes, and if Purchaser actually receives any recoverable Transfer Taxes, Purchaser shall promptly, but in no case later than twenty (20) days after such recovery, pay to Seller an amount equal to one-half of such recovered Transfer Taxes. Seller and Purchaser shall cooperate with each other in the provision of any information or preparation of any documentation that may be necessary or useful for obtaining any available mitigation, reduction or exemption from any Transfer Taxes. For the avoidance of doubt, Purchaser shall have no Liability of any kind and shall be indemnified against Transfer Taxes arising out of or attributable to the acquisition of the Business from Angel or the transfer of any assets (including the Transferred Business Intellectual Property and the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights) to the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries.

(ii) Unless the Parties mutually agree otherwise, any Tax Returns that must be filed in connection with any Transfer Taxes shall be prepared by the Party that bears the responsibility for such Transfer Taxes, as required by applicable Law. For any Tax Return required by law to be filed by a Party (the “Filing Party”) other than the Party that is responsible for preparing such Tax Return pursuant to this Section 6.14 (the “Preparing Party”), the Filing Party shall pay the Transfer Taxes shown on such Tax Return and shall collect the Preparing Party’s applicable share of the Transfer Tax from Preparing Party determined in accordance with Section 6.14(a)(i) hereof. The Preparing Party shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to provide to the Filing Party any Tax Returns which it is required to file at least ten days before such Tax Returns are due to be filed. The Preparing Party shall make such changes to the applicable Tax Return as reasonably requested by the Filing Party. Such Tax Returns shall be consistent with the allocation of the Purchase Price as determined pursuant to Section 3.4.

(b) Other Tax Returns and Payment of Taxes.

(i) Except as provided in Section 6.14(a), Seller and the Other Sellers, respectively, shall be liable for and shall remit when due or cause to be remitted when due any amount of Taxes owed by or attributable to the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries, the Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property or the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights for any taxable period ending on or before the Closing Date. Seller or the Other Sellers shall duly file or cause to be duly filed any Tax Return required to be filed in respect of any Tax which it is required to pay pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence. Such Tax Returns shall be subject to the review and approval of Purchaser, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(ii) Purchaser shall be liable for and shall remit when due or cause to be remitted when due any amount of Taxes due in connection with the Purchased Assets and the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries for any taxable period beginning after the Closing Date. Purchaser shall duly file or cause to be duly filed any Tax Return required to be filed in respect of any Tax which it is required to pay pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence.

(iii) Purchaser shall prepare or cause to be prepared and file or cause to be filed any Tax Returns with respect to the Purchased Assets and the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries for taxable periods that begin before the Closing Date and end after the Closing Date (a "Straddle Period"). Seller or the applicable Other Seller, as applicable, shall pay to Purchaser within five days after the date on which Taxes are paid with respect to a Straddle Period an amount equal to the portion of such Taxes which relates to the portion of such Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date. For purposes of this Section 6.14(b)(iii), in the case of any Taxes that are imposed on a periodic basis and are payable for a Straddle Period, the portion of such Tax that relates to the portion of such taxable period ending on the Closing Date shall (x) in the case of any Taxes other than Taxes based upon or related to income or receipts, be deemed to be the amount of such Tax for the entire taxable period multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of days in the taxable period ending on and including the Closing Date and the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire taxable period, and (y) in the case of any Tax based upon or related to income or receipts be deemed to be equal to the amount which would be payable if the relevant taxable period ended on and included the Closing Date. Any credits relating to a Straddle Period shall be taken into account as though the relevant taxable period ended on the Closing Date.

(iv) If, after the Closing, Purchaser or any of its Affiliates receives any refund that relates to a Pre-Closing Tax Period of the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries or that is an Excluded Asset or utilizes the benefit of any overpayment or prepayment of Taxes of a Purchased Seller Subsidiary that relates to a Pre-Closing Tax Period or that otherwise are Excluded Assets, Purchaser shall, or shall cause such Affiliate to, promptly remit or cause to be remitted to Seller or the applicable Other Seller, as the case may be, the entire amount of the refund or overpayment (including any interest paid by the Governmental Authority paying the refund or the overpayment, but net of any Taxes that may be due on such refund or interest amount after giving effect to any deductions in respect of the payment of such amounts to Seller or the applicable Other Subsidiary, as applicable) received or utilized by Purchaser or such Affiliate. If any such refund or benefit is subsequently reduced as a result of an adjustment required by any Governmental Authority, this Section 6.14(c) shall take such adjusted refund or benefit into account. If Purchaser or any of its Affiliates pays any amount to Seller or an Other Seller pursuant to this Section 6.14(c) prior to such adjustment, Seller or the applicable Other Seller shall repay the difference between the amount paid and the adjusted amount of the refund or benefit, as the case may be, to Purchaser, if the adjusted amount is less than the amount paid by Purchaser or such Affiliate to Seller or an Other Seller pursuant to this Section 6.14(c), and Purchaser shall pay the difference between the adjusted amount of the refund or benefit and the amount paid by Purchaser or such Affiliate to Seller or the applicable Other Seller if the amount paid by Purchaser or such Affiliate to Seller or the applicable Other Seller is less than the adjusted amount.

(c) Cooperation and Assistance.

(i) The Parties shall cooperate with each other in the filing of any Tax Returns and the conduct of any audit or other proceeding. They each shall execute and deliver such powers of attorney and make available such other documents as are reasonably necessary to carry out the intent of this Section 6.14.

(ii) If (A) any party is liable under this Section 6.14, including amounts due to Section 6.14(b), for any portion of a Tax shown due on any Tax Return required to be filed by the other Party pursuant to this Section 6.14, subject to Section 6.14(a)(ii), the Party obligated to file such Tax Return pursuant to this Section 6.14 shall deliver a copy of the relevant portions of such Tax Return to the liable Party for such Party's review and comment within 30 days prior to the due date for filing such Tax Return (taking into account any extensions, if applicable). Subject to Section 6.14(a)(ii), the Party who is required to file such Tax Return will make such changes to the Applicable Tax Return as reasonably requested by the other Party. If the Parties disagree as to the treatment of any item shown on such Tax Return or with respect to any calculation with respect to any Tax Return to be filed pursuant to this Section 6.14, an internationally recognized accounting firm mutually agreed upon by Purchaser and Seller or the applicable Other Seller, as the case may be, shall determine how the disputed item is to be treated on such Tax Return. Any payments made by a Party to another Party pursuant to this Section 6.14 shall be made no later than the later of 10 days prior to the due date of the applicable Tax Return and 5 business days after the receipt of the applicable Tax Return by the Party from whom payment is required.

(iii) Upon request or upon payment, each Party shall deliver to the tax director of the other Party certified copies of all receipts for any foreign Tax with respect to which such other Party or any of its Affiliates could claim a foreign tax credit and any supporting documents required in connection with claiming or supporting a claim for such a foreign tax credit.

(iv) The Parties shall retain records, documents, accounting data and other information in whatever form that are necessary for the preparation and filing, or for any Tax audit, of any and all Tax Returns with respect to any Taxes that relate to taxable periods that do not begin after the Closing Date. Such retention shall be in accordance with the record retention policy of the respective Party, but in no event shall any Party destroy or otherwise dispose of such records, documents, accounting data and other information prior to the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations (including extensions) and without first providing the other Party with a reasonable opportunity to review and copy the same. Each Party shall give any other Party reasonable access to all such records, documents, accounting data and other information as well as to its personnel and premises to the extent necessary for a reasonable review or a Tax audit of such Tax Returns and relevant to an obligation under this Section 6.14.

(v) Seller and the Other Sellers shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to provide Purchaser with a clearance certificate or similar document(s) which may be required by any taxing authority to relieve Purchaser of any obligation to withhold any portion of the payments to Seller or the Other Sellers pursuant to this Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements, the Intellectual Property License Agreement or the Trademark License Agreement.

(vi) Upon reasonable request by a Party, the other Party shall cooperate in good faith to effectuate modifications to this Agreement that are otherwise economically neutral to the other Party in order to better accommodate the business and financial goals of the requesting Party.

(d) Tax Controversies. A Party shall promptly notify the other Party in writing promptly upon (but in no event later than 30 days after) (a “Notification”) receipt of notice of any pending or threatened audits or assessments with respect to Taxes for which such other Party (or any of its Affiliates) is liable under Section 6.14. Failure to give such Notification shall not relieve the indemnifying party from liability under Section 6.14, except if and to the extent that the indemnifying party is actually prejudiced thereby. Each Party shall be entitled to take control of the complete defense of any tax audit or administrative or court proceeding (a “Tax Claim”) relating to Taxes for which it may be liable, and to employ counsel of its choice at its expense; provided, that Seller or the applicable Other Subsidiary and Purchaser shall jointly control the defense of any Tax Claim relating to Taxes with respect to a Straddle Period for which Taxes are allocated to both Seller or the applicable Other Subsidiary, as the case may be, and Purchaser under Section 6.14(b)(iii) of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the immediately preceding sentence, each Party shall be entitled to take control of the complete defense of any Tax Claim relating to Taxes for which it is obligated to file a Tax Return (but does not have any indemnification obligation hereunder) under this Section 6.14 (or by Law), and to employ counsel of its choice at its expense; provided, that such Party unconditionally releases in writing the other Party from its indemnification obligation hereunder with respect to such Tax Claim; provided further, that such Party shall take control of such Tax Claim within 60 days of the earlier of (x) the date on which such Notification is provided or (y) the date such Notification is due pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 6.14(d). If one Party takes control of any such audit or proceeding, the other Party shall be entitled to participate, at its expense, in the defense of such audit or proceeding, and the Party controlling such audit or proceeding shall consider in good faith any suggestions made or points raised by the other Party. The Parties may not agree to settle any claim for Taxes for which the other may be liable without the prior written consent of such other Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. This Section 6.14(d) shall govern to the extent it would otherwise be inconsistent with Section 9.3(a).

(e) Indemnification. The Seller Parties shall indemnify, save and hold the Purchaser Indemnified Parties harmless from and against any and all Purchaser Losses incurred in connection with, arising out of, resulting from or incident to (i) any Taxes of any of the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries or with respect to the Purchased Assets, Transferred Business Intellectual Property or Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights for any Tax year or portion thereof ending on or before the Closing Date (or for any Straddle Period, to the extent allocable to the portion of such period beginning before and ending on the Closing Date, determined accordance with 6.14(b)(iii)), (ii) any failure of any representation or warranty of Seller or the Other Sellers set forth in Section 4.10 to be true and correct; (iii) any Taxes arising out of or attributable to the acquisition of the Business from Angel; (iv) any withholding Taxes (whenever arising) attributable to the payment of the Purchase Price; and (v) the unpaid Taxes of any Person (other than either of the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries) under Treasury regulations Section 1.1502-6 (or any similar provision of state, local or foreign law), as a transferee or successor, by contract, or otherwise.

6.15 Mail Handling.

(a) To the extent that Purchaser and/or any of its Subsidiaries receives any mail or packages addressed to any Seller Parent, any Other Seller or Seller or its Subsidiaries and delivered to Purchaser not relating to the Business, the Purchased Subsidiary Interests, the Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property, the Transferred Intellectual Property Rights or the Assumed Liabilities, Purchaser shall promptly deliver such mail or packages to Seller. After the Closing Date, Purchaser may deliver to Seller any checks or drafts made payable to Seller Parent, the Other Sellers, Seller or its Subsidiaries that constitutes a Purchased Asset, and Seller shall promptly deposit such checks or drafts, and, upon receipt of funds, reimburse Purchaser within five Business Days for the amounts of all such checks or drafts, or, if so requested by Purchaser, endorse such checks or drafts to Purchaser for collection. To the extent any Seller Parent, any Other Seller, Seller or its Subsidiaries receives any mail or packages addressed and delivered to Seller Parent, any Other Seller, Seller or its Subsidiaries but relating to the Business, the Purchased Subsidiary Interests, the Purchased Assets or the Assumed Liabilities, Seller shall promptly deliver such mail or packages to Purchaser. After the Closing Date, to the extent that Purchaser receives cash or checks or drafts made payable to Purchaser that constitutes an Excluded Asset, Purchaser shall promptly use such cash to, or deposit such checks or drafts and upon receipt of funds from such checks or drafts, reimburse Seller within five Business days for such amount received, or, if so requested by Seller, endorse such checks or drafts to Seller for collection. The Parties may not assert any set-off, hold-back, escrow or other restriction against any payment described in this Section 6.15.

6.16 Preparation and Delivery of Financial Statements. Seller shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and deliver to Purchaser as soon as practicable the Audited Business Financial Statements and the Unaudited Business Financial Statements. Seller shall prepare and deliver to Purchaser, no later than ten (10) business days following the end of each month after acquisition of the Business by Seller and its Subsidiaries, monthly statements of revenue and expenses of the Business as currently prepared on a monthly basis for Seller.

6.17 Shared Contracts.

Seller Parent and Seller agree to use their reasonable commercial efforts to seek the consent, if requested by Purchaser, of the counterparty to any Contract which is used primarily in the Business but is not included within Transferred Contracts to partially assign or otherwise separate for the benefit of Purchaser the portion of such Contract relating to the Business. Seller Parent and Seller will use their commercially reasonable efforts to identify such Contracts to Purchaser as soon as practicable following the execution of this Agreement.

6.18 Licenses.

(a) With respect to the CAD Licenses that prior to the Closing Date are used in the Business, but that are not used exclusively in the Business, Seller and Purchaser shall cooperate diligently prior to the Closing Date to obtain the consent of the respective licensors of such CAD Licenses (the “CAD Licensors”) to a partial assignment, or grant of a sublicense by Seller or of a new license to Purchaser by the CAD Licensor, as the case may be, of Seller’s rights thereunder applicable to the Business. Purchaser acknowledges that any rights to be sublicensed to it may be limited as set forth in such CAD Licenses; that the terms of any new license to be granted to it by the CAD Licensors may be different from the terms of Seller’s existing licenses; and that Seller cannot control and is not responsible for the actions of any of the CAD Licensors. Seller and Purchaser further agree that any division of rights, responsibilities and credits (including credits for pre-paid fees) between them under the existing CAD Licenses or any successors thereto shall be in proportion to the actual usage (by seat count) of such licenses by the Business prior to the Closing Date, compared to the usage of such licenses by the Retained Business prior to the Closing Date or as set forth on Schedule 6.18.

6.19 NDA’s.

The Parties agree that with respect to the confidentiality and proprietary development agreements to which the Seller Parent, Other Sellers, Seller or their Subsidiaries is a party with the Business Employees of Seller Parent or any of its Affiliates (the “NDA’s”), Seller Parent, the Other Sellers, Seller or an Affiliate, as applicable, will enter into a partial assignment with respect to such NDA’s, assigning that portion of the NDA’s relating to the Business to Purchaser.

6.20 Patents Licensed Non-exclusively to the Purchaser.

In the event that a Seller Party transfers any Patent that is licensed on a non-exclusive basis to Purchaser pursuant to the Intellectual Property License Agreement, such Seller Party shall upon execution of a definitive agreement for transfer of such Patent, give notice of such transfer to Purchaser and shall, upon request by Purchaser within ten (10) days after the giving of notice, use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain access to the Seller Party patent files pertaining to the Patent to be transferred.

ARTICLE VII

CONDITIONS TO CLOSING

7.1 Conditions Precedent to Obligations of Purchaser, Seller and the Other Sellers.

The respective obligations of the Parties to consummate and cause the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by the Party for whose benefit such condition exists) on or prior to the Closing Date of each of the following conditions:

(a) No Injunction, etc. No Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any Law which is in effect on the Closing Date which has or would have the effect of prohibiting, enjoining or restraining the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to occur on the Closing Date or otherwise making such transactions illegal; and

(b) Regulatory Authorizations. (i) All material Consents of any Governmental Authorities shall have been obtained and shall be in full force and effect, and (ii) the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act shall have expired or been terminated.

(c) Closing of Acquisition of Business. The acquisition of the Business by the Seller Parties shall have been completed pursuant to the Semiconductor Business Purchase Agreement.

7.2 Conditions Precedent to Obligation of Seller and the Other Sellers.

The obligation of Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers to consummate and cause the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by Seller Parent, Seller or the Other Sellers) on or prior to the Closing Date of each of the following conditions:

(a) Accuracy of Purchaser's Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of Purchaser contained in this Agreement (i) that are qualified as to "Purchaser Material Adverse Effect" shall be true and correct on the date of this Agreement and on the Closing Date as though made on the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties by their terms speak as of an earlier date, in which case they shall be true and correct as of such date); and (ii) that are not qualified as to "Purchaser Material Adverse Effect" shall be true and correct on the date of this Agreement and on the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties by their terms speak as of an earlier date, in which case they shall be true and correct as of such date), except for such failures to be true and correct which would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Purchaser Material Adverse Effect; and Seller shall have received a certificate signed by an authorized officer of Purchaser to such effect; provided, however, that satisfaction of the closing condition set forth in this Section 7.2(a) will be determined as of, and on, the Satisfaction Date and the certificate of the authorized officer of Purchaser will be dated as of the Satisfaction Date. Accordingly, if the closing condition set forth in this Section 7.2(a) is satisfied on the Satisfaction Date, it will thereafter be deemed satisfied, even if it would not have been satisfied if the determination were made on the Closing Date.

(b) Covenants of Purchaser. Purchaser shall have complied in all material respects with all covenants contained in this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to be performed by it prior to the Closing; and Seller shall have received a certificate dated as of the Closing Date and signed by an authorized officer of Purchaser to such effect.

(c) Ancillary Agreements. Purchaser shall have executed and delivered the Ancillary Agreements and other agreements and documents contemplated by Section 2.3(a) to the extent a party thereto, and each such agreement and document shall be in full force and effect and shall not have been breached in any material respect by Purchaser.

(d) License Agreements. Purchaser shall have executed and delivered the Intellectual Property License Agreement, and such agreement shall be in full force and effect and shall not have been breached in any material respect by Purchaser.

7.3 Conditions Precedent to Obligation of Purchaser.

The obligation of Purchaser to consummate and cause the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by Purchaser) on or prior to the Closing Date of each of the following conditions:

(a) Accuracy of Representations and Warranties of Seller and the Other Sellers. The representations and warranties of Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers contained in this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents (i) that are qualified as to “Seller Material Adverse Effect” shall be true and correct on the date of this Agreement and on the Closing Date as though made on the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties by their terms speak as of an earlier date, in which case they shall be true and correct as of such date); and (ii) that are not qualified as to “Seller Material Adverse Effect” shall be true and correct on the date of this Agreement and on the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties by their terms speak as of an earlier date, in which case they shall be true and correct as of such date), except for such failures to be true and correct which would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Seller Material Adverse Effect; and Purchaser shall have received a certificate signed by an authorized officer of Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers to such effect; provided, however, that satisfaction of the closing condition set forth in this Section 7.3(a) will be determined as of, and on, the date that all of the closing conditions set forth in Sections 7.1 and 7.3 (other than Sections 7.3(b), (c), (d), (e) and (h)) are satisfied (assuming for such purposes that such date of determination is the Closing Date) and Seller shall have delivered the Audited Business Financial Statements as of and for either (i) the nine-month period ended July 31, 2005 or (ii) the twelve month period ended October 31, 2005 (the “Satisfaction Date”) and the certificate of the authorized officer of Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers referred to above will be dated as of the Satisfaction Date. Accordingly, if the closing condition set forth in this Section 7.3(a) is satisfied on the Satisfaction Date, it will thereafter be deemed satisfied, even if it would not have been satisfied if the determination were made on the Closing Date.

(b) Covenants of Seller and the Other Sellers. Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers shall have complied in all material respects with all covenants contained in this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to be performed by it prior to the Closing; and Purchaser shall have received a certificate dated as of the Closing Date and signed by an authorized officer of Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers to such effect.

(c) Ancillary Agreements. Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers shall have executed and delivered or caused each of the relevant Purchased Seller Subsidiary to execute and deliver, the Ancillary Agreements and other agreements and documents contemplated by Section 2.3(a) to the extent a party thereto, and each such agreement and document shall be in full force and effect and shall not have been breached in any material respect by the Other Sellers, Seller, Seller Parent or the relevant Purchased Seller Subsidiary, as the case may be.

(d) License Agreements. General IP shall have executed and delivered the Intellectual Property License Agreement and the Trademark License Agreement and each such agreement shall be in full force and effect and shall not have been breached in any material respect by General IP.

(e) Financial Statements. Seller shall have delivered the Audited Business Financial Statements; provided, however, this closing condition will not be deemed satisfied if the financial condition of the Business, as set forth on the Audited Business Financial Statements, is materially worse than the financial condition of the Business as set forth on the Unaudited Business Financial Statements in such a manner as to constitute a Seller Material Adverse Effect.

(f) Consents. (i) Each of the Consents set forth on Section 7.3(f) of the Disclosure Letter shall have been obtained in a form reasonably acceptable to Purchaser and shall be in full force and effect and (ii) all other Consents required to be obtained in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall have been obtained and shall be in full force and effect, except in the case of clause (ii) where the failure to obtain any such Consents has not had and could not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Seller Material Adverse Effect.

(g) No Seller Material Adverse Effect. Since the date of this Agreement there shall have been no event, condition, change or development, worsening of any existing event, condition, change or development (except as relates to Excluded Assets, the failure to transfer to Purchaser the Excluded Assets or any failure to obtain a consent with respect to CAD Licenses to the extent provided in Section 6.18 hereto) that, individually or in combination with any other event, condition, change, development or worsening thereof, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Seller Material Adverse Effect; provided, however, that satisfaction of the closing set forth in this Section 7.3(g) will be determined as of, and on, the Satisfaction Date and the certificate of the authorized officer of Purchaser will be dated as of the Satisfaction Date. Accordingly, if the closing condition set forth in this Section 7.3(g) is satisfied on the Satisfaction Date, it will thereafter be deemed satisfied, even if it would not have been satisfied if the determination were made on the Closing Date.

(h) FIRPTA Certificate. Purchaser shall have received certification signed by Seller to the effect that U.S. R&D Capital Stock does not constitute a “United States real property interest” within the meaning of Section 897(c)(1) of the Code.

ARTICLE VIII

8.2 Purchaser Obligations.

(a) the documents described in Section 7.2;

(b) such instruments of conveyance with respect to the Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights, Purchased Seller Subsidiaries and Assumed Liabilities as are referred to in Section 2.3(a) and such other assignment and conveyance documents as shall be necessary to convey the Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights and the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries and consummate the other transactions contemplated hereby in each jurisdiction; and

8.3 Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller Obligations.

At the Closing, Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller, as applicable, shall execute and deliver to Purchaser, and Seller Parent and Seller shall cause such of its Subsidiaries as are party thereto to execute and deliver to Purchaser, the following in such form and substance as are reasonably acceptable to Purchaser:

(c) such other documents and instruments as counsel for Purchaser and Seller mutually agree to be reasonably necessary to consummate the transactions described herein.

INDEMNIFICATION

9.1 Indemnification.

(a) Following the Closing and subject to the terms and conditions of this Article IX, Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Purchaser, its Affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, employees, stockholders, assigns and successors (each, a “Purchaser Indemnified Party”) from and against, and shall compensate and reimburse each Purchaser Indemnified Party for, all Losses imposed upon or incurred by such Purchaser Indemnified Party (“Purchaser Losses”), with respect to (i) any failure of any representation or warranty of Seller set forth in this Agreement (other than Section 4.10, indemnification for the breach of which is covered by Section 6.14(e)) or in the certificate delivered pursuant to Section 7.2(a) to be true and correct, (ii) any breach of any covenant or agreement of Seller herein or (iii) any Excluded Liabilities, it being understood that each Purchaser Loss shall be calculated net of any Tax Benefit realized by such Purchaser Indemnified Party, as set forth more fully in Section 9.3(c). Seller shall act as agent for Seller Parent and the Other Sellers in connection with this Article IX. Purchaser shall not be entitled to recover more than once for the same Purchaser Loss.

(b) Following the Closing and subject to the terms and conditions provided in this Article IX, Purchaser shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Other Sellers, Seller and their Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, stockholders, assigns and successors (each, a “Seller Indemnified Party”) from and against, and shall compensate and reimburse each Seller Indemnified Party for, all Losses imposed upon or incurred by such Seller Indemnified Party (“Seller Losses”), with respect to (i) the failure of any representation or warranty of Purchaser set forth in this Agreement or in the certificate delivered pursuant to Section 7.3(a) to be true and correct, (ii) any breach of any covenant or agreement of Purchaser herein, or (iii) any of the Assumed Liabilities, it being understood that each Seller Loss shall be calculated net of any Tax Benefit realized by such Seller Indemnified Party, as set forth more fully in Section 9.3(c). The Other Sellers and Seller shall not be entitled to recover more than once for the same Seller Loss.

(c) For purposes of the foregoing Sections 9.1(a)(i) and 9.1(b)(i), in determining the amount of any Purchaser Losses or Seller Losses, as the case may be, no effect shall be given to any qualification in the relevant representations and warranties as to materiality or Seller Material Adverse Effect (other than for purposes of clause (b) of Section 4.7, Section 4.8(i), Section 4.16(c) and the last sentence of Section 4.18, none of which shall be subject to this Section 9.1(c)); provided that full effect shall be given to all such qualifications for purposes of determining the existence of a breach of any representation or warranty.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser Losses and Seller Losses shall not include, and in no event shall any Purchaser Loss or Seller Loss be recoverable under the terms of this Agreement to the extent it consists of, punitive, special or exemplary damages, except to the extent such punitive, special or exemplary damages are awarded against any Purchaser Indemnified Party or Seller Indemnified Party, as the case may be, in a third-party claim.

9.2 Certain Limitations.

(a) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Seller Parent, Seller and Other Sellers shall not be obligated to indemnify Purchaser Indemnified Parties for aggregate Purchaser Losses under this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1(a)(i) in excess of 10% of the Purchase Price; provided, however, that such limitation shall not apply with respect to a breach of a representation or warranty made by Seller (its Subsidiaries or the Other Sellers) in Section 4.1, 4.2(a), 4.3, 4.5, 4.9 or 4.10. In addition, Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers shall not be obligated to indemnify Purchaser Indemnified Parties for aggregate Purchaser Losses under this Agreement (including pursuant to Section 9.1(a)(ii), 9.1(a)(iii) or 6.13(e)) in excess of an amount equal to the Purchase Price.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers shall not be obligated to indemnify Purchaser Indemnified Parties under this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1(a)(i), (x) with respect to any individual Purchaser Loss or series of related Purchaser Losses of less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) (the “Minimum Amount”) and (y) unless and until the aggregate Purchaser Losses (excluding individual Purchaser Losses or related Purchaser Losses less than the Minimum Amount) subject to such indemnification collectively exceed one percent (1.0%) of the Purchase Price (the “Threshold”), whereupon such indemnification shall be made by Seller only with respect to the amount of such Purchaser Losses (excluding individual Purchaser Losses or related Purchaser Losses less than the Minimum Amount) in excess of the Threshold; provided, however, that the Threshold shall not apply to any breach of a representation or warranty made by Seller in Sections 4.1, 4.2(a), 4.3, 4.5, 4.9 or 4.10.

(c) The representations and warranties of the Seller Parties and Purchaser contained in Article IV and Article V, respectively, of this Agreement shall survive the Closing until May 31, 2007; provided that the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 4.1, 4.2(a), 4.3, 4.5, 4.9, 5.1, 5.2(a) and 5.5 shall survive indefinitely and the representations and warranties set forth in Section 4.10 shall survive until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations. The covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement shall survive the Closing until the date or dates explicitly specified therein or, if not so specified, until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations with respect to the matters contained therein.

(d) The obligations to indemnify and hold harmless a Party pursuant to Sections 6.14(e), 9.1(a)(i), 9.1(a)(ii), 9.1(b)(i) or 9.1(b)(ii) shall terminate when the applicable representation, warranty or covenant terminates pursuant to Section 9.2(c); provided, however, that such obligations to indemnify and hold harmless shall not terminate with respect to any item as to which the Seller Indemnified Party or Purchaser Indemnified Party, as the case may be, to be indemnified (each, an “Indemnified Party”) shall have, before the expiration of the applicable survival period, previously made a claim by delivering a written notice (stating in reasonable detail the basis of such claim) to the Indemnifying Party.

9.3 Procedures for Third-Party Claims and Excluded Liabilities.

(a) General Procedures. Promptly (but in no event later than ten (10) days) after the receipt by any Indemnified Party of a notice of any Proceeding by any third party that may be subject to indemnification under this Article IX, including any Proceeding relating to any Excluded Liability or Assumed Liability, such Indemnified Party shall give written notice of such Proceeding to the indemnifying Party hereunder (the “Indemnifying Party”), stating in reasonable detail the nature and basis of each claim made in the Proceeding and the amount thereof, to the extent known, along with copies of the relevant documents received by the Indemnified Party evidencing the Proceeding and the basis for indemnification sought. Failure of the Indemnified Party to give such notice shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party from liability on account of this indemnification, except if and only to the extent that the Indemnifying Party is actually prejudiced thereby. Thereafter, the Indemnified Party shall deliver to the Indemnifying Party, promptly after the Indemnified Party’s receipt thereof, copies of all notices and documents (including court papers) received by the Indemnified Party relating to the Proceeding. The Indemnifying Party shall have the right to assume the defense of the Indemnified Party against the third party claim upon written notice to the Indemnified Party delivered within thirty (30) days after receipt of the particular notice from the Indemnified Party; provided, however, that the Indemnifying Party shall not have the right to assume the defense of the third party claim if it (x) seeks as a remedy the imposition of an equitable remedy that is binding upon Purchaser or the Business or (y) the amounts of Losses could be reasonably expected to exceed the amounts for which the Indemnifying Party is obligated to indemnify. So long as the Indemnifying Party has assumed the defense of the third party claim in accordance herewith and notified the Indemnified Party in writing thereof, (i) the Indemnified Party may retain separate co-counsel at its sole cost and expense and participate in the defense of the third party claim, it being understood that the Indemnifying Party shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of counsel for the Indemnified Party after such time as the Indemnified Party has notified the Indemnifying Party of such third party claim and prior to such time as the Indemnifying Party has notified the Indemnified Party that it has assumed the defense of such third party claim, (ii) the Indemnified Party shall not file any papers or consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement with respect to the third party claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) and (iii) the Indemnifying Party will not consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement with respect to the third party claim (other than a judgment or settlement that is solely for money damages in an amount less than the remaining balance of the limitations on indemnity set forth in Section 9.2 and is accompanied by a release of all indemnifiable claims against the Indemnified Party) without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). Whether or not the Indemnifying Party shall have assumed the defense, such Indemnifying Party shall not be obligated to indemnify and hold harmless the Indemnified Party hereunder for any settlement entered into without the Indemnifying Party’s prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Section 9.3(a) shall not apply to any claim with respect to Taxes, which shall be governed solely by Section 6.14.

(b) Equitable Remedies. In the case of any third party claims where the Indemnifying Party reasonably believes that it would be appropriate to settle such claim using equitable remedies (i.e., remedies involving the future activity and conduct of the Business), the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party shall work together in good faith to agree to a settlement; provided, however, that no Party shall be under any obligation to agree to any such settlement.

(c) Treatment of Indemnification Payments; Insurance Recoveries. Any payment made pursuant to the indemnification obligations arising under this Agreement shall be treated as an adjustment to the Purchase Price. Any indemnity payment under this Agreement shall be decreased by any amounts actually recovered by the Indemnified Party under third party insurance policies with respect to such Loss (net of any premiums paid by such Indemnified Party under the relevant insurance policy), each Party agreeing (i) to use all reasonable efforts to recover all available insurance proceeds and (ii) to the extent that any indemnity payment under this Agreement has been paid by the Indemnifying Party to the Indemnified Party prior to the recovery by the Indemnified Party of such insurance proceeds, such amounts actually recovered by the Indemnified Party shall be promptly paid to the Indemnifying Party. If the amount of any Loss for which indemnification is provided under this Agreement (an “Indemnity Claim”) gives rise to a current deduction to the Indemnified Party making the claim, the indemnity payment shall be reduced by the amount of the Tax Benefit of such current deduction available to the Indemnified Party making the claim. “Tax Benefit” means, with respect to any indemnity payment, the excess, if any, of (i) the Indemnified Party’s pro forma tax Liability for the taxable year in which it accrues the indemnity payment, calculated on the basis of the facts and circumstances actually pertaining to the Indemnified Party, but assuming for purposes of this calculation that the Indemnified Party had not suffered the loss giving rise to the Indemnification Claim or accrued the indemnity payment, over (ii) the Indemnified Party’s Adjusted Actual Tax Liability for such taxable year in each case as calculated in good faith by the Indemnified Party. The “Adjusted Actual Tax Liability” is the actual Tax Liability of the Indemnified Party, taking into account the items excluded from the calculation in clause (i).

9.4 Certain Procedures.

(a) The Indemnified Party shall notify the Indemnifying Party promptly of its discovery of any matter that may give rise to a claim for indemnification pursuant hereto. The Indemnified Party shall cooperate and assist the Indemnifying Party in determining the validity of any claim for indemnity by the Indemnified Party and in otherwise resolving such matters. Subject to the provisions of Section 9.3, in connection with any actual or threatened claims by, or actual or threatened litigation or other disputes with, third parties relating to Assumed Liabilities or Excluded Liabilities, any such claims, litigation and disputes being referred to as “claims” for purposes of this Section 9.4, the Indemnified Party shall cooperate in the defense by the Indemnifying Party of such claim (and the Indemnified Party and the Indemnifying Party agree with respect to all such claims that a common interest privilege agreement exists between them), including, (i) permitting the Indemnifying Party to discuss the claim with such officers, employees, consultants and representatives of the Indemnified Party as the Indemnifying Party reasonably requests, (ii) permitting the Indemnifying Party to have reasonable access to the properties, books, records, papers, documents, plans, drawings, electronic mail, databases and computers of the Indemnified Party at reasonable hours to review information and documentation relative to the properties, books, records, papers, documents, plans, drawings, electronic mail, databases and computers, contracts, commitments and other records of the Indemnified Party, (iii) providing to the Indemnifying Party copies of documents and samples of Storage Products as the Indemnifying Party reasonably requests in connection with defending such claim, (iv) permitting the Indemnifying Party to conduct privileged interviews and witness preparation of officers, employees and representatives of the Indemnified Party as the Indemnifying Party reasonably requests, (v) preserving all properties, books, records, papers, documents, plans, drawings, electronic mail and databases of the Business relating to matters relating to Excluded Liabilities (in the case of the Purchaser) and Assumed Liabilities (in the case of the Other Sellers) in accordance with such Party's corporate documents retention policies, or longer to the extent reasonably requested by the other Party in connection with any actual or threatened action that would reasonably be expected to result in a claim for indemnification hereunder, (vi) promptly collecting documents and extracting information from documents for the Indemnifying Party's review and use, as the Indemnifying Party reasonably requests, or allowing the Indemnifying Party's representatives to do the same, (vii) notifying the Indemnifying Party promptly of receipt by the Indemnified Party of any subpoena or other third party request for documents or interviews and testimony, (viii) providing to the Indemnifying Party copies of any documents produced by the Indemnified Party in response to or compliance with any subpoena or other third party request for documents, and (ix) permitting the Indemnifying Party to conduct such other reasonable investigations and studies, and take such other actions, as are reasonably necessary in connection with the Indemnifying Party's defense or investigation of such claim. In connection with any claims, except to the extent inconsistent with the Indemnified Party's obligations under applicable Law and except to the extent that to do so would subject the Indemnified Party or its employees, agents or representatives to criminal or civil sanctions, (1) unless ordered by a court to do otherwise, the Indemnified Party shall not produce documents to a third party until the Indemnifying Party has been provided a reasonable opportunity to review, copy and assert privileges covering such documents, (2) the transfer to the Indemnified Party by the Indemnifying Party of documents covered by the Indemnifying Party's attorney/client or work product privileges shall not constitute a waiver of such privileges, (3) unless otherwise ordered by a court, the Indemnified Party shall withhold from production to any third party any documents as to which the Indemnifying Party asserts a privilege, (4) the Indemnified Party shall defend in court any such privilege asserted by the Indemnifying Party and (5) the Indemnified Party shall permit the Indemnifying Party to prepare any employees of the Indemnified Party required or requested to testify or otherwise be deposed or interviewed in connection with any claim and to be present during any such testimony or interviews.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or in any Local Asset Transfer Agreement to the contrary, Purchaser shall not make any claim for indemnification or otherwise in any circumstances whatsoever against any Other Seller other than by means of a claim against Seller as agent for such Subsidiary or Other Seller pursuant to the terms of this Agreement unless Seller fails to satisfy its obligations under this Article IX, and Purchaser shall indemnify Seller on its own behalf and as agent for the Other Sellers against any claim for indemnification made against the Other Seller contrary to this Section 9.4(b).

9.5 Remedies Exclusive.

Following the Closing, with the exception of remedies based on fraud or Section 6.14(e), the remedies set forth in this Article IX shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy for money damages and shall be in lieu of any other remedies for money damages that may be available to the Indemnified Parties under any other agreement or pursuant to any statutory or common law (including Environmental Law) with respect to any Losses of any kind or nature incurred directly or indirectly resulting from or arising out of any of this Agreement, the Business, the Purchased Assets, the Assumed Liabilities or the Excluded Liabilities (it being understood that nothing in this Section 9.5 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall affect the Parties' rights to specific performance or other similar non-monetary equitable remedies with respect to the covenants referred to in this Agreement to be performed after the Closing). The Other Sellers, Seller Parent, Seller and Purchaser each hereby waive any provision of any applicable Law to the extent that it would limit or restrict the agreement contained in this Section 9.5.

ARTICLE X

TERMINATION

10.1 Termination Events.

Without prejudice to other remedies which may be available to the Parties by Law or this Agreement, this Agreement may be terminated and the transactions contemplated herein may be abandoned:

(a) by mutual consent of the Parties;

(b) after April 30, 2006 (the “Outer Date”), by any Party by notice to the other Party if the Closing shall not have been consummated on or prior to the Outer Date; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 10.1(b) shall not be available to any Party whose failure or whose Affiliate’s failure to perform in all material respects any of its obligations under this Agreement has been the cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the Closing to occur on or before such date;

(c) by any Party by notice to the other Party, if (i) a final, non-appealable order, decree or ruling enjoining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to occur on the Closing Date has been issued by any federal or state court in the United States having jurisdiction (unless such order, decree or ruling has been withdrawn, reversed or otherwise made inapplicable) or any U.S. federal or state Law has been enacted that would make the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to occur on the Closing Date illegal.

10.2 Effect of Termination.

In the event of any termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 10.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become wholly void and of no further force and effect, all further obligations of the parties under this Agreement shall terminate and there shall be no liability on the part of any Party (or any stockholder, director, officer, employee, agent, consultant or representative of such Party) to any other Party (or such other persons or entities), except that the provisions of Sections 6.2(b), 6.4 and Article XI of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and the Parties shall remain bound by and continue to be subject to the provisions thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Section 10.2 shall not relieve either party of any liability for willful breach of this Agreement.

MISCELLANEOUS AGREEMENTS OF THE PARTIES

11.1 Dispute Resolution.

Except as otherwise set forth herein, resolution of any and all disputes arising from or in connection with this Agreement, whether based on contract, tort, or otherwise (collectively, "Disputes"), shall be exclusively governed by and settled in accordance with the provisions of this Section 11.1.

(a) Negotiation. The Parties shall make a good faith attempt to resolve any Dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement through negotiation. Within 30 days after notice of a Dispute is given by either Party to the other Party, each Party shall select a first tier negotiating team comprised of director or general manager level employees of such Party and shall meet and make a good faith attempt to resolve such Dispute and shall continue to negotiate in good faith in an effort to resolve the Dispute or renegotiate the applicable Section or provision without the necessity of any formal proceedings. If the first tier negotiating teams are unable to agree within 30 days of their first meeting, then each Party shall select a second tier negotiating team comprised of vice president level employees of such Party and shall meet within 30 days after the end of the first 30 day negotiating period to attempt to resolve the matter. During the course of negotiations under this Section 11.1, all reasonable requests made by one Party to the other for information, including requests for copies of relevant documents, will be honored. The specific format for such negotiations will be left to the discretion of the designated negotiating teams but may include the preparation of agreed upon statements of fact or written statements of position furnished to the other Party. All negotiations between the Parties pursuant to this Section 11.1(a) shall be treated as compromise and settlement negotiations. Nothing said or disclosed, nor any document produced, in the course of such negotiations that is not otherwise independently discoverable shall be offered or received as evidence or used for impeachment or for any other purpose in any current or future litigation.

(b) Failure to Resolve Disputes. In the event that any Dispute arising out of or related to this Agreement is not settled by the Parties within 15 days after the first meeting of the second tier negotiating teams under Section 11.1(a), the Parties may seek any remedies to which they may be entitled in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(c) Proceedings. Nothing herein, however, shall prohibit either Party from initiating litigation or other judicial or administrative proceedings if such Party would be substantially harmed by a failure to act during the time that such good faith efforts are being made to resolve the Dispute through negotiation. In the event that litigation is commenced under this Section 11.1(c), the Parties agree to continue to attempt to resolve any Dispute according to the terms of Section 11.1(a) during the course of such litigation proceedings under this Section 11.1(c).

(d) Pay and Dispute. Except as provided herein, in the event of any dispute regarding payment of a third-party invoice (subject to standard verification of receipt of products or services), the Party named in a third party's invoice must make timely payment to such third party, even if the Party named in the invoice desires to pursue the dispute resolution procedures outlined in this Section 11.1. If the Party that paid the invoice is found pursuant to this Section 11.1 to not be responsible for such payment, such paying Party shall be entitled to reimbursement, with interest accrued at an annual rate of the Prime Rate, from the Party found responsible for such payment.

11.3 Bulk Transfers.

Purchaser waives compliance with the provisions of all applicable Laws relating to bulk transfers in connection with the transfer of the Purchased Assets.

11.4 Severability.

If any provision of this Agreement shall be declared by any court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, void or unenforceable, all other provisions of this Agreement and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances other than those which it is determined to be illegal, void or unenforceable, shall not be impaired or otherwise affected and shall remain in full force and effect to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, and the Other Sellers, Seller and Purchaser shall negotiate in good faith to replace such illegal, void or unenforceable provision with a provision that corresponds as closely as possible to the intentions of the Parties as expressed by such illegal, void or unenforceable provision.

11.5 Purchaser Parent Guarantee.

Purchaser Parent does hereby irrevocably and unconditionally guarantee the performance by Purchaser of each and every obligation of Purchaser under this Agreement, including the obligation to make all payments which become due from Purchaser hereunder. In addition, Purchaser Parent shall be responsible for the accuracy of each and every representation and warranty made by Purchaser under this Agreement. The guaranty set forth in this Section 11.5 shall in all respects be a continuing, absolute and unconditional guaranty, and shall remain in full force until all guaranteed obligations are performed in full. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser Parent shall be entitled to assert any defenses to payment or performance that would be available to Purchaser in any action commenced by any Seller Party to enforce the foregoing guaranty

11.6 Further Assurances; Further Cooperation.

Subject to the terms and conditions hereof (including Section 6.3), each of the Parties agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, all documents and to take, or cause to be taken, all actions that may be reasonably necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of counsel for Seller and Purchaser, to effectuate the provisions of this Agreement, provided that all such actions are in accordance with applicable Law. From time to time, whether at or after the Closing, the Seller Parties (as appropriate) will execute and deliver such further instruments of conveyance, transfer and assignment and take such other action, at Purchaser's sole expense, as Purchaser may reasonably require to more effectively convey and transfer to Purchaser any of the Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights or the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries, including documentation necessary to permit Purchaser to record the transfer of the Transferred Business Intellectual Property with the United States Patent and Trademark Office, and Purchaser will execute and deliver such further instruments and take such other action, at the Seller Parties' sole expense, as the Seller Parties may reasonably require to more effectively assume the Assumed Liabilities.

11.7 Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument. Copies of executed counterparts transmitted by telecopy, telefax or other electronic transmission service shall be considered original executed counterparts for purposes of this Section 11.7.

11.8 Expenses.

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, whether or not the Closing occurs, the Parties shall each pay their respective expenses (such as legal, investment banker and accounting fees) incurred in connection with the negotiation and execution of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

11.9 Assignment.

This Agreement shall not be assigned by either Party without the prior written consent of the other Party, and any attempted assignment, without such consent, shall be null and void; provided, however, Purchaser may assign any or all of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to any wholly-owned (other than director qualifying shares) direct or indirect Subsidiary of Purchaser (provided that no such assignment shall release Purchaser from any obligation under this Agreement) or to a lender of Purchaser as collateral for bona fide indebtedness for money borrowed or in connection with a merger, consolidation, conversion or sale of assets of Purchaser. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

11.10 Amendment; Waiver.

This Agreement may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified only by a written instrument executed by both Parties. No waiver by either Party of any of the provisions hereof shall be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and executed by the Party so waiving. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, no action taken pursuant to this Agreement, including any investigation by or on behalf of any Party, or a failure or delay by any Party in exercising any power, right or privilege under this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by the Party taking such action of compliance with any representations, warranties, covenants, or agreements contained herein, and in any documents delivered or to be delivered pursuant to this Agreement and in connection with the Closing hereunder. The waiver by any Party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach.

11.11 Specific Performance.

MASTER SEPARATION AGREEMENT

This Master Separation Agreement (together with Annex A hereto and the Separation Agreements (as defined herein), collectively, this “Agreement”) is entered into as of the 28th day of October 2005 (the “Effective Date”), by and between Avago Technologies Pte. Limited, a Singapore corporation (“Seller”) and Palau Acquisition Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“Purchaser”).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Agilent Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Agilent”), and Seller have entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the “Agilent Purchase Agreement”) dated as of August 14, 2005 (the “Agilent Signing Date”), pursuant to which, among other things, Seller will acquire substantially all of the assets and liabilities of the Business (as defined in the Agilent Purchase Agreement), all on the terms and conditions set forth in the Agilent Purchase Agreement;

WHEREAS, Agilent and Seller have entered into a Master Separation Agreement (the “Agilent Master Separation Agreement”) dated as of August 14, 2005, pursuant to which, among other things, Agilent has agreed to provide to Seller and its Subsidiaries certain services as described therein; and

WHEREAS, Seller and Purchaser have entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) dated as of October 28, 2005 (the “Signing Date”), pursuant to which, among other things, Purchaser will acquire substantially all of the assets and liabilities of the Business (as defined in the Purchase Agreement), all on the terms and conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement;

WHEREAS, capitalized terms used in this Agreement but not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Purchase Agreement;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, Seller has agreed to provide to Purchaser and its Subsidiaries certain services as described herein; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements of the parties contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. Services Provided.

- 1.1 During the period commencing on the Closing Date and ending on the Termination Date (as defined below), subject to the terms hereof, Seller shall provide to Purchaser, or at Seller’s option shall cause one or more of its Subsidiaries or one or more third parties to provide to Purchaser and/or Purchaser’s Subsidiaries: (a) the services and functions described in Annex A to this Agreement (the “Ongoing Services”), (b) activities necessary (i) to enable Seller to provide the Services included in Annex A to Purchaser commencing on the Closing Date (or, if later, the first day such Service is provided by Seller to Purchaser), and (ii) to separate the Business from Seller and which cannot reasonably be performed by Purchaser (or Purchaser’s service providers other than Seller) or which Seller elects to perform itself (the “Day One Setup Services”), and (c) activities to provide data extraction, conversion and migration, separate the WAN/LAN, migrate specific applications to Purchaser networks and servers and access to system documentation for such applications, and any other activities mutually agreed upon by the parties, in each case to the extent requested by Purchaser and performed by Seller after the Closing Date (the “Day Two Setup Services”, and with the Day One Setup Services and Ongoing Services, the “Services”).

- 1.2 Seller and Purchaser shall negotiate in good faith more detailed descriptions of the Services, including those activities necessary to transition the Services to Seller and any additional Services agreed upon by the parties, in separation agreements (“Separation Agreements” or “SAs”), and any services jointly agreed to by Seller and Purchaser in such Separation Agreements will be deemed part of the Services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the failure of the parties to reach agreement on Separation Agreements will not relieve Seller’s obligation to provide the Services as set forth in Section 1.1. The Services (i) shall be no more extensive in scope and content than the services and functions provided by Agilent and/or Seller, as applicable, to the Business immediately prior to the Signing Date, except as necessary to implement the Separation Agreements and the Day One Setup Services and Day Two Setup Services, provided that if any Services are provided by Agilent to Seller, such Services will be no more extensive in scope and content as those provided by Agilent to Seller pursuant to the Agilent Master Separation Agreement, (ii) shall not include any Services that would be unlawful for Seller to provide, (iii) shall not include any Services which Seller’s independent auditors conclude would result in material deficiencies with Seller’s internal financial controls in connection with the keeping of its financial books and records or the preparation of its financial statements, unless such deficiencies can be avoided by a commercially reasonable change in the manner in which the applicable Services are provided, in which case, Seller shall perform the Services in such a manner as to avoid such deficiencies, and (iv) shall not include the exercise of business judgment or general management for Purchaser. To the extent that pursuant to either the foregoing clause (iii) or Section 2.2.1, Seller is unable to provide a Service, Seller will provide written notice to Purchaser as promptly as practicable, but in any event no less than sixty (60) days prior to discontinuation of such Service by Seller, and the parties will work together in good faith and use all reasonable efforts to arrange a substitute means of obtaining such Service as expeditiously as possible. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything herein to the contrary, Purchaser shall not be entitled to receive from Seller, and/or benefit from, services provided by Agilent to Seller pursuant to the Agilent Master Separation Agreement to the extent such receipt or benefit by Purchaser (i) would result in a violation of law by Agilent or (ii) Agilent’s independent auditors conclude would result in material deficiencies with Agilent’s internal financial controls in connection with the keeping of its financial books and records or the preparation of its financial statements; provided, however, that Seller will use commercially reasonable efforts, as defined in the Purchase Agreement, to cause Agilent to provide any such Services in a manner which does not result in the foregoing.

- 1.3 Seller and Purchaser may also mutually agree on consulting and similar services to be provided by Seller as Services hereunder (“Additional Services”), which Additional Services are not included in Annex A and will be of such scope and content as are agreed upon by the Parties in the applicable SA.
- 1.4 SAs.
- 1.4.1 Purchaser shall receive the Services under this Agreement and the SAs. Seller shall perform or shall cause its Subsidiaries to perform the Services for the Purchaser or its Subsidiaries in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the applicable SA. Each such SA will incorporate the terms and conditions of this Agreement by reference, will not deviate from such terms, except as may be expressly set forth in each such SA, and shall be considered an exhibit to this Agreement and not a standalone agreement. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, all invoices for such Services will be paid by Purchaser in accordance with Section 3 below.
- 1.4.2 In the event the parties agree (which agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld by Seller) that additional Ongoing Services not included in Annex A are necessary for Seller to provide to Purchaser for the operation of the Business as conducted prior to the Effective Date, subject to the other terms and conditions hereof, the parties will enter additional SAs for the provision of such additional Ongoing Services. Any requests by Purchaser for additional Ongoing Services pursuant to this Section 1.4.2 must be made by Purchaser within thirty (30) days after the Closing Date.
- 1.4.3 SAs may need to be executed at a local level between Seller’s Subsidiaries and Purchaser’s Subsidiaries in order to provide Services under this Agreement. Each such SA will incorporate the terms and conditions of this Agreement by reference, and may not deviate from such terms and conditions except as required by local laws or except as may be set forth therein, and only as documented in the applicable SA. However, no such local SAs will be binding and enforceable against Seller or Purchaser or their respective Subsidiaries unless and until they are approved in writing by the Transition Managers (defined below). In connection with such local SAs, Seller shall issue or cause its Subsidiaries to issue invoices to the Purchaser’s ordering Subsidiaries, and Purchaser shall pay or shall cause its Subsidiary to pay such invoices, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement or the applicable SA.

1.5 Transition Management.

- 1.5.1 Seller and Purchaser each agree to (i) designate an appropriate point of contact for all questions and issues relating to the Services and the related Separation Agreements during the term of this Agreement ("Transition Managers") and (ii) make available the services of appropriate qualified employees and resources to allow for the provision of the Services and to allow each party to perform its duties, responsibilities and obligations related to the Services. The Transition Manager for Seller will be William Cornog, and the Transition Manager for Purchaser will be Raed Elmurib. Except in the case of death, disability, termination or resignation of an existing Transition Manager, prior to replacing a Transition Manager, Seller will secure a replacement and use reasonable efforts to ensure such replacement works with the departing Transition Manager for a reasonable period of time to ensure an adequate knowledge transfer. Seller will use reasonable efforts to ensure any replacement Seller Transition Manager shall have a comparable title, level of authority and responsibility and experience relating to the Services as the Transition Manager being replaced.
- 1.5.2 In addition, Seller's Transition Manager for information technology related services ("IT Services") will be William Cornog and Purchaser's IT Services Transition Manager will be Ken Huckell. The IT Transition Managers may be replaced in the same manner described above in Section 1.5.1.
- 1.5.3 Seller's and Purchaser's designated transition team leads for each of the Separation Agreements will be included in the SAs.
- 1.6 Purchaser shall make a commercially reasonable and good faith effort to assume performance of all of the Services as soon as practicable and for each service included in the Services on or prior to the date specified for such service on Annex A or otherwise in any related Separation Agreement. In furtherance of the foregoing, Purchaser shall use commercially reasonable efforts to make or obtain any approvals, permits and licenses and implement any systems as may be necessary for it to provide the Services independently in each pertinent country as soon as practicable following the Closing. Purchaser and Seller will work together to develop a plan to prioritize Purchaser's assumption of the Services hereunder in a manner which reduces Seller's and Purchaser's reliance on Agilent as soon as practical.
- 1.7 Purchaser shall provide Seller with such information and documentation as is reasonably necessary for Seller to perform the Services and perform such other duties and tasks as may be reasonably required to permit Seller to perform the Services.

2. Performance Standard.

- 2.1 Seller shall maintain directly or through third parties sufficient resources to perform its obligations hereunder. In performing the Services, Seller and each of its Subsidiaries shall provide, or ensure that any such third party will provide a similar level of service and use the same degree of care and skill as it exercises in providing similar services for itself from the Closing Date until the Termination Date. All Services shall be performed in substantial compliance with applicable law. The foregoing is subject to Section 2.2 below.
- 2.2 Limitations.
- 2.2.1 Seller has disclosed to Purchaser and Purchaser hereby acknowledges that Seller has many outsourcing relationships with, and uses software of, third parties (including, for example, Agilent, “Service Providers”) who may, through Seller’s obligations under this Agreement, be delivering Services to Purchaser or whose software may be used by Seller to provide Services to Purchaser. Purchaser further acknowledges that Seller’s provision of such Services or use of such software may be subject to the terms and conditions of agreements between Seller and such Service Providers. To the extent required under any such Service Provider agreements governing such Services or software, Purchaser agrees to cooperate with Seller and will assist Seller in obtaining third party consents, licenses, sublicenses, or approvals necessary to permit Seller or the applicable Service Provider to perform, or otherwise make available to Purchaser, the Services set forth in this Agreement or to permit Seller to use the applicable software to provide the Services set forth in this Agreement.
- 2.2.2 Except as may be set forth in an SA or elsewhere in this Agreement, Seller shall not be required to provide Purchaser with extraordinary levels of Services, special studies, training, or the like or the benefit of systems, equipment, facilities, training, or improvements procured, obtained or made after the Signing Date by Seller. Nothing in this Agreement will require Seller to favor the businesses of Purchaser over its own businesses or those of any of its Subsidiaries or divisions.
- 2.3 EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 2.1 ABOVE, SELLER MAKES NO OTHER WARRANTIES OR REPRESENTATIONS OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, WITH RESPECT TO ANY SERVICES PROVIDED HEREUNDER. IN THE EVENT OF A BREACH OF SELLER’S WARRANTY, PROVIDED SELLER HAS RECEIVED NOTICE WITHIN 30 DAYS OF PERFORMANCE, SELLER SHALL USE REASONABLE EFFORTS TO RE-PERFORM OR PERFORM THE SERVICES. IF SELLER DOES NOT RE-PERFORM OR PERFORM SUCH SERVICES WITHIN 30 DAYS OF SUCH NOTICE, PURCHASER’S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR BREACH OF ANY WARRANTY PROVIDED HEREUNDER SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE FEES, AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 3 OR THE SEPARATION AGREEMENTS,

3. Fees.

- 3.1 Annex A attached hereto sets forth the amount to be charged on a monthly basis for the Ongoing Services (for any Ongoing Service, the “Monthly Charge”). The amount to be charged for any Ongoing Services shall be the Monthly Charge for any such Ongoing Services received during such month as set forth on Annex A at the Service line level. The Monthly Charge will begin to be payable starting on the Closing Date, provided that if the Closing Date does not occur at the beginning of a calendar month, the initial Monthly Charge will be pro-rated.
- 3.2 For all Day One Setup Services and Day Two Setup Services and any Additional Services, Purchaser shall reimburse Seller for such Services, including any setup costs related to provision of such Services in a manner compliant with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, on a time and materials basis, where the time charge for any Seller personnel will be derived from Seller’s fully burdened cost for such personnel. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Purchaser shall reimburse Seller for: (a) any amounts paid to third parties in connection with providing such Services, including amounts paid to Service Providers; , (b) transition costs and/or fees associated with any assignment or novation of Seller’s Service Provider agreements, to the extent those options are available (including inventory transfer fees, termination fees or other similar fees) and other necessary third party consents, licenses or sublicenses, (c) shipping and transportation costs, duties, taxes, (d) costs or expenses incurred by Seller, its Subsidiaries or Service Providers for the extraction, conversion and transfer of data, and (e) other fees or expenses as set forth in the SAs. Examples of Day One Setup Services costs and expenses include (1) costs and expenses associated with providing core order management and fulfillment, manufacturing, logistics and trade compliance, sales and marketing and finance functionality, (2) costs and expenses associated with providing Purchaser specific customer-facing documents, separate financials etc., and (3) costs and expenses for additional hardware and software, supplier consents, data extraction and construction and other related costs to separate shared sites.
- 3.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3.2, to the extent additional Ongoing Services are agreed upon pursuant to Section 1.4.2, a new Monthly Charge will be added for such Ongoing Service, and if the scope of any Ongoing Service is changed, the applicable Monthly Charge will be adjusted to reflect any additional costs or expenses incurred by Seller in connection with such change.
- 3.4 Seller shall invoice Purchaser for the Services (including any Additional Services) provided hereunder in arrears on a monthly basis within twenty (20) days after the end of the month in which the charges accrued. Purchaser shall pay any invoice for Services promptly but in no event later than thirty (30) days after the date of invoice. Late payments shall bear interest at the prime rate then in effect, plus 5% per annum or the maximum amount allowed by law, whichever is less. Purchaser shall notify Seller immediately, and in no event later than sixty (60) days following receipt of Seller's invoice, of any disputed charges. After such sixty (60) day time period, Purchaser will be deemed to have accepted Seller's invoice. Seller shall provide supporting information and documentation as reasonably requested by Purchaser to validate any amounts payable by Purchaser pursuant to this Section 3.

4. Security.

- 4.1 In addition to the parties' obligations under the Confidential Disclosure Agreement referenced in the Purchase Agreement, each Party will and shall cause its Subsidiaries to handle and protect from disclosure all proprietary and confidential information and systems (including Purchaser Data, as defined below, in the case of Purchaser proprietary and confidential information) disclosed to it by the other party, or accessible within Seller's information technology infrastructure, in substantial compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements, including any privacy regulations, and in the same general manner as it handles and protects its own information that it considers proprietary and confidential, including but not limited to any information received with respect to the products of Seller and its Subsidiaries or Purchaser and its Subsidiaries.
- 4.2 During the term of this Agreement or any Separation Agreements, Purchaser's access to Seller's information technology infrastructure for applications and other data processing activities shall be through secured controlled processes determined by Seller in its sole discretion, and shall be in accordance with Seller's (including its Subsidiaries) business control and information protection policies, standards and guidelines as may be modified from time to time. Except as set forth above and except to the extent otherwise provided for in the Purchase Agreement or in connection with third party agreements assigned or novated to Purchaser pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, Seller shall not transfer to Purchaser, and Purchaser shall have no rights in or access to, application software/systems source code associated with shared systems through which Seller is providing Services to Purchaser hereunder. Purchaser shall not, through reverse engineering or any other technique or means, attempt to access such source code and will use the application software/systems only for their intended use. Any use of software applications as set forth herein will be subject to Seller's standard software license terms or any additional terms that may be referenced in an SA.

5. Ownership.

- 5.1 This Agreement and the performance of the Services hereunder will not affect the ownership of any assets (including Purchased Assets or Intellectual Property Rights) allocated in the Purchase Agreement. Neither Party will gain, by virtue of this Agreement or the Services hereunder, by implication or otherwise, any rights of ownership of any property or Intellectual Property Rights owned by the other. Unless otherwise specified in an SA, Seller will own all copyrights, patents, trade secrets, trademarks and other intellectual property rights, title and interest in or pertaining to all work developed by Seller, its Subsidiaries or Service Providers to perform the Services (including computer programs, deliverables and software deliverables) under this Agreement.

- 5.2 Purchaser shall own all data assigned to Purchaser pursuant to the Purchase Agreement as well as any changes or additions thereto made on behalf of Purchaser in the performance of the Services. In addition, Purchaser will own any other data with respect to Purchaser, Purchaser's Subsidiaries or the Business to the extent (and only to the extent) such data is developed, processed, stored, used or generated by Seller on behalf of Purchaser, Purchaser's Subsidiaries or the Business, in the performance of the Services. All such data will collectively be referred to herein as "Purchaser Data." The provisions of this Section 5.2 do not grant Purchaser any rights to any data concerning Seller, Seller's Subsidiaries or the Retained Business.

6. Limitation of Liabilities.

- 6.1 Seller, its Subsidiaries and Service Providers shall not be liable, whether in tort, breach of contract or otherwise, for any damages suffered or incurred by Purchaser or any other Person arising out of or in connection with the rendering of a Service or any failure to provide a Service, except to the extent that such damages are caused by the material breach, willful misconduct or gross negligence of Seller, its Subsidiaries or Service Providers. In no event shall Seller, its Subsidiaries' or Service Providers' total liability to Purchaser and its Subsidiaries or any other Person under this Agreement for any action, regardless of the form of action, whether in tort or contract, arising under this Agreement exceed One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,500,000). In no event shall Seller, its Subsidiaries or Service Providers, or Purchaser or its Subsidiaries, be liable for any lost profits or consequential, punitive, special or indirect damages, except to the extent awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction with respect to a third party claim.
- 6.2 Purchaser acknowledges that Agilent is not a party to this Agreement nor a service provider, and if there are any problems with any Services which Seller is obligated to provide to Purchaser under this Agreement, Purchaser shall look solely to Seller for such Services, not Agilent.
- 6.3 To the extent Purchaser incurs damages as a result of the gross negligence or willful misconduct Agilent or its Affiliates in connection with their performance or failure to perform any aspect of the Services, Purchaser agrees that Purchaser's remedies will be limited to the damages which Seller is able to recover from Agilent pursuant to the Agilent Master Separation Agreement, provided that Agilent will use commercially reasonable efforts (as defined in the Purchaser Agreement) to recover such damages.

7. Dispute Resolution.

- 7.1 Dispute Resolution. In the event of any dispute between Seller and Purchaser with respect to the provision of any Service pursuant to this Agreement, each of Seller and Purchaser shall designate an employee or other representative as its representative to attempt to resolve the dispute and each such representative will use reasonable commercial efforts to resolve the dispute promptly. If the individuals designated by Seller and Purchaser are unable to resolve the dispute promptly, the dispute will be submitted to a member of senior management of each party. Such members of senior management will meet in person or by telephone conference at least once in the ten (10) business day period following the submission of the dispute to them and will use commercially reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute promptly. If such members of senior management are unable to resolve the dispute within fifteen (15) business days of the submission of the dispute to them, such dispute will be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Purchase Agreement with respect to disputes arising out of the Purchase Agreement.
- 7.2 Audits. Seller shall invoice Purchaser for the Services provided hereunder in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and shall provide reasonable documentation supporting the amounts owed. Purchaser shall have the right, on reasonable notice, to audit of the books and records and systems of Seller (excluding systems of Service Providers) solely with respect to the fees and costs relating to the Day One Setup Services and Day Two Setup Services with respect to the Services and any Additional Services and to ensure compliance with this Agreement, provided, however, Purchaser may only conduct one discretionary audit, plus additional ones to the extent necessary to enable Purchaser to comply with Laws applicable to Purchaser. Such audit may be performed by the employees, independent accounting firm or other designated representative of Purchaser (including internal auditing personnel) at its sole cost and expense. Purchaser and its auditors may have access to any such books or records with respect to the Services and Additional Services, including process documentation and reports, and modifications thereto, in connection with developing, documenting and testing Purchaser processes and controls relating to the Services and Additional Services and in satisfying legal requirements relating to securities or debt issued by Purchaser and its affiliates, including those related to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. For the avoidance of doubt, each party is solely responsible for its own compliance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. Seller shall, at Purchaser's expense, fully cooperate with the auditing party's representatives to accomplish the audit as expeditiously as possible. Seller shall maintain all relevant books and records in accordance with Seller's document retention policies, but in any event no less than three years after the Termination Date.

8. Term, Extension and Termination.

- 8.1 Term. This Agreement shall become effective on the Signing Date and, unless sooner terminated in accordance with the terms hereof, including Sections 1.2 and 8.3, shall continue in effect until 180 days following the Closing Date (the "Initial Termination Date”) except as otherwise provided in this Section 8. All Services will be terminated on the Initial Termination Date or such earlier date as may be set forth in Annex A or the applicable Separation Agreement or as otherwise provided for herein (including in Sections 1.2 and 8.3), unless the Termination Date is extended for an additional Extension Period as provided in Section 8.2 below. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Day Two Setup Services which require assistance from, or access to information of, Agilent will terminate upon the termination of Agilent’s obligations pursuant to the Agilent Master Separation Agreement.

8.2 Extension of SAs and the Agreement.

8.2.1 Upon Purchaser’s request, Purchaser may request an extension of specific individual Ongoing Services to continue past the Initial Termination Date, provided Purchaser gives Seller at least thirty (30) days written notice prior to the expiration of the applicable term for such Ongoing Service (e.g., as set forth in Section 8.1 or set forth in the applicable SA). This extension shall be available at Purchaser’s request and shall commence on the Initial Termination Date. The extension will be for a three (3) month period (“Extension Period”) unless a shorter time is set forth in the Extension Period request. This Agreement shall not terminate as long as an Extension Period is effective. For purposes hereof, the “Termination Date” shall be the Initial Termination Date, or, if there is an Extension Period, the last day of the Extension Period.

With respect to the Extension Period, Purchaser will be charged an extension fee of two million dollars ($2,000,000) in addition to fees for extended Ongoing Services.

8.3 Termination. This Agreement, any individual SA or any individual Service under any SA may be terminated earlier in accordance with any of the following provisions:

8.3.1 By mutual written consent of both Seller and Purchaser;

8.3.2 By Purchaser effective as of the last day of the month immediately following the month in which written notice is given;

8.3.3 By either party entitled to the benefit of the performance of any of the obligations under this Agreement (the “Non Defaulting Party”), if the other party (the “Defaulting Party”) shall fail to perform or default in such performance in any material respect, subject to compliance with the remainder of this paragraph. The Non Defaulting Party shall give written notice to the Defaulting Party specifying the nature of such failure or default and stating that the Non Defaulting Party intends to terminate this Agreement with respect to the Defaulting Party if such failure or default is not cured within thirty (30) days after receipt of such written notice. If any failure or default so specified is not cured within such period, the Non Defaulting Party may elect to immediately terminate the applicable SA with respect to the Defaulting Party; provided, however, that if the failure or default relates to a dispute contested in good faith by the Defaulting Party, the Non Defaulting Party may not terminate this Agreement pending the resolution of such dispute in accordance with Section 7 hereof. Such termination shall be effective upon giving a written notice of termination from the Non Defaulting Party to the Defaulting Party and shall be without prejudice to any other remedy which may be available to the Non Defaulting Party against the Defaulting Party;

- 8.3.4 Automatically, without notice by or to either party, if: (i) Purchaser shall (1) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its properties, (2) make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (3) commence a voluntary case under the United States Bankruptcy Code, as now or hereafter in effect (the "Bankruptcy Code"), (4) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any law (the "Bankruptcy Laws") relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, winding-up, or composition or readjustment of debts, (5) fail to controvert in a timely and appropriate manner, or acquiesce in writing to, any petition filed against it in any involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code, or (6) take any corporate action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing; or (ii) a proceeding or case shall be commenced against Purchaser in any court of competent jurisdiction, seeking (1) its liquidation, reorganization, dissolution or winding-up, or the composition or readjustment of its debts, (2) the appointment of a trustee, receiver, custodian, liquidator or the like of Purchaser or of all or any substantial part of its assets, or (3) similar relief under any Bankruptcy Laws, or an order, judgment or decree approving any of the foregoing shall be entered and continue unstayed for a period of ninety (90) days, or an order for relief against Purchaser shall be entered in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code;
- 8.3.5 By Seller, effective immediately upon notice to Purchaser, if any of the following shall occur: (a) the sale, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of Purchaser on a consolidated basis to any competitor or (b) any competitor acquires beneficial ownership of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of Purchaser; or
- 8.3.6 By either party upon termination of the Purchase Agreement pursuant to Section 10.1 of the Purchase Agreement, provided that in the event of termination pursuant to this Section, Purchaser will not be obligated to pay Seller any amounts hereunder, including Day One Setup Costs or Day Two Setup Costs.

- 8.4 Effect of Termination. Purchaser specifically agrees and acknowledges that all obligations of Seller to provide each Service hereunder shall immediately cease upon the Termination Date, or the date of termination of such Service, and Seller's obligations to provide all of the Services for which Seller is responsible hereunder shall immediately cease upon the termination of this Agreement.
- 8.5 Survival. Notwithstanding the expiration or early termination of this Agreement or any Services hereunder, Sections 2.3, 4 through 7 and 10 through 27 will survive.

9. Personnel Matters.

- 9.1 Access to Seller's Facility. Seller and Purchaser agree that all Transferred Employees located at Seller's facilities may remain on site through the term of the relevant Separation Agreement, provided, however, Transferred Employees may not remain at any Agilent facility other than Agilent's Roseville facility. Purchaser will not permit any of its employees, agents or subcontractors to perform any activities at Agilent's Roseville facility or Seller's facilities without Agilent's or Seller's prior written approval, as applicable, provided that Seller will use commercially reasonable efforts (as defined in the Purchaser Agreement) to secure Agilent's approval on Purchaser's behalf. Purchaser will ensure that all obligations imposed upon Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement, including without limitation any Seller insurance obligations are similarly imposed upon any authorized non-Purchaser employee. Purchaser's execution of any subcontracts or other agreements with any agents, subcontractors or other third Parties will not relieve, waive or diminish any obligation that Purchaser may have to Seller under this Agreement. For purposes of this Section 9.1, Agilent facilities shall include, and Seller's facilities shall not include, any facilities which contain any aspect of Agilent's LAN/WAN.
- 9.2 Access to Computer Systems. During the term of any Separation Agreements, the Transferred Employees and any other employees, agents or subcontractors of Purchaser (other than Seller, Seller's Subsidiaries or Service Providers) who are authorized by Seller (collectively, "On-Site Personnel") may have access to the computer systems and related equipment of Seller as detailed in the Separation Agreements that are necessary to fulfill the activities directly related to this Agreement; provided, however, that Seller may restrict such access to protect commercially sensitive resources and maintain the confidentiality of other Seller businesses, provided further, that no Transferred Employees may have access to any such systems and related equipment or owned, leased or controlled by Agilent, including any such systems and related equipment at Agilent's Roseville facility, provided that Transferred Employees located at Agilent's Roseville facility will be given Internet access, but not Intranet or other network access.
- 9.3 Wages, Payroll Taxes, Benefits and Services. From and after the Closing Date, Purchaser will be solely responsible for the payment of all wages, benefits, social security, unemployment or similar expenses and taxes, and all services not provided pursuant to the relevant Lease Agreements, for all On-Site Personnel.

- 9.4 Identification and Activities of On-Site Personnel. Seller will provide identification badges to On-Site Personnel that identify the On-Site Personnel as non-Seller employees. Purchaser will ensure that such On-Site Personnel conspicuously display such badges at all times when present at Seller's facility. In addition, to the extent provided by Seller to Purchaser in writing, Purchaser will ensure that On-Site Personnel are informed of and comply with all written restrictions and prohibitions associated with Purchaser's use of Seller's facilities, including without limitation the restriction that such On-Site Personnel may not participate in any activity reserved for Seller's employees (e.g., use of exercise and sport facilities; participation in Seller-sponsored network groups, athletic leagues or teams; attendance at social events reserved for Seller's employees; participation in staff meetings led by Seller), and the restrictions provided by the relevant Lease Agreements and the Confidential Disclosure Agreement.
- 9.5 Conduct. Purchaser will be solely responsible for the proper conduct of all On-Site Personnel. Immediately upon the written request from an authorized representative of Seller that any On-Site Personnel be removed for misconduct, Purchaser will remove such On-Site Personnel from Seller's facilities, and will provide written confirmation of such removal. Purchaser will also immediately take possession and return such On-Site personnel's badge identification to Seller. Seller will not be notified of or participate in any disciplinary action regarding any On-Site Personnel.
- 9.6 Purchaser Compliance. Purchaser's access to Agilent's Roseville facility will be subject to Purchaser agreeing to be bound by Agilent confidentiality and security requirements consistent with those imposed on Seller in connection with the Agilent Master Separation Agreement.
10. Independent Contractor. The parties hereto understand and agree that this Agreement does not make either of them an agent or legal representative of the other for any purpose whatsoever. No party is granted, by this Agreement or otherwise, any right or authority to assume or create any obligation or responsibilities, express or implied, on behalf of or in the name of any other party, or to bind any other party in any manner whatsoever. The parties expressly acknowledge (i) that Seller is an independent contractor with respect to Purchaser in all respects, including, without limitation, the provision of the Services, and (ii) that the parties are not partners, joint venturers, employees or agents of or with each other.
11. Beneficiary of Services; No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties hereto, and nothing expressed or implied shall give or be construed to give any person any legal or equitable rights hereunder, whether as a third party beneficiary or otherwise. Seller and Purchaser agree, and Purchaser represents and warrants, that the Services will be provided solely to, and will be used solely by, Purchaser, its Subsidiaries and, to the extent reasonably necessary and appropriate with respect to particular Services, its suppliers. Except as set forth in Section 16, Purchaser shall not resell or provide the Services to any other Person, or permit the use of the Services by any Person other than Purchaser and its Subsidiaries.

12. Force Majeure. Neither party will be held liable to the other for any delay or failure of performance to the extent such delay or failure results from events beyond that party's control, including without limitation acts of God, earthquakes, fires, floods, civil disturbance, strikes, labor disputes, and lawful governmental action (a "Force Majeure Event"). The party claiming suspension due to a Force Majeure Event shall give prompt notice to the other party hereto of the occurrence of the Force Majeure Event giving rise to the delay or failure to perform under this Agreement and of its nature and anticipated duration, and such party will use its reasonable efforts to cure the cause of the delay or failure to perform promptly and shall resume performance as soon as the Force Majeure Event has ended.
13. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the Purchase Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings and negotiations, both written and oral, between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.
14. Amendment; Waiver. This Agreement may be amended, and any provision of this Agreement may be waived, if but only if such amendment or waiver is in writing and signed, in the case of an amendment, by Seller and Purchaser, or in the case of a waiver, by the party against whom the waiver is effective. No failure or delay by any party in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.
15. Notices. All communications provided for hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to be given when delivered in person or by private courier with receipt, when telefaxed and received, or three (3) days after being deposited in the United States mail, first-class, registered or certified, return receipt requested, with postage paid. Such communications will be given to the persons identified in Section 11.2 of the Purchase Agreement, or to such other address as any such party shall designate by written notice to the other party hereto.
16. Non Assignability.
- 16.1 Except as provided in Section 16.2 below, neither party may, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, neither by operation of law or otherwise, assign or transfer this Agreement without the other party's prior written consent. Any merger, reorganization, transfer of substantially all assets of a party, or other change in control or ownership will be considered an assignment for the purposes of this Agreement. Any attempted assignment, transfer or delegation without such prior written consent will be void.
- 16.2 Each party (including its respective Subsidiaries or its permitted successive assignees or transferees hereunder) may assign or transfer this Agreement as a whole, without consent, in connection with a corporate reorganization that leaves such party substantially equivalent in terms of business, assets and ownership as before the reorganization.

- 16.3 This Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their permitted successors and assigns.
17. Definitions and Rules of Construction.
- 17.1 Defined terms used in this Agreement have the meanings ascribed to them by definition in this Agreement, in Annex A hereto or in the Purchase Agreement.
- 17.2 This Agreement shall be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting or causing any instrument to be drafted.
- 17.3 Whenever the words “include,” “including,” or “includes” appear in this Agreement, they shall be read to be followed by the words “without limitation” or words having similar import.
- 17.4 As used in this Agreement, the plural shall include the singular and the singular shall include the plural.
18. Counterparts; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument. Copies of executed counterparts transmitted by telecopy, telefax or other electronic transmission service shall be considered original executed counterparts for purposes hereof, provided that receipt of copies of such counterparts is confirmed. This Agreement shall become effective when each party has received a counterpart hereof signed by the other party hereto.
19. Section Headings. The section headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.
20. No Publication. Neither party may publicize or disclose to any third party, without the written consent of the other party, the terms of this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, no press releases may be made without the mutual written consent of each party.
21. Annexes and SAs. The Annexes and SAs shall be construed with and as an integral part of this Agreement to the same extent as if the same had been set forth verbatim herein. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of any Annex or SA and the terms set forth in the main body of this Agreement, the terms of the Agreement shall govern unless expressly stated otherwise in an SA.
22. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be declared by any court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, void or unenforceable, all other provisions of this Agreement shall not be affected and shall remain in full force and effect, and Seller and Purchaser shall negotiate in good faith to replace such illegal, void or unenforceable provision with a provision that corresponds as closely as possible to the intentions of the parties as expressed by such illegal, void, or unenforceable provision.

23. Subcontractors and Outsourcing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein subject to Section 2, Seller shall have the right to subcontract or outsource any of its obligations hereunder.
24. Other Agreements. This Agreement is not intended to amend or modify, and should not be interpreted to amend or modify in any respect the rights and obligations of Seller and Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement and any other Transaction Documents.
25. Taxes. All amounts expressed in each SA are exclusive of value added taxes, sales taxes and any other similar taxes. Purchaser will be responsible for all taxes (other than taxes based on net income or net profits of Seller or its Subsidiaries) imposed by applicable taxing authorities on the procurement of Services hereunder. If Seller or any of its Subsidiaries are required to pay such taxes, Purchaser shall promptly reimburse the Seller therefore.
26. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of California, regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflicts of laws thereof.
27. Time is of the Essence. Time is of the essence under this Agreement.

1.2 FIRST EFFECTIVE FILING DATE. “First Effective Filing Date” means the earliest effective filing date in the particular country for any Patent or any application for any Patent. By way of example, it is understood that the First Effective Filing Date for a United States Patent is the earlier of (i) the actual filing date of the United States Patent application which issued into such Patent, (ii) the priority date under 35 U.S.C. § 119 for such Patent, or (iii) the priority date under 35 U.S.C. § 120 for such Patent.

1.3 IMPROVEMENTS. “Improvements” to Technology means (i) with respect to Copyrights, any modifications, derivative works, and translations of works of authorship, (ii) with respect to Database Rights, any database that is created by extraction or re-utilization of another database, and (iii) with respect to Mask Work Rights, trade secrets and other intellectual property rights included within the definition of Technology and not covered by Section 1.3(i) – (ii) above, any improvements of Technology. For the purposes of clarification, an item of Technology will be deemed to be an Improvement of another item of Technology only if it is actually derived from such other item of Technology and not merely because it may have the same or similar functionality or use as such other item of Technology.

1.4 LICENSED BUSINESS PATENTS. “Licensed Business Patents” means:

(a) every Patent other than design patents to the extent entitled to a First Effective Filing Date prior to the Closing Date, provided that Avago (or any Subsidiary or Affiliate of Avago):

(i) has ownership or control of such Patent, or

(ii) otherwise has the right under such Patent to grant licenses of the type and on the terms herein granted by Avago without the obligation to pay royalties or other consideration to Third Parties; and

(iii) is not restricted from granting a license under such Patents by any other agreements; and

(b) applications for the foregoing Patents described in Section 1.4, including without limitation any continuations, continuations-in-part, divisions and substitutions.

1.5 PURCHASER’S FIELD OF USE. “Purchaser’s Field of Use” means the field of the Business as currently or hereafter conducted, including the design, manufacture, supply, distribution, sale, support and maintenance of Purchaser Products.

1.6 PURCHASER PRODUCTS. “Purchaser Products” means Storage Products sold by Previous Owner and Avago and its Subsidiaries, or after the Closing, by the Purchaser or any of its Affiliates, and all modified versions thereof, any reasonably foreseeable extensions or improvements thereto, or any new Storage Products that are developed to replace products existing as of the Closing, that are sold by Purchaser or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates after the Closing as Storage Products.

1.7 AVAGO’S FIELD OF USE. “Avago’s Field of Use” means the business of Avago and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, as currently or hereafter conducted, other than Storage Products. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Avago’s Field of Use shall include products, services and other activities related to Storage Products, but only to the extent that such products, services and activities are components of products of the Retained Business, are incidental to the development or sale of products and services of the Retained Business, or are specifically included in the definition of the Retained Business.

1.8 AVAGO PRODUCTS. “Avago Products” means any and all products and services of the businesses in which Avago or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates is now or hereafter engaged (including the business of making (but not having made) Third Party products for Third Parties when Avago or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates is acting as a contract manufacturer or foundry for such Third Parties), other than Storage Products. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Avago’s Products shall include products and services related to Storage Products, but only to the extent that such products and services are components of products of the Retained Business, are incidental to the development and sale of products and services of the Retained Business, or are specifically included in the definition of the Retained Business.

1.9 THIRD PARTY. "Third Party" means a Person other than Avago and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates or Purchaser and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates.

ARTICLE II
PATENT LICENSE GRANTS

2.1 LICENSE GRANTS TO PURCHASER. Avago grants (and agrees to cause its appropriate Subsidiaries and Affiliates to grant) effective as of the Closing Date to Purchaser, under the Licensed Business Patents, an irrevocable, non-exclusive, worldwide, fully-paid, royalty-free and non-transferable (except as set forth in Section 9.12 hereof) license, with right of sublicense as set forth below, to make (including the right to practice methods, processes and procedures), have made, use, lease, sell, offer for sale and import Purchaser Products solely within the Purchaser's Field of Use. With respect to those Licensed Business Patents owned by a Third Party, (a) the license shall be non-exclusive, and (b) the license grant set forth in this Section shall be subject to the limitations set forth in the relevant license agreement between Avago and such Third Party.

2.2 SUBLICENSE RIGHTS OF PURCHASER.

(a) Subject to Sections 2.2(a) and (b) below and to Section 2.3, Purchaser may grant sublicenses to its respective Subsidiaries and Affiliates within the scope of its respective license hereunder (with no right to grant further sublicenses other than, in the case of a sublicensed Subsidiary or Affiliates, to another Subsidiary or Affiliate of Purchaser).

(b) Any sublicense under Section 2.2(a) may be made effective retroactively, but not prior to the sublicensee's becoming a Subsidiary or Affiliate of Purchaser.

(c) Any licenses granted by Purchaser or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates to its distributors, resellers, OEM customers, VAR customers, VAD customers, systems integrators and other channels of distribution and to its end user customers with respect to any Purchaser Product in the form of software may include a sublicense under the Licensed Business Patents within the scope of Purchaser's license hereunder, provided that the scope of such sublicense is limited to the exercise of the rights granted by Purchaser with respect to such Purchaser Product.

2.3 HAVE MADE RIGHTS OF PURCHASER. Purchaser understands and acknowledges that the "have made" rights granted to it in Section 2.1, and the sublicenses of such "have made" rights granted pursuant to Section 2.2, are intended to cover only the products of Purchaser and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates (including private label or OEM versions of such products), and are not intended to cover foundry or contract manufacturing activities that Purchaser may undertake through Third Parties for Third Parties.

2.4 LICENSE GRANTS BACK TO AVAGO. Purchaser grants back (and agrees to cause its appropriate Subsidiaries and Affiliates to grant back) to Avago, under the Patents included in the Transferred Business Intellectual Property (excluding all design patents included therein), an irrevocable, non-exclusive, worldwide, fully-paid, royalty-free and non-transferable (except as set forth in Section 9.12 hereof) license, with right of sublicense as set forth below, solely within the Avago's Field of Use, to make (including the right to practice methods, processes and procedures), have made, use, lease, sell, offer for sale and import Avago Products.

2.5 SUBLICENSE RIGHTS OF AVAGO.

(a) Subject to Sections 2.5(b) and (c) below and to Section 2.6, Avago may grant sublicenses to its respective Subsidiaries and Affiliates within the scope of its respective license hereunder (with no right to grant further sublicenses other than, in the case of a sublicensed Subsidiary or Affiliate, to another Subsidiary or Affiliate of Avago).

(b) Any sublicense under Section 2.5(a) may be made effective retroactively, but not prior to the sublicensee's becoming a Subsidiary or Affiliate of Avago.

(c) Any licenses granted by Avago or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates to its distributors, resellers, OEM customers, VAR customers, VAD customers, systems integrators and other channels of distribution and to its end user customers with respect to any Avago Product in the form of software may include a sublicense under the Patents included in the Transferred Business Intellectual Property within the scope of Avago's license hereunder, provided that the scope of such sublicense is limited to the exercise of the rights granted by Purchaser with respect to such Avago Product.

2.6 HAVE MADE RIGHTS OF AVAGO. Avago understands and acknowledges that the "have made" rights granted to it in Section 2.4, and the sublicenses of such "have made" rights granted pursuant to Section 2.5, are intended to cover only the products of Avago and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates (including private label or OEM versions of such products), and are not intended to cover foundry or contract manufacturing activities that Avago may undertake through Third Parties for Third Parties.

2.7 DURATION.

(a) All licenses granted herein with respect to each Patent shall expire upon the expiration of the term of such Patent; provided, however, that licenses for those Licensed Business Patents owned by a Third Party shall expire on the expiration of the term of the relevant license agreement between Avago and such Third Party.

(b) All sublicenses granted pursuant to this Agreement to a particular Subsidiary or Affiliate of a party shall terminate the date that the Subsidiary or Affiliate ceases to be a Subsidiary or Affiliate of that party.

2.8 SALE OF PART OF A BUSINESS.

(a) If either party (the "Transferring Party"), after the Closing Date, transfers a going business (but not all or substantially all of its business or assets), and such transfer includes at least one marketable product and tangible assets having a net value of at least ten million U.S. dollars ($10,000,000.00), regardless of whether such transfer is part of (i) an asset sale to any Third Party, (ii) a sale of shares or securities in a Subsidiary to a Third Party such that (A) the Subsidiary ceases to be a Subsidiary and (B) the Third Party owns at least eighty percent

(80%) of the outstanding shares or securities representing the right to vote for the election of directors or other managing authority, or (iii) a sale of shares or securities in a Subsidiary such that (A) the Subsidiary ceases to be a Subsidiary and (B) no single Third Party owns at least eighty percent (80%) of the outstanding shares or securities representing the right to vote for the election of directors or other managing authority of such ex-Subsidiary;

(b) then, upon written request to the other party (the “Non-Transferring Party”) jointly by the Transferring Party and the Transferee (as defined below) at the closing of the transfer or as soon as practicable thereafter, but not later than sixty (60) days following the transfer, the Non-Transferring Party shall grant a royalty-free license to the Transferee under the same terms as the license granted to the Transferring Party under this Agreement subject to the following:

(i) the effective date of such license shall be the effective date of such transfer,

(ii) the products, services and processes of the Transferee that are subject to such license shall be limited to the products, services and processes of the Subsidiary or the products, services and processes in the transferred business that are commercially released or for which substantial steps have been taken to commercialization as of the date of the transfer by the Transferring Party, and for new versions of such products, services and processes,

(iii) the Patents of the Non-Transferring Party that are subject to such license shall be limited to Licensed Business Patents or Patents included in the Transferred Business Intellectual Property, as the case may be,

(iv) the Transferee shall have no right to grant sublicenses except that the Transferee shall have the right to grant sublicenses to any Person at least eighty percent (80%) of whose outstanding shares or securities representing the right to vote for the election of directors or other managing authority are, directly or indirectly, owned by the Transferee (“Transferee Subsidiaries”), only for so long as such ownership exists, and the license to be granted by the Non-Transferring Party to the Transferee pursuant to this Section 2.8 shall not contain this provision or a provision containing terms comparable to this Section 2.8; and

(v) the Transferee shall grant to the Non-Transferring Party a royalty-free license under the same terms as the license granted to the Non-Transferring Party by the Transferring Party under this agreement, such license (A) to be effective as of the effective date of the transfer, (B) to apply to all the products, services and processes of the Non-Transferring Party that are subject to the license from the Transferring Party to the Non-Transferring Party as of the effective date of the transfer, and (C) to include all Patents of the Transferee (other than design patents) that are entitled to a First Effective Filing Date on or before the date of such transfer and under which, at any time commencing with the date of the transfer, the Transferee or any of the Transferee Subsidiaries has ownership or control or otherwise has the right to grant such license without the obligation to pay royalties or other consideration to third parties.

(c) provided, further, that in the event that the Non-Transferring Party and the Transferee are engaged in litigation, arbitration or other formal dispute resolution proceedings covering Patent infringement (pending in any court, tribunal, or administrative agency or before any appointed or agreed upon arbitrator in any jurisdiction worldwide), then the Non-Transferring Party shall have no obligation to enter into a license with the Transferee under this Section 2.8.

(d) Each party may exercise its rights as the Transferring Party under this Section 2.8 no more than eight (8) times unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the Non-Transferring Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing limitation, however, in any license granted by a Non-Transferring Party to a Transferee under this Section 2.8, the Transferring Party may elect to relinquish its license under this Agreement in the field of use covered by the license granted to the Transferee, and such license shall not count toward the limit. In making such election, the Transferring Party shall promptly notify the Non-Transferring Party.

(e) As used above in this Section 2.8, "Transferee" in the case of Sections 2.8(a)(i) and (ii) means the Third Party acquiring the going business or eighty percent (80%) of the Subsidiary and in the case of Section 2.8(a)(iii) means the ex-Subsidiary only.

(a) Avago grants (and agrees to cause its appropriate Subsidiaries and Affiliates to grant) effective as of the Closing Date to Purchaser and its Subsidiaries the following irrevocable, non-exclusive, worldwide, fully paid, royalty-free and non-transferable (except as specified in Section 9.12 below) licenses, with right of sublicense as set forth below, under its and their applicable Intellectual Property Rights as well as sublicensable Third Party Intellectual Property Rights, solely within the Purchaser's Field of Use:

(c) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing licenses granted in Section 3.1(a) above, with respect to software included within the Licensed Business Technology, such licenses include the right to use, modify, and reproduce such software and Improvements thereof made by or for Purchaser or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates to create Purchaser Products, in source code and object code form, and to sell and maintain such software and Improvements thereof made by or for Purchaser or its Subsidiaries, in source code and object code form, as part of Purchaser Products.

(d) The foregoing licenses in this Section 3.1 include the right to have contract manufacturers and foundries manufacture Purchaser Products for Purchaser.

(e) Purchaser may grant sublicenses within the scope of the licenses granted under Sections 3.1(a) and (b) above as follows:

(i) Purchaser may grant sublicenses to its Subsidiaries and Affiliates for so long as they remain its Subsidiaries or Affiliates, with no right to grant further sublicenses other than, in the case of a sublicensed Subsidiary or Affiliate, to another Subsidiary or Affiliates of such party; provided that any such sublicense may be made effective retroactively but not prior to the sublicensee's becoming a Subsidiary or Affiliate; and

3.2 LICENSE BACK TO AVAGO.

(a) Purchaser grants back (and agrees to cause its appropriate Subsidiaries to grant back) to Avago and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates the following personal, irrevocable, non-exclusive, worldwide, fully paid, royalty-free and non-transferable (except as specified in Section 9.12 below) licenses under its and their applicable Intellectual Property Rights, together with the right to sublicense to Third Parties subject to the terms of this agreement, solely within the Avago Field of Use:

3.3 IMPROVEMENTS. As between the parties, after the Closing Date:

(a) Avago hereby retains all right, title and interest, including all Intellectual Property Rights, in and to any Improvements to Transferred Business Technology made by or for Avago in the exercise of the licenses granted to it hereunder, subject only to the ownership of Purchaser in the underlying Transferred Business Technology and the non-competition terms agreed to by Avago pursuant to the Purchase Agreement. Avago shall not have any obligation under this Agreement to notify Purchaser of any Improvements made by or for it or to disclose or license any such Improvements to Purchaser; and

(b) Purchaser hereby retains all right, title and interest, including all Intellectual Property Rights, in and to any Improvements to Licensed Business Technology made by or for Purchaser in the exercise of the licenses granted to it hereunder, subject only to the ownership of Avago in the underlying Licensed Business Technology. Purchaser shall not have any obligation under this Agreement to notify Avago of any Improvements made by or for it or to disclose or license any such Improvements to Avago.

3.4 DURATION OF SUBLICENSES TO SUBSIDIARIES AND AFFILIATES. Any sublicenses granted to a particular Subsidiary or Affiliate by a party shall terminate upon the date that such Subsidiary or Affiliate ceases to be a Subsidiary or Affiliate of that party.

3.5 NO PATENT LICENSES. Nothing contained in this Article 3 shall be construed as conferring to either party by implication, estoppel or otherwise any license or right under any Patent or applications therefor, whether or not the exercise of any right herein granted necessarily employs an invention of any existing or later issued Patent. The applicable licenses granted by Avago to Purchaser and by Purchaser to Avago with respect to Patents are set forth in Article II above.

ARTICLE IV ADDITIONAL OBLIGATIONS

4.1 ADDITIONAL OBLIGATIONS WITH REGARD TO PATENTS. Purchaser acknowledges that its employees and contractors who are former Avago or Avago Affiliate employees and contractors have a continuing duty to assist Avago with the prosecution of Licensed Business Patent applications and other Patent applications owned by Avago and, accordingly, Purchaser agrees to make available, to Avago or its counsel, on reasonable advance written notice, inventors and other persons employed by Purchaser for interviews and/or testimony to assist in good faith in further prosecution, maintenance or litigation of such Patent applications, including the signing of documents related thereto. Any actual and reasonable out-of-pocket expenses associated with such assistance shall be borne by Avago, expressly excluding the value of the time of such Purchaser personnel; provided, however, that in the case of assistance with litigation, the parties shall agree on a case by case basis on compensation, if any, of Purchaser for the value of the time of Purchaser's employees as reasonably required.

4.2 ASSIGNMENT OF PATENTS. Neither party shall assign or grant any rights under any of the Licensed Business Patents unless such assignment or grant is made subject to the licenses granted in this Agreement.

4.3 RESPONSE TO REQUESTS. Avago shall, upon a request from Purchaser sufficiently identifying any Patent or Patent application, inform Purchaser as to the extent to which said Patent or Patent application is subject to the licenses and other rights granted hereunder.

ARTICLE V CONFIDENTIALITY

5.1 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. The parties hereto expressly acknowledge and agree that all information, whether written or oral, furnished by either party to the other party or any Subsidiary of such other party pursuant to this Agreement ("Confidential Information") shall be deemed to be confidential and shall be maintained by each party and their respective Subsidiaries in confidence, using the same degree of care to preserve the confidentiality of such Confidential Information that the party to whom such Confidential Information is disclosed would use to preserve the confidentiality of its own information of a similar nature and in no event less than a reasonable degree of care. Notwithstanding the foregoing, after the Closing Date all Transferred Business Technology shall be deemed the Confidential Information of Purchaser, not of Avago. Except as authorized in writing by the other party, neither party shall at any time use or disclose or permit to be disclosed any such Confidential Information to any person, firm, corporation or entity, (i) except as may reasonably be required in connection with the performance of this Agreement by Purchaser, Avago or its respective Subsidiaries, as the case may be, and (ii) except as may reasonably be required after the Closing Date (A) by Purchaser or its Subsidiaries in connection with the use of the Licensed Business Technology and the operation of the Business or (B) by Avago or its Subsidiaries in connection with the licensed use of the Transferred Business Technology and the operation of its business, and (iii) except to the parties' agents or representatives who are informed by the parties of the confidential nature of the information and are bound to maintain its confidentiality, and (iv) in the course of due diligence in connection with the sale of all or a portion of either party's business provided the disclosure is pursuant to a nondisclosure agreement having terms comparable to Sections 5.1 and 5.2 hereof.

5.2 EXCEPTIONS. The obligation not to disclose information under Section 5.1 hereof shall not apply to information that, as of the Closing Date or thereafter, (i) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure made after the execution of the Purchase Agreement by the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential or any of its Subsidiaries or representatives thereof, (ii) was or becomes readily available to the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential or any of its Subsidiaries or representatives thereof on a non-confidential basis, (iii) is or becomes available to the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential or any of its Subsidiaries or representatives thereof on a non-confidential basis from a source other than its own files or personnel or the other party or its Subsidiaries, provided that such source is not known by the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential to be bound by confidentiality agreements with the other party or its Subsidiaries or by legal, fiduciary or ethical constraints on disclosure of such information, or (iv) is required to be disclosed pursuant to a governmental order or decree or other legal requirement (including the requirements of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and the listing rules of any applicable securities exchange), provided that the party required to disclose such information shall give the other party prompt notice thereof prior to such disclosure and, at the request of the other party, shall cooperate in all reasonable respects in maintaining the confidentiality of such information, including obtaining a protective order or other similar order. Nothing in this Section 5.2 shall limit in any respect either party's ability to disclose information in connection with the enforcement by such party of its rights under this Agreement; provided that the proviso of clause (v) in the immediately preceding sentence shall apply to the party desiring to disclose such information.

5.3 DURATION. The obligations of the parties set forth in this Article V with respect to the protection of Confidential Information, shall remain in effect until five years after (i) the Closing Date, with respect to Confidential Information of one party that is known to or in the possession of the other party as of the Closing Date, or (ii) the date of disclosure, with respect to Confidential Information that is disclosed by the one party to the other party after the Closing Date.

ARTICLE VI
TERMINATION

6.1 VOLUNTARY TERMINATION. By written notice to the other party, either party may voluntarily terminate all or a specified portion of the license and rights granted to it hereunder by such other party. Such notice shall specify the effective date of such termination and shall clearly specify any affected Intellectual Property Rights, Technology, product or service.

6.2 SURVIVAL. Any voluntary termination by either party of the license and rights granted to it by the other party under Section 6.1 hereof shall not affect such party's license and rights with respect to any licensed product made or service furnished prior to such termination.

6.3 NO OTHER TERMINATION. Each party acknowledges and agrees that its remedy for breach by the other party of the licenses granted to it hereunder during the applicable term of such licenses, or of any other provision hereof, shall be, subject to the requirements of Article VII, to bring a claim to recover damages subject to the limits set forth in this Agreement and to seek any other appropriate equitable relief, other than termination of the licenses granted by it in this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII

Except as otherwise set forth herein, resolution of any and all disputes arising from or in connection with this Agreement, whether based on contract, tort, or otherwise (collectively, "Disputes"), shall be exclusively governed by and settled in accordance with the provisions of this Article 7.

7.1 NEGOTIATION. The parties shall make a good faith attempt to resolve any Dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement through negotiation. Within 30 days after notice of a Dispute is given by either party to the other party, each party shall select a first tier negotiating team comprised of director or general manager level employees of such party and shall meet and make a good faith attempt to resolve such Dispute and shall continue to negotiate in good faith in an effort to resolve the Dispute or renegotiate the applicable Section or provision without the necessity of any formal proceedings. If the first tier negotiating teams are unable to agree within 30 days of their first meeting, then each party shall select a second tier negotiating team comprised of vice president level employees of such party and shall meet within 30 days after the end of the first 30 day negotiating period to attempt to resolve the matter. During the course of negotiations under this Section 7.1, all reasonable requests made by one party to the other for information, including requests for copies of relevant documents, will be honored. The specific format for such negotiations will be left to the discretion of the designated negotiating teams but may include the preparation of agreed upon statements of fact or written statements of position furnished to the other party. All negotiations between the parties pursuant to this Section 7.1 shall be treated as compromise and settlement negotiations. Nothing said or disclosed, nor any document produced, in the course of such negotiations that is not otherwise independently discoverable shall be offered or received as evidence or used for impeachment or for any other purpose in any current or future litigation.

7.2 FAILURE TO RESOLVE DISPUTES. In the event that any Dispute arising out of or related to this Agreement is not settled by the parties within 15 days after the first meeting of the second tier negotiating teams under Section 7.1, the parties may seek any remedies to which they may be entitled in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

7.3 PROCEEDINGS. Nothing herein, however, shall prohibit either party from initiating litigation or other judicial or administrative proceedings if such party would be substantially harmed by a failure to act during the time that such good faith efforts are being made to resolve the dispute or claim through negotiation or mediation. In the event that litigation is commenced under this Section 7.3, the parties agree to continue to attempt to resolve any Dispute according to the terms of Sections 7.1 and 7.2 hereof during the course of such litigation proceedings under this Section 7.3.

7.4 PAY AND DISPUTE. Except as provided herein, in the event of any dispute regarding payment of a third-party invoice (subject to standard verification of receipt of products or services), the party named in a third party's invoice must make timely payment to such third party, even if the party named in the invoice desires to pursue the dispute resolution procedures outlined in this Article 7. If the party that paid the invoice is found pursuant to this Article 7 to not be responsible for such payment, such paying party shall be entitled to reimbursement, with interest accrued at an annual rate of the rate of interest as announced from time to time by JPMorgan Chase at its principal office in New York City as its prime lending rate, the Prime Rate to change when and if such prime lending rate changes, from the party found responsible for such payment.

ARTICLE VIII LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY OR ITS SUBSIDIARIES OR AFFILIATES BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY OR ITS SUBSIDIARIES OR AFFILIATES FOR ANY SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES OR LOST PROFITS, HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER OR NOT SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. THE FOREGOING SHALL NOT, HOWEVER, LIMIT THE AMOUNT OR TYPES OF DAMAGES AVAILABLE TO EITHER PARTY FOR INFRINGEMENT OR MISAPPROPRIATION OF ITS OR ITS SUBSIDIARIES' OR AFFILIATES' INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS BY THE OTHER PARTY OR SUCH OTHER PARTY'S SUBSIDIARIES OR AFFILIATES, OR FOR ANY DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

ARTICLE IX MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

9.1 DISCLAIMER. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE SET FORTH HEREIN OR IN THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ALL (A) TECHNOLOGY AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS LICENSED HEREUNDER, ARE LICENSED WITHOUT ANY WARRANTIES WHATSOEVER,

WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, WITH RESPECT THERETO, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, ENFORCEABILITY OR NON-INFRINGEMENT. Except as otherwise set forth herein or in the Purchase Agreement, neither party nor any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates makes any warranty or representation that any manufacture, use, importation, offer for sale or sale of any product or service will be free from infringement of any patent or other intellectual property right of any Third Party. Except as otherwise set forth herein or in the Purchase Agreement, neither party nor any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates makes any warranty or representation as to the validity and/or scope of any Patent licensed by it to the other party hereunder or any warranty or representation that any manufacture, use, importation, offer for sale or sale of any product or service will be free from infringement of any Patent or other Intellectual Property Right of any Third Party.

9.2 NO IMPLIED LICENSES. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as conferring any rights by implication, estoppel or otherwise, under any Intellectual Property Right, other than the rights expressly granted in this Agreement. Neither party is required hereunder to furnish or disclose to the other any technical or other information (including copies of the Licensed Business Technology or Transferred Business Technology), except as specifically provided herein or in the Purchase Agreement.

9.3 INFRINGEMENT SUITS. Neither party shall have any obligation hereunder to institute or maintain any action or suit against Third Parties for infringement or misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Right in or to any Technology licensed to the other party hereunder, or to defend any action or suit brought by a Third Party which challenges or concerns the validity of any of such rights or which claims that any Technology licensed to the other party hereunder infringes or constitutes a misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Right of any Third Party. Avago shall not have any right to institute any action or suit against Third Parties for infringement of any of the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights. Purchaser shall not have any right to institute any action or suit against Third Parties for infringement of any of the Licensed Business Intellectual Property Rights.

9.4 NO OBLIGATION TO OBTAIN OR MAINTAIN RIGHTS IN TECHNOLOGY. Except as otherwise set forth herein or in the Purchase Agreement, neither party, nor any of its Subsidiaries, shall be obligated to provide the other party with any technical assistance or to furnish the other party with, or obtain, any documents, materials or other information or Technology.

9.5 NO OBLIGATION TO OBTAIN OR MAINTAIN PATENTS OR TRADEMARKS. Neither Avago, nor any of its Subsidiaries is obligated to (i) file any Patent application, or to secure any Patent or Patent rights or (ii) to maintain any Patent in force. Neither Avago, nor any of its Subsidiaries is obligated to (i) file any Trademark application, or to secure any Trademark rights or (ii) to maintain any Trademark registration in force.

9.6 RECONCILIATION. The parties acknowledge that, as part of the transfer of Transferred Business Intellectual Property, Transferred Business Technology, and Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights, Avago may inadvertently retain Technology or Intellectual Property that should have been transferred to Purchaser as part of the contemplated transfer of assets, and Purchaser may inadvertently acquire Technology or Intellectual Property that should not have been thereby transferred. Each party agrees to transfer to the other any such later discovered Technology or Intellectual Property, subject to the licenses set forth above, at the reasonable request of the appropriate owner of such Technology or Intellectual Property.

9.7 ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement and the Purchase Agreement constitute the entire understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and shall supersede all prior written and oral and all contemporaneous oral agreements and understandings with respect to the subject matter hereof.

9.8 GOVERNING LAW. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of California, without regard to any conflicts of laws principles.

9.9 CONSENT TO JURISDICTION; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. Each party hereto irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States District Court located in Santa Clara County, California, or if such court does not have jurisdiction, the superior courts of the State of California located in Santa Clara County, for the purposes of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of this Agreement or any transaction contemplated hereby. Each of the parties, further agrees that service of any process, summons, notice or document by U.S. registered mail to such party's respective address set forth in Section 9.11 shall be effective service of process for any action, suit or proceeding in California with respect to any matters to which it has submitted to jurisdiction as set forth above in the immediately preceding sentence. Each of the parties, irrevocably and unconditionally waives any objection to the laying of venue of any action, suit or proceeding set forth above arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, and hereby further irrevocably and unconditionally waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action, suit or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. The parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waive trial by jury in any legal action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any other agreement entered into in connection therewith and for any counterclaim with respect thereto.

9.10 SECTION HEADINGS. The section headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for reference purposes only and are not intended to be a part, nor should they affect the meaning or interpretation, of this Agreement.

9.11 NOTICES. All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered in person, by telecopy with answer back, by express or overnight mail delivered by an internationally recognized air courier (delivery charges prepaid), by registered or certified mail (postage prepaid, return receipt requested) or by e-mail with receipt confirmed by return e-mail to the respective parties as follows:

Any notice or communication sent by registered or certified mail shall be deemed effective on the third Business Day following the day on which such notice or communication was mailed. As used in this Section 9.11, "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or a day on which banking institutions located in the jurisdiction in which the person to whom notice is to be provided is located are authorized or obligated by law or executive order to close.

9.12 NONASSIGNABILITY.

(a) Neither party may, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, assign or transfer this Agreement, without the other party's prior written consent, and any attempted assignment, transfer or delegation without such prior written consent shall be voidable at the sole option of such other party; provided, however, that either party may assign this Agreement without such consent to an entity that succeeds to all or substantially all of its business or assets to which this Agreement relates, subject to the terms of Section 9.12(c) below.

(b) In addition, each party (including its respective Subsidiaries or Affiliates or its permitted successive assignees or transferees hereunder) may assign or transfer this Agreement as a whole, without consent, in connection with a corporate reorganization that places such party in a substantially equivalent position in terms of business, assets or ownership of such party as before the reorganization (e.g., a reorganization in another jurisdiction).

(c) In the event of any assignment or transfer under this Section 9.12 that is not covered by Section 9.12(b) above, Purchaser promptly shall give notice of such acquisition to Avago. The Patent license granted to Purchaser by Avago pursuant to Article II of this Agreement, and any sublicenses granted by Purchaser to its Subsidiaries, shall automatically become limited to the products, processes and services of Purchaser or its Subsidiaries that are commercially released or for which substantial steps have been taken to commercialization as of the effective date of the acquisition and for new versions that have merely minor incremental differences from such products, processes and services and shall not in any event include any products, processes or services of the acquiring party; provided, however, that in any event such license shall be terminable at will by Avago if Avago and the acquiring party are engaged in litigation, arbitration or other formal dispute resolution proceedings covering Patent infringement (pending in any court, tribunal, or administrative agency or before any appointed or agreed upon arbitrator in any jurisdiction worldwide) at the time that the acquisition agreement is entered into, or if such proceedings are initiated by the acquiring party within one hundred twenty-one days (121) days after the date that the acquisition agreement is entered into.

(d) No assignment or transfer made pursuant to Section 9.12 shall release the transferring or assigning party from any of its liabilities or obligations hereunder. Without limiting the foregoing, this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their permitted successors and assigns.

9.13 SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this Agreement shall be declared by any court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, void or unenforceable, all other provisions of this Agreement shall not be affected and shall remain in full force and effect, and Avago and Purchaser shall negotiate in good faith to replace such illegal, void or unenforceable provision with a provision that corresponds as closely as possible to the intentions of the parties as expressed by such illegal, void or unenforceable provision.

9.14 AMENDMENT; WAIVER; REMEDIES CUMULATIVE. This Agreement, including this provision of this Agreement, may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified only by a written instrument executed by the parties hereto. No waiver by either party of any of the provisions hereof shall be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and executed by the party so waiving. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, no action taken pursuant to this Agreement, including any investigation by or on behalf of any party or a failure or delay by any party in exercising any power, right or privilege under this Agreement, shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by the party taking such action of compliance with any representations, warranties, covenants, or agreements contained herein, and in any documents delivered or to be delivered pursuant to this Agreement and in connection with the Closing hereunder. The waiver by any party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach. All rights and remedies existing under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

9.15 COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument. Copies of executed counterparts transmitted by telecopy, telefax or other electronic transmission service shall be considered original executed counterparts for purposes of this Section 9.15, provided that receipt of copies of such counterparts is confirmed.

This Trademark License Agreement (“License”) is effective as of the Closing Date (as defined in the PSA), between Avago Technologies General IP (Singapore) Pte. Ltd., a Singapore corporation (“Seller”), and Palau Acquisition Corporation, a corporation incorporated under the laws of Delaware (“Purchaser”).

WHEREAS, Seller and certain Affiliates of Seller are engaged in, among other things, the manufacturing and distribution of Licensed Products;

WHEREAS, Seller and Purchaser have entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement, dated as of October 28, 2005 (“PSA”), pursuant to which Purchaser shall purchase and assume, and Seller, through itself and one or more of its Affiliates, shall sell, transfer and assign substantially all of the assets and liabilities of the Business (as defined in the PSA) to Purchaser; and

WHEREAS, in connection with the foregoing, Seller desires to grant to Purchaser a license to use certain other Trademarks (as defined in the PSA) pursuant to rights granted to Seller by Agilent Technologies, Inc.;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises of the parties, and of good and valuable consideration, it is agreed by and between the parties as follows:

ARTICLE I DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this License, unless specifically defined otherwise in this License, all defined terms will have the meanings set forth in the PSA:

1.1 AGILENT. “Agilent” means Agilent Technologies, Inc. and/or any of its subsidiaries.

1.2 AUTHORIZED DEALERS. “Authorized Dealers” means any distributor, dealer, OEM customer, VAR customer, VAD customer, systems integrator or other agent that on or after the Closing Date is authorized by Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries to market, advertise, sell, lease, rent, service or otherwise offer Licensed Products.

1.5 FAMILY. “Family” means Storage Products with similar specifications and functions to a Licensed Product, which are intentionally associated with one or more other Licensed Products and which are intended to perform similar functions. Members of the same Family of Licensed Products communicate this connection to customers by using sequential or related part numbers, similar or related product names or descriptions, and the like.

1.6 LICENSED MARKS. “Licensed Marks” means the Trademarks listed on Attachment 1 to this License.

1.7 LICENSED PRODUCTS. “Licensed Products” means any Storage Product that was commercially sold or offered for sale by Seller immediately prior to the Closing Date and rights to which have been transferred to Purchaser under the PSA, and new versions thereof that have merely minor incremental differences from any such Storage Product. 1.8 MARKETING MATERIALS. “Marketing Materials” means advertising, promotions, display fixtures or any of any similar type of literature or things, in any medium, for the marketing, promotion or advertising of the Licensed Products or parts thereof that are marked with at least one of the Licensed Marks.

and product labeling standards attached hereto as Attachment 2. All such guidelines may be revised and updated in writing at the sites listed above by Agilent from time to time during the Term; or by written communication to the Purchaser with regard to the product labeling standards. For avoidance of confusion with regard to product labeling embedded into the manufacturing process, any such labeling that was created by Agilent will be deemed to be in compliance with any product labeling standards, provided the embedded product labeling has not been altered by Seller or Purchaser.

ARTICLE II LICENSES

2.1 LICENSE GRANT. Seller grants to Purchaser a personal, non-exclusive, worldwide and non-transferable (except as set forth in Section 15.8 hereof) license during the Term to use: (a) the Licensed Marks on or in connection with the Licensed Products and Collateral Materials in connection with the Sale and offer for Sale of such Licensed Products (or, in the case of Licensed Products in the form of software, in connection with licensing of such Licensed Products); (b) the Licensed Marks in Marketing Materials for the Licensed Products; (c) the Licensed Marks in connection with Corporate Identity Materials; and (d) Seller Part Numbers (as that term is defined in Section 10.5(g)) in connection with Licensed Products and any other Purchaser-manufactured Storage Product in the same Family. Seller covenants not to grant any licenses to any Third Party under the Licensed Marks in connection with the Sale or offer for Sale of Storage Products for use of the Licensed Marks within a period of twenty-four (24) months following the Closing Date.

2.2 LICENSE RESTRICTIONS.

(a) Once Purchaser abandons the use of all of the Licensed Marks on a particular Licensed Product, then Purchaser agrees that its license granted hereunder with respect to that Licensed Product shall thereupon terminate.

(b) Purchaser may not make any use whatsoever, in whole or in part, of the Licensed Marks, or any other Trademarks owned by Seller or Agilent, in connection with Purchaser's corporate, doing business as, or fictitious name, or on Corporate Identity Materials, except as set forth in this License.

(c) Purchaser may not use any Licensed Mark in direct association with another Trademark such that the two Trademarks appear to be a single Trademark or in any other composite manner with any Trademarks of Purchaser or any Third Party.

(d) In all respects, Purchaser's usage of the Licensed Marks during the Term pursuant to the license granted hereunder shall be in a manner consistent with the high standards, reputation and prestige of Agilent as represented by its use of the Licensed Marks, and any usage by Purchaser that is inconsistent with the foregoing shall be deemed to be outside the scope of the license granted hereunder. As a condition to the license granted hereunder, Purchaser shall at all times present, position and promote the Licensed Products marked with one or more of the Licensed Marks in a manner consistent with the high standards and prestige of Agilent.

2.3 LICENSEE UNDERTAKINGS. As a condition to the licenses granted hereunder, Purchaser undertakes to Seller that:

- (a) Purchaser shall not use the Licensed Marks (or any other Trademark of Seller or Agilent) in any manner contrary to public morals, in any manner which is deceptive or misleading, which ridicules or is derogatory to the Licensed Marks, or which compromises or reflects unfavorably upon the goodwill, good name, reputation or image of Seller, Agilent or the Licensed Marks, or which might jeopardize or limit Seller's or Agilent's proprietary interest therein.
- (b) Purchaser shall not use the Licensed Marks in connection with any products other than the Licensed Products, including without limitation any other products sold and/or manufactured by Purchaser. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser may use Seller Part Numbers in connection with Storage Products in a Family associated with a Licensed Product.
- (c) Purchaser shall not: (i) misrepresent to any Person the scope of its authority under this License, or (ii) incur or authorize any expenses or liabilities chargeable to Seller or Agilent.
- (d) Purchaser shall have adopted a customer facing corporate identity of its own by the Closing Date.
- (e) In all external communications involving any use of the Licensed Marks on Corporate Identity Materials, Purchaser shall use reasonable best efforts to avoid confusion regarding the source of the communications.

ARTICLE III PERMITTED SUBLICENSES

3.1 SUBLICENSES TO SUBSIDIARIES. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, including all applicable Quality Standards and Trademark Usage Guidelines and other restrictions in this License, Purchaser may grant sublicenses to its Subsidiaries to use the Licensed Marks in accordance with the license grant in Section 2.1 above; provided, that: (a) Purchaser enters into a written sublicense agreement with each such Subsidiary sublicensee, and (b) such agreement does not include the right to grant further sublicenses, except as set forth in Section 3.2 below. If Purchaser grants any sublicense rights pursuant to this Section 3.1 and any such sublicensed Subsidiary ceases to be a Subsidiary, then the sublicense granted to such Subsidiary pursuant to this Section 3.1 shall terminate immediately upon the date of such cessation.

3.2 AUTHORIZED DEALERS' USE OF MARKS. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, including all applicable Quality Standards and Trademark Usage Guidelines and other restrictions in this License, Purchaser (and those Subsidiaries sublicensed to use the Licensed Marks pursuant to Section 3.1) may allow Authorized Dealers, and may allow such Authorized Dealers to allow other Authorized Dealers, to Sell or otherwise distribute Collateral Materials and Licensed Products bearing the Licensed Marks, provided that such Authorized Dealers execute written agreements with Purchaser (or its Subsidiaries) that impose upon such Authorized Dealers an obligation of full compliance with all relevant provisions of this License.

3.3 ENFORCEMENT OF AGREEMENTS. Purchaser shall take all reasonably appropriate measures at Purchaser's expense promptly and diligently to enforce the terms of any sublicense agreement or other agreement with any Subsidiary or Authorized Dealer and shall restrain any such Subsidiary or Authorized Dealer from violating such terms, including without limitation: (a) monitoring the Subsidiaries' and Authorized Dealers' compliance with the relevant Trademark Usage Guidelines and Quality Standards and causing any non-complying Subsidiary or Authorized Dealer promptly to remedy any failure, (b) if need be, terminating such agreement, and/or (c) if need be, commencing legal action. In each case, Purchaser shall use a standard of care consistent with Seller's practices as of the Closing Date, but in no case using a standard of care less than what is reasonable in the industry.

ARTICLE IV TRADEMARK USAGE GUIDELINES

4.1 TRADEMARK USAGE GUIDELINES. Purchaser, its Subsidiaries and Authorized Dealers shall use the Licensed Marks during the Term only in a manner that is consistent with the Trademark Usage Guidelines.

4.2 TRADEMARK REVIEWS. At Seller's reasonable request, Purchaser agrees to furnish or make available for inspection to Seller samples of all Licensed Products, Collateral Materials and Marketing Materials of Purchaser and its Subsidiaries that are marked with one or more of the Licensed Marks. Purchaser further agrees to take reasonably appropriate measures to require its Authorized Dealers to furnish or make available for inspection to Purchaser samples of all Marketing Materials and Collateral Materials of its Authorized Dealers. If Purchaser is notified or reasonably determines that it or any of its Subsidiaries or Authorized Dealers is not complying with any Trademark Usage Guidelines, it shall notify Seller and the provisions of Article V and Section 3.3 hereof shall apply to such noncompliance.

ARTICLE V TRADEMARK USAGE GUIDELINES ENFORCEMENT

5.1 INITIAL CURE PERIOD. If Seller becomes aware that Purchaser or any Subsidiary is not complying with any Trademark Usage Guidelines, Seller shall notify Purchaser in writing, setting forth in reasonable detail a written description of the noncompliance and any requested action for curing such noncompliance. Purchaser shall then have thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice ("Guideline Initial Cure Period") to correct such noncompliance or submit to Seller a written plan to correct such noncompliance, which written plan is reasonably acceptable to Seller, unless Seller previously affirmatively concurs in writing, in its sole discretion, that Purchaser or its Subsidiary is not in noncompliance. If Seller or Purchaser becomes aware that an Authorized Dealer is not complying with any Trademark Usage Guidelines, Purchaser (but not Seller) shall promptly notify such Authorized Dealer in writing, setting forth in reasonable detail a written description of the noncompliance and any requested action for curing such noncompliance. Such Authorized Dealer shall then have the Guideline Initial Cure Period to correct such noncompliance or submit to Purchaser a written plan to correct such noncompliance, which written plan is reasonably acceptable to Purchaser and Seller.

5.2 SECOND CURE PERIOD. If the noncompliance with the Trademark Usage Guidelines continues beyond the Guideline Initial Cure Period, Purchaser and Seller shall each promptly appoint a representative to negotiate in good faith actions that may be necessary to correct such noncompliance. The parties shall have fifteen (15) days following the expiration of the Guideline Initial Cure Period to agree on corrective actions, and Purchaser shall have fifteen (15) days from the date of an agreement of corrective actions to implement such corrective actions and cure or cause the cure of such noncompliance (“Second Guideline Cure Period”).

5.3 FINAL CURE PERIOD. If the noncompliance with the Trademark Usage Guidelines by Purchaser or any Subsidiary (as the case may be) remains uncured after the expiration of the Second Guideline Cure Period, then at Seller’s election, Purchaser or the non-complying Subsidiary (as the case may be) promptly shall cease using the non-complying Collateral Materials until Seller reasonably determines that Purchaser or the non-complying Subsidiary (as the case may be) has demonstrated its ability and commitment to comply with the Trademark Usage Guidelines. If the noncompliance with the Trademark Usage Guidelines by an Authorized Dealer remains uncured after the expiration of the Second Guideline Cure Period, then at Purchaser’s election, such Authorized Dealer promptly shall cease using the non-complying Collateral Materials and/or Marketing Materials until Purchaser determines that such Authorized Dealer has demonstrated its ability and commitment to comply with the Trademark Usage Guidelines. Nothing in this Article V shall be deemed to limit Purchaser’s obligations under Section 3.3 above or to preclude Seller from exercising any rights or remedies under Section 3.3 above.

ARTICLE VI QUALITY STANDARDS

6.1 GENERAL. Purchaser acknowledges that the Licensed Products permitted by this License to be marked with one or more of the Licensed Marks must continue to be of sufficiently high quality as to provide protection of the Licensed Marks and the goodwill they symbolize.

6.2 QUALITY STANDARDS. Purchaser and its Subsidiaries shall use the Licensed Marks only on and in connection with Licensed Products that meet or exceed in all respects the Quality Standards.

6.3 QUALITY CONTROL REVIEWS. At Seller’s reasonable request, Purchaser agrees to furnish or make available to Seller for inspection sample Licensed Products marked with one or more of the Licensed Marks. If Purchaser is notified or reasonably determines that it or any of its Subsidiaries is not complying with any Quality Standards, it shall notify Seller and the provisions of Article VII and Section 2.3 shall apply to such noncompliance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller agrees and acknowledges that all Agilent Branded Products that were acquired by Purchaser from Seller at Closing shall, without further investigation, be deemed to be of sufficient quality under this Article VI.

ARTICLE VII
QUALITY STANDARD ENFORCEMENT

7.1 INITIAL CURE PERIOD. If Seller becomes aware that Purchaser or any Subsidiary is not complying with any Quality Standard, Seller shall notify Purchaser in writing, setting forth in reasonable detail a written description of the noncompliance and any requested action for curing such noncompliance. Following receipt of such notice, Purchaser shall make an inquiry promptly and in good faith concerning each instance of noncompliance described in the notice. Purchaser shall then have thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice ("Initial Cure Period") to correct such noncompliance or submit to Seller a written plan to correct such noncompliance, which written plan is reasonably acceptable to Seller, unless Seller previously affirmatively concurs in writing, in its sole discretion, that Purchaser or its Subsidiaries is not in noncompliance.

7.2 SECOND CURE PERIOD. If the said noncompliance with the Quality Standards continues beyond the Initial Cure Period, Purchaser and Seller shall each promptly appoint a representative to negotiate in good faith actions that may be necessary to correct such noncompliance. The parties shall have fifteen (15) days following the expiration of the Initial Cure Period to agree on corrective actions, and Purchaser shall have fifteen (15) days from the date of an agreement of corrective actions to implement such corrective actions and cure or cause the cure of such noncompliance ("Second Cure Period").

7.3 FINAL CURE PERIOD. If the said noncompliance with the Quality Standards by Purchaser or any Subsidiary (as the case may be) remains uncured after the expiration of the Second Cure Period, then at Seller's election, Purchaser or the non-complying Subsidiary (as the case may be) promptly shall cease offering the non-complying Licensed Products under the Licensed Marks until Seller reasonably determines that Purchaser, or the non-complying Subsidiary (as the case may be) has reasonably demonstrated its ability and commitment to comply with the Quality Standards. Nothing in this Article VII shall be deemed to limit Purchaser's obligations under Section 3.3 above.

PROTECTION OF LICENSED MARKS

8.1 OWNERSHIP AND RIGHTS. Purchaser agrees not to challenge the ownership or validity of the Licensed Marks. Purchaser shall not disparage, dilute or adversely affect the validity of the Licensed Marks. Purchaser's use of the Licensed Marks shall inure exclusively to the benefit of Agilent and Purchaser shall not acquire or assert any rights therein. Purchaser recognizes the value of the goodwill associated with the Licensed Marks, and that the Licensed Marks may have acquired secondary meaning in the minds of the public.

8.2 PROTECTION OF MARKS. Purchaser shall assist Seller, at Seller's request and expense, in the procurement and maintenance of Seller's or Agilent's respective intellectual property rights in the Licensed Marks. Purchaser will not grant or attempt to grant a security interest in the Licensed Marks or record any such security interest in the United States Patent and Trademark Office or elsewhere against any Trademark application or registration belonging to Seller or Agilent. Purchaser agrees to, and to cause its Subsidiaries to, execute all documents reasonably requested by Seller to effect further registration of, maintenance and renewal of the Licensed Marks, recordation of the license relationship between Seller and Purchaser, and recordation of Purchaser as a registered user. Neither Seller nor Agilent makes any warranty or representation that Trademark registrations have been or will be applied for, secured or maintained in the Licensed Marks throughout, or anywhere within, the world. Purchaser shall cause to appear on all Licensed Products, all Marketing Materials and all Collateral Materials, such legends, markings and notices as may be required by applicable law or reasonably requested by Seller.

8.3 SIMILAR MARKS. Purchaser agrees not to use or register in any country any Trademark that infringes on the rights of Seller or Agilent in the Licensed Marks, or any element thereof. If any application for registration is, or has been, filed in any country by Purchaser which relates to any Trademark that infringes the rights of Seller or Agilent in the Licensed Marks, Purchaser shall immediately abandon any such application or registration or assign it to Agilent. Purchaser may not adopt any trademarks incorporating the root “Agil” or any other trademark similar to the Licensed Trademarks. Purchaser shall not challenge Agilent’s ownership of or the validity of the Licensed Marks or any application for registration thereof throughout the world. Purchaser shall not use or register in any country or jurisdiction, or permit others to use or register on its behalf in any country or jurisdiction, any copyright, domain name, telephone number, keyword, metatag, other electronic identifier or any other intellectual property right, whether recognized currently or in the future, or any other designation which would affect the ownership or rights of Agilent and Seller in and to the Licensed Marks, or otherwise take any action which would adversely affect any of such ownership rights, or assist anyone else in doing so. Purchaser shall cause its Subsidiaries and Authorized Dealers to comply with the provisions of this Section 8.3.

8.4 INFRINGEMENT PROCEEDINGS. In the event that the Purchaser learns, during the Term of this License, of any infringement or threatened infringement of the Licensed Marks, or any unfair competition, passing-off or dilution with respect to the Licensed Marks, Purchaser shall immediately notify Seller or its authorized representative giving particulars thereof, and Purchaser shall provide necessary information and assistance to Seller or its authorized representatives at Seller’s expense in the event that Seller decides that proceedings should be commenced. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser is not obligated to monitor or police use of the Licensed Marks by Third Parties other than as specifically set forth in Section 3.3 hereof. Except for those actions initiated by Purchaser pursuant to Section 3.3 hereof to enforce any sublicense or other agreement with any Subsidiary or Authorized Dealer, Seller shall have exclusive control of any litigation, opposition, cancellation or related legal proceedings. The decision whether to bring, maintain or settle any such proceedings shall be at the exclusive option and expense of Seller, and all recoveries shall belong exclusively to Seller. Purchaser shall not and shall have no right to initiate any litigation, opposition, cancellation or related legal proceedings with respect to the Licensed Marks in its own name (except for those actions initiated by Purchaser pursuant to Section 3.3 hereof), but, at Seller’s request, agrees to cooperate with Seller and Agilent at Seller’s or Agilent’s expense to enforce its rights in the Licensed Marks, including to join or be joined as a party in any action taken by Seller or Agilent against a third party for infringement or threatened infringement of the Licensed Marks, to the extent such joinder is required under mandatory local law for the prosecution of such an action. Neither Agilent nor Seller shall incur any liability to Purchaser or any other Person under any legal theory by reason of Seller's or Agilent's failure or refusal to prosecute or by Seller's or Agilent's refusal to permit Purchaser to prosecute, any alleged infringement by Third Parties, nor by reason of any settlement to which Seller or Agilent may agree.

ARTICLE IX CONFIDENTIALITY

9.1 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. The parties hereto expressly acknowledge and agree that all information, whether written or oral, furnished by either party to the other party or any Subsidiary of such other party pursuant to this License ("Confidential Information") shall be deemed to be confidential and shall be maintained by each party and their respective Subsidiaries in confidence, using the same degree of care to preserve the confidentiality of such Confidential Information that the party to whom such Confidential Information is disclosed would use to preserve the confidentiality of its own information of a similar nature and in no event less than a reasonable degree of care. Except as authorized in writing by the other party, neither party shall at any time disclose or permit to be disclosed any such Confidential Information to any person, firm, corporation or entity: (a) except as may reasonably be required in connection with the performance of this License by Purchaser, Seller or its respective Subsidiaries, as the case may be, (b) except as may reasonably be required after the Closing Date by Purchaser or its Subsidiaries in connection with the use of the Licensed Marks or operation of the Business, (c) except to the parties' agents or representatives who are informed by the parties of the confidential nature of the information and are bound to maintain its confidentiality, and (d) in the course of due diligence in connection with the sale of all or a portion of either party's business, provided the disclosure is pursuant to a nondisclosure agreement having terms comparable to Sections 9.1 and 9.2 hereof.

9.2 EXCEPTIONS. The obligation not to disclose information under Section 9.1 hereof shall not apply to information that, as of the Closing Date or thereafter: (a) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure made after the execution of the PSA by the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential or any of its Subsidiaries or representatives thereof, (b) was or becomes readily available to the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential or any of its Subsidiaries or representatives thereof on a non-confidential basis, (c) is or becomes available to the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential or any of its Subsidiaries or representatives thereof on a non-confidential basis from a source other than its own files or personnel or the other party or its Subsidiaries, provided that such source is not known by the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential to be bound by confidentiality agreements with the other party or its Subsidiaries or by legal, fiduciary or ethical constraints on disclosure of such information, or (d) is required to be disclosed pursuant to a governmental order or decree or other legal requirement (including the requirements of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and the listing rules of any applicable securities exchange), provided that the party required to disclose such information shall give the other party prompt notice thereof prior to such disclosure and, at the request of the other party, shall cooperate in all reasonable respects in maintaining the confidentiality of such information, including obtaining a protective order or other similar order. Nothing in Section 9.1 shall limit in any respect either party's ability to disclose information in connection with the enforcement by such party of its rights under this License; provided that the proviso of clause (d) in the immediately preceding sentence shall apply to the party desiring to disclose such information.

9.3 DURATION. The obligations of the parties set forth in this Article IX, with respect to the protection of Confidential Information, shall remain in effect until five (5) years after: (a) the Closing Date, with respect to Confidential Information of one party that is known to or in the possession of the other party as of the Closing Date, or (b) the date of disclosure, with respect to Confidential Information that is disclosed by the one party to the other party after the Closing Date.

ARTICLE X TERM OF LICENSE

10.1 The term of the license granted pursuant to Section 2.1 hereof shall begin on the Closing Date and, unless terminated sooner pursuant to the provisions of Article XII hereof, shall last for the periods set forth in Section 10.5 below.

10.2 “Term” as used herein means the foregoing periods of permissible use for the Licensed Marks.

10.3 “Non-Customer-Facing Parts” means tangible parts whose branding is not visible to end consumers in the ordinary course of use. For the avoidance of doubt, “ordinary course of business” includes normal inspection, use, calibration, maintenance, service, repair and/or failure analysis.

10.4 “Agilent Branded Products” means Licensed Products on or in connection with which the Licensed Marks are used, unless such use is solely on Non-Customer-Facing Parts. Trademarks are in use “on or in connection with” a given Licensed Product if they are used on the Licensed Product itself or on Collateral Materials associated with such Licensed Product.

10.5 Purchaser agrees to discontinue all use of the Licensed Marks as quickly as is commercially reasonable. Without limiting the foregoing, Purchaser shall have the right to use said Trademarks according to the following conditions and schedule, with which Purchaser shall comply strictly:

(a) Until May 31, 2006, Purchaser may use the Licensed Marks in any external signage on a royalty free basis; provided such signage was in use as of the Closing Date.

(b) As of the dates set forth in Section 10.5(a), Purchaser must cease all use of the Licensed Marks in connection with Corporate Identity Materials;

(c) Until May 30, 2006, Purchaser may use the Licensed Marks in Marketing Materials on a royalty free basis;

(d) As of May 30, 2006, Purchaser must cease all use of Licensed Marks in Marketing Materials;

(e) Until November 30, 2007, Purchaser may use the Licensed Marks on a royalty free basis on or in connection with the Agilent Branded Products manufactured by Seller or Agilent prior to the Closing Date or manufactured by Purchaser after the Closing Date and on or before May 31, 2007;

(f) As of November 30, 2008, Purchaser must cease all use of Licensed Marks on or in connection with all Agilent Branded Products. Except as would be a violation of law, any Non-Customer-Facing Parts bearing the Licensed Marks manufactured after November 30, 2008, shall bear a prominent label indicating that they are manufactured by Purchaser and, unless commercially unreasonable, such label shall cover the Licensed Marks on such part.

(g) Notwithstanding Section 10.5(e)-(f), Purchaser may continue to use the Seller part number alphanumerics beginning with the letter "A" ("Seller Part Numbers") on or in connection with any Licensed Product or Storage Products within the same Family as a Licensed Product until that Family is discontinued or obsoleted. For the avoidance of doubt, it is understood and agreed that this License does not purport to restrict Purchaser's use of any part number that does not begin with the letter "A".

10.6 Purchaser agrees to provide written confirmation of compliance with the License Term on the dates specified above. Purchaser shall also advise Seller when it has discontinued use of all remaining Non-Customer-Facing Parts bearing the Licensed Marks and discontinued or obsoleted all Families of Licensed Products.

10.7 Except as would be a violation of Law, Purchaser agrees to notify all consumers receiving parts and materials bearing the Licensed Marks that Purchaser is the source of and is the proper contact for such Licensed Products, Collateral Materials, parts and materials.

10.8 It is understood and agreed that it shall not be a violation of this License for Purchaser, its Subsidiaries or Authorized Dealers, at any time after the Term, to make accurate references to the fact that Purchaser has succeeded to the business of Seller and Agilent with respect to the Licensed Products, or to advertise or promote its or their provision of maintenance services or supply of spare parts for Licensed Products previously sold under any of the Licensed Marks, provided that Purchaser, its Subsidiaries and Authorized Dealers do not in connection therewith suggest any affiliation with Seller or Agilent, do not claim to be authorized by Seller or Agilent in any manner with respect to such activities, and do not brand any Storage Products, Marketing Materials, Collateral Materials or parts Sold after the Term with any of the Licensed Marks in a manner that is inconsistent with this Article X.

ARTICLE XI ROYALTIES

11.1 ROYALTIES.

(a) Upon any Sale occurring: (i) prior to the expiration of the license grant, by Purchaser or its Subsidiaries, of Agilent Branded Products manufactured by Purchaser more than eighteen (18) months after the Closing Date, or (ii) after November 30, 2007, and prior to the expiration of the license grant, by Purchaser or its Subsidiaries of Agilent Branded Products (other than repaired, refurbished or reconstructed Agilent Branded Products or repair parts) manufactured by Agilent or Seller prior to the Closing Date or by Purchaser on or before May 31, 2007, Purchaser shall pay to Seller a five percent (5%) royalty on the Net Sales earned by Purchaser in each Seller fiscal quarter as a result of such Sale.

(b) As used in this Article XI, "Net Sales" means the gross invoice price from: (i) royalty-bearing Sales under Section 11.1(a) above, in any case less: (i) charges for handling, freight, sales taxes, insurance costs and import duties where such items are included in the invoiced price, (ii) point-of-sale credits (or other similar adjustments to price) granted to independent distributors, and (iii) credits actually granted or refunds actually given for returns during such Seller fiscal quarter. In the event that the foregoing Agilent Branded Products are Sold for no or nominal consideration or to a Subsidiary, Authorized Dealer, affiliated company or in any other circumstances in which the selling price is established on other than an arms-length basis, the Net Sales on such Sales shall be determined on the average selling price earned by Seller during the preceding Seller fiscal quarter on Sales of like volumes of the applicable Agilent Branded Products to unaffiliated customers in arms-length sales. However, in the event that the foregoing Agilent Branded Products are Sold to Seller's Subsidiaries, Authorized Dealers or affiliated companies for resale to Third Parties, then the royalties will be based on Net Sales from the Subsidiaries, Authorized Dealers or affiliated companies to the Third Parties and no royalties will be due on the Sales to the Subsidiaries, Authorized Dealers or affiliated companies.

(c) For the purposes of clarification, no royalty is due under this Article XI for uses of the Licensed Marks that are covered by Section 10.8. Also, no royalties will accrue at any time for the use of Seller Part Numbers.

11.2 PAYMENTS AND ACCOUNTING

(a) With respect to the royalties set forth herein, Purchaser shall keep full, clear and accurate records until otherwise provided in Section 11.2(b). These records shall be retained for a period of three (3) years from the date of payment notwithstanding the expiration or other termination of this License. Seller shall have the right, through a mutually agreed upon independent certified public accountant (consent to which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed by Purchaser), and at Seller's expense, to examine and audit, not more than once a year, and during normal business hours, all such records and such other records and accounts as may under recognized accounting practices contain information bearing upon the amount of royalty payable to Seller under this License. Prompt adjustment shall be made by either party to compensate for any errors and/or omissions disclosed by such examination or audit. Should any such error and/or omission result in an underpayment of more than five percent (5%) of the total royalties due for the period under audit, Purchaser shall, upon Seller's request, pay for the cost of the audit and pay Seller an additional fee equal to a compound annual interest rate of ten percent (10%) of such error and/or omission.

(b) Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each Purchaser fiscal quarter, Purchaser shall furnish to Seller a statement in suitable form showing all Agilent Branded Products subject to royalties that were sold, during such quarter, and the amount of royalty payable thereon.

If no Licensed Products or services subject to royalty have been sold, that fact shall be shown on such statement. Also, within such forty-five (45) days, Purchaser shall pay to Seller the royalties payable hereunder for such quarter. Purchaser and Seller will determine the form of the statement prior to submission of the first such statement. All royalty and other payments to Seller hereunder shall be in United States dollars. Royalties based on sales in other currencies shall be converted to United States dollars according to the official rate of exchange for that currency, as published in the Wall Street Journal on the last day of the calendar month in which the royalty accrued (or, if not published on that day, the last publication day for the Wall Street Journal during that month). If two consecutive Purchaser fiscal quarters pass in which no royalties are due under this License and Purchaser reasonably believes no royalties will be due, the obligations pursuant to this Article XI shall terminate. If Purchaser resumes sale of Agilent Branded Products that are subject to royalties, the obligations of this Article XI shall automatically resume.

ARTICLE XII TERMINATION

12.1 VOLUNTARY TERMINATION. By written notice to Seller, Purchaser may voluntarily terminate all or a specified portion of the licenses and rights granted to it hereunder by Seller. Such notice shall specify the effective date of such termination and shall clearly specify any affected Licensed Marks and Licensed Products.

12.2 SURVIVAL. Any voluntary termination of licenses and rights of Purchaser under Section 12.1 hereof shall not affect Purchaser's licenses and rights with respect to any Licensed Products made or furnished prior to such termination.

ARTICLE XIII DISPUTE RESOLUTION

13.1 NEGOTIATION. The parties shall make a good faith attempt to resolve any dispute or claim arising out of or related to this License through negotiation. Within thirty (30) days after notice of a dispute or claim is given by either party to the other party, the parties' first tier negotiating teams (as determined by each party's Director of Intellectual Property (or person holding a similar position or title) or his or her delegate) shall meet and make a good faith attempt to resolve such dispute or claim and shall continue to negotiate in good faith in an effort to resolve the dispute or claim or renegotiate the applicable section or provision without the necessity of any formal proceedings. If the first tier negotiating teams are unable to agree within thirty (30) days of their first meeting, then the parties' second tier negotiating teams (as determined by each party's Director of Intellectual Property or his or her delegate) shall meet within thirty (30) days after the end of the first thirty (30) day negotiating period to attempt to resolve the matter. During the course of negotiations under this Section 13.1, all reasonable requests made by one party to the other for information, including requests for copies of relevant documents will be honored. The specific format for such negotiations will be left to the discretion of the designated negotiating teams but may include the preparation of agreed upon statements of fact or written statements of position furnished to the other party. All negotiations between the parties pursuant to this Section 13.1 shall be treated as compromise and settlement negotiations. Nothing said or disclosed, nor any document produced, in the course of such negotiations that is not otherwise independently discoverable shall be offered or received as evidence or used for impeachment or for any other purpose in any current or future litigation.

13.2 NONBINDING MEDIATION. In the event that any dispute or claim arising out of or related to this License is not settled by the parties within fifteen (15) days after the first meeting of the second tier negotiating teams under Section 13.1 hereof, the parties will attempt in good faith to resolve such dispute or claim by nonbinding mediation in accordance with the American Arbitration Association Commercial Mediation Rules. The mediation shall be held within thirty (30) days of the end of such fifteen (15) day negotiation period of the second tier negotiating teams. Except as provided below in Section 13.3, no litigation for the resolution of such dispute may be commenced until the parties try in good faith to settle the dispute by such mediation in accordance with such rules, and either party has concluded in good faith that amicable resolution through continued mediation of the matter does not appear likely. The costs of mediation shall be shared equally by the parties to the mediation. Any settlement reached by mediation shall be recorded in writing, signed by the parties, and shall be binding on them.

13.3 PROCEEDINGS. Nothing herein, however, shall prohibit either party from initiating litigation or other judicial or administrative proceedings if such party would be substantially harmed by a failure to act during the time that such good faith efforts are being made to resolve the dispute or claim through negotiation or mediation. In the event that litigation is commenced under this Section 13.3, the parties agree to continue to attempt to resolve any dispute or claim according to the terms of Sections 13.1 and 13.2 hereof during the course of such litigation proceedings under this Section 13.3.

ARTICLE XIV LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY OR ITS SUBSIDIARIES BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY OR ITS SUBSIDIARIES FOR ANY DAMAGES, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES OR LOST PROFITS OR ANY OTHER DAMAGES, HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER OR NOT SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

ARTICLE XV MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

15.1 DISCLAIMER. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE SET FORTH HEREIN OR IN THE PSA, EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ALL LICENSED MARKS AND ANY OTHER INFORMATION OR MATERIALS LICENSED OR FURNISHED HEREUNDER ARE LICENSED OR FURNISHED WITHOUT ANY WARRANTIES WHATSOEVER, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, WITH RESPECT THERETO INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF TITLE, ENFORCEABILITY OR NON-INFRINGEMENT. Except as otherwise set forth herein or in the PSA, neither Seller, Agilent, nor any of their Affiliates or Subsidiaries, makes any warranty or representation as to the validity of any Trademark licensed by it to Purchaser or any warranty or representation that any use of any Trademark with respect to any Licensed Product or service will be free from infringement of any rights of any Third Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller represents that it has the right to grant the licenses to Purchaser herein pursuant to rights granted to Seller by Agilent.

15.2 NO IMPLIED LICENSES. Nothing contained in this License shall be construed as conferring any rights by implication, estoppel or otherwise, under any intellectual property right, other than the rights expressly granted in this License with respect to the Licensed Marks. Neither party is required hereunder to furnish or disclose to the other any information (including copies of registrations of the Trademarks), except as specifically provided herein or in the PSA.

15.3 INFRINGEMENT SUITS. Neither party shall have any obligation hereunder to institute any action or suit against Third Parties for infringement of any of the Licensed Marks or to defend any action or suit brought by a Third Party which challenges or concerns the validity of any of the Licensed Marks. Purchaser shall not have any right to institute any action or suit against Third Parties for infringement of any of the Licensed Marks.

15.4 NO OBLIGATION TO OBTAIN OR MAINTAIN MARKS. Neither party, nor any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates, or Agilent, is obligated to: (a) file any application for registration of any Trademark, or to secure any rights in any Trademarks, (b) maintain any Trademark registration, or (c) provide any assistance, except for the obligations expressly assumed in this License.

15.5 ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This License and the PSA constitute the entire understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and shall supersede all prior written and oral and all contemporaneous oral agreements and understandings with respect to the subject matter hereof. To the extent there is a conflict between this License and the PSA between the parties, the terms of the PSA shall govern, provided, however, that the terms of this License shall govern with respect to: (a) Article IX with respect to Confidential Information transferred or disclosed pursuant to this License, (b) Article XI concerning royalties and audits due under this license, (c) Article XII with respect to termination of the licenses granted hereunder, (d) Article XIII concerning dispute resolution, (e) Article XIV solely with respect to intellectual property that is licensed by one party to another party pursuant to this License, (f) Section 15.7 concerning notice, and (g) Section 15.8 concerning assignment or transfer of rights or obligations arising under this License. In addition, in the event of a conflict between this License and the Trademark Usage Guidelines or the Quality Standards, this License shall prevail.

15.6 SECTION HEADINGS; TABLE OF CONTENTS. The section headings contained in this License are inserted for reference purposes only and are not intended to be a part, nor should they affect the meaning or interpretation, of this License.

15.8 NON-ASSIGNABILITY. Neither party may, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, whether by operation of law or otherwise, assign or transfer this License, without the other party's prior written consent, and any attempted assignment, transfer or delegation without such prior written consent shall be voidable at the sole option of such other party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each party (or its permitted successive assignees or transferees hereunder) may assign or transfer any or all of its rights or obligations under this License to one or more Subsidiaries of such party; provided, however, that no such assignment or transfer shall release the assigning party from any of its liabilities or obligations hereunder. Without limiting the foregoing, this License will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their permitted successors and assigns.

15.9 SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this License shall be declared by any court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, void or unenforceable, all other provisions of this License shall not be affected and shall remain in full force and effect, and Seller and Purchaser shall negotiate in good faith to replace such illegal, void or unenforceable provision with a provision that corresponds as closely as possible to the intentions of the parties as expressed by such illegal, void or unenforceable provision.

15.10 AMENDMENT; WAIVER; REMEDIES CUMULATIVE. This License, including this provision of this License, may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified only by a written instrument executed by the parties hereto. No waiver by either party of any of the provisions hereof shall be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and executed by the party so waiving. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, no action taken pursuant to this License, including any investigation by or on behalf of any party or a failure or delay by any party in exercising any power, right or privilege under this License, shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by the party taking such action of compliance with any representations, warranties, covenants, or agreements contained herein, and in any documents delivered or to be delivered pursuant to this License and the PSA. The waiver by any party hereto of a breach of any provision of this License shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach. All rights and remedies existing under this License are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

15.11 COUNTERPARTS. This License may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument. Copies of executed counterparts transmitted by telecopy, telefax or other electronic transmission service shall be considered original executed counterparts for purposes of this Section 15.11, provided that receipt of copies of such counterparts is confirmed.

15.12 THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARY. Agilent is an intended third party beneficiary of the terms that reference Agilent hereunder for the protection of Agilent's interests in the Licensed Marks.

WHEREFORE, the parties have signed this Trademark License Agreement effective as of the Closing Date first set forth above.

2.4 Approvals and Consents.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, and subject to the provisions of Sections 2.5 and 2.6, to the extent that the sale, conveyance, transfer, assignment or delivery or attempted sale, conveyance, transfer, assignment or delivery to Purchaser of any Purchased Asset would result in a violation of any applicable Law, or would require any Consent or waiver of any Governmental Authority or third party and such Consent or waiver shall not have been obtained prior to the Closing, this Agreement shall not constitute a sale, conveyance, transfer, assignment or delivery, or an attempted sale, conveyance, transfer,

Following the Closing, the Parties shall use commercially reasonable efforts, and shall cooperate with each other, to obtain promptly such Consent or waiver; provided, further, however, that neither Party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall be required to pay any consideration therefor.

(b) Once such Consent or waiver is obtained, Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers shall, and shall cause their Subsidiaries to, or if applicable, use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause Angel to, sell, assign, transfer, convey and license such Purchased Asset and the Purchased Subsidiary Interests, as applicable, to Purchaser for no additional consideration. Such party shall be permitted to set off against such amounts all direct costs associated with the retention and maintenance of such Purchased Assets. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such party shall have no obligation whatsoever to retain any portion of the Business, other than any individual asset or Contract (but only until such time as the transfer thereof may be effected in accordance with this Agreement), in order to obtain any such Consent or waiver referred to in this Section 2.4 or elsewhere in this Agreement. Nothing in this Section 2.4 applies (i) to any Consent or waiver required under any Antitrust Regulations, which Consents and waivers shall be governed by Section 6.3 or (ii) to Consents or releases with respect to the Assigned Real Property and the Subleased Real Property, such Consents and releases to be obtained pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.6.

2.5 Novation and Assignment.

The Parties shall retain the Earnout Arbitrator no later than five (5) Business Days following the expiration of the Earnout Discussion Period. In the event of a failure to retain the Earnout Arbitrator during such time period, either Party, acting individually, shall have the right to retain the Earnout Arbitrator on behalf of both Parties. Any arbitration shall be conducted in San Mateo County, California, and such proceedings shall be in English. No claim, legal action, suit, arbitration, governmental investigation, action or other legal or administrative proceeding is pending or, to the knowledge of Purchaser Parent or Purchaser, threatened against Purchaser Parent or Purchaser which would prevent or materially interfere with or delay the consummation of this Agreement. Except for any requirements under any Antitrust Regulations, no consent, approval, order or authorization of, license or permit from, notice to or registration, declaration or filing with, any Governmental Authority, is required on the part of Purchaser Parent or Purchaser in connection with the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement or any of the other Transaction Documents or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby except for such consents, approvals, orders or authorizations of, licenses or permits, filings or notices which have been obtained and remain in full force and effect and those with respect to which the failure to have obtained or to remain in full force and effect would not have a Purchaser Material Adverse Effect. To the knowledge of Purchaser Parent and Purchaser, there are no filings of the nature contemplated by Section 4.2(b) required to be made by Purchaser Parent or Purchaser in connection with this Agreement or the other transactions contemplated hereby on account of the business or operations of Purchaser Parent or Purchaser, other than the filings expressly contemplated by Section 4.2 read together with the Disclosure Letter and, if determined to be necessary by Purchaser, applicable filings with the SEC.

5.4 Financial Capacity.

Purchaser has possession of sufficient funds to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each Ancillary Agreement.

5.5 Finders; Brokers.

With the exception of fees and expenses payable to Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, for which Purchaser shall be solely responsible, none of Purchaser nor any of its Affiliates has employed any finder or broker in connection with this Agreement who would have a valid claim for a fee or commission from any Other Seller, Seller or an of their respective Affiliates in connection with the negotiation, execution or delivery of this Agreement or any of the other Transaction Documents or the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby.

5.6 Purchase for Investment.

With respect to the Purchased Subsidiary Interests, Purchaser Parent and Purchaser are aware that such Purchased Subsidiary Interests were not registered under the Securities Act, or any other applicable securities Laws, and were issued pursuant to exemptions therefrom. Purchaser is purchasing the Purchased Subsidiary Interests solely for investment, with no present intention to distribute any such Purchased Subsidiary Interests to any Person, and Purchaser will not sell or otherwise dispose of such Purchased Subsidiary Interests except in compliance with the registration requirements or exemption provisions under the Securities Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, or any other applicable securities Laws.

5.7 No Other Representations or Warranties.

Except for the representations and warranties contained in this Article V, none of Purchaser Parent, Purchaser or any other Person makes any other express or implied representation or warranty on behalf of Purchaser Parent or Purchaser.

- (f) enter into any Contract containing a covenant not to compete or any other covenant restricting the development, manufacture, marketing or distribution of the products and services of the Business or amend or extend in a manner adverse to the Business any such covenant in any existing Contract of the Business;
- (g) acquire by merging or consolidating with, or by purchasing a substantial portion of the assets of, or by any other manner, any business or any corporation, partnership, association or other business organization or division thereof or otherwise acquire any assets (other than Inventory) that are material, individually or in the aggregate, to the Business;
- (h) institute, settle or agree to settle any Proceeding relating to or affecting the Business or the Purchased Assets before any court of other Governmental Authority (other than settlements of Proceedings (1) not involving Intellectual Property matters, (2) involving solely the payment of money damages and (3) not involving an admission of liability) or (ii) waive or surrender any rights related to any pending or threatened litigation to the extent relating to or affecting the Business or the Purchased Assets;
- (i) sell, transfer, license or otherwise convey or dispose of, or incur or suffer the imposition of any Lien (other than Permitted Liens) on, any Purchased Seller Subsidiary Interests, Purchased Assets, Transferred Business Intellectual Property or Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights, other than non-exclusive licenses in connection with sales or licenses of products in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice;
- (j) enter into any material financing or guarantee arrangement, agreement or undertaking with any customer of the Business or any financial institution, leasing company or similar business that permits recourse to Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries which would constitute an Assumed Liability;
- (k) grant any allowances or discounts outside the ordinary course of business or sell inventory materially in excess of reasonably anticipated consumption for the near term outside the ordinary course of business; or
- (l) agree or commit to do any of the foregoing.

Not less than five (5) Business Days prior to the Closing, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser a supplement to Section 4.6 of the Disclosure Letter, which shall identify those Contracts with respect to the Business entered into by the Seller Parties or their Subsidiaries after the date of this Agreement not in violation of the terms hereof which would have constituted "Transferred Material Contracts" if such Contracts had been in effect as of the date hereof, and such Contracts identified on such supplement to Section 4.6 of the Disclosure Letter shall be deemed "Transferred Material Contracts" for all purposes hereof so long as such Contracts were entered into in accordance with the terms hereof.

6.2 Investigation of Business; Confidentiality.

(a) From the date of this Agreement until the Closing, Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller shall, and shall cause their Affiliates to, permit Purchaser and its authorized agents or representatives and financing sources to have reasonable access to the properties, books, records, Contracts and such financial (including working papers) and operating data of the Business and the Business Employees as Purchaser may reasonably request, at reasonable hours to review information and documentation and ask questions relative to the properties, books, contracts, commitments and other records of the Business and to conduct any other reasonable investigations; provided, that such investigation shall only be upon reasonable notice and shall not unreasonably disrupt the personnel and operations of Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller, shall comply with the reasonable security and insurance requirements of Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller and shall be at Purchaser's sole risk and expense. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller shall have no obligation to disclose any information the disclosure of which is subject to a confidentiality obligation in favor of any third party; provided that Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller shall use their reasonable commercial efforts to obtain waivers under such agreements or implement requisite procedures to enable the provision of reasonable access to such information without violating such obligations. All requests for access to the offices, properties, books and records of the Business shall be made to such representatives of Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller as such party shall designate, who shall be solely responsible for coordinating all such requests and all access permitted hereunder. It is further agreed that neither Purchaser nor any of its Affiliates, agents or representatives shall contact any of the employees, customers (including dealers and distributors), suppliers, joint venture partners or other Subsidiaries or Affiliates of Seller Parent, the Other Sellers or Seller in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, whether in person or by telephone, electronic or other mail or other means of communication, without the specific prior authorization of such representatives of Seller Parent, the Other Sellers or Seller, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of Seller Parent, the Other Sellers or Seller shall be required to provide access to or disclose information where such access or disclosure would waive the attorney-client privilege of Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller or contravene any Law or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement. The relevant parties shall make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under the circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply.

(b) The Parties expressly acknowledge and agree that this Agreement and its terms and all information, whether written or oral, furnished by either Party to the other Party or any Affiliate of such other Party in connection with the negotiation of this Agreement or pursuant to Section 6.5 ("Confidential Information") shall be treated as "confidential information" under that certain Confidential Disclosure Agreement, as amended, between the Parties.

(c) Upon reasonable request and during normal business hours, Purchaser Parent, Purchaser, Seller Parent, Seller and Other Sellers shall cooperate with each other, and shall cause their respective representatives and Subsidiaries to cooperate with each other, after the Closing to ensure the orderly transition of the Business from Seller Parent, Seller and Other Sellers to Purchaser and its Affiliates and to minimize any disruption to the Business and the other respective businesses of Seller Parent and its Affiliates and Purchaser and its Affiliates that might result from the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.3 Necessary Efforts; No Inconsistent Action.

(a) Subject to Section 6.3(b) and the other terms and conditions of this Agreement, Seller Parent, the Other Sellers, Seller and Purchaser agree, and each of Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller agree to cause their Subsidiaries, to use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable Law to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents and to use its reasonable commercial efforts to cause the conditions to each Party's obligation to close the transactions contemplated hereby as set forth in Article VII to be satisfied, including all actions necessary to obtain (i) all licenses, certificates, permits, approvals, clearances, expirations, waivers or terminations of applicable waiting periods, authorizations, qualifications and orders (each a "Consent") of any Governmental Authority required for the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 7.1(b), and (ii) all other Consents (it being understood that the failure to obtain any such Consents contemplated by this clause (ii) shall not, by itself, cause the condition set forth in Section 7.3(a) to be deemed not to be satisfied and it being further understood that neither Party nor any of their respective Subsidiaries shall be required to expend any money other than for filing fees or expenses or de minimus costs or expenses or agree to any restrictions in order to obtain any Consents) necessary in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents; provided, however, that in no event shall Seller or any of its Subsidiaries be required or expected to retain any of the Purchased Assets or any assets of the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries (including assets that would be Purchased Assets but for the inability to obtain a Consent). Each of Seller and Purchaser agree that each Party will be given prior notice of and a reasonable opportunity to consult with the other Party regarding contacts with Governmental Authorities regarding Antitrust Regulations or related matters. The Parties shall cooperate fully with each other to the extent necessary in connection with the foregoing.

(b) In connection with the efforts referenced in Section 6.3(a), Purchaser and the Seller Parties shall timely and promptly make all filings which may be required for the satisfaction of the condition set forth in Section 7.1(b) by each of them in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each of Seller and Purchaser shall file Notification and Report Forms under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR Act"), or any other similar filings under Antitrust Regulations in the United States, any state thereof, any foreign country or the European Union as promptly as practicable following the date of this Agreement and in any event no later than (i) fifteen (15) Business Days following the date of this Agreement, in the case of Notification and Report Forms under the HSR Act, and (ii) the time prescribed by applicable law in the case of requirements under other applicable Antitrust Regulations to the extent a time is prescribed and, if no time is prescribed, as promptly as reasonably practicable. In addition, Purchaser, Seller Parent and Seller agree, and each of Seller Parent and Seller shall cause its Subsidiaries, to cooperate and to use their reasonable best commercial efforts and take all actions necessary to: obtain any Consents from Governmental Authorities required for the Closing contemplated by Section 6.3(a)(i) above (including through compliance with the HSR Act and any applicable foreign governmental reports, applications or notifications required by the Antitrust Regulations), to respond as promptly as practicable to any requests for information from any Governmental Authority, and to avoid and/or overcome any action, including any legislative, administrative or judicial action, and to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any judgment, injunction or other order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) that restricts, prevents or prohibits, or could restrict, prevent or prohibit, the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall Seller or any of its Subsidiaries be required or expected to retain any of the Purchased Assets or any assets of the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries (including assets that would be Purchased Assets but for the inability to obtain a Consent) in order to comply with its obligations in respect of the foregoing; and provided, further, that in no event shall Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries be required to take any actions which would, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the Business following the Closing in order to comply with its obligations in respect of the foregoing. Each Party shall furnish to the other such necessary information and assistance as the other Party may reasonably request in connection with the preparation of any necessary filings or submissions by it to any Governmental Authority. Except as prohibited or restricted by Law or any Antitrust Regulations, each Party or its attorneys shall provide the other Party or its attorneys the opportunity to make copies of all correspondence, filings or communications (or memoranda setting forth the substance thereof) between such Party or its representatives, on the one hand, and any Governmental Authority, on the other hand, with respect to this Agreement, the Transaction Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby. Without in any way limiting the foregoing, the Parties will consult and cooperate with one another, and consider in good faith the views of one another, in connection with any analyses, appearances, presentations, memoranda, briefs, arguments, opinions and proposals made or submitted by or on behalf of any Party in connection with proceedings under or relating to the HSR Act or any other Antitrust Regulation.

(c) Each of Purchaser, Seller Parent and Seller shall notify and keep the other advised as to (i) any material communication from the Federal Trade Commission (the “FTC”), the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice (the “DOJ”) or any other Governmental Authority regarding any of the transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) any litigation or administrative proceeding pending and known to such Party, or to its knowledge threatened, which challenges, or would challenge, the transactions contemplated hereby and (iii) any event or circumstance which, to its knowledge, would constitute a breach of its respective representations and warranties in this Agreement or, with respect to Seller Parent, in the Semiconductor Business Purchase Agreement; provided, however, that the failure of Seller, Seller Parent or Purchaser to comply with this Section 6.3(c) shall not subject Seller, Seller Parent or Purchaser to any liability hereunder in respect of any claim asserted after the relevant expiration date for the relevant representation or warranty; and provided further, that Purchaser may not separately recover pursuant to Article IX or otherwise for both a breach of this Section 6.3(c) and any related breach of the relevant representation or warranty. Subject to the provisions of Article X hereof, Seller, Seller Parent, the Other Seller Parties and Purchaser shall not take any action inconsistent with their obligations under this Agreement or, without prejudice to Purchaser’s rights under this Agreement, which would materially hinder or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.4 Public Disclosures.

Unless otherwise required by Law or the rules and regulations of any stock exchange or quotation services on which such Party’s stock is traded or quoted, prior to the Closing Date, no news release or other public announcement pertaining to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will be made by or on behalf of any Party or its Affiliates without the prior written approval of the other Party (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). If in the judgment of either Party such a news release or public announcement is required by Law or the rules or regulations of any stock exchange on which such Party's stock is traded, the Party intending to make such release or announcement shall to the extent practicable use reasonable commercial efforts to provide prior written notice to the other Party of the contents of such release or announcement and to allow the other Party reasonable time to comment on such release or announcement in advance of such issuance.

6.5 Access to Records and Personnel.

(a) Exchange of Information. After the execution of this Agreement, to the extent permissible under applicable Law, Seller and Seller Parent agree to provide, or cause to be provided, to Purchaser, as soon as reasonably practicable after written request therefor and at Purchaser's sole expense, (x) reasonable access (including using reasonable commercial efforts to give access to third parties possessing information), during normal business hours, to Seller's and Seller Parent's employees and (y) such information that Purchaser reasonably needs to comply with its obligations under Section 6.6(a)(ii) of this Agreement. After the Closing, each Party agrees to provide, or cause to be provided, to each other, as soon as reasonably practicable after written request therefor and at the requesting Party's sole expense, reasonable access (including using reasonable commercial efforts to give access to third parties possessing information), during normal business hours, to the other Party's employees and to any books, records, documents, files and correspondence in the possession or under the control of the other Party that the requesting Party reasonably needs (i) to comply with reporting, disclosure, filing or other requirements imposed on the requesting Party (including under applicable securities Laws) by a Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over the requesting Party, (ii) for use in any other judicial, regulatory, administrative or other proceeding or in order to satisfy Tax, audit, accounting, claims, regulatory, litigation or other similar requirements or (iii) to comply with its obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that no Party shall be required to provide access to or disclose information where such access or disclosure would violate any Law or agreement, or waive any attorney-client or other similar privilege, and each Party may redact information regarding itself or its Subsidiaries or otherwise not relating to the other Party and its Subsidiaries, and, in the event such provision of information could reasonably be expected to violate any Law or agreement or waive any attorney-client or other similar privilege, the Parties shall take all reasonable measures to permit the compliance with such obligations in a manner that avoids any such harm or consequence.

(b) Financial and Other Information. After the Closing, each Party shall provide, or cause to be provided, as soon as reasonably practicable after written request therefor, to the other Party such financial and other data and information reasonably available and in its possession (in such form as is reasonably available to it) as is reasonably requested by the other Party and reasonably necessary in order for such other Party to prepare required financial statements and reports or filings, including Tax Returns, to be provided to any third party or filed with any Governmental Authority; provided that the out-of-pocket cost to prepare any financial statements after the Closing except those specifically provided for in Section 6.16 shall be borne solely by Purchaser.

(c) Ownership of Information. Any information owned by a party that is provided to a requesting party pursuant to this Section 6.5 shall be deemed to remain the property of the providing party. Unless specifically set forth herein, nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as granting or conferring rights of license or otherwise in any such information.

(d) Record Retention. Except as otherwise provided herein, each Party agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts to retain the books, records, documents, instruments, accounts, correspondence, writings, evidences of title and other papers relating to the Business, the Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property and the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights and the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries (the “Books and Records”) in their respective possession or control for a commercially reasonable period of time, as set forth in their regular document retention policies, following the Closing Date or for such longer period as may be required by Law or as may be reasonably requested in writing by any Party, or until the expiration of the relevant representation or warranty under any of the Transaction Documents and any related claim of indemnification related thereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Party may destroy or otherwise dispose of any Books and Records not in accordance with its retention policy, provided that, prior to such destruction or disposal (i) such Party shall provide no less than 90 nor more than 120 days’ prior written notice to the other Party of any such proposed destruction or disposal (which notice shall specify in detail which of the Books and Records is proposed to be so destroyed or disposed of), and (ii) if a recipient of such notice shall request in writing prior to the scheduled date for such destruction or disposal that any of the information proposed to be destroyed or disposed of be delivered to such recipient, such Party proposing the destruction or disposal shall, as promptly as practicable, arrange for the delivery of such of the Books and Records as was requested by the recipient (it being understood that all reasonable out of pocket costs associated with the delivery of the requested Books and Records shall be paid by such recipient).

(e) Limitation of Liability. No Party shall have any liability to any other Party in the event that any information exchanged or provided pursuant to this Section 6.5 is found to be inaccurate. No Party shall have any liability to any other Party if any information is destroyed or lost after reasonable commercial efforts by such Party to comply with the provisions of Section 6.5(d).

(f) Other Agreements Providing For Exchange of Information. The rights and obligations granted under this Section 6.5 are subject to any specific limitations, qualifications or additional provisions on the sharing, exchange or confidential treatment of information set forth in this Agreement.

(g) Production of Witnesses; Records; Cooperation. In the case of a legal or other proceeding between one Party and a third party relating to the Business, Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights, the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries, Licensed Business Intellectual Property Rights, Licensed Business Technology, Assumed Liabilities, Excluded Liabilities, this Agreement (including any matters subject to indemnification hereunder) or the transactions contemplated hereby, or any other Transaction Documents, each Party shall use its reasonable commercial efforts to make available to the other Party (and Seller Parties shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause Angel to make available to Purchaser), upon written request, the former (to the extent practicable), current (to the extent practicable) and future officers, employees, other personnel and agents of such Party (or Angel) as witnesses and any books, records or other documents within its control or which it otherwise has the ability to make available (other than materials covered by the attorney-client privilege), to the extent that any such Person (giving consideration to business demands of such directors, officers, employees, other personnel and agents) or books, records or other documents may reasonably be required in connection with any legal, administrative or other proceeding in which the requesting Party may from time to time be involved, regardless of whether such legal, administrative or other proceeding is a matter with respect to which indemnification may be sought hereunder. The requesting Party shall bear all out-of-pocket costs and expenses in connection with the foregoing. The foregoing shall not limit any of rights of the Parties in respect of the foregoing under Section 9.4.

(h) Confidential Information. Nothing in this Section 6.5 shall require either Party to violate any agreement with any third parties regarding the confidentiality of confidential and proprietary information; provided, however, that in the event that either Party is required under this Section 6.5 to disclose any such information, that Party shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to seek to obtain such third party's consent to the disclosure of such information and implement requisite procedures to enable the disclosure of such information.

6.6 Employee Relations and Benefits.

(a) The Parties intend that there shall be continuity of employment with respect to all Business Employees as follows:

(i) Automatic Transferred Employees shall not be terminated upon Closing and the rights, powers, duties, liabilities and obligations of Seller (or the relevant Subsidiary of Seller) to the employees in respect of the material terms of employment with the employees in force immediately before Closing shall be transferred to Purchaser in accordance with local employment Laws.

(ii) For non-Automatic Transferred Employees, Purchaser shall offer employment to each Business Employee effective on the Closing Date, each such offer to be at the same general location and substantially the same terms and conditions of employment, including (A) the same or superior base salary or base wage rate, (B) substantially the same position, and (C) cash bonus and other non-equity based incentive compensation opportunities substantially similar in the aggregate as those provided to such employees by Seller or its Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Closing Date (unless otherwise required by local Law, in which case such offer shall comply with local law) (the "Current Employment Terms"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, all offers pursuant to this Section 6.6(a)(ii) to employees in jurisdictions outside the United States will be on such terms as are necessary to avoid giving rise to any severance or similar Liabilities of Seller and its Subsidiaries as a result of any requirements of applicable local Law.

(iii) Seller Parent shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to (and shall not encourage or assist its Affiliates to), engage in any activity intended to discourage any Business Employee from accepting an offer of employment from Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries, and Seller Parent shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to (and shall not encourage or assist its Affiliates to), offer employment with any business of Seller Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates (other than the Business) after the date hereof and prior to the Closing Date (other than Business Employees who have applied for a position with Seller Parent or one of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates outside the Business prior to the date hereof; provided, however, that Seller Parent and its Subsidiaries shall be permitted to take any action they are legally required to take in order to comply with local employment Laws.

(iv) Those employees who are transferred to Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries in accordance with clause (i) above and those who accept the offer of employment from Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries in accordance with clause (ii) above and, in each case, who commence employment with Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries shall be referred to herein as “Transferred Employees.” For purposes hereof, the date on which any Transferred Employee is deemed to “commence employment” shall be the Closing Date.

(v) Except as set forth in Section 6.6(a)(v) of the Disclosure Letter, starting on the Closing Date and ending on the date one (1) year after the Closing Date or any longer period as required under local employment Laws, each Transferred Employee who remains employed by Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries shall be employed by Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries on terms no less favorable than the Current Employment Terms and participate in employee benefit plans, agreements, programs, policies and arrangements of Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries (the “Purchaser Plans”) that are substantially similar in the aggregate to the employee benefit plans, programs, policies and arrangements in effect immediately prior to the Closing Date with respect to such Transferred Employee and not inconsistent with the Current Employment Terms, and shall be offered any other additional terms and conditions of employment by Purchaser and/or one of its Subsidiaries required by local employment Laws; provided, however, that nothing herein shall obligate Purchaser or one of its Subsidiaries to provide the Transferred Employees with any defined benefit pension plans; and provided, further, that Purchaser shall provide U.S. Transferred Employees with the retiree medical benefits described in Section 6.6(a)(v) of the Disclosure Letter.

(vi) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, starting on the Closing Date, Purchaser shall, for a period ending on the date one (1) year after the Closing Date, maintain a severance pay practice for the benefit of each Transferred Employee that is no less favorable than the severance pay practice provided in Section 6.6(a)(vi) of the Disclosure Letter. Purchaser shall assume and shall indemnify Seller and its Subsidiaries against all liabilities and obligations to provide any severance or similar payments to (A) any Automatic Transferred Employees, (B) any Non-U.S. Employees who are entitled to severance or similar payments under applicable local Laws due to Purchaser’s noncompliance with Sections 6.6 or 6.7, and (C) except as otherwise provided in Section 6.6(k) or with respect to any payments under a Seller Plan, any Transferred Employee whose employment is terminated by Purchaser or its Subsidiaries following the Closing Date.

(b) Seller shall retain responsibility for and continue to pay all medical, life insurance, disability and other welfare plan expenses and benefits for each Transferred Employee with respect to claims incurred by such Transferred Employees or their covered dependents prior to the Closing Date. Expenses and benefits with respect to claims incurred by Transferred Employees or their covered dependents on or after the Closing Date shall be the responsibility of Purchaser. For purposes of this paragraph, a claim is deemed incurred: in the case of medical or dental benefits, when the services that are the subject of the claim are performed; in the case of life insurance, when the death occurs; in the case of disability benefits, when the disability occurs; in the case of workers compensation benefits, when the event giving rise to the benefits occurs; and otherwise, at the time the Transferred Employee or covered dependent becomes entitled to payment of a benefit (assuming that all procedural requirements are satisfied and claims applications properly and timely completed and submitted).

(c) With respect to any plan that is a “welfare benefit plan” (as defined in Section 3(1) of ERISA), or any plan that would be a “welfare benefit plan” (as defined in Section 3(1) of ERISA) if it were subject to ERISA, maintained by Purchaser, Purchaser shall (i) cause there to be waived any pre-existing condition and waiting periods and (ii) give effect, in determining any deductible and maximum out-of-pocket limitations, to claims incurred and amounts paid by, and amounts reimbursed to, such employees during the plan year of the applicable plan sponsored by Seller or one of its Subsidiaries during which the Closing occurs with respect to similar plans maintained by Seller and its Affiliates immediately prior to the Closing Date.

(d) Transferred Employees shall be given credit for all service with Seller, any of its Subsidiaries, and any predecessor employer for which Seller credited service, including without limitation, Angel, Hewlett Packard or their Subsidiaries, to the same extent as such service was credited for such purpose by Seller, under each Purchaser Plan in which such Transferred Employees are eligible to participate for purposes of eligibility, vesting and benefits accrual (other than under any equity or quasi-equity compensation plan or under a defined benefit pension plan either (A) in which no assets are transferred or for which no other compensation, including an adjustment to the Purchase Price, is received by Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement or (B) which would result in the duplication of benefits accrual for the same period of service).

(e) Except as required by applicable Law or as may be agreed to by Seller and Purchaser, as of the Closing Date the Transferred Employees shall cease to accrue further benefits under the employee benefit plans and arrangements maintained by Seller and its Subsidiaries and shall commence participation in the Purchaser Plans. Seller and Seller Parent shall take all necessary actions to allow such Transferred Employees to rollover any associated loan notes to the extent permitted under the Seller 401(k) plan. Purchaser shall take all steps necessary to permit each such Transferred Employee who has received an eligible rollover distribution (as defined in Section 402(c)(4) of the Code) from the Seller 401(k) Plan, if any, to roll such eligible rollover distribution, including any associated loans, as part of any lump sum distribution to the extent permitted by the Seller 401(k) Plan into an account under a 401(k) plan maintained by Purchaser (the “Purchaser’s 401(k) Plan”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller and Purchaser may mutually agree following the date hereof, but prior to the Closing Date, to provide for a trust to trust transfer of the account balances of Transferred Employees under the Seller 401(k) Plan to the Purchaser’s 401(k) Plan.

(f) Promptly after the Closing, Seller shall transfer and Purchaser shall accept the flexible spending account elections and accounts (maintained pursuant to Code Sections 105 and 129) of the Transferred Employees under Seller's Section 125 plan flexible spending arrangement. Promptly after the Closing, Seller and Seller Parent shall cause to be transferred to Purchaser the aggregate net cash amount (determined immediately prior to the Closing) for contributions paid (but not yet reimbursed or subject to a pending claim for reimbursement) by or on behalf of the Transferred Employees under Seller's Section 125 plan flexible spending arrangement.

(g) With respect to any accrued but unused vacation time (including flexible time off and sick pay) as of the Closing Date to which any Transferred Employee is entitled pursuant to the vacation policy immediately prior to the Closing Date (the "Vacation Policy"), to the extent permitted by law, Purchaser shall assume the liability for such accrued but unused vacation time and allow such Transferred Employee to use such accrued vacation; provided, however, that Purchaser shall be liable for and pay in cash an amount equal to such accrued but unused vacation time to any Transferred Employee whose employment terminates for any reason subsequent to the Closing Date and Purchaser shall indemnify Seller for an amount equal to such accrued but unused vacation time paid by Seller to any Transferred Employee who is, or was, entitled to an accrued but unused vacation time payout on termination from Angel or Seller under local Law and who elects, or elected, not to transfer such accrued but unused vacation time from Angel or Seller Parent.

(h) Purchaser or its Affiliates shall pay or otherwise make arrangements for the payment of each of the obligations described in Section 6.6(h) of the Disclosure Letter.

(i) Seller shall retain full responsibility for compliance with those provisions of the Worker's Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act of 1988, as amended ("WARN Act") or any comparable provision of state or local law that are binding upon Seller under any such law and shall indemnify Purchaser for any Liabilities and Losses related thereto.

(j) Purchaser shall indemnify and hold harmless Seller and its Subsidiaries with respect to any liability under COBRA or similar applicable Laws in the United States arising from the actions (or inactions) of Purchaser or its Subsidiaries after the Closing Date. Seller shall retain all liabilities, including with respect to any "qualifying event," (as defined under COBRA) and liabilities under similar applicable Laws incurred on or prior to the Closing Date or arising as a result of the transactions described herein.

(k) Purchaser shall have no liabilities associated with any retention or severance plans entered into by Seller or its Subsidiaries with regard to any Designated Employee. "Designated Employees" are Business Employees who have been chosen by Seller Parent, Seller and/or its Subsidiaries for retention or dismissal under any current retention or severance plan of Seller prior to the Closing Date, but either whose period of retention has not been completed prior to the Closing Date or whose dismissal has not been carried out prior to the Closing Date; provided, however, that Designated Employees shall not include any employee chosen by Seller, after consultation with Purchaser, as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Seller Parent's and Seller's liability with regard to Designated Employees is subject to the rules of the retention and severance plans of Seller as in force prior to or on the Closing Date.

(l) The Parties acknowledge and agree that all provisions contained in this Section 6.6 with respect to employees are included for the sole benefit of the respective Parties and shall not create any right (i) in any other Person, including, without limitation, any employees, former employees, any participant in any Seller Plan or Angel Plan or any beneficiary thereof or (ii) to continued employment with Seller or Purchaser.

6.7 Non-U.S. Employees.

In addition to Section 6.6 as applicable to Non-U.S. Employees, this Section 6.7 applies only to Non-U.S. Employees and certain former non-U.S. Employees ("Non-U.S. Former Employees").

(a) This Section 6.7 shall contain covenants and agreements of the Parties on and as of the Closing Date with respect to:

(i) the Non-U.S. Employees; and

(ii) Non-U.S. Benefit Plans listed in Section 6.7(a)(ii) of the Disclosure Letter, which shall be provided to Purchaser within thirty (30) days following the date of this Agreement, provided or covering such Non-U.S. Employees and Non-U.S. Former Employees.

(b) Seller Parent, Seller and Purchaser and their respective Subsidiaries shall comply with all obligations either under the Transfer Regulations or other applicable Laws to notify and/or consult with Non-U.S. Employees or employee representatives, unions, works councils or other employee representative bodies, if any, and shall provide such information to the other Party as is required by that Party to comply with its notification and/or consultation obligations. Seller Parent, Seller and Purchaser shall indemnify each other against all Losses resulting from any failure of the other to notify and/or consult or to provide such information in a timely manner.

(c) Seller and its Subsidiaries will not, without Purchaser's consent, make any material changes to the working conditions of the Non-U.S. Employees that have not either been announced or agreed to under a collectively bargained agreement between the signing of this Agreement and the Closing Date.

(d) Seller shall provide Purchaser with a supplemental schedule of collective bargaining agreements in those countries that are not covered by Section 4.14 of the Disclosure Letter no later than 30 days prior to the Closing Date.

(e) The Parties acknowledge and agree that all provisions contained in this Section 6.7 with respect to employees are included for the sole benefit of the respective Parties and shall not create any right (i) in any other Person, including, without limitation, any employees, former employees, any participant in any Seller Plan or any beneficiary thereof or (ii) to continued employment with Seller or Purchaser.

(f) Seller Parent, Seller and Purchaser agree that to the extent the transactions contemplated by this Agreement would result in an acceleration of maturity of amounts payable under obligations described in Section 6.7(f) of the Disclosure Letter (the “Section 6.7(f) Obligations”), unless otherwise required by Law, Seller Parent, Seller and their Subsidiaries and Purchaser will waive any such acceleration and to the extent necessary will amend or modify such Section 6.7(f) Obligations to provide for such Section 6.7(f) Obligations when held by Purchaser after the Closing to mature on the same terms as would have applied to such Section 6.7(f) Obligations if the transactions contemplated hereby did not occur.

6.8 Other Arrangements.

(a) At the Closing, Seller or an Affiliate of Seller and Purchaser shall execute and deliver a transition services agreement (the “Master Separation Agreement”) in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit D.

(b) At the Closing, Purchaser and Seller shall execute and deliver a trademark license agreement with Angel in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit G (the “Trademark License Agreement”) with respect to the licensing of certain Angel trademarks on inventory.

(c) The Seller Parties shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause Angel to execute and deliver the Angel Intellectual Property License Agreement within sixty (60) days following the Closing Date.

(d) Prior to the Closing, the Seller Parties will identify which Purchased Assets will not be owned by the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries and which Subsidiary of Seller owns such Purchased Assets. Seller will cause each of such Subsidiaries to execute a joinder to this Agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit I (the “Joinder”).

6.9 Non-Competition.

(a) In order that Purchaser may have and enjoy the full benefit of the Business, the Other Sellers and Seller agree that for a period of three (3) years commencing on the Closing Date, Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller will not, and will cause their Subsidiaries not to and any other Seller Party not to, without the express written approval of Purchaser, engage, directly or indirectly, in a Competing Business or acquire more than fifteen percent (15%) of the outstanding equity interest in any Business Competitor, in each case other than the Retained Business. Seller agrees, upon the reasonable request of Purchaser, to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause its Affiliates to enforce their rights for the benefit of Purchaser under the non-competition provisions of the Asset Purchase Agreement between Angel and an Affiliate of Seller, dated as of August 14, 2005, as amended (the “Semiconductor Business Purchase Agreement”); provided that all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement of such rights shall be borne exclusively by Purchaser. For purposes of this Section 6.9: (i) “Competing Business” shall mean developing, manufacturing, selling or servicing any of the Printer Products for or to third parties and (ii) “Business Competitor” shall mean any Person that derived more than 40% of its consolidated gross revenues from Competing Businesses during the four fiscal quarters prior to the Seller Parent, Other Sellers, Seller or any of their Subsidiaries' entering into an agreement providing for the investment in or acquisition of such Person, for which financial statements are available. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of the Seller Parent, Other Sellers, Seller or any of their Subsidiaries shall be precluded from: (a) engaging in those businesses that are engaged in as of the date of the Closing through the Retained Business, and reasonably expected or foreseeable extensions of those businesses and the products manufactured or sold, and the services developed or provided in connection therewith; (b) acquiring, merging with or consolidating with an entity which, at the time of the parties' agreement to enter into such transaction is not a Business Competitor and extensions of any business of such entity or its Subsidiaries; (c) being acquired by means of any business combination (including an asset purchase, merger or consolidation) by any Person; (d) engaging in any merger, consolidation or any other business combination with any Person not subject to clause (c) if the stockholders of the Seller Parent, Other Sellers or Seller immediately prior to consummation of such transaction will own 50% or less of the outstanding common stock of the resulting or surviving entity (or the parent thereof); (e) the development, manufacture, supply, distribution, sale, support and maintenance of Printer Products as a component of a product sold by, or incidental to, a Retained Business, a reasonably expected or foreseeable extension of a Retained Business, or any other business of the Other Sellers, Seller or their Subsidiaries that is not itself a violation of Section 6.9; or (f) engaging in any Competing Business engaged in by the Other Sellers, Seller or their Subsidiaries as a result of any transaction contemplated by clause (b) or (d) and any extensions of such Competing Business. Following any acquisition as described in the foregoing clause (c), the provisions of this Section 6.9 shall continue to apply solely to Seller Parent, Seller and their Subsidiaries, and not to any other Affiliates of Seller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Section 6.9 shall not restrict the Seller Parent, Other Sellers and Seller or any of their Subsidiaries from acquiring and operating any Business Competitor so long as (i) the Seller Parent, Other Sellers, Seller or such Subsidiary divests all or a portion of the Competing Business conducted by such Business Competitor within one year of such transaction such that an acquisition by the Seller Parent, Other Sellers, Seller or such Subsidiary of the retained portion of the Competing Business would be permissible under the terms of the foregoing clause (b); and (ii) while owned, the Seller Parent, Other Sellers and Seller and their Subsidiaries do not provide such Business Competitor with any Licensed Business Technology or Licensed Business Intellectual Property Rights held by the Other Sellers, Seller or their Subsidiaries prior to the date of such acquisition.

(b) If Seller Parent, Seller, or Other Seller or any of their Subsidiaries is acquired by a Competing Business, or transfers or sells any or all of the Retained Businesses to a third party, including an Affiliate (such acquiring or third party buyer, the "Successor") during the three-year term commencing on the Closing Date, then Seller Parent, Seller or Other Seller or any of their Subsidiaries will not grant the Successor a Patent license to make, have made, import, offer to sell or sell Printer Products for the remainder of the three-year non-competition period and will only transfer Licensed Business Patents to a Successor subject to the license granted under the Intellectual Property License Agreement and subject to a contractual restriction preventing the Successor from exercising its rights under the transferred Licensed Business Patents for the remainder of the three-year non-competition period.

(c) During the three-year non-competition term, Seller Parent, Seller, the Other Sellers and their Subsidiaries will not grant any license to make, have made, import, offer to sell or sell Printer Products nor will Seller Parent, Seller, the Other Sellers or their Subsidiaries provide the Licensed Business Technology to any third party during such three-year non-competition period; provided that the foregoing shall not apply to licenses or disclosures that are incidental to the development or the sale of products and services of the Retained Business or are specifically included in the definition of Retained Business.

6.10 Non-Solicitation.

(a) Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller agree that for a period of two (2) years from and after the Closing Date it shall not, and it shall cause each of their Subsidiaries not to (and shall not encourage or assist any of its Affiliates to), without the prior written consent of Purchaser, directly or indirectly, solicit to hire (or cause or seek to cause to leave the employ of Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries) (i) any Transferred Employee or (ii) any other Person employed by Purchaser who became known to or was identified to the Seller Parent, Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates prior to the Closing in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, unless in each case such Person ceased to be an employee of Purchaser or its Subsidiaries prior to such action by the Seller Parent, Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates, or, in the case of such Person's voluntary termination of employment with Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries, at least three (3) months prior to such action by the Seller Parent, Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates. Seller Parent agrees, upon the reasonable request of Purchaser, to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause its Affiliates to enforce their rights for the benefit of Purchaser under the non-solicitation provisions of the Semiconductor Business Purchase Agreement; provided that all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement of such rights shall be borne exclusively by Seller Parent.

(b) Purchaser agrees that for a period of two (2) years from and after the Closing Date it shall not, and it shall cause its Subsidiaries not to (and shall not encourage or assist any of its Affiliates to), without the prior written consent of Seller, directly or indirectly, solicit to hire (or cause or seek to cause to leave the employ of the Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates) any Person that it or they know to be employed by the Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates as of the Closing Date unless such Person ceased to be an employee of the Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates prior to such action by Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries, or, in the case of such Person's voluntary termination of employment with the Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates, at least three (3) months prior to such action by Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the restrictions set forth in Sections 6.10(a) and 6.10(b) shall not apply to (i) bona fide public advertisements for employment placed by any Party and not specifically targeted at the employees of any other Party, or (ii) any employee who is not a manager or an individual contributor who is engaged in the design of Printer Products or processes. Section 6.10(a) shall not apply to any Person who is hired by the Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates (A) pursuant to any existing agreement with employee representatives (such as a works council agreement) by which the Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates is bound or (B) as a result of actions required to be taken by the Other Sellers or Seller or any of their Affiliates in order to comply with local employment Laws.

6.11 Intellectual Property License Agreement.

At the Closing, Seller Parent and Purchaser shall execute and deliver a license agreement (the “Intellectual Property License Agreement”) in the form of the agreement attached hereto as Exhibit E.

6.12 [Reserved].

6.13 Insurance Matters.

Purchaser acknowledges that the policies and insurance coverage that will be maintained on behalf of the Business are part of the corporate insurance program maintained by Seller (the “Seller Corporate Policies”), and such coverage will not be available or transferred to Purchaser (except with respect to Assumed Liabilities for which claims have been made by Seller Parent, Seller, the Other Sellers or any of their respective Subsidiaries against third party insurers under such policies on or prior to the Closing Date, subject to Purchaser’s paying any applicable deductible with respect to such claim). In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, Purchaser agrees not to bring any claim for recovery under any of the Seller Corporate Policies, whether or not Purchaser may be so entitled in accordance with the terms of such Seller Corporate Policies.

6.14 Tax Matters.

(a) Transfer Taxes.

(i) For purposes of this Agreement, the term “Transfer Taxes” shall mean all transfer, filing, recordation, ad valorem, value added, bulk sales, stamp duties, excise, GST, license or similar fees or taxes. The liability for Transfer Taxes attributable to the transactions occurring pursuant to this Agreement shall be borne one-half by Purchaser and one-half by Seller; provided, however, that Purchaser shall diligently pursue the recovery of any recoverable Transfer Taxes, and if Purchaser actually receives any recoverable Transfer Taxes, Purchaser shall promptly, but in no case later than twenty (20) days after such recovery, pay to Seller an amount equal to one-half of such recovered Transfer Taxes. Seller and Purchaser shall cooperate with each other in the provision of any information or preparation of any documentation that may be necessary or useful for obtaining any available mitigation, reduction or exemption from any Transfer Taxes. For the avoidance of doubt, Purchaser shall have no Liability of any kind and shall be indemnified against Transfer Taxes arising out of or attributable to the acquisition of the Business from Angel or the transfer of any assets (including the Transferred Business Intellectual Property and the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights) to the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries.

(ii) Unless the Parties mutually agree otherwise, any Tax Returns that must be filed in connection with any Transfer Taxes shall be prepared by the Party that bears the responsibility for such Transfer Taxes, as required by applicable Law. For any Tax Return required by law to be filed by a Party (the “Filing Party”) other than the Party that is responsible for preparing such Tax Return pursuant to this Section 6.14 (the “Preparing Party”), the Filing Party shall pay the Transfer Taxes shown on such Tax Return and shall collect the Preparing Party's applicable share of the Transfer Tax from Preparing Party determined in accordance with Section 6.14(a)(i) hereof. The Preparing Party shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to provide to the Filing Party any Tax Returns which it is required to file at least ten days before such Tax Returns are due to be filed. The Preparing Party shall make such changes to the applicable Tax Return as reasonably requested by the Filing Party. Such Tax Returns shall be consistent with the allocation of the Purchase Price as determined pursuant to Section 3.4.

(b) Other Tax Returns and Payment of Taxes.

(i) Except as provided in Section 6.14(a), Seller and the Other Sellers, respectively, shall be liable for and shall remit when due or cause to be remitted when due any amount of Taxes owed by or attributable to the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries, the Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property or the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights for any taxable period ending on or before the Closing Date. Seller or the Other Sellers shall duly file or cause to be duly filed any Tax Return required to be filed in respect of any Tax which it is required to pay pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence. Such Tax Returns shall be subject to the review and approval of Purchaser, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(ii) Purchaser shall be liable for and shall remit when due or cause to be remitted when due any amount of Taxes due in connection with the Purchased Assets and the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries for any taxable period beginning after the Closing Date. Purchaser shall duly file or cause to be duly filed any Tax Return required to be filed in respect of any Tax which it is required to pay pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence.

(iii) Purchaser shall prepare or cause to be prepared and file or cause to be filed any Tax Returns with respect to the Purchased Assets and the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries for taxable periods that begin before the Closing Date and end after the Closing Date (a "Straddle Period"). Seller or the applicable Other Seller, as applicable, shall pay to Purchaser within five days after the date on which Taxes are paid with respect to a Straddle Period an amount equal to the portion of such Taxes which relates to the portion of such Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date. For purposes of this Section 6.14(b)(iii), in the case of any Taxes that are imposed on a periodic basis and are payable for a Straddle Period, the portion of such Tax that relates to the portion of such taxable period ending on the Closing Date shall (x) in the case of any Taxes other than Taxes based upon or related to income or receipts, be deemed to be the amount of such Tax for the entire taxable period multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of days in the taxable period ending on and including the Closing Date and the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire taxable period, and (y) in the case of any Tax based upon or related to income or receipts be deemed to be equal to the amount which would be payable if the relevant taxable period ended on and included the Closing Date. Any credits relating to a Straddle Period shall be taken into account as though the relevant taxable period ended on the Closing Date.

(iv) If, after the Closing, Purchaser or any of its Affiliates receives any refund that relates to a Pre-Closing Tax Period of the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries or that is an Excluded Asset or utilizes the benefit of any overpayment or prepayment of Taxes of a Purchased Seller Subsidiary that relates to a Pre-Closing Tax Period or that otherwise are Excluded Assets, Purchaser shall, or shall cause such Affiliate to, promptly remit or cause to be remitted to Seller or the applicable Other Seller, as the case may be, the entire amount of the refund or overpayment (including any interest paid by the Governmental Authority paying the refund or the overpayment, but net of any Taxes that may be due on such refund or interest amount after giving effect to any deductions in respect of the payment of such amounts to Seller or the applicable Other Subsidiary, as applicable) received or utilized by Purchaser or such Affiliate. If any such refund or benefit is subsequently reduced as a result of an adjustment required by any Governmental Authority, this Section 6.14(c) shall take such adjusted refund or benefit into account. If Purchaser or any of its Affiliates pays any amount to Seller or an Other Seller pursuant to this Section 6.14(c) prior to such adjustment, Seller or the applicable Other Seller shall repay the difference between the amount paid and the adjusted amount of the refund or benefit, as the case may be, to Purchaser, if the adjusted amount is less than the amount paid by Purchaser or such Affiliate to Seller or an Other Seller pursuant to this Section 6.14(c), and Purchaser shall pay the difference between the adjusted amount of the refund or benefit and the amount paid by Purchaser or such Affiliate to Seller or the applicable Other Seller if the amount paid by Purchaser or such Affiliate to Seller or the applicable Other Seller is less than the adjusted amount.

(c) Cooperation and Assistance.

(i) The Parties shall cooperate with each other in the filing of any Tax Returns and the conduct of any audit or other proceeding. They each shall execute and deliver such powers of attorney and make available such other documents as are reasonably necessary to carry out the intent of this Section 6.14.

(ii) If (A) any party is liable under this Section 6.14, including amounts due to Section 6.14(b), for any portion of a Tax shown due on any Tax Return required to be filed by the other Party pursuant to this Section 6.14, subject to Section 6.14(a)(ii), the Party obligated to file such Tax Return pursuant to this Section 6.14 shall deliver a copy of the relevant portions of such Tax Return to the liable Party for such Party's review and comment within 30 days prior to the due date for filing such Tax Return (taking into account any extensions, if applicable). Subject to Section 6.14(a)(ii), the Party who is required to file such Tax Return will make such changes to the Applicable Tax Return as reasonably requested by the other Party. If the Parties disagree as to the treatment of any item shown on such Tax Return or with respect to any calculation with respect to any Tax Return to be filed pursuant to this Section 6.14, an internationally recognized accounting firm mutually agreed upon by Purchaser and Seller or the applicable Other Seller, as the case may be, shall determine how the disputed item is to be treated on such Tax Return. Any payments made by a Party to another Party pursuant to this Section 6.14 shall be made no later than the later of 10 days prior to the due date of the applicable Tax Return and 5 business days after the receipt of the applicable Tax Return by the Party from whom payment is required.

(iii) Upon request or upon payment, each Party shall deliver to the tax director of the other Party certified copies of all receipts for any foreign Tax with respect to which such other Party or any of its Affiliates could claim a foreign tax credit and any supporting documents required in connection with claiming or supporting a claim for such a foreign tax credit.

(iv) The Parties shall retain records, documents, accounting data and other information in whatever form that are necessary for the preparation and filing, or for any Tax audit, of any and all Tax Returns with respect to any Taxes that relate to taxable periods that do not begin after the Closing Date. Such retention shall be in accordance with the record retention policy of the respective Party, but in no event shall any Party destroy or otherwise dispose of such records, documents, accounting data and other information prior to the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations (including extensions) and without first providing the other Party with a reasonable opportunity to review and copy the same. Each Party shall give any other Party reasonable access to all such records, documents, accounting data and other information as well as to its personnel and premises to the extent necessary for a reasonable review or a Tax audit of such Tax Returns and relevant to an obligation under this Section 6.14.

(v) Seller and the Other Sellers shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to provide Purchaser with a clearance certificate or similar document(s) which may be required by any taxing authority to relieve Purchaser of any obligation to withhold any portion of the payments to Seller or the Other Sellers pursuant to this Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements, the Intellectual Property License Agreement or the Trademark License Agreement.

(vi) Upon reasonable request by a Party, the other Party shall cooperate in good faith to effectuate modifications to this Agreement that are otherwise economically neutral to the other Party in order to better accommodate the business and financial goals of the requesting Party.

(d) Tax Controversies. A Party shall promptly notify the other Party in writing promptly upon (but in no event later than 30 days after) (a “Notification”) receipt of notice of any pending or threatened audits or assessments with respect to Taxes for which such other Party (or any of its Affiliates) is liable under Section 6.14. Failure to give such Notification shall not relieve the indemnifying party from liability under Section 6.14, except if and to the extent that the indemnifying party is actually prejudiced thereby. Each Party shall be entitled to take control of the complete defense of any tax audit or administrative or court proceeding (a “Tax Claim”) relating to Taxes for which it may be liable, and to employ counsel of its choice at its expense; provided, that Seller or the applicable Other Subsidiary and Purchaser shall jointly control the defense of any Tax Claim relating to Taxes with respect to a Straddle Period for which Taxes are allocated to both Seller or the applicable Other Subsidiary, as the case may be, and Purchaser under Section 6.14(b)(iii) of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the immediately preceding sentence, each Party shall be entitled to take control of the complete defense of any Tax Claim relating to Taxes for which it is obligated to file a Tax Return (but does not have any indemnification obligation hereunder) under this Section 6.14 (or by Law), and to employ counsel of its choice at its expense; provided, that such Party unconditionally releases in writing the other Party from its indemnification obligation hereunder with respect to such Tax Claim; provided further, that such Party shall take control of such Tax Claim within 60 days of the earlier of (x) the date on which such Notification is provided or (y) the date such Notification is due pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 6.14(d). If one Party takes control of any such audit or proceeding, the other Party shall be entitled to participate, at its expense, in the defense of such audit or proceeding, and the Party controlling such audit or proceeding shall consider in good faith any suggestions made or points raised by the other Party. The Parties may not agree to settle any claim for Taxes for which the other may be liable without the prior written consent of such other Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. This Section 6.14(d) shall govern to the extent it would otherwise be inconsistent with Section 9.3(a).

(e) Indemnification. The Seller Parties shall indemnify, save and hold the Purchaser Indemnified Parties harmless from and against any and all Purchaser Losses incurred in connection with, arising out of, resulting from or incident to (i) any Taxes of any of the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries or with respect to the Purchased Assets, Transferred Business Intellectual Property or Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights for any Tax year or portion thereof ending on or before the Closing Date (or for any Straddle Period, to the extent allocable to the portion of such period beginning before and ending on the Closing Date, determined accordance with 6.14(b)(iii)), (ii) any failure of any representation or warranty of Seller or the Other Sellers set forth in Section 4.10 to be true and correct; (iii) any Taxes arising out of or attributable to the acquisition of the Business from Angel; (iv) any withholding Taxes (whenever arising) attributable to the payment of the Purchase Price; and (v) the unpaid Taxes of any Person (other than either of the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries) under Treasury regulations Section 1.1502-6 (or any similar provision of state, local or foreign law), as a transferee or successor, by contract, or otherwise.

6.15 Mail Handling.

(a) To the extent that Purchaser and/or any of its Subsidiaries receives any mail or packages addressed to any Seller Parent, any Other Seller or Seller or its Subsidiaries and delivered to Purchaser not relating to the Business, the Purchased Subsidiary Interests, the Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property, the Transferred Intellectual Property Rights or the Assumed Liabilities, Purchaser shall promptly deliver such mail or packages to Seller. After the Closing Date, Purchaser may deliver to Seller any checks or drafts made payable to Seller Parent, the Other Sellers, Seller or its Subsidiaries that constitutes a Purchased Asset, and Seller shall promptly deposit such checks or drafts, and, upon receipt of funds, reimburse Purchaser within five Business Days for the amounts of all such checks or drafts, or, if so requested by Purchaser, endorse such checks or drafts to Purchaser for collection. To the extent any Seller Parent, any Other Seller, Seller or its Subsidiaries receives any mail or packages addressed and delivered to Seller Parent, any Other Seller, Seller or its Subsidiaries but relating to the Business, the Purchased Subsidiary Interests, the Purchased Assets or the Assumed Liabilities, Seller shall promptly deliver such mail or packages to Purchaser. After the Closing Date, to the extent that Purchaser receives cash or checks or drafts made payable to Purchaser that constitutes an Excluded Asset, Purchaser shall promptly use such cash to, or deposit such checks or drafts and upon receipt of funds from such checks or drafts, reimburse Seller within five Business days for such amount received, or, if so requested by Seller, endorse such checks or drafts to Seller for collection. The Parties may not assert any set-off, hold-back, escrow or other restriction against any payment described in this Section 6.15.

6.16 [Reserved].

6.17 Shared Contracts.

Seller Parent and Seller agree to use their reasonable commercial efforts to seek the consent, if requested by Purchaser, of the counterparty to any Contract which is used primarily in the Business but is not included within Transferred Contracts to partially assign or otherwise separate for the benefit of Purchaser the portion of such Contract relating to the Business. Seller Parent and Seller will use their commercially reasonable efforts to identify such Contracts to Purchaser as soon as practicable following the execution of this Agreement.

6.18 Licenses.

(a) With respect to the CAD Licenses that prior to the Closing Date are used in the Business, but that are not used exclusively in the Business, Seller and Purchaser shall cooperate diligently prior to the Closing Date to obtain the consent of the respective licensors of such CAD Licenses (the "CAD Licensors") to a partial assignment, or grant of a sublicense by Seller or of a new license to Purchaser by the CAD Licensor, as the case may be, of Seller's rights thereunder applicable to the Business. Purchaser acknowledges that any rights to be sublicensed to it may be limited as set forth in such CAD Licenses; that the terms of any new license to be granted to it by the CAD Licensors may be different from the terms of Seller's existing licenses; and that Seller cannot control and is not responsible for the actions of any of the CAD Licensors. Seller and Purchaser further agree that any division of rights, responsibilities and credits (including credits for pre-paid fees) between them under the existing CAD Licenses or any successors thereto shall be in proportion to the actual usage (by seat count) of such licenses by the Business prior to the Closing Date, compared to the usage of such licenses by the Retained Business prior to the Closing Date or as set forth on Schedule 6.18.

6.19 NDAs.

The Parties agree that with respect to the confidentiality and proprietary development agreements to which the Seller Parent, Other Sellers, Seller or their Subsidiaries is a party with the Business Employees of Seller Parent or any of its Affiliates (the "NDAs"), Seller Parent, the Other Sellers, Seller or an Affiliate, as applicable, will enter into a partial assignment with respect to such NDAs, assigning that portion of the NDAs relating to the Business to Purchaser.

6.20 Patents Licensed Non-exclusively to the Purchaser.

In the event that a Seller Party transfers any Patent that is licensed on a non-exclusive basis to Purchaser pursuant to the Intellectual Property License Agreement, such Seller Party shall upon execution of a definitive agreement for transfer of such Patent, give notice of such transfer to Purchaser and shall, upon request by Purchaser within ten (10) days after the giving of notice, use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain access to the Seller Party patent files pertaining to the Patent to be transferred.

CONDITIONS TO CLOSING

7.1 Conditions Precedent to Obligations of Purchaser, Seller and the Other Sellers.

The respective obligations of the Parties to consummate and cause the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by the Party for whose benefit such condition exists) on or prior to the Closing Date of each of the following conditions:

(a) No Injunction, etc. No Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any Law which is in effect on the Closing Date which has or would have the effect of prohibiting, enjoining or restraining the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to occur on the Closing Date or otherwise making such transactions illegal; and

(b) Regulatory Authorizations. (i) All material Consents of any Governmental Authorities shall have been obtained and shall be in full force and effect, and (ii) the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act shall have expired or been terminated.

7.2 Conditions Precedent to Obligation of Seller and the Other Sellers.

The obligation of Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers to consummate and cause the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by Seller Parent, Seller or the Other Sellers) on or prior to the Closing Date of each of the following conditions:

(a) Accuracy of Purchaser's Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of Purchaser contained in this Agreement (i) that are qualified as to "Purchaser Material Adverse Effect" shall be true and correct on the date of this Agreement and on the Closing Date as though made on the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties by their terms speak as of an earlier date, in which case they shall be true and correct as of such date); and (ii) that are not qualified as to "Purchaser Material Adverse Effect" shall be true and correct on the date of this Agreement and on the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties by their terms speak as of an earlier date, in which case they shall be true and correct as of such date), except for such failures to be true and correct which would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Purchaser Material Adverse Effect; and Seller shall have received a certificate signed by an authorized officer of Purchaser to such effect.

(b) Covenants of Purchaser. Purchaser shall have complied in all material respects with all covenants contained in this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to be performed by it prior to the Closing; and Seller shall have received a certificate dated as of the Closing Date and signed by an authorized officer of Purchaser to such effect.

(a) Accuracy of Representations and Warranties of Seller and the Other Sellers. The representations and warranties of Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers contained in this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents (i) that are qualified as to “Seller Material Adverse Effect” shall be true and correct on the date of this Agreement and on the Closing Date as though made on the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties by their terms speak as of an earlier date, in which case they shall be true and correct as of such date); and (ii) that are not qualified as to “Seller Material Adverse Effect” shall be true and correct on the date of this Agreement and on the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties by their terms speak as of an earlier date, in which case they shall be true and correct as of such date), except for such failures to be true and correct which would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Seller Material Adverse Effect; and Purchaser shall have received a certificate signed by an authorized officer of Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers to such effect.

(b) Covenants of Seller and the Other Sellers. Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers shall have complied in all material respects with all covenants contained in this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to be performed by it prior to the Closing; and Purchaser shall have received a certificate dated as of the Closing Date and signed by an authorized officer of Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers to such effect.

(c) Ancillary Agreements. Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers shall have executed and delivered or caused each of the relevant Purchased Seller Subsidiary to execute and deliver, the Ancillary Agreements and other agreements and documents contemplated by Section 2.3(a) to the extent a party thereto, and each such agreement and document shall be in full force and effect and shall not have been breached in any material respect by the Other Sellers, Seller, Seller Parent or the relevant Purchased Seller Subsidiary, as the case may be.

Ltd. shall have executed and delivered the Intellectual Property License Agreement and the Trademark License Agreement and each such agreement shall be in full force and effect and shall not have been breached in any material respect by General IP.

(e) Consents. (i) Each of the Consents set forth on Section 7.3(e) of the Disclosure Letter shall have been obtained in a form reasonably acceptable to Purchaser and shall be in full force and effect, and (ii) all other Consents required to be obtained in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall have been obtained and shall be in full force and effect, except in the case of clause (ii) where the failure to obtain any such Consents has not had and could not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Seller Material Adverse Effect.

(f) No Seller Material Adverse Effect. Since the date of this Agreement there shall have been no event, condition, change or development, worsening of any existing event, condition, change or development (except as relates to Excluded Assets, the failure to transfer to Purchaser the Excluded Assets or any failure to obtain a consent with respect to CAD Licenses to the extent provided in Section 6.18 hereto) that, individually or in combination with any other event, condition, change, development or worsening thereof, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Seller Material Adverse Effect.

(g) FIRPTA Certificate. Purchaser shall have duly received certifications, duly executed and acknowledged, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Purchaser, certifying that the transactions contemplated hereunder are exempt from withholding under Section 1445 of the Code.

ARTICLE VIII

CLOSING

8.1 Closing Date.

Unless this Agreement shall have been terminated pursuant to Article X hereof, the closing of the sale and transfer of the Purchased Assets and the other transactions hereunder (the “Closing”) shall take place at the offices of Latham & Watkins LLP, 135 Commonwealth Drive, Menlo Park, CA 94025 at 7:00 a.m., local time, and in such other places as are necessary to effect the transactions to be consummated at the Closing, on the second Business Day immediately following the satisfaction or, to the extent permitted, waiver of all of the conditions in Article VII (other than those conditions which by their nature are to be satisfied or, to the extent permitted, waived at the Closing but subject to the satisfaction or, to the extent permitted, waiver of such conditions), or at such other time, date and place as shall be fixed by mutual agreement of the Parties (such date of the Closing being herein referred to as the “Closing Date”). The effective time (“Effective Time”) of the Closing for tax, operational and all other matters shall be deemed to be 12:01 a.m., local time in each jurisdiction in which the Business is conducted, on the Closing Date.

8.2 Purchaser Obligations.

At the Closing, Purchaser shall (i) deliver to Seller the payments required to be made on the Closing Date, as provided in Section 3.2(a), and (ii) execute and deliver to Seller the following in such form and substance as are reasonably acceptable to the Other Sellers and Seller:

- (a) the documents described in Section 7.2;

(b) such instruments of conveyance with respect to the Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights, Purchased Seller Subsidiaries and Assumed Liabilities as are referred to in Section 2.3(a) and such other assignment and conveyance documents as shall be necessary to convey the Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights and the Purchased Seller Subsidiaries and consummate the other transactions contemplated hereby in each jurisdiction; and

(c) such other documents and instruments as counsel for Purchaser and Seller mutually agree to be reasonably necessary to consummate the transactions described herein.

8.3 Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller Obligations.

At the Closing, Seller Parent, the Other Sellers and Seller, as applicable, shall execute and deliver to Purchaser, and Seller Parent and Seller shall cause such of its Subsidiaries as are party thereto to execute and deliver to Purchaser, the following in such form and substance as are reasonably acceptable to Purchaser:

(a) the documents described in Section 7.3;

(b) such instruments of conveyance with respect to the Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights, Purchased Seller Subsidiaries and Assumed Liabilities as are referred to in Section 2.3(a) and such other assignment and conveyance documents as shall be necessary to convey the Purchased Assets, the Transferred Business Intellectual Property and the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights, and consummate the other transactions contemplated hereby including the sublicense, transfer or acquisition of the sublicense of CAD licenses as and to the extent provided in Section 6.18; and

(c) such other documents and instruments as counsel for Purchaser and Seller mutually agree to be reasonably necessary to consummate the transactions described herein.

ARTICLE IX

INDEMNIFICATION

9.1 Indemnification.

(a) Following the Closing and subject to the terms and conditions of this Article IX, Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Purchaser, its Affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, employees, stockholders, assigns and successors (each, a “Purchaser Indemnified Party”) from and against, and shall compensate and reimburse each Purchaser Indemnified Party for, all Losses imposed upon or incurred by such Purchaser Indemnified Party (“Purchaser Losses”), with respect to (i) any failure of any representation or warranty of Seller set forth in this Agreement (other than Section 4.10, indemnification for the breach of which is covered by Section 6.14(e)) or in the certificate delivered pursuant to Section 7.2(a) to be true and correct, (ii) any breach of any covenant or agreement of Seller herein or (iii) any Excluded Liabilities, it being understood that each

Purchaser Loss shall be calculated net of any Tax Benefit realized by such Purchaser Indemnified Party, as set forth more fully in Section 9.3(c). Seller shall act as agent for Seller Parent and the Other Sellers in connection with this Article IX. Purchaser shall not be entitled to recover more than once for the same Purchaser Loss.

(b) Following the Closing and subject to the terms and conditions provided in this Article IX, Purchaser shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Other Sellers, Seller and their Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, stockholders, assigns and successors (each, a “Seller Indemnified Party”) from and against, and shall compensate and reimburse each Seller Indemnified Party for, all Losses imposed upon or incurred by such Seller Indemnified Party (“Seller Losses”), with respect to (i) the failure of any representation or warranty of Purchaser set forth in this Agreement or in the certificate delivered pursuant to Section 7.3(a) to be true and correct, (ii) any breach of any covenant or agreement of Purchaser herein, or (iii) any of the Assumed Liabilities, it being understood that each Seller Loss shall be calculated net of any Tax Benefit realized by such Seller Indemnified Party, as set forth more fully in Section 9.3(c). The Other Sellers and Seller shall not be entitled to recover more than once for the same Seller Loss.

(c) For purposes of the foregoing Sections 9.1(a)(i) and 9.1(b)(i), in determining the amount of any Purchaser Losses or Seller Losses, as the case may be, no effect shall be given to any qualification in the relevant representations and warranties as to materiality or Seller Material Adverse Effect (other than for purposes of clause (b) of Section 4.7, Section 4.8(i), Section 4.16(b) and the last sentence of Section 4.18, none of which shall be subject to this Section 9.1(c)); provided that full effect shall be given to all such qualifications for purposes of determining the existence of a breach of any representation or warranty.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser Losses and Seller Losses shall not include, and in no event shall any Purchaser Loss or Seller Loss be recoverable under the terms of this Agreement to the extent it consists of, punitive, special or exemplary damages, except to the extent such punitive, special or exemplary damages are awarded against any Purchaser Indemnified Party or Seller Indemnified Party, as the case may be, in a third-party claim.

9.2 Certain Limitations.

(a) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Seller Parent, Seller and Other Sellers shall not be obligated to indemnify Purchaser Indemnified Parties for aggregate Purchaser Losses under this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1(a)(i) in excess of $24,000,000; provided, however, that such limitation shall not apply with respect to a breach of a representation or warranty made by Seller (its Subsidiaries or the Other Sellers) in Section 4.1, 4.2(a), 4.3, 4.5, 4.9 or 4.10. In addition, Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers shall not be obligated to indemnify Purchaser Indemnified Parties for aggregate Purchaser Losses under this Agreement (including pursuant to Section 9.1(a)(ii), 9.1(a)(iii) or 6.13(e)) in excess of an amount equal to the Purchase Price.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Seller Parent, Seller and the Other Sellers shall not be obligated to indemnify Purchaser Indemnified Parties under this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1(a)(i), (x) with respect to any individual Purchaser Loss or series of related Purchaser Losses of less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) (the “Minimum Amount”) and (y) unless and until the aggregate Purchaser Losses (excluding individual Purchaser Losses or related Purchaser Losses less than the Minimum Amount) subject to such indemnification collectively exceed one percent (1.0%) of the Purchase Price (the “Threshold”), whereupon such indemnification shall be made by Seller only with respect to the amount of such Purchaser Losses (excluding individual Purchaser Losses or related Purchaser Losses less than the Minimum Amount) in excess of the Threshold; provided, however, that the Threshold shall not apply to any breach of a representation or warranty made by Seller in Sections 4.1, 4.2(a), 4.3, 4.5, 4.9 or 4.10.

(c) The representations and warranties of the Seller Parties and Purchaser contained in Article IV and Article V, respectively, of this Agreement shall survive the Closing until September 15, 2007; provided that the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 4.1, 4.2(a), 4.3, 4.5, 4.9, 5.1, 5.2(a) and 5.5 shall survive indefinitely and the representations and warranties set forth in Section 4.10 shall survive until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations. The covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement shall survive the Closing until the date or dates explicitly specified therein or, if not so specified, until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations with respect to the matters contained therein.

(d) The obligations to indemnify and hold harmless a Party pursuant to Sections 6.14(e), 9.1(a)(i), 9.1(a)(ii), 9.1(b)(i) or 9.1(b)(ii) shall terminate when the applicable representation, warranty or covenant terminates pursuant to Section 9.2(c); provided, however, that such obligations to indemnify and hold harmless shall not terminate with respect to any item as to which the Seller Indemnified Party or Purchaser Indemnified Party, as the case may be, to be indemnified (each, an “Indemnified Party”) shall have, before the expiration of the applicable survival period, previously made a claim by delivering a written notice (stating in reasonable detail the basis of such claim) to the Indemnifying Party.

9.3 Procedures for Third-Party Claims and Excluded Liabilities.

(a) General Procedures. Promptly (but in no event later than ten (10) days) after the receipt by any Indemnified Party of a notice of any Proceeding by any third party that may be subject to indemnification under this Article IX, including any Proceeding relating to any Excluded Liability or Assumed Liability, such Indemnified Party shall give written notice of such Proceeding to the indemnifying Party hereunder (the “Indemnifying Party”), stating in reasonable detail the nature and basis of each claim made in the Proceeding and the amount thereof, to the extent known, along with copies of the relevant documents received by the Indemnified Party evidencing the Proceeding and the basis for indemnification sought. Failure of the Indemnified Party to give such notice shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party from liability on account of this indemnification, except if and only to the extent that the Indemnifying Party is actually prejudiced thereby. Thereafter, the Indemnified Party shall deliver to the Indemnifying Party, promptly after the Indemnified Party’s receipt thereof, copies of all notices and documents (including court papers) received by the Indemnified Party relating to the Proceeding. The Indemnifying Party shall have the right to assume the defense of the Indemnified Party against the third party claim upon written notice to the Indemnified Party delivered within thirty (30) days after receipt of the particular notice from the Indemnified Party; provided, however, that the Indemnifying Party shall not have the right to assume the defense of the third party claim if it (x) seeks as a remedy the imposition of an equitable remedy that is binding upon Purchaser or the Business or (y) the amounts of Losses could be reasonably expected to exceed the amounts for which the Indemnifying Party is obligated to indemnify. So long as the Indemnifying Party has assumed the defense of the third party claim in accordance herewith and notified the Indemnified Party in writing thereof, (i) the Indemnified Party may retain separate co-counsel at its sole cost and expense and participate in the defense of the third party claim, it being understood that the Indemnifying Party shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of counsel for the Indemnified Party after such time as the Indemnified Party has notified the Indemnifying Party of such third party claim and prior to such time as the Indemnifying Party has notified the Indemnified Party that it has assumed the defense of such third party claim, (ii) the Indemnified Party shall not file any papers or consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement with respect to the third party claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) and (iii) the Indemnifying Party will not consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement with respect to the third party claim (other than a judgment or settlement that is solely for money damages in an amount less than the remaining balance of the limitations on indemnity set forth in Section 9.2 and is accompanied by a release of all indemnifiable claims against the Indemnified Party) without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). Whether or not the Indemnifying Party shall have assumed the defense, such Indemnifying Party shall not be obligated to indemnify and hold harmless the Indemnified Party hereunder for any settlement entered into without the Indemnifying Party's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Section 9.3(a) shall not apply to any claim with respect to Taxes, which shall be governed solely by Section 6.14.

(b) Equitable Remedies. In the case of any third party claims where the Indemnifying Party reasonably believes that it would be appropriate to settle such claim using equitable remedies (i.e., remedies involving the future activity and conduct of the Business), the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party shall work together in good faith to agree to a settlement; provided, however, that no Party shall be under any obligation to agree to any such settlement.

(c) Treatment of Indemnification Payments; Insurance Recoveries. Any payment made pursuant to the indemnification obligations arising under this Agreement shall be treated as an adjustment to the Purchase Price. Any indemnity payment under this Agreement shall be decreased by any amounts actually recovered by the Indemnified Party under third party insurance policies with respect to such Loss (net of any premiums paid by such Indemnified Party under the relevant insurance policy), each Party agreeing (i) to use all reasonable efforts to recover all available insurance proceeds and (ii) to the extent that any indemnity payment under this Agreement has been paid by the Indemnifying Party to the Indemnified Party prior to the recovery by the Indemnified Party of such insurance proceeds, such amounts actually recovered by the Indemnified Party shall be promptly paid to the Indemnifying Party. If the amount of any Loss for which indemnification is provided under this Agreement (an "Indemnity Claim") gives rise to a current deduction to the Indemnified Party making the claim, the indemnity payment shall be reduced by the amount of the Tax Benefit of such current deduction available to the Indemnified Party making the claim. "Tax Benefit" means, with respect to any indemnity payment, the excess, if any, of (i) the Indemnified Party's pro forma tax Liability for the taxable year in which it accrues the indemnity payment, calculated on the basis of the facts and circumstances actually pertaining to the Indemnified Party, but assuming for purposes of this calculation that the Indemnified Party had not suffered the loss giving rise to the Indemnification Claim or accrued the indemnity payment, over (ii) the Indemnified Party's Adjusted Actual Tax Liability for such taxable year in each case as calculated in good faith by the Indemnified Party. The "Adjusted Actual Tax Liability" is the actual Tax Liability of the Indemnified Party, taking into account the items excluded from the calculation in clause (i).

9.4 Certain Procedures.

(a) The Indemnified Party shall notify the Indemnifying Party promptly of its discovery of any matter that may give rise to a claim for indemnification pursuant hereto. The Indemnified Party shall cooperate and assist the Indemnifying Party in determining the validity of any claim for indemnity by the Indemnified Party and in otherwise resolving such matters. Subject to the provisions of Section 9.3, in connection with any actual or threatened claims by, or actual or threatened litigation or other disputes with, third parties relating to Assumed Liabilities or Excluded Liabilities, any such claims, litigation and disputes being referred to as "claims" for purposes of this Section 9.4, the Indemnified Party shall cooperate in the defense by the Indemnifying Party of such claim (and the Indemnified Party and the Indemnifying Party agree with respect to all such claims that a common interest privilege agreement exists between them), including, (i) permitting the Indemnifying Party to discuss the claim with such officers, employees, consultants and representatives of the Indemnified Party as the Indemnifying Party reasonably requests, (ii) permitting the Indemnifying Party to have reasonable access to the properties, books, records, papers, documents, plans, drawings, electronic mail, databases and computers of the Indemnified Party at reasonable hours to review information and documentation relative to the properties, books, records, papers, documents, plans, drawings, electronic mail, databases and computers, contracts, commitments and other records of the Indemnified Party, (iii) providing to the Indemnifying Party copies of documents and samples of Printer Products as the Indemnifying Party reasonably requests in connection with defending such claim, (iv) permitting the Indemnifying Party to conduct privileged interviews and witness preparation of officers, employees and representatives of the Indemnified Party as the Indemnifying Party reasonably requests, (v) preserving all properties, books, records, papers, documents, plans, drawings, electronic mail and databases of the Business relating to matters relating to Excluded Liabilities (in the case of the Purchaser) and Assumed Liabilities (in the case of the Other Sellers) in accordance with such Party's corporate documents retention policies, or longer to the extent reasonably requested by the other Party in connection with any actual or threatened action that would reasonably be expected to result in a claim for indemnification hereunder, (vi) promptly collecting documents and extracting information from documents for the Indemnifying Party's review and use, as the Indemnifying Party reasonably requests, or allowing the Indemnifying Party's representatives to do the same, (vii) notifying the Indemnifying Party promptly of receipt by the Indemnified Party of any subpoena or other third party request for documents or interviews and testimony, (viii) providing to the Indemnifying Party copies of any documents produced by the Indemnified Party in response to or compliance with any subpoena or other third party request for documents, and (ix) permitting the Indemnifying Party to conduct such other reasonable investigations and studies, and take such other actions, as are reasonably necessary in connection with the Indemnifying Party's defense or investigation of such claim. In connection with any claims, except to the extent inconsistent with the Indemnified Party's obligations under applicable Law and except to the extent that to do so would subject the Indemnified Party or its employees, agents or representatives to criminal or civil sanctions, (1) unless ordered by a court to do otherwise, the Indemnified Party shall not produce documents to a third party until the Indemnifying Party has been provided a reasonable opportunity to review, copy and assert privileges covering such documents, (2) the transfer to the Indemnified Party by the Indemnifying Party of documents covered by the Indemnifying Party's attorney/client or work product privileges shall not constitute a waiver of such privileges, (3) unless otherwise ordered by a court, the Indemnified Party shall withhold from production to any third party any documents as to which the Indemnifying Party asserts a privilege, (4) the Indemnified Party shall defend in court any such privilege asserted by the Indemnifying Party and (5) the Indemnified Party shall permit the Indemnifying Party to prepare any employees of the Indemnified Party required or requested to testify or otherwise be deposed or interviewed in connection with any claim and to be present during any such testimony or interviews.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or in any Local Asset Transfer Agreement to the contrary, Purchaser shall not make any claim for indemnification or otherwise in any circumstances whatsoever against any Other Seller other than by means of a claim against Seller as agent for such Subsidiary or Other Seller pursuant to the terms of this Agreement unless Seller fails to satisfy its obligations under this Article IX, and Purchaser shall indemnify Seller on its own behalf and as agent for the Other Sellers against any claim for indemnification made against the Other Seller contrary to this Section 9.4(b).

9.5 Remedies Exclusive.

Following the Closing, with the exception of remedies based on fraud or Section 6.14(e), the remedies set forth in this Article IX shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy for money damages and shall be in lieu of any other remedies for money damages that may be available to the Indemnified Parties under any other agreement or pursuant to any statutory or common law (including Environmental Law) with respect to any Losses of any kind or nature incurred directly or indirectly resulting from or arising out of any of this Agreement, the Business, the Purchased Assets, the Assumed Liabilities or the Excluded Liabilities (it being understood that nothing in this Section 9.5 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall affect the Parties' rights to specific performance or other similar non-monetary equitable remedies with respect to the covenants referred to in this Agreement to be performed after the Closing). The Other Sellers, Seller Parent, Seller and Purchaser each hereby waive any provision of any applicable Law to the extent that it would limit or restrict the agreement contained in this Section 9.5.

ARTICLE X

TERMINATION

10.1 Termination Events.

Without prejudice to other remedies which may be available to the Parties by Law or this Agreement, this Agreement may be terminated and the transactions contemplated herein may be abandoned:

(a) by mutual consent of the Parties;

(b) after April 18, 2006 (the “Outer Date”), by any Party by notice to the other Party if the Closing shall not have been consummated on or prior to the Outer Date; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 10.1(b) shall not be available to any Party whose failure or whose Affiliate’s failure to perform in all material respects any of its obligations under this Agreement has been the cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the Closing to occur on or before such date;

(c) by any Party by notice to the other Party, if (i) a final, non-appealable order, decree or ruling enjoining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to occur on the Closing Date has been issued by any federal or state court in the United States having jurisdiction (unless such order, decree or ruling has been withdrawn, reversed or otherwise made inapplicable) or any U.S. federal or state Law has been enacted that would make the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to occur on the Closing Date illegal.

10.2 Effect of Termination.

In the event of any termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 10.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become wholly void and of no further force and effect, all further obligations of the parties under this Agreement shall terminate and there shall be no liability on the part of any Party (or any stockholder, director, officer, employee, agent, consultant or representative of such Party) to any other Party (or such other persons or entities), except that the provisions of Sections 6.2(b), 6.4 and Article XI of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and the Parties shall remain bound by and continue to be subject to the provisions thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Section 10.2 shall not relieve either party of any liability for willful breach of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XI

MISCELLANEOUS AGREEMENTS OF THE PARTIES

11.1 Dispute Resolution.

Except as otherwise set forth herein, resolution of any and all disputes arising from or in connection with this Agreement, whether based on contract, tort, or otherwise (collectively, “Disputes”), shall be exclusively governed by and settled in accordance with the provisions of this Section 11.1.

(a) Negotiation. The Parties shall make a good faith attempt to resolve any Dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement through negotiation. Within 30 days after notice of a Dispute is given by either Party to the other Party, each Party shall select a first tier negotiating team comprised of director or general manager level employees of such Party and shall meet and make a good faith attempt to resolve such Dispute and shall continue to negotiate in good faith in an effort to resolve the Dispute or renegotiate the applicable Section or provision without the necessity of any formal proceedings. If the first tier negotiating teams are unable to agree within 30 days of their first meeting, then each Party shall select a second tier negotiating team comprised of vice president level employees of such Party and shall meet within 30 days after the end of the first 30 day negotiating period to attempt to resolve the matter. During the course of negotiations under this Section 11.1, all reasonable requests made by one Party to the other for information, including requests for copies of relevant documents, will be honored. The specific format for such negotiations will be left to the discretion of the designated negotiating teams but may include the preparation of agreed upon statements of fact or written statements of position furnished to the other Party. All negotiations between the Parties pursuant to this Section 11.1(a) shall be treated as compromise and settlement negotiations. Nothing said or disclosed, nor any document produced, in the course of such negotiations that is not otherwise independently discoverable shall be offered or received as evidence or used for impeachment or for any other purpose in any current or future litigation.

(b) Failure to Resolve Disputes. In the event that any Dispute arising out of or related to this Agreement is not settled by the Parties within 15 days after the first meeting of the second tier negotiating teams under Section 11.1(a), the Parties may seek any remedies to which they may be entitled in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(c) Proceedings. Nothing herein, however, shall prohibit either Party from initiating litigation or other judicial or administrative proceedings if such Party would be substantially harmed by a failure to act during the time that such good faith efforts are being made to resolve the Dispute through negotiation. In the event that litigation is commenced under this Section 11.1(c), the Parties agree to continue to attempt to resolve any Dispute according to the terms of Section 11.1(a) during the course of such litigation proceedings under this Section 11.1(c).

(d) Pay and Dispute. Except as provided herein, in the event of any dispute regarding payment of a third-party invoice (subject to standard verification of receipt of products or services), the Party named in a third party's invoice must make timely payment to such third party, even if the Party named in the invoice desires to pursue the dispute resolution procedures outlined in this Section 11.1. If the Party that paid the invoice is found pursuant to this Section 11.1 to not be responsible for such payment, such paying Party shall be entitled to reimbursement, with interest accrued at an annual rate of the Prime Rate, from the Party found responsible for such payment.

1. Services Provided.

- 1.1 During the period commencing on the Closing Date and ending on the Termination Date (as defined below), subject to the terms hereof, Seller shall provide to Purchaser, or at Seller’s option shall cause one or more of its Subsidiaries or one or more third parties to provide to Purchaser and/or Purchaser’s Subsidiaries: (a) the services and functions described in Annex A to this Agreement (the “Ongoing Services”), (b) activities necessary (i) to enable Seller to provide the Services included in Annex A to Purchaser commencing on the Closing Date (or, if later, the first day such Service is provided by Seller to Purchaser), and (ii) to separate the Business from Seller and which cannot reasonably be performed by Purchaser (or Purchaser’s service providers other than Seller) or which Seller elects to perform itself (the “Day One Setup Services”), and (c) activities to provide data extraction, conversion and migration, separate the WAN/LAN, migrate specific applications to Purchaser networks and servers and access to system documentation for such applications, and any other activities mutually agreed upon by the parties, in each case to the extent requested by Purchaser and performed by Seller after the Closing Date (the “Day Two Setup Services”, and with the Day One Setup Services and Ongoing Services, the “Services”).

- 1.2 Seller and Purchaser shall negotiate in good faith more detailed descriptions of the Services, including those activities necessary to transition the Services to Seller and any additional Services agreed upon by the parties, in separation agreements (“Separation Agreements” or “SAs”), and any services jointly agreed to by Seller and Purchaser in such Separation Agreements will be deemed part of the Services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the failure of the parties to reach agreement on Separation Agreements will not relieve Seller’s obligation to provide the Services as set forth in Section 1.1. The Services (i) shall be no more extensive in scope and content than the services and functions provided by Agilent and/or Seller, as applicable, to the Business immediately prior to the Signing Date, except as necessary to implement the Separation Agreements and the Day One Setup Services and Day Two Setup Services, provided that if any Services are provided by Agilent to Seller, such Services will be no more extensive in scope and content as those provided by Agilent to Seller pursuant to the Agilent Master Separation Agreement, (ii) shall not include any Services that would be unlawful for Seller to provide, (iii) shall not include any Services which Seller’s independent auditors conclude would result in material deficiencies with respect to Seller’s internal financial controls in connection with the keeping of its financial books and records or the preparation of its financial statements, unless such deficiencies can be avoided by a commercially reasonable change in the manner in which the applicable Services are provided, in which case, Seller shall perform the Services in such a manner as to avoid such deficiencies, and (iv) shall not include the exercise of business judgment or general management for Purchaser. To the extent that pursuant to either the foregoing clause (iii) or Section 2.2.1, Seller is unable to provide a Service, Seller will provide written notice to Purchaser as promptly as practicable, but in any event no less than sixty (60) days prior to discontinuation of such Service by Seller, and the parties will work together in good faith and use all reasonable efforts to arrange a substitute means of obtaining such Service as expeditiously as possible. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything herein to the contrary, Purchaser shall not be entitled to receive from Seller, and/or benefit from, services provided by Agilent to Seller pursuant to the Agilent Master Separation Agreement to the extent such receipt or benefit by Purchaser (i) would result in a violation of law by Agilent or (ii) Agilent’s independent auditors conclude would result in material deficiencies with respect to Agilent’s internal financial controls in connection with the keeping of its financial books and records or the preparation of its financial statements; provided, however, that Seller will use commercially reasonable efforts, as defined in the Purchase Agreement, to cause Agilent to provide any such Services in a manner which does not result in the foregoing.

- 1.3 Seller and Purchaser may also mutually agree on consulting and similar services to be provided by Seller as Services hereunder (“Additional Services”), which Additional Services are not included in Annex A and will be of such scope and content as are agreed upon by the Parties in the applicable SA.
- 1.4 SAs.
- 1.4.1 Purchaser shall receive the Services under this Agreement and the SAs. Seller shall perform or shall cause its Subsidiaries to perform the Services for the Purchaser or its Subsidiaries in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the applicable SA. Each such SA will incorporate the terms and conditions of this Agreement by reference, will not deviate from such terms, except as may be expressly set forth in each such SA, and shall be considered an exhibit to this Agreement and not a standalone agreement. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, all invoices for such Services will be paid by Purchaser in accordance with Section 3 below.
- 1.4.2 In the event the parties agree (which agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld by Seller) that additional Ongoing Services not included in Annex A are necessary for Seller to provide to Purchaser for the operation of the Business as conducted prior to the Effective Date, subject to the other terms and conditions hereof, the parties will enter additional SAs for the provision of such additional Ongoing Services. Any requests by Purchaser for additional Ongoing Services pursuant to this Section 1.4.2 must be made by Purchaser within thirty (30) days after the Closing Date.
- 1.4.3 SAs may need to be executed at a local level between Seller’s Subsidiaries and Purchaser’s Subsidiaries in order to provide Services under this Agreement. Each such SA will incorporate the terms and conditions of this Agreement by reference, and may not deviate from such terms and conditions except as required by local laws or except as may be set forth therein, and only as documented in the applicable SA. However, no such local SAs will be binding and enforceable against Seller or Purchaser or their respective Subsidiaries unless and until they are approved in writing by the Transition Managers (defined below). In connection with such local SAs, Seller shall issue or cause its Subsidiaries to issue invoices to the Purchaser’s ordering Subsidiaries, and Purchaser shall pay or shall cause its Subsidiary to pay such invoices, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement or the applicable SA.

1.5 Transition Management.

1.5.1 Seller and Purchaser each agree to (i) designate an appropriate point of contact for all questions and issues relating to the Services and the related Separation Agreements during the term of this Agreement (“Transition Managers”) and (ii) make available the services of appropriate qualified employees and resources to allow for the provision of the Services and to allow each party to perform its duties, responsibilities and obligations related to the Services. The Transition Manager for Seller will be William Cornog, and the Transition Manager for Purchaser will be Mike Tate. Except in the case of death, disability, termination or resignation of an existing Transition Manager, prior to replacing a Transition Manager, Seller will secure a replacement and use reasonable efforts to ensure such replacement works with the departing Transition Manager for a reasonable period of time to ensure an adequate knowledge transfer. Seller will use reasonable efforts to ensure any replacement Seller Transition Manager shall have a comparable title, level of authority and responsibility and experience relating to the Services as the Transition Manager being replaced.

1.5.2 In addition, Seller’s Transition Manager for information technology related services (“IT Services”) will be William Cornog and Purchaser’s IT Services Transition Manager will be Walter Curd]. The IT Transition Managers may be replaced in the same manner described above in Section 1.5.1.

1.5.3 Seller’s and Purchaser’s designated transition team leads for each of the Separation Agreements will be included in the SAs.

1.6 Purchaser shall make a commercially reasonable and good faith effort to assume performance of all of the Services as soon as practicable and for each service included in the Services on or prior to the date specified for such service on Annex A or otherwise in any related Separation Agreement. In furtherance of the foregoing, Purchaser shall use commercially reasonable efforts to make or obtain any approvals, permits and licenses and implement any systems as may be necessary for it to provide the Services independently in each pertinent country as soon as practicable following the Closing. Purchaser and Seller will work together to develop a plan to prioritize Purchaser’s assumption of the Services hereunder in a manner which reduces Seller’s and Purchaser’s reliance on Agilent as soon as practical.

1.7 Purchaser shall provide Seller with such information and documentation as is reasonably necessary for Seller to perform the Services and perform such other duties and tasks as may be reasonably required to permit Seller to perform the Services.

2. Performance Standard.

- 2.1 Seller shall maintain directly or through third parties sufficient resources to perform its obligations hereunder. In performing the Services, Seller and each of its Subsidiaries shall provide, or ensure that any such third party will provide a similar level of service and use the same degree of care and skill as it exercises in providing similar services for itself from the Closing Date until the Termination Date. All Services shall be performed in substantial compliance with applicable law. The foregoing is subject to Section 2.2 below.
- 2.2 Limitations.
- 2.2.1 Seller has disclosed to Purchaser and Purchaser hereby acknowledges that Seller has many outsourcing relationships with, and uses software of, third parties (including, for example, Agilent, “Service Providers”) who may, through Seller’s obligations under this Agreement, be delivering Services to Purchaser or whose software may be used by Seller to provide Services to Purchaser. Purchaser further acknowledges that Seller’s provision of such Services or use of such software may be subject to the terms and conditions of agreements between Seller and such Service Providers. To the extent required under any such Service Provider agreements governing such Services or software, Purchaser agrees to cooperate with Seller and will assist Seller in obtaining third party consents, licenses, sublicenses, or approvals necessary to permit Seller or the applicable Service Provider to perform, or otherwise make available to Purchaser, the Services set forth in this Agreement or to permit Seller to use the applicable software to provide the Services set forth in this Agreement.
- 2.2.2 Except as may be set forth in an SA or elsewhere in this Agreement, Seller shall not be required to provide Purchaser with extraordinary levels of Services, special studies, training, or the like or the benefit of systems, equipment, facilities, training, or improvements procured, obtained or made after the Signing Date by Seller. Nothing in this Agreement will require Seller to favor the businesses of Purchaser over its own businesses or those of any of its Subsidiaries or divisions.
- 2.3 EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 2.1 ABOVE, SELLER MAKES NO OTHER WARRANTIES OR REPRESENTATIONS OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, WITH RESPECT TO ANY SERVICES PROVIDED HEREUNDER. IN THE EVENT OF A BREACH OF SELLER’S WARRANTY, PROVIDED SELLER HAS RECEIVED NOTICE WITHIN 30 DAYS OF PERFORMANCE, SELLER SHALL USE REASONABLE EFFORTS TO RE-PERFORM OR PERFORM THE SERVICES. IF SELLER DOES NOT RE-PERFORM OR PERFORM SUCH SERVICES WITHIN 30 DAYS OF SUCH NOTICE, PURCHASER’S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR BREACH OF ANY WARRANTY PROVIDED HEREUNDER SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE FEES, AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 3 OR THE SEPARATION AGREEMENTS, DIRECTLY ATTRIBUTABLE TO SUCH SERVICES OR PORTION OF SERVICES NOT PERFORMED BY SELLER.

3. Fees.
- 3.1 Annex A attached hereto sets forth the amount to be charged on a monthly basis for the Ongoing Services (for any Ongoing Service, the “Monthly Charge”). The amount to be charged for any Ongoing Services shall be the Monthly Charge for any such Ongoing Services received during such month as set forth on Annex A at the Service line level. The Monthly Charge will begin to be payable starting on the Closing Date, provided that if the Closing Date does not occur at the beginning of a calendar month, the initial Monthly Charge will be pro-rated.
- 3.2 For all Day One Setup Services and Day Two Setup Services and any Additional Services, Purchaser shall reimburse Seller for such Services, including any setup costs related to provision of such Services in a manner compliant with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, on a time and materials basis, where the time charge for any Seller personnel will be derived from Seller’s fully burdened cost for such personnel. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Purchaser shall reimburse Seller for: (a) any amounts paid to third parties in connection with providing such Services, including amounts paid to Service Providers; , (b) transition costs and/or fees associated with any assignment or novation of Seller’s Service Provider agreements, to the extent those options are available (including inventory transfer fees, termination fees or other similar fees) and other necessary third party consents, licenses or sublicenses, (c) shipping and transportation costs, duties, taxes, (d) costs or expenses incurred by Seller, its Subsidiaries or Service Providers for the extraction, conversion and transfer of data, and (e) other fees or expenses as set forth in the SAs. Examples of Day One Setup Services costs and expenses include (1) costs and expenses associated with providing core order management and fulfillment, manufacturing, logistics and trade compliance, sales and marketing and finance functionality, (2) costs and expenses associated with providing Purchaser specific customer-facing documents, separate financials etc., and (3) costs and expenses for additional hardware and software, supplier consents, data extraction and construction and other related costs to separate shared sites.
- 3.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3.2, to the extent additional Ongoing Services are agreed upon pursuant to Section 1.4.2, a new Monthly Charge will be added for such Ongoing Service, and if the scope of any Ongoing Service is changed, the applicable Monthly Charge will be adjusted to reflect any additional costs or expenses incurred by Seller in connection with such change.
- 3.4 To the extent any Services are provided by Agilent to Seller and Seller requires an extension of Agilent’s obligations under the Agilent Master Separation Agreement and Seller is obligated to pay a fee associated with such extension, Purchaser will reimburse Seller for ten percent (10%) of such extension fee, provided that Seller is providing such Services to Purchaser during such extension period, and further provided, however, that if the reason Seller requires such extension is to enable Seller to provide the Services hereunder, Purchaser will be responsible for one hundred percent (100%) of such extension fees.

3.5 Seller shall invoice Purchaser for the Services (including any Additional Services) provided hereunder in arrears on a monthly basis within twenty (20) days after the end of the month in which the charges accrued. Purchaser shall pay any invoice for Services promptly but in no event later than thirty (30) days after the date of invoice. Late payments shall bear interest at the prime rate then in effect, plus 5% per annum or the maximum amount allowed by law, whichever is less. Purchaser shall notify Seller immediately, and in no event later than sixty (60) days following receipt of Seller's invoice, of any disputed charges. After such sixty (60) day time period, Purchaser will be deemed to have accepted Seller's invoice. Seller shall provide supporting information and documentation as reasonably requested by Purchaser to validate any amounts payable by Purchaser pursuant to this Section 3.

4. Security.

4.1 In addition to the parties' obligations under the Confidential Disclosure Agreement dated referenced in the Purchase Agreement, each Party will and shall cause its Subsidiaries to handle and protect from disclosure all proprietary and confidential information and systems (including Purchaser Data, as defined below, in the case of Purchaser proprietary and confidential information) disclosed to it by the other party, or accessible within Seller's information technology infrastructure, in substantial compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements, including any privacy regulations, and in the same general manner as it handles and protects its own information that it considers proprietary and confidential, including but not limited to any information received with respect to the products of Seller and its Subsidiaries or Purchaser and its Subsidiaries.

4.2 During the term of this Agreement or any Separation Agreements, Purchaser's access to Seller's information technology infrastructure for applications and other data processing activities shall be through secured controlled processes determined by Seller in its sole discretion, and shall be in accordance with Seller's (including its Subsidiaries) business control and information protection policies, standards and guidelines as may be modified from time to time. Except as set forth above and except to the extent otherwise provided for in the Purchase Agreement or in connection with third party agreements assigned or novated to Purchaser pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, Seller shall not transfer to Purchaser, and Purchaser shall have no rights in or access to, application software/systems source code associated with shared systems through which Seller is providing Services to Purchaser hereunder. Purchaser shall not, through reverse engineering or any other technique or means, attempt to access such source code and will use the application software/systems only for their intended use. Any use of software applications as set forth herein will be subject to Seller's standard software license terms or any additional terms that may be referenced in an SA.

5. Ownership.

- 5.1 This Agreement and the performance of the Services hereunder will not affect the ownership of any assets (including Purchased Assets or Intellectual Property Rights) allocated in the Purchase Agreement. Neither Party will gain, by virtue of this Agreement or the Services hereunder, by implication or otherwise, any rights of ownership of any property or Intellectual Property Rights owned by the other. Unless otherwise specified in an SA, Seller will own all copyrights, patents, trade secrets, trademarks and other intellectual property rights, title and interest in or pertaining to all work developed by Seller, its Subsidiaries or Service Providers to perform the Services (including computer programs, deliverables and software deliverables) under this Agreement.
- 5.2 Purchaser shall own all data assigned to Purchaser pursuant to the Purchase Agreement as well as any changes or additions thereto made on behalf of Purchaser in the performance of the Services. In addition, Purchaser will own any other data with respect to Purchaser, Purchaser's Subsidiaries or the Business to the extent (and only to the extent) such data is developed, processed, stored, used or generated by Seller on behalf of Purchaser, Purchaser's Subsidiaries or the Business, in the performance of the Services. All such data will collectively be referred to herein as "Purchaser Data." The provisions of this Section 5.2 do not grant Purchaser any rights to any data concerning Seller, Seller's Subsidiaries or the Retained Business.

6. Limitation of Liabilities.

- 6.1 Seller, its Subsidiaries and Service Providers shall not be liable, whether in tort, breach of contract or otherwise, for any damages suffered or incurred by Purchaser or any other Person arising out of or in connection with the rendering of a Service or any failure to provide a Service, except to the extent that such damages are caused by the material breach, willful misconduct or gross negligence of Seller, its Subsidiaries or Service Providers. In no event shall Seller, its Subsidiaries' or Service Providers' total liability to Purchaser and its Subsidiaries or any other Person under this Agreement for any action, regardless of the form of action, whether in tort or contract, arising under this Agreement exceed One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,500,000). In no event shall Seller, its Subsidiaries or Service Providers, or Purchaser or its Subsidiaries, be liable for any lost profits or consequential, punitive, special or indirect damages, except to the extent awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction with respect to a third party claim.
- 6.2 Purchaser acknowledges that Agilent is not a party to this Agreement nor a service provider, and if there are any problems with the Services which Seller is obligated to provide to Purchaser under this Agreement, Purchaser shall look solely to Seller for such Services, not Agilent.

- 6.3 To the extent Purchaser incurs damages as a result of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Agilent or its Affiliates in connection with their performance or failure to perform any aspect of the Services, Purchaser agrees that Purchaser's remedies will be limited to the damages which Seller is able to recover from Agilent pursuant to the Agilent Master Separation Agreement, provided that Seller will use commercially reasonable efforts (as defined in the Purchaser Agreement) to recover such damages.

7. Dispute Resolution.

- 7.1 Dispute Resolution. In the event of any dispute between Seller and Purchaser with respect to the provision of any Service pursuant to this Agreement, each of Seller and Purchaser shall designate an employee or other representative as its representative to attempt to resolve the dispute and each such representative will use reasonable commercial efforts to resolve the dispute promptly. If the individuals designated by Seller and Purchaser are unable to resolve the dispute promptly, the dispute will be submitted to a member of senior management of each party. Such members of senior management will meet in person or by telephone conference at least once in the ten (10) business day period following the submission of the dispute to them and will use commercially reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute promptly. If such members of senior management are unable to resolve the dispute within fifteen (15) business days of the submission of the dispute to them, such dispute will be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Purchase Agreement with respect to disputes arising out the Purchase Agreement.
- 7.2 Audits. Seller shall invoice Purchaser for the Services provided hereunder in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and shall provide reasonable documentation supporting the amounts owed. Purchaser shall have the right, on reasonable notice, to audit of the books and records and systems of Seller (excluding systems of Service Providers) solely with respect to the fees and costs relating to the Day One Setup Services and Day Two Setup Services with respect to the Services and any Additional Services and to ensure compliance with this Agreement, provided, however, Purchaser may only conduct one discretionary audit, plus additional ones to the extent necessary to enable Purchaser to comply with Laws applicable to Purchaser. Such audit may be performed by the employees, independent accounting firm or other designated representative of Purchaser (including internal auditing personnel) at its sole cost and expense. Purchaser and its auditors may have access to any such books or records with respect to the Services and Additional Services, including process documentation and reports, and modifications thereto, in connection with developing, documenting and testing Purchaser processes and controls relating to the Services and Additional Services and in satisfying legal requirements relating to securities or debt issued by Purchaser and its affiliates, including those related to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. For the avoidance of doubt, each party is solely responsible for its own compliance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. Seller shall, at Purchaser's expense, fully cooperate with the auditing party's representatives to accomplish the audit as expeditiously as possible. Seller shall maintain all relevant books and records in accordance with Seller's document retention policies, but in any event no less than three years after the Termination Date.

8. Term, Extension and Termination.

8.1 Term. This Agreement shall become effective on the Signing Date and, unless sooner terminated in accordance with the terms hereof, including Sections 1.2 and 8.3, shall continue in effect until 180 days following the Closing Date (the "Initial Termination Date") except as otherwise provided in this Section 8. All Services will be terminated on the Initial Termination Date or such earlier date as may be set forth in Annex A or the applicable Separation Agreement or as otherwise provided for herein (including in Sections 1.2 and 8.3), unless the Termination Date is extended for an additional Extension Period as provided in Section 8.2 below. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Day Two Setup Services which require assistance from, or access to information of, Agilent will terminate upon the termination of Agilent's obligations pursuant to the Agilent Master Separation Agreement.

8.2 Extension of SAs and the Agreement.

8.2.1 Upon Purchaser's request, Purchaser may request an extension of specific individual Ongoing Services to continue past the Initial Termination Date, provided Purchaser gives Seller at least thirty (30) days written notice prior to the expiration of the applicable term for such Ongoing Service (e.g., as set forth in Section 8.1 or set forth in the applicable SA). This extension shall be available at Purchaser's request and shall commence on the Initial Termination Date. The extension will be for a three (3) month period ("Extension Period") unless a shorter time is set forth in the Extension Period request. This Agreement shall not terminate as long as an Extension Period is effective. For purposes hereof, the "Termination Date" shall be the Initial Termination Date, or, if there is an Extension Period, the last day of the Extension Period.

With respect to the Extension Period, Purchaser will be charged an extension fee of Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) in addition to fees for extended Ongoing Services.

8.3 Termination. This Agreement, any individual SA or any individual Service under any SA may be terminated earlier in accordance with any of the following provisions:

8.3.1 By mutual written consent of both Seller and Purchaser;

8.3.2 By Purchaser effective as of the last day of the month immediately following the month in which written notice is given;

- 8.3.3 By either party entitled to the benefit of the performance of any of the obligations under this Agreement (the “Non Defaulting Party”), if the other party (the “Defaulting Party”) shall fail to perform or default in such performance in any material respect, subject to compliance with the remainder of this paragraph. The Non Defaulting Party shall give written notice to the Defaulting Party specifying the nature of such failure or default and stating that the Non Defaulting Party intends to terminate this Agreement with respect to the Defaulting Party if such failure or default is not cured within thirty (30) days after receipt of such written notice. If any failure or default so specified is not cured within such period, the Non Defaulting Party may elect to immediately terminate the applicable SA with respect to the Defaulting Party; provided, however, that if the failure or default relates to a dispute contested in good faith by the Defaulting Party, the Non Defaulting Party may not terminate this Agreement pending the resolution of such dispute in accordance with Section 7 hereof. Such termination shall be effective upon giving a written notice of termination from the Non Defaulting Party to the Defaulting Party and shall be without prejudice to any other remedy which may be available to the Non Defaulting Party against the Defaulting Party;
- 8.3.4 Automatically, without notice by or to either party, if: (i) Purchaser shall (1) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its properties, (2) make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (3) commence a voluntary case under the United States Bankruptcy Code, as now or hereafter in effect (the “Bankruptcy Code”), (4) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any law (the “Bankruptcy Laws”) relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, winding-up, or composition or readjustment of debts, (5) fail to controvert in a timely and appropriate manner, or acquiesce in writing to, any petition filed against it in any involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code, or (6) take any corporate action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing; or (ii) a proceeding or case shall be commenced against Purchaser in any court of competent jurisdiction, seeking (1) its liquidation, reorganization, dissolution or winding-up, or the composition or readjustment of its debts, (2) the appointment of a trustee, receiver, custodian, liquidator or the like of Purchaser or of all or any substantial part of its assets, or (3) similar relief under any Bankruptcy Laws, or an order, judgment or decree approving any of the foregoing shall be entered and continue unstayed for a period of ninety (90) days, or an order for relief against Purchaser shall be entered in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code;
- 8.3.5 By Seller, effective immediately upon notice to Purchaser, if any of the following shall occur: (a) the sale, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of Purchaser on a consolidated basis to any competitor or (b) any competitor acquires beneficial ownership of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of Purchaser; or

- 8.3.6 By either party upon termination of the Purchase Agreement pursuant to Section 10.1 of the Purchase Agreement, provided that in the event of termination pursuant to this Section, Purchaser will not be obligated to pay Seller any amounts hereunder, including Day One Setup Costs or Day Two Setup Costs.
- 8.4 Effect of Termination. Purchaser specifically agrees and acknowledges that all obligations of Seller to provide each Service hereunder shall immediately cease upon the Termination Date, or the date of termination of such Service, and Seller's obligations to provide all of the Services for which Seller is responsible hereunder shall immediately cease upon the termination of this Agreement.
- 8.5 Survival. Notwithstanding the expiration or early termination of this Agreement or any Services hereunder, Sections 2.3, 4 through 7 and 10 through 27 will survive.
9. Personnel Matters.
- 9.1 Access to Seller's Facility. Seller and Purchaser agree that all Transferred Employees located at Seller's facilities may remain on site through the term of the relevant Separation Agreement, provided, however, that for so long as any such facilities remain owned, leased or controlled by Agilent, such rights will be subject to Agilent's approval. To the extent necessary or reasonably requested by Purchaser, Seller agrees to use all reasonable efforts to obtain such approval. Purchaser will not permit any of its employees, agents or subcontractors to perform any activities at Seller's facilities without Seller's prior written approval, as applicable. Purchaser will ensure that all obligations imposed upon Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement, including without limitation any Seller insurance obligations are similarly imposed upon any authorized non-Purchaser employee. Purchaser's execution of any subcontracts or other agreements with any agents, subcontractors or other third Parties will not relieve, waive or diminish any obligation that Purchaser may have to Seller under this Agreement. For purposes of this Section 9.1, Agilent facilities shall include, and Seller's facilities shall not include, any facilities which contain any aspect of Agilent's LAN/WAN.
- 9.2 Access to Computer Systems. During the term of any Separation Agreements, the Transferred Employees and any other employees, agents or subcontractors of Purchaser (other than Seller, Seller's Subsidiaries or Service Providers) who are authorized by Seller (collectively, "On-Site Personnel") may have access to the computer systems and related equipment of Seller as detailed in the Separation Agreements that are necessary to fulfill the activities directly related to this Agreement; provided, however, that Seller may restrict such access to protect commercially sensitive resources and maintain the confidentiality of other Seller businesses, provided further, that so long as any such systems and related equipment or owned, leased or controlled by Agilent, such rights will be subject to Agilent's approval. To the extent necessary or reasonably requested by Purchaser, Seller agrees to use all reasonable efforts to obtain such approval.

- 9.3 Wages, Payroll Taxes, Benefits and Services. From and after the Closing Date, Purchaser will be solely responsible for the payment of all wages, benefits, social security, unemployment or similar expenses and taxes, and all services not provided pursuant to the relevant Lease Agreements, for all On-Site Personnel.
- 9.4 Identification and Activities of On-Site Personnel. Seller will provide identification badges to On-Site Personnel that identify the On-Site Personnel as non-Seller employees. Purchaser will ensure that such On-Site Personnel conspicuously display such badges at all times when present at Seller's facility. In addition, to the extent provided by Seller to Purchaser in writing, Purchaser will ensure that On-Site Personnel are informed of and comply with all written restrictions and prohibitions associated with Purchaser's use of Seller's facilities, including without limitation the restriction that such On-Site Personnel may not participate in any activity reserved for Seller's employees (e.g., use of exercise and sport facilities; participation in Seller-sponsored network groups, athletic leagues or teams; attendance at social events reserved for Seller's employees; participation in staff meetings led by Seller), and the restrictions provided by the relevant Lease Agreements and the Confidential Disclosure Agreement.
- 9.5 Conduct. Purchaser will be solely responsible for the proper conduct of all On-Site Personnel. Immediately upon the written request from an authorized representative of Seller that any On-Site Personnel be removed for misconduct, Purchaser will remove such On-Site Personnel from Seller's facilities, and will provide written confirmation of such removal. Purchaser will also immediately take possession and return such On-Site personnel's badge identification to Seller. Seller will not be notified of or participate in any disciplinary action regarding any On-Site Personnel.
10. Independent Contractor. The parties hereto understand and agree that this Agreement does not make either of them an agent or legal representative of the other for any purpose whatsoever. No party is granted, by this Agreement or otherwise, any right or authority to assume or create any obligation or responsibilities, express or implied, on behalf of or in the name of any other party, or to bind any other party in any manner whatsoever. The parties expressly acknowledge (i) that Seller is an independent contractor with respect to Purchaser in all respects, including, without limitation, the provision of the Services, and (ii) that the parties are not partners, joint venturers, employees or agents of or with each other.
11. Beneficiary of Services; No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties hereto, and nothing expressed or implied shall give or be construed to give any person any legal or equitable rights hereunder, whether as a third party beneficiary or otherwise. Seller and Purchaser agree, and Purchaser represents and warrants, that the Services will be provided solely to, and will be used solely by, Purchaser, its Subsidiaries and, to the extent reasonably necessary and appropriate with respect to particular Services, its suppliers. Except as set forth in Section 16, Purchaser shall not resell or provide the Services to any other Person, or permit the use of the Services by any Person other than Purchaser and its Subsidiaries.

12. Force Majeure. Neither party will be held liable to the other for any delay or failure of performance to the extent such delay or failure results from events beyond that party's control, including without limitation acts of God, earthquakes, fires, floods, civil disturbance, strikes, labor disputes, and lawful governmental action (a "Force Majeure Event"). The party claiming suspension due to a Force Majeure Event shall give prompt notice to the other party hereto of the occurrence of the Force Majeure Event giving rise to the delay or failure to perform under this Agreement and of its nature and anticipated duration, and such party will use its reasonable efforts to cure the cause of the delay or failure to perform promptly and shall resume performance as soon as the Force Majeure Event has ended.
13. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the Purchase Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings and negotiations, both written and oral, between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.
14. Amendment; Waiver. This Agreement may be amended, and any provision of this Agreement may be waived, if but only if such amendment or waiver is in writing and signed, in the case of an amendment, by Seller and Purchaser, or in the case of a waiver, by the party against whom the waiver is effective. No failure or delay by any party in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.
15. Notices. All communications provided for hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to be given when delivered in person or by private courier with receipt, when telefaxed and received, or three (3) days after being deposited in the United States mail, first-class, registered or certified, return receipt requested, with postage paid. Such communications will be given to the persons identified in Section 11.2 of the Purchase Agreement, or to such other address as any such party shall designate by written notice to the other party hereto, or to such other address as any such party shall designate by written notice to the other party hereto.
16. Non Assignability.

This INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LICENSE AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”) is effective as of the Closing Date (as defined in the Purchase Agreement), between AVAGO TECHNOLOGIES GENERAL IP (SINGAPORE) PTE. LTD., a Singaporean corporation (“Seller”), and MARVELL INTERNATIONAL TECHNOLOGY LTD., a Delaware corporation (“Purchaser”).

WHEREAS, Seller and certain direct and indirect affiliates of Seller are engaged in, among other things, the Business (as defined in the Purchase Agreement);

WHEREAS, Seller and certain of its Subsidiaries (the “Selling Entities”), and Purchaser have entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement, dated as of February 17, 2006 (“Purchase Agreement”), pursuant to which Purchaser shall purchase and assume, and the Selling Entities shall sell, transfer and assign substantially all of the equity, assets and liabilities of the Business to Purchaser; and

WHEREAS, as part of the foregoing, Seller desires to license to Purchaser certain of its Intellectual Property Rights that have not been assigned to Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement and Purchaser desires to license to Seller certain Intellectual Property Rights assigned to Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises of the parties, and of good and valuable consideration, it is agreed by and between the parties as follows:

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Agreement the following capitalized terms are defined in this Article I and shall have the meaning specified in this Article I. Other terms that are capitalized but not specifically defined in this Agreement shall have the meaning set forth in the Purchase Agreement.

1.1 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. “Confidential Information” has the meaning set forth in Article V.

1.2 FIRST EFFECTIVE FILING DATE. “First Effective Filing Date” means the earliest effective filing date in the particular country for any Patent or any application for any Patent. By way of example, it is understood that the First Effective Filing Date for a United States Patent is the earlier of (a) the actual filing date of the United States Patent application which issued into such Patent, (b) the priority date under 35 U.S.C. § 119 for such Patent, or (c) the priority date under 35 U.S.C. § 120 for such Patent.

1.3 IMPROVEMENTS. “Improvements” to Technology means (a) with respect to Copyrights, any modifications, derivative works, and translations of works of authorship; (b) with respect to Database Rights, any database that is created by extraction or re-utilization of another database; and (c) with respect to Mask Works, Trade Secrets and other Intellectual Property Rights included within the definition of Technology and not covered by Section 1.3(a) – (b) above, any improvements of Technology. For the purposes of clarification, an item of Technology will be deemed to be an Improvement of another item of Technology only if it is actually derived from such other item of Technology and not merely because it may have the same or similar functionality or use as such other item of Technology.

1.4 LICENSED BUSINESS PATENTS. “Licensed Business Patents” means:

(a) every Patent other than design patents to the extent entitled to a First Effective Filing Date prior to the Closing Date, provided that Seller (or any Subsidiary or Affiliate of Seller):

(i) has ownership or control of such Patent; or

(ii) otherwise has the right under such Patent to grant licenses of the type and on the terms herein granted by Seller without the obligation to pay royalties or other consideration to Third Parties; and

(iii) is not restricted from granting a license under such Patents by any other agreements; and

(b) applications for the foregoing Patents described in Section 1.4, including without limitation any continuations, continuations-in-part, divisions and substitutions.

1.5 PURCHASER’S FIELD OF USE. “Purchaser’s Field of Use” means the field of the Business as currently or hereafter conducted, including the design, manufacture, supply, distribution, sale, support, and maintenance of Purchaser Products.

1.6 PURCHASER PRODUCTS. “Purchaser Products” means Printer Products sold by Seller and its Subsidiaries, or after the Closing, by the Purchaser or any of its Affiliates, and all modified versions thereof, any reasonably foreseeable extensions or improvements thereto, or any new Printer Products that are developed to replace products existing as of the Closing, that are sold by Purchaser or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates after the Closing as Printer Products.

1.7 SELLER’S FIELD OF USE. “Seller’s Field of Use” means the business of Seller and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, as currently or hereafter conducted, other than Printer Products. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller’s Field of Use shall include products, services and other activities related to Printer Products, but only to the extent that such products, services and activities are components of products of the Retained Business, are incidental to the development or sale of products and services of the Retained Business, or are specifically included in the definition of the Retained Business.

1.8 SELLER PRODUCTS. “Seller Products” means any and all products and services of the businesses in which Seller or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates is now or hereafter engaged (including the business of making (but not having made) Third Party products for Third Parties when Seller or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates is acting as a contract manufacturer or foundry for such Third Parties), other than Printer Products. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller’s Products shall include products and services related to Printer Products, but only to the extent that such products and services are components of products of the Retained Business, are incidental to the development and sale of products and services of the Retained Business, or are specifically included in the definition of the Retained Business.

1.9 THIRD PARTY. "Third Party" means a Person other than Seller and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates or Purchaser and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates.

1.10 THIRD PARTY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS. "Third Party Intellectual Property Rights" means any Intellectual Property Right owned by or licensed through a Third Party, and includes Patents, Copyrights, Trademarks, Trade Secrets, Internet Properties, Industrial Designs, Database Rights, Mask Works, and any similar, corresponding or equivalent rights to any of the foregoing any where in the world that are owned by or licensed from a Third Party. For example, a Third Party Patent is a Patent owned by or licensed from a Third Party.]

ARTICLE II PATENT LICENSE GRANTS

2.1 LICENSE GRANTS TO PURCHASER. Seller grants (and agrees to cause its appropriate Subsidiaries and Affiliates to grant) effective as of the Closing Date to Purchaser, under the Licensed Business Patents, an irrevocable, non-exclusive, worldwide, fully-paid, royalty-free and non-transferable (except as set forth in Section 9.12 hereof) license, with right of sublicense as set forth below, to make (including the right to practice methods, processes and procedures), have made, use, lease, sell, offer for sale and import Purchaser Products solely within the Purchaser's Field of Use. With respect to those Licensed Business Patents owned by a Third Party, (a) the license shall be non-exclusive, and (b) the license grant set forth in this Section shall be subject to the limitations set forth in the relevant license agreement between Seller and such Third Party.

2.2 SUBLICENSE RIGHTS OF PURCHASER.

(a) Subject to Sections 2.2(b) and (c) below and to Section 2.3, Purchaser may grant sublicenses to its respective Subsidiaries and Affiliates within the scope of its respective license hereunder (with no right to grant further sublicenses other than, in the case of a sublicensed Subsidiary or Affiliates, to another Subsidiary or Affiliate of Purchaser).

(b) Any sublicense under Section 2.2(a) may be made effective retroactively, but not prior to the sublicensee's becoming a Subsidiary or Affiliate of Purchaser.

2.3 HAVE MADE RIGHTS OF PURCHASER. Purchaser understands and acknowledges that the "have made" rights granted to it in Section 2.1, and the sublicenses of such "have made" rights granted pursuant to Section 2.2, are intended to cover only the products of Purchaser and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates (including private label or OEM versions of such products), and are not intended to cover foundry or contract manufacturing activities that Purchaser may undertake through Third Parties for Third Parties.

2.4 LICENSE GRANTS BACK TO SELLER. Purchaser grants back (and agrees to cause its appropriate Subsidiaries and Affiliates to grant back) to Seller, under the Patents included in the Transferred Business Intellectual Property (excluding all design patents included therein), an irrevocable, non-exclusive, worldwide, fully-paid, royalty-free, and non-transferable (except as set forth in Section 9.12 hereof) license, with right of sublicense as set forth below, solely within the Seller's Field of Use, to make (including the right to practice methods, processes and procedures), have made, use, lease, sell, offer for sale and import Seller Products.

(a) Subject to Sections 2.5(b) and (c) below and to Section 2.6, Seller may grant sublicenses to its respective Subsidiaries and Affiliates within the scope of its respective license hereunder (with no right to grant further sublicenses other than, in the case of a sublicensed Subsidiary or Affiliate, to another Subsidiary or Affiliate of Seller).

(b) Any sublicense under Section 2.5(a) may be made effective retroactively, but not prior to the sublicensee's becoming a Subsidiary or Affiliate of Seller.

(c) Any licenses granted by Seller or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates to its distributors, resellers, OEM customers, VAR customers, VAD customers, systems integrators and other channels of distribution and to its end user customers with respect to any Seller Product in the form of software may include a sublicense under the Patents included in the Transferred Business Intellectual Property within the scope of Seller's license hereunder, provided that the scope of such sublicense is limited to the exercise of the rights granted by Purchaser with respect to such Seller Product.

2.6 HAVE MADE RIGHTS OF SELLER. Seller understands and acknowledges that the "have made" rights granted to it in Section 2.4, and the sublicenses of such "have made" rights granted pursuant to Section 2.5, are intended to cover only the products of Seller and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates (including private label or OEM versions of such products), and are not intended to cover foundry or contract manufacturing activities that Seller may undertake through Third Parties for Third Parties.

2.7 DURATION.

(a) All licenses granted herein with respect to each Patent shall expire upon the expiration of the term of such Patent; provided, however, that licenses for those Licensed Business Patents owned by a Third Party shall expire on the expiration of the term of the relevant license agreement between Seller and such Third Party.

(b) All sublicenses granted pursuant to this Agreement to a particular Subsidiary or Affiliate of a party shall terminate the date that the Subsidiary or Affiliate ceases to be a Subsidiary or Affiliate of that party.

2.8 SALE OF PART OF A BUSINESS.

(a) If either party (the “Transferring Party”), after the Closing Date, transfers a going business (but not all or substantially all of its business or assets), and such transfer includes at least one marketable product and tangible assets having a net value of at least ten million U.S. dollars ($10,000,000.00), regardless of whether such transfer is part of (i) an asset sale to any Third Party; (ii) a sale of shares or securities in a Subsidiary to a Third Party such that (A) the Subsidiary ceases to be a Subsidiary and (B) the Third Party owns at least eighty percent (80%) of the outstanding shares or securities representing the right to vote for the election of directors or other managing authority; or (iii) a sale of shares or securities in a Subsidiary such that (A) the Subsidiary ceases to be a Subsidiary and (B) no single Third Party owns at least eighty percent (80%) of the outstanding shares or securities representing the right to vote for the election of directors or other managing authority of such ex-Subsidiary;

(b) then, upon written request to the other party (the “Non-Transferring Party”) jointly by the Transferring Party and the Transferee (as defined below) at the closing of the transfer or as soon as practicable thereafter, but not later than sixty (60) days following the transfer, the Non-Transferring Party shall grant a royalty-free license to the Transferee under the same terms as the license granted to the Transferring Party under this Agreement subject to the following:

(i) the effective date of such license shall be the effective date of such transfer,

(ii) the products, services and processes of the Transferee that are subject to such license shall be limited to the products, services and processes of the Subsidiary or the products, services and processes in the transferred business that are commercially released or for which substantial steps have been taken to commercialization as of the date of the transfer by the Transferring Party, and for new versions of such products, services and processes,

(iii) the Patents of the Non-Transferring Party that are subject to such license shall be limited to Licensed Business Patents or Patents included in the Transferred Business Intellectual Property, as the case may be,

(iv) the Transferee shall have no right to grant sublicenses except that the Transferee shall have the right to grant sublicenses to any Person at least eighty percent (80%) of whose outstanding shares or securities representing the right to vote for the election of directors or other managing authority are, directly or indirectly, owned by the Transferee (“Transferee Subsidiaries”), only for so long as such ownership exists, and the license to be granted by the Non-Transferring Party to the Transferee pursuant to this Section 2.8 shall not contain this provision or a provision containing terms comparable to this Section 2.8; and

(v) the Transferee shall grant to the Non-Transferring Party a royalty-free license under the same terms as the license granted to the Non-Transferring Party by the Transferring Party under this agreement, such license (A) to be effective as of the effective date of the transfer, (B) to apply to all the products, services and processes of the Non-Transferring Party that are subject to the license from the Transferring Party to the Non-Transferring Party as of the effective date of the transfer, and (C) to include all Patents of the Transferee (other than design patents) that are entitled to a First Effective

Filing Date on or before the date of such transfer and under which, at any time commencing with the date of the transfer, the Transferee or any of the Transferee Subsidiaries has ownership or control or otherwise has the right to grant such license without the obligation to pay royalties or other consideration to third parties.

(c) provided, further, that in the event that the Non-Transferring Party and the Transferee are engaged in litigation, arbitration or other formal dispute resolution proceedings covering Patent infringement (pending in any court, tribunal, or administrative agency or before any appointed or agreed upon arbitrator in any jurisdiction worldwide), then the Non-Transferring Party shall have no obligation to enter into a license with the Transferee under this Section 2.8.

(d) Each party may exercise its rights as the Transferring Party under this Section 2.8 no more than eight (8) times unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the Non-Transferring Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing limitation, however, in any license granted by a Non-Transferring Party to a Transferee under this Section 2.8, the Transferring Party may elect to relinquish its license under this Agreement in the field of use covered by the license granted to the Transferee, and such license shall not count toward the limit. In making such election, the Transferring Party shall promptly notify the Non-Transferring Party.

(e) As used above in this Section 2.8, "Transferee" in the case of Sections 2.8(a)(i) and (ii) means the Third Party acquiring the going business or eighty percent (80%) of the Subsidiary and in the case of Section 2.8(a)(iii) means the ex-Subsidiary only.

ARTICLE V CONFIDENTIALITY

5.1 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. The parties hereto expressly acknowledge and agree that all information, whether written or oral, furnished by either party to the other party or any Subsidiary of such other party pursuant to this Agreement ("Confidential Information") shall be deemed to be confidential and shall be maintained by each party and their respective Subsidiaries in confidence, using the same degree of care to preserve the confidentiality of such Confidential Information that the party to whom such Confidential Information is disclosed would use to preserve the confidentiality of its own information of a similar nature and in no event less than a reasonable degree of care. Notwithstanding the foregoing, after the Closing Date all Transferred Business Technology shall be deemed the Confidential Information of Purchaser, not of Seller. Except as authorized in writing by the other party, neither party shall at any time use or disclose or permit to be disclosed any such Confidential Information to any person, firm, corporation or entity, (a) except as may reasonably be required in connection with the performance of this Agreement by Purchaser, Seller or its respective Subsidiaries, as the case may be, and (b) except as may reasonably be required after the Closing Date (i) by Purchaser or its Subsidiaries in connection with the use of the Licensed Business Technology and the operation of the Business or (ii) by Seller or its Subsidiaries in connection with the licensed use of the Transferred Business Technology and the operation of its business, and (c) except to the parties' agents or representatives who are informed by the parties of the confidential nature of the information and are bound to maintain its confidentiality, and (d) in the course of due diligence in connection with the sale of all or a portion of either party's business provided the disclosure is pursuant to a nondisclosure agreement having terms comparable to Sections 5.1 and 5.2 hereof.

5.2 EXCEPTIONS. The obligation not to disclose information under Section 5.1 hereof shall not apply to information that, as of the Closing Date or thereafter, (a) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure made after the execution of the Purchase Agreement by the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential or any of its Subsidiaries or representatives thereof, (b) was or becomes readily available to the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential or any of its Subsidiaries or representatives thereof on a non-confidential basis, (c) is or becomes available to the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential or any of its Subsidiaries or representatives thereof on a non-confidential basis from a source other than its own files or personnel or the other party or its Subsidiaries, provided that such source is not known by the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential to be bound by confidentiality agreements with the other party or its Subsidiaries or by legal, fiduciary or ethical constraints on disclosure of such information, or (d) is required to be disclosed pursuant to a governmental order or decree or other legal requirement (including the requirements of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and the listing rules of any applicable securities exchange), provided that the party required to disclose such information shall give the other party prompt notice thereof prior to such disclosure and, at the request of the other party, shall cooperate in all reasonable respects in maintaining the confidentiality of such information, including obtaining a protective order or other similar order. Nothing in this Section 5.2 shall limit in any respect either party's ability to disclose information in connection with the enforcement by such party of its rights under this Agreement; provided that the proviso of clause (d) in the immediately preceding sentence shall apply to the party desiring to disclose such information.

5.3 DURATION. The obligations of the parties set forth in this Article V with respect to the protection of Confidential Information, shall remain in effect until five years after (a) the Closing Date, with respect to Confidential Information of one party that is known to or in the possession of the other party as of the Closing Date, or (b) the date of disclosure, with respect to Confidential Information that is disclosed by the one party to the other party after the Closing Date.

ARTICLE VI
TERMINATION

6.1 VOLUNTARY TERMINATION. By written notice to the other party, either party may voluntarily terminate all or a specified portion of the license and rights granted to it hereunder by such other party. Such notice shall specify the effective date of such termination and shall clearly specify any affected Intellectual Property Rights, Technology, product or service.

6.2 SURVIVAL. Any voluntary termination by either party of the license and rights granted to it by the other party under Section 6.1 hereof shall not affect such party's license and rights with respect to any licensed product made or service furnished prior to such termination.

6.3 NO OTHER TERMINATION. Each party acknowledges and agrees that its remedy for breach by the other party of the licenses granted to it hereunder during the applicable term of such licenses, or of any other provision hereof, shall be, subject to the requirements of Article VII, to bring a claim to recover damages subject to the limits set forth in this Agreement and to seek any other appropriate equitable relief, other than termination of the licenses granted by it in this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII

Except as otherwise set forth herein, resolution of any and all disputes arising from or in connection with this Agreement, whether based on contract, tort, or otherwise (collectively, "Disputes"), shall be exclusively governed by and settled in accordance with the provisions of this Article 7.

7.1 NEGOTIATION. The parties shall make a good faith attempt to resolve any Dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement through negotiation. Within thirty (30) days after notice of a Dispute is given by either party to the other party, each party shall select a first tier negotiating team comprised of director or general manager level employees of such party and shall meet and make a good faith attempt to resolve such Dispute and shall continue to negotiate in good faith in an effort to resolve the Dispute or renegotiate the applicable Section or provision without the necessity of any formal proceedings. If the first tier negotiating teams are unable to agree within thirty (30) days of their first meeting, then each party shall select a second tier negotiating team comprised of vice president level employees of such party and shall meet within thirty (30) days after the end of the first thirty (30) day negotiating period to attempt to resolve the matter. During the course of negotiations under this Section 7.1, all reasonable requests made by one party to the other for information, including requests for copies of relevant documents, will be honored. The specific format for such negotiations will be left to the discretion of the designated negotiating teams but may include the preparation of agreed upon statements of fact or written statements of position furnished to the other party. All negotiations between the parties pursuant to this Section 7.1 shall be treated as compromise and settlement negotiations. Nothing said or disclosed, nor any document produced, in the course of such negotiations that is not otherwise independently discoverable shall be offered or received as evidence or used for impeachment or for any other purpose in any current or future litigation.

7.2 FAILURE TO RESOLVE DISPUTES. In the event that any Dispute arising out of or related to this Agreement is not settled by the parties within fifteen (15) days after the first meeting of the second tier negotiating teams under Section 7.1, the parties may seek any remedies to which they may be entitled in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

7.3 PROCEEDINGS. Nothing herein, however, shall prohibit either party from initiating litigation or other judicial or administrative proceedings if such party would be substantially harmed by a failure to act during the time that such good faith efforts are being made to resolve the dispute or claim through negotiation or mediation. In the event that litigation is commenced under this Section 7.3, the parties agree to continue to attempt to resolve any Dispute according to the terms of Sections 7.1 and 7.2 hereof during the course of such litigation proceedings under this Section 7.3.

7.4 PAY AND DISPUTE. Except as provided herein, in the event of any dispute regarding payment of a third-party invoice (subject to standard verification of receipt of products or services), the party named in a third party's invoice must make timely payment to such third party, even if the party named in the invoice desires to pursue the dispute resolution procedures outlined in this Article 7. If the party that paid the invoice is found pursuant to this Article 7 to not be responsible for such payment, such paying party shall be entitled to reimbursement, with interest accrued at an annual rate of the rate of interest as announced from time to time by JPMorgan Chase at its principal office in New York City as its prime lending rate, the Prime Rate to change when and if such prime lending rate changes, from the party found responsible for such payment.

ARTICLE VIII LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY OR ITS SUBSIDIARIES OR AFFILIATES BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY OR ITS SUBSIDIARIES OR AFFILIATES FOR ANY SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES OR LOST PROFITS, HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER OR NOT SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. THE FOREGOING SHALL NOT, HOWEVER, LIMIT THE AMOUNT OR TYPES OF DAMAGES AVAILABLE TO EITHER PARTY FOR INFRINGEMENT OR MISAPPROPRIATION OF ITS OR ITS SUBSIDIARIES' OR AFFILIATES' INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS BY THE OTHER PARTY OR SUCH OTHER PARTY'S SUBSIDIARIES OR AFFILIATES, OR FOR ANY DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

9.1 DISCLAIMER. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE SET FORTH HEREIN OR IN THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ALL (A) TECHNOLOGY AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS LICENSED HEREUNDER, ARE LICENSED WITHOUT ANY WARRANTIES WHATSOEVER, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, WITH RESPECT THERETO, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, ENFORCEABILITY OR NON-INFRINGEMENT. Except as otherwise set forth herein or in the Purchase Agreement, neither party nor any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates makes any warranty or representation that any manufacture, use, importation, offer for sale or sale of any product or service will be free from infringement of any patent or other Intellectual Property Right of any Third Party. Except as otherwise set forth herein or in the Purchase Agreement, neither party nor any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates makes any warranty or representation as to the validity and/or scope of any Patent licensed by it to the other party hereunder or any warranty or representation that any manufacture, use, importation, offer for sale or sale of any product or service will be free from infringement of any Patent or other Intellectual Property Right of any Third Party.

9.2 NO IMPLIED LICENSES. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as conferring any rights by implication, estoppel or otherwise, under any Intellectual Property Right, other than the rights expressly granted in this Agreement. Neither party is required hereunder to furnish or disclose to the other any technical or other information (including copies of the Licensed Business Technology or Transferred Business Technology), except as specifically provided herein or in the Purchase Agreement.

9.3 INFRINGEMENT SUITS. Neither party shall have any obligation hereunder to institute or maintain any action or suit against Third Parties for infringement or misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Right in or to any Technology licensed to the other party hereunder, or to defend any action or suit brought by a Third Party which challenges or concerns the validity of any of such rights or which claims that any Technology licensed to the other party hereunder infringes or constitutes a misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Right of any Third Party. Seller shall not have any right to institute any action or suit against Third Parties for infringement of any of the Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights. Purchaser shall not have any right to institute any action or suit against Third Parties for infringement of any of the Licensed Business Intellectual Property Rights.

9.4 NO OBLIGATION TO OBTAIN OR MAINTAIN RIGHTS IN TECHNOLOGY. Except as otherwise set forth herein or in the Purchase Agreement, neither party, nor any of its Subsidiaries, shall be obligated to provide the other party with any technical assistance or to furnish the other party with, or obtain, any documents, materials or other information or Technology.

9.5 NO OBLIGATION TO OBTAIN OR MAINTAIN PATENTS OR TRADEMARKS. Neither Seller, nor any of its Subsidiaries is obligated to (a) file any Patent application, or to secure any Patent or Patent rights or (b) to maintain any Patent in force. Neither Seller, nor any of its Subsidiaries is obligated to (i) file any Trademark application, or to secure any Trademark rights or (ii) to maintain any Trademark registration in force.

9.6 RECONCILIATION. The parties acknowledge that, as part of the transfer of Transferred Business Intellectual Property, Transferred Business Technology, and Transferred Business Intellectual Property Rights, Seller may inadvertently retain Technology or Intellectual Property that should have been transferred to Purchaser as part of the contemplated transfer of assets, and Purchaser may inadvertently acquire Technology or Intellectual Property that should not have been thereby transferred. Each party agrees to transfer to the other any such later discovered Technology or Intellectual Property, subject to the licenses set forth above, at the reasonable request of the appropriate owner of such Technology or Intellectual Property.

9.7 ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement and the Purchase Agreement constitute the entire understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and shall supersede all prior written and oral and all contemporaneous oral agreements and understandings with respect to the subject matter hereof.

9.8 GOVERNING LAW. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of California, without regard to any conflicts of laws principles.

9.9 CONSENT TO JURISDICTION; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. Each party hereto irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States District Court located in Santa Clara County, California, or if such court does not have jurisdiction, the superior courts of the State of California located in Santa Clara County, for the purposes of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of this Agreement or any transaction contemplated hereby. Each of the parties, further agrees that service of any process, summons, notice or document by U.S. registered mail to such party's respective address set forth in Section 9.11 shall be effective service of process for any action, suit or proceeding in California with respect to any matters to which it has submitted to jurisdiction as set forth above in the immediately preceding sentence. Each of the parties, irrevocably and unconditionally waives any objection to the laying of venue of any action, suit or proceeding set forth above arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, and hereby further irrevocably and unconditionally waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action, suit or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. The parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waive trial by jury in any legal action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any other agreement entered into in connection therewith and for any counterclaim with respect thereto.

9.10 SECTION HEADINGS. The section headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for reference purposes only and are not intended to be a part, nor should they affect the meaning or interpretation, of this Agreement.

Any notice or communication sent by registered or certified mail shall be deemed effective on the third Business Day following the day on which such notice or communication was mailed. As used in this Section 9.11, "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or a day on which banking institutions located in the jurisdiction in which the person to whom notice is to be provided is located are authorized or obligated by law or executive order to close.

9.12 NON-ASSIGNABILITY.

(a) Neither party may, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, assign or transfer this Agreement, without the other party's prior written consent, and any attempted assignment, transfer or delegation without such prior written consent shall be voidable at the sole option of such other party; provided, however, that either party may assign this Agreement without such consent to an entity that succeeds to all or substantially all of its business or assets to which this Agreement relates, subject to the terms of Section 9.12(c) below.

(b) In addition, each party (including its respective Subsidiaries or Affiliates or its permitted successive assignees or transferees hereunder) may assign or transfer this Agreement as a whole, without consent, in connection with a corporate reorganization that places such party in a substantially equivalent position in terms of business, assets or ownership of such party as before the reorganization (e.g., a reorganization in another jurisdiction).

(c) In the event of any assignment or transfer under this Section 9.12 that is not covered by Section 9.12(b) above, Purchaser promptly shall give notice of such acquisition to Seller. The Patent license granted to Purchaser by Seller pursuant to Article II of this Agreement, and any sublicenses granted by Purchaser to its Subsidiaries, shall automatically become limited to the products, processes and services of Purchaser or its Subsidiaries that are commercially released or for which substantial steps have been taken to commercialization as of the effective date of the acquisition and for new versions that have merely minor incremental differences from such products, processes and services and shall not in any event include any products, processes or services of the acquiring party; provided, however, that in any event such license shall be terminable at will by Seller if Seller and the acquiring party are engaged in litigation, arbitration or other formal dispute resolution proceedings covering Patent infringement (pending in any court, tribunal, or administrative agency or before any appointed or agreed upon arbitrator in any jurisdiction worldwide) at the time that the acquisition agreement is entered into, or if such proceedings are initiated by the acquiring party within one hundred twenty-one days (121) days after the date that the acquisition agreement is entered into.

(d) No assignment or transfer made pursuant to Section 9.12 shall release the transferring or assigning party from any of its liabilities or obligations hereunder. Without limiting the foregoing, this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their permitted successors and assigns.

9.13 SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this Agreement shall be declared by any court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, void or unenforceable, all other provisions of this Agreement shall not be affected and shall remain in full force and effect, and Seller and Purchaser shall negotiate in good faith to replace such illegal, void or unenforceable provision with a provision that corresponds as closely as possible to the intentions of the parties as expressed by such illegal, void or unenforceable provision.

9.14 AMENDMENT; WAIVER; REMEDIES CUMULATIVE. This Agreement, including this provision of this Agreement, may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified only by a written instrument executed by the parties hereto. No waiver by either party of any of the provisions hereof shall be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and executed by the party so waiving. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, no action taken pursuant to this Agreement, including any investigation by or on behalf of any party or a failure or delay by any party in exercising any power, right or privilege under this Agreement, shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by the party taking such action of compliance with any representations, warranties, covenants, or agreements contained herein, and in any documents delivered or to be delivered pursuant to this Agreement and in connection with the Closing hereunder. The waiver by any party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach. All rights and remedies existing under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

9.15 COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument. Copies of executed counterparts transmitted by telecopy, telefax or other electronic transmission service shall be considered original executed counterparts for purposes of this Section 9.15, provided that receipt of copies of such counterparts is confirmed.

ARTICLE II
LICENSES

2.1 LICENSE GRANT. Subject to obtaining Agilent's consent for the license to Agilent Trademarks, Seller grants to Purchaser a personal, non-exclusive, worldwide and non-transferable (except as set forth in Section 15.8 hereof) license during the Term to use: (a) the Licensed Marks on or in connection with the Licensed Products and Collateral Materials in connection with the Sale and offer for Sale of such Licensed Products (or, in the case of Licensed Products in the form of software, in connection with licensing of such Licensed Products); (b) the Licensed Marks in Marketing Materials for the Licensed Products; (c) the Licensed Marks in connection with Corporate Identity Materials; and (d) Seller Part Numbers (as that term is defined in Section 10.5(g)) in connection with Licensed Products and any other Purchaser-manufactured Printer Product in the same Family. Seller covenants not to grant any licenses to any Third Party under the Licensed Marks in connection with the Sale or offer for Sale of Printer Products for use of the Licensed Marks within a period of twenty-four (24) months following the Closing Date.

2.2 LICENSE RESTRICTIONS.

(a) Once Purchaser abandons the use of all of the Licensed Marks on a particular Licensed Product, then Purchaser agrees that its license granted hereunder with respect to that Licensed Product shall thereupon terminate.

(b) Purchaser may not make any use whatsoever, in whole or in part, of the Licensed Marks, or any other Trademarks owned by Seller or Agilent, in connection with Purchaser's corporate, doing business as, or fictitious name, or on Corporate Identity Materials, except as set forth in this License.

(c) Purchaser may not use any Licensed Mark in direct association with another Trademark such that the two Trademarks appear to be a single Trademark or in any other composite manner with any Trademarks of Purchaser or any Third Party.

(d) In all respects, Purchaser's usage of the Licensed Marks during the Term pursuant to the license granted hereunder shall be in a manner consistent with the high standards, reputation and prestige of Agilent and Seller as represented by their respective use of the Licensed Marks, and any usage by Purchaser that is inconsistent with the foregoing shall be deemed to be outside the scope of the license granted hereunder. As a condition to the license granted hereunder, Purchaser shall at all times present, position and promote the Licensed Products marked with one or more of the Licensed Marks in a manner consistent with the high standards and prestige of Agilent and Seller.

2.3 LICENSEE UNDERTAKINGS. As a condition to the licenses granted hereunder, Purchaser undertakes to Seller that:

(a) Purchaser shall not use the Licensed Marks (or any other Trademark of Seller or Agilent) in any manner contrary to public morals, in any manner which is deceptive or misleading, which ridicules or is derogatory to the Licensed Marks, or which compromises or reflects unfavorably upon the goodwill, good name, reputation or image of Seller, Agilent or the Licensed Marks, or which might jeopardize or limit Seller's or Agilent's proprietary interest therein.

(b) Purchaser shall not use the Licensed Marks in connection with any products other than the Licensed Products, including without limitation any other products sold and/or manufactured by Purchaser. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser may use Seller Part Numbers in connection with Printer Products in a Family associated with a Licensed Product.

(c) Purchaser shall not: (i) misrepresent to any Person the scope of its authority under this License, or (ii) incur or authorize any expenses or liabilities chargeable to Seller or Agilent.

(d) Purchaser shall have adopted a customer facing corporate identity of its own by the Closing Date.

(e) In all external communications involving any use of the Licensed Marks on Corporate Identity Materials, Purchaser shall use reasonable best efforts to avoid confusion regarding the source of the communications.

ARTICLE III PERMITTED SUBLICENSES

3.1 SUBLICENSES TO SUBSIDIARIES. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, including all applicable Quality Standards and Trademark Usage Guidelines and other restrictions in this License, Purchaser may grant sublicenses to its Subsidiaries to use the Licensed Marks in accordance with the license grant in Section 2.1 above; provided, that: (a) Purchaser enters into a written sublicense agreement with each such Subsidiary sublicensee, and (b) such agreement does not include the right to grant further sublicenses, except as set forth in Section 3.2 below. If Purchaser grants any sublicense rights pursuant to this Section 3.1 and any such sublicensed Subsidiary ceases to be a Subsidiary, then the sublicense granted to such Subsidiary pursuant to this Section 3.1 shall terminate immediately upon the date of such cessation.

3.2 AUTHORIZED DEALERS' USE OF MARKS. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, including all applicable Quality Standards and Trademark Usage Guidelines and other restrictions in this License, Purchaser (and those Subsidiaries sublicensed to use the Licensed Marks pursuant to Section 3.1) may allow Authorized Dealers, and may allow such Authorized Dealers to allow other Authorized Dealers, to Sell or otherwise distribute Collateral Materials and Licensed Products bearing the Licensed Marks, provided that such Authorized Dealers execute written agreements with Purchaser (or its Subsidiaries) that impose upon such Authorized Dealers an obligation of full compliance with all relevant provisions of this License.

3.3 ENFORCEMENT OF AGREEMENTS. Purchaser shall take all reasonably appropriate measures at Purchaser's expense promptly and diligently to enforce the terms of any sublicense agreement or other agreement with any Subsidiary or Authorized Dealer and shall restrain any such Subsidiary or Authorized Dealer from violating such terms, including without limitation: (a) monitoring the Subsidiaries' and Authorized Dealers' compliance with the relevant Trademark Usage Guidelines and Quality Standards and causing any non-complying Subsidiary or Authorized Dealer promptly to remedy any failure, (b) if need be, terminating such agreement, and/or (c) if need be, commencing legal action. In each case, Purchaser shall use a standard of care consistent with Seller's practices as of the Closing Date, but in no case using a standard of care less than what is reasonable in the industry.

ARTICLE IV TRADEMARK USAGE GUIDELINES

4.1 TRADEMARK USAGE GUIDELINES. Purchaser, its Subsidiaries and Authorized Dealers shall use the Licensed Marks during the Term only in a manner that is consistent with the applicable Trademark Usage Guidelines.

4.2 TRADEMARK REVIEWS. At Seller's reasonable request, Purchaser agrees to furnish or make available for inspection to Seller samples of all Licensed Products, Collateral Materials and Marketing Materials of Purchaser and its Subsidiaries that are marked with one or more of the Licensed Marks. Purchaser further agrees to take reasonably appropriate measures to require its Authorized Dealers to furnish or make available for inspection to Purchaser samples of all Marketing Materials and Collateral Materials of its Authorized Dealers. If Purchaser is notified or reasonably determines that it or any of its Subsidiaries or Authorized Dealers is not complying with any applicable Trademark Usage Guidelines, it shall notify Seller and the provisions of Article V and Section 3.3 hereof shall apply to such noncompliance.

ARTICLE V TRADEMARK USAGE GUIDELINES ENFORCEMENT

5.1 INITIAL CURE PERIOD. If Seller becomes aware that Purchaser or any Subsidiary is not complying with any Trademark Usage Guidelines, Seller shall notify Purchaser in writing, setting forth in reasonable detail a written description of the noncompliance and any requested action for curing such noncompliance. Purchaser shall then have thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice ("Guideline Initial Cure Period") to correct such noncompliance or submit to Seller a written plan to correct such noncompliance, which written plan is reasonably acceptable to Seller, unless Seller previously affirmatively concurs in writing, in its sole discretion, that Purchaser or its Subsidiary is not in noncompliance. If Seller or Purchaser becomes aware that an Authorized Dealer is not complying with any applicable Trademark Usage Guidelines, Purchaser (but not Seller) shall promptly notify such Authorized Dealer in writing, setting forth in reasonable detail a written description of the noncompliance and any requested action for curing such noncompliance. Such Authorized Dealer shall then have the Guideline Initial Cure Period to correct such noncompliance or submit to Purchaser a written plan to correct such noncompliance, which written plan is reasonably acceptable to Purchaser and Seller.

5.2 SECOND CURE PERIOD. If the noncompliance with the Trademark Usage Guidelines continues beyond the Guideline Initial Cure Period, Purchaser and Seller shall each promptly appoint a representative to negotiate in good faith actions that may be necessary to correct such noncompliance. The parties shall have fifteen (15) days following the expiration of the Guideline Initial Cure Period to agree on corrective actions, and Purchaser shall have fifteen (15) days from the date of an agreement of corrective actions to implement such corrective actions and cure or cause the cure of such noncompliance ("Second Guideline Cure Period").

5.3 FINAL CURE PERIOD. If the noncompliance with the Trademark Usage Guidelines by Purchaser or any Subsidiary (as the case may be) remains uncured after the expiration of the Second Guideline Cure Period, then at Seller's election, Purchaser or the non-complying Subsidiary (as the case may be) promptly shall cease using the non-complying Collateral Materials until Seller reasonably determines that Purchaser or the non-complying Subsidiary (as the case may be) has demonstrated its ability and commitment to comply with the applicable Trademark Usage Guidelines. If the noncompliance with the applicable Trademark Usage Guidelines by an Authorized Dealer remains uncured after the expiration of the Second Guideline Cure Period, then at Purchaser's election, such Authorized Dealer promptly shall cease using the non-complying Collateral Materials and/or Marketing Materials until Purchaser determines that such Authorized Dealer has demonstrated its ability and commitment to comply with the applicable Trademark Usage Guidelines. Nothing in this Article V shall be deemed to limit Purchaser's obligations under Section 3.3 above or to preclude Seller from exercising any rights or remedies under Section 3.3 above.

ARTICLE VI QUALITY STANDARDS

6.1 GENERAL. Purchaser acknowledges that the Licensed Products permitted by this License to be marked with one or more of the Licensed Marks must continue to be of sufficiently high quality as to provide protection of the Licensed Marks and the goodwill they symbolize.

6.2 QUALITY STANDARDS. Purchaser and its Subsidiaries shall use the Licensed Marks only on and in connection with Licensed Products that meet or exceed in all respects the applicable Quality Standards.

6.3 QUALITY CONTROL REVIEWS. At Seller's reasonable request, Purchaser agrees to furnish or make available to Seller for inspection sample Licensed Products marked with one or more of the Licensed Marks. If Purchaser is notified or reasonably determines that it or any of its Subsidiaries is not complying with any applicable Quality Standards, it shall notify Seller and the provisions of Article VII and Section 2.3 shall apply to such noncompliance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller agrees and acknowledges that all Branded Products (as defined below) that were acquired by Purchaser from Seller at Closing shall, without further investigation, be deemed to be of sufficient quality under this Article VI.

ARTICLE VII QUALITY STANDARD ENFORCEMENT

7.1 INITIAL CURE PERIOD. If Seller becomes aware that Purchaser or any Subsidiary is not complying with any applicable Quality Standard, Seller shall notify Purchaser in writing, setting forth in reasonable detail a written description of the noncompliance and any requested action for curing such noncompliance. Following receipt of such notice, Purchaser shall make an inquiry promptly and in good faith concerning each instance of noncompliance described in the notice. Purchaser shall then have thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice (“Initial Cure Period”) to correct such noncompliance or submit to Seller a written plan to correct such noncompliance, which written plan is reasonably acceptable to Seller, unless Seller previously affirmatively concurs in writing, in its sole discretion, that Purchaser or its Subsidiaries is not in noncompliance.

7.2 SECOND CURE PERIOD. If the said noncompliance with the Quality Standards continues beyond the Initial Cure Period, Purchaser and Seller shall each promptly appoint a representative to negotiate in good faith actions that may be necessary to correct such noncompliance. The parties shall have fifteen (15) days following the expiration of the Initial Cure Period to agree on corrective actions, and Purchaser shall have fifteen (15) days from the date of an agreement of corrective actions to implement such corrective actions and cure or cause the cure of such noncompliance (“Second Cure Period”).

7.3 FINAL CURE PERIOD. If the said noncompliance with the Quality Standards by Purchaser or any Subsidiary (as the case may be) remains uncured after the expiration of the Second Cure Period, then at Seller’s election, Purchaser or the non-complying Subsidiary (as the case may be) promptly shall cease offering the non-complying Licensed Products under the Licensed Marks until Seller reasonably determines that Purchaser, or the non-complying Subsidiary (as the case may be) has reasonably demonstrated its ability and commitment to comply with the Quality Standards. Nothing in this Article VII shall be deemed to limit Purchaser’s obligations under Section 3.3 above.

ARTICLE VIII PROTECTION OF LICENSED MARKS

8.1 OWNERSHIP AND RIGHTS. Purchaser agrees not to challenge the ownership or validity of the Licensed Marks. Purchaser shall not disparage, dilute or adversely affect the validity of the Licensed Marks. Purchaser’s use of the Licensed Marks shall inure exclusively to the benefit of Agilent and Seller, as applicable, and Purchaser shall not acquire or assert any rights therein. Purchaser recognizes the value of the goodwill associated with the Licensed Marks, and that the Licensed Marks may have acquired secondary meaning in the minds of the public.

8.2 PROTECTION OF MARKS. Purchaser shall assist Seller, at Seller’s request and expense, in the procurement and maintenance of Seller’s or Agilent’s respective Intellectual Property Rights in the Licensed Marks. Purchaser will not grant or attempt to grant a security interest in the Licensed Marks or record any such security interest in the United States Patent and Trademark Office or elsewhere against any Trademark application or registration belonging to Seller or Agilent. Purchaser agrees to, and to cause its Subsidiaries to, execute all documents reasonably requested by Seller to effect further registration of, maintenance and renewal of the Licensed Marks, recordation of the license relationship between Seller and Purchaser, and recordation of Purchaser as a registered user. Neither Seller nor Agilent makes any warranty or representation that Trademark registrations have been or will be applied for, secured or maintained in the Licensed Marks throughout, or anywhere within, the world. Purchaser shall cause to appear on all Licensed Products, all Marketing Materials and all Collateral Materials, such legends, markings and notices as may be required by applicable law or reasonably requested by Seller.

8.3 SIMILAR MARKS. Purchaser agrees not to use or register in any country any Trademark that infringes on the rights of Seller or Agilent in the Licensed Marks, or any element thereof. If any application for registration is, or has been, filed in any country by Purchaser which relates to any Trademark that infringes the rights of Seller or Agilent in the Licensed Marks, Purchaser shall immediately abandon any such application or registration or assign it to Agilent. Purchaser may not adopt any trademarks incorporating the roots “Agil,” “Avag,” or any other Trademark similar to the Licensed Trademarks. Purchaser shall not challenge Seller’s or Agilent’s ownership of or the validity of the Licensed Marks or any application for registration thereof throughout the world. Purchaser shall not use or register in any country or jurisdiction, or permit others to use or register on its behalf in any country or jurisdiction, any copyright, domain name, telephone number, keyword, metatag, other electronic identifier or any other Intellectual Property Right, whether recognized currently or in the future, or any other designation which would affect the ownership or rights of Agilent and Seller in and to the Licensed Marks, or otherwise take any action which would adversely affect any of such ownership rights, or assist anyone else in doing so. Purchaser shall cause its Subsidiaries and Authorized Dealers to comply with the provisions of this Section 8.3.

8.4 INFRINGEMENT PROCEEDINGS. In the event that the Purchaser learns, during the Term of this License, of any infringement or threatened infringement of the Licensed Marks, or any unfair competition, passing-off or dilution with respect to the Licensed Marks, Purchaser shall immediately notify Seller or its authorized representative giving particulars thereof, and Purchaser shall provide necessary information and assistance to Seller or its authorized representatives at Seller’s expense in the event that Seller decides that proceedings should be commenced. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser is not obligated to monitor or police use of the Licensed Marks by Third Parties other than as specifically set forth in Section 3.3 hereof. Except for those actions initiated by Purchaser pursuant to Section 3.3 hereof to enforce any sublicense or other agreement with any Subsidiary or Authorized Dealer, Seller shall have exclusive control of any litigation, opposition, cancellation, or related legal proceedings. The decision whether to bring, maintain or settle any such proceedings shall be at the exclusive option and expense of Seller, and all recoveries shall belong exclusively to Seller. Purchaser shall not and shall have no right to initiate any litigation, opposition, cancellation, or related legal proceedings with respect to the Licensed Marks in its own name (except for those actions initiated by Purchaser pursuant to Section 3.3 hereof), but, at Seller’s request, agrees to cooperate with Seller and Agilent at Seller’s or Agilent’s expense to enforce its rights in the Licensed Marks, including to join or be joined as a party in any action taken by Seller or Agilent against a third party for infringement or threatened infringement of the Licensed Marks, to the extent such joinder is required under mandatory local law for the prosecution of such an action. Neither Agilent nor Seller shall incur any liability to Purchaser or any other Person under any legal theory by reason of Seller’s or Agilent’s failure or refusal to prosecute or by Seller’s or Agilent’s refusal to permit Purchaser to prosecute, any alleged infringement by Third Parties, nor by reason of any settlement to which Seller or Agilent may agree.

CONFIDENTIALITY

9.1 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. The parties hereto expressly acknowledge and agree that all information, whether written or oral, furnished by either party to the other party or any Subsidiary of such other party pursuant to this License ("Confidential Information") shall be deemed to be confidential and shall be maintained by each party and their respective Subsidiaries in confidence, using the same degree of care to preserve the confidentiality of such Confidential Information that the party to whom such Confidential Information is disclosed would use to preserve the confidentiality of its own information of a similar nature and in no event less than a reasonable degree of care. Except as authorized in writing by the other party, neither party shall at any time disclose or permit to be disclosed any such Confidential Information to any person, firm, corporation or entity: (a) except as may reasonably be required in connection with the performance of this License by Purchaser, Seller or its respective Subsidiaries, as the case may be, (b) except as may reasonably be required after the Closing Date by Purchaser or its Subsidiaries in connection with the use of the Licensed Marks or operation of the Business, (c) except to the parties' agents or representatives who are informed by the parties of the confidential nature of the information and are bound to maintain its confidentiality, and (d) in the course of due diligence in connection with the sale of all or a portion of either party's business, provided the disclosure is pursuant to a nondisclosure agreement having terms comparable to Sections 9.1 and 9.2 hereof.

9.2 EXCEPTIONS. The obligation not to disclose information under Section 9.1 hereof shall not apply to information that, as of the Closing Date or thereafter: (a) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure made after the execution of the Purchase Agreement by the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential or any of its Subsidiaries or representatives thereof, (b) was or becomes readily available to the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential or any of its Subsidiaries or representatives thereof on a non-confidential basis, (c) is or becomes available to the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential or any of its Subsidiaries or representatives thereof on a non-confidential basis from a source other than its own files or personnel or the other party or its Subsidiaries, provided that such source is not known by the party desiring to treat such information as non-confidential to be bound by confidentiality agreements with the other party or its Subsidiaries or by legal, fiduciary or ethical constraints on disclosure of such information, or (d) is required to be disclosed pursuant to a governmental order or decree or other legal requirement (including the requirements of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and the listing rules of any applicable securities exchange), provided that the party required to disclose such information shall give the other party prompt notice thereof prior to such disclosure and, at the request of the other party, shall cooperate in all reasonable respects in maintaining the confidentiality of such information, including obtaining a protective order or other similar order. Nothing in Section 9.1 shall limit in any respect either party's ability to disclose information in connection with the enforcement by such party of its rights under this License; provided that the proviso of clause (d) in the immediately preceding sentence shall apply to the party desiring to disclose such information.

9.3 DURATION. The obligations of the parties set forth in this Article IX, with respect to the protection of Confidential Information, shall remain in effect until five (5) years after: (a) the Closing Date, with respect to Confidential Information of one party that is known to or in the possession of the other party as of the Closing Date, or (b) the date of disclosure, with respect to Confidential Information that is disclosed by the one party to the other party after the Closing Date.

ARTICLE X
TERM OF LICENSE

10.1 The term of the license granted pursuant to Section 2.1 hereof shall begin on the Closing Date and, unless terminated sooner pursuant to the provisions of Article XII hereof, shall last for the periods set forth in Section 10.5 below.

10.2 "Term" as used herein means the foregoing periods of permissible use for the Licensed Marks.

10.3 "Non-Customer-Facing Parts" means tangible parts whose branding is not visible to end consumers in the ordinary course of use. For the avoidance of doubt, "ordinary course of business" includes normal inspection, use, calibration, maintenance, service, repair and/or failure analysis.

10.4 "Branded Products" means Licensed Products on or in connection with which the Licensed Marks are used, unless such use is solely on Non-Customer-Facing Parts. Trademarks are in use "on or in connection with" a given Licensed Product if they are used on the Licensed Product itself or on Collateral Materials associated with such Licensed Product.

10.5 Purchaser agrees to discontinue all use of the Licensed Marks as quickly as is commercially reasonable. Without limiting the foregoing, Purchaser shall have the right to use said Trademarks according to the following conditions and schedule, with which Purchaser shall comply strictly:

(a) Until May 31, 2006, Purchaser may use the Licensed Marks in any external signage on a royalty free basis; provided such signage was in use as of the Closing Date;

(b) As of the date set forth in Section 10.5(a), Purchaser must cease all use of the Licensed Marks in connection with Corporate Identity Materials;

(c) Until May 31, 2006, Purchaser may use the Licensed Marks in Marketing Materials on a royalty free basis;

(d) As of May 31, 2006, Purchaser must cease all use of Licensed Marks in Marketing Materials;

(e) Until November 30, 2007, Purchaser may use the Licensed Marks on a royalty free basis on or in connection with the Branded Products manufactured by Seller or Agilent prior to the Closing Date or manufactured by Purchaser after the Closing Date and on or before May 31, 2007;

(f) As of November 30, 2008, Purchaser must cease all use of Licensed Marks on or in connection with all Branded Products. Except as would be a violation of law, any Non-Customer-Facing Parts bearing the Licensed Marks manufactured after November 30, 2008, shall bear a prominent label indicating that they are manufactured by Purchaser and, unless commercially unreasonable, such label shall cover the Licensed Marks on such part.

(g) Notwithstanding Section 10.5(e)-(f), Purchaser may continue to use the Seller part number alphanumerics beginning with the letter "A" ("Seller Part Numbers") on or in connection with any Licensed Product or Printer Products within the same Family as a Licensed Product until that Family is discontinued or obsoleted. For the avoidance of doubt, it is understood and agreed that this License does not purport to restrict Purchaser's use of any part number that does not begin with the letter "A".

10.6 Purchaser agrees to provide written confirmation of compliance with the License Term on the dates specified above. Purchaser shall also advise Seller when it has discontinued use of all remaining Non-Customer-Facing Parts bearing the Licensed Marks and discontinued or obsoleted all Families of Licensed Products.

10.7 Except as would be a violation of Law, Purchaser agrees to notify all consumers receiving parts and materials bearing the Licensed Marks that Purchaser is the source of and is the proper contact for such Licensed Products, Collateral Materials, parts, and materials.

10.8 It is understood and agreed that it shall not be a violation of this License for Purchaser, its Subsidiaries or Authorized Dealers, at any time after the Term, to make accurate references to the fact that Purchaser has succeeded to the business of Seller and Agilent with respect to the Licensed Products, or to advertise or promote its or their provision of maintenance services or supply of spare parts for Licensed Products previously sold under any of the Licensed Marks, provided that Purchaser, its Subsidiaries and Authorized Dealers do not in connection therewith suggest any affiliation with Seller or Agilent, do not claim to be authorized by Seller or Agilent in any manner with respect to such activities, and do not brand any Printer Products, Marketing Materials, Collateral Materials, or parts Sold after the Term with any of the Licensed Marks in a manner that is inconsistent with this Article X.

11.1 ROYALTIES.

(a) Upon any Sale occurring: (i) prior to the expiration of the license grant, by Purchaser or its Subsidiaries, of Branded Products manufactured by Purchaser after May 31, 2007; or (ii) after November 30, 2007, and prior to the expiration of the license grant, by Purchaser or its Subsidiaries of Branded Products (other than repaired, refurbished or reconstructed Branded Products or repair parts) manufactured by Agilent or Seller prior to the Closing Date or by Purchaser on or before May 31, 2007, the Purchaser shall pay to Seller a five percent (5%) royalty on the Net Sales earned by Purchaser in each Seller fiscal quarter as a result of such Sale.

(b) As used in this Article XI, "Net Sales" means the gross invoice price from royalty-bearing Sales under Section 11.1(a) above, in any case less: (i) charges for handling, freight, sales taxes, insurance costs, and import duties where such items are included in the invoiced price; (ii) point-of-sale credits (or other similar adjustments to price) granted to independent distributors; and (iii) credits actually granted or refunds actually given for returns during such Seller fiscal quarter. In the event that the foregoing Branded Products are Sold for no or nominal consideration or to a Subsidiary, Authorized Dealer, affiliated company or in any other circumstances in which the selling price is established on other than an arms-length basis, the Net Sales on such Sales shall be determined on the average selling price earned by Seller during the preceding Seller fiscal quarter on Sales of like volumes of the applicable Branded Products to unaffiliated customers in arms-length sales. However, in the event that the foregoing Branded Products are Sold to Seller's Subsidiaries, Authorized Dealers or affiliated companies for resale to Third Parties, then the royalties will be based on Net Sales from the Subsidiaries, Authorized Dealers or affiliated companies to the Third Parties and no royalties will be due on the Sales to the Subsidiaries, Authorized Dealers or affiliated companies.

(c) For the purposes of clarification, no royalty is due under this Article XI for uses of the Licensed Marks that are covered by Section 10.8. Also, no royalties will accrue at any time for the use of Seller Part Numbers.

11.2 PAYMENTS AND ACCOUNTING

(a) With respect to the royalties set forth herein, Purchaser shall keep full, clear and accurate records until otherwise provided in Section 11.2(b). These records shall be retained for a period of three (3) years from the date of payment notwithstanding the expiration or other termination of this License. Seller shall have the right, through a mutually agreed upon independent certified public accountant (consent to which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed by Purchaser), and at Seller's expense, to examine and audit, not more than once a year, and during normal business hours, all such records and such other records and accounts as may under recognized accounting practices contain information bearing upon the amount of royalty payable to Seller under this License. Prompt adjustment shall be made by either party to compensate for any errors and/or omissions disclosed by such examination or audit. Should any such error and/or omission result in an underpayment of more than five percent (5%) of the total royalties due for the period under audit, Purchaser shall, upon Seller's request, pay for the cost of the audit and pay Seller an additional fee equal to a compound annual interest rate of ten percent (10%) of such error and/or omission.

(b) Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each Purchaser fiscal quarter, Purchaser shall furnish to Seller a statement in suitable form showing all Branded Products subject to royalties that were sold, during such quarter, and the amount of royalty payable thereon. If no Licensed Products or services subject to royalty have been sold, that fact shall be shown on such statement. Also, within such forty-five (45) days, Purchaser shall pay to Seller the royalties payable hereunder for such quarter. Purchaser and Seller will determine the form of the statement prior to submission of the first such statement. All royalty and other payments to Seller hereunder shall be in United States dollars. Royalties based on sales in other currencies shall be converted to United States dollars according to the official rate of exchange for that currency, as published in the Wall Street Journal on the last day of the calendar month in which the royalty accrued (or, if not published on that day, the last publication day for the Wall Street Journal during that month). If two consecutive Purchaser fiscal quarters pass in which no royalties are due under this License and Purchaser reasonably believes no royalties will be due, the obligations pursuant to this Article XI shall terminate. If Purchaser resumes sale of Branded Products that are subject to royalties, the obligations of this Article XI shall automatically resume.

ARTICLE XII TERMINATION

12.1 VOLUNTARY TERMINATION. By written notice to Seller, Purchaser may voluntarily terminate all or a specified portion of the licenses and rights granted to it hereunder by Seller. Such notice shall specify the effective date of such termination and shall clearly specify any affected Licensed Marks and Licensed Products.

12.2 SURVIVAL. Any voluntary termination of licenses and rights of Purchaser under Section 12.1 hereof shall not affect Purchaser's licenses and rights with respect to any Licensed Products made or furnished prior to such termination.

ARTICLE XIII DISPUTE RESOLUTION

13.1 NEGOTIATION. The parties shall make a good faith attempt to resolve any dispute or claim arising out of or related to this License through negotiation. Within thirty (30) days after notice of a dispute or claim is given by either party to the other party, the parties' first tier negotiating teams (as determined by each party's Director of Intellectual Property (or person holding a similar position or title) or his or her delegate) shall meet and make a good faith attempt to resolve such dispute or claim and shall continue to negotiate in good faith in an effort to resolve the dispute or claim or renegotiate the applicable section or provision without the necessity of any formal proceedings. If the first tier negotiating teams are unable to agree within thirty (30) days of their first meeting, then the parties' second tier negotiating teams (as determined by each party's Director of Intellectual Property or his or her delegate) shall meet within thirty (30) days after the end of the first thirty (30) day negotiating period to attempt to resolve the matter. During the course of negotiations under this Section 13.1, all reasonable requests made by one party to the other for information, including requests for copies of relevant documents will be honored. The specific format for such negotiations will be left to the discretion of the designated negotiating teams but may include the preparation of agreed upon statements of fact or written statements of position furnished to the other party. All negotiations between the parties pursuant to this Section 13.1 shall be treated as compromise and settlement negotiations. Nothing said or disclosed, nor any document produced, in the course of such negotiations that is not otherwise independently discoverable shall be offered or received as evidence or used for impeachment or for any other purpose in any current or future litigation.

13.2 NONBINDING MEDIATION. In the event that any dispute or claim arising out of or related to this License is not settled by the parties within fifteen (15) days after the first meeting of the second tier negotiating teams under Section 13.1 hereof, the parties will attempt in good faith to resolve such dispute or claim by nonbinding mediation in accordance with the American Arbitration Association Commercial Mediation Rules. The mediation shall be held within thirty (30) days of the end of such fifteen (15) day negotiation period of the second tier negotiating teams. Except as provided below in Section 13.3, no litigation for the resolution of such dispute may be commenced until the parties try in good faith to settle the dispute by such mediation in accordance with such rules, and either party has concluded in good faith that amicable resolution through continued mediation of the matter does not appear likely. The costs of mediation shall be shared equally by the parties to the mediation. Any settlement reached by mediation shall be recorded in writing, signed by the parties, and shall be binding on them.

13.3 PROCEEDINGS. Nothing herein, however, shall prohibit either party from initiating litigation or other judicial or administrative proceedings if such party would be substantially harmed by a failure to act during the time that such good faith efforts are being made to resolve the dispute or claim through negotiation or mediation. In the event that litigation is commenced under this Section 13.3, the parties agree to continue to attempt to resolve any dispute or claim according to the terms of Sections 13.1 and 13.2 hereof during the course of such litigation proceedings under this Section 13.3.

ARTICLE XIV LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY OR ITS SUBSIDIARIES BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY OR ITS SUBSIDIARIES FOR ANY DAMAGES, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES OR LOST PROFITS OR ANY OTHER DAMAGES, HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER OR NOT SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

ARTICLE XV MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

15.1 DISCLAIMER. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE SET FORTH HEREIN OR IN THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ALL LICENSED MARKS AND ANY OTHER INFORMATION OR MATERIALS LICENSED OR FURNISHED HEREUNDER ARE LICENSED OR FURNISHED WITHOUT ANY WARRANTIES WHATSOEVER, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, WITH RESPECT THERETO INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF TITLE, ENFORCEABILITY OR NON-INFRINGEMENT. Except as otherwise set forth herein or in the Purchase Agreement, neither Seller, Agilent, nor any of their Affiliates or Subsidiaries, makes any warranty or representation as to the validity of any Trademark licensed by it to Purchaser or any warranty or representation that any use of any Trademark with respect to any Licensed Product or service will be free from infringement of any rights of any Third Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller represents that it has the right to grant the licenses to Purchaser herein pursuant to rights granted to Seller by Agilent.

15.2 NO IMPLIED LICENSES. Nothing contained in this License shall be construed as conferring any rights by implication, estoppel or otherwise, under any Intellectual Property Right, other than the rights expressly granted in this License with respect to the Licensed Marks. Neither party is required hereunder to furnish or disclose to the other any information (including copies of registrations of the Trademarks), except as specifically provided herein or in the Purchase Agreement.

15.3 INFRINGEMENT SUITS. Neither party shall have any obligation hereunder to institute any action or suit against Third Parties for infringement of any of the Licensed Marks or to defend any action or suit brought by a Third Party which challenges or concerns the validity of any of the Licensed Marks. Purchaser shall not have any right to institute any action or suit against Third Parties for infringement of any of the Licensed Marks.

15.4 NO OBLIGATION TO OBTAIN OR MAINTAIN MARKS. Neither party, nor any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates, or Agilent, is obligated to: (a) file any application for registration of any Trademark, or to secure any rights in any Trademarks, (b) maintain any Trademark registration, or (c) provide any assistance, except for the obligations expressly assumed in this License.

15.5 ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This License and the Purchase Agreement constitute the entire understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and shall supersede all prior written and oral and all contemporaneous oral agreements and understandings with respect to the subject matter hereof. To the extent there is a conflict between this License and the Purchase Agreement between the parties, the terms of the Purchase Agreement shall govern, provided, however, that the terms of this License shall govern with respect to: (a) Article IX with respect to Confidential Information transferred or disclosed pursuant to this License, (b) Article XI concerning royalties and audits due under this license, (c) Article XII with respect to termination of the licenses granted hereunder, (d) Article XIII concerning dispute resolution, (e) Article XIV solely with respect to Intellectual Property Rights that are licensed by one party to another party pursuant to this License, (f) Section 15.7 concerning notice, and (g) Section 15.8 concerning assignment or transfer of rights or obligations arising under this License. In addition, in the event of a conflict between this License and the Trademark Usage Guidelines or the Quality Standards, this License shall prevail.

15.6 SECTION HEADINGS; TABLE OF CONTENTS. The section headings contained in this License are inserted for reference purposes only and are not intended to be a part, nor should they affect the meaning or interpretation, of this License.

15.7 NOTICES. Once the Commencement Date has been established, Sublessor and Sublessee shall execute a commencement date memorandum setting forth the Commencement Date; provided, however, that the failure to execute such a memorandum shall not affect Sublessee's liability hereunder. The parties acknowledge that Sublessee has no option to extend the Subterm of this Sublease.

4. Rent:

A. Monthly Base Rent. Commencing on the Commencement Date and continuing throughout the Subterm, Sublessee shall pay monthly base rent ("Monthly Base Subrent") to Sublessor as follows:

Monthly Base Subrent for any period during the Subterm which is for less than one month of the Subterm shall be a pro rata portion of the monthly installment based on the actual number of days in such month. Monthly Base Subrent shall be payable without notice or demand and without any deduction, offset, or abatement, in lawful money of the United States of America. Monthly Base Subrent, Additional Subrent and any other sums payable to Sublessor hereunder shall be paid directly to Sublessor at 350 W. Trimble Road, Mail Stop 90MG, San Jose, California 95131, Attention: US Workplace Services Manager, or such other address as may be designated in writing by Sublessor.

B. Additional Rent. All monies other than Monthly Base Subrent required to be paid by Sublessee under this Sublease, including, without limitation, (i) fifty percent (50%) of Operating Expenses (as defined in Section 3.2 of the Master Lease) actually due and payable by Sublessor under Section 3.2 of the Master Lease, and (ii) fifty percent (50%) of utility charges with respect to utilities serving the Master Premises (including the Subpremises), and (iii) fifty percent (50%) of any building/premises-related maintenance expenses (not otherwise included in Operating Expenses) incurred by Sublessor pursuant to the Master Lease to the extent such expenses are incurred with respect to the Subpremises as well as the balance of the Master Premises (e.g. building maintenance contract, fire alarm system maintenance contract if continued under one contract serving the entire building, and the like), and (iv) fifty percent (50%) (unless otherwise specified) of the costs incurred by Sublessor for the Shared Services described in Section 5 hereof (but shall not be deemed to include rent payable under the Master Lease with respect to any such portions of the Avago Premises) shall be deemed additional rent ("Additional Subrent") and shall be payable within fifteen (15) days after receiving an invoice from Sublessor. Sublessee and Sublessor agree, as a material part of the consideration given by Sublessee to Sublessor for this Sublease, that Sublessee shall pay all costs, expenses, taxes, insurance, maintenance and other charges of every kind and nature arising in connection with the Subpremises under the Master Lease with respect to the Subterm, such that Sublessor shall receive, as net consideration for this Sublease, full reimbursement thereof. Monthly Base Subrent and Additional Rent hereinafter collectively shall be referred to as "Subrent".

Sublessor shall, promptly upon receipt, deliver to Sublessee copies of all communications pertaining to the Subpremises received by Sublessor from the Master Lessor, including without limitation all notices and backup detail of Operating Expenses and any other charges, it being understood, however, that in no event will Sublessor be deemed in default of this Sublease if it inadvertently fails to provide such communications.

5. Shared Services. So long as Sublessor continues to utilize such equipment, occupies and conducts business in the Avago Premises or procures such services (collectively the “Shared Services”), as applicable, and Sublessee is not in Default hereof, subject to Sublessee’s reimbursement of Sublessor as provided herein as Additional Rent, Sublessor shall provide the following Shared Services to Sublessee during the Subterm:

(a) Use of the existing UPS and site generator located in the Avago Premises to feed backup power to Subtenant’s Main Distribution Frame (“MDF”) which shall house Subtenant’s network equipment, Server and Security Rooms (but no other areas or equipment); the site generator will also provide backup power to the air-conditioning units for Subtenant’s Server Room. Additional Rent with respect to this Shared Service shall also include fifty percent (50%) of the cost of maintenance of uninterrupted power supplies;

6. Late Charge: If Sublessee fails to pay Sublessor any amount due hereunder within three (3) days after amount is due, Sublessee shall pay to Sublessor upon demand a late charge equal to ten percent (10%) of the delinquent amount. The parties agree that the foregoing late charge represents a reasonable estimate of the cost and expense that Sublessor will incur in processing each delinquent payment. Sublessor’s acceptance of any interest or late charge shall not waive Sublessee’s default in failing to pay the delinquent amount.

7. Repairs: Sublessor shall deliver the Subpremises to Sublessee in its current “as-is” condition, subject to Section 13B. hereof. Sublessor shall have no obligation whatsoever to make or pay the cost of any alterations, improvements or repairs to the Subpremises, including, without limitation, any improvement or repair required to comply with any law, regulation, building code or ordinance (including, without limitation, the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990 (“ADA”). Sublessee shall look solely to Master Lessor for performance of any repairs required to be performed by Master Lessor under the terms of the Master Lease, and if Master Lessor fails to perform any such repairs within twenty (20) days after Master Lessor has been requested to do so by Sublessee, then Sublessee shall promptly notify Sublessor of Master Lessor’s failure to perform and shall have the rights under Section 25.A.(iii) hereof.

8. Indemnity; Limitation of Liability: To the fullest extent permitted by law, Sublessee shall indemnify, protect, defend (with counsel reasonably acceptable to Sublessor) and hold harmless Sublessor from and against any and all claims, liabilities, judgments, causes of action, damages, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ and experts’ fees), caused by or arising in connection with: (i) the use, occupancy or condition of the Subpremises or the Shared Services; (ii) a breach of Sublessee's obligations under the Master Lease (as incorporated herein); (iii) a breach of Sublessee's obligations under this Sublease; or (iv) the negligence or willful misconduct of Sublessee or its employees, contractors, agents or invitees; provided, however, that the foregoing indemnification shall not apply to the extent any such claim, liability, judgment, cause of action, damage, cost or expense arises from the negligence or willful misconduct of Sublessor or its employees, contractors, agents or invitees.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Sublessor shall indemnify, protect, defend (with counsel reasonably acceptable to Sublessee) and hold harmless Sublessee from and against any and all claims, liabilities, judgments, causes of action, damages, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and experts' fees) of Sublessee, directly and proximately caused by Sublessor's Default (as defined in the Master Lease) under the Master Lease which results in the termination of the Master Lease; provided however, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Sublease, in no event shall Sublessor be liable for any consequential damages incurred by Sublessee (e.g., any injury to the business of the applicable party or loss of income or profit therefrom) in connection with this Sublease, the Subpremises, the Shared Services, the Master Premises, the Master Lease or any Default of Sublessor thereunder.

The foregoing indemnifications shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Sublease.

9. Right to Cure Defaults: If Sublessee fails to pay any sum of money to Sublessor when due, or fails to perform any other act on its part to be performed hereunder, then Sublessor may, but shall not be obligated to, make such payment or perform such act. All such sums paid, and all costs and expenses of performing any such act, shall be deemed Additional Subrent payable by Sublessee to Sublessor upon demand. In addition, Sublessee shall pay to Sublessor interest on all amounts due, at that interest rate determined as of the time it is to be applied that is equal to the lesser of (i) two percent (2%) over the per annum rate of interest announced from time to time by Bank of America, San Francisco Main Branch, as its "Reference Rate," or (ii) the maximum interest rate permitted by law (the "Interest Rate"), from the due date to and including the date of the payment, from the date of the expenditure until repaid.

10. Assignment and Subletting: Sublessee may not assign this Sublease, sublet the Subpremises, transfer any interest of Sublessee therein or permit any use of the Subpremises by another party (collectively, "Transfer"), without the prior written consent of Sublessor (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) and Master Lessor, and otherwise in strict accordance with the terms of the Master Lease as incorporated herein. A consent to one Transfer shall not be deemed to be a consent to any subsequent Transfer. Any Transfer without such consent shall be void and, at the option of Sublessor, shall terminate this Sublease. Sublessor's waiver or consent to any assignment or subletting shall be ineffective unless set forth in writing, and Sublessee shall not be relieved from any of its obligations under this Sublease unless the consent expressly so provides. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Master Lease (as incorporated herein) or this Sublease, Sublessee shall pay to Sublessor fifty percent (50%) of all rent and other consideration received by Sublessee in connection with any assignment of the Sublease or sublease of the Subpremises in excess of the Subrent allocated to the space sublet or assigned, after deducting any brokerage commissions and reasonable attorneys fees and other reasonable out-of-pocket third party expenses incurred by Sublessee in connection with the Transfer.

11. Use: Sublessee may use the Subpremises only for general office use and for no other purpose except as specifically permitted under Section 1.24 of the Master Lease. With respect to Hazardous Materials, Sublessee shall not engage in or permit any activities in or about the Subpremises which involve the use or presence of Hazardous Materials except in compliance with the Master Lease. Sublessee shall not do or permit anything to be done in or about the Subpremises that would (i) injure the Master Premises or the Subpremises, (ii) vibrate, shake, overload, or impair the efficient operation of the Master Premises or the sprinkler systems, heating, ventilating or air conditioning equipment, or utilities systems located therein, (iii) increase the existing rates for or cause cancellation of any fire, casualty, liability or other insurance policy insuring the Subpremises or Master Premises, (iv) obstruct or interfere with the rights of other users of the Subpremises or Master Premises, (v) constitute the commission of waste or the maintenance of a nuisance on the Subpremises or Master Premises, (vi) involve the use, sale, or consumption of alcoholic beverages on the Subpremises or Master Premises; or (vii) constitute an alteration of the Subpremises or Master Premises, except in compliance with the Master Lease. Sublessee shall not store any materials, supplies, finished or unfinished products, or articles of any nature outside of the Subpremises. Sublessee shall comply with all rules and regulations promulgated from time to time by Master Lessor with respect to Sublessor's use of the Subpremises. As used in this Sublease, the term "Hazardous Materials" shall mean any materials or substances that are now or hereafter prohibited or regulated by any statute, law, rule, regulation or ordinance or that are now or hereafter designated by any governmental authority to be radioactive, toxic, hazardous or otherwise a danger to health, reproduction or the environment.

12. Effect of Conveyance: As used in this Sublease, the term "Sublessor" means the holder of the tenant's interest under the Master Lease. Sublessor shall not transfer said tenant's interest without the prior written consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of Sublessee; provided, that, such consent shall not be required if Sublessee and Master Lessor have entered into the agreements contemplated by Section 13.F.(ii) and (iii) hereof. Any purported transfer (whether by assignment, sublease or operation of law) without complying with the prior sentence of this Section 12 shall be void. In the event of any transfer of said tenant's interest in compliance with the Master Lease and this Section 12, and following a written assumption by the transferee of such interest of this Sublease and all covenants and obligations of Sublessor hereunder, then, Sublessor shall be relieved of such, and it shall be deemed and construed, without further agreement between the parties, that the transferee shall carry out all covenants and obligations thereafter to be performed by Sublessor hereunder.

13. Subleasing Covenants:

A. Acceptance. Except as set forth in Section 13.B. hereof, the parties acknowledge and agree that Sublessee is subleasing the Subpremises on an "AS IS" basis and Sublessor has made no representations or warranties of any kind with respect to the condition of the Subpremises; provided, however, the Subpremises shall be delivered to Sublessee in "broom clean" condition.

B. Representations and Warranties. Sublessor hereby represents and warrants to Sublessee as follows:

(i) To the actual knowledge of Sublessor, the Subpremises and all mechanical, electrical, HVAC, plumbing, fire, safety and other systems servicing the Subpremises are in such condition, working order and repair as is sufficient to enable the Sublessee to conduct its business at the Subpremises.

(ii) Sublessor is not in default under the Master Lease, and has not received any notices of any violation or termination of any of the Master Lease. To the actual knowledge of Sublessor, the Master Lessor is not in default under the Master Lease.

C. Benefits of Master Lease. To the extent that they apply to the Subpremises, Sublessee shall have all of the rights, privileges and benefits granted to or conferred upon Sublessor as tenant under the Master Lease.

D. Additional Services. To the extent Sublessee requires services beyond those provided for in this Sublease, Sublessee shall contract directly with and pay Master Lessor for such services to the extent such services are provided by Master Lessor under the Master Lease. Such services may include, but are not limited to, additional cleaning, after-hours heating, ventilation and air-conditioning. If the Master Lessor refuses to deal directly with the Sublessee about such services, then the Sublessor shall act as intermediary in such communications.

E. Preservation of Master Lease. Sublessor shall, with respect to all periods within the Subterm: (a) take all reasonable actions within its control to preserve the Master Lease and keep the Master Lease in full force and effect as it relates to the Subpremises; (b) timely perform all obligations under the Master Lease, including without limitation timely payment of all amounts due thereunder; (c) not agree to any amendment to the Master Lease that would adversely affect the Sublessee, including increasing any rent under or other charge under the Master Lease, without the written consent of Sublessee (not to be unreasonably withheld); and (d) not exercise any right to terminate the Master Lease.

F. Consent to Sublease. Prior to the effectiveness of this Sublease, Sublessor may obtain any necessary consent to this Sublease from the Master Sublessor. If Master Lessor formally and unconditionally refuses to grant consent to this Sublease, then either party can immediately terminate this Sublease upon written notice to the other party, Sublessor shall request the following from Master Sublessor in connection with such consent (but Master Lessor's agreement to these provisions is not a condition to the commencement of this Sublease): (i) to execute and deliver a recognition agreement mutually acceptable to Master Lessor and Sublessee containing, among other things, a non-disturbance and attornment agreement in the event that the Master Lease should terminate for any reason and (ii) consent to signage as contemplated in Section 26 hereof.

G. Common Area Parking. The Sublessor shall share all rights of Sublessor to all common areas and services, and a pro-rata (according to square footage) share of the parking spaces and other rights allotted to Sublessor under the Master Lease.

14. Improvements: Sublessor shall not be required to construct any improvements to the Subpremises or provide a tenant improvement allowance to Sublessee.

15. Sublessee Alterations: Sublessee shall make no alterations or improvements to the Subpremises without the prior written consent of Master Lessor and Sublessor (which consent by Sublessor shall not be unreasonably withheld so long as Master Lessor has issued Master Lessor's consent to such improvements), and then in accordance with the Master Lease.

16. Default: Sublessee shall be in material default of its obligations under this Sublease if Sublessee is responsible for the occurrence of any "Default" as provided in Section 13 of the Master Lease (as incorporated herein).

17. Remedies. In the event of any default (beyond applicable cure periods) by Sublessee under this Sublease (including, without limitation, a mature default under the Master Lease (as incorporated herein), Sublessor shall have all rights pursuant to the Master Lease (as incorporated herein) and all remedies provided by applicable law. Sublessor may resort to its remedies cumulatively or in the alternative.

18. Surrender: Prior to Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Sublease, Sublessee shall remove all of its trade fixtures and other property and improvements if and to the extent required under this Sublease and shall surrender the Subpremises to Sublessor in good condition, free of Hazardous Materials, reasonable wear and tear excepted and in the condition delivered to Sublessee (i.e. Sublessee shall be solely responsible at its sole cost and expense for compliance with the Lease and the requirements of the Landlord with respect to the removal of any improvements made to the Subpremises by or on behalf of Sublessee or by Sublessor in order to segregate the functioning of the Subpremises from the balance of the Master Premises). If the Subpremises are not so surrendered, then Sublessee shall be liable to Sublessor for all costs incurred by Sublessor in returning the Subpremises to the required condition, plus interest thereon at the Interest Rate. Sublessee shall indemnify, defend with counsel reasonably acceptable to Sublessor, protect and hold harmless Sublessor against any and all claims, liabilities, judgments, causes of action, damages, costs, and expenses (including attorneys' and experts' fees) resulting from Sublessee's delay in surrendering the Subpremises in the condition required, including, without limitation, any claim made by Sublessor or any succeeding tenant founded on or resulting from such failure to surrender. The indemnification set forth in this Section shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Sublease.

19. Estoppel Certificates: Within seven (7) days after demand by Sublessor or Master Lessor, Sublessee shall execute and deliver to Sublessor an estoppel certificate to Sublessor in connection with the Sublease in the form required pursuant to Section 17.7 of the Master Lease. Within seven (7) business days after demand by Sublessee, Sublessor shall execute and deliver to Sublessee estoppel certificates to Sublessee in connection with the Sublease and Master Lease in the form required pursuant to Section 17.7 of the Master Lease.

20. Broker: Sublessor and Sublessee each represent to the other that they have dealt with no real estate brokers, lenders, agents or salesmen in connection with this transaction. Each party agrees to hold the other party harmless from and against all claims for brokerage commissions, finder's fees, or other compensation made by any agent, broker, salesman or finder other than as a consequence of said party's actions or dealings with such agent, broker, salesman, or finder.

21. Notices: Unless five (5) days' prior written notice is given in the manner set forth in this Section 21, the address of each party for all purposes connected with this Sublease shall be that address set forth below their signatures at the end of this Sublease. The address for Master Lessor shall be as set forth in the Master Lease. All notices, demands, or communications in connection with this Sublease shall be considered received when (i) personally delivered; or (ii) if properly addressed and either sent by nationally recognized overnight courier or deposited in the mail (registered or certified, return receipt requested, and postage prepaid), on the date shown on the return receipt for acceptance or rejection. All notices given to the Master Lessor under the Master Lease shall be considered received only when delivered in accordance with the Master Lease to all parties hereto at the address set forth below their signatures at the end of this Sublease.

22. Severability: If any term of this Sublease is held to be invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Sublease shall remain in full force and effect to the fullest extent possible under the law, and shall not be affected or impaired.

23. Amendment: This Sublease may not be amended except by the written agreement of all parties hereto.

24. Insurance; Waiver: Sublessee shall procure and maintain all insurance policies required by the tenant under the Master Lease with respect to the Subpremises. All such liability policies shall name Sublessor and Master Lessor as additional insureds. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Sublessor and Sublessee hereby release each other, and their respective agents, employees, subtenants, assignees and contractors, from all liability for damage to any property that is caused by or results from a risk which is actually insured against or which would normally be covered by "all risk" property insurance, without regard to the negligence or willful misconduct of the entity so released.

25. Other Sublease Terms:

A. Incorporation by Reference. Except as otherwise provided in this Sublease, the terms and provisions contained in the Master Lease are incorporated herein and made a part hereof as if set forth at length; provided, however, that:

(i) Each reference in such incorporated sections to (a) "Lease" shall be deemed a reference to this "Sublease", and (b) to "Premises" shall be deemed a reference to this "Subpremises" defined herein.

(ii) Each reference to "Landlord" and "Tenant" shall be deemed a reference to "Sublessor" and "Sublessee", respectively, except as expressly set forth herein.

(iii) With respect to work, services, repairs, restoration, maintenance, insurance, condition of the Subpremises, compliance with laws or the performance of any other obligation of Master Lessor under the Master Lease, the sole obligations of Sublessor shall be (a) to request the same in writing from Master Lessor, as and when requested to do so by Sublessee,

(b) to use Sublessor's reasonable efforts (provided Sublessee pays all costs incurred by Sublessor in connection therewith) to obtain Master Lessor's performance and (c) to enforce Sublessor's rights and remedies under the Master Lease (upon request of Sublessee, and at Sublessee's expense), provided that under no circumstances shall Sublessor be obligated to file any claim or initiate any lawsuit in connection herewith.

(iv) With respect to any obligation of Sublessee to be performed under this Sublease, wherever the Master Lease grants to Sublessor a specified number of days to perform its obligations under the Master Lease, except as otherwise provided herein, Sublessee shall have three (3) fewer days to perform the obligation.

(v) Sublessor shall have no liability to Sublessee with respect to (a) representations and warranties made by Master Lessor under the Master Lease, (b) any indemnification obligations of Master Lessor under the Master Lease, or other obligations or liabilities of Master Lessor under the Master Lease with respect to compliance with laws, condition of the Subpremises or Hazardous Materials, and (c) obligations under the Master Lease to repair, maintain, restore, or insure all or any portion of the Subpremises, regardless of whether the incorporation of one or more provisions of the Master Lease might otherwise operate to make Sublessor liable therefor; provided, however, that nothing in this paragraph shall diminish Sublessor's obligations under Sections 25.A.(iii) and (vi) hereof.

(vi) With respect to any approval or consent required to be obtained from the Master Lessor under the Master Lease, such approval or consent must be obtained from both Master Lessor and Sublessor. With respect to any approval or request of Master Lessor, Sublessor agrees to request the same in writing from Master Lessor, as and when requested to do so by Sublessee. Any approval of Sublessor may be withheld if the Master Lessor's approval or consent is required and not obtained.

(vii) Sublessee shall pay all consent and review fees in connection with this Sublease and any matters pertaining to the Subpremises as set forth in the Master Lease to Master Lessor.

(viii) Sublessee shall not have the right to terminate this Sublease due to casualty or condemnation unless Sublessor has such right under the Master Lease, and as between Sublessor and Sublessee only, all insurance proceeds or condemnation awards with respect to the Subpremises received by Sublessor under the Master Lease shall be fairly apportioned between Sublessee and Sublessor.

(ix) In any case where "Tenant" is to execute and deliver certain documents or notices to "Landlord", such obligation shall be deemed to run from Sublessee to both Master Lessor and Sublessor. Sublessor shall promptly deliver to Sublessee copies of all notices and documents given to Sublessor by the Master Lessor to the extent the same relate to the Subpremises, it being understood, however, that in no event will Sublessor be deemed in default of this Sublease if it inadvertently fails to provide any such notices and documents.

(x) The following provisions of the Master Lease are expressly not incorporated herein by reference: Section 1.25, Section 1.35, Section 2.1, Section 2.2, Section 2.3, Section 2.4, Section 3.1, Section 4.3, Section 13.5, Section 14.2, Section 16.2, Section 17.9, Section 17.11, Section 17.13, Section 17.14, Section 17.17, Section 17.18, Exhibit B.

(xi) Notwithstanding the foregoing, all references to “Landlord” in the following provisions of the Master Lease shall mean Master Lessor not Sublessor: Section 1.5, Section 1.7, Section 1.15, Section 3.2.3, Section 3.2.4, Section 4.4.2, Section 6.1, Section 6.2, Section 7.1, Section 7.2, Section 7.3, Section 7.4, Section 8.2, Section 8.5, Section 10.1, first 2 sentences of Section 13.4, Section 17.1.

(xii) Notwithstanding the foregoing, all references to “Landlord” in the following provisions of the Master Lease shall mean both Master Lessor and Sublessor: Section 17.15.

B. Assumption of Obligations: This Sublease is and all times shall be subject and subordinate to the Master Lease and the rights of Master Lessor thereunder. Sublessee hereby expressly assumes and agrees: (i) to comply with all provisions of the Master Lease applicable to the Subpremises to the extent incorporated herein, (ii) to perform all the obligations on the part of the “Tenant” to be performed with respect to the Subpremises under the terms of the Master Lease during the Subterm to the extent incorporated herein.

26. Signage: Sublessee acknowledges that the Master Lease provides the tenant thereunder only the right to install one monument sign and one building mounted sign in connection with the Master Lease. Sublessor agrees to cooperate with Sublessee if Sublessee desires to seek the Master Lessor’s consent for additional exterior signage for Sublessee’s benefit or to permit Sublessor and Sublessee to equally share the use of each of the currently permitted signage areas. All matters relating to such signage shall be undertaken at Sublessee’s expense and subject to applicable laws and permit requirements.

27. Access Control System. Sublessee may, subject to Master Lessor’s consent, and at its sole cost and expense, install, maintain, control and operate an electronic proximity cardreader control system, to regulate entry into the Subpremises. Sublessee shall furnish Master Lessor and Sublessor with any and all keys, access cards, access codes, and any other information or equipment necessary for Master Lessor and Sublessor to have full access to the Subpremises at all times, in accordance with Section 17.15 of the Master Lease.

28. Miscellaneous: This Sublease shall in all respects be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state in which the Subpremises are located. If any term of this Sublease is held to be invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Sublease shall remain in full force and effect to the fullest extent possible under the law, and shall not be affected or impaired. This Sublease may not be amended except by the written agreement of all parties hereto. Time is of the essence with respect to the performance of every provision of this Sublease in which time of performance is a factor. Any executed copy of this Sublease shall be deemed an original for all purposes. This Sublease shall, subject to the provisions regarding assignment and subletting, apply to and bind the respective heirs, successors, executors, administrators and assigns of Sublessor and Sublessee. The language in all parts of this Sublease shall in all cases be construed as a whole according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against either Sublessor or Sublessee. The captions used in this Sublease are for convenience only and shall not be considered in the construction or interpretation of any provision hereof. When a party is required to do something by this Sublease, it shall do so at its sole cost and expense without right of reimbursement from the other party unless specific provision is made therefor. Whenever one party's consent or approval is required to be given as a condition to the other party's right to take any action pursuant to this Sublease, unless another standard is expressly set forth, such consent or approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. This Sublease may be executed in counterparts, all of which taken together as a whole, shall constitute one original document.

29. Holdover: The parties hereby acknowledge that it is critical that Sublessee surrender the Subpremises to Sublessor no later than the Expiration Date in accordance with the terms of this Sublease. In the event that Sublessee does not surrender the Subpremises by the Expiration Date in accordance with Section 18 hereof, Sublessee shall indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless Sublessor from and against all costs, loss and liability resulting from Sublessee's delay in surrendering the Subpremises and pay Sublessor holdover rent. If Sublessee holds over in violation of this provision, in addition to the foregoing indemnification provision, and without same constituting Sublessor consent to same, Sublessee shall pay Sublessor 150% of the Monthly Base Subrent for any such period of holdover. The indemnification set forth in this Section shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Sublease.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Sublease as of the day and year first above written.

All references in the Lease to the "Extended Term" shall mean the Extended Term as defined in this Fourth Amendment.

8. Rent: Commencing on the Final Commencement Date, the Lease is hereby amended to provide that the Base Rent during the Term of this Lease shall be as follows:

Base Rent during the Extended Term (as defined in this Fourth Amendment) shall be the lesser of (i) as to the first year of the Extended Term, $387,688.00 per year ($18.40 per square foot), and as to each year thereafter during the Extended Term, the Base Rent shall be increased by $0.35 per Rentable Square Foot per year, or (ii) the then current Fair Market Rental Rate for the Premises. As used herein, “Fair Market Rental Rate” shall mean the average of the annual rental rates then being charged in the market area in comparable buildings for space of comparable size and condition to the space for which the Fair Market Rental Rate is being determined, taking into consideration all relevant factors, including, without limitation, such factors as credit-worthiness of the tenant, the duration of the term, any rental or other concessions granted, whether a broker’s commission or finder’s fee will be paid, responsibility for Operating Expenses, and the tenant improvement allowance, if any, required for an extended term. The two brokers so hired shall attempt to reach agreement on the Fair Market Rental Rate for comparable buildings within fifteen (15) days after their appointment and any such agreed upon Fair Market Rental Rate shall be the rental rate for the Premises during said Option Term. In the event the two brokers are unable to reach an agreement on the Fair Market Rental Rate, the two brokers shall, within five (5) days of their failure to reach agreement, mutually select an independent third broker with the same qualifications, and each broker, within twenty (20) days after the third broker is selected, shall submit to Landlord and Tenant his or her determination of the then prevailing Fair Market Rental Rate for the Premises. The Fair Market Rental Rate shall be the mean of the two closest rental determinations. If the cost of the Suite 125 Work exceeds the Tenant Allowance, Tenant shall be solely responsible for such additional costs. Owner and Tenant shall cooperate in coordinating and performing the Suite 125 Work.

12. Rights of First Refusal, Expansion: Tenant hereby acknowledges that it has leased the entire Building and accordingly all references in the Existing Lease to Tenant’s right of first refusal, expansion or additional space are no longer applicable.

Any conflict between the terms and conditions of this Fourth Amendment and the terms and conditions of the Existing Lease shall be controlled by this Fourth Amendment.

14. Counterparts; Facsimile Signatures. This Fourth Amendment may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall together constitute but one and the same instrument. If the total Work Costs are less than the amount of the Tenant Improvement Allowance, then Base Rent in Section 3.1 of the Lease will be decreased by amortizing the difference over the remaining Term by using an amortization rate of eight percent (8%). Therefore, if Tenant shall reasonably determine that any of the workmanship or material used in the Suite 125 Work is defective, and Tenant shall so notify Landlord in writing within the applicable warranty period that such workmanship or material is defective, Landlord shall cause such defective workmanship or material to be appropriately corrected, repaired, or replaced, without cost or expense to Tenant. Such correction, repair, or replacement shall be performed as promptly as practical and in such manner so as to minimize interference with Tenant’s operation in or about Suite 125, Landlord shall not be liable under this warranty for any defects in the Work about which it receives notice thereof after the applicable warranty period.

11. INSPECTIONS AND SCHEDULING: Tenant and Tenant’s representatives shall have the right, from time to time, to observe the progress of the Work, to inspect installation of the Work, and to reject any Work not in conformance with the Construction Documents; however, no such observation shall create liability or responsibility on the part of the Tenant with respect to the nature or quality of the Work. Landlord shall keep Tenant informed as to all material governmental inspections and shall permit Tenant or its representatives to be present thereat. 13. TENANT’S WORK: All finishing trades or other work (the “Tenant’s Work”) desired by Tenant, if any, not initially or thereafter included in the Suite 125 Work, shall be performed by Tenant, at Tenant’s expense, through contractors selected by Tenant and approved by Landlord, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Landlord and Tenant shall each cause their respective general contractor and/or subcontractors for the Landlord’s Work and Tenant’s Work to cooperate with each other: (i) in facilitating the mutual access to the Premises during the construction of the Suite 125 Work and (ii) in coordinating the timing of the stages of the Landlord’s Work and Tenant’s Work so as to facilitate the completion on a timely basis.

14. TENANT DELAYS: The term “Tenant Delay” shall mean any actual delay in the Substantial Completion of the Work caused by any one or more of the following delays: (i) delays due to Change Orders requested by Tenant; (ii) delays in submission of Tenant’s Construction Documents or the giving by Tenant of approvals or reasonable disapprovals within the applicable time set forth in this Final Work Letter or the Construction Schedule; (iii) delays due to Tenant’s breach of the Lease; or (iv) delays caused by any of Tenant’s contractors, other than the contractor performing the Work. No Tenant Delay shall be deemed to have occurred unless Landlord gives Tenant prior written notice or written notice within five (5) days of the occurrence, as reasonable under the circumstances, specifying the claimed reasons for such Tenant Delay, and Tenant shall fail to promptly correct or cure such Tenant Delay. There shall be excluded from the number of days of any Tenant Delay the period from the date of any claimed delay to the date on which Landlord’s notice is given to Tenant as well as any days of delay which are primarily caused by any act or omission of Landlord, its agents, or contractors or any of the following events (collectively, “Force Majeure Delays”): labor disputes, fire, unusual delay in transportation, adverse weather conditions not reasonably anticipatable, unavoidable casualties, or any other causes beyond Landlord’s or its contractor’s reasonable control (and other than for financial reasons).

CORVALLIS LETTER AGREEMENT

Avago Technologies Sensor (U.S.A.) Inc.

San Jose, CA 95131
Attn: Ted Kevranian, US Workplace Services Mgr

Re: Pre-Closing Agreement Regarding Corvallis, Oregon Facility including Alterations to MDF Room, Security Closet, Storage Room and Demarcation Room ("Agreement").

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This Agreement confirms the agreement and understanding between AVAGO TECHNOLOGIES SENSOR (U.S.A.) INC., a Delaware corporation ("Avago") and MARVELL SEMICONDUCTOR, INC., a California corporation ("Marvell") with respect to that certain office building located at 4238 SW Research Way, Corvallis, Oregon (the "Building").

Simultaneously with the execution hereof, Avago Technologies Limited and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates ("Seller") and Marvell Technology Group Ltd. and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates ("Buyer") are executing a certain Amendment No. 1 to Purchase and Sale Agreement ("PSA Amendment"), which PSA Amendment amends and modifies in certain respects the Purchase and Sale Agreement dated as of February 17, 2006 by and between Seller and Purchaser (as amended by the PSA Amendment, the "Purchase Agreement"). Pursuant to the PSA Amendment, upon the Closing (as defined in the Purchase Agreement), Marvell and Avago will enter into the Sublease Agreement (the "Sublease") in form and substance attached to said PSA Amendment with respect to the Building, pursuant to which Sublease Marvell will, among other things, sublease the second floor of the Building (the "Subpremises") from Avago. It is the intent of Avago and Marvell to enter into this Agreement regardless of when or whether the Sublease becomes effective and binding upon Avago and Marvell. Defined terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meaning ascribed in the Sublease.

Avago currently maintains a server room ("Server Room") and a Demarcation Room (the "Demarcation Room") in the Avago Premises, as well as a main distribution frame room (the "MDF Room"), a security closet ("Security Closet") and a storage room adjacent to the MDF Room (the "Storage Room") located in the Subpremises. Marvell desires to perform certain alterations to the MDF Room, Security Closet and the Storage Room as more specifically described on Exhibit A attached hereto (the "Marvell Alterations") prior to the Closing in order to facilitate its commencement of operations at the Subpremises as soon as practicable following the Commencement Date.

Subject to the terms and provisions of the Sublease, Master Lease, any requirements of the Master Lessor as a condition to consenting to the Marvell Alterations, and applicable laws, all of which are and shall be Marvell's sole obligation to comply with at its sole cost and expense, Avago hereby agrees and consents to Marvell performing and constructing the Marvell Alterations, at Marvell's sole cost and expense, and on such schedule as Marvell deems appropriate (but consistent with the terms of this Agreement). Avago hereby agrees to reasonably cooperate to assist Marvell, at Marvell's sole cost and expense, in facilitating its permitting for the Marvell Alterations (including seeking the consent of the Master Lessor to the Marvell Alterations, if required depending on the nature and cost of the alterations to be performed), and to allow Marvell reasonable access to the Avago Premises, the MDF Room, the Security Closet and the Storage Room, as necessary, to construct the Marvell Alterations. Additionally, to enable Marvell to perform the Marvell Alterations, Avago hereby agrees that it shall perform certain work in the Server Room, MDF Room, Security Closet and Demarcation Room as more specifically described on Exhibit B attached hereto (the "Avago Work"). Avago further agrees that it shall commence, diligently prosecute and use commercially reasonable efforts to prosecute the Avago Work to completion no later than the later of (i) April 24, 2006, and (ii) the date that is seven (7) days prior to the Closing (except as otherwise provided on Exhibit B hereto); provided, however that the installation of a port for the DS3 line shall be completed no later than the later of (i) April 7, 2006, and (ii) the date that is fourteen (14) days prior to the Closing.

Marvell agrees that it will perform and construct the Marvell Alterations in compliance with all applicable laws, the Sublease, Master Lease and any other requirements of the Master Lessor in connection therewith. Marvell hereby agrees that in the event that the Closing does not occur, then Marvell shall, at Avago's election, either remove the Marvell Alterations and restore the MDF Room, the Security Closet and Storage Room (and any other portion of the Subpremises affected by the Marvell Alterations) to their condition immediately prior to the construction of the Marvell Alterations, or reimburse Avago for the actual costs incurred by Avago to conduct such removal and restoration; provided, however that Marvell shall not have any such removal, restoration or reimbursement obligations if the failure of Seller Parent or Seller to satisfy the condition set forth in Section 7.3(b) of the Purchase Agreement has been the cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the Closing to occur. In the event that Marvell is obligated to remove the Marvell Alterations and restore the MDF Room, the Security Closet and Storage Room (and any other portion of the Subpremises affected by the Marvell Alterations) pursuant to the foregoing, Marvell shall also comply with any and all other requirements or obligations of the Sublease, Master Lease and of the Master Lessor with respect thereto. The parties hereto expressly acknowledge and agree that no failure or either party hereto to perform its obligations hereunder shall give rise to a right of the other party to delay the Closing.

Without limiting the scope and inclusiveness of the foregoing, as a condition to Marvell's or Marvell's contractors' or agents' entry upon the Building or Subpremises and to Avago's agreements set forth herein, (a) Marvell shall obtain and deliver to Avago certificates of insurance required pursuant to the Sublease (as though the Sublease were in effect), including without limitation builders' risk, commercial liability and property damage insurance, or otherwise specified by Master Lessor in connection with its consent to the Marvell Alterations and (b) Marvell hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Avago in accordance with first paragraph of Section 8 of the Sublease which is deemed incorporated herein by reference for this purpose.

This Agreement incorporates the final and complete agreement between the parties with respect to Marvell’s rights to access to, entry upon and alteration of the Subpremises prior to the Closing and this Agreement may only be modified by written amendment signed by authorized officers of both Avago and Marvell.

To confirm your agreement with the foregoing, please sign and return to the undersigned the enclosed copy of this letter.

FORM PATENT AND TECHNOLOGY LICENSE AGREEMENT

This Patent and Technology License Agreement (this “Agreement”) is effective as of _____, ____ 200__ (the “Effective Date”), between Hewlett-Packard Company, a Delaware corporation, having its principal offices at 3000 Hanover Street, Palo Alto, California 94304 (“HP”) and _____, a _____ corporation (“Licensee”), having its principal offices at _____.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the creation of Agilent Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Agilent”), HP licensed Agilent certain patents and technologies (the “HP Patents and Technologies”) effective November 1, 1999 (the underlying agreements, the “HP-Agilent Separation Agreements”);

WHEREAS, the HP-Agilent Separation Agreements provided that sublicenses to the HP Patents and Technologies could be sublicensed pursuant to the sale of certain businesses, but did not provide for further sublicenses should the purchasers of such businesses desire to further sell any of such businesses;

WHEREAS, pursuant a certain Asset Purchase Agreement dated December 1, 2005, Agilent sold its semiconductor business to Avago Technologies Ltd., a Singaporean company (“Avago Technologies”), and Avago Technologies General IP (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. (Company Registration No. 200512430D), also a Singaporean company (“Avago General IP”) (Avago Technologies, Avago General IP and their respective Subsidiaries (as defined below), collectively, “Avago”);

WHEREAS, Avago now desires to sell its _____ business (the “Business”) to Licensee and Licensee desires to license the HP Patents and Technologies for use in the Business.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises of the parties, and of good and valuable consideration, it is agreed by and between the parties as follows:

DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Agreement the following capitalized terms are defined in this Section 0 and shall have the meaning specified herein:

A. “Capture Period” means the period ending on October 31, 2004.

B. “Copyrights” mean (i) any copyright in any original works of authorship fixed in any tangible medium of expression as set forth in 17 U.S.C. Section 101 et. seq., whether registered or unregistered, including any applications for registration thereof, (ii) any corresponding foreign copyrights under the laws of any jurisdiction, in each case, whether registered or unregistered, and any applications for registration thereof and (iii) moral rights under the laws of any jurisdiction.

F. “HP Technology” means either HP Restricted Technology or HP Unrestricted Technology, or both, as the context requires, that is delivered by Avago to Licensee as part of Avago’s sale of the Business.

G. “HP Unrestricted Technology” means Technology owned by HP that is not listed or described as “HP Restricted Technology” in the HP Technology Database in the ICBD-TOLA.

H. “Improvements” to Technology means (i) with respect to Copyrights, any modifications, derivative works, and translations of works of authorship, (ii) with respect to Database Rights, any database that is created by extraction or re-utilization of another database, and (iii) with respect to Mask Work Rights, trade secrets and other intellectual property rights included within the definition of Technology and not covered by Sections H(i) and (ii) above, any improvements of the Technology. For the purposes of clarification, an item of Technology will be deemed to be an Improvement of an item of HP Technology only if it is actually derived from such other item of HP Technology and not merely because it may have the same or similar functionality or use as such other item of HP Technology.

I. “Licensed Patents” means, with respect to a party:

1. every Non-Design Patent to the extent entitled to a First Effective Filing Date prior to the expiration of the Capture Period, provided that, at any time after the First Effective Filing Date of any such Non-Design Patent and prior to the expiration of the Capture Period, the party (or any Subsidiary of the party):
 - (i) has ownership or control of any such Non-Design Patent, or
 - (ii) otherwise has the right under such Non-Design Patent to grant any licenses of the type and on the terms herein granted by the party without the obligation to pay royalties or other consideration to Third Parties; and
2. applications for the foregoing Non-Design Patents described in Section 1, including without limitation any continuations, continuations-in-part, divisions and substitutions; but

3. excluding from any Non-Design Patent or Non-Design Patent application described in Sections 1 and 2 any claim (i) directed to subject matter that does not appear in any Patent application having a First Effective Filing Date prior to the expiration of the Capture Period and (ii) of which neither the party nor any person having a legal duty to assign his/her interest therein to the party is entitled to be named as an inventor.

J. “Licensed Products” means the products, services and processes of the Business that are commercially released or for which substantial steps have been taken to commercialization as of the Effective Date and for new versions that have merely minor incremental differences from such products, services and processes.

K. “Mask Work Rights” means: (i) any rights in mask works, as defined in 17 U.S.C. Section 901, whether registered or unregistered, including applications for registration thereof; and (ii) any foreign rights in semiconductor topologies under the laws of any jurisdiction, whether registered or unregistered, including applications for registration thereof.

L. “Non-Design Patents” means Patents except for design patents and design registrations.

M. “Patents” means patents, utility models, design patents, design registrations, certificates of invention and other governmental grants for the protection of inventions or industrial designs anywhere in the world and all reissues, renewals, re-examinations and extensions of any of the foregoing.

N. “Person” means an individual, a partnership, a corporation, a limited liability company, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, a joint venture, an unincorporated organization, and a governmental entity or any department, agency, or political subdivision thereof.

O. To “Sell” a product means to sell, transfer, lease, or otherwise dispose of a product. “Sale” and “Sold” have the corollary meanings ascribed thereto.

P. “Subsidiary” means with respect to any specified Person, any corporation, any limited liability company, any partnership or other legal entity of which such Person owns, directly or indirectly, more than fifty percent (50%) of the stock or other equity interest entitled to vote on the election of the members of the board of directors or similar governing body. For example, if HP owns seventy percent (70%) of the stock of another corporation, and that corporation owns sixty percent (60%) of the equity interest of a limited liability company, then that corporation is a Subsidiary of HP but that limited liability company is not. However, if such corporation owns ninety percent (90%) of the equity interest of a limited liability company, then that limited liability company is a Subsidiary of HP.

Q. “Technology” means semiconductor topologies, cell libraries, cores or other similar elements, logic modules, technological models, algorithms, manufacturing processes, design processes, behavioral models, logic diagrams, schematics, test vectors, know-how, computer and electronic data processing and other apparatus programs and software (object code and source code), optical, hydraulic and fluidic apparatus and processes, medical chemical, biochemical, biological, macro-molecular and genetic compounds, processes, cell lines, detection and analytical devices, databases and documentation thereof, trade secrets, technical information, specifications, drawings, records, documentation, works of authorship or other creative works, websites, ideas, knowledge, data or the like. The term Technology includes Copyrights, Database Rights, Mask Work Rights, trade secrets and any other intellectual property right, but expressly does not include any trademark, trade name, trade dress or service mark, or applications for registration thereof or any Patents.

R. “Third Party” means a Person other than HP and its Subsidiaries and Licensee and its Subsidiaries.

Any such sublicense may be made effective retroactively, but not prior to the sublicensee becoming a Subsidiary of such party.

C. Duration.

1. All licenses granted herein with respect to each Patent shall expire upon the expiration of the term of such Patent; provided, however, that licenses for Patents falling within Section I.I.1(ii) shall expire upon the expiration of the term of the grantor’s license under such Patent.
2. All sublicenses granted pursuant to this Agreement to a particular Subsidiary of a party hereto shall terminate the date that, in the case of a Subsidiary of a party, the Subsidiary ceases to be a Subsidiary of such party. The licenses granted to such other party hereunder with respect to Patents and Patent applications of such Subsidiary with a First Effective Filing Date prior to the date of such cessation shall remain in effect notwithstanding such cessation.

manufacture and have manufactured HP Restricted Products or any other products that Licensee provides to HP or to Subsidiaries of HP and to Sell such HP Restricted Products and such other products to HP and such Subsidiaries of HP and Third Parties as HP may designate in writing to Licensee from time to time.

B. Restrictions. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing licenses granted in Section A,

1. with respect to cores or other similar elements included within the HP Restricted Technology, such licenses include the right to synthesize, simulate, design, verify, monitor, analyze, compile, incorporate, embed and integrate the cores or other similar elements and Improvements thereof made for HP to design, develop, manufacture and have manufactured HP Restricted Products or any other products that Licensee provides to HP or to Subsidiaries of HP, and to Sell any HP Restricted Products and such other products to HP and such Subsidiaries of HP and Third Parties as HP may designate in writing to Licensee from time to time;

The license restrictions set forth in this Section 3.4 shall continue only for so long as the applicable use restriction periods apply under the ICBD-TOLA, and after November 1, 2009, shall expire and the limitations on the use of the HP Restricted Technology shall not apply thereafter, but the licenses shall otherwise continue as set forth above, but without the limitations as to use only for HP.

IV. HP UNRESTRICTED TECHNOLOGY

A. License to HP Unrestricted Technology with respect to Licensed Products. Subject to Section B.44, HP grants (and agrees to cause its appropriate Subsidiaries to grant) to Licensee the following personal, irrevocable, nonexclusive, worldwide, fully paid, royalty-free and non-transferable (except as specified in Section X.I) licenses:

1. under its and their Copyrights in and to the HP Unrestricted Technology, (A) to reproduce and have reproduced the works of authorship included in the HP Unrestricted Technology and Improvements thereof prepared by or for Licensee, in whole or in part, as part of Licensed Products, (B) to prepare Improvements or have Improvements prepared for it based upon the works of authorship included in the HP Unrestricted Technology in order to create Licensed Products, (C) to distribute (by any means and using any technology, whether now known or unknown, including without limitation electronic transmission) copies of the works of authorship included in the HP Unrestricted Technology and Improvements thereof prepared by or for Licensee to the public by sale or other transfer of ownership or by rental, lease or lending, as part of Licensed Products, and (D) to perform (by any means and using any technology, whether now known or unknown, including without limitation electronic transmission) and display the works of authorship included in the HP Unrestricted Technology and Improvements thereof prepared by or for Licensee, as part of Licensed Products;

C. Sublicenses. Licensee may grant sublicenses within the scope of the licenses granted under Sections A and B as follows:

1. Licensee may grant sublicenses to its Subsidiaries for so long as they remain its Subsidiaries, with no right to grant further sublicenses other than, in the case of a sublicensed Subsidiary, to another Subsidiary of such party, and as described in Section 3; provided that any such sublicense may be made effective retroactively but not prior to the sublicensee's becoming a Subsidiary;

D. Subsidiaries. A sublicense to a particular Subsidiary of a party hereto granted pursuant to Sections C.1 or C.2 shall terminate upon the date that, in the case of a Subsidiary of a party, such Subsidiary ceases to be a Subsidiary of such party.

V. OWNERSHIP AND OTHER INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY TERMS

A. By HP. The parties hereby agree and confirm that, as between the parties, HP retains for itself all right, title and interest, including all intellectual property rights, in and to HP's Licensed Patents, HP Restricted Technology and HP Unrestricted Technology (except for any licenses expressly granted in Sections II, III and IV respectively) and that no transfer or assignment of ownership rights is intended by the parties.

B. By Licensee. The parties hereby agree and confirm that, as between the parties, Licensee hereby retains all right, title and interest, including all intellectual property rights, in and to Licensee's Licensed Patents, and any Improvements to HP Technology made by or for Licensee in the exercise of the licenses granted to it hereunder, subject only to the ownership of HP in the underlying HP Technology and any license expressly granted in Sections II, III and IV. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing, Licensee has no obligation to disclose or license to HP any Improvements to the HP Technology made by or for Licensee.

C. Have Made Rights. Each party understands and acknowledges that the "have made" rights granted to it in Sections II.A, III.A or IV.A, as applicable, and the sublicenses of such "have made" rights granted pursuant to Sections II.B, III.C or IV.C, as applicable, are intended to cover only the products of such party, its Subsidiaries (including private label or OEM versions of such products), and are not intended to cover foundry or contract manufacturing activities that such party may undertake through Third Parties for Third Parties.

VI. CONFIDENTIALITY

A. The terms of the Confidential Disclosure Agreement dated _____ between the parties shall apply to any Confidential Information (as defined therein) which is the subject matter of this Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Schedule 1 hereto.

B. Each party agrees that the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be treated as Confidential Information and that neither party will disclose such terms or conditions to any Third Party without the prior written consent of the other party; provided, however, that each party may disclose such terms and conditions:

1. In confidence, to legal counsel of the parties, accountants, and other professional advisors;
2. In confidence, to banks, investors and other financing sources and their advisors;

3. In connection with the enforcement of this Agreement or rights under this Agreement; or
4. In confidence, in connection with an actual or prospective merger or acquisition or similar transaction.

VII. TERMINATION

A. Voluntary Termination. By written notice to the other party, each party may voluntarily terminate all or a specified portion of the licenses and rights granted to it hereunder by such other party. Such notice shall specify the effective date of such termination and shall clearly specify any affected Technology, product or service.

B. Survival. Any voluntary termination of licenses and rights of a party under Section 6.1 shall not affect such party's licenses and rights with respect to any licensed product made or service furnished prior to such termination, and shall not affect the licenses and rights granted to the other party hereunder.

C. No Other Termination. Each party acknowledges and agrees that its remedy for breach by the other party of the licenses granted to it hereunder or of any other provision hereof shall be, subject to the requirements of Section VIII, to bring a claim to recover damages subject to the limits set forth in this Agreement and to seek any other appropriate equitable relief, other than termination of the licenses granted by it in this Agreement.

VIII. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

A. Negotiation. The parties shall make a good faith attempt to resolve any dispute or claim arising out of or related to this Agreement through negotiation. Within thirty (30) days after notice of a dispute or claim is given by either party to the other party, the parties' first tier negotiating teams (as determined by each party's Director of Intellectual Property or his or her delegate) shall meet and make a good faith attempt to resolve such dispute or claim and shall continue to negotiate in good faith in an effort to resolve the dispute or claim or renegotiate the applicable section or provision without the necessity of any formal proceedings. If the first tier negotiating teams are unable to agree within thirty (30) days of their first meeting, then the parties' second tier negotiating teams (as determined by each party's Director of Intellectual Property or his or her delegate) shall meet within thirty (30) days after the end of the first thirty (30) day negotiating period to attempt to resolve the matter. During the course of negotiations under this Section A, all reasonable requests made by one party to the other for information, including requests for copies of relevant documents, will be honored. The specific format for such negotiations will be left to the discretion of the designated negotiating teams but may include the preparation of agreed upon statements of fact or written statements of position furnished to the other party.

B. Nonbinding Mediation. In the event that any dispute or claim arising out of or related to this Agreement is not settled by the parties within fifteen (15) days after the first meeting of the second tier negotiating teams under Section A, the parties will attempt in good faith to resolve such dispute or claim by nonbinding mediation in accordance with the American Arbitration Association Commercial Mediation Rules. The mediation shall be held within thirty (30) days of the end of such fifteen (15) day negotiation period of the second tier negotiating teams. Except as provided below in Section C, no litigation for the resolution of such dispute may be commenced until the parties try in good faith to settle the dispute by such mediation in accordance with such rules and either party has concluded in good faith that amicable resolution through continued mediation of the matter does not appear likely. The costs of mediation shall be shared equally by the parties to the mediation. Any settlement reached by mediation shall be recorded in writing, signed by the parties, and shall be binding on them.

C. Proceedings. Nothing herein, however, shall prohibit either party from initiating litigation or other judicial or administrative proceedings if such party would be substantially harmed by a failure to act during the time that such good faith efforts are being made to resolve the dispute or claim through negotiation or mediation. In the event that litigation is commenced under this Section C, the parties agree to continue to attempt to resolve any dispute or claim according to the terms of Sections A and B during the course of such litigation proceedings under this Section C.

IX. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY OR ITS SUBSIDIARIES OR AFFILIATED COMPANIES BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY OR ITS SUBSIDIARIES OR AFFILIATED COMPANIES FOR ANY SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES OR LOST PROFITS, HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER OR NOT SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT THE FOREGOING LIMITATIONS SHALL NOT LIMIT DAMAGES FOR INFRINGEMENT AVAILABLE TO EITHER PARTY UNDER APPLICABLE LAW IN THE EVENT OF BREACH BY THE OTHER PARTY OF SECTIONS II.A, III.A OR IV.A; PROVIDED FURTHER THAT THE EXCLUSION OF PUNITIVE DAMAGES SHALL APPLY IN ANY EVENT.

X. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. Disclaimer. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ALL PATENTS OR TECHNOLOGY AND ANY OTHER INFORMATION OR MATERIALS LICENSED OR PROVIDED HEREUNDER IS LICENSED OR PROVIDED ON AN “AS IS” BASIS, AND THAT NEITHER PARTY NOR ANY OF ITS SUBSIDIARIES OR AFFILIATED COMPANIES MAKES ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR EXTENDS ANY WARRANTIES WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, WITH RESPECT THERETO, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, ENFORCEABILITY OR NON-INFRINGEMENT. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither party nor any of its Subsidiaries makes any warranty or representation that any manufacture, use, importation, offer for sale or sale of any product or service will be free from infringement of any Patent or other intellectual property right of any Third Party.

B. No Implied Licenses. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as conferring any rights by implication, estoppel or otherwise, under any intellectual property right, other than the rights expressly granted in this Agreement with respect to the Licensed Patents, and the HP Technology. Neither party is required hereunder to furnish or disclose to the other any technical or other information (including copies of the HP Technology), except as specifically provided herein.

C. Infringement Suits. Neither party shall have any obligation hereunder to institute any action or suit against Third Parties for infringement of any Copyrights, Database Rights or Mask Work Rights or misappropriation of any trade secret rights in or to any Licensed Patents or Technology licensed to the other party hereunder, or to defend any action or suit brought by a Third Party which challenges or concerns the validity of any of such rights or which claims that any Technology licensed to the other party hereunder infringes any Patent, Copyright, Database Right, Mask Work Right or other intellectual property right of any Third Party or constitutes a misappropriated trade secret of any Third Party. Licensee shall not have any right to institute any action or suit against Third Parties for infringement of any of the Copyrights, Database Rights or Mask Work Rights in or to the HP Technology.

D. No Other Obligations. NEITHER PARTY ASSUMES ANY RESPONSIBILITIES OR OBLIGATIONS WHATSOEVER, OTHER THAN THE RESPONSIBILITIES AND OBLIGATIONS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT OR A SEPARATE WRITTEN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither party or any of its Subsidiaries is obligated to provide any technical assistance hereunder.

E. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and shall supersede all prior written and oral and all contemporaneous oral agreements and understandings with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement shall prevail in the event of any conflicting terms or legends which may appear on any portion of the HP Technology.

F. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware as to all matters regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under principles of conflicts of laws applicable thereto.

G. Descriptive Headings. The descriptive headings herein are inserted for convenience of reference only and are not intended to be part of or to affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

H. Notices. All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered in person, by telecopy with answer back, by express or overnight mail delivered by a nationally recognized air courier (delivery charges prepaid), by registered or certified mail (postage prepaid, return receipt requested) or by e-mail with receipt confirmed by return e-mail to the respective parties as follows:

Neither party may, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, whether by operation of law or otherwise, assign or transfer this Agreement, without the other party's prior written consent, and any attempted assignment, transfer or delegation without such prior written consent shall be voidable at the sole option of such other party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the fullest extent possible.

K. Failure or Indulgence not Waiver; Remedies Cumulative. No failure or delay on the part of either party hereto in the exercise of any right hereunder shall impair such right or be construed to be a waiver of, or acquiescence in, any breach of any representation, warranty or agreement herein, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right preclude other or further exercise thereof or of any other right. All rights and remedies existing under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

L. Amendment. No change or amendment will be made to this Agreement except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties to such agreement.

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE NO. 3

Supplemental Indenture No. 3 (this “Supplemental Indenture”), dated as of June 15, 2007, is by and between Einhundertsechundneunzigste Verwaltungsgesellschaft Dammtor mbH (to be renamed Avago Technologies Fiber GmbH), a private limited liability company organized under the laws of Germany (“Guaranteeing Subsidiary”), a subsidiary of Avago Technologies Finance Pte. Ltd., a private limited company organized under the laws of the Republic of Singapore, and The Bank of New York, as trustee (the “Trustee”).

W I T N E S S E T H

WHEREAS, each of the Issuers and the Guarantors (as defined in the Indenture referred to below) has heretofore executed and delivered to the Trustee an indenture (the “Indenture”), dated as of December 1, 2005, providing for the issuance of an unlimited aggregate principal amount of 10 ¹/₈% Senior Notes due 2013 and Senior Floating Rate Notes due 2013 (together, the “Notes”);

WHEREAS, the Indenture provides that under certain circumstances the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture pursuant to which the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall unconditionally guarantee all of the Issuers’ Obligations under the Notes and the Indenture on the terms and conditions set forth herein and under the Indenture (the “Guarantee”); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 9.01 of the Indenture, the Trustee is authorized to execute and deliver this Supplemental Indenture.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties mutually covenant and agree for the equal and ratable benefit of the Holders of the Notes as follows:

(1) Capitalized Terms. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Indenture.

(2) Agreement to Guarantee. The Guaranteeing Subsidiary hereby agrees as follows:

(a) Along with all other Guarantors named in the Indenture, to jointly and severally unconditionally guarantee to each Holder of a Note authenticated and delivered by the Trustee and to the Trustee and its successors and assigns, irrespective of the validity and enforceability of the Indenture, the Notes or the obligations of the Issuers hereunder or thereunder, that:

(i) the principal of and interest, premium and Additional Interest, if any, on the Notes will be promptly paid in full when due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, redemption or otherwise, and interest on the overdue principal of and interest on the Notes, if any, if lawful, and all other obligations of the Issuers to the Holders or the Trustee hereunder or thereunder will be promptly paid in full or performed, all in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof; and

(ii) in case of any extension of time of payment or renewal of any Notes or any of such other obligations, that same will be promptly paid in full when due or performed in accordance with the terms of the extension or renewal, whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise. Failing payment when due of any amount so guaranteed or any performance so guaranteed for whatever reason, the Guarantors and the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall be jointly and severally obligated to pay the same immediately. This is a guarantee of payment and not a guarantee of collection.

(b) The obligations hereunder shall be unconditional (to the extent legally permitted under the Guaranteeing Subsidiary's jurisdiction of organization), irrespective of the validity, regularity or enforceability of the Notes or the Indenture, the absence of any action to enforce the same, any waiver or consent by any Holder of the Notes with respect to any provisions hereof or thereof, the recovery of any judgment against the Issuers, any action to enforce the same or any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor.

(c) The following is hereby waived: diligence, presentment, demand of payment, filing of claims with a court in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Issuers, any right to require a proceeding first against the Issuers, protest, notice and all demands whatsoever.

(d) This Guarantee shall not be discharged except by complete performance of the obligations contained in the Notes, the Indenture and this Supplemental Indenture, and the Guaranteeing Subsidiary accepts all obligations of a Guarantor under the Indenture.

(e) If any Holder or the Trustee is required by any court or otherwise to return to the Issuers, the Guarantors (including the Guaranteeing Subsidiary), or any custodian, trustee, liquidator or other similar official acting in relation to either the Issuers or the Guarantors, any amount paid either to the Trustee or such Holder, this Guarantee, to the extent theretofore discharged, shall be reinstated in full force and effect.

(f) The Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall not be entitled to any right of subrogation in relation to the Holders in respect of any obligations guaranteed hereby until payment in full of all obligations guaranteed hereby.

(g) As between the Guaranteeing Subsidiary, on the one hand, and the Holders and the Trustee, on the other hand, (x) the maturity of the obligations guaranteed hereby may be accelerated as provided in Article 6 of the Indenture for the purposes of this Guarantee, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the obligations guaranteed hereby, and (y) in the event of any declaration of acceleration of such obligations as provided in Article 6 of the Indenture, such obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by the Guaranteeing Subsidiary for the purpose of this Guarantee.

(h) The Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall have the right to seek contribution from any non-paying Guarantor so long as the exercise of such right does not impair the rights of the Holders under this Guarantee.

(i) Pursuant to Section 10.02 of the Indenture, after giving effect to all other contingent and fixed liabilities that are relevant under any applicable Bankruptcy Law or fraudulent conveyance laws, and after giving effect to any collections from, rights to receive contribution from or payments made by or on behalf of any other Guarantor in respect of the obligations of such other Guarantor under Article 10 of the Indenture, this new Guarantee shall be limited to the maximum amount permissible such that the obligations of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary under this Guarantee will not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance or otherwise violate applicable law as set out in Article 10 of the Indenture. Notwithstanding any other provision of Article 10 of the Indenture or this Supplemental Indenture, the Guaranteeing Subsidiary may refuse to make any payments under this Guarantee to the extent any such payment results in a violation of Sections 30 et seq. German Limited Liabilities Company Act (GmbH-Gesetz). The Guaranteeing Subsidiary covenants to use all commercially reasonable efforts to maximize the amount payable under this Guarantee in accordance with German law.

(j) This Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and continue to be effective should any petition be filed by or against the Issuers for liquidation, reorganization, should the Issuers become insolvent or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or should a receiver or trustee be appointed for all or any significant part of the Issuers' assets, and shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment and performance of the Notes are, pursuant to applicable law, rescinded or reduced in amount, or must otherwise be restored or returned by any obligee on the Notes and Guarantee, whether as a "voidable preference," "fraudulent transfer" or otherwise, all as though such payment or performance had not been made. In the event that any payment or any part thereof, is rescinded, reduced, restored or returned, the Notes shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be reinstated and deemed reduced only by such amount paid and not so rescinded, reduced, restored or returned.

(k) In case any provision of this Guarantee shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

(l) This Guarantee shall be a general unsecured senior obligation of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary, ranking pari passu with any other future Senior Indebtedness of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary, if any.

(m) Each payment to be made by the Guaranteeing Subsidiary in respect of this Guarantee shall be made without set-off, counterclaim, reduction or diminution of any kind or nature.

(3) Execution and Delivery. The Guaranteeing Subsidiary agrees that the Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the absence of the endorsement of any notation of such Guarantee on the Notes.

(4) Merger, Consolidation or Sale of All or Substantially All Assets.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.01(c) of the Indenture, the Guaranteeing Subsidiary may not consolidate or merge with or into or wind up into (whether or not the Issuers or the Guaranteeing Subsidiary is the surviving corporation), or sell, assign, transfer, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its properties or assets, in one or more related transactions, to any Person unless:

(i) (A) the Guaranteeing Subsidiary is the surviving corporation or the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger (if other than the Guaranteeing Subsidiary) or to which such sale, assignment, transfer, lease, conveyance or other disposition will have been made is a corporation organized or existing under the laws of the jurisdiction of organization of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary, as the case may be, or the laws of the United States, any state thereof, the District of Columbia, or any territory thereof (the Guaranteeing Subsidiary or such Person, as the case may be, being herein called the “Successor Person”);

(B) the Successor Person, if other than the Guaranteeing Subsidiary, expressly assumes all the obligations of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary under the Indenture and the Guaranteeing Subsidiary’s related Guarantee pursuant to supplemental indentures or other documents or instruments in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee;

(C) immediately after such transaction, no Default exists; and

(D) the Issuers shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officer’s Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that such consolidation, merger or transfer and such supplemental indentures, if any, comply with the Indenture; or

(ii) the transaction is made in compliance with Section 4.10 of the Indenture;

(b) Subject to certain limitations set forth in the Indenture, the Successor Person will succeed to, and be substituted for, the Guaranteeing Subsidiary under the Indenture and the Guaranteeing Subsidiary’s Guarantee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Guaranteeing Subsidiary may merge into or transfer all or part of its properties and assets to another Guarantor or the Issuers.

(5) Releases.

The Guarantee of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall be automatically and unconditionally released and discharged, and no further action by the Guaranteeing Subsidiary, the Issuers or the Trustee is required for the release of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary's Guarantee, upon:

- (A) any sale, exchange or transfer (by merger or otherwise) of the Capital Stock of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary (including any sale, exchange or transfer), after which the Guaranteeing Subsidiary is no longer a Restricted Subsidiary or all or substantially all the assets of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary which sale, exchange or transfer is made in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Indenture;
 - (B) the release or discharge of the guarantee by the Guaranteeing Subsidiary of the Senior Credit Facilities or the guarantee which resulted in the creation of the Guarantee, except a discharge or release by or as a result of payment under such guarantee;
 - (C) the proper designation of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary; or
 - (D) the Issuers exercising its Legal Defeasance option or Covenant Defeasance option in accordance with Article 8 of the Indenture or the Issuers's obligations under the Indenture being discharged in accordance with the terms of the Indenture; and
- (2) the Guaranteeing Subsidiary delivering to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent provided for in the Indenture relating to such transaction have been complied with.

(6) No Recourse Against Others. No director, officer, employee, incorporator or stockholder of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall have any liability for any obligations of the Issuers or the Guarantors (including the Guaranteeing Subsidiary) under the Notes, any Guarantees, the Indenture or this Supplemental Indenture or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation. Each Holder by accepting Notes waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the Notes.

(7) Governing Law. THIS SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE WILL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

(8) Counterparts. The parties may sign any number of copies of this Supplemental Indenture. Each signed copy shall be an original, but all of them together represent the same agreement.

(9) Effect of Headings. The Section headings herein are for convenience only and shall not affect the construction hereof.

(10) The Trustee. The Trustee shall not be responsible in any manner whatsoever for or in respect of the validity or sufficiency of this Supplemental Indenture or for or in respect of the recitals contained herein, all of which recitals are made solely by the Guaranteeing Subsidiary.

The Guaranteeing Subsidiary acknowledges that it will receive direct and indirect benefits from the financing arrangements contemplated by the Indenture and this Supplemental Indenture and that the guarantees and waivers made by it pursuant to this Guarantee are knowingly made in contemplation of such benefits.

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE NO. 3

Supplemental Indenture No. 3 (this “Supplemental Indenture”), dated as of June 15, 2007, is by and between Einhundertsechsunneunzigste Verwaltungsgesellschaft Dammtor mbH (to be renamed Avago Technologies Fiber GmbH), a private limited liability company organized under the laws of Germany (“Guaranteeing Subsidiary”), a subsidiary of Avago Technologies Finance Pte. Ltd., a private limited company organized under the laws of the Republic of Singapore, and The Bank of New York, as trustee (the “Trustee”).

WITNESSETH

WHEREAS, each of the Issuers and the Guarantors (as defined in the Indenture referred to below) has heretofore executed and delivered to the Trustee an indenture (the “Indenture”), dated as of December 1, 2005, providing for the issuance of an unlimited aggregate principal amount of 11 ⁷/₈% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2015 (the “Notes”);

WHEREAS, the Indenture provides that under certain circumstances the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture pursuant to which the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall unconditionally guarantee all of the Issuers’ Obligations under the Notes and the Indenture on the terms and conditions set forth herein and under the Indenture (the “Guarantee”); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 9.01 of the Indenture, the Trustee is authorized to execute and deliver this Supplemental Indenture.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties mutually covenant and agree for the equal and ratable benefit of the Holders of the Notes as follows:

(1) Capitalized Terms. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Indenture.

(2) Agreement to Guarantee. The Guaranteeing Subsidiary hereby agrees as follows:

(a) Along with all other Guarantors named in the Indenture, to jointly and severally unconditionally guarantee to each Holder of a Note authenticated and delivered by the Trustee and to the Trustee and its successors and assigns, irrespective of the validity and enforceability of the Indenture, the Notes or the obligations of the Issuers hereunder or thereunder, that:

(i) the principal of and interest, premium and Additional Interest, if any, on the Notes will be promptly paid in full when due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, redemption or otherwise, and interest on the overdue principal of and interest on the Notes, if any, if lawful, and all other obligations of the Issuers to the Holders or the Trustee hereunder or thereunder will be promptly paid in full or performed, all in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof; and

(ii) in case of any extension of time of payment or renewal of any Notes or any of such other obligations, that same will be promptly paid in full when due or performed in accordance with the terms of the extension or renewal, whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise. Failing payment when due of any amount so guaranteed or any performance so guaranteed for whatever reason, the Guarantors and the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall be jointly and severally obligated to pay the same immediately. This is a guarantee of payment and not a guarantee of collection.

(b) The obligations hereunder shall be unconditional (to the extent legally permitted under the Guaranteeing Subsidiary's jurisdiction of organization) irrespective of the validity, regularity or enforceability of the Notes or the Indenture, the absence of any action to enforce the same, any waiver or consent by any Holder of the Notes with respect to any provisions hereof or thereof, the recovery of any judgment against the Issuers, any action to enforce the same or any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor.

(c) The following is hereby waived: diligence, presentment, demand of payment, filing of claims with a court in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Issuers, any right to require a proceeding first against the Issuers, protest, notice and all demands whatsoever.

(d) This Guarantee shall not be discharged except by complete performance of the obligations contained in the Notes, the Indenture and this Supplemental Indenture, and the Guaranteeing Subsidiary accepts all obligations of a Guarantor under the Indenture.

(e) If any Holder or the Trustee is required by any court or otherwise to return to the Issuers, the Guarantors (including the Guaranteeing Subsidiary), or any custodian, trustee, liquidator or other similar official acting in relation to either the Issuers or the Guarantors, any amount paid either to the Trustee or such Holder, this Guarantee, to the extent theretofore discharged, shall be reinstated in full force and effect.

(f) The Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall not be entitled to any right of subrogation in relation to the Holders in respect of any obligations guaranteed hereby until payment in full of all obligations guaranteed hereby.

(g) As between the Guaranteeing Subsidiary, on the one hand, and the Holders and the Trustee, on the other hand, (x) the maturity of the obligations guaranteed hereby may be accelerated as provided in Article 6 of the Indenture for the purposes of the Guarantee, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the obligations guaranteed hereby, and (y) in the event of any declaration of acceleration of such obligations as provided in Article 6 of the Indenture, such obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by the Guaranteeing Subsidiary for the purpose of this Guarantee.

(h) The Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall have the right to seek contribution from any non-paying Guarantor so long as the exercise of such right does not impair the rights of the Holders under this Guarantee.

(i) Pursuant to Section 11.02 of the Indenture, after giving effect to all other contingent and fixed liabilities that are relevant under any applicable Bankruptcy Law or fraudulent conveyance laws, and after giving effect to any collections from, rights to receive contribution from or payments made by or on behalf of any other Guarantor in respect of the obligations of such other Guarantor under Article 11 of the Indenture, this new Guarantee shall be limited to the maximum amount permissible such that the obligations of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary under this Guarantee will not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance or otherwise violate applicable law as set forth in Article 11 of the Indenture. Notwithstanding any other provision of Article 11 of the Indenture or this Supplemental Indenture, the Guaranteeing Subsidiary may refuse to make any payments under this Guarantee to the extent any such payment results in a violation of Sections 30 et seq. German Limited Liabilities Company Act (GmbH-Gesetz). The Guaranteeing Subsidiary covenants to use all commercially reasonable efforts to maximize the amount payable under this Guarantee in accordance with German law.

(j) This Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and continue to be effective should any petition be filed by or against the Issuers for liquidation, reorganization, should the Issuers become insolvent or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or should a receiver or trustee be appointed for all or any significant part of the Issuers' assets, and shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment and performance of the Notes are, pursuant to applicable law, rescinded or reduced in amount, or must otherwise be restored or returned by any obligee on the Notes and Guarantee, whether as a "voidable preference," "fraudulent transfer" or otherwise, all as though such payment or performance had not been made. In the event that any payment or any part thereof, is rescinded, reduced, restored or returned, the Notes shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be reinstated and deemed reduced only by such amount paid and not so rescinded, reduced, restored or returned.

(k) In case any provision of this Guarantee shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

Supplemental Indenture No. 4 (this "Supplemental Indenture"), dated as of December 13, 2007, among Avago Technologies General Hungary Vagyonkezelő Kft, a limited liability company organized under the laws of Hungary, and Avago Technologies Wireless Hungary Vagyonkezelő Kft, a limited liability company organized under the laws of Hungary (together, the "Guaranteeing Subsidiaries" and, each, a "Guaranteeing Subsidiary"), each a subsidiary of Avago Technologies Finance Pte. Ltd., a private limited company organized under the laws of the Republic of Singapore, and The Bank of New York, as trustee (the "Trustee").

W I T N E S S E T H

WHEREAS, each of the Issuers and the Guarantors (as defined in the Indenture referred to below) has heretofore executed and delivered to the Trustee an indenture (the "Indenture"), dated as of December 1, 2005, as heretofore amended, providing for the issuance of an unlimited aggregate principal amount of 10^{1/8}% Senior Notes due 2013 and Senior Floating Rate Notes due 2013 (together, the "Notes");

WHEREAS, the Indenture provides that under certain circumstances the Guaranteeing Subsidiaries shall execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture pursuant to which the Guaranteeing Subsidiaries shall unconditionally guarantee all of the Issuers' Obligations under the Notes and the Indenture on the terms and conditions set forth herein and under the Indenture (the "Guarantee"); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 9.01 of the Indenture, the Trustee is authorized to execute and deliver this Supplemental Indenture.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties mutually covenant and agree for the equal and ratable benefit of the Holders of the Notes as follows:

(1) Capitalized Terms. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Indenture.

(2) Agreement to Guarantee. Each Guaranteeing Subsidiary hereby agrees as follows:

(a) Along with all other Guarantors named in the Indenture, to jointly and severally unconditionally guarantee to each Holder of a Note authenticated and delivered by the Trustee and to the Trustee and its successors and assigns, irrespective of the validity and enforceability of the Indenture, the Notes or the obligations of the Issuers hereunder or thereunder, that:

(i) the principal of and interest, premium and Additional Interest, if any, on the Notes will be promptly paid in full when due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, redemption or otherwise, and interest on the overdue principal of and interest on the Notes, if any, if lawful, and all other obligations of the Issuers to the Holders or the Trustee hereunder or thereunder will be promptly paid in full or performed, all in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof; and

(ii) in case of any extension of time of payment or renewal of any Notes or any of such other obligations, that same will be promptly paid in full when due or performed in accordance with the terms of the extension or renewal, whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise. Failing payment when due of any amount so guaranteed or any performance so guaranteed for whatever reason, the Guarantors and the Guaranteeing Subsidiaries shall be jointly and severally obligated to pay the same immediately. This is a guarantee of payment and not a guarantee of collection.

(b) The obligations hereunder shall be unconditional (to the extent legally permitted under such Guaranteeing Subsidiary's jurisdiction of organization), irrespective of the validity, regularity or enforceability of the Notes or the Indenture, the absence of any action to enforce the same, any waiver or consent by any Holder of the Notes with respect to any provisions hereof or thereof, the recovery of any judgment against the Issuers, any action to enforce the same or any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor.

(c) The following is hereby waived: diligence, presentment, demand of payment, filing of claims with a court in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Issuers, any right to require a proceeding first against the Issuers, protest, notice and all demands whatsoever.

(d) The Guarantees shall not be discharged except by complete performance of the obligations contained in the Notes, the Indenture and this Supplemental Indenture, and each Guaranteeing Subsidiary accepts all obligations of a Guarantor under the Indenture.

(e) If any Holder or the Trustee is required by any court or otherwise to return to the Issuers, the Guarantors (including the Guaranteeing Subsidiaries), or any custodian, trustee, liquidator or other similar official acting in relation to either the Issuers or the Guarantors, any amount paid either to the Trustee or such Holder, these Guarantees, to the extent theretofore discharged, shall be reinstated in full force and effect.

(f) No Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall be entitled to any right of subrogation in relation to the Holders in respect of any obligations guaranteed hereby until payment in full of all obligations guaranteed hereby.

(g) As between the Guaranteeing Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and the Holders and the Trustee, on the other hand, (x) the maturity of the obligations guaranteed hereby may be accelerated as provided in Article 6 of the Indenture for the purposes of these Guarantees, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the obligations guaranteed hereby, and (y) in the event of any declaration of acceleration of such obligations as provided in Article 6 of the Indenture, such obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by the Guaranteeing Subsidiaries for the purpose of the Guarantees.

(h) Each Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall have the right to seek contribution from any non-paying Guarantor so long as the exercise of such right does not impair the rights of the Holders under the Guarantees.

(i) Pursuant to Section 10.02 of the Indenture, after giving effect to all other contingent and fixed liabilities that are relevant under any applicable Bankruptcy Law or fraudulent conveyance laws, and after giving effect to any collections from, rights to receive contribution from or payments made by or on behalf of any other Guarantor in respect of the obligations of such other Guarantor under Article 10 of the Indenture, the new Guarantees shall be limited to the maximum amount permissible such that the obligations of such Guaranteeing Subsidiary under the Guarantees will not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance or otherwise violate applicable law as set forth in Article 10 of the Indenture.

(j) The Guarantees shall remain in full force and effect and continue to be effective should any petition be filed by or against the Issuers for liquidation, reorganization, should the Issuers become insolvent or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or should a receiver or trustee be appointed for all or any significant part of the Issuers' assets, and shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment and performance of the Notes are, pursuant to applicable law, rescinded or reduced in amount, or must otherwise be restored or returned by any obligee on the Notes and Guarantees, whether as a "voidable preference," "fraudulent transfer" or otherwise, all as though such payment or performance had not been made. In the event that any payment or any part thereof, is rescinded, reduced, restored or returned, the Notes shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be reinstated and deemed reduced only by such amount paid and not so rescinded, reduced, restored or returned.

(k) In case any provision of the Guarantees shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

(l) The Guarantees shall be a general unsecured senior obligation of each Guaranteeing Subsidiary, ranking pari passu with any other future Senior Indebtedness of each Guaranteeing Subsidiary, if any.

(m) Each payment to be made by each Guaranteeing Subsidiary in respect of the Guarantees shall be made without set-off, counterclaim, reduction or diminution of any kind or nature.

(3) Execution and Delivery. Each Guaranteeing Subsidiary agrees that these Guarantees shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the absence of the endorsement of any notation of such Guarantees on the Notes.

(4) Merger, Consolidation or Sale of All or Substantially All Assets.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.01(c) of the Indenture, no Guaranteeing Subsidiary may consolidate or merge with or into or wind up into (whether or not the Issuers or a Guaranteeing Subsidiary is the surviving corporation), or sell, assign, transfer, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its properties or assets, in one or more related transactions, to any Person unless:

(B) the Successor Person, if other than the Guaranteeing Subsidiary, expressly assumes all the obligations of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary under the Indenture and the Guaranteeing Subsidiary’s related Guarantee pursuant to supplemental indentures or other documents or instruments in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee;

(C) immediately after such transaction, no Default exists; and

(D) the Issuers shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officer’s Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that such consolidation, merger or transfer and such supplemental indentures, if any, comply with the Indenture; or

(ii) the transaction is made in compliance with Section 4.10 of the Indenture;

(b) Subject to certain limitations set forth in the Indenture, the Successor Person will succeed to, and be substituted for, the Guaranteeing Subsidiary under the Indenture and the Guaranteeing Subsidiary’s Guarantee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Guaranteeing Subsidiary may merge into or transfer all or part of its properties and assets to another Guarantor or the Issuers.

(5) Releases.

The Guarantee of each Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall be automatically and unconditionally released and discharged, and no further action by the applicable Guaranteeing Subsidiary, the Issuers or the Trustee is required for the release of such Guaranteeing Subsidiary’s Guarantee, upon:

(1) (A) any sale, exchange or transfer (by merger or otherwise) of the Capital Stock of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary (including any sale, exchange or transfer), after which the Guaranteeing Subsidiary is no longer a Restricted Subsidiary or all or substantially all the assets of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary which sale, exchange or transfer is made in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Indenture;

Each Holder by accepting Notes waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the Notes.

WHEREAS, the Indenture provides that under certain circumstances the Guaranteeing Subsidiaries shall execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture pursuant to which the Guaranteeing Subsidiaries shall unconditionally guarantee all of the Issuers' Obligations under the Notes and the Indenture on the terms and conditions set forth herein and under the Indenture (the "Guarantee"); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 9.01 of the Indenture, the Trustee is authorized to execute and deliver this Supplemental Indenture.

(2) Agreement to Guarantee. Each Guaranteeing Subsidiary hereby agrees as follows:

(a) Along with all other Guarantors named in the Indenture, to jointly and severally unconditionally guarantee to each Holder of a Note authenticated and delivered by the Trustee and to the Trustee and its successors and assigns, irrespective of the validity and enforceability of the Indenture, the Notes or the obligations of the Issuers hereunder or thereunder, that:

(i) the principal of and interest, premium and Additional Interest, if any, on the Notes will be promptly paid in full when due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, redemption or otherwise, and interest on the overdue principal of and interest on the Notes, if any, if lawful, and all other obligations of the Issuers to the Holders or the Trustee hereunder or thereunder will be promptly paid in full or performed, all in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof; and

(ii) in case of any extension of time of payment or renewal of any Notes or any of such other obligations, that same will be promptly paid in full when due or performed in accordance with the terms of the extension or renewal, whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise. Failing payment when due of any amount so guaranteed or any performance so guaranteed for whatever reason, the Guarantors and the Guaranteeing Subsidiaries shall be jointly and severally obligated to pay the same immediately. This is a guarantee of payment and not a guarantee of collection.

(b) The obligations hereunder shall be unconditional (to the extent legally permitted under such Guaranteeing Subsidiary's jurisdiction of organization), irrespective of the validity, regularity or enforceability of the Notes or the Indenture, the absence of any action to enforce the same, any waiver or consent by any Holder of the Notes with respect to any provisions hereof or thereof, the recovery of any judgment against the Issuers, any action to enforce the same or any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor.

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE NO. 5

Supplemental Indenture No. 5 (this “Supplemental Indenture”), dated as of February 28, 2008, is by and between Avago Technologies Trading Ltd, a private company limited by shares organized under the laws of Mauritius (the “Guaranteeing Subsidiary”), a subsidiary of Avago Technologies Finance Pte. Ltd., a private limited company organized under the laws of the Republic of Singapore, and The Bank of New York, as trustee (the “Trustee”).

W I T N E S S E T H

WHEREAS, each of the Issuers and the Guarantors (as defined in the Indenture referred to below) has heretofore executed and delivered to the Trustee an indenture (the “Indenture”), dated as of December 1, 2005, as heretofore amended, providing for the issuance of an unlimited aggregate principal amount of 10 ¹/₈% Senior Notes due 2013 and Senior Floating Rate Notes due 2013 (together, the “Notes”);

WHEREAS, the Indenture provides that under certain circumstances the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture pursuant to which the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall unconditionally guarantee all of the Issuers’ Obligations under the Notes and the Indenture on the terms and conditions set forth herein and under the Indenture (the “Guarantee”); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 9.01 of the Indenture, the Trustee is authorized to execute and deliver this Supplemental Indenture.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties mutually covenant and agree for the equal and ratable benefit of the Holders of the Notes as follows:

(1) Capitalized Terms. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Indenture.

(2) Agreement to Guarantee. The Guaranteeing Subsidiary hereby agrees as follows:

(a) Along with all other Guarantors named in the Indenture, to jointly and severally unconditionally guarantee to each Holder of a Note authenticated and delivered by the Trustee and to the Trustee and its successors and assigns, irrespective of the validity and enforceability of the Indenture, the Notes or the obligations of the Issuers hereunder or thereunder, that:

(i) the principal of and interest, premium and Additional Interest, if any, on the Notes will be promptly paid in full when due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, redemption or otherwise, and interest on the overdue principal of and interest on the Notes, if any, if lawful, and all other obligations of the Issuers to the Holders or the Trustee hereunder or thereunder will be promptly paid in full or performed, all in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof; and

(ii) in case of any extension of time of payment or renewal of any Notes or any of such other obligations, that same will be promptly paid in full when due or performed in accordance with the terms of the extension or renewal, whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise. Failing payment when due of any amount so guaranteed or any performance so guaranteed for whatever reason, the Guarantors and the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall be jointly and severally obligated to pay the same immediately. This is a guarantee of payment and not a guarantee of collection.

(b) The obligations hereunder shall be unconditional (to the extent legally permitted under the Guaranteeing Subsidiary's jurisdiction of organization), irrespective of the validity, regularity or enforceability of the Notes or the Indenture, the absence of any action to enforce the same, any waiver or consent by any Holder of the Notes with respect to any provisions hereof or thereof, the recovery of any judgment against the Issuers, any action to enforce the same or any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor.

(c) The following is hereby waived: diligence, presentment, demand of payment, filing of claims with a court in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Issuers, any right to require a proceeding first against the Issuers, protest, notice and all demands whatsoever.

(d) This Guarantee shall not be discharged except by complete performance of the obligations contained in the Notes, the Indenture and this Supplemental Indenture, and the Guaranteeing Subsidiary accepts all obligations of a Guarantor under the Indenture.

(e) If any Holder or the Trustee is required by any court or otherwise to return to the Issuers, the Guarantors (including the Guaranteeing Subsidiary), or any custodian, trustee, liquidator or other similar official acting in relation to either the Issuers or the Guarantors, any amount paid either to the Trustee or such Holder, this Guarantee, to the extent theretofore discharged, shall be reinstated in full force and effect.

(f) The Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall not be entitled to any right of subrogation in relation to the Holders in respect of any obligations guaranteed hereby until payment in full of all obligations guaranteed hereby.

(g) As between the Guaranteeing Subsidiary, on the one hand, and the Holders and the Trustee, on the other hand, (x) the maturity of the obligations guaranteed hereby may be accelerated as provided in Article 6 of the Indenture for the purposes of this Guarantee, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the obligations guaranteed hereby, and (y) in the event of any declaration of acceleration of such obligations as provided in Article 6 of the Indenture, such obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by the Guaranteeing Subsidiary for the purpose of this Guarantee.

(h) The Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall have the right to seek contribution from any non-paying Guarantor so long as the exercise of such right does not impair the rights of the Holders under this Guarantee.

(i) Pursuant to Section 10.02 of the Indenture, after giving effect to all other contingent and fixed liabilities that are relevant under any applicable Bankruptcy Law or fraudulent conveyance laws, and after giving effect to any collections from, rights to receive contribution from or payments made by or on behalf of any other Guarantor in respect of the obligations of such other Guarantor under Article 10 of the Indenture, this new Guarantee shall be limited to the maximum amount permissible such that the obligations of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary under this Guarantee will not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance or otherwise violate applicable law as set out in Article 10 of the Indenture.

(j) This Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and continue to be effective should any petition be filed by or against the Issuers for liquidation, reorganization, should the Issuers become insolvent or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or should a receiver or trustee be appointed for all or any significant part of the Issuers' assets, and shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment and performance of the Notes are, pursuant to applicable law, rescinded or reduced in amount, or must otherwise be restored or returned by any obligee on the Notes and Guarantee, whether as a "voidable preference," "fraudulent transfer" or otherwise, all as though such payment or performance had not been made. In the event that any payment or any part thereof, is rescinded, reduced, restored or returned, the Notes shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be reinstated and deemed reduced only by such amount paid and not so rescinded, reduced, restored or returned.

(k) In case any provision of this Guarantee shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

(l) This Guarantee shall be a general unsecured senior obligation of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary, ranking pari passu with any other future Senior Indebtedness of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary, if any.

(m) Each payment to be made by the Guaranteeing Subsidiary in respect of this Guarantee shall be made without set-off, counterclaim, reduction or diminution of any kind or nature.

(3) Execution and Delivery. The Guaranteeing Subsidiary agrees that the Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the absence of the endorsement of any notation of such Guarantee on the Notes.

(4) Merger, Consolidation or Sale of All or Substantially All Assets.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.01(c) of the Indenture, the Guaranteeing Subsidiary may not consolidate or merge with or into or wind up into (whether or not the Issuers or the Guaranteeing Subsidiary is the surviving corporation), or sell, assign, transfer, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its properties or assets, in one or more related transactions, to any Person unless:

(i) (A) the Guaranteeing Subsidiary is the surviving corporation or the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger (if other than the Guaranteeing Subsidiary) or to which such sale, assignment, transfer, lease, conveyance or other disposition will have been made is a corporation organized or existing under the laws of the jurisdiction of organization of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary, as the case may be, or the laws of the United States, any state thereof, the District of Columbia, or any territory thereof (the Guaranteeing Subsidiary or such Person, as the case may be, being herein called the “Successor Person”);

(B) the Successor Person, if other than the Guaranteeing Subsidiary, expressly assumes all the obligations of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary under the Indenture and the Guaranteeing Subsidiary’s related Guarantee pursuant to supplemental indentures or other documents or instruments in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee;

(C) immediately after such transaction, no Default exists; and

(D) the Issuers shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officer’s Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that such consolidation, merger or transfer and such supplemental indentures, if any, comply with the Indenture; or

(ii) the transaction is made in compliance with Section 4.10 of the Indenture;

(b) Subject to certain limitations set forth in the Indenture, the Successor Person will succeed to, and be substituted for, the Guaranteeing Subsidiary under the Indenture and the Guaranteeing Subsidiary’s Guarantee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Guaranteeing Subsidiary may merge into or transfer all or part of its properties and assets to another Guarantor or the Issuers.

(5) Releases.

The Guarantee of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall be automatically and unconditionally released and discharged, and no further action by the Guaranteeing Subsidiary, the Issuers or the Trustee is required for the release of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary’s Guarantee, upon:

(A) any sale, exchange or transfer (by merger or otherwise) of the Capital Stock of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary (including any sale, exchange or transfer), after which the Guaranteeing Subsidiary is no longer a Restricted Subsidiary or all or substantially all the assets of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary which sale, exchange or transfer is made in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Indenture;

(B) the release or discharge of the guarantee by the Guaranteeing Subsidiary of the Senior Credit Facilities or the guarantee which resulted in the creation of the Guarantee, except a discharge or release by or as a result of payment under such guarantee;

- (C) the proper designation of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary; or

- (2) the Guaranteeing Subsidiary delivering to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent provided for in the Indenture relating to such transaction have been complied with.
- (6) No Recourse Against Others. No director, officer, employee, incorporator or stockholder of the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall have any liability for any obligations of the Issuers or the Guarantors (including the Guaranteeing Subsidiary) under the Notes, any Guarantees, the Indenture or this Supplemental Indenture or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation. Each Holder by accepting Notes waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the Notes.
- (7) Governing Law. THIS SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE WILL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.
- (8) Counterparts. The parties may sign any number of copies of this Supplemental Indenture. Each signed copy shall be an original, but all of them together represent the same agreement.

- (11) Subrogation. The Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall be subrogated to all rights of Holders of Notes against the Issuers in respect of any amounts paid by the Guaranteeing Subsidiary pursuant to the provisions of Section 2 hereof and Section 10.01 of the Indenture; provided that, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall not be entitled to enforce or receive any payments arising out of, or based upon, such right of subrogation until all amounts then due and payable by the Issuers under the Indenture or the Notes shall have been paid in full.

(12) Benefits Acknowledged. The Guaranteeing Subsidiary's Guarantee is subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Indenture. The Guaranteeing Subsidiary acknowledges that it will receive direct and indirect benefits from the financing arrangements contemplated by the Indenture and this Supplemental Indenture and that the guarantee and waivers made by it pursuant to this Guarantee are knowingly made in contemplation of such benefits.

WHEREAS, the Indenture provides that under certain circumstances the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture pursuant to which the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall unconditionally guarantee all of the Issuers’ Obligations under the Notes and the Indenture on the terms and conditions set forth herein and under the Indenture (the “Guarantee”); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 9.01 of the Indenture, the Trustee is authorized to execute and deliver this Supplemental Indenture.

(2) Agreement to Guarantee. The Guaranteeing Subsidiary hereby agrees as follows:

(a) Along with all other Guarantors named in the Indenture, to jointly and severally unconditionally guarantee to each Holder of a Note authenticated and delivered by the Trustee and to the Trustee and its successors and assigns, irrespective of the validity and enforceability of the Indenture, the Notes or the obligations of the Issuers hereunder or thereunder, that:

(i) the principal of and interest, premium and Additional Interest, if any, on the Notes will be promptly paid in full when due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, redemption or otherwise, and interest on the overdue principal of and interest on the Notes, if any, if lawful, and all other obligations of the Issuers to the Holders or the Trustee hereunder or thereunder will be promptly paid in full or performed, all in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof; and

(ii) in case of any extension of time of payment or renewal of any Notes or any of such other obligations, that same will be promptly paid in full when due or performed in accordance with the terms of the extension or renewal, whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise. Failing payment when due of any amount so guaranteed or any performance so guaranteed for whatever reason, the Guarantors and the Guaranteeing Subsidiary shall be jointly and severally obligated to pay the same immediately. This is a guarantee of payment and not a guarantee of collection.

(b) The obligations hereunder shall be unconditional (to the extent legally permitted under the Guaranteeing Subsidiary's jurisdiction of organization) irrespective of the validity, regularity or enforceability of the Notes or the Indenture, the absence of any action to enforce the same, any waiver or consent by any Holder of the Notes with respect to any provisions hereof or thereof, the recovery of any judgment against the Issuers, any action to enforce the same or any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor.

Re: Avago Technologies Limited
Amendment No. 1 to Registration Statement on Form S-1
File No. 333-153127

Ladies and Gentlemen:

On behalf of Avago Technologies Limited (the “Company” or “Avago”), we are hereby filing Amendment No. 1 (“Amendment No. 1”) to the Company’s above-referenced Registration Statement on Form S-1, which was initially filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) on August 21, 2008 (the “Registration Statement”). For your convenience, we have enclosed a courtesy package which includes eight copies of Amendment No. 1, four of which have been marked to show changes from the original filing of the Registration Statement.

Amendment No. 1 has been revised to reflect the Company’s responses to the comments received by facsimile on September 17, 2008 from the staff of the Commission (the “Staff”). For ease of review, we have set forth each of the numbered comments of your letter and the Company’s responses thereto.

- Please confirm that any preliminary prospectus you circulate will include all non-Rule 430A information. This includes the price range and related information based on a bona fide estimate of the public offering price within that range and other information that was left blank throughout the document.

Response: The Company confirms that any preliminary prospectus the Company circulates will include all non-Rule 430A information, including the price range and related information based on a bona fide estimate of the public offering price within that range and other information that was left blank throughout the document.

Enforcement of Civil Liabilities, pages ii and 29

2. We note your statement that, because there is no treaty between the United States and Singapore providing for the reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments, a U.S. court judgment based on civil liability, whether or not predicated solely upon the federal securities laws, would not be “automatically enforceable” in Singapore. Plainly disclose whether an investor would have difficulty bringing an action in a Singapore court to enforce a U.S. court judgment based upon the civil liabilities of the U.S. federal securities laws against you and your non-U.S. officers, directors and principal shareholders.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to plainly disclose that it may be difficult for an investor to enforce against the Company, its directors or officers in Singapore judgments obtained in the United States based upon the civil liabilities provisions of the U.S. federal securities laws.

Industry and Market Data, page ii

3. Please tell us whether you commissioned the third-party data, whether the data was prepared for use in the registration statement, and whether you were related to the third parties who provided the data. Also tell us whether you received the consent of the third parties to use their data as you have in your registration statement.

Response: The Company’s source for third-party market data in the Registration Statement, World Semiconductor Trade Statistics (“WSTS”), is a service organization for the world semiconductor industry, which among other things collects and publishes data relating to trade net shipments as well as semiconductor industry annual reports and forecasts. WSTS is primarily funded by membership fees of participating semiconductor companies, and these members, including the Company, submit revenue data that is used by WSTS to generate reports and forecasts in the semiconductor industry. According to WSTS, their 70 member companies represent close to 80% of the world semiconductor market. Avago has been a member since its formation in 2005, paid membership fees and contributed its revenue information to WSTS. Avago’s predecessors, the semiconductor divisions of Agilent Technologies, Inc. (“Agilent” or “Predecessor”) and Hewlett-Packard Company, were also members of WSTS. The WSTS data included in the Registration Statement was not commissioned by the Company or prepared for use in the Registration Statement. The WSTS data included in the Registration Statement is free to its members and publicly available for a subscription fee.

WSTS has not provided its consent to the Company’s use of its name and data in the Registration Statement. The Company respectfully submits that the Company does not believe such consent is necessary because the WSTS reports and data contained in the Registration Statement were not prepared for or on behalf of the Company, are generally available to the public, and were not prepared in contemplation of a securities offering by the Company or any other party. Accordingly, the Company does not believe that the above-referenced statistical data qualifies as a quote from the report of an expert within the meaning of Rule 436 of Regulation C and Item 601(b)(23) of Regulation S-K.

4. If you elect to highlight your “diversified...customer base of approximately 40,000 customers...,” please provide an equally prominent summary of your customer concentration as mentioned on page 19.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to provide a summary of customer concentration in the “Prospectus Summary” and otherwise clarified this disclosure.

- 5. Please tell us the objective criteria used to determine which customers to highlight in your summary; tell us whether you have identified all customers who satisfy these criteria. Please also provide us similar information regarding the customers identified in the table on page 80.

Response: The Company has adjusted the customer names included in Amendment No. 1 based on information as of August 3, 2008, the end of the Company’s third fiscal quarter. The criteria used to determine the original equipment manufacturers (“OEMs”) first identified on page 2 is that each of these OEM customers was among the top 15 OEM customers by revenue for the first three quarters of fiscal year 2008. The criteria used to determine the major end customers identified on page 84 of Amendment No. 1 is that in each target market, each of these end customers was among the top 7 end customers by revenue for the first three quarters of fiscal year 2008. Revenues include direct sales to these customers combined with indirect sales made on behalf of the customer to contract manufacturers that these customers utilize. The Company has not identified all customers who satisfy these criteria, because it is not possible to obtain comprehensive data on indirect sales to every customer.

- 6. If you elect to highlight your revenues, please provide an equally prominent summary of your net income/loss.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to provide a summary of net income/loss in the “Prospectus Summary.”

- 7. We note that you currently include in your prospectus summary separately captioned and explained paragraphs that describe your strengths and strategies while merely including a one-sentence cross-reference to your risks and challenges. If it is appropriate to include this level of detail regarding your strengths and strategies in your summary, you should balance your disclosure with equally prominent disclosure of your risks and challenges.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to provide further details regarding the risks facing its business in the “Prospectus Summary.”

Risk Factors, page 10

- 8. Your risk factors must immediately follow your one-page prospectus cover or your prospectus summary. While we do not object to the information on your table of contents page, please relocate other disclosure to a more appropriate section of your document.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to relocate the disclosure in question to a later section of the document.

Risks relating to our Business, page 10

We operate in the highly cyclical semiconductor industry, page 10

9. Please tell us whether you have any more current data than the 2001 information you cite.

Response: The Company respectfully submits that while there are more recent semiconductor industry reports published by WSTS, 2001 data was chosen for this disclosure because the 32% market decline in 2001 illustrates the historical potential for a very significant market downturn in the semiconductor industry. The semiconductor industry has not experienced a greater annual downturn since 2001.

We utilize a significant amount of intellectual Property in our business..., page 18

10. If you currently conduct, or expect to conduct, a material portion of your business in the People's Republic of China ("PRC"), then identify the PRC as one of the jurisdictions in which intellectual property protection has been weak.

Response: The Company has only 83 of its approximately 3,600 employees in the PRC. While the Company sources products and services in the PRC, the end market for these products is generally industrialized economies which have in place varying legal regimes relating to intellectual property protection. Accordingly, the Company does not believe that a specific call-out of the PRC would be helpful, but instead has modified the disclosure to attempt to clarify its intended risk factor.

We generally do not have any long-term supply contracts, page 20

11. Please reconcile the first paragraph of this risk factor regarding the absence of long-term contracts with the third paragraph regarding long-term contractual commitments. File material contracts as exhibits to your registration statement.

Response: The Company respectfully submits that the language in the third paragraph was intended to convey that often in the early stages of a new business relationship there is a need to offer more significant commitments (volume or otherwise) in order to attract a higher caliber business partner who is likely to be in higher demand. Generally, however, no long-term contractual commitments exist since the business is typically conducted on a purchase order basis. The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to clarify the intended disclosure.

The Company respectfully submits that its contracts with suppliers and contract manufacturers are typically conducted on a purchase order basis as disclosed in the Registration Statement. The Company submits that, by their nature, these purchase orders do not qualify as "material contracts" within the meaning of Item 601(b)(10) of Regulation S-K. As indicated in the first paragraph of the risk factor, the fundamental economic substance and the primary reason for the risk factor is that the Company relies as a business matter on the willingness of the suppliers and similar parties to accept future purchase orders. There is no contractual assurance that those future purchase orders will be accepted.

The Company has again reviewed its files and determined that none of its supply agreements represent individually material future contractual commitments. In this respect, the Company respectfully refers the Staff to its "Contractual Commitments" disclosure in the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Position and Results of Operation" whereby it disclosed that, at October 31, 2007, the aggregate of all future purchase obligations across all vendors was $25 million (1.6 percent of revenue for that year).

We rely on third parties, page 20

- 12. Please file as exhibits to your registration statement the agreements that generate this risk.

Response: The Company has reviewed this matter and respectfully submits that it is not party to any contract of the sort described in this risk factor which individually represents a material contract for purposes of Item 601(b)(10) of Regulation S-K. The Company's IT outsourcing program involves multiple vendors and multiple contracts with vendors. As of September 2008, the largest single contract for services of the type described in the risk factor presently represents an annual expenditure of approximately $9 million per year. This amount represents only 0.6 percent of the Company's total costs and expenses for the four quarters ended August 3, 2008.

We will be required to assess our internal control over financial reporting, page 26

- 13. Please tell us how you concluded that you will be required to comply with the management's reporting obligation for your year ending October 31, 2008 and the auditor's reporting obligation for your year ending October 31, 2009. Include in your response the specific authority on which you rely.

Response: The disclosure in the Registration Statement assumes that the Company's initial public offering is completed prior to November 2, 2008 (the end of its current fiscal year) and it is an "accelerated filer" on the last day of its second fiscal quarter in fiscal year 2009. The Company is entitled to defer compliance with Section 404 in the year of its initial public offering by operation of Instruction 1 to Item 308 of Regulation S-K. See also Commission Release No. 33-8760. However, the Company intends to adopt the phase-in period for Section 404(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act to which its subsidiary, Avago Technologies Finance Pte. Ltd. ("Avago Finance"), a voluntary filer with outstanding debt securities, is subject. Avago Finance's phase-in schedule for Section 404(a) compliance is established by Item 308T of Regulation S-K since it is not an accelerated filer. The disclosure in Amendment No. 1 has been modified to clarify the foregoing.

The Company intends to reconsider its position and related disclosure if its initial public offering is not completed by November 2, 2008, the end of its current fiscal year.

The indentures, page 28

- 14. If any of your debt obligations provide that a default under other obligations is also considered to be a default under that debt obligation, please clarify the extent of such cross-default clauses.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to include a description of the cross-default provisions in the Company's debt instruments.

For a limited period of time...., page 29

- 15. Please clarify whether the number of shares that could be issued as a result of the previously approved general authority is unlimited and includes preference shares. If the new shares could have preferential voting rights, please say so directly.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to include the requested disclosure regarding the nature of the advance approval.

16. Please quantify the redemption premium and accrued interest to be paid with proceeds of this offering.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to contemplate the requested information. This information will be completed when pricing information is inserted and a closing date for the offering can be estimated. An estimated closing date is necessary to calculate the requested amounts.

18. Please revise to disclose the specific assumptions and methodologies used by your Board of Directors to estimate the fair value of your ordinary shares for purposes of determining share-based compensation expense. In addition, disclose your assumption for the likelihood of a liquidity event, such as an initial public offering, and indicate how this was determined. Disclose the estimated fair value of your ordinary shares at the date of each option issuance in the year preceding the contemplated offering. In addition, tell us when discussions were initiated with your underwriter(s) about possible offering price ranges and provide us a history of pricing discussions.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to disclose the specific assumptions and methodologies used by the Board of Directors to estimate the fair value of the ordinary shares for purposes of determining share-based compensation expense.

The Company supplementally advises the Staff that it performed a contemporaneous valuation of its ordinary shares as of July 1, 2008 to determine the fair value for option grants made in July 2008 and for purposes of determining share-based expense at period end for performance-based options which are accounted for under APB 25.

This valuation was prepared using the market-comparable approach and income approach to estimate the aggregate enterprise value. The Company also performed contemporaneous valuations in fiscal year 2007 and through April 2008 using the market-comparable approach.

The market-comparable approach indicates the fair value of a business based on a comparison of the subject company to comparable firms in similar lines of business that are publicly traded or which are part of a public or private transaction, as well as prior subject company transactions.

Each comparable company was selected based on various factors, including, but not limited to, industry similarity, financial risk, company size, geographic diversification, profitability, adequate financial data and an actively traded stock price.

The income approach is a valuation technique that provides an estimation of the fair value of a business based on the cash flows that a business can be expected to generate over its remaining life. This approach begins with an estimation of the annual cash flows an investor would expect the subject business to generate over a discrete projection period. The estimated cash flows for each of the years in the discrete projection periods are then converted to their present value equivalent using a rate of return appropriate for the risk of achieving the business' projected cash flows. The present value of the estimated cash flows are then added to the present value equivalent of the residual value of the business at the end of the discrete projection period to arrive at an estimate of the fair value of the business enterprise.

The Company prepared a financial forecast for each valuation to be used in the computation of the enterprise value for both the market-comparable approach and the income approach. The financial forecasts took into account past experience and future expectations. There is inherent uncertainty in these estimates.

The Company also considered the fact that its shareholders cannot presently transfer ordinary shares in the public markets or otherwise, except for highly limited transfers among family members. The estimated fair value of the Company's ordinary shares at each grant date reflected a non-marketability discount partially based on the anticipated likelihood and timing of a future liquidity event. In the determination of fair value of the ordinary shares, the non-marketability discount was 25% as of May 4, 2008 and October 31, 2007, and decreased to 10.5% in July 2008. In April 2008, the Company was not contemplating an initial public offering and thus a discount of 25% was considered appropriate. The discount was reduced to 10.5% in July 2008 based on the expectation of a liquidity event within the next 12 months.

The valuation as of July 1, 2008 resulted in a value of its ordinary shares of $10.68 per share.

The following table shows the share option activity over the past four quarters, including the weighted-average exercise price per share, weighted-average fair market value of the ordinary shares for financial reporting purposes:

Date of Grant	Number of Options Granted	Weighted Average Exercise Price Per Share	Weighted Average Fair Value of Ordinary Shares Per Share
Three Months Ended:
October 31, 2007	565,000	$10.22	$10.22
February 3, 2008	646,166	$10.22	$10.22
May 4, 2008	1,700,000	$10.22	$10.22
August 3, 2008	1,633,400	$10.62	$10.62

As a further reference point, in connection with the acquisition of the Company from Agilent on December 1, 2005, the equity investors who sponsored that transaction purchased a control position in the Company for $5.00 per ordinary share.

The Company believes that it has used reasonable methodologies, approaches and assumptions consistent with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Practice Guide, "Valuation of Privately-Held-Company Equity Securities Issued as Compensation," to determine the fair value of the ordinary shares.

Discussions with Underwriters

In connection with the selection of underwriters for the Company's proposed initial public offering, representatives from the Company interviewed nine investment banking firms on July 10 and 11, 2008. The investment banks interviewed were asked to prepare their presentation materials solely based on publicly available information and limited information provided by the Company, and were not permitted to conduct any due diligence procedures. The equity value estimates contained in the presentations made by the nine investment banks ranged from $2.8 billion to $4.5 billion.

The Company held an organizational meeting with the managing underwriters and other members of the working group on July 28, 2008. The Company provided only limited financial information at that meeting, and there was no substantive discussion of the Company's valuation or a price range for the proposed offering of ordinary shares.

On August 18, 2008, the Company met with several research analysts to provide information regarding the Company's technology, manufacturing process, sales and marketing approach and historical financials. The Company did not discuss valuations with such research analysts.

At a board meeting held on August 20, 2008, representatives of the underwriters met with certain members of management of the Company and the Board of Directors of the Company. During the meeting, the underwriters provided an IPO valuation matrix based on a fiscal year 2009 earnings forecast. At this meeting, based on information provided to the underwriters by the Company, the then-current economic and stock market conditions and market valuations of publicly traded companies that the underwriters believed to be comparable to the Company, the underwriters estimated a preliminary equity value for the Company of between $3.3 billion and $3.7 billion. This value was arrived at by applying price-earnings multiples to pro forma cash net income (excluding amortization of acquisition-related intangibles), and represented public trading values without any private company or similar illiquidity discount. Given volatility in the capital markets, however, the underwriters were not in a position to propose a bona fide offering range at this meeting.

The limited number of initial public offerings and disruptions in the capital markets in 2008 continue to raise concerns about the timing of the Company's proposed initial public offering.

The Company and the underwriters have not determined a proposed bona fide initial public offering price range. The Company will promptly inform the Staff via a supplemental letter when this determination has been made.

LATHAM & WATKINS LLP

19. Please note that we are deferring any final evaluation of stock compensation until the estimated offering price is specified, and we may have further comments in that regard when you file the amendment containing that information.

Response: The Company acknowledges the Staff's comment.

20. We reference the discussion in Note 2 on page 105 that during fiscal year 2007 you only expensed the performance vesting portion of options granted prior to your adoption of SFAS 123R. After the adoption of SFAS 123R you state that you expense both the time and performance vesting portions. Please tell how your accounting changed after the adoption of SFAS 123R.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to clarify that the performance-based options granted prior to the adoption of SFAS 123R were subject to variable accounting under APB 25.

The Company supplementally advises the Staff that the performance-based options granted prior to the adoption of SFAS 123R were subject to variable accounting under APB 25 and continued to be subject to variable accounting under the prospective transition method as disclosed in Note 11 to the Consolidated Financial Statements. The Company had not recorded any stock compensation under APB 25 for time-based option grants and as the minimum value method was used for pro forma disclosure purposes in fiscal year 2006, the fair value provisions of SFAS 123R were applicable to only new grants issued after the adoption of SFAS 123R.

21. Please analyze the effect of the erosion of selling prices mentioned on page 46 on the periods presented.

Response: The Company respectfully submits that it has not analyzed the erosion of average selling prices as an individual item on individual periods as this is a well-established industry trend which affects all historical and future periods. The decline in prices of established products is generally offset by higher prices of new products as well as lower costs. In order to analyze the impact on individual periods, the Company would have to arrive at attempted averages across many products to arrive at a data point the Company believes may not be a meaningful basis for comparison.

Contractual Commitments, page 68

22. Please explain the basis for your exclusion of the amounts mentioned in the last sentence of footnote (5) to the Contractual Commitments table from that table.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to include the amounts in footnote (5) in the Contractual Commitments table.

Industry Overview, page 72

23. Please tell us whether the industry statistics that you cite are equally applicable to the market for the "III-V based" products on which you say you focus.

Response: The Company respectfully submits that the cited market statistics for the analog market in “Industry Overview” are applicable because III-V based semiconductors are a subset of analog semiconductors. Analog is one of the commonly used main industry categories, others being digital semiconductors (e.g., microprocessors and programmable logic) and memory (e.g., DRAM and flash).

24. We note your references on pages 15 and 47 to negotiated agreements with the government of Singapore that impose operating conditions. Please describe those conditions, and file the agreements as exhibits to your registration statement.

Response: The Company has revised Amendment No. 1 to expand the disclosure regarding the operating conditions applicable to the tax incentives with the Singapore government.

The Company respectfully submits that Item 601 of Regulation S-K does not require a filing of the Company’s application for tax exemptions from the Singapore government and the related documents granting that exemption. The Company recognizes that paragraph (b)(10) of Item 601 requires the filing of “every contract not made in the ordinary course of business which is material to the registrant and is to be performed in whole or in part at or after the filing of the registration statement or report...” The Company does not believe an application for tax exemption and a sovereign tax authority’s granting of such an application is a “contract” as that term is used in paragraph (b)(10).

In coming to this conclusion, we have conducted a number of extensive database searches of exhibits filed with the Commission in connection with registration statements or periodic reports in compliance with Item 601. In conducting our research, we identified a significant number of companies that disclosed the existence of tax arrangements with foreign sovereigns, including Bermuda, Cayman Islands, China, India, Israel, Korea, Malaysia, Singapore and Switzerland. However, the results of these searches produced no exhibit filings under Item 601(b)(10) relating to tax agreements or tax concessions with foreign sovereigns. In fact, the search only found one such agreement on file, that being an agreement with the tax authority of the Cayman Islands filed under Item 8. That agreement, however, related in part to the taxation of the shareholders of that registrant, which explains the filing under Item 8 and distinguishes those facts from the type of tax incentive obtained by Avago.

In addition, we have reviewed the final Commission releases related to Item 601 and the Staff’s Compliance & Disclosure Interpretations of Regulation S-K, which discusses Item 601 in Sections 146 and 246. None of these interpretive materials discussed an application of Item 601 to tax concessions or other similar arrangements between a registrant and a governmental entity.

The Company respectfully submits that even if paragraph (b)(10) were to be viewed as encompassing the tax incentive documentation as a “contract,” a filing would not be required. If, for the sake of argument, an award of a tax incentive is viewed as a contract, in this case, it is the kind of arrangement that the registrant would enter into in the ordinary course of its business. The Company is multi-national in its operations and as such it will be a taxpayer in a number of jurisdictions. It is ordinary for multinational entities to apply for and receive incentives and understandings with local tax authorities regarding the basis on which they will pay taxes in the jurisdictions in which they operate. Paragraph (b)(10)(ii) of Item 601 provides “if a contract is such as ordinarily accompanies the kind of business conducted by the registrant and its subsidiaries, it will be deemed to have been made in the ordinary course of business and need not be filed unless it falls into one or more of the [specified] categories.” The categories specified in that subparagraph do not include applications for tax exemptions or the documents granting such exemptions. Subparagraph (B) of the specified items pertains to contracts upon which a registrant’s business is “substantially dependent, as in the case of continuing contracts to sell the major part of registrant’s products or services or to purchase the major part of registrant’s requirements of goods services or raw materials or any franchise or license or other agreement to use a patent, formula, trade secret, process or trade name upon which the registrant’s business depends to a material extent.” The Company does not believe the tax exemption is the type of commercial arrangement contemplated by subparagraph (B) nor a contract on which the registrant’s business depends to a material extent.

In conclusion, the Company respectfully submits that Item 601 should not be interpreted to require the filing of tax exemptions granted to registrants by U.S. or foreign governments. Consistent with this conclusion, we have not found examples of such filings by other public companies that have disclosed they are party to such arrangements, including other public companies organized under the laws of Singapore. Given that these agreements are typically the product of confidential negotiations, it would raise significant issues for foreign sovereigns if these agreements were made publicly available. The confidential treatment request process, which generally provides only limited confidentiality and which expires with the expiry of the related arrangements, would not fully address this concern.

25. We note your reference here to product families. We also note your disclosure on page 11 and in your Management’s Discussion and Analysis regarding the effects of your different product classes. Please provide the three-year revenue history by product class required by Regulation S-K Item 101(c)(1)(i).

Response: The Company respectfully submits that it develops, markets and sells semiconductor products and considers its semiconductor products to be one class of products for several reasons. While each product family maintains a market-oriented focus from a marketing perspective and in its product development efforts, any innovation or invention developed by one product family is available to the others. The products are sold to the same types and/or classes of customers and also managed by a single operations and sales group. For these reasons, the Company respectfully submits to the Staff that it does not believe that it has separate product classes which would require disclosure under Item 101(c)(1)(i). The Company has, however, revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to delete the reference to product category.

In order to enhance its disclosure, the Company has also revised the disclosure in “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Position and Results of Operation” in Amendment No. 1 to provide disclosure and discussion of net revenues by target market.

Research and Development, page 81

26. Please disclose the material terms of the agreements that you mention in the third paragraph, including the duration and termination provisions and the material obligations of the parties. Please provide similar information regarding your arrangements with your major distributors mentioned in the next subsection. File material agreements as exhibits to your registration statement.

LATHAM & WATKINS LLP

Response: The Company is not party to any agreements of the type described in the third paragraph of the section captioned “Research and Development” that it views as material.

The Company’s largest distributor relationships are with Avnet, Inc. and Arrow Electronics, Inc. The Company will file the Arrow distribution agreement as an exhibit to the Registration Statement prior to effectiveness. The Company supplementally advises the Staff that there is no distribution agreement between the Company and Avnet (the parties conduct business in a purchase order fashion).

Competition, page 82

- 27. Please identify your competitive position relative to your competitors in each segment where you compete. For example, from your existing disclosure, it is unclear whether the technical specifications that you cite at the bottom of page 79 provide you a competitive advantage.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to identify its competitive position relative to its competitors in each of its target markets.

- 28. Please disclose when your patents expire.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to disclose when its patents expire.

- 29. We note your references to licenses here and on pages 18 and 19. Please disclose the material terms of the licenses, including the duration and termination provisions and the material obligations of the parties. File material licenses as exhibits to your registration statement.

Response: The Company has reviewed this matter and respectfully submits that it is not party to any license of the sort described in this risk factor which individually represents a material contract for purposes of Item 601(b)(10) of Regulation S-K. The Company believes that licenses of this sort are commonly made in the ordinary course of business by semiconductor companies as contemplated by Item 601(b)(10)(ii). Consistent with this industry practice, the Company as a routine matter enters into and renews licenses governing intellectual property with other industry participants. In response to this comment, the Company has also examined the exceptions contained Items 601(b)(10)(ii)(A) through (D), and concluded that none of the agreements to which it is a party individually satisfies any of those exceptions. In addition, based on this analysis the Company has in Amendment No. 1 omitted reference to any particular license in this risk factor.

Facilities, page 85

- 30. Please disclose when material leases expire.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to disclose when its material leases expire.

Environmental, page 85

- 31. We note that your statement regarding compliance is limited to your properties and facilities. Please tell us whether you know or have reason to believe that your suppliers or contractors are non-compliant, and provide your analysis of the materiality of any such non-compliance.

Response: The Company respectfully informs the Staff that as a general policy the Company’s contracts with its suppliers and contractors require such parties to comply with all applicable laws, including environmental laws. In many cases, the contracts require the supplier or contractor to certify as to its compliance with environmental laws, such as the Restrictions of Hazardous Substances Directive, Waste Electrical and Electronic Equipment Directive, etc. The Company has no knowledge of any present non-compliance by its suppliers or contractors as to environmental matters in respect of which the Company expects to have material liability.

- 32. In an appropriate section of your document, please describe the regulations that generate the risk factors on page 24 and describe any material non-compliance.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to include the requested information.

Legal Proceedings, page 86

- 33. Please provide us your analysis supporting your conclusion that you need not disclose the information required by Regulation S-K Item 103 for the pending patent claims mentioned here and on page 18. In your response, include the portion of your business that relies on the patents in dispute.

Response: The Company's legal department monitors carefully and regularly evaluates the Company's pending disputes, including those relating to intellectual property. As indicated in the Company's risk factor disclosure, the semiconductor industry is characterized by companies holding large portfolios of intellectual property and by the vigorous pursuit, protection and enforcement of intellectual property rights. As such, the semiconductor business is a business which ordinarily results in routine intellectual property claims as contemplated by Instruction 1 to Item 103.

Even if Instruction 1 would not be deemed to exclude disclosure under Item 103, Instruction 2 also excludes disclosure with respect to any proceeding that involves primarily a claim for damages if the amount involved, exclusive of interest and costs, does not exceed 10 percent of the current assets of the registrant and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis. It is the Company's view that all of the intellectual property claims presently pending against it are primarily claims for damages. As of August 3, 2008, 10 percent of the Company's consolidated current assets is $58.3 million which significantly exceeds the largest amount ever paid by the Company to resolve an intellectual property dispute, and in the Company's opinion also significantly exceeds the amount reasonably at issue in any intellectual property matter that it is presently defending.

- 34. Please disclose the targets mentioned in clause (i) on page 96, and discuss how those targets resulted in the 2008 merit increases mentioned on page 97.

Response: The Company respectfully submits that the targets are not material to an understanding of the compensation paid to its named executive officers since the number of targets is such that the achievement or failure to achieve any one target will not have a material impact on whether the named executive officer receives an increase in base salary. The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to give examples of the types of targets set for the named executive officers to provide better insight into compensation policies of the Company. The Company has also revised its disclosure to include a discussion of the factors leading to the 2008 merit increases.

35. Please disclose whether Mr. Bettinger's salary is the average indicated in the market survey data. Also disclose the extent to which the salary was adjusted from the market survey data based on "experience" and "level and responsibility of the position;" discuss how the extent of the adjustment was determined.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to indicate the average in the market survey data. Mr. Bettinger's experience and the responsibility of his position as chief financial officer factored into the compensation committee's analysis in determining and negotiating Mr. Bettinger's starting salary; however, these factors were not separately analyzed and a quantitative analysis of their impact was not conducted by the compensation committee. Instead, the compensation committee used the experience and judgment of its members after reviewing these factors and engaging in arms length negotiations with Mr. Bettinger in setting Mr. Bettinger's base salary. The Company has revised its disclosure to reflect the compensation committee's process.

Annual Cash Incentive Program, page 98

36. Please clarify how the factors mentioned in the third paragraph resulted in the participation rates disclosed in the table on the next page. For example, did you use the average Market Salary Survey data? How and why was that rate adjusted by the rate used by Agilent? How and why was the rate further adjusted based on the committee's experience with similar programs?

Response: Each of the factors mentioned in the third paragraph were reviewed by the compensation committee prior to establishing the participation rates of the Company's named executive officers. The compensation committee did not follow a formula or otherwise weigh any of the factors but rather used the factors as general background information prior to determining the participation rates of the named executive officers. The Company has revised its disclosure to reflect this process.

37. Please provide specific disclosure regarding what factors were considered by the compensation committee in determining the amount of the additional discretionary bonus awarded to Bien-Ee Tan. Please refer to Regulation S-K Item 402(b)(2)(v) and (vii).

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to discuss the factors the compensation committee considered in determining Mr. Tan's discretionary bonus.

38. Please show us how the percentages in the table on page 99 resulted in the numbers in the table on page 106.

Response: The amounts in the target column of the Grants of Plan-Based Awards in Fiscal Year 2007 Table can be calculated by multiplying a named executive officer's 2007 base salary times the amount listed for such named executive officer in the "Participation Rate as a Percentage of Base Salary" column in the referenced table. The amount calculated for Mr. Bian-Ee Tan using this method varies slightly because of currency exchange rate fluctuations. The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to include an example of this calculation.

39. Please clarify how the amount of Mr. Ingram's mortgage subsidy substitute was determined and when it expires.

Response: The amount of Mr. Ingram's mortgage subsidy substitute in 2007 was determined based on the mortgage subsidy Mr. Ingram would have been entitled to had he remained employed by the Company's predecessor, Agilent. Agilent's obligation with respect to Mr. Ingram's mortgage subsidy would have run through July 31, 2010, with decreasing amounts becoming payable each year. The Company is under no obligation to make the payment to Mr. Ingram and may increase or decrease it at any time, in its discretion. The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to reflect how the mortgage subsidy substitute was determined.

Equity Incentive Compensation, page 100

- 40. Please discuss the performance-based vesting targets for the period covered by your Compensation Discussion and Analysis and whether the targets were achieved.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 regarding the performance-based vesting targets for fiscal year 2007 and the Company's achievement with respect to such targets.

Summary compensation table, page 105

- 41. Please reconcile the discretionary bonus and non-equity incentive plan compensation awarded to Mr. Stewart shown in the summary compensation table with the amounts shown in the table on page 99.

Response: The Company has revised the referenced disclosure to reflect the proper split between Mr. Stewart's bonus that was earned based on performance and that which was discretionary.

- 42. Please clarify how you "imputed income" from the group term life insurance.

Response: "Imputed income" is the amount of income imputed to a named executive officer for the purchase of group term life insurance by the Company and represents the premiums paid by the Company for group term life insurance for the benefit of named executive officers. Since the purchase of group term life insurance by the Company is a benefit available to all employees on the same terms, the Company has revised its disclosure in the Summary Compensation Table to exclude this imputed income.

- 43. Please explain the Malaysian Employee Provident Fund mentioned in footnote 7. Also tell us where the $143,217 mentioned in that footnote is included in the table.

Response: The Malaysian Employee Provident Fund is an employee provident fund maintained by the Malaysian government for the benefit of Malaysian employees. Payments of 11 percent of a Malaysian employee's salary are required by Malaysian law to be made to the Malaysian Employee Provident Fund and the Company makes an additional 3 percent of salary contribution to the Malaysian Employee Provident Fund voluntarily. Since these contributions are made for all Malaysian employees on a non-discriminatory basis, the Company has removed their disclosure from the Summary Compensation Table.

- 44. We note the changed vesting schedule mentioned in footnote 9. Please tell us why those options are not reported in the option grants table per instructions to Regulation S-K Item 402(d).

Response: The Company respectfully submits that the vesting of Mr. Stewart's options was accelerated after the end of fiscal year 2007. If Mr. Stewart had not remained employed by the Company through November 1, 2007, Mr. Stewart would not have been entitled to this accelerated vesting. If Mr. Stewart is a named executive officer for fiscal year 2008, the Company will include the accelerated vesting of his options in the table for fiscal year 2008.

2007 Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation, page 108

45. Please provide the disclosure addressed in Regulation S-K Item 402(i)(3).

Response: The Company has revised the Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Table in Amendment No. 1 to include the disclosure addressed in Regulation S-K Item 402(i)(3).

46. Please reconcile the amounts in column (c) with the information in your summary compensation table.

Response: The Company has revised the Summary Compensation Table in Amendment No. 1 to include the amounts in column (c) of the Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Table.

James Stewart, page 111

47. We note that the separation agreement occurred before the end of the fiscal year. Please tell us how these amounts are reflected in the summary compensation table.

Response: The Separation Agreement entered into with Mr. Stewart was entered into prior to the end of fiscal year 2007 but was not effective until December 1, 2008 and required his continued service through such date in order for Mr. Stewart to remain eligible for the benefits provided therein. Accordingly, the Company respectfully submits that the compensation payable related to fiscal year 2008.

Potential Severance Payments, page 111

48. Please clarify how actual severance payments differed from the amounts in this table.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to clarify how actual severance payments differed from those set forth in the referenced table.

49. Please clarify how the "case by case basis" mentioned in footnote 2 generated the cash severance bonus mentioned in the table. Also describe how the Malaysian Annual Wage Supplement mentioned in footnote 3 is determined.

Response: The amounts reported in the column "Cash Severance Bonus" for Messrs. Bian-Ee Tan, Ingram and Stewart represent amounts that would have been paid to each named executive officer if he had been terminated on October 31, 2007 based on the Company's past practice of paying the bonus earned for a year on the date of termination if the termination occurs on or after the last day of the applicable fiscal year but prior to the regular payment date for such bonus. While severance benefits are determined on a case by case basis for Malaysian employees and Mr. Bian-Ee Tan is not entitled to any severance from the Company in the event of any termination of his employment, the Company's past practice with respect to bonus payment upon termination makes the payment of such amount likely. The Malaysian Annual Wage Supplement is not applicable to the amounts that would be paid to Mr. Bian-Ee Tan and have been removed from the disclosure.

Limitations of Liability, page 121

- 50. We note that your disclosure in this section is qualified by the Singapore Companies Act. Please explain the extent to which that Act changes the statements made in your disclosure.

Response: The statements disclosed on page 121 of the Registration Statement are currently consistent with the Singapore Companies Act (the “Act”) and would not need to be changed. The disclosure, however, is subject to any future amendments to Section 172 of the Act. Section 172 states that if there is a provision in a company’s articles or in any contract with a company which exempts or indemnifies any director or officer against any liability which by law would otherwise attach in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which such person may be guilty in relation to the company, then such provision shall be void. The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to clarify that its articles are subject to the provisions of the Act in effect from time to time.

Share Issuances, page 123

- 51. With a view toward clarified disclosure, please tell us:

- whether any of your affiliates have any ownership or other affiliation with KKR Capstone; and
- why the investment by an affiliate of Capstone in Bali would result in a subscription for your shares, and when the subscription resulted in the issuance of shares.

Response: As disclosed in the Registration Statement, KKR Capstone is a consulting firm that works exclusively for portfolio companies affiliated with domestic and overseas investment funds that are affiliated with Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. LLC (“KKR”). The Company has been advised that KKR does not have any ownership interest in KKR Capstone.

KKR Capstone made an investment in Bali Investments S.ar.l, a Luxembourg limited company (“Bali”), which was immediately followed by an investment from Bali in Avago. Both transactions were completed on or about February 3, 2006. As disclosed in the Registration Statement, the investment funds affiliated with KKR and Silver Lake Partners also are beneficial owners of Avago through their investments in Bali.

The Company’s disclosure relating to this investment has been clarified.

- 52. Please ensure that you have filed your related-party agreements, including the Capstone consulting agreement and the option agreement mentioned on page 128. Disclose when the option was granted and the nature and duration of the “post-acquisition support activities” provided.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to include the date the option was granted and the nature and duration of the “post-acquisition support activities.” The Company has previously filed the Capstone option agreement with the Registration Statement and is filing the consulting agreement as an exhibit to Amendment No. 1.

LATHAM & WATKINS LLP

Amended and Restated Shareholder Agreement, page 125

53. Please describe how and why the agreement was changed in connection with this offering.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to clarify that the amendments were implemented to delete sections of the agreement that become inoperative once the Company is public and also to remove or limit consent requirements and similar restrictions that were appropriate in a closely held company but were deemed unnecessary in a public company.

54. Please clarify how the provisions of this agreement are enforceable if the equity investors cease to own a majority of your shares.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to clarify that the contractual right is merely to designate one or more directors, but that such directors are subject to election by the shareholders at the Company's annual general meeting.

Advisory Agreement, page 127

55. Based on your disclosure on page 167, it appears that this offering is a financing that requires payment as mentioned in the second paragraph. If so, please say so directly here and quantify the amount of the payment. Also tell us how the payment is reflected in your "Use of Proceeds" disclosure.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 as requested. The amount to be disclosed in "Use of Proceeds" will represent the aggregate amount payable to the equity sponsors in termination of the Advisory Agreement, including the portion related to the financing contemplated by the Registration Statement. This information will be completed when pricing information is inserted and a closing date for the offering can be estimated. An estimated closing date is necessary to calculate the payment because the amount represents the present value of unremitted fees using the then-effective interest rate applicable to treasury securities.

56. Please include a row in the table for James Stewart.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to include a row in the Principal Shareholders table for James Stewart.

57. Refer to footnotes 11 and 17. Shares beneficially owned as defined by applicable rules must be included in the table, even if beneficial ownership is disclaimed.

Response: The Company has confirmed with the shareholder that neither Mr. Clammer nor Mr. Kerko possesses or shares voting or dispositive authority over the shares owned by the investment funds affiliated with KKR, and thus neither has beneficial ownership of such shares. Accordingly, the Company respectfully submits that the disclosure of shares beneficially owned in the table is correct. To clarify the disclosure, however, in Amendment No. 1 the sentence disclaiming beneficial ownership has been removed.

58. Please identify the natural person or persons who, directly or indirectly, exercise sole or shared voting and/or investment powers with respect to the shares held in the name of Seletar and Geyser.

Response: The Company will make an inquiry of these shareholders and respond to this comment once the information is received.

Comparison of Shareholder Rights, page 144

59. The first sentence of this section indicates that you have described only “certain” material differences. Please tell us which material differences you have omitted from your disclosure.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to omit the word “certain.”

60. Expand your comparative discussion of shareholder rights to address whether Singapore law, or your memorandum and articles of incorporation:

- requires a majority of your directors to be independent;
- permits cumulative voting; and
- allows for the issuance of preferred stock or the adoption of other “poison pill” measures that could prevent a takeover attempt and thereby preclude shareholders from realizing a potential premium over the market value of their shares.

Response: The Company notes to the Staff that neither Delaware nor Singapore law requires that a majority of a board of directors be independent; independence requirements are based on stock exchange listing requirements in compliance with federal securities laws. The Company has included disclosure in the Registration Statement regarding its compliance with such independence requirements and its intent to rely on the “controlled company” exemption provided thereunder. Accordingly, the Company respectfully submits that expanding the referenced disclosure to address the first bullet point above is unnecessary. The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to provide the requested comparative disclosure with respect to the second and third bullet points.

Quorum Requirements, page 147

61. Please clarify how a meeting could ever be attended by less than a majority of the shares present.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to clarify that for a quorum to exist there must be present, in person or by proxy, shareholders holding a majority of the ordinary shares of the Company.

Shareholder Action Without A Meeting, page 150

62. Please reconcile your statement regarding written consents with section 35 of exhibit 3.2.

Response: The Company has deleted Section 35(a) in its revised form of Memorandum and Articles of Association which incorrectly provided for shareholder action by written consent, so that it is consistent with the disclosure in the Registration Statement. The revised Memorandum and Articles of Association has been filed as an exhibit to Amendment No. 1.

Passive Foreign Investment Company, page 160

- 63. Discuss an investor's option under IRS rules to make or maintain a Qualified Electing Fund ("QEF") election should you be deemed to be a Passive Foreign Investment Company. In particular, disclose whether you intend to provide an investor with the information needed to make or maintain a QEF election.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to discuss an investor's option under IRS rules to make a QEF election should the Company be deemed a Passive Foreign Investment Company. The Company also revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to state that it does not intend to provide an investor with the information needed to make or maintain a QEF election.

Underwriting, page 164

- 64. From the third paragraph under the table, it is unclear whether the option to acquire additional shares is solely to cover over-allotments. Please revise or advise.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to clarify that the option to acquire additional shares is solely to cover over-allotments.

- 65. Please address the last sentence of Regulation S-K Item 508(l)(1).

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to address the last sentence of Regulation S-K Item 508(l)(1).

- 66. Please describe the applicability of Regulation M to the statement that in connection with the offering "the underwriters may purchase and sell our ordinary shares in the open market."

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 in response to the Staff's comment.

Relationships, page 167

- 67. With a view toward clarified disclosure, please tell us whether any of the underwriters will receive any of the proceeds from the offering used to repay debt or otherwise.

Response: Other than discounts paid by the Company, the Company has been advised that none of the underwriters expect to receive any of the proceeds from the offering, except to the extent that the underwriters hold debt securities that are repaid with the proceeds of the offering. The Company understands that one underwriter currently holds as principal an amount of the 10 1/8% senior notes due 2013 of Avago Finance. The underwriters and their affiliates may from time to time purchase or sell debt or equity securities of the Company as principal. In the interest of more relevant disclosure, the Company undertakes to supplementally inform the Staff, as of a date closer to the Offering and prior to the printing of the preliminary prospectus, of the amount of debt securities, if any, then held as principal by the underwriters that would be repurchased with proceeds of the Offering, and to make appropriate revisions to the disclosure as necessary. In addition, the underwriters or their affiliates may from time to time hold debt securities of the Company's subsidiaries on behalf of customers or for the benefit of investors in investment funds managed by affiliates of the underwriters.

As noted on page 174 of Amendment No. 1, Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co., L.P. is entitled to a fee equal to 0.5% of the aggregate value of the offering contemplated by the Registration Statement, pursuant to the terms of the Advisory Agreement entered into on December 1, 2005 in connection with the closing of the SPG Acquisition. Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co., L.P. is an affiliate of KKR Capital Markets LLC. As noted on pages 38 and 132 of Amendment No. 1, the Company intends to terminate the Advisory Agreement upon the completion of this offering pursuant to its right to terminate in connection with a change of control or initial public offering, and to make the required termination payment to Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co., L.P. and Silver Lake Management Company of the present value of unpaid quarterly advisory fees that, absent termination, would otherwise be paid over the remaining term of the agreement, in accordance with the Advisory Agreement.

- 68. Please clarify whether the reference to past services in the first sentence of the last paragraph of this section refers to the services mentioned in the previous paragraphs of this section. If not, please describe the services with greater specificity.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 in response to the Staff's comment.

Stamp Taxes, page 168

- 69. Please clarify whether United States investors must pay any stamp taxes.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to clarify that stamp taxes will not be imposed by the United States on investors in connection with the purchase of ordinary shares in the Offering.

Where You Can Find Additional Information, page 172

- 70. We note from your cover letter that you intend to use domestic forms although you believe that you are a foreign private issuer. We also note your disclosure here that you intend to file proxy statements. With a view toward clarified disclosure, please tell us whether you intend to apply any of the Exchange Act exemptions available to foreign private issuers, such as Rule 3a12-3(b). Also tell us whether your subsidiaries will continue to use forms available only to foreign private issuers.

Response: The Company does not presently intend to apply any of the Exchange Act exemptions available to foreign private issuers. As noted in the cover letter, the Company has one reporting subsidiary, Avago Finance, which presently furnishes periodic reports to the Commission as a voluntary filer in accordance with reporting requirements contained in the indentures governing its outstanding notes. From and after the Company becoming a reporting company under the Exchange Act, Avago Finance intends to file on the same forms as used by its parent, i.e., the forms applicable to a domestic issuer.

LATHAM & WATKINS LLP

We do note, however, that the Commission has pending proposed amendments to the rules applicable to foreign private issuers (Release Nos. 33-8900; 34-57409; International Series Release No. 1308). Should the proposed rules be adopted or other significant rule changes applicable to foreign private issuers be amended materially prior to the Company's registration statement being declared effective, the Company may reconsider its position and related disclosure as to when it terminates use of the foreign private issuer forms.

Financial Statements

General

71. Please update the financial statements when required by Rule 3-12 of Regulation S-X.

Response: The Company confirms that Amendment No. 1 includes updated financial statements required by Rule 3-12 of Regulation S-X.

Audit Report, page F-3

72. We note the combined balance sheet at October 31, 2005 referenced in the audit report on page F-3 is not included in this filing. Please revise the financial statements to include this balance sheet or have your auditors remove the reference to the combined balance sheet in their report.

Response: The auditors have revised their report in Amendment No. 1 to remove the reference to the combined balance sheet from the audit report.

Note 1. The Subsidiary Guarantors, page F-10

73. Please tell us whether Avago Technologies Limited is an issuer or guarantor of the outstanding notes or senior credit agreement. In addition, we note the discussion in the first sentence stating that you and your "material" subsidiaries are issuers or guarantors.... Please clarify how you define material and whether all subsidiaries not included in this discussion are considered minor as defined in Rule 3-10(h)(6) of Regulation S-X. Please revise to disclose the reason that separate financial statements are not required for Avago Technologies Limited under Rule 3-10. In addition, tell us the specific paragraph of Rule 3-10 you relied on for the exception to the general rule of paragraph a(1) and the guidance you relied on for the reporting relief from providing condensed consolidating financial information.

Response: The Company acknowledges that this disclosure was inaccurate and has corrected Amendment No. 1. The Company notes that it is not an issuer or guarantor of the notes or the obligations under the senior credit agreement. Accordingly, Item 3-10 is not applicable to the Company.

Note 8. Retirement Plans and Post-Retirement Benefits, page F-34

74. We note that your assumption for the ultimate medical cost trend rate reflect a decrease from 10% to 5% from the current medical cost trend rate. Please revise to disclose the basis for this decline in the medical cost trend rate.

Response: The Company respectfully submits that the initial medical cost trend of 10 percent used in its Predecessor's financial statements represented the anticipated health care costs for the next fiscal year, while the ultimate medical cost trend of 5 percent represented the rate expected in 5 years. The Company understands that the difference between the initial trend and the ultimate trend was based on discussions involving the Predecessor and its actuaries and represented the then macro-economic view that health care costs were expected to trend down towards the 5 percent level in 5-6 years. The Company respectfully submits that it has not revised the disclosure in Amendment No. 1 because the disclosure relates to financial statements that were issued by Predecessor.

Note 11. Shareholders' Equity, page F-39

75. We reference your discussion in Note 11 of the ordinary shares issued to employees that should be considered temporary equity under Accounting Series Release No. 268. Please revise to classify these amounts outside of permanent equity as required by ASR 268.

Response: The Company respectfully submits that the temporary equity was 1.7 percent of total shareholders' equity as of August 3, 2008 and less than 3 percent in any of the periods presented as per below. This relative percentage will be further significantly reduced upon completion of the offering contemplated by the Registration Statement. On the basis of materiality and considering the disclosure already made in the footnotes, the Company does not believe it is necessary to show this information as a separate caption on the balance sheet.

Temporary Equity	$ 19	$ 17	$ 13
Total Shareholders' Equity	$ 842	$ 693	$ 756
	2.3%	2.5%	1.7%

Note 12. Restructuring and Asset Impairment Charges, page F-45

76. Please revise to disclose the events and circumstances that resulted in the significant impairment charges recorded during the year ended October 31, 2007.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to include additional disclosure in Note 12 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Note 16. Sale of the Camera Module Business, page F-52

77. Please revise to disclose the reason that the sale of the camera module business did not meet the requirements of SFAS 144 to be reflected as a discontinued operation.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to discuss why the sale of the camera module business did not meet the requirements of SFAS 144 to be reflected as a discontinued operation.

Based on SFAS 144 and EITF 03-13, Predecessor concluded that it had continuing involvement with the disposed business as it would continue to be the primary supplier to the buyer

Note 17. Discontinued Operations, pages F-53 to F-57

78. Please tell us how the discontinued operations amounts included on pages F-53 to F-58 agree with the statements of operations.

Response: The discontinued operations amounts included in Note 17 to the Consolidated Financial Statements of the Registration Statement did not include disclosure on the results of operations from the “point of care testing” operation of the Company, which was sold in the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2007, because it was not material. The Consolidated Statement of Operations includes the results from the “point of care testing” operation in “income from and gain on discontinued operations, net of income taxes.”

The Company supplementally advises the Staff that the “point of care testing” operations’ assets sold as of the closing date consisted of $1 million of inventory, and the amounts included in income (loss) from and gain on discontinued operations, net of income taxes was $(2) million, $0 million, $(2) million and $(2) million, $(2) million and $0 million for the year ended October 31, 2005, the one month ended November 30, 2005, the years ended October 31, 2006 and 2007, and the nine months ended July 31, 2007 and August 3, 2008, respectively.

79. We note your disclosure on page F-10 that you are the issuer and guarantor of notes. Please tell us why those securities transactions are not disclosed in this section.

Response: As also noted in response to Comment 73, this disclosure was inaccurate and has been corrected in Amendment No. 1. The Company is not an issuer or guarantor of the notes.

80. We note your reference to 1,946 investors on page II-2. Please provide us your analysis of whether you were required to register your securities under Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act. Cite all authority on which you rely.

Response: Of the 1,946 investors identified on page II-2, 113 are holders of ordinary shares and 1,946 have been granted options to purchase ordinary shares under compensatory stock option programs. The aggregate total is greater than 1,946 due to the fact that some employees hold both ordinary shares and compensatory stock options.

The Company respectfully submits that the ordinary shares and the compensatory stock options are each a separate class of equity securities for purposes of analysis under Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act. With respect to the ordinary shares, registration under the Exchange Act is not required prior to the initial public offering contemplated by this registration statement because such class is held by fewer than 300 or more persons resident in the United States as provided in Rule 12g3-2(a). With respect to the compensatory stock options, the Company is in compliance with the exemption provided for in Rule 12h-1(f), which exemption was perfected prior to the time that the Company would otherwise have been required to file a registration statement under the Exchange Act in respect of such class of equity securities.

Exhibits

81. Please ensure that your incorporation by reference is accurate. For example, some of the exhibits that refer to footnote 1 are not filed with the version of the registration statement cited in that footnote.

Response: The Company has revised the incorporation by reference to resolve any inaccuracies.

82. Please tell us why the tax opinions mentioned on page 158 are not filed. Also file appropriate consents.

Response: The Company confirms that it will file the requested tax opinions and consents in a pre-effective amendment to the Registration Statement.

83. Please identify who provided the advice mentioned on pages ii and 29, and file that party's consent as an exhibit.

Response: The Company has revised its disclosure in Amendment No. 1 to remove the reference to third party advice.

84. Please file complete exhibits, including exhibits and other attachments to those documents. For example, we note the exhibits missing from exhibits 10.45 and 10.46.

Response: The Company has filed with Amendment No. 1 exhibits and other attachments to the exhibits.

85. Please tell us why you include in this filing only a portion of the indentures identified in the registration statement related to the 2007 exchange offer.

Response: The Company has revised Amendment No. 1 to incorporate by reference its previously filed supplemental indentures identified in the Registration Statement on Form F-4 (file no. 333-137644) filed by Avago Finance in connection with its 2007 exchange offer. In addition, the Company has filed as exhibits to Amendment No. 1 additional supplemental indentures entered into since the time of the exchange offer. Accordingly, all of the amendments and supplements to the indentures have been filed with Amendment No. 1.

86. Please provide us your analysis supporting your conclusion that you need not file the collective bargaining agreements mentioned on page 84.

Response: The Company respectfully submits that all of its collective bargaining agreements represent contracts "such as ordinarily accompanies the kind of business conducted by the registrant and its subsidiaries" which by operation of Item 601(b)(10) of Regulation S-K are not required to be filed unless the contract falls into one or more of the categories specified in that item. The only sub-item that a collective bargaining agreement could arguably fall under is 601(b)(10)(ii)(B) and then only if the registrant's business is "substantially dependent." As indicated in the Registration Statement, approximately 8 percent of the Company's employees are covered by the Singapore collective bargaining agreement. The Singapore collective bargaining agreement is being filed as an exhibit to Amendment No. 1.
